VOLUME V.

NOVEMBER, 1911

NUMBER 2

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Ribric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish.

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church, and those desiring the necessary envelopes will kindly make application to the Rector, or the Accounting Warden, Dr. John Wilkinson, Jr., 2032 Bainbridge street.

VESTRY MEETING.

A very important meeting of the Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Paul's Memorial Church will be held in the Vestry room, Wednesday evening, November 8th, 1911. Every member is expected to be present.

(Signed) ROBT. W. MONTGOMERY,
Secretary.

COLLECTION COMMITTEE.

The following men chosen from the Vestry and the Senior Chapter of the Brotherhood, are asked to take up the collections at the morning and evening services during the month of November:

10.30 A. M. SERVICE.
Dr. John Wilkinson, Jr.
William M. Beardwood.
Robert J. Galbraith.
Robert J. Skillen.

7.45 P. M. SERVICE.
Samuel J. Buck, Sr.
Robert W. Montgomery.
Myers T. Ackley.
Henry Moore.

CHOIR NOTES FOR NOVEMBER

While a large choir is desirable, precision and accuracy should not be sacrificed. We would be glad to have about two tenors and two basses added to our chorus. We hope to sing during November "Te Dum, King Holl in Bb flat." Anthems: "O Taste and See," Sir John Goss; "I Am Alpha and Omega," Stainer; "Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem," Maunder; The Radiant Morn Hath Passed," Woodward; "What Are These," Stainer.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

The attendance of the Sunday School is steadily increasing since the beginning of October, and the new secretary and treasurer, Mr. Samuel J. Buck, Jr., is working faithfully to secure a careful and accurate list of the teachers and scholars. The Teachers' Training Class is meeting every Wednesday evening in the Chapel at 8 o'clock. Members of the Sunday School and all those who are interested in the weekly lessons are invited to attend the class. We are pleased to welcome Miss Florence Richardson, who has taken a class of boys from the Intermediate Department, and hope other members of our congregation will be moved by the Holy Spirit to take classes which are ready for promotion. The Sunday School is in a most flourishing condition, but we need more teachers. Who will volunteer?

ST. MARTHA'S GUILD.

President—Miss Ada Norton.
Vice President—Miss Violet Walters.
Secretary—Miss Ada Norton.
Treasurer—Miss Edna Shreve.
Heads—Mrs. Emma Gillin and Miss Clara Schofield.

The meetings at the children's home have been successful, and we have had a large attendance, and hope more of the children of the Sunday School will join us.

Since the last issue of the "Chronicle" we have had an October party for the Parish Building Furnishing Fund. We will let you know of its success later.

ADA NORTON, Secretary.

POSTURES.

We sit to hear lessons or sermons; kneel to pray, and stand to read or sing—all as a matter of convenience or propriety. We also stand for the Creed as a mark of loyalty and readiness (compare "saluting the flag"), and in the Communion service also for the Gospel and the Gloria in Excelsis. In these cases our standing is said to symbolize our respect for the holiest portion of God's Holy Word, and to give highest praise. A stranger who follows these simple customs cannot go far wrong in the service.

THE PARISH CHRONICLE

THE YOUNG MEN'S GUILD.

On the 9th of this month our Guild is five years old, and to celebrate our birthday we intend having our annual banquet, probably at the Continental Hotel, and which is a fitting tribute to our spirit of good-fellowship. And although this will, no doubt, be an enjoyable evening, it does not constitute all that our anniversary implies. When we look back over what has been done during the past five years it is an incentive for renewed energy for the beginning of our sixth year. And it may seem optimistic, but we cannot review our five years' existence without a feeling of natural pride, caused by our good fortune, together with the success and harmony in our ranks, and for which it is the duty of every loyal member to be thankful.

The basketball league of the Brotherhood of Protestant Church Clubs of Philadelphia opens this month, and St. Paul's will be represented by a first and second team, and at present the prospect is very bright for the first team, at least. Mr. Charles Solly has been elected as our basketball manager for this season, and he gives promise of turning out championship teams.

The baseball season has been completed and has proved a very successful one for the Guild.

On Thursday evening, October 5th, the members of our association were the guests of the Men's Club of the Church of St. Jude and the Nativity, and at which time we spent a thoroughly enjoyable evening.

Some of our members were present on October 11th at the Parish reunion, where a pleasant evening was passed, and it afforded a good opportunity for every one to become better acquainted with the people of St. Paul's. The Guild did what little they could to make this affair a success.

Our President, Mr. Charles A. Long, has been elected to the Board of Governors of the Middle Atlantic Association of the Amateur Athletic Union, and will represent us in that body.

Mr. S. Wharton Haney, our Historian, has returned to the city and also our meetings, and we are glad to welcome him after a long absence.

The first meeting of the month proved a success as a party night, and as it is looked upon with such favor by all the members the custom will be continued.

Following is a list of our meetings, as scheduled until December 4th, inclusive:

November 6th—Benjamin F. Emery.
November 13th—Harry G. Belz.
November 20th—Charles A. Long.
November 27th—Eugene F. Gillin.
December 4th—S. Wharton Haney.
STUART WHITE, Secretary.

THE JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD.

Since the last issue of the "Parish Chronicle" the Juniors have had two very interesting and helpful meetings at the home of Richard Widdows and Howard Watfield.

On the fourth Sunday in October at the Corporate Communion of the Senior and Junior Chapters four members who had served their period of probation were admitted to full membership.

The personal work of the Chapter has shown its effect by the increased attendance of the boys at church and Sunday School. Boys, let us keep up the good work.

Elmer Lockhart, 2409 South Woodstock street, November 13th, 1911.
Alexander Skeath, Twentieth and Porter streets, November 27th, 1911.

THE YOUNG WOMEN'S SOCIAL CHAPTER.

The members are diligently practicing for the entertainment, the date of which has not been decided upon. We expect to have it in the first week of December. It will be held somewhere downtown, but the committee has not been able to tell us as yet. As soon as we find out the notice will be placed on the bulletin board of the church.

The meetings during the month of November will be held:

Nov. 7. Miss Emily Swallow, 2123 South Sixteenth street.
Nov. 14. Miss Margaret Rhoades, 1917 South Sixteenth street.
Nov. 21. Miss Crissie Pitt, 2214 South Juniper street.
Nov. 28. Miss Lydia Dean, 1840 South Sixteenth street.
Dec. 5. Miss Edna W. Kampen, 2432 South Fifteenth street.

TO OUR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS.

Through the kindness of friends in the business world we are able to publish and circulate "The Parish Chronicle."

We would therefore ask our people to kindly
study our advertising columns and patronize
our advertisers, always remembering to mention "The Parish Chronicle."

This is a fair request, we think, and we hope our people will help us, help themselves,

RECTOR'S LETTER.

Memorial Church of St. Paul,

November, 1911.

Dear Friends and Parishioners:

The seventh anniversary of St. Paul's Memorial Church was celebrated on the second Sunday in October, and the "Parish Reunion" was held in the Plaza Building on Wednesday evening, October 11th.
Both of these events were marked with great joy and thanksgiving, and in spite of the fact that we had no Parish Building this year in which to hold the "Parish Reunion," there was a larger attendance than ever before in the history of the Parish, and every one present seemed to be well pleased with the arrangements made by the committee having this matter in charge. A vote of thanks was extended to one of our Vestrymen, who procured for us the Plaza Building,

by the committee appointed for that purpose, and all the bills were paid within a week after the Parish Reunion. It was a grand success, and we trust the next anniversary will be held in the new Parish House with greater numbers present.

One thing I should like very much to impress upon you all this month is the Parish Furnishing Fund. Several pledges have been made, some of which are payable on or before January 1, 1912. But these pledges will not complete the whole amount ($5000) promised by the congregation of St. Paul's Church. About $1400 will be needed before the necessary sum is received by the Accounting Warden. Nothing should engage the attention of the congregation at the present time but this one object. All other things should be subservient to it. In the words of the Apostle we should say as individual members and as members of different societies, "This one thing I do."
We have all entered into an agreement to raise $5000, and we will not allow anything to thwart our purpose. Let us bend our energies and work towards this one goal—$5000 before January 1st, 1912.

Again I would remind you that Church and State will join in mutual prayers of thanksgiving on a day set apart by the Chief Executive of the United States.
The last Thursday in November has been chosen as a day of General Thanksgiving. This is one day in the year when all Christian churches should be glad to summon their congregations to prayer and thanksgiving. By a very happy coincidence, Thanksgiving Day this year falls on the same day which the Church has appointed for the commemoration of St.
Andrew, one of our Lord's first disciples.
We trust that many will find it convenient to attend the morning service at 10.30 A. M.

Hoping that every effort will be made in the next two months to increase the Parish Furnishing Fund and that every worshipper in St. Paul's Church will attend the Thanksgiving Day service, I am,

Faithfully yours,

EDWIN S. CARSON.

TARDINESS.

At both the morning and evening services during the month of October we have noticed quite a number of our people coming into church when the services are half finished. For some there is an excuse. For others there is no excuse. Ask yourself, dear reader (if you are guilty), is it fair to come to church twenty or thirty minutes after the service has begun? Is it fair to the Lord? Is it fair to the minister and the other members of the congregation?

PARISH NOTES.

The Parish House Furnishing Fund should receive more attention, as it is the means to an end—a complete Parish House in 1912.

The ladies of the Dorcas Society are planning another Rummage Sale, to be given in the early part of November. Don't forget the Rummage Sale.

Miss Clara Schofield, choir-mother, deserves much praise for her untiring efforts in keeping the choir vestments so spotlessly clean and neat. Give her a word of praise and tell her how much you appreciate her work.

Quite a number of strangers and visitors have been attending the church services during the past two months. Always greet them and make them feel welcome.

A beautiful memorial window for the Chapel has been promised by the devoted sisters of Miss Nataline Crumpton, who died in California this summer. It is hoped that the window will be finished and placed in the Chapel by St. Paul's Day, January 25th, 1912.

Have you paid your subscription for the "Parish Chronicle?"

DORCAS SOCIETY.

The past month showed an increase in the attendance and also an increase in membership. The following names have been added to our roll since our last issue of the "Parish Chronicle": Mrs. Rowan, Mrs. Connor and Mrs. Thompson. Let every member keep up this good work, and we will soon reach forty in our membership.

The members have begun work making gingham aprons, which are on sale by applying to any member of the Dorcas for any person wishing to purchase. Large utility aprons will be made to order. We hope the ladies of the church will purchase aprons from the Dorcas when needed and tell their friends about them. Best gingham used in all aprons. The prices vary according to the kind you purchase. Proceeds from these aprons will go towards the Parish Building furnishing; so help the good cause along.

By the time this issue is printed our Rummage Sale will be a thing of the past. We wish to thank all who so kindly donated toward this sale.

The meetings during the month of November will be held at the following homes:

November 6th—Mrs. Gardner, 2338 South Broad street.

November 13th—Miss Foster, 2314 South Seventeenth street.

November 20th—Mrs. Sims, 1637 Porter street.

November 27th—Mrs. Galbraith, 1930 South Bouvier street.

If the stay-at-home members would only realize how interesting our meetings are I am sure we would have thirty-two members attend them instead of twenty-two. There are some members who have not attended any one meeting since we started in for another year of work.

Dear readers, there are two ways of beginning our Dorcas work: By attending these meetings or staying away. You began in one of these ways. Which?

There are two ways of beginning the day: With prayer or without it. You begin the day in one of these ways. Which?

There are two ways of spending the Sabbath: Idly or devotionally. You spend the Sabbath in one of these ways. Which?

There are two classes of people in the world: The righteous and the wicked. You belong to one of these two classes. Which?

There are two great rulers in the universe: God and Satan. You are serving under one of these two great rulers. Which?

There are two roads which lead through time to eternity: The broad and the narrow road. You are walking in one of these two roads. Which?

There are two deaths which people die: Some "die in the Lord;" others die in their sins. You will die one of these days. Which?

Ponder over these questions, dear readers, and as children of Christ let us strive to do all things for Him with a willing heart and our reward will be life eternal.

Our early celebration on Sunday, October 15th, was as well attended as we could expect, owing to our anniversary Sunday falling the Sunday previous. Let us aim for twenty members to be present on November 19th, and our Rector will feel greatly encouraged.

MRS. E. GILLIN, Secretary.

ST. PAUL'S CHAPTER, No. 1824.
BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

The meetings of the Chapter during November will be as follows:

Nov. 10, 1911—At the home of Mr. Wm. M. Beardwood, 1842 South Fifteenth Street.

Nov. 24—At the home of Mr. John G. Bruder, 2414 South Fifteenth Street.

Our members are reminded of the Annual Meeting of the Philadelphia Local Assembly, at the Church of the Saviour, Thirty-eighth Street, above Chestnut, on Wednesday Afternoon and Evening, November 29, 1911. We want all to attend.

The annual service of St. Paul's Chapter will be held as usual on the first Sunday in Advent, December 3, 1911. The Corporate Communion for the men and boys of the Parish at the 10.30 A. M. service, and the annual service for the men and boys of the Parish in the evening. We will sit in a body in the pews reserved. Special Sermon and Special Music. Be sure to attend.

Do we realize the importance and the magnitude of the work? The spirit of co-operation is seen on every hand and the present Men and Religion Forward Movement is uniting the forces and has an unparalleled opportunity of correlating the growing types of Christian effort, gathering that which is best and warning of that which is superficial.

The Movement is enlisting very wide sympathy and interest because of its comprehensive and commanding message, covering Boys' Work, Bible Study, Evangelism, Social Service and Missionary Extension. It is big enough to have the right to life and its bigness makes it safe. Moreover, much of its attractiveness springs from the dovetailing together of lines of work often heretofore considered apart, such as Social Service and Evangelism.

The different phases of the Movement are as follows:

BOYS' WORK: The best way to win a man is to catch him when he is a boy and to deal with him as a boy, not as an infant or a full-grown man. Surveys of the whole field of Boys' Work will be made, in order to learn the local progress of adolescent Christianity, and to plan for coping with the tremendous problem of holding the boy and helping him to be clean and manly.

BIBLE STUDY: A knowledge of the Bible is essential to a large and vigorous religious life and growth. It has been said that what the trunk is to the tree, Bible Study is to this Movement; hence the aim to interest more Men and Boys in this vital subject and to improve the present methods of Bible Class teaching.

EVANGELISM: Evangelism must pervade every department of the Movement, creating the passion for Social Service, Boys' Work, Bible Study and Missions. The first responsibility for Evangelism, however, must rest on each Church, as permanency can obtain, in the great majority of cases, only where pastors and members of the local Church are the individual, personal workers. The Evangelistic Committee will be charged with the problem of Church membership and of contributing some form of organized personal work to the life of each Church.

SOCIAL SERVICE: A splendid opportunity is afforded to show that Social Service is an essential part of Christianity, and to accomplish, under the guidance of experts who understand the problems, tremendous results for human uplift, by investigations of the lodging and tenement-house conditions, sanitariums, play-grounds, saloons, theatres and moving-picture shows, child labor, the Sunday question and many other kindred problems. Here is a form of service which will appeal to busy men and hold them to the Church when otherwise they would slip away for want of an engaging task.

MISSIONS: The growing tendency to make no distinction between home, foreign and city missions is followed in this Movement—all receiving equal attention under the direction of the Committee on Missions. A unified plan has been adopted, looking to the most effective pressing of the missionary emphasis and the preservation of the magnificent work of the various boards and societies.

This Movement is a man's job. Its cardinal purpose is service and it has a well-rounded program that is large enough and broad enough to demand the attention of the busiest man. Who is he who can afford to neglect it?

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church, and those

CHOIR NOTES.

The choir attendance has greatly improved during the past month, and we are glad to welcome several new choristers. Preparation will soon be made for the Lenten and Easter music. The "Story of Calvary," a sacred oratorio, will be sung by the choir on Good Friday evening. The rehearsals are held in the Chapel every Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, and a cordial invitation is extended to those desirous of helping in the musical part of the church service to attend.

VESTRY MEETING.

The Vestrymen of St. Paul's Memorial Church are asked to be present at the regular Vestry meeting on February 15th, at 7.30 o'clock. It is very important that every member be present at this meeting.

ROBT. W. MONTGOMERY,
Secretary.

COLLECTION COMMITTEE.

The following men, chosen from the Vestry and Senior Chapter of the Brotherhood, will serve on the "Collection Committee" from Sunday, February 11th, to Sunday, March 3d, inclusive:

10.30 A. M. Service:—

Joseph W. Gardiner,
Maurice J. Crean,
Albert E. Holloway, Jasper Buck.

7.45 P. M. Service:—

Thomas S. Boyle,
Robert J. Makins,
William H. Martin,
Peter A. Lynch.

ST. ANDREW.

If nothing else was known of St. Andrew he would be remembered because he brought his brother to the Saviour. For reasons too long and too intricate to discuss many would find it more easy to learn Chinese and labor among the heathen than to exert a spiritual influence over a near relative. It may be that our nearest of kin know our faults better than other persons do. We are accustomed to speak with them on the most common details of life—on meat and raiment, on the weather and on tax bills. Whatever the cause or causes, it is a fact that it is a difficult matter to reach the heart of a brother, and St. Andrew did it. No wonder that a widespread society bears his name, and that a popular hymn tells of the call that came to him by "the Galilean lake."

The outdoor life of a fisherman had its dull nights of vain toil and its exciting times of nets full of struggling captives. It was not unusual for winds to burst upon the lake with such fury that little vessels went to the bottom. From the night on which our Lord slept while the storm raged we can think of many like scenes in which St. Andrew took his share. Before the Saviour called him to be a fisher of men he had learned how to work with the waves dashing into his face, how to keep a straight course, how to bear all the ups and downs of his calling. From the days in which Homer told of the solitary wanderer along the beach to the days of Kipling and the cod fleet off Newfoundland there has been a charm about the water felt even by those who have only seen minor streams and little inland lakes. In reading the grand passages of Biblical writers about the sea we forget that the largest body of water of which they knew anything was the Mediterranean.

Little is said by the Evangelists of St. Andrew. He mentioned that a lad had five loaves and two fishes, adding "what are they among so many?" It is also stated that Peter and James and John and Andrew were present with our Lord as He sat upon the Mount of Olives and foretold the end of the world. A few moments may count for a great deal in a man's life, and the words then heard may have sunk deep in the heart of the fisher-Apostle. He must have been well acquainted with Sts. James and John, his brother's partners, and this gave him a certain standing among the Apostles and their earliest disciples.

The book of Acts mentions St. Andrew as being with the rest of the Apostles at the election of St. Matthias, but does not give us a report of any of his discourses. Ancient writers speak of his missionary journeys, and say that he was put to death on a cross different in form from that ordinarily used by the Romans. This tradition was evidently accepted by the revisers of the First Book of Edward, the Prayer Book of 1549, which contains the following Collect:

Almighty God, which hast given such grace to Thy Apostle Saint Andrew that he counted sharp and painful death on the cross to be a high honour and a great glory. Grant us to take and esteem all troubles and adversities which shall come unto us for Thy sake as things profitable for us toward the obtaining of everlasting life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.—Sunday School Magazine.

CHURCH PAPERS.

You cannot be a thoroughly good citizen of the Kingdom of God without reading the news and thought of the Church any more than you can be a good citizen of your country and know nothing of her political and moral problems. The Rector will, therefore, be glad to receive your subscription to any of the various Church publications. The leading papers are: "The Living Church," "The Churchman" and the "Southern Churchman." Of these the best all-around paper is "The Living Church," published weekly at $2.50 per year. The news of the Church is conveniently and attractively arranged in this paper, and it has a very wide circulation. And then there is the monthly "Spirit of Missions," published under the auspices of the Board of Missions. It is a bright, up-to-date magazine full of interesting articles by our missionaries at home and abroad. One of the Church papers and the "Spirit of Missions" should be in every home. If the laity were faithful readers of the Church papers the clergy can save 50 per cent. of their energy and devote that time and energy to more important matters in the parish.

MEMORIAL WINDOW.

The service for the unveiling of the window in the Chapel was held on Sunday morning, Jan. 28th. Quite a large congregation attended this service, and the many friends of Miss M. Nataline Crumpton, in whose memory the window has been given, were pleased with the artistic and careful work of the D'Ascenzo Studios. The workmanship and general tone of the window is most excellent. We are sincerely grateful to Miss Kate Crumpton and Mrs. F. F. Nicola for this magnificent memorial window, and trust its place in St. Paul's Church will always be a bond to unite them to their many friends whom they have in South Philadelphia and also bring them into closer association with one whom they loved so dearly while on earth.

THE YOUNG WOMEN'S SOCIAL
CHAPTER.

The severe weather has kept some of our frozen chums away, but we hope for warmer Tuesday nights. If they only knew what news they were missing over the chocolate cups, the weather surely would not stop them.

On January 16th we had election of officers. The president, secretary and treasurer were unanimously re-elected for another year, the only change being that of vice-president.

President, Miss Edna Cohill.
Vice-President, Miss Nellie Dever.
Secretary, Miss Edna Kampen.
Treasurer, Miss Ethel Stenger.

Although we have had a social evening every week, we look forward to our special evening January 30th, and then again the last one before Lent, on February 20th. The treasurer has $15 to give from the Social Chapter toward the Parish Furnishing Fund.

The President urges the members to be present at the Corporate Communion on February 11th.

The meetings will be held at the following homes in February:

Feb. 6th—Miss M. Rhoades.
Feb. 13th—Miss N. Devir.
Feb. 20th—Miss L. Boyd.
Feb. 27th—Miss E. Stenger.

Take Notice!!

Two of our members are industriously sewing every week. We wonder what for?

Take notice to our new Vice-President. Officers are expected to be present every week. Take the hint.

We would like Miss Rae Shreve to make her dates on some other evening rather than Tuesday.

The Social Chapter is glad to hear of Stuart White's recovery.

We have discovered some expert card-players in our midst.

If you want any news concerning downtown society circles, ask our Information Bureau. They know it all.

Secretary.

RECTOR'S LETTER.

Memorial Church of St. Paul.

February, 1912.

Dear Friends and Parishioners:

This month of February will be noteworthy in two respects. In the first place, it will be an important month in the spiritual life of those who will receive the sacred Rite of Confirmation, on Quinquagesima Sunday, February 18th. We cannot over-estimate the importance of this Service of Confirmation. Every communicant member of St. Paul's Church should be present at this service and lend his aid and offer his prayers for the spiritual strengthening of the candidates who are receiving this sacred Rite.

In the second place, this month will be noteworthy because it will usher in the solemn season of Lent. Lent is one of those periods of the church year which may be used for spiritual growth and development or it may be passed over by some without any sense of individual responsibility or personal development in the spiritual things of life. As I look over the parish register there are four classes of communicants that I find from year to year. To which class, dear reader, do you belong?

1. I am deeply anxious that this season of Lent shall be of value to the NEWLY CONFIRMED MEMBERS of our church. As one of that number will you kindly receive this as a personal letter from your Rector, reading it thoughtfully?

Those of you who have recently received the sacred Rite of Confirmation will need to use all diligence in beginning your Christian life. Plan some definite rules for prayer and self-examination. Be faithful in your attendance at the Holy Communion.

2. Many of you who will receive this letter are not only confirmed members of Christ's Church, but FAITHFUL COM-MUNICANTS. I know that I shall see you at the Communion rail regularly during this Lenten season. Among your number are not a few who delight to come to the quiet and helpful early Communions.
You are the life of our parish, the strength of the Rector in weary hours of discouragement. May this Lenten season be to all such a joy and a blessing.

3. Others to whom this letter will come know that they have been remiss and neglectful. They are OCCASIONAL COM-MUNICANTS. You are present once, twice, perhaps a half-dozen times in the whole year. Some of you I know to be actually hindered by causes beyond your control. Most of you are not thus hindered, though I am afraid you try to persuade yourselves that you are. Find out the naked truth about yourself—perhaps it may be RELIGIOUS INDIFFERENCE that is keeping you from the Lord's Table.
This Lenten season will tell you what you need. Its spirit, duties and frequent weekday services may help to remove your RE-LIGIOUS INDIFFERENCE.

4. And now we have another class in this Parish so large that I assure you, brethren, as before God it makes my heart sick when I read over their names in the Parish Register. Who are they? The CONFIRMED WHO ARE NOT COM-MUNICANTS. With some of you it is years since you approached the Lord's Table. It is so long since you stood in God's presence and took the solemn vows of Confirmation that the event is almost forgotten. Do you think God has forgotten it? Those vows are registered in heaven; they will meet you at judgment.
Will you let me plead in vain? Will you not rather say with the Prodigal, "I will arise and go to my Father"? If there are difficulties will you not come and see me in private, or send a line telling me when I can come to you? God help us all to do our duty faithfully and make this Lenten season a period of spiritual refreshment.

With earnest prayer for every soul entrusted to my charge, I am as ever,

Your friend and rector,

EDWIN S. CARSON.

THE THREE SUNDAYS BEFORE LENT.

We have been regarding our Lord's birth as the point from which to compute time, from Advent to the end of the Epiphany season. Now we look towards His resurrection and speak of the 70th, the 60th, the 50th, days before Easter.
These Sundays, Septuagesima (70th), Sexagesima (60th) and Quinquagesima (50th), represent, in round numbers, how far off Easter is from them. The season covered by these three Sundays is a link between the joyous season of Epiphany and the sorrowful season of Lent. While the three weeks preceding Lent are not to be regarded as themselves constituting a penitential period, they do constitute a period that leads up to Lent and that calls for thoughtful preparation.

ASH WEDNESDAY.

The season of Lent begins with this day.
The day is so named because of the old custom of signing the cross on the brow with ashes, the morning of the first day of Lent. Each person knelt before the officiating minister, who, as he made the sign of the cross, said: "Remember, O man, that thou art dust and unto dust shalt thou return."

The ashes used were those resulting from the burning of the Palm Sunday palms. Although the Benediction of the Ashes and the signing of the cross on the forehead with ashes are no longer our usages, we must all associate Ash Wednesday with the period that bids us think on our mortality and humble ourselves because of our sins.

Our life is brief, and we are sinful in the sight of God. Ash Wednesday reminds us of these two facts, and bids us keep the period of Lent in such way that we may so have the benefit of Christ's sufferings and death that new life shall come to us.

THE YOUNG MEN'S GUILD. . .

The month of January for the Young Men's Guild was one full of hustle and bustle, good times and splendid meetings, which are becoming more so as the time approaches when we will greet the opening of our new Parish Building. The first event of the year was our meeting of January 8th, at the home of our President, Mr. Long, and in spite of the inclemency of the weather seventeen members of the Guild were on hand to partake of the set-out for the evening, it being "Party Night," an occasion which is eagerly looked forward to from month to month by the members of the Guild. A good old-fashioned "Hot Dutch Supper" which was served at that time was in direct contrast to "stinging winter winds and slippery walks," and put those who partook thereof in fine trim for homeward journeys. The meetings followed in order: Jan. 15th, at the home of Mr. Gillin; 22d, at Mr. Swallow's; and 29th, at B. F. Emery's. At all of these meetings there were large turn-outs, quite as enthusiastic in spirit as they were in numbers, forecasting a brilliant future for the Guild when we are finally installed in our new quarters. The "Party Night" for February will be held at the home of Mr. Harry Hepburn, 2613 Myrtlewood street, on the 5th, and those who are unfortunate enough to be away will doubtlessly miss a very enjoyable evening. This meeting will be followed on the 12th by one at the home of Mr. H. White, 1504 Wolf street. The basketball teams have been ploughing ahead nicely during the past month, and were it not for several unavoidable accidents that kept some of our first-team men out of the game it is not saying too much when we say that St. Paul's should have been the "top-notchers" in the Brotherhood League. Sticking everlastingly at it, however, generally brings success, and we will look forward to the coming month in basketball circles. The standing of the teams in the League up to Jan. 27th, inclusive, was as follows:

	Won.	Lost.	Per.
Recreation	16	4	.800
Grace	14	5	.737
Greystock	16	6	.727
*St. Paul	14	7	.666
Messiah	12	7	.630
Greer	12	9	.575
Evans	9	11	.450
St. James	4	15	.210
Prince of Peace	2	18	.100
St. Peter's	2	19	.095

* St. James game awarded to St. Paul by forfeit.

The following schedule is for the month of February, and as it is quite an important and interesting one, which will mean much to us regarding our final standing, it is to be hoped that the team will be given the same generous support, both at home and away, which has been accorded it in the past.

- Feb. 3—At home, Greystock.
- Feb. 5—Away, Evans.
- Feb. 10—At home, St. Peter's.
- Feb. 13—Away, St. Peter's.
- Feb. 17—At home, St. James'.
- Feb. 23—Away, Greystock.
- Feb. 24—At home, Recreation.
- March 1—Away, Greer.
- March 2—At home, Evans.

Mr. S. W. Haney was during the past month elected as Secretary of the Guild, in place of Mr. David Watkins, resigned. On Monday evening, Jan. 29th, several members of the Guild attended the men's combined dinner held in the Academy of Music, at which more than a thousand men of the various church clubs of Philadelphia were present, and report a most enjoyable evening. It is with pleasure that we note the attendance at Sunday School each week of quite a few members of the Guild, and it is to be hoped that the members will spread this spirit around until each member will consider it a privilege to be on hand, and be known as one of the "Guild Class." New members, whose past have been carefully looked into, are steadily being admitted, and by the time we become "installed" the Guild will have perhaps reached the highest membership, in good standing, since first instituted. Great plans are under way for Minstrel Show, and the beautifying of our Guild rooms, and the interest displayed now will not in any way equal the enthusiasm which will prevail when we have something "tangible" to work for.

A FEW MORE WORDS.

Who is it that says "he hopes when we meet that we will be together"?

Glad to hear that our former Secretary, Mr. S. White, is improved enough to get around with us again.

"What has become of the 'Horse Gyps'?"

Have you seen the schedule of Brotherhood League basketball games? Some class.

Ask for a basketball schedule. You can get one from any of the Guild members.

Just when we are playing well and defeating everything in the League, then met with an accident; but hope for a speedy recovery. Three games in a row lost. Does not look good.

Watch our February games. "There's hope."

What has become of our Treasurer? Lost, strayed or stolen. Better come around, George.

Some new life in our second team now. Just watch them.

We have our old friend Bill Corrie in our midst again.

The Ways and Means Committee must get busy soon, by the looks of the new building.

Honey is back at his old job again, Recording Secretary. Keep up the good work, Whart.

CONFIRMATION SERVICE.

The sacred Rite of Confirmation will be administered by the Bishop of the Diocese, the Rt. Rev. Philip M. Rhinelander, on Quinquagesima Sunday, Feb. 18th, at the 7.45 o'clock service.

The candidates for Confirmation will present themselves at the front of the church in pews reserved for them, and at the proper time come forth to the Communion rail to receive the "Laying on of hands."

The Rector will be glad to receive the names and addresses of persons desirous of receiving Confirmation this year. Lectures and instruction will be given in the Vestry room every Tuesday at 4 P. M. and 8 P. M.

There is still ample time to prepare oneself for this important step in the Christian life. Why halt ye between two opinions?

DORCAS SOCIETY.

The Dorcas Society is still making gingham aprons for the Parish Furnishing Fund. And we hope that our members and friends will patronize the Guild. Flowers may be placed on the altar in memoriam of some loved one at the cost of $1.

Meetings for February will be held at the homes of members:

Feb. 5—Mrs. J. Buck, 1308 Ritner st.

Feb. 12—Mrs. Lanneau, 2624 Hicks st.

Feb. 19—Mrs. Thompson, 2604 Bancroft st.

Feb. 26—Mrs. Thomas Boyle, 2223 S. Broad st.

MRS. W. KNOX,
Secretary.

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

ST. PAUL'S CHAPTER, NO. 1824.
BROTHERHOOD OF ST.
ANDREWS.

The regular meetings of the Chapter will be held on Friday evenings, September 13th and September 27th, 1912. All members expected to be present.

The services at the Galilee Mission will be on September 19th (the third Thursday) at 8 P. M. It will be in charge of Mr. William C. Butler and the Director, Dr. Wilkinson, will make the address. There will be special music and the members of the Chapter, as well as of the congregation are earnestly urged to attend.

During the summer months several of the Brotherhood men have been privileged to lead the services at the "Inasmuch Mission," and have been much impressed at the good that is being done in this notorious section of the city, by men who have been lifted up from the lowest depths of degradation by the transforming power of Jesus Christ. These men have been given the zeal of the Apostolic missionaries, as is evidence by their burning love for the souls of other men. They should be encouraged by all who "profess and call themselves Christians," and these latter will be given an insight such as they have never before had, as to what Christian work, faith and power really mean, and in turn will themselves be greatly helped. We all need to learn the real lesson of Christian duty. It is to pass the blessing on. It is to kindle the light in others. It is to try to give this living hope to some one else, and to continue doing so until the whole world is full of light—until every soul shall be illumined with the beautiful, cheering, holy light caught from the broken grave of Christ, the risen Saviour of the world. This is the sole road of the Cross. Every Church ought to be concerned primarily with seeking and saving that which is lost. The lay members have as direct and heavy an obligation here as has the minister.

"The mission of a mission is to save the lost and to bring in the Kingdom of God." If each one of us could but catch the vision how the missionary spirit would be kindled in St. Paul's Church and the spirituality deepened. May the Church and the Chapter look to you individually to help in this glorious cause?

THE JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD CHAPTER.

The meetings of the Chapter during the summer months were very well attended. It was encouraging to the director to note the enthusiasm of the boys in their endeavor to carry out their pledge of prayer and service. What a power for good these boys may be during the fall and winter months in bringing other boys to church and Sunday School, and setting them an example in right living. There is no more powerful sermon than the sincere Christian life, and the good done in this way lives long and redounds to the doer of good.

Let every fellow in the Chapter live up nobly to his vows of prayer and service, and the opportunity is his to say daily, "Here am I, send me."

ANOTHER GLORIOUS OUTING.

Members of the choir of St. Paul's Church in conjunction with the church choir of Collingdale, Pa., held a picnic at Swarthmore, Pa., on Saturday, August 31.

The day was spent in games, canoeing and various other pastimes, which were well enjoyed by all present. Pictures in groups were taken with the party placed in conspicuous places among the wild scenery of the hills and rocks, which abound there.

The party were invited to see a real rural farm scene and Miss Maud Watfield was so enthusiastic over the porkers that she could not be induced to come away from the pig sty. Finally dinner call was heard and all sat down to a sumptuous feast of good things, for you know this was an old-fashioned picnic, as the spread was placed on the ground, for everybody either had to sit, lay or kneel down to eat.

After a pleasant afternoon spent in canoeing everybody tried to finish what was left in the line of eatables and partly succeeded, when baskets were packed and the members got the cars and rode to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Schofield in Collingdale, where the evening was spent in song and games, topped off with refreshments, after which "good night" was said and everybody voted the day "best ever."

The choir members regret that the summer is so far gone, for everybody wished that we could hold another picnic in the same place with the same good people of Collingdale.

E. F. GILLIN.

She is a peach; she knows how, May Watfield.

Missed his vocation (better fireman), but he does not know it.

Mrs. G. would make a good photographer by the way she does it.

Everyone was telling Bill to do it. You bet when the lights went out in the car Bill did it all right.

By the way Miss Maud paddled the canoe it was not necessary for the rest of the party to take a bath on their return home. Maud was so thoughtful; she gave them all a shower bath. Try and do better the next time, Maud.

It caused quite a sensation to see Miss Hicks trying to step out of the canoe.

At our next choir social we are in hopes that Mr. Bailey and Mr. Glasgow will amuse us by telling the stories about the camp fire, the penny and the three men in the boat. Some story, believe me. Ask them to tell you.

RECTOR'S LETTER.

September, 1912.

Dear Friends and Parishioners:

This letter has been written beside the waves of the great Atlantic Ocean and must necessarily breathe the air of that mighty body of water which is so symbolic of God and His omnipotence.

"For our God is large like the ocean

And we are the waters that run

With a sure, eternal motion,

To be with a Greater at one.

We may scavage the dross of the nation,

We may shudder past bloody sod,

But we thrill to the new revelation

"That we are parts of God."

Yes, the old ocean is always teaching us some new lesson. "For the sea is His and He made it." So wrote the Psalmist many years ago, and it is still true.

Vacation time is a wonderful tonic for the soul as for the body. It gives one a broader conception of religion and the needs of the soul. And the necessity of a vacation is being more felt as the world and commercialism become more and more complex. I was reading the other day in one of our current magazines a very interesting article on the "Psychology of Vacations" and was struck with this phrase which was sent out by a leading business concern to its employees:

"Let your vacation be an investment in efficiency."

What a splendid motto for a Christian!
How many vacations are ill-spent! In the maddening rush to get pleasure so many of us fail to look upon the vacation as "an investment in efficiency." We return home more weary than when we started out.

I trust this is not true of the great majority of our parishioners in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. The fall and winter will require a large amount of efficiency to do properly the work which is assigned to us. The Bazaar in December will require the earnest and hearty co-operation of every society and each individual member and we have set the goal—"Two Thousand Dollars."

Another matter which should concern us is the envelope system of weekly offerings. Every communicant member of the parish should feel it a bounden duty to contribute towards the weekly offering. A personal canvass of the "communicant list" would greatly increase the weekly offerings. Who will volunteer this fall to engage in this important work? I am persuaded fully that many new names would be added to the present list of contributors if such a personal canvass were inaugurated. Here is another test of our efficiency.

The rector is always ready to hear of new suggestions for the "efficiency" of the parochial work and will gladly welcome any suggestion or plan for the advancement of the Kingdom of God in St.
Paul's Parish.

Trusting that you have all enjoyed a very pleasant and profitable summer I am,

Faithfully yours,
EDWIN S. CARSON.

RALLY DAY SERVICE.

The parents and friends of the Sunday School scholars are most cordially invited to attend "Rally Day Service," September 29th, 2.30 o'clock. Teachers and scholars will meet in the Parish House and proceed to the church, where appropriate exercises will be held.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

The regular afternoon session of the Sunday School will begin September 15th, at 2.30 o'clock.

Rally Day Service will be held on the last Sunday in September, when all the teachers and scholars of the Sunday School are asked to join in the grand reopening of the Sunday School for the fall and winter work.

The new Parish House will afford splendid opportunities for instruction and with the addition of several new teachers a very efficient teaching staff will be found in the Sunday School.

We are very grateful to Mr. William C.
Butler for his superintendency of the Sunday School during the rector's vacation and wish to take this opportunity of thanking him.

VACATION NOTES.

The rector and his family spent a very pleasant summer at Longport, N. J. The Rev. Mr. Carson was in charge of the Church of the Redeemer, Longport.

Dr. Wilkinson, Accounting Warden, enjoyed the bathing at Wildwood Crest.

Mr. Stuart White, a member of the Young Men's Guild, was sent as delegate of the Bankers' Association to the convention in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Beardwood spent the summer at Ocean Grove, N. J.

Miss Schofield, choir mother, had a very pleasant stay at Collingdale, Pa.

Miss Edith Butler sojourned at Wildwood, N. J., visiting friends and relatives.

ST. MARTHA'S GUILD.

The members of the guild will have their first fall meeting on September 27th.

We hope to have a large attendance of the girls so that they may all take part in the work of the coming bazaar.

SOME PICNIC—THIS.

On July 20 the choir of St. Paul's Memorial P. E. Church had their annual outing in the shape of a glorious picnic, which was held on the banks of the historic Wissahickon Creek at a place called "Lovers' Leap."

The boys and girls and the young men and young girls with their chaperons gathered bright and early on the morning of this great affair, happy and light-hearted, together with numerous baskets, boxes, kettles, etc., loaded down with the delicacies of the season and enough food for a regiment.

After a pleasant trolley ride through that old settlement of Philadelphia and Germantown the picnickers arrived at their place of pleasure and began at once to breathe the mountain air of that beautiful spot. The young ladies thought it was time to partake of the good things that had been toted along and began at once to arrange tables, while the young men and boys built a fire and boiled the coffee and what they all did to what was provided would make a hungry man sit up and take notice.

After dinner boats were hired for the afternoon and all went for a boat ride, after which races were competed in by the boys and larger girls. The following was the result of the different events:

100-yard dash (open) for boys—Won by George Thompson; second, Douglas Watfield; third, Chester Norton. Time, 18 seconds.

Obstacle race—Won by George Thompson; second, Douglas Watfield; third, Chester Norton. No time taken.

50-yard dash—George Thompson won; second, Chester Norton; third, Douglas Watfield.

Running broad jump—Chester Norton won; second, Douglas Watfield; third, George Thompson.

Throwing the shot—George Thompson won; second, Douglas Watfield; third, Chester Norton. Measurement for winner was 12 feet.

The young ladies thought that they were in good trim to compete for prizes as well as the smaller boys and they were lined up abreast the starter's tape and the following are the summaries:

50-yard dash—Won by Miss Ada Norton; second, Miss Ethel Steuger; third, Miss Maud Watfield.

Potato race—Won by Mrs. E. F. Gillin; second, Miss Mary Watfield; third, Miss Ada Norton.

Obstacle race—Won by Mrs. E. F. Gillin; second, Miss Ada Norton; third, Miss Mary Watfield.

Clothespin contest—Won by Miss Ada Norton; second, Miss May Watfield; third, Miss Maud Watfield.

Judge of race—Mr. William Bailey.

Starter—Mr. E. F. Gillin.

Clerk of course—Mr. James Glasgow.

The races were run off in good time considering that all contestants were amateurs, but the writer of this article will refrain from giving the time of the different events for various reasons.

Our choirmaster, Mr. Bailey, arrived about noon and participated as judge of all events and after winners were announced by the clerk of course, Mr. Jas. Glasgow, the prizes were uncovered to the view of all present and Mr. Bailey awarded the following prizes:

First prize for boys, George Thompson, league baseball; second prize, Douglas Watfield, pearl-handled penknife; third prize, Chester Norton, companion of school supplies.

Prize for young ladies was won by Miss Ada Norton, which was in the shape of handsome hand bag and also a surprise to other contestants.

After roaming through the woods and playing handball, also enjoying the rowing on the creek, all assembled in a group and had their photographs taken, after which supper was partaken of and all voted the day a good one.

Then the word was given "home" and empty baskets, etc., were gathered together and the homeward start was made. Everybody is looking forward to the next outing of the choir and that all present at this picnic will be on deck at our next gala day.

E. F. GILLIN.

PICNIC NOTES.

Miss Schofield is still wondering where the eggs came from.

Talk about the fall of Rome, you should have seen certain young ladies take a tumble.

And Mr. Bailey, our choirmaster, did not know he was photographed with the boys.

Who has found the four-leaf clover?

Oh, those high French heels did the damage!

The races were great; everybody enjoyed them. Big audience.

Miss Meredith thought she would sit down on the nice green grass under a shady tree, but sat on her thumb instead.

The boys looked like young squirrels while they were getting bark from the trees for the fire.

The wonder is what made the strange young ladies think our choirmaster was a married man.

And James G. ate the cake, but did not stay out late.

Mrs. Norton was so enthusiastic that she says we must have another before the season is over.

YOUNG MEN'S GUILD.

Vacations are now over and the young men of the guild are looking forward to a busy fall and winter session in basketball, bowling, pool and other amusements, of which the new parish building will provide.

The spring and summer was taken up with baseball and the race meet of the Brotherhood of Protestant Church Clubs at Franklin Field, held on August 24, 1912. While the St. Paul's boys did not win first honors or bring home the bacon they did credit to the guild by annexing some very pretty medals and it goes to show that with the few men who came out to try and do something for the guild that the spirit of sport in any line is not dead and it is the earnest hope of the people of St. Paul's Church that with such a large membership the guild will awaken more interest and loyalty to our honored name "St. Paul's" and start right away to get together and pull as one man in the aim that instead of coming out second to others in standing, that we will be first. Why not? We have just as good material as any other club if not better. No excuse whatever.

The Ways and Means Committee are busy these days devising schemes to furnish our "gym" and concluded that each and every member of the guild must personally take his coat off and work along the lines which the committee will outline to the members of the guild in the near future, as it will take lots of money to fix up a gymnasium, to put a new floor, wainscoting, baskets, seats, etc.

Our president is a hard worker, also officers supporting him, but they cannot do it all—so it is up to every member to not let the other fellow do it, but let Bill and every member do it. Who is Bill? Why he is the fellow that tried to do it all.

The entertainment committee have got together and hope every member will be present at our next meeting, Monday, September 9, 1912, as that night will be devoted to "Rally Around the Guild Night," also an entertainment has been provided with plenty of good things to eat and smokes of all kinds.

House and Art Committee are going to get busy and make our room cosy and neat for the winter months by hanging pictures and doing other work, which has been allotted to them, while the Executive Committee are proud in the fact that their work has not been in vain. Still they bring before the members' notice to look at your due cards and see if you are in good standing; if not, do so at your earliest convenience.

One of our esteemed members, Stuart White, is out visiting the Rocky Mountains and points in the West while attending a convention of the Bankers' Association in Denver, Colo., and from all reports will have quite an interesting story to tell of his travels by the number of postal views he has sent to the members.

The guild, starting Monday, September 9, 1912, will continue weekly meetings and urges the members to good attendance, and the president, Mr. C. Long, asks the hearty co-operation of every member to start meetings promptly at 8.15 so that all can have a chance in the game room after meeting closes.

E. F. G.

PARISH NOTES.

Members of the choir will sing in the Eastern Penitentiary on the second Sunday in September.

Several new teachers are needed in the Sunday School. Who will volunteer?

The Parish House is open every night. Come and bring a friend.

Have you taken a pledge for the weekly offering? The Accounting Warden will be pleased to send you one.

The Teachers' Training Class will begin soon. An interesting course of lessons will be studied this fall and winter.

A stereopticon will be purchased this fall and illustrated lectures will be given in the parish building.

A Camera Club in the new Parish House would add interest to the art of photography. Why not organize a club?

What caused Miss Maude Watfield to fall in one of the races? Was it the hobble skirt, Maude?

Who did you say would make the best clothes hanger? We know.

All aboard for our next.

Our rector could not be present on account of an engagement—matrimony.

Miss May Watfield and Miss Ada Norton would make good housekeepers by the way they helped at supper time.

A vote of thanks to Mr. Binder for cutting the ham.

Where did Miss Maude Watfield have the ham bone hid on the homeward trip?

THE HABIT OF GOING TO CHURCH.

The sense of duty, the love of truth, the desire to do good to all men, are not inseparably connected with the habit of going to church. Yet a man may also make a noble use of the opportunities of public worship. They may deepen his nature and character; they may strengthen and steady him. They may draw him towards others and prevent his becoming isolated. They may enable him to resist the temptations of evil, to get rid of levity and egotism. They may teach him to know himself, they may lead him to think seriously of life; they may enable him to preserve consistency when other men are going backwards and forwards from one pole of religious belief to another; they are the natural balance of the amusements and excitements of youth, when the pulse beats quickly and the heart is eager and the sorrows of life have not yet been felt. There is nothing in this which is necessarily formal or unreal or constrained. He who does not under some hasty misconception lay aside the habits of religion, as many in the present day seem apt to do, will find that they are in no way inconsistent with the love of truth. And he will learn, as years go on, that truth does not consist in a series of philosophy, or discoveries about facts of science or history, but that of truth too there is a higher and more living image in the perfection of human nature, the likeness of God in Christ.

—Benjamin Jowett.

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish.

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

YOUNG MEN'S GUILD

"They're off!" Is there any one, who at one time or another, has not heard this exclamation at the start of some important race. In this instance it emphasizes the fact that the Young Men's Guild of St. Paul's Church have opened their basketball season of 1912-13, a season opened more auspiciously than any heretofore, inasmuch that we can now claim a "home floor" for our teams. During past seasons our boys have been severely handicapped owing to the fact that they have had to play all games on "foreign ground," and yet, although not "bringing home the bacon," they have always finished well up in the race. This year, however, with the excellent facilities offered by the new gymnasium, enthusiasm runs high, and we are all rooting for a winner.

On Saturday evening, October 26, the new hall was opened with Rookwood, the independent champions of the East, as opponents for our first team, and Grace second playing the preliminary game with St. Paul's second team. A notable feature of the evening was that our teams entered into the fray spurred on by the encouraging words of our pastor, Mr. Carson, who made an opening address that was warmly received by the immense crowd present. Unfortunately, the only drawback to a most successful evening happened when both our teams were defeated, acknowledging the same, however, only after two very close and exciting battles. Thus we hang out the old "dust-covered maxim," "a poor beginning makes a good ending." From the viewpoint of the Guild it was gratifying to see the number of church people that were in attendance, and we only urge that the good work is kept up. The Brotherhood League will start on Monday, November 4, and on the following Saturday night, November 9, we will open the League season at home with Grey-stock, champions of last year.

Although basketball is taking up considerable of our time, we are not losing interest in other matters, and we are all looking forward to Friday, November 8, the date set for our sixth annual banquet. The committee is hard at work, and from all appearances this affair should eclipse all others that we have held in the past.

Again we bring before all those who may read this article the fact that we are going to hold a "Theatre Benefit" on Monday, November 25, at the Forrest Theatre, and respectfully urge that all who would lend a helping hand by buying tickets communicate with members of the Ways and Means Committee. In this way we are endeavoring to raise sufficient funds to enable us to purchase lockers for the gym and defray the expense of outfitting our athletic teams properly.

Our meetings during the past month have been very largely attended, and we are gradually but judiciously increasing our membership, and at the end of the present year expect to point with pride to the fact that we have had the most successful year since the organization of the Guild.

J. A. AIKENS, JR.,
Recording Secretary.

VESTRY MEETING.

A very important meeting of the Wardens and Vestrymen of the Memorial Church of St. Paul will be held in the Vestry room, on Wednesday evening, November 20, 1912. Every member is expected to be present.

A THANKFUL SONG.

I'm thankful for the summer with its blossoms an' its bees,

I'm thankful for the winter with its bluster an' its freeze;

I'm such a thankful feller that I couldn't, if I'd try,

Say whether I'm more thankful for December or July.

Of course there's disappointments, an' there's trouble, more or less,

But I'm so brimmin' over with the sweets o' happiness,

I don't have time to worry o'er the bitter things you see,

For the Lord jes' keeps me busy bein' thankful's I can be.

—Roy Farrell Greene, in Leslie's Weekly.

THE YOUNG WOMEN'S SOCIAL CHAPTER.

The preparations for our entertainment and dance has made the past month a busy one for the members of the Young Women's Social Chapter.

Some of the members of the Young Men's Guild have gladly taken part in the sketches, and with Stuart White as coach and actor we expect it to be a great success. Don't forget the date! Tuesday, November 12th. Tickets, 20 cents. Come for a laugh as well as a dance.

Since the last issue of the "Chronicle" we have had two more members pass on to the honorary side—Mrs. P. Lynch and Mrs. C. E. Ferris. We extend our hearty congratulations and good wishes to both.

E. W. K., Secretary.

PARISH NOTES.

The Parish House Furnishing Fund is still in existence. Every dollar added to that fund means a dollar nearer to the completion of the building and the fulfilment of parochial pledge and promise.

The ladies of the Dorcas Society are planning another Rummage Sale to be held in the early part of November. Gentlemen of the parish are warned and cautioned to lock all closets and bureau drawers lest they may find their wearing apparel gone when they desire to attend the next full-dress dinner.

The Illustrated Lectures on Church History are very interesting and instructive. The Rev. Lewellyn N. Caley has made a careful study of his subject and is an authority on English Church History. A list of subjects and dates of the lectures will be found on another page.

Strangers and visitors have been attending the church services during the past month. Have you made an effort to meet them after the service?

We extend our very sincere thanks to the Misses Bunn for their kindness in assisting the ladies of the Dorcas Society in presenting "Mrs. Jarley's Wax Works" on Monday evening, October 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver S. White were welcome guests at the Parish reunion, October 9th. May we hope to see them often.

The new Basketball Hall was opened with fitting ceremony on Saturday evening, October 26th. Through the untiring efforts of Dr. Wilkinson, Accounting Warden, the necessary funds were given by a generous benefactor to put the basement in shape for basketball. The Young Men's Guild has provided the net, baskets, etc., to furnish the hall, and some very exciting games are to be played this fall and winter. Price of admission on Saturday evenings, 10 and 15 cents.

The Executive Committee of the St. Paul's Chapter, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, spent a very pleasant evening, October 18th, at the home of Mr. Robert Makin. Mr. Myers T. Ackley says it was a very "profitable" evening.

The Annual Meeting of the Philadelphia Local Assembly, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, will be held in St. Paul's Memorial Church and Parish House, November 30th (St. Andrew's Day), and the delegates from all the local Chapters will be entertained in the George C. Thomas Memorial Parish House.

Is the "Parish Chronicle" worth 50 cents per year to you?

The business managers are looking for some new advertisers. Can you help them?

Several visitors to the Parish House have inquired whether the numbers on the Church and Parish House mark a new golf links. Fortunately the number 13 was omitted for the benefit of the superstitious ones.

RECTOR'S LETTER.

Memorial Church of St. Paul.
November, 1912.

Dear Friends and Parishioners:—

The Eighth Anniversary of St. Paul's Memorial Church was celebrated on the first Sunday in October. A goodly number of the Communicant members attended the two services of Holy Communion, and the offering for that day amounted to nearly $127.00. On Wednesday evening, October 9th, the Parish Reunion was held in the new Parish House, and a most enjoyable and profitable evening was spent by all who were privileged to be present. For both of these events in the parochial life we are deeply and sincerely thankful, and pray that they may be the beginning of greater zeal and enthusiasm in the work of the parish.

I desire to mention three important matters in this issue of the "Parish Chronicle."
Each one is very important and will interest those who have the spiritual and material welfare of the parish at heart.

1. One thing that I should like very much to impress upon you is the importance of completing the PARISH FURNISHING

FUND. As a congregation and as individual members we have entered into a solemn agreement to raise $5000 towards the furnishing of the George C. Thomas Memorial Parish House. Nearly $1000 will be necessary to complete that fund. Can we afford to let this whole matter go by default? Is there not a moral obligation resting upon us to strain every nerve and muscle until the sum of $5000 has been raised? Let us give this matter our serious and prayerful attention.

2. Sometime in the early part of December a Grand Bazaar will be given in the Parish House. Every member of St. Paul's Church and Sunday School, all the guilds and societies of the Church, and every earnest and active member will aid in making this Bazaar the greatest success in the history of the parish. What are you doing, dear reader, to bring about this result? May we depend upon you to do your very best?
Two thousand dollars will be needed this winter to pay our expenses.

3. Again, I would remind you that Church and State will join in mutual prayers of Thanksgiving on the last Thursday of this month (November 28th) and every church in the whole land should be open for prayer and praise to Him Who has crowned the year with rich harvest for the use of man. This is the one day in the year when all Christian churches should gladly summon their congregations to prayer and thanksgiving.

Trusting that every effort will be made to complete the PARISH FURNISHING FUND, that the BAZAAR in December will be a great success, and that every faithful and thankful heart in the parish will attend the service on THANKSGIVING DAY, I am

Faithfully yours,

EDWIN S. CARSON.

DORCAS SOCIETY.

The meetings of the Dorcas Society have been well attended during the month of October. We are glad to welcome two new members, Mrs. Watfield and Mrs.
Stevenson. We hope to have more of the ladies of the Church join us. We wish to thank the little girl minstrels who assisted in the entertainment on Monday evening, October 21, and wish them success. Our heartfelt thanks are also extended to all who took part in Mrs. Jarley's Wax Works.

It was enjoyed by all.

Last, but not least, let us remember the Bazaar. We ask all our friends and members to come and help us, and if we all do our part, it will be a success.

Flowers may be placed on the altar in memory of some loved one for one dollar per Sunday.

(Signed) MRS. W. KNOX,
Secretary.

SEWING CLASS.

A sewing class for girls was organized on Saturday, September 21st.

At the end of the first month there are forty-six pupils enrolled. Each girl is taught to make a small apron complete, on which are all the plain stitches used in sewing, after which the apron is patched, darned, feather-stitched and briar-stitched.

Both the opening and closing exercises consist of singing songs, the words of which are appropriate to the work and are set to familiar tunes.

All girls between the ages of six and thirteen years are invited to join the class, which meets on Saturday afternoons at 3 o'clock in the Primary room of the Parish Building.

The dues are five cents a month, which pays for the sewing materials used, the expenses of several parties given to the class and the six prizes which are awarded at the end of the term. F. R.

THE FATHER'S MESSAGE.

Have you heard the Father's message,
Falling gently as the dew
He sends out a loving greeting
In the blossoms fresh and new.

Each pale and perfect snow drops
That peeps above the sod
Proclaims to you and me, dear child,
The tenderness of God.

In every sweet arbutus bud
His love and care are seen,
And in the waxen lily bells
That nestle in the green.

In every purple violet
And buttercup of gold,
Within the dainty petals, lie
Some promise doth enfold.

So with the new born loveliness
That crowns the early year,
O! let us listen faithfully
The Father's voice to hear.

—Selected, Mrs. E. F. G.

MEMORIAL CHURCH OF ST. PAUL

The Memorial Church of St. Paul (the Rev. Edwin S. Carson, rector) marked the eighth anniversary of the parish by special services on the first Sunday in October, and by a parish reception in the new George C. Thomas memorial parish house on the evening of October 9th. The Rev. L. N. Caley is to give a series of five illustrated lectures on Church History, in this parish house, under the auspices of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, on Wednesday evenings, beginning October 23d. The vestry has now completed the equipment of the gymnasium, and all the activities of the parish are flourishing.—Living Church, October 19, 1912.

PRIMARY NOTES.

Since the opening of our Sunday School on September 15 for the beginning of our fall work we feel very much encouraged each Sunday with new scholars added to our roll, during September, we received the names of 35 new scholars, and in October 25 new names. But I am sorry to state that there are still a number of children in our parish who do not attend Sunday school, and I am sure with the large bright Sunday school room there is no excuse as to poor accommodations. It seems unfair to the children to deny them of this advantage, so I beg of these parents to see that each and every child be given the pleasure of joining us in the near future.

SUNDAY READING.

A minister who was supplying a pulp't not his own was entertained in the home of one of the prominent members of the church. The conditions of the home life impressed him deeply; and although he was careful not to disclose anything that could identify the family, he referred to the Sunday spent in their home as among the dreariest and least profitable in his whole experience.

The family, straggling down to breakfast Sunday morning, brought with them the gossip acquired at various places on Saturday night. Two of them had been to the theatre, one had been to a party, most of them had been out late. More than one of the household began the day with a headache.

On the breakfast table there were three Sunday newspapers. On these the different members of the family pounced, and were soon hidden behind them.

Only the father and the mother went to church; the young people were "too tired," and did not care to dress.

After the morning service, the minister found the newspapers well shaken out and scattered. There was hardly a chair that did not contain one or more parts of one or another of them.

After the Sunday dinner, the papers were seized again, and creased and creased in the weary quest for new sensations.

The home had a good library, but no member of the family opened a book that day. The library had the poems of Whittier, Lowell, Longfellow and Holmes, as well as those of Shakespeare and Tennyson, but no other member of the family read one of them, much less any distinctly religious book.

The hymn book on the piano lay under a trashy song that came with one of the newspapers. The family Bible on the centre table was buried deep beneath the so-called "comic supplements."

The whole atmosphere of the home all day was commonplace, worldly and depressing. There was nothing that lifted the thoughts of the members of the family above the wearisome round of the world and the things of the world. Business, politics, scandals and bargains were the themes of conversation. The three secular newspapers, each with its sixty-four pages, covered not only the seats, tables and carpets, they covered the spiritual life of the family as well. Without questioning the morality of such a Sunday, what may we not say of the pity of it? Is the soul of man so mean, so sordid, that not one day in the week can be saved for an acquaintance with the better things of literature and of life, and for the higher ministrations of the Spirit?—Youth's Companion.

If you are, or know of any one who is going to purchase a piano refer to me.

ST. PAUL'S MEMORIAL CHAPTER,
NO. 1824, BROTHERHOOD OF ST.
ANDREW

The regular meetings of the chapter during October have been well attended and proved to be very interesting and helpful. On October 11 we had a lecture on "Jamaica," delivered by the Rev. Joseph S. Rowe, a native of that island. Mr. Rowe, who is doing a splendid work among the colored people of Philadelphia, dwelt particularly on the relationship of the Church of England to the natives of Jamaica, and showed what an opportunity there was for the Church in the West Indies. The Juniors were present in goodly number at this meeting.

It was decided on October 25 to inaugurate a campaign of personal work, especially visitation among present and prospective members of our Parish. This phase of Brotherhood work is the thing most needed in St. Paul's today. Systematic visitation of men by men, preceded or followed up by the visitation of these same men by the Rector of the Parish, must bring results. Visitation by the Rector alone or by the men alone will not suffice. Each is the necessary complement of the other. If we desire to have the attendance at our services that we should but do not have, then we must get to work and push this personal work campaign to the utmost of our ability. This is a splendid opportunity to build up the largest Confirmation Class in our eight years of Parish life; to vastly increase our offerings by adding new subscribers to our Pledge Envelope system; to double and treble the attendance at our church services, and in our Sunday School and Bible classes; to lengthen our cords and to strengthen our stakes.

This is a work not only for Brotherhood men and boys, but also for the Vestrymen and other members of the Church and for the Young Men's Guild as well. Our task at St. Paul's is but begun. We have touched only the outside fringe. There is a splendid vision ahead for those who have the faith to see. Let us in prayerfulness and deep earnestness enter eagerly into this work of broadening the influence and usefulness of our Parish and so extending the borders of the Kingdom.

It is to be hoped that the members will keep in mind the Annual Meeting of the Local Assembly, to be held on St. Andrew's Day, Saturday, November 30, 1912. This year the Assembly will convene in the Geo. C. Thomas Memorial Parish Building of St. Paul's Memorial Church. As this is the first time we have been honored by an annual meeting, let us make the occasion a memorable one to all. An attractive program is being arranged both for the Juniors and the Seniors, and an extraordinary effort is to be made to have a large attendance. We should aim to make this meeting in the new Parish House another fitting tribute to the memory of our friend and benefactor, George C. Thomas, who at all times had the firmest belief in the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and was ever ready for service in His name.

The regular meetings of the Chapter will be held on Friday evenings, November 8 and 22. The Executive Committee will meet at the home of Mr. Myers T. Ackley, 1439 Shunk street, on November 15, at 8.30 P. M.

The Corporate Communion of the Senior and Junior Chapters, as usual, on the fourth Sunday of the month (November 24).

The regular service at the Galilee Mission will be held on Thursday, November 21, 1912, at 8 P. M. Mr. Myers T. Ackley in charge and Mr. Wm. C. Butler will make the address.

The remaining lectures in the course on "Church History" being given by the Rev. Llewellyn N. Caley, B. D., under the auspices of the Senior Chapter, are as follows:

November 6—The Modern Church of England.

November 27—The Church of England in the American Colonies.

November 29—The Episcopal Church in the United States.

Let every member do his utmost to have large attendances on these dates.

A NEW DIOCESAN PAPER.

Under the auspices of the Bishops and Clergy of the Diocese a new Diocesan paper, to be called "Church News," will be distributed among the parishioners of the church during this month. The main object of this paper is to afford the Bishops a means of communicating with the clergy and laity on subjects of vital importance. The Bishop has requested the rectors of the parishes in this Diocese to recommend to all parishioners the importance of "Church News" with the hope that a large number of subscriptions will be received.

CHOIR NOTES.

A very excellent musical service was rendered by the choir on the first Sunday evening in October. Under the leadership of Mr. William R. Bailey, Choirmaster, a very fine program has been arranged for the first Sunday evening in November. Several new basses and tenors are needed to complete the full quota of the Choir. Applications should be made to the Choirmaster, who will be pleased to give personal attention to those who are desirous of training their voices for singing in the Church Services.

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish.

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church

VESTRY MEETING.

The vestrymen of St. Paul's Memorial Church are asked to be present at the vestry meeting on January 15th, at 7.45 P. M.

ROBERT W. MONTGOMERY,
Secretary.

THE YOUNG WOMEN'S SOCIAL CHAPTER.

The month of December has passed by with all its joy and anticipation and we now look forward to the New Year with plans for greater activities than before.

The early part of the month was spent in sewing for the bazaar and because our meeting nights came on Christmas and New Year's eve, we had to defer our election of officers until January 7th.

We made three families happier by giving them toys and provisions on Christmas eve, and wish to thank all those who gave donations for that purpose.

ST. PAUL'S CHAPTER, NO. 1524, BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW

The regular meetings of the Chapter will be held on Friday evenings, January 10th and 24th, 1913.

The Executive Committee will meet at the home of Mr. Wm. H. Beardwood, 1842 So. 15th street, on Friday, January 17th at 8.30 P. M.

The Sermon and Lecture Committee reports having almost completed their plans for the Special Lenten Services and they have arranged the following schedule of speakers:—

Friday evenings:—
Feb. 7th—Hon. Sheldon Potter, Esq.
Feb. 14th—Mr. Walter M. Wood, Genl. Secy. of the Y. M. C. A., in Phila.
Feb. 21st—Charles E. Benry, Esq., Secretary of the Phila. Local Assembly, Bro. of St. Andrew.
Feb. 28th—Mr. Edmund B. McCarthy, President of the Phila. Local Assembly, Bro. of St. Andrew.
March 7th—Edward H. Bonsall, Esq., National President of the Bro. of St. Andrew.
March 14th—To be announced.

Sunday evenings:—
Feb. 9th—Rev. F. H. Argo Holy Nativity, Rockledge.

Feb. 16th—Rev. Louis C. Washburn, S. T. D., Christ Church.
Feb. 23d—Rev. Charles C. Pierce, D. D., St. Matthew's.
March 2d—Rev. Sydney Goodman, Emmanuel Church, Holmesburg.
March 9th—Rev. Waldeman Jansen, Free Church of St. John.
March 16th—Rev. Henry Martyn Medary, The Advocate.

It is hoped that the services will be regularly attended and that they may be helpful in the spiritual uplift of our people during the coming Lenten season.

An illustrated lecture on "The Far East Revisited; Old and New China," will be delivered under the auspices of the Senior Chapter, on Thursday, January 23d, in the Parish Building, at 8 P. M. Silver offering at the door.

The Lecturer will be Charles E. Benry, Esq., who has recently completed his second tour around the world and is particularly fitted to speak upon this most interesting and vital subject. China in her awakening, is looming, large in the thoughts of thinking men.

In the past she has not materially affected the nations of the West, but as surely as she bulks large in population with one-fourth of the human race, just so surely will her people now no longer asleep, influence largely the future of the world.

Mr. Benry gave this lecture in Shamokin, Pa. recently and the "Shamokin Dispatch," in its comments, said:—

"Mr. Benry is a speaker of rare ability. In his recent trip, undertaken to to study the late revolution in China and the wonderful changes wrought by it since his first visit six years ago, Mr. Benry was able to interview some of the leading Chinese, including Sun Yat Sen, the provisional President, and General Li, the vice-President of the Republic. It is not often that an audience is enabled to get such recent and first hand information of momentous world-moving affairs. In his lecture he told of the great changes which he had noted in all the non-Christian lands and how everywhere he found a yearning for the civilization and knowledge possessed by the Western world."

Let us see if we cannot get an audience of at least 600 people to take advantage of this splendid opportunity to learn of the far-reaching reforms that have been instituted in China; reforms that have resulted in the stamping out of the opium and gambling habits; the unbinding of the feet of the women and the evolution of the dead empire into a strong republic. This has come about largely through the influence of America for, as Mr. Benry shows, the Chinese yield more readily to the American teachers than to others, because of the altruistic policy of our great nation in dealing with China.

MAY WE DEPEND UPON YOU TO ADVERTISE THIS LECTURE AMONG YOUR FRIENDS? Tickets of admission will be required and may be obtained FREE from all members of the Brotherhood.

CONFIRMATION LECTURES

Beginning with Tuesday, January 7th, Confirmation Lectures will be given to the Junior members of the Confirmation Class for 1913. The Class for adults will meet in the Chapel each Sunday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock. The Bishop-Suffragan of the Diocese will be present on the first Sunday in March to administer the Sacred Rite of Confirmation, and the Rector will be pleased to receive the names of those persons desirous of acquainting themselves with the full particulars of this Sacred Rite, and when necessary, will be glad to give private instruction.

ST. PAUL'S DAY.

The Holy Communion will be administered on the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul, (Jan. 25th), at 7.30 A. M. As this day marks the anniversary of the Rector's ordination to the Priesthood he will be pleased to have many of the congregation present at this service. Again we should remember that it is the Feast Day of our patronal saint for whom the Church is named and endeavor to learn some lesson from his life and teaching.

The "Parish Chronicle" is issued the first Sunday of each month.

It is required that all matter intended for publication be in the hands of the Editors on or before the 20th of each month.

TO OUR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS.

Through the kindness of friends in the business world we are able to publish and circulate "The Parish Chronicle."

We would therefore ask our people to kindly study our advertising columns and patronize our advertisers, always remembering to mention "The Parish Chronicle."

This is a fair request, we think, and we hope our people will help us, help themselves, and help our advertisers.

RECTOR'S LETTER.

Memorial Church of St. Paul.

January, 1913.

Dear Friends and Parishioners:—

A Happy New Year to you all! May every blessing attend our efforts in the coming year. To the superstitious the number "13" may be a bad omen, but to the sincere Christian numbers will make little impression for good or evil. In many respects we can shape our lives and years to suit ourselves and 1913 will be, to a very large extent, what we desire to make it. Personally, I sincerely hope the New Year will be a "banner year" in every department of the Church's work and the results of our efforts acceptable to Him who gives us life, health and happiness.

Confirmation Campaign

With the beginning of the New Year

I desire to impress upon you the necessity of entering upon an aggressive campaign for confirmation candidates. Every communicant member of the Church should be enrolled in this campaign. The Bishop-Suffragan of the Diocese will visit St. Paul's Memorial Church on the fourth Sunday in Lent (March 2) to administer the Sacred Rite of Confirmation.

In the meanwhile we shall endeavor to instruct and prepare the candidates for Confirmation.

An experiment will be tried this year. In former years many persons claimed that they were unable to attend the lectures in the evening, and consequently were prevented from presenting themselves to the Bishop for the "Laying on of hands." To remove this unfortunate condition the Rector has planned to hold his classes for adult members on Sunday afternoon, at 4.30 o'clock, in the Chapel. Those who desire instruction in the rudiments of Church Doctrine and the history of the Episcopal Church will be welcome at these informal meetings and every effort will be made to meet the needs of the candidates who are present. Private instruction will be given to any persons who so desire it.

Church Attendance

During the Advent Season and Christmas-tide your Rector has been greatly disappointed by the small attendance at the morning service. Oftentimes, at the beginning of the service he has wondered whether the good people of the Church appreciate fully the meaning and purpose of the morning service. Some day he will be required to give an account of his ministry to the Chief Pastor and Shepherd of Souls. What excuse will he make for the many souls who have denied themselves the privilege of attending His house of worship?

The evening service has been fairly well attended—but what a contrast to the few faithful members who come regularly to hear the Collect, Gospel and Epistle for the day and hear the Church's message for that particular Sunday. In making your resolutions for the New Year there is one which should be among the first—"In the New Year I solemnly and sincerely promise to attend the morning services more regularly than in the past."

Pledges for Weekly Offering.

Again, I would ask you to bear in mind that the "Current Expenses" are met by the generous free will offerings of our people. No pew rents are charged and the income from the envelopes is used to defray the necessary expenses of running the Church and Parish House. At the present time the sum of eighty dollars per Sunday is required to pay salaries, bills for heating and lighting, etc. A glance at the monthly report of the Accounting Warden will convince you that no such amount is received from the weekly pledge-offerings. To augment the receipts by entertainments, bazaars, etc., is poor business and certainly not the best way for Christian people to support the House of God. We earnestly hope and trust that many of our faithful members will increase their weekly offering and those who have not, as yet pledged themselves for a weekly amount will be led to do so in this New Year.

With very sincere wishes for a bright and prosperous year and trusting that you will give these matters your earnest consideration and approval, I am

Faithfully yours,

EDWIN S. CARSON.

YOUNG MEN'S GUILD.

The writing of this article puts the "finishing touch" to the most successful year in the story of the Young Men's Guild; a year than has produced results too numerous to mention in the valued columns of this sheet.

Too much credit cannot be given to our President, Mr. Charles A. Long, for his untiring efforts in the interest of the Guild. He has proved himself a worthy and efficient leader, and we trust that his successor will preserve the honor and dignity heretofore attached to this office. We also make special mention of his fellow-officers for the capable manner in which they have performed their respective duties during the past year.

A notable and pleasing feature of our work during the past two months was the interest shown by the members when called upon to attend the special service held in the Church on Sunday evening.

November 3d. Mr. Carson's sermon, "The Glory of Young Men is Their Strength," was a fitting tribute to the boys and the appropriateness of the text has made itself manifest on many occasions since.

The evening of November 8th will long be remembered by all who were fortunate enough to be present at our 8th annual banquet. It was held in the Parish Building and from all appearances the affair was a great success. The after-dinner speeches were short and spicy and thoroughly enjoyed, especially those of our Rector, Mr. Carson, and Dr. Wilkinson, both "good fellows" when amongst the boys.

That old maxim dug up and exhibited in an earlier issue of this paper has been more than realized. Do you remember it? When our Basket Ball team lost the first game of the season we looked forward to the fulfillment of the "old dope." "A poor beginning makes a good ending." We hearkened unto the words of the great poet.

"Laugh and the world laughs with you Weep and you weep alone." So we laughed and we've been roaring ever since. In fact, we can just about see that grand old bunting "champions" occupying a conspicuous place in our Guild room. We have won fourteen straight games and have yet to be defeated by any team in the League. The enthusiasm of the players of both teams (by the way, that 2d team of ours is no slouch either, they having lost only four games the entire season) and our followers is at a high pitch, an asset that cannot help but keep the boys with their "winning ways." Dear reader, if you have not attended any games as yet, come down some Saturday evening, and if your blood doesn't tingle with pleasure and excitement, you haven't any.

On Monday evening, December 9th, the following officers were elected to succeed those now in office:—

President—James A. Aikens, Jr.
Vice-President—Robert Service.
Rec. Secy.—Stuart White.
Fin. Secy.—Charles O. Roeber.
Treasurer—George E. Neithercott.

Executive Board.

Rev. Edwin S. Carson.
Charles A. Long, Jr.
Charles B. Solly.

Representatives to Brotherhood of Protestant Churches

Harry W. Hepburn.
Benjamin F. Emery
Charles B. Solly.

Can we do more than hope that the above-mentioned men will be as successful as those stepping out? The future of the Young Men's Guild will be governed not only by the officers, but by the members themselves, and the untiring co-operation of all concerned will be needed in order to insure perfect harmony and establish the prestige that now exists.

We extend to all the compliments of the season, and our best wishes for a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

J. A. AIKENS, JR.,
Rec. Sec.

DORCAS SOCIETY.

The Christmas Season has come and gone, with all its joyous festivities, and once again we are all back to hard work.

There are two periods in the life of every person when we should stop and look backward at what we have accomplished and in what we have failed and where failures have occurred we must find the reason for them. Then, facing about, we must attack the future with renewed vigor determined to triumph over these difficulties.

One of these periods is the individual's birthday, the other is the beginning of a New Year, which we have just entered. This is the time for all to take a new hold on life and press forward with new determinations.

The New Year's resolution has long been treated as a joke, yet it is a good one for all to indulge in. A resolution well meant when it is made is a step forward for the individual even if we only hold it for a short time, for if we fail we can try again and can possibly carry it longer.

It is a good thing to start the New Year with new bright "Hopes" for the future. Hope is a strange thing like electricity if we were to attempt to define or describe it we would immediately begin to get into trouble. Yet it has ruled the world from the earliest ages and guides man from the first day his infant brain begins to develop.

If we were to take this little germ "Hope," as it may be called out of the blood of the human race, all social financial and scientific progress would cease and we would be satisfied with what we have, but as it is we live each day expecting something better in the future.

The child mind is constantly planning and building "Hopes" for when it grows up the grown-up "Hopes" to reach the top socially or financially or to become prominent through political or scientific activities. And all serve in this world "hoping" for a brighter one beyond. So let us be like the child praying that our hope for the New Year may be answered and that we may hope for greater things in the future than we have achieved in the past for the good of our Church and Society.

We know not what shall befall us

As we enter another year,
But the past is safe in God's keeping
The future His mercy shall clear;
And what looks dark in the distance
May brighten as we draw near.

Election of officers took place December 6th. The following members will serve for the coming year:—

Mrs. Wm. Knox, President.
Mrs. Samuel Buck, Vice-President.
Mrs. E. Gillin, Secretary.
Mrs. Wm. Martin, Treasurer.

The members of the Dorcas wish to extend their thanks and appreciation to their past president, Mrs. Light, for her loyalty to the above society during her term in office.

Flowers were placed on the altar in memoriam of the following loved ones:

December 5—Mrs. M. Lee.
December 22—Mr. Paul Stockton.
December 25—Mr. Joseph Doughty.
Flowers can be placed on the altar for $1 per Sunday.

THE PARISH CHRONICLE

ST. PAUL'S JUNIOR CHAPTER, BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

The date for Confirmation has been set for the first Sunday in March. It is then that the Bishop-Suffragan will visit St. Paul's to administer this sacred rite. We all remember the splendid work done by the Juniors in the Confirmation Class of last year. Eleven out of the twelve boys then confirmed were brought to that Confirmation through the efforts of our members. WHAT WILL BE THE STORY OF THIS CLASS? We surely do not feel content to glory only in the past, but the success of our efforts then should spur us to still greater efforts in the present and the future.

It is a plain duty of the Brotherhood boy to bring others to Christ through His Church and the means provided for us to do this are Baptism Confirmation, and the Lord's Supper.

In Baptism we are recruited or mustered into the army of the Lord, but as in a regular army the process does not end with the mustering in, so in the Christian Army something else is necessary than the mere joining.

The recruit is expected to fight and to fight properly he must have arms. Therefore, after being enrolled as a soldier under Christ's banner, or, in other words, after he has been baptized, he must be equipped for the battle, which he must fight. To gain this equipment he must confirm his Baptismal vows and he must then be confirmed by the laying on of Apostolic hands. He is thus armed for the warfare against "the world, the flesh and the devil," with the "whole armor of God," the sevenfold gifts of the Holy Ghost.—Ephesians 6: 10-18.

This is the plain teachings of God's Word. It is plain Apostolic doctrine. It is the way in which the Church is to grow. Each member, to be a true follower of Christ, must himself be first equipped and then must go out to seek others to enlist them in the fight to spread Christ's Kingdom. If we all would only realize this and do our duty, how the Church would grow.

This growth will only be realized if we "continue steadfast in the Apostles' doctrine, fellowship, breaking of bread and the prayers." Let us in the Confirmation Campaign, which we are carrying on, work with zeal, with faith and in God's appointed way, and we can then leave the results to God Himself, feeling sure that our labors are not in vain."

NUMBER 5

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church

VESTRY MEETING.

Members of the Vestry of the Memorial Church of St. Paul are asked to attend the regular meeting, on Wednesday evening, February 19th, at the conclusion of the Stereopticon Lecture which will be held from 8 to 9 P. M.

(Signed) Robert W. Montgomery, Secretary.

CONFIRMATION REUNION.

Since the beginning of the Memorial Church of St. Paul the rector has presented 190 persons to the Bishop for the "Laying on of Hands" in the Sacred Rite of Confirmation. A great number of the candidates have removed from the parish and some are "fallen asleep," but it has occurred to him that it would be a very pleasant sight to have those who were confirmed in St. Paul's Church receive the Holy Communion on the first Sunday in March when the Bishop Suffragan will be present and administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation. It is impossible, in many instances, for the rector to secure the new addresses of those who have been confirmed, and he takes this opportunity of communicating with the candidates of former years in order that they may attend this Service of Holy Communion. Relatives and friends of the "Confirmation Alumni" are asked to give notice of this Corporate Communion of the Alumni, and we shall have a grand reunion of former members.

CONFIRMATION LECTURES.

The Senor Class for instruction in Confirmation meets in the Chapel every Sunday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock. The Juniors will meet in the Vestry room on Tuesday afternoon at 4 P. M. The rector is desirous of meeting all persons who are thinking of Confirmation, and when required, will be pleased to give instruction in private.

STEREOPTICON LECTURES.

Beginning with the second Wednesday in Lent (February 12th) a very interesting course of lectures on the Life and Ministry of our Lord will be given in the Parish House. Through the kindness of the Rev. L. N. Caley, rector of the Church of St. Jude and Nativity, we have been able to rent some very fine slides beginning with the story of the Incarnation as foretold in the early chapters of Genesis and continued through the prophecies, until in the "Fullness of time God sent forth His Son." A brief service will be held every Wednesday evening before the Lectures, and the offering will defray the expense of renting the slides. Come and bring your friends to these Stereopticon Lectures.

ST. PAUL'S CHAPTER, NO. 1824.
Brotherhood of St. Andrew

The regular meeting of the Chapter will be held on Friday evenings, February 14th and 28th, immediately after the Special Brotherhood services.

The Executive Committee will meet at the home of Mr. Wm. Beardwood, 1842
S. Fifteenth street, on Friday, February 21st, or on some other date to be announced.

The special speakers at the services under the auspices of the Chapter during this month are as follows:

Friday Evenings:—

Feb. 7th—Hon. Sheldon Potter, Esq.
Feb. 14th—Mr. Walter M. Wood.
Feb. 21st—Charles E. Berry, Esq.
Feb. 28th—Mr. Edmund B. McCarthy.

Sunday Evenings:—

Feb. 9th—Rev. F. H. Argo.
Feb. 16th—Rev. Dr. L. C. Washburn.
Feb. 23d—Rev. Dr. Charles C. Pierce.

The Friday evening services will be held in the Parish Building (in the main Sunday School room). Let all the members of the Congregation make every reasonable sacrifice to be present at these services.

Another illustrated lecture, under the auspices of the Senior Chapter will be given in the Parish Building, on Thursday, February 13th, at 8 P. M.

The subject will be "Panama and the Canal," and the lecturer Rev. Henry B.
Bryan, former Arch-deacon of the Canal Zone. Many of us have heard Mr. Bryan and know how interesting a speaker he is.

Mr. Bryan is particularly fitted to speak on the Canal, admitted to be the greatest engineering achievement of the ages, because as Archdeacon of Panama and Vicar-General of the Canal Zone and parts adjacent, he spent four years traveling over this field, into Central America and into the neighboring Republic of Colombia. As a result of his labors the Protestant Episcopal Church is the strongest and best organized of any of the various churches represented.

Owing to the failure of Mr. Bryan's health, it was necessary for him to return to the United States and resume work here.

When the Arch-deacon left Panama the American people presented him with a large, beautiful solid silver loving cup, suitably inscribed and the West Indian people with a farewell address, in appreciation of the many reforms he had brought about.

If you desire to know something about the wonderful Canal, of which, as an American, you should be justly proud, come to this lecture on the 13th. No tickets required. Silver offering at the door. You, and any friends you may bring with you, will be delighted with the entertainment and the information afforded by Mr. Bryan's vivid story, the realistic pictures and the exquisite colored views and the "being-there-in-person" feeling inspired. The slides used are the ones authorized and loaned to us for this lecture by the United States Government.

DORCAS SOCIETY.

During the Lenten Season, which we have just entered, our time is going to be devoted to the work for the children of our Church Home, and we hope each member will be as faithful in attending these meetings as possible. Several weeks ago our President spoke in reference to the members being more punctual as to the time our meetings opened. And if we think this matter over the word punctuality will mean a great deal to us in this Lenten work. When we stop to consider how much we could accomplish in what may be called the fragments of time, we are more deeply impressed with the importance of rightly using each moment.
Only think how much may be achieved in a little while. The atonement for a world of perishing sinners was accomplished between the sixth hour and the ninth hour on darkened Calvary. The flash of divine electricity from the Holy Spirit which struck Paul of Tarsus to the ground was the work of an instant, but the great electric burner of the converted Paul has blazed over all the world for centuries.

Careful retrospection at the close of almost any day will, in many cases, show many minutes lost, irrevocably lost, and yet only sixty of them each day devoted to the work for Christ is very little for us to do. We are all familiar with the price offered by one of England's greatest queens on her deathbed for a half-hour of time; but, alas! even the half of her kingdom was not sufficient to purchase thirty minutes from that "most insatiable depre-dator," as a writer puts it. If we could only be impressed with the fact that minutes, not hours, tell; that a kind word here and there is what is remembered.

Surely, then, we would not despise the "day of little things," the minutes of life.

If life means as much more to ourselves and others, by the proper observance of punctuality, it becomes our duty, and its conscientious performance should be our aim. We are not treating our Lord with the same respect as we accord those whom we meet in our business and social lives. If we are lacking in punctuality in our engagements with Him.
A few moments previous to the beginning of the meeting will be a fitting preparation for that which follows.

Indeed, we cannot help thinking that no effort to be punctual is a mark of selfishness, as no one can ignore the disturbance generally occasioned by a late arrival. The peace and serenity of the speaker are more or less disturbed. Some of the brightest and most helpful thoughts are as "sweetness wasted on the desert," the attention of the members being with those who are lacking in punctuality; as for the latter, no matter how willing they may be to hear all that may be said, they are frequently obliged to make arrangements for the seating and comfort of the tardy ones.

Thus we see the train of evils we are responsible for when only a minute or two late. Ten minutes late by six members on any one meeting night means one hour lost to Christ's work. So during our Lenten season let us devote each moment to the work for the children of our Church Home.

On January 19th Communion service was poorly attended by the Dorcas members. Try to make an effort to be present Sunday, February 16th.

Thanks be unto Thee, O Merciful
Jesus, Thou eternal shepherd, that Thou hast vouchsafed to refresh us, who are poor and in a state of banishment, with Thy precious body and blood, and to invite us to the receiving of these mysteries with the words even of Thine own mouth, saying, "Come unto Me all ye that labour and are heavy laden and I will refresh you."

The "Parish Chronicle" is issued the first
Sunday of each month.

It is required that all matter intended for publication be in the hands of the Editors on or before the 20th of each month.

TO OUR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS.

Through the kindness of friends in the business world we are able to publish and circulate "The Parish Chronicle."

We would therefore ask our people to kindly
study our advertising columns and patronize
our advertisers, always remembering to mention "The Parish Chronicle."

This is a fair request, we think, and we
hope our people will help us, help themselves,
and help our advertisers.

RECTOR'S LETTER.

Memorial Church of St. Paul, Feb., 1913.

Dear Friends and Parishioners:—

Have you given any thought as to the best way of observing the Season of Lent? May I suggest four things which may help you to keep this Holy Season with due regard to its purpose and meaning? Some one has well said, "Lent is more than a period of self-denial, it is more than a period of spiritual exercise.
It is both of these and more than these.
Lent is to a Christian's year what Sunday is to a Christian's week. It represents the spiritual side and the spiritual needs of a man's life."

Prayer. Of course we all pray. No Christian man can doubt the efficacy of Prayer. But have you ever tried to pray as Christ and His Apostles prayed? The Apostle's injunction is, "Pray without ceasing," and I take it, that he meant just what he recommended. There are moments in a busy life when human strength may fail. A few words of silent prayer may help one to overcome the temptation and rise triumphantly above the trials and temptations. Give more time to your prayers.

Repentance. It is the tendency of everything to drift away from the moorings. Rules and regulations control mercantile houses and govern our man-made institutions, but it is only by continually "keeping watch" that order and system are maintained. Your life and mine is apt to drift into certain habits (not necessarily wrong), but which need correction. Therefore it is necessary to repent —to turn back—to make a new start.
Lent bids you repent and God provides the way of repentance.

Self-Examination. "Taking stock" is a familiar phrase known and recognized by every business man. It is the annual drawing of balances—the study of the condition of business. Every person needs to take account of the gains and losses to the Christian Character through contact with sin and the world. Lent emphasizes the importance of Self-Examination and bids us seek help from Him Who knows the secrets of every heart. Lent reminds us that we cannot hide anything from God. "Thou God seest me."

Almsgiving. Every man wants to know what a thing is worth, and he is interested in that thing in proportion to the amount of time and thought and money which he expends upon it. Lent will have lost a great part of its worth if we neglect the importance of Almsgiving.
Your Easter Offering will be, in a measure, an outward and visible sign of the inward and spiritual grace which you have developed during these forty days of Lent.

In conclusion, let me beg of you to attend more frequently the Service of Holy Communion that you may receive the spiritual food for which the soul of man is crying out. Trusting that you may have a helpful Lent, I am

Faithfully yours,

EDWIN S. CARSON.

EASTER MEMORIALS.

Now is the time to think of placing some memorial in the church. A few suggestions may be in order. The Parish House is well furnished, but a few things are needed in the church. All honor to the man or woman who can afford to install "Kneeling Benches" in the pews in order that all things may be done decently and in order. Let us hope that some kind soul or a few earnest workers may find it possible to erect these much-needed kneeling benches before the Feast of the Resurrection. Again, we would suggest a plain rug for the Chapel where the bareness and coldness of the cement floor is hardly conducive to much spiritual fervor. A new set of prayer books and hymnals would also be very acceptable as the books which are being used at present have the appearance of being more degenerate than the books of a school-boy. A thing of beauty is a joy forever.

YOUNG MEN'S GUILD.

At this time, while we are all looking forward and hoping for great success during 1913, let us not forget the success of the Guild during 1912, and I think a few words here in reference to the work accomplished would not be amiss. To begin with our membership increased by 24, the total membership at the present time being 60. Every man admitted lived up to our rules by joining some organization of the church, or enrolling as a member of the Sunday School, and while we cannot expect them to become regular attendants at church services, a good many belonging to other churches, we trust that during the coming year the Guild will have a larger representation in church work than ever.

Now for a financial comparison of the different sports and other matters that the Guild has taken an active part in. The maintenance of our track team cost us the small sum of $6.25; the financial backing of the baseball team amounted to $45.75, and while we have no trophy to show for the money expended, our team finished in second place, with bright prospects for 1913. We give Mr. Wm. Bell due credit for the excellent showing the team made, although greatly handicapped by the fact that all games had to be played at such a distance from home, thus losing the support of the loyal St. Paul followers.

We next come to basketball, the largest paying proposition that the Guild has ever had. In the last year we have spent $90.25 on this end of sport, but with the excellent facilities of the new Parish Building we should, soon realize this amount and show quite a surplus at the close of the basketball season. A good team will insure financial success, and we certainly are well fortified in this respect, having a first and second team to represent St. Paul in the Brotherhood League that are both likely to win the championship. At the present writing our first team has won 19 out of 20 games a remarkable showing; while the second team has won 10 out of 15 games. Mr. Charles Solly, as manager, deserves a great deal of credit for the capable manner in which he has handled the boys thus far, and the Guild at large appreciates the way in which the people of St. Paul are attending the games. Each man on both teams is enthusiastic and fighting together to win. Mr. Albert Carson is captain of the first team, while Mr. Charles Mohr holds the same position on the second team. Both men are hard workers and keep the other players filled with that never-say-die spirit that must win games. We regret very much that one of the star members of the first team, John Jaeger, met with a serious accident during a game last month that will possibly keep him out for this season at least.

We next come to an item in our expense account that has grown to a very large sum, that is $100.95 for new furnishings in the Parish Building, such as desks, gymnasium paraphernalia, etc. This does not include an item of $150.00 for lockers installed in the basement, which amount we will transfer to our 1913 business.

Up until the first of the year we have paid unto the Treasurer of the church the sum of $30.00 for rental of the gymnasium, which, together with several minor bills not included in this memorandum, brings the total of our expenditures for the year 1912 up to $394.07.

As to our receipts. On January 1st, 1912, we had a balance of $73.46 in the treasury. During the year we received $335.10 as dues, money realized from benefits, etc., bringing the total receipts to $408.56. Thus at the present time we have a balance on hand of approximately $15.00, with additional $40.00 for programs, $20.00 balance due from Benefit, and $20.00 proceeds of basketball hall. You can see by this report that the Guild has not been standing idle in the last year, for after spending the amount as above stated for improvements and the social and physical development of our members, we can still show a tidy surplus.

However, we have a bill of $150.00 staring us in the face that must be met within the next two months for lockers, together with one for the removal of pipes in the gym. We cannot sit idle and expect these bills to be met without hard work; therefore on February 4th, Tuesday night, the members of the Young Men's Guild are going to give a Minstrel Show and Dance in the Parish Building, and we respectfully urge every man, woman and child connected with the church to lend their support by purchasing tickets for this affair.

The first month of the new year has passed by in very good style and the new officers of the Association are endeavoring to maintain the prestige now existing, and will do everything in their power to equal, if not surpass, the above report. May we have the co-operation of all.

J. A. AIKENS, Jr.
President.

THE HINDERED CHRIST.

The Lord Christ wanted a tongue one day
To speak a word of cheer
To a heart that was weary and worn and sad,
And weighed with a mighty fear.
He asked me for mine, but 'twas busy quite
With my own affairs from morn till night.

The Lord Christ wanted a hand one day
To do a loving deed;
He wanted two feet, on an errand for him
To run with gladsome speed.
But I had need of my own that day;
To His gentle beseeching I answered,
"Nay!"

So all that day I used my tongue,
My hands, and my feet as I chose;
I said some hasty bitter words
That hurt one heart, God knows;
I busied my hands with worthless play,
And my wilful feet went a crooked way.

And the dear Lord Christ—was his work
undone
For lack of a willing heart?
Only through men does he speak to men?
Dumb must he be apart?
I do not know, but I wish today
I had let the Lord Christ have his way.

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

COAL! COAL!

If your coal bin is empty, place your order at once for next winter's coal with Mr. Eugene F. Gillin, 1422 Wolf street. The proceeds to go to the Parish Building Furnishing Fund.

Bell 'Phone, Dickinson 3569 W.
Crean Bros. are ready to serve you with small or large coal, with Mr. Gillin acting as special agent.

THE SOUL'S LENT.

Not discipline that starves
And put the lash on me;
But that which brings my life
In closer touch with Thee.

Not grudging sacrifice
Of worldly goods and pelf;
But that which makes me know
My true and nobler self.

Not austere posturing
Or pain sought from the rod;
But that which makes my soul
Deep conscious of my God.

In prayer and tears I ask
That these to me be sent:
Thus shall I know, my Lord,
To keep Thy truest Lent.

ST. PAUL'S CHAPTER, NO. 1824,
BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

The regular meetings of the Chapter during March will be on Friday evenings, March 14th and 28th, immediately after the service on the 14th, at 8.15 P.
M. on the 28th. The Executive Committee will meet at the home of Mr.
William C. Butler, 1414 Tasker street, on a date to be announced.

It is hoped that the members of the Chapter will redouble their efforts to increase the attendance at their Special Lenten Services, especially those on Friday evenings which are attended most poorly. The speakers are all tremendously busy men who are sacrificing their convenience to come to St. Paul's and it is not, to say the least, courteous treatment that we are according them.
There are some, of course, who cannot come, but surely there must be many who, by foregoing a little pleasure and making a little sacrifice, could be present. All who come will be helped. The speakers at the remaining services will be as follows:

Sunday Evenings—

March 9th—Rev. Waldemar Jansen, Free Church of St. John.

March 16th—Rev. Henry Martyn Medary, Church of the Advocate.

Friday Evenings—

March 7th—Edward H. Bonsall, Esq., President of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in the United States.

March 14th—Mr. Thomas L. Lawton, a noted worker among men and Bible Class leader.

We have been fortunate in securing for Wednesday Evening, March 26th, 1913, the Rev. Paul Sturtevant Howe,
M. A., LL. B., who will deliver an illustrated lecture on "RUSSIA."

Mr. Howe lived for five years in Europe and during that time spent two winters in Russia. On his return from abroad he was appointed official lecturer of the Board of Education of New York and for four years he lectured under the auspices of this body. This particular lecture on "Russia" is widely known in New York State and is getting to be known in Philadelphia, as the demands for it are increasing rapidly. It is not a lecture full of dry statistics but it is an amusing and interesting, as well as instructive, account of the life and customs of the people of Russia. Illustrated, as it is, by the splendid views brought from Russia directly and specially by the lecturer himself; views, some of which are beautifully colored and many of which are unique in that they could not be replaced, if destroyed.
The lecture is in the nature of an entertainment.

Mr. Howe, who is now at the Church of the Saviour, West Philadelphia, has had an eventful life. He served during the war with Spain and was retired with the rank of Major. Afterwards he was, for four years, head master of a military school.

Remember the date — Wednesday, March 26th, at 8 P. M. No tickets required. Silver offering at the door.
Come and bring your friends.

THE CHILDREN'S GIFT FOR THE CHURCH'S MISSION.

(From "The Spirit of Missions.")

There is an old Scotch proverb that "Many a mickle makes a muckle." Nowhere is this more effectively demonstrated than in the Lenten Offering given each year by the Sunday Schools of the Church.

This movement was begun thirty-five years ago in the diocese of Pennsylvania, and almost at once it spread throughout the Church. Year by year the volume of gifts has grown, until for the whole period they have reached the amazing sum of $2,618,290.86. The gifts which produced this result have come from all quarters of the earth and from all manner of children. The poor and rich have shared in it. Youngsters in Alaska have shoveled snow, and others in Southern California have raised flowers to earn their money for this purpose. The negro boys and girls of Africa, the peons of Mexico, the Igorotes of the Philippines, and the brown and yellow children of Japan and China have gathered the odd coins of their several countries in common with the children of all the mountains and the prairies, the small towns and great cities of the United States.

The "Children's Offering" represents also the energy, devotion and self-sacrifice of many an adult. The teachers who inspire and lead their pupils, the Bible classes and the Sunday School officers, have a very large share in the result. Yet all these labor and give the more gladly because they are helping to strengthen an enterprise of the children of the Church.

The offering is unique. No other Mission Board receives just this sort of help from the Sunday Schools of its constituency. Our Lenten Offering is in addition to the regular missionary giving. Many Sunday Schools have missionary offerings throughout the year, and an increasing number use the duplex envelopes. Yet these work no less eagerly to fill their mite-boxes during Lent. No other Christian body has such giving on the part of its children. Last year even a Roman Catholic missionary organ, none too ready to praise the efforts of others, commented admiringly upon the achievement of our children.

This offering is significant. It shows what may be accomplished by educated effort and organized interest. In the six weeks of Lent the children gathered last year $167,000; had the general congregations done equally well for the fifty-two weeks of the year the result would have been a million and a half of dollars.

Let us hope and pray that the Teachers and scholars of St. Paul's Sunday School, Fifteenth and Porter streets, Philadelphia, will be able to raise $350 this Easter.

RECTOR'S LETTER.

Memorial Church of St. Paul,

March, 1913.

Dear Friends and Parishioners:

More than half of the Lenten season has passed and our attention will soon be drawn to the more joyous scenes of Easter-tide. Before we approach the glorious feast of our Lord's Resurrection, let me mention several important matters, which should interest us.

Lenten and Easter Offering. Since the beginning of St. Paul's Church we have depended upon the Lenten and Easter offerings to meet a portion of the current expenses. In many cases this offering has been most gratifying as showing the free-will gifts of self-denial during the forty days of Lent. With the ever-increasing comforts and conveniences of the Church and Parish House we have reason to believe that the Easter Offering in 1913 will be proportionately larger than that of any former year. In comparison with other years the budget for 1913 will require a careful consideration, as we are still in the experimental stage so far as the receipts and expenses of the new Parish House are concerned. May we count on each and every member of St. Paul's Church to do his best on Easter Day?

Easter Communion. Two celebrations of the Holy Communion will be administered on Easter Day. At 6.30 A. M. and 10.30 A. M. As the second service is quite long because of the extra musical features your Rector sincerely hopes that many of the communicant members will attend the early service.

Holy Baptism. On Easter Eve. (March 22d, at 5 P. M.) the Sacrament of Baptism will be administered according to the custom of the past. In the early Christian Church Easter Eve became an important time for this Sacrament, and in keeping with that ancient custom, we shall be glad to receive the names and addresses of all adults and children who desire Holy Baptism on Easter Eve.

Easter Communion Cards. In addition to the "Easter Letter" a separate card will be sent to all persons on the mailing list for the purpose of knowing how many receive the Holy Communion on Easter Day, and also to learn thereby the change in address of our communicant members.
The hearty co-operation of each and every member in this signing of the cards will greatly facilitate the keeping of the Parish Register, and enable your Rector to ascertain the exact number who receive Holy Communion on that great festival.

Holy Week. During Holy Week the services will be held in the Church every evening at 8 o'clock. On Wednesday evening, March 19th, the Choir of St.
Paul's Church, under the direction of Mr.
William R. Bailey, will render "The Crucifixion," by Sir John Stainer. A silver offering will be taken at the door. This sacred oratorio will help us to fix our attention on the scenes of Calvary and prepare us for the Good Friday services.

Hoping and praying that Easter-tide will be a joyous season to you all, I am,

Faithfully yours,

EDWIN S. CARSON.

CLIPPINGS

Alice and Belle met one afternoon and were discussing their sweethearts.

"Alfred is spending the winter in the South," said Belle, "and he has just sent me the dearest little alligator you ever saw."

"How lovely," replied Alice, "but how are you going to keep him?"

"I scarcely know," said the other,
"but I've put him in Florida water until I hear from Alfred."

A woman hired a taxi-cab. The door of the cab was hardly closed before the engine started with a jerk, and the cab began to race madly along, narrowly missing lamp-posts, cars, policemen, etc. Becoming frightened, the woman rapped on the window of the cab and said:

"Please be careful. This is the first time I ever rode in a taxi."

The chauffeur reassured the passenger as follows:

"That's all right, ma'am. This is the first time I ever drove one!"

There was at least one time in the history of the world when ridicule was of benefit to the human race. That was when Edison made light of electricity.

Wanted—A boy who can open oysters with references.

Wanted—A man to take care of

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

COAL! COAL!

If your coal bin is empty, place your order at once for next winter's coal with Mr. Eugene F. Gillin, 1422 Wolf street. The proceeds to go to the Parish Building Furnishing Fund.

Bell 'Phone, Dickinson 3569 W.

Crean Bros. are ready to serve you with small or large coal, with Mr. Gillin acting as special agent.

PARISH NOTES.

Copies of "The Church News" were distributed after the services on Sunday, April 6th. Any one desiring another copy will apply to the rector or sexton of the church.

The Lenten and Easter Offering of the Sunday Schools in the Diocese of Pennsylvania will be presented on Saturday afternoon, April 19th, at 3 o'clock, in St. Philip's Church, West Philadelphia.

Two very interesting lectures will be given this month in the Parish House, under the auspices of the Brotherhood. Remember the dates—April 11th and April 25th. No tickets required. Silver offering.

The rector would take this opportunity of thanking the members of the congregation who sent donations and flowers for the Easter decorations.

The ladies of the Dorcas Society are planning a "May Party" May 27th, on which occasion many fancy and useful articles will be put on sale, and a very enjoyable time is promised all who attend. For particulars consult the May issue of the "Parish Chronicle."

A very important CONGREGATIONAL MEETING will be held in the Parish House on Monday evening, April 14, at 8 o'clock. Matters pertaining to the future growth and development of the Memorial Church of St. Paul will be discussed. Can you afford to be absent?

Large congregations were present on Easter Day at all the services. Question: Where do these good people keep themselves the rest of the church year?

The annual election was held in the Parish House, Monday evening, April 24. It was by no means a very exciting contest as the Judge and Tellers will testify, but the greater portion of the vestry were present and saw that everything was done decently and in order. Congratulations to the four vestrymen who will serve for three years.

Our West Philadelphia friends were on hand Easter Day, and we were greatly pleased to see them. St. Paul's Annex will be the next building in West Philadelphia, or else we might engage a special trolley car to bring them to 15th and Porter streets. How glad we are to see them all.

REPORT OF THE ANNUAL ELECTION.

Copy of report of judge and tellers appointed to conduct election of four vestrymen on Monday evening, March 23d, 1913.

To the Vestry of Memorial Church of St. Paul:—

We the undersigned, appointed to conduct the election of four vestrymen for a period of three years, beg leave to report that the following gentlemen were unanimously elected:

Mr. Thomas S. Boyle, Mr. Robert J. Makim, Mr. William M. Beardwood, Mr. Robert W. Montgomery.

(Signed) MYERS T. ACKLEY, Judge.

MEMBERS OF VESTRY.

At a meeting of the Vestry of Memorial Church of St. Paul, held on Wednesday evening, March 26th, 1913, Dr. John Wilkinson was elected Accounting Warden, and Mr. Samuel J. Buck, Sr., was chosen as Rector's Warden. Mr. Robert W. Montgomery was also elected Secretary. These three gentlemen, together with the following, constitute the Vestry for the year ending Easter Monday, 1914.

ARTICLE I.

ELECTION AND APPOINTMENT OF OFFICERS.

Section 1. The annual election for vestrymen shall be held on Easter Monday, between the hours of seven and nine o'clock P. M. Provided, that the Church Wardens may, at their discretion, keep the polls open for a longer period. Notice of the election shall be given to the congregation on the preceding Sunday.

Sec. 2. No person except a member of the Vestry, whose term will then expire, shall be elected a vestryman at any regular election, unless he shall have been nominated in writing by at least three electors, and the said nominations delivered to one of the wardens or the Secretary of the Vestry at least 16 days before the election. The officer who shall receive any nomination shall post it in a conspicuous place in the vestibule of the church before ten o'clock in the morning of the third Sunday before the election.

Sec. 3. Four vestrymen shall be elected on Easter Monday in each year to serve for three years and until others be chosen. In case of failure to elect vestrymen on Easter Monday in any year, the Vestry shall elect to the vacancies thus created. The three vestrymen so elected, whether by the Vestry or by the electors, together with the eight vestrymen whose terms will not have expired, shall constitute the Vestry for the ensuing year.

Sec. 4. The Vestry shall appoint three (3) electors to be judges of the said election whose duty it shall be to make return thereof to the Secretary, who shall thereupon notify the members-elect of the result, and cause it together with the appointment of the Church Wardens, to be read to the congregation on the succeeding Sunday. But, if for any cause whatever the Vestry shall fail to appoint said judges, or they should not act, the duty of appointment shall devolve on the wardens; if this cannot be done conveniently at the time, then the wardens themselves shall act as judges of the election.

Sec. 5. The Vestry shall meet on the Wednesday after the annual election and shall choose one Church Warden, who shall be the Accounting Warden, and the rector shall choose the other Church Warden, who shall be the Rector's Warden. The Vestry shall also choose a Secretary and three Lay Deputies to the Diocesan Convention, and shall appoint a sexton and such other officers as may be required for the good government and service of the church. In case of a failure to elect officers at this meeting, they shall be chosen at the next stated meeting, unless a special meeting shall be previously called for that purpose.

Sec. 6. The Vestry shall fill vacancies which may occur in their own body, the newly-elected member to serve for the unexpired term of the member whose place he fills. No person shall be elected a vestryman unless nominated at one stated meeting and chosen by a majority of the members of the Vestry at a subsequent state meeting.

Sec. 7. All elections shall be by ballot unless otherwise ordered by the Vestry.

USHERS APPOINTED.

The Young Men's Guild, of St. Paul's Church, have appointed a committee to usher in the church and take care of our good people and strangers at the morning and evening services, and the following have been apportioned for the morning and evening in conjunction with the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, to serve during the month of April:

Morning—Mr. James Aikens, Mr. Chas. Solly.

Evening—Mr. Chas. Moore, Jr., Mr. Chas. Long.

YOUNG MEN'S GUILD.

Although the work of the Young Men's Guild has not been heralded in this sheet for the past couple of months, by no means have we ceased to exist nor our activities grown less. We are not like men of mark who make their mark by their remarks, but endeavor to reach that mark by our actions; and to a certain extent we can claim one honor through the efforts of our boys in the Guild who played this season on the basket ball teams. Although the aim of the Young Men's Guild is not wholly centered in the idea to make our mark athletically, nevertheless the fact of our being proficient in one line will naturally create a desire to attain the same standard in all other things we attempt. We have plugged and kept plugging along for the past seven years, always making a good showing in the way of athletics, but somehow or other we seemed to lack the "punch" necessary to carry us over the line a winner. They say a cat has nine lives, but a frog has something on that for he "croaks" every second; well we died hard, and game every season but kept on croaking just the same, and at the present time St. Paul's Basket Ball teams are recognized as leaders in amateur ranks in this city. Let us hope that the same feeling will enthruse the boys to such an extent that they will not feel satisfied without also winning the championship in baseball. Just so soon as we were enabled to have a floor of our own on which to play basket ball we predicted that we were going to have a championship team. Will not some kind person donate us with another Parish Building with a baseball field attached, so that we can make the same prediction in this line of sport.

Charley Solly showed us his worth as manager of the basket ball teams, and we liked the name so well that we have gone ahead and elected another Charley to manage the baseball team; however, this Charley has a Long attached to his name.

He has usually been successful in whatever capacity he has been placed, and let us hope that he maintains that success through the coming summer season.

However, other matters of importance have been mixed in with our Guild work during the past two months that have aroused the interest of our members to such an extent that the past few meetings have been very well attended. The indebtedness incurred by installing the lockers in the gym has been cleaned up, which naturally has put quite a dent in our treasury, but if the boys will just stick around with the proper spirit it will not take long to again put us in a prosperous condition.

We are all glad to welcome back our Vice-President, Bob Service, who, unfortunately has been unable to as yet take his chair, owing to the fact that a very serious illness confined him to his home for over two months. You can't keep a good man down, however, and he is now ready to buckle down and help the cause along.

It gives us great pleasure to state that we have elected Mr. William C. Butler an honorary member of the Guild and trust that he will favor us with his presence as often as possible.

We are all looking forward to the Brotherhood of Protestant Church Clubs Banquet to be held the latter part of this month, and want to see the Young Men's Guild represented at that affair by its entire membership.

J. A. AIKENS, JR.,
President.

THE YOUNG WOMEN'S SOCIAL

Lent is over and spring has come with its awakening of life wherever we may look. Nature is showing her sign of life in her trees, her blossoms, her flowers; even in the atmosphere itself.

And with the spring the Young Women's Social Chapter have planned for an entertainment and dance on April 29th, for the benefit of the church. The entertainment is going to be two sketches—one given by us and the other through the kindness of Mr. Howard Buck, is going to be given by a dramatic company. Then, of course, don't forget the dancing with an unusually fine orchestra.

We hope all the societies and members of the church will take an active part in buying tickets from us, and so help in raising at least 75 dollars for the church.

Next in importance, our dance this Tuesday evening, April 8th. It is only 10 cents admission, and all who come will surely be repaid with a jolly evening. The proceeds are going to go toward buying a basketball.

TO OUR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS.

Through the kindness of friends in the business world we are able to publish and circulate "The Parish Chronicle."

We would therefore ask our people to kindly
study our advertising columns and patronize
our advertisers, always remembering to men-

RECTOR'S LETTER.

Memorial Church of St. Paul,
April, 1913.

Dear Friends and Parishioners:—

In the April number of the "Church News" the bishop-suffragan of the Diocese had some interesting words concerning the duties of churchmen after Lent and Easter. Speaking of the results of a well-spent Lent and Easter, he said, "As an evidence of a new and higher life will we be witnesses for Christ, more faithful missionaries, more earnest in prayer, more devoted in our service?" These are questions which every churchman should ask himself, and I venture to suggest these queries to each one of you who has the welfare of Christ's Kingdom at heart. After Easter what is your program?

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING.

In order that we may pursue a definite and specific plan of action the Vestry have suggested to the rector the advisability of calling a Congregational Meeting on Monday evening, April 14th, at 8 o'clock. The purpose of this meeting can be summed up in one word—Co-operation. The several guilds and societies of the Church with their executive officers are asked to be present. Members of the Vestry, teachers and officers of the Sunday School, and all who are interested in the growth of the Parish are expected.

Those who voluntarily absent themselves from this meeting, without any reasonable excuse, will show very plainly their attitude to the Church and Parish House.
We desire every one to be on hand. You will receive an inspiration at this meeting.

PERSONAL WORK.

One of the great weaknesses of our parochial life is the indifference of many to the need of personal work. With the exception of one organized society in the Parish House I cannot say honestly that we are doing the work which our Lord demands of us. Strangers are constantly coming to our services, seeking a Church Home, anxious to join with some body of Christians who will make them welcome. Men and women of the Church should be on hand to welcome these strangers. The rector and his chosen vestry cannot hope to do it all. We need the Co-operation of all the guilds and societies in the Memorial Church of St.
Paul.

MISSIONARY ZEAL.

Without personal work it is natural to suppose that a parish will lack the missionary zeal which should be the centre of its activity. Judged by the meagre offering from Church and Sunday School towards the Missionary Apportionment for 1913 we have reason to bow our heads in shame. With the many blessings of the past and the spiritual benefits derived, how can we hope to prosper if we lose our missionary zeal? Five months remain before the Board of Missions in New York will close its books for the fiscal year 1912-1913. Let us show our gratitude to God for all His benefits by making a Missionary Offering which will be commensurate with the blessings bestowed by Him upon this Parish.

APPRECIATION.

In closing, your rector begs to express his hearty appreciation of the excellent return of "Communion Cards" on Easter Day. This is a courtesy which he always appreciates, and the receipt of these cards enables him to keep a more accurate list of the names and addresses of communicants.

Faithfully yours,
EDWIN S. CARSON.

TAKE NOTICE!

To the Star Basketball Players.

We never knew we had so many in our midst, not excepting the Young Men's Guild.

We have a prima donna, a Russian pianist, a Cinderella, and even a suffragette in our membership; that was when we repeated Madame Jarley at St. Michael's Mission on April 1st. A few have surely missed their vocation. Why not try the candy business—either making or selling it.

Don't forget our entertainment and dance on April 29th. Tickets, 25 cents.
Help make it a financial success.

THE PARISH CHRONICLE

ST. PAUL'S JUNIOR CHAPTER, BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW

The Director wishes this month to remind the boys of the necessity of their attendance at the regular Corporate Communications of the Chapter on the fourth Sunday of each month. This is vitally necessary to the life of our Chapter, which means that it is vitally necessary to the individual spiritual lives of our members, for on our members individually must rest the usefulness of the Chapter.

Let me quote from a letter sent by a Director of a Junior Chapter to the members of his Chapter. I feel that no better words can be written to St. Paul's Juniors:

"Let us make our Chapter of the Brotherhood stand for the very best there is in the parish, as it does in some parishes, by our members being faithful in attendance, reverent while in church and helpful to one another. Let us all, while striving to do good to every one, be particularly thoughtful for the interests of the other members of our Chapter, and be careful in everything that we do or say to one another, never criticizing (for we all resent that), but if one of our number needs sympathy or encouragement let us not be slow in offering it, or if he is doing things which we know to be wrong, use our influence in setting him right.

"And then for outside work, if we were each of us to bring two other fellows to our Corporate Communion each month, were to invite one fellow to church each Sunday and were to bring one person into the Confirmation Class, what a fine thing it would be, when summed up in one total, and how much our Chapter would have accomplished without our having to give up much time or to lessen our pleasure in any way." Boys make the effort.

ST. PAUL'S CHAPTER, NO. 1824, BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW

The regular meetings of the Chapter during this month will be on the second and fourth Fridays, April 11 and 25, immediately after the illustrated lectures scheduled for those evenings.

The meeting of the Executive Committee will be held at the home of the Rector, 2517 South Cleveland avenue, on Thursday, April 17th, at 8.30 P. M., or if a change of date is necessary ample notice will be given.

The next lecture in the course given under the auspices of the Senior Chapter will be on Friday, April 25th, at 8 P. M.
It is sure to be instructive and entertaining, being on a subject in which every one is or should be interested. It is en-

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

COAL! COAL!

If your coal bin is empty, place your order at once for next winter's coal with Mr. Eugene F. Gillin, 1422 Wolf street. The proceeds go to the Parish Building Furnishing Fund.

Bell Phone, Dickinson 3569 W.
Crean Bros. are ready to serve you with small or large coal, with Mr. Gillin acting as special agent.

YOUNG MEN'S GUILD, MEMORIAL CHURCH OF ST. PAUL'S

Champions of Brotherhood of Protestant Church Clubs Basketball Leagues, 1912-1913.

This is the first time since the organization of our Guild that we have been able to float a banner with the above inscription. Although our boys had very little opposition during the year in Section A of the Brotherhood, nevertheless we ran up against the stiffest kind of a proposition in Christ Church, champions of Section B, and it was only after three of the hardest battles of the year that St. Paul's came out victorious.

On Wednesday evening, April 23d, we played the first game of the series at Christ Church. St. Paul's winning by the score of 28 to 17. On the following Saturday evening the same teams played at our hall, and the unexpected happened, we were defeated 36 to 23.

The writer believes that over-confidence was the cause of the downfall, for when they met for the third and deciding game on the following Thursday evening St. Paul went after them with a different style of play and spirit, and after catching and passing a four point lead that Christ Church had secured the boys were never in danger always holding a comfortable lead of about ten points, the final score being 33 to 23. Although the crowd on hand did not equal the attendance of many of our previous games, what we lacked in numbers was made up in enthusiasm, and there was never a minute passed that the rooting was not loud and faithful for St. Paul's.

On Thursday evening, May 8th, the annual banquet of the Brotherhood was held at the Continental Hotel, at which time our club was presented with the Championship banner and also the cup.

A matter that was of much importance and will have much to do with the future welfare of the Brotherhood, of which our Guild is the founder, was the First Annual Devotional Services held in St. Andrew's P. E. Church, under the auspices of the Brotherhood of Protestant Church Clubs. Between 300 and 400 men attended this first service, and there is no doubt but what they were all impressed with the seriousness and greatness of the occasion. Among the speakers was the Rev. Floyd W. Tompkins, rector of Holy Trinity Church; Mr. George Long, of the Inasmuch Mission, and Harry W.

Hepburn, President of the Brotherhood and an active member of our own Guild. The service was conducted by the Rev. J. J. Joyce Moore, rector of St. Andrew's; Rev. Louis C. Washburn, rector of Christ Church, and Rev. Edward M. Jefferys, rector of St. Peter's Church. It was a great pleasure to find the ranks of the Young Men's Guild augmented by the presence of Mr. Carson and five or six members of the Vestry of St. Paul's. It is with great pride that we are able to bring this matter before the attention of the communicants of St. Paul's, for I doubt that there are many aware of the fact that the Young Men's Guild worked night and day about two years back fostering the formation of this great organization which now boasts of over twenty-five churches and being increased all the time.

Our baseball season was ushered in Saturday, May 3d, and we are glad to see that the boys have fallen into that winning way, for they defeated the Pitman team by the score of 13 to 4. Charley Long has a likely looking bunch of candidates out, and it can safely be said that we are also due for a successful season on the diamond. We have managed to get grounds at 18th and Shunk streets, and will welcome all members of the church who care for this branch of sport.

J. A. AIKENS, JR.,
President.

SQUIBS.

It will be worth a silver offering to hear Messrs. Wm. Bell, Wm. Kohn, Bob McKain and Charlie Anderson battle out the debate on Woman Suffrage. We'll all suffer.

Charlie Roeber has changed his name to Anderson. No! he didn't get married. Hep showed up the other night. Guess he got the tacks out of his feet contracted while walking the floor with his new addition.

Maybe Boss Solly and Cap. Carson can't stick their chests out now. Charley's moved his from the back to the front.

Bob Service, Win Swallow and Bob Johnson will render a selection from Wagner's, "Let's Match for the Cream."

Give Mickey a lemon pie and he'll get ten goal-fields.

A WORD IN SEASON.

A meeting of the "Personal Work Committee" was held on Friday evening, May 2, and the following circular letter was authorized by the committee to be printed in circular form and also copied in the May issue of the "Parish Chronicle."

(Signed) Thomas S. Boyle,
Secretary.

To the Members of St. Paul's Church:—

Your rector, church wardens and vestry desiring that there be no deficit for the year ending May, 1914, respectfully submit the following table of contributions for your prayerful consideration. Our current expenses ARE ABOUT $80 per week and if our 400 or more members and friends would contribute regularly weekly, the sum required would be raised WITHOUT THE NECESSITY OF ANY SPECIAL COLLECTIONS.

viz.:
If 30 m'b'rs cont. $1.00 wkly.	Total	$20.00
30 " " .50 "		15.00
50 " " .25 "		12.50
50 " " .20 "		10.00
50 " " .15 "		7.50
100 " " .10 "		10.00
50 " " .05 "		2.50
50 " " .02 "		1.00

500 $78.50

If all members would contribute according to the above table it would probably not amount to 5 per cent. of the average income. (Say $5.00 per week at 5 per cent, would be 25c per week per member and 400 members would realize $100 weekly). Which is considerably less than the one-tenth taught in Scriptures. We urge your earnest and early response to this important appeal.

RECTOR'S LETTER.

Memorial Church of St. Paul,
May, 1913.

Dear Friends and Parishioners:—

Since the Congregational Meeting held in the Parish House, Monday evening, April 21, there has been one all-important topic for conversation in our Parochial life, judged from the standpoint of numbers present the Congregational Meeting might have been considered a failure. The same faithful, earnest, conscientious people were present that evening whom we always expect to find.
Many who had previous engagements, and alas, those who only wish to find fault wherever and whenever they can, were not on hand. It was a meeting for the "Pushers." The "Pull-Backs" would never be seen in such an uplifting and inspiring meeting. Those who attended this Parish meeting came with a purpose —to further the interests of the church and to adopt the best methods of pursuing a Forward Movement.

PERSONAL WORK COMMITTEE

When the Accounting Warden, in his inimitable way, presented the statement of the receipts and expenditures for several years past, showing the steady increase in weekly offerings, a motion was passed authorizing the Rector to appoint a Committee on Personal Work. Reports were made by representative members of the several organizations of the church, and after the singing of the Doxology, the meeting adjourned. In the estimation of those who have the best right to an opinion it was one of the most helpful and successful Congregational Meetings in the history of St.

Paul's Church. A list of the names of the persons appointed on this Personal Work Committee will be found on another page of the Parish Chronicle.

OBJECT AND PURPOSE.

To state in a few words the object and purpose of this committee is no easy matter. Primarily, the committee has been appointed to visit the homes of those who have not as yet been privileged to contribute through the weekly envelopes. We cannot slight anyone in the Parish. Again, it may be possible that others, who now possess the envelopes may want to increase their pledge.
Chiefly, it is a movement to push forward the work of Christ's Church in a systematic, plain, straight-forward, matter-of-fact, businesslike way.

COMPOSITION.

The committee is composed of twenty members of the church. Ten men and ten women have been assigned the names and addresses of four hundred persons who are more or less connected in some way with the church, Sunday School, Guilds, etc. It is a representative committee and we pray God that you will receive the person assigned to your home in the spirit of Christian Love and Fellowship.

CHIEF END.

The chief end of this personal, house-to-house visitation is not to add glory (and perhaps a few more dollars weekly), but to show that we are alive and active, and desire to make known the fullness and riches of Christ's redeeming love. May the Holy Spirit, at this Whitsuntide reveal to us, as a Congregation, the boundless wealth of God's infinite knowledge and wisdom, that we may understand more fully the chief end of man to be centred in glorifying God and enjoying Him forever.

Faithfully yours,

EDWIN S. CARSON.

THE YOUNG WOMEN'S SOCIAL
CHAPTER.

This has been a busy month for the young ladies in the Social Chapter. On the 8th of April we held an informal dance, the proceeds of which were given to a committee to buy a basket ball.

The entertainment and dance of the 27th was considered a success by all. Although the tickets were out only three weeks, we had a large audience of 225.

We appreciate the kindness of Mrs.
Thomas Boyle for coaching the girls in their sketch. We also thank the dramatic club, represented by Mr. H. Buck, for giving such an amusing play.

Two new members, Miss Garwood and Miss Rosenfelt, have been welcomed into the Chapter.

The President urges that as many as possible be present at the Communion service on the second Sunday in May.

Take Notice!

To the number of gentlemen at our dance on the 8th. We do thank those who came. The Secretary urges those who have tickets or money out for the dance to make a special effort to return either as soon as possible.

All those who are late for meetings are now assessed one cent. The Flower Committee consequently expects a full treasury.

DORCAS SOCIETY.

There grew in the garden of the Master a beautiful blossom. Washed in the dews of the morning, each day it opened to the sunshine and rejoiced in its beauty. But the winds whispered to it a story, a story of the harsh winter which would come, and of the cruel frost which would blight its beauty and destroy its life. And the little flower was afraid and trembled, and nestled down among its leaves.

Soon the Master of the garden came,
and, spying the little trembling flower in its hiding place, he stooped to caress it, but the little flower only shrank the deeper among the leaves. And the Master spoke to the flower, and asked it wherefore it shrank from his touch, and the flower answered:

"Master, the wind came to me and told me of the frost and of death, and I am afraid."

Then said the Master of the garden:
"Little flower, thus hath it been ordained, 'if ye die, then shall ye live again,' but more beautiful and more fragrant in my Paradise above."

But the little flower was not content.

It murmured and besought the Master that he send not the frost, and the Master was grieved and passed on.

When the summer was ended and the autumn came with its frost, all around the other flowers were struck down and their places left vacant. But still the one little blossom clung to its stalk. And the snow came, and the wind blew bleak and drear; and the little flower shivered and sought for shelter, and there was none.

Once again the Master walked in his garden, and the flower called to him, and begged him to protect. But the Master shook his head, and sadly answered: "Nay, little flower, I have but granted thy wish. The others submitted to my messenger of Death, and now have found their perfect life. But thou was not content, and to thee has been granted the other fate. Thy name shall be called 'Everlasting.' The winds of the winter will chill thee and the summer sun will not make thee glad. Unblest by fragrance or beauty, scorned by all and loved by none, thou shalt live forever." And the Master passed on.

Dear readers, can we not take from this story of the Everlasting flower a lesson worthy to learn? How many of us have shrunk from or turned our back to the Master when he calls us to fulfill his work in this world? How many members of our Dorcas do not consider it worth while to attend our meeting and put their shoulder to the wheel for success?

And oddly enough You will find, too, I ween,
There is only one lifter to twenty who lean.

In what class are you? Are you easing the load
Of over-taxed lifters who toil down the road?

Or are you a leaner, who lets others bear
Your portion of labor and worry and care?

Let us all be up and doing on May 27. Our May Party will be held and if each and every member gets to work there can be no failure. If we bear in mind it is work for Christ. So many of us will have so little to lay at the feet of the Master. Do not let us be like the Everlasting flower and wait until it is too late.

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

COAL! COAL!

If your coal bin is empty, place your order at once for next winter's coal with Mr. Eugene F. Gillin, 1422 Wolf street. The proceeds to go to the Parish Building Furnishing Fund.

Bell Phone, Dickinson 3569 W.

Crean Bros. are ready to serve you with small or large coal, with Mr. Gillin acting as special agent.

DORCAS SOCIETY

Our May party held on Tuesday evening, May 27, proved a great success, both financially and socially. Each and every person present on the above night departed for home with the assurance it was an evening well spent. Up until the present time $137 has been turned over to the accountant warden, with still a number of tickets to be accounted for. It would afford the secretary of this society satisfaction if all persons holding tickets would kindly settle for same at their earliest convenience.

On June 9 our Dorcas Society closed for the summer months, and although the work of this society is at a standstill for a short time, we must not feel that there is nothing for us to do. As Christians we must never lay aside the work for Christ's Kingdom, and no doubt it will be pleasing to our rector to know that there are still some faithful ones who never lay aside this work. As a society let us take upon ourselves during the summer months the personal work of the parish.

"All who receive the life of Christ are ordained to work for the salvation of their fellow-men. Whatever one's calling in life, our first interest should be to win souls for Christ. We may not be able to speak to congregations, but we can work for individuals."

Where there is no active labor for others love wanes and faith grows dim.

Andrew found his brother and called him to the Saviour. Philip was then called, and he went in search of Nathaniel. These examples should teach us the importance of personal effort, of making direct appeals to our friends and neighbors. There are those who for a lifetime have professed to be acquainted with Christ yet who have never made a personal effort to bring even one soul to the Saviour. They leave all this work for the rector. The closing scenes of the earth are unfolding before us. Can we as an army of young people who are expecting soon to hear the Master say to us, "Well done," do less than give Him today all there is of us in earnest, definite, personal work? Dear readers, our summer will be well spent if we determine to do some personal work during our vacation, and I am sure it will be pleasing as well as a help to our rector.

"By God's grace I'll work and pray and give and love a little more."
My Lord, I dare not pledge some mighty task

RECTOR'S LETTER.

Memorial Church of St. Paul,

June, 1913.

Dear Friends and Parishioners

In the June number of "St. Andrew's Cross," a monthly magazine, devoted to work of the Brotherhood, I came across a very interesting article concerning the work of the Brotherhood and "Summer Opportunities." The Associate Secretary there makes this statement: "It is well enough to make the easy assertion that a chapter should work all summer as it works during the rest of the year. It is a simple and trite statement to make that a man should be the same kind of a Christian in August that he is in February, but even Christ Himself in His ministry on earth gave expression of Himself in various forms of activity, and an eager, earnest Christian man, rather than regretting the summer season, when so many of his comrades in the church seem to fall away, should welcome the warm months as an occasion for turning his thoughts and energies, not into other work, but in a varied expression of the work that engages his constant attention."

The summer season affords opportunities for Christian service, and I can think of no better way to pass a profitable vacation than to give some part of it to the service of Him who went "apart into the desert place to rest awhile." Various forms of activity will present themselves. It will be foolish to expect to do our work in the same way and under the same conditions as we do in the winter months. Opportunities will present themselves in the trolley car, the railroad, and on the steamboat. At the seashore, in the country, and wherever we may be visiting, some opportunity will come to speak a "word in season."

It is one of the great blessings of our temperate zone that we are compelled at certain seasons to change our mode of living. Whether at home or abroad there is one thing that should not change—and that is our religion. We may find new ways of expressing it, but the man who really believes that he is a Christian will never leave his religion behind him when he takes his vacation.

As your friend and rector, I can only hope that each one of my parishioners will use the summer season as a fitting time for physical and spiritual refreshment, and use each day for the storing up of that strength and energy which the God of Strength gives to them who call upon Him.

Remember your Church and Rector in your daily prayers. Give some portion of your time and money to the Church which is helping you to battle against sin, the world and the devil. Carry with you the spirit of Him who has called you into a life of service in His Name, and your vacation will be well spent.

Wishing you, one and all, the joy of living the life of a Christian in its various forms of activity during the summer months,

I am,

Faithfully yours,

EDWIN S. CARSON.

JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD

The regular meetings of the Chapter will be continued during the summer months on alternate Monday evenings. On Saturday afternoon, June 7, the annual spring meeting of the Philadelphia Local Assembly was held at Grace Church, Mt. Airy. The meeting of the Juniors convened in the parish house at 3.30 P. M., the subject for discussion being "Following the Christ—The Power of Example." After there was discussion of the subject by the boys. Then the Bishop of the Diocese, the Rt. Rev. Philip M. Rhineland, D. D., gave a helpful talk to the Juniors, using the same general subject. During the evening meeting the president of the Junior Department announced the name of the successful boy in the competitive examination on the "History and Work of the Brotherhood." Howard Watfield, of St. Paul's Chapter, was given honorable mention, he having missed first place by a few points only. It is the hope of the director that more of St. Paul's boys will take the examination next year and that one will carry off the prize. Remember the Corporate Communion of the Chapter on the fourth Sunday of this and next month at 7.30 A. M. W. M. B.

THE PARISH CHRONICLE

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

This Church claims to offer, in the midst of prevailing dissensions, a common ground of fellowship to all who "love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity." She rests her claim to this ministry of reconciliation upon the following possessions:

I. The historical fact that she is the Mother Church of the English-speaking race, possessing the Apostolic Ministry, Faith, Sacraments and Worship.

II. Gospel Teaching, embodied in a Creed of Apostolic origin, so simple that a child can learn it, so definite that unbelief cannot get around it, so comprehensive that nothing essential to the soul's health is left unsaid.

III. A Reverent and Solemn Worship wholly free from crudities of thought and expression, enriched by the devotional experience of the past, and suited to the daily wants of the present; most truly a "Common Prayer," since it belongs to minister and people alike, and allows the living voice of the congregation to be heard.

IV. A Christian Nurture that cares tenderly for the lambs of the flock; teaches them, from the first, that they belong to the Good Shepherd's fold; brings them up in the love and reverence of what is holy, pure, and honorable; and aims to make them God-fearing and high-minded men and women.

V. A Christian Year to hallow and bless the passing seasons by associating them with the events of our Saviour's Life on earth, and with the great facts of Redemption. This quickens the memory; satisfies the instinctive desire of believers for special seasons of devotion: gives balance and symmetry to the thoughts; and is a guard against narrow and one-sided views of Revealed Truth.

VI. Simple and Scriptural terms of admission to Sacramental Privileges. The entrusting of the spiritual oversight of the flock to the Ministry alone. The practical recognition of the duty if every man, woman and child, baptized into the Body of Christ, to lend a helping hand in the work of building up His Kingdom.

This Church was planted in England as early as the days of the Apostles or their immediate successors (British Bishops sat in the early Councils), and has had continuous historic existence to the present day. It has survived the attacks of Pagan and Potentate, Pope and Puritan.

The Episcopal Church, one with the Church of England, is thus the Mother Church of the English-speaking race.

The Church is a Divine Institution with a Human Mission; not a human institution with a divine mission. An Organism for dispensing Christianity; not an organization for the attainment of Christianity. A Corporation of Believers. The Kingdom of Heaven seeking men on earth; not a society on earth seeking the kingdom of Heaven.—Selected.

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

COAL! COAL!

If your coal bin is empty, place your order at once for next winter's coal with Mr. Eugene F. Gillin, 1422 Wolf street. The proceeds to go to the Parish Building Furnishing Fund.

Bell 'Phone, Dickinson 3569 W.

Crean Bros. are ready to serve you with small or large coal, with Mr. Gillin acting as special agent.

ST. PAUL'S CHAPTER, NO. 184, BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

The regular meetings of the Chapter may be expected on Friday evenings, September 12th and 26th, 1913. Let every man attend. The Executive Committee will meet on Friday, September 19th, at 8.15 P. M., at the home of Mr. Wallis Fisher, 2032 South Cleveland avenue. All members of this important committee are urged to be present.

The service at the Galilee Mission will be held on Thursday, September 18th, at 8 P. M.

The Corporate Communion of the Senior and Junior Chapters will be on Sunday, September 28th, 1913, at 7.30 A. M. This will be the last Sunday on which the Rector, the Rev. Mr. Carson, will be with us. Mr. Carson has been a loyal supporter of St. Paul's Chapter during its entire history. Would it not be a fitting farewell to him, not only as a brother member, but also as a devoted friend, if we were to have every man and boy of both Chapters present at this service? Could there be a more appropriate time than this for us to offer him our earnest and heartfelt wishes for spiritual and material blessings in his new field of labor. Think it over and be there.

The date for the New York Convention is drawing near. It will be held October 1st to 5th, inclusive. Eighteen men of our Chapter have signified their intention to go. Could we not have more present at this convention, which bids fair to be the greatest in the history of the Brotherhood? We do not fully realize the uplift of such a gathering. Robert H. Gardiner, former National President, speaking of this, once said:

"Those who have not attended a National Convention only half know the Brotherhood. The best investment a Chapter can make is to club together and pay the expenses of one or more of its members as delegates. They will come back with a wider horizon, a deeper purpose and a more determined courage than they have ever imagined possible."

"It is not only that it is the dress parade of an army of resolute men and boys, filled with eager enthusiasm to do their utmost for the spread of the Kingdom, and listening to inspiring and practical addresses. This alone is well worth the time and money, but the Convention goes far deeper than that. It is our annual Sacrament of Brotherhood, when coming from our isolated Chapters, perplexed and perhaps wearied by our personal problems, we gain, as we can gain nowhere else, the sense that we are members of the one Body and that in union with each other through the Head, there is invincible strength. And nowhere else can be found the special grace and strength of the National Corporate Communion, where not simply as individuals, but as representatives, we consecrate afresh to the service of the King ourselves, our Chapters, our Local Assemblies, the National Brotherhood."

DORCAS SOCIETY.

Now that the cool weather has again driven away that languid feeling so called summer, the members of the Dorcas Society have resumed their Fall work, and once again will endeavor to make all our unsee plans a success. It is not always the privilege of the servant to know what is in the mind of the Master. Moreover, the loyal servant does not insist on being fully informed concerning what the Master purposes. The following story has been told which contains a very valuable lesson.

A gentleman who was walking near an unoccupied building one day saw a stonecutter chiseling patiently at a block of stone in front of him. The gentleman went up to him. "Still chiseling?" he remarked, pleasantly.

"Yes."

"In what part of the building does this stone belong?" asked the gentleman.

"I don't know," replied the stonecutter. "I haven't seen the plans."

Then he went on chiseling, chisel'ng.

Now, that is what we as Dorcas members should do. We have not seen the great plans of the Master Architect, but each of us has his work to do, and we should chisel away until it is done.

Surely we cannot doubt the value of the design in God's mind for us. He who planned this beautiful world for us purposes for us things better and more beautiful than we can now understand. We cannot conceive of the things God has in store for those who love Him. We can afford to work on until he reveals to us what He has planned for us.

Two brothers in an Orient country named Ahmed and Omar wished to perform a deed which should never be forgotten, and which, as years passed by, would make them famous far and near.

Omar, with immense toil and great ingenuity, erected a splendid monument, carving it into beautiful forms and engraving many strange inscriptions on its sides. At last the monument was finished and stood in the hot desert. But Ahmed set to work at a very different task. He dug a deep well in the sandy waste, and planted it round with tall date palms, to form a cool shade for the weary traveler and shade down their pleasant fruit to satisfy his hunger.

It is easy to see which of the two brothers took the surest way of having his name remembered and his fame spread abroad. For one who admired the monument of Omar a hundred thirsty pilgrims would give thanks for the well of Ahmed. And long after the granite monument should have crumbled into dust the well would continue, its supply of cool, refreshing water.

Like that clear, blessed water in the desert are the deeds of love that each one of us may do. It is by such deeds that we make others happy, and it is by them that we shall be longest remembered.

Rummage Sale will be held the early part of November. We hope that each member of our Church will not overlook this important event during house cleaning.

TO OUR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS.

We would therefore ask our people to kindly study our advertising columns and patronize our advertisers, always remembering to mention "The Parish Chronicle."

This is a fair request, we think, and we hope our people will help us, help themselves, and help our advertisers.

RECTOR'S LETTER.

Memorial Church of St. Paul,
September, 1913.

Dear Friends and Parishioners:

This is the last opportunity I shall have of addressing you in the pages of the "Parish Chronicle." Nine years have passed very happily and speedily since I began my ministry among you, but I go now to the Great Middle West to take up my work in the Cathedral at Faribault, Minnesota. The "call" was urgent, and I felt constrained to accept the election as Vicar-Canon of the Cathedral.

It is needless to say that I gave the matter very careful and prayerful consideration. Every phase of the new work was studied carefully, my obligations to you and the church in South Philadelphia considered with earnest and heart-searching prayer, and I am led to believe that God has called me to this new field of labor.

May I suggest several thoughts concerning the future work of the Church in which it has pleased God to help us during the past nine years?

1. LOYALTY TO THE NEW RECTOR will be the first requisite. There are some who, in their devotion to the Church, believe it to be their duty always to remind the new incumbent of his predecessor's successes and failures. This is very unfortunate. Give the new rector your earnest co-operation and support, and let him exercise his own initiative in planning the work of the future.

2. GRATEFULNESS is a Christian duty which may be neglected. It is so easy to forget one's benefactors. Much of the success of our Church has been due to the generosity of friends living outside of the parish. My earnest prayer is that you will always remember with deepest gratitude the names and memories of these friends and cherish a sweet and lasting memory of their devotion to and interest in the "Mission."

3. FINALLY, I would ask you to think of the SPIRITUAL LIFE of the parish. I am frank to confess that one of the evils of an INSTITUTIONAL CHURCH is this—to lay too much stress on the material, and to forget the SPIRITUAL. I do not say that such is the case in our Church, but I do fear that the danger is great. "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you," is the Master's method of salvation. No other plan of salvation can take its place.

"Heavenly Father, support us, we beseech Thee, throughout this earthly life, until the shadows of the evening lengthen and the fever of life is hushed. Then, in Thy mercy, Heavenly Father, grant unto us all, a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at last, with Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Faithfully yours,

EDWIN S. CARSON.

MISSIONARY APPORTIONMENT.

Through the kindness and generosity of a friend who has always taken a great interest in the Memorial Church of St. Paul, a check was received by the Rector for one hundred dollars towards the Missionary Apportionment.

The books of the Board of Missions, New York City, are always closed on September 1st of each year, but we are glad to report about $405 as the Missionary offering this year from our Church. While the apportionment is about $136 we did not come far short of the mark. Make it $500 next year.

WHERE IS FARIBAULT?

So often has this question been asked that it seems necessary to give the following brief description from the Encyclopedia Britannica (11th edition):

"Faribault is a city and country seat of Rice County, Minnesota, U. S. A.; on the Cannon River, at the mouth of the Straight River, about 45 miles south of St. Paul. Faribault is served by three railroads—Chicago Great Western, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, and the Chicago Rock Island & Pacific.

"The city is attractively situated near a lake region widely known for its summer resorts. Faribault is the seat of the Minnesota Institute for defectives, embracing the State School for the deaf, blind and feeble-minded. Four institutions are under the control of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Seabury Divinity School (1860), Shattuck Military School for boys (1860), St. Mary's Hall, a school for girls, and St. James School for younger boys. These were founded by Bishop Whipple.

"In the city is the Cathedral of the Merciful Saviour, and a number of homes occupied by professors and teachers in the several schools. The city has a public library and owns and operates its own water supply system.

"Faribault is named in honor of Jean Baptiste Faribault, a French fur-trader and pioneer, who settled in that part of Minnesota in the latter part of the eighteenth century. Bishop Henry Benjamin Whipple was the first Bishop of the Episcopal Church in Minnesota, and became famous for his missionary work among the Indians."

THE YOUNG WOMEN'S SOCIAL CHAPTER.

The news of the removal of Mr. Carson from the parish was received with great regret by the young ladies of the social Chapter. Many of our girls have been raised under his parochial care, and to them his going will be a greater loss. In our sorrow we must not forget to congratulate him in his new high honor.

The young ladies of the Social Chapter repeat the words of Tennyson in saying,

May God bless thee,
With blessings beyond hope or thought,
With blessings which no words can find.

The regular meetings of the Social Chapter will be resumed, beginning next Tuesday evening, September 9th, at 8.15. It is hoped that the girls will come regularly and filled with the spirit to work and of course to have a good time also.

Let us all think of these words of Bishop How during this coming winter. I am sure we will accomplish more than ever before if we do not forget them:

"Be scrupulously punctual. And make a careful use of your fragments of time. It is wonderful how much can be got through by these means. A great deal of study, or writing, or other work, can be done by a resolute will in odd quarters of hours, and very often we can get no more. Nothing is more commonly said than that if you want something done, you will have a much better chance of getting it done by a busy man than by an idle one, and this simply because the former has learnt the secret of economizing his time."

E. KAMPEN, Sec'y.

OLD FRIENDS.

There are no friends like old friends,
And none so good and true.
We greet them when we meet them
As roses greet the dew.
No other friends are dearer,
Though born of kindred mould,
And while we prize the new ones,
We treasure more the old.

There are no friends like old friends
To help us with the load
That all must bear who journey
O'er life's uneven road.
And when unconquered sorrows
The weary hours invest,
The kindly words of old friends
Are always found the best.

There are no friends like old friends
To calm our frequent fears
When shadows fall and deepen Through life's declining years.
And when our faltering footsteps
Approach the great divide,
We'll long to meet the old friends
Who wait the other side.

IDLERS, SELF-SEEKERS, WORKERS.

There are three kinds of people in the Church. First, there are those who do nothing most of the time. They will become an occasional substitute as a teacher in the Sunday School. They can be induced by careful diplomacy to become an usher on special occasions. They will even undertake for a short time a useful part in a canvass of the Parish for missionary or other purposes. But generally speaking their sole contact with the Church and her work is in occupying a seat at one of the services of the Sunday and in paying a more or less helpful sum into the Parish treasury. They do nothing most of the time.

Then there are those who do everything or experiment with everything some of the time. They are attracted by the allurements of novelty. The Parish entertainment in the form of a theatrical exhibition will give them opportunity for displaying certain abilities which they believe they have, or in a lesser degree they can be attracted by, and even become interested in, a project for a Sunday School excursion or a Parish picnic or they can be induced by diplomatic approaches to do more or less display ushering when there is pretty sure to be a crowded congregation to look on. They do everything, or at least are willing to experiment with anything, that pushes them forward—some of the time.

Lastly there is another class of people who do something in the Church all of the time. It need not be said that the Church's work and prosperity rest upon the foundation created by this latter class of men and women. They are like the great rank and file of workers in the business world, who in humble and obscure positions are the needful units that make for the activity and prosperity of the whole. These are the men and women who quietly and earnestly and uninterruptedly devote themselves to the obscure work of the Sunday School teacher, or the Brotherhood Director or other leader, or as a member of the choir, or a Parish visitor, or who express their religion in some other form of definite and useful and persistent work which does not give very much variety to one's life in the church and certainly does not make for celebrity and the acclaim of the multitude. These are the people who are doing something all of the time.

TABLOIDS.

All back from vacations.

Will everybody be in good shape to begin the fall and winter work?

Wm. R. Bailey, organist, desires to know whether there are any voices who would like to join the choir.

Mr. Carson is back and brown as a berry. He looks well.

Ask Dr. Wilkinson??

Edna Montgomery spent a pleasant time at Parkesburg, Pa.

Did Ida Binder and Matty Matthews have their photos together?

Sam Buck, Jr., is a hard worker for the Sunday School. He is some hustler.

Maud Watfield, of Strathaven fame, is with us again after a short sojourn to Coney Island. The trip was delightful.

Our Rector's Warden has a question to ask. See him.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart White were presented with a young daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Gillin spent a pleasant visit to Asbury Park, N. J., and were entertained royally by Mr. and Mrs. Oliver White.

Has anybody seen Mr. and Mrs. Beardwood lately?

"Win" Swallow is surely making good with the Athletics when he can pitch a game against professionals and allowing but two hits.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Long are spending a pleasant vacation at Atlantic City.

Our good friend, Mr. Butler deserves the thanks of every communicant of this church for the faithful services rendered.

Well! Well!! the boys of the baseball team have duplicated the basketball boys' endeavor by bringing another cup to St. Paul's Young Men's Guild. Boys, we are proud of you.

Don't forget the date of the Parish Reunion which will be held on Monday evening, September 29, 1913. We want your presence.

New series of pledge envelopes will be issued by the first Sunday in October.

Miss Anna Gillin has returned from a two weeks' visit to friends in Woodhaven, Long Island.

Chas. Anderson says he was at Niagara Falls. Ask Charley what's on the carpet?

The Misses Cohills were seen among the bevy of beauties at the shore this summer.

Our faithful friend, the sexton, can be seen around the Parish Building at any time.

Mrs. John Binder has recovered from her painful operation.

Mr. Samuel Gerhart has returned to the choir after a restful vacation.

Miss Ada Norton was seen in Washington, D. C., where she was visiting the Misses Shreve, former members of St. Paul's choir.

Marie Binder and Helen Scout have returned from a visit among the corn-crackers of Delaware.

GRATITUDE.

Praise to God, immortal praise,
For the love that crowns our days:
Bounteous source of every joy,
Let Thy praise our tongues employ:
All to Thee, our God, we owe,
Source whence all our blessings flow.

It is strange to reflect that gratitude is such a difficult thing, and that thanksgiving needs so much cultivation. It seems almost insulting both to God and to man alike to have to recommend thanksgiving as desirable either for its own sake or for the joy that it brings with it: it ought to be spontaneous, inevitable, an irrepressible fountain welling up out of love and gratitude and flooding its whole surroundings. But the fact is that it is not so; the natural heart of man is hard and insensible to God's mercies, is cold and ungrateful even when it is conscious of them. So thanksgiving has to be recommended, has to be doggedly practiced, has to be laboriously learnt.

But he knows nothing of happiness who has not at least begun to learn how he is in everything to give thanks: and he knows little of the nature and will of Almighty God who does not recognize that in so doing he is not merely consulting his own selfish interests, but performing also one of his highest duties to God.

For in giving thanks the thankful heart not only comes to realize its own profound capacity for drinking in unfailing happiness, but also it begins to overpass the measure of its own feeble powers, to soar aloft above the limits of its own narrow surroundings, drawn upward by ties of duty and love to the throne of majesty and mercy.

And so the personal act of thanksgiving, arising from gratitude for particular mercies, runs up into the more impersonal act of worship, wherein, as the world recedes out of sight, and the clogging details of material life disappear, we lose ourselves in the presence of God in glorifying God for being what He is.—
Rev. W. H. Frere, C. R.

YOUNG MEN'S GUILD

Bang! There're off. After a long rest during the summer months the Young Men's Guild held their first meeting, which opens the fall term, and they plan to make this season more successful than ever before. Our hard-working President, Mr. Jas. A. Aikens, and the other officers have been striving to their utmost to make things enjoyable for the "boys." The Guild has not been idle during the vacation months. They have had several interesting meetings, and the members that do not attend these meetings are missing the time of their life, as there is a hot time in the old room that night.

While it is becoming a habit for the Guild boys to be winning Brotherhood trophies, they added another to their list when they won the baseball championship this season, under the clever management of Charles Long, and the continual grinding of the players, winning nine games and losing one game. Reber and Aikens did the pitching and with airtight support and batting rallies when needed we were able to come out of the race a winner. The opening fall meeting was a large success, with 30 members present, and with a 'crowd like this the boys made the first meeting night "hum," and after the regular business (this being "party night") the Entertainment Committee supplied the boys with an oyster supper. Basketball is the next sport in line, and Mr. Chas. Solly was elected again to manage the teams and this year he says both teams are going to win the trophies. We want the hearty support of all the members, so come down and help to root.

NUMBER 1

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

COAL! COAL!

If your coal bin is empty, place your order at once for next winter's coal with Mr. Eugene F. Gillin, 1422 Wolf street. The proceeds go to the Parish Building Furnishing Fund.

Bell 'Phone, Dickinson 3509 W.

Crean Bros. are ready to serve you with small or large coal, with Mr. Gillin acting as special agent.

REV. E. S. CARSON'S FAREWELL.

On Tuesday evening, September 30th, upward of six hundred parishioners and friends of the Rev. Edwin S. Carson assembled in the Parish Building to express their many regrets and to bid him farewell. Mr. Thomas S. Boyle presided as chairman of the meeting. He introduced the first speaker, Mr. Eugene F. Gillan, representing the local chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. Mr. Gillan read Resolutions of Regret passed at a special meeting of the Brotherhood.

Dr. John C. Wilkinson, Accounting Warden of the church, presented Mr. Carson with a Farewell set of Resolutions embodying the sentiments of the Vestry as authorized by a motion passed at their last meeting. The Rector's warden, Mr. Samuel J. Buck, speaking for the congregation expressed in well chosen terms the sorrow and regret which they feel at the severance of bonds of love and affection which had so long bound him to them. And as a further evidence of their esteem, the warden presented Mr. Carson with a well-filled purse, contributed by his numerous friends.

Between the speakers Mr. Boyle introduced Mrs. Baumgardner and Mr. Frederick Hunter and others who favored us with some very beautiful singing and playing. Mr. William C. Buttler, one of Mr. Carson's earliest friends in the parish, led a standing vote in support of a motion he had introduced expressing the feeling which the congregation had in losing their beloved rector and his wife.

Dr. Bamford, of St. Luke's Methodist Episcopal Church; the Rev. Mr. Francis, Rev. F. M. Urich, of Trinity Lutheran Church, and Pastor Groves W. Drew, of the Third Baptist Church, and Rev. Mr. Thomas, of Mt. Hermon M. E. Church, were among those who spoke in terms of highest commendation of Mr. Carson and his fraternal spirit in working with them in South Philadelphia. In closing Mr. Boyle led the congregation in singing the old familiar hymn, "Blest be the Tie That Binds." After the exercises Mr. and Mrs. Carson held a public reception during which every one present shook hands with them both.

DORCAS SOCIETY.

Since the last issue of the Parish Chronicle it has been our regret to sever our connections from our former rector, the Rev. Edwin S. Carson and family. The prayers of the members of the Dorcas Society have gone with him to invigorate and encourage him in his great field of labor. This change means greater work for each of us to do if we are loyal to our God. The loyalty of a son in his obedience to his father is an illustration to us of one great thing in our Christian life. We must be loyal to Jesus Christ and obedient to Him in order to be Christians. Nothing can ever stand in the way of this; nothing can ever substitute for it. We may have all the knowledge of God and of His word that we can possibly get; we may have all the experience that the Blessed Spirit will give us in our hearts; but we must not imagine that these blessings exempt us from keeping God's commandments and following Jesus Christ in loving obedience.

As members of the Dorcas let us get to work and try to bring all the ladies of our church who are not Dorcas members into our fold, and let them enjoy the pleasures we enjoy in our work, and in our friendship. How many ask themselves the question, "What have I done?"

A young man applied for a place as a draftsman in a great establishment. The first question that was asked him was, "What have you done? Bring me some of your work."

A lad who has been taking a course in an industrial school is very proud of bringing out the different pieces of wood and iron he has wrought out. Some of them are very fine, indeed. There are boxes and wide slabs of wood so nicely joined that one can scarcely see where they come together; he shows the visitor a beautiful gavel and a neat cup turned by his own hands out of mahogany. In iron there are also many excellent pieces fashioned by the lad in school.

Everywhere the world wants men and women who have done something, or who show that they can do something. There is no place for the man who, in answer to the question, "What have you done?" must say, "I have done nothing!" Very quickly the door swings shut in his face, and he must either go to work and learn something or to be set down as a failure in life.

Dear readers, have you ever asked yourself the question, "What can I do?" And if you can give only the answer, "Nothing," set about it today, this very hour, to fit yourself for something.

Come now a step higher. Some day the question, "What have you done?" will be asked by one who has the widest field of labor of any in all the universe, and if the word "Nothing!" slams a door in the face of men in this world, be sure that there will be far less hope of entrance into that wider realm for him who has nothing to show for the time he has spent here.

Have you ever helped anybody? The world is full of men and women who need help. You meet them in every turn. What have you done to make anyone's burden lighter? Is there a friend who has been lifted over a tight place by you? Have you ever spoken a kindly word to one in trouble? When the storm was black everywhere and the night was chill, have you taken a lost wayfarer by the hand and led him out where the sun was shining? Have you kept your own heart clean and done the best you could to show somebody else how he may keep his so, too?

What have you done?

Let us be up and doing and our time will be well spent.

'Tis Jesus when the burdened heart
Is sinking 'neath its load;
And Jesus when the trembling steps
Can hardly keep the road;
And Jesus when the sun of joy
Has set in sorrow's night,
For He alone can soothe the pain.
Or guide the steps aright.
'Tis Jesus in the morning hours,
And Jesus through the days,
And Jesus in life's even-tide,
And Jesus all the way.

The month of October finds most of us in the midst of house-cleaning, keep in mind our Rummage Sale which will be held the early part of November. No matter how old or worn the article may be, it will be thankfully received. Let each and every member see what they can do towards making this a Red Letter Rummage Sale. Proceeds for church expenses, to help the good sauce along.

MRS. E. GILLIN,
Secretary.

THE YOUNG LADIES' SOCIAL
CHAPTER.

The meetings of the chapter during this past month have been very well attended, especially our Social on September 30th.

The young ladies are all ready to begin their winter work and expect to work shoulder to shoulder with the new rector.

We are looking for a gymnasium teacher for the coming winter. If anyone can inform us about one we shall be greatly indebted.

Two new members have been proposed and accepted by the chapter during the past month, Miss Emily O'Donnell and Miss Emma Sheean. We heartily welcome both.

The resignation of Miss Mae Sutcliffe was accepted with much regret by the Social Chapter.

The basketball committee has chosen two teams and are ready to begin practicing.

We expect to give an entertainment and dance in the near future, so everyone looks forward.

Secretary.

Associate Editor,

The "Parish Chronicle" is issued the second
Sunday of each month.

It is required that all matters intended for publication be in the hands of the Editors on or before the 20th of each month.

TO OUR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS.

Through the kindness of friends in the
business world we are able to publish and cir-
culate "The Parish Chronicle."

We would therefore ask our people to kindly
study our advertising columns and patronize
our advertisers, always remembering to mention "The Parish Chronicle."

This is a fair request, we think, and we
hope our people will help us, help themselves,
and help our advertisers.

Manager.

FAREWELL RECEPTION.

The large attendance on Monday evening, September 29th, in honor of our late rector, Mr. Edwin S. Carson, demonstrates the loving esteem in which he was held, not only by the members of his own church, but by many friends and neighbors outside of our church.

It must be very gratifying to the members of St. Paul's Church, who have worked shoulder to shoulder with Mr.
Carson to know that their work is appreciated, not only by our own members, but by the people of South Philadelphia, as a whole. No doubt, some of the people in that assemblage on Monday evening, were led to think of that great day when we will all appear before one throne, and one Judge, to give an account of our stewardship.

While we have been loyal in the past to our rector, and are sorry that he has gone away, let us remember that the work he commenced in this parish must go on, and there is no better way of showing our appreciation for his work than by praying for his success in the new field he has been called to, and his success will be our reward.

Then, by giving our undivided support to our new minister, let us rally around his standard, and show him that we are interested in the success of St. Paul's Church. By doing this we will encourage our new minister in his work, and each one of us will be blessed, each in proportion to the amount of service we are willing to give.

SAMUEL J. BUCK,
Rector's Warden.

YOUNG MEN'S GUILD.

The return of the fall and winter months are always welcome to the Young Men's Guild as the flowers in May. Why? Because it brings the "boys" all together again, and when the Guild gets them together, there is always something doing in the meetings.

To start off with this fall the Guild has opened its charter until the first meeting night in December to admit new members between the ages of 16 and 35 at a special rate—the initiation fee being 25c and 25c for the first month's dues.
This is an opportunity for the old members to bring in new ones for the regular initiation fee is $1.00 and 25c for the first month's dues, and the age limit is 18 to 35 years. So, fellows, go to it and bring in some new faces that will be a benefit to the organization.

This is not the only thing on the carpet, the committee is making provisions for the Seventh Anniversary of the Guild and they have not decided where to hold the annual banquet, so if the members do not know anything about this they better come around to the meetings and keep up with the "bunch" that attend regular.

Another matter that needs attention is that "Chally Solly" is home again, and as basketball manager he has been collecting his warriors and getting them in shape for the 1913-14 trophies. Any of the members wishing to play basketball should report to "Chally" and he will put you in the battlefield with the rest of the would-be's.

Last but not least, it is with our sincere regrets that we have lost one of our best members of the Guild, the Rev. Edwin
S. Carson, and we wish him a hearty success in his new field of labor.

CHAS. MOHR, JR.,
Recording Secretary.

ST. PAUL'S MEMORIAL CHAPTER, No. 1824, BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

The regular meetings of the chapter are held on the second and fourth Fridays of every month. Members will kindly remember this so as to keep these nights open. Nothing, save of vital importance, should be allowed to interfere with attendance at chapter meetings.

The Executive Committee will meet on Friday, October 17th, at the home of Mr.
Wm. M. Beardwood, 1842 South Fifteenth street.

The regular service at the Galilee Mission will be held Thursday, October 16th.
Mr. Wm. C. Butler will make the address.

The Corporate Communion of the chapter will be celebrated on Sunday, October 26th, 1913, at 7.30 A. M.

There were six members representing St. Paul's Chapter at the Convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, held in New York City, October 1st to 5th, inclusive.

The Convention was a success in every way. No more thrilling sight could be imagined than that on Sunday morning at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, when upwards of 1500 men and boys united in the Corporate Communion of the Brotherhood.

The addresses were helpful and inspiring and the delegates from all parts of the United States were enthusiastic in their belief in the possibilities of Brotherhood work for the church.

The Convention must leave a strong impress not only upon the men who were present but also upon the church at large, for the church will feel the effects of the enthusiasm and inspiration which must result from such a gathering of representative Christian men, hearing addresses by great church leaders and by laymen, skilled and experienced in doing for the Master, that work which we are all pledged to do and which we all should eagerly aim to do better and more successfully as the days roll on.

Let us, as a chapter, keep in mind the Atlanta Convention of 1914 and let us start now to plan so that we of St. Paul's may be represented by several delegates at that convention.

ST. PAUL'S JUNIOR CHAPTER.

There were four Seniors and two Juniors present at the Convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, held during the first week of October, in New York City. The Seniors were, Dr. John Wilkinson, Director of the Senior Chapter, who spoke on "The Men of Tomorrow," at the Mass Meeting held in Carnegie Hall on Friday, October 3d, and Messrs.
Makim, Gillin and Beardwood. The Juniors were Joseph W. Gardiner, Jr., and H. Walford Gardiner.

Quite a portion of the lengthy and exceptionally fine program was devoted to the needs of the Juniors and their work, and as most of the Juniors who attend the Convention are old enough, they understood the addresses and the speeches from the floor in the conferences as readily as the men and by their work as Juniors during and after the various conventions, they show that they profit by them.

In the informal meetings the reverence and natural spirituality of the Juniors were plainly evident. Without any self-consciousness the boys knelt together in prayer, offering intercession or asking prayers for definite objects, or leading in one of the Prayer Book Collects. One could not help but realize that it is to the Junior Chapters we must look for the future leaders of the church. The older men of St. Paul's Church should take more interest in the Sunday School and in the Juniors if they wish to develop men to carry to fruition in the future, the work given us to do in this parish.

W. M. B.

A THOUGHT.

There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done,

There are thousands to prophesy failure;

There are thousands to point out to you
one by one,

The dangers that wait to assail you:
But just buckle in with a bit of a grin,

Then take off your hat and go to it;
Just start in to sing as you tackle the thing

That "cannot be done," and you'll do it.

THE PARISH CHRONICLE

TABLOIDS.

Fall work is on.

Everybody is back from their vacation, so let us get busy, help to make St. Paul's Memorial Church a factor in South Philadelphia.

Dr. Wilkinson is back from the convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, which was held in New York City.

Walford Gardiner knows good things by the way he swallowed everything in sight at the convention.

Our minister in charge is certainly a hummer by the way he is starting in.

The young ladies of this church are contemplating strenuous exercise this winter in the gymnasium.

All societies are in a healthy growth and expect to greatly assist in all church work.

Miss May Watfield is about again after a long illness.

Who was the stranger of the opposite sex who was seen in the company of Miss Maud Watfield?

The Brotherhood was well represented at the annual convention held in New York City.

Mr. Boyle, our new superintendent of the Sunday School, has taken hold of the work with a vim.

Sunday School teachers are needed very badly.

Dr. Wilkinson is some speaker when other delegates of the convention sat up and took notice by asking him to address other conventions in various parts of the United States.

Miss Kampen's younger sister is to take a class in the Sunday School.

Mr. Peter Lynch acted as substitute teacher and would look well as a regular.

The chantry is to be fitted up as a cozy corner for the men of the church with literature, games and good books.

The ladies of the Dorcas Society held a box party in the Parish house and entertained the Rev. Dr. Peckham, Mr. Buck, Mr. Beardwood, Mr. Makin, Mr. Bruder and Mr. Gillan.

The Rev. Edwin S. Carson, our former rector, has gone to Fairbault, Minn., and we wish him every success in his new field.

Mr. Ronald Mathewson is seen quite frequently on Fifteenth street.

Those attending the 28th Annual Convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, held in New York City, October 1 to 5, were Mr. W. Beardwood, Dr. Wilkinson, Mr. R. Makin, Mr. E. F. Gillin, from the senior chapter, and Masters Joseph and Walford Gardner from the junior chapter.

We received in exchange a new parish paper from the Church of the Epiphany, Sherwood, and it is a bright, newsy booklet teeming with advertisements.

We have a minister-in-charge who is setting the pace in his parochial duties, and it behooves every member of the church to be up and doing.

THE PARISH CHRONICLE

Each society has been invited to select a correspondent to the Parish Chronicle.

Miss Amelia Reinhardt has been confined to her home bordering on typhoid and it is hoped that she will get well and about.

Misses Elizabeth and Emma Sheehan have made their reappearance in the Young Women's Social Chapter to get busy with the girls and make things hum this winter.

The young men of the Guild are getting busy along the lines of indoor basketball and are having enthusiastic meetings.

Mr. Bailey, our choirmaster, is wearing a smile these days, and the reason is that the choir members are supporting him also. We expect some new members in the near future.

The Sunday School has taken on a new lease of life under our new superintendent. Come around and enjoy a pleasant Sunday afternoon.

If you did not attend the farewell reception to Rev. E. S. Carson you missed something worth while. Only those present know.

The Young Men's Guild have opened the charter for three months up to December 1st, and an initiation fee of 25c and 25c for first month's dues. All young men from 16 to 35 are urged to join the organization.

Miss Edna Cohill is confined in her home with illness.

Miss Blanche Ellis, a member of the Young Ladies' Social Chapter, has been in the Episcopal Hospital for three months.

A REMINDER

A Sociable will be given by the Young People of the church the latter part of October or the first part of November. All young people of the church are cordially invited to participate, for information regarding this affair please consult Howard Buck.

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

COAL! COAL!

If your coal bin is empty, place your order at once for next winter's coal with Mr. Eugene F. Gillin, 1422 Wolf street. The proceeds to go to the Parish Building Furnishing Fund.

Bell Phone, Dickinson 3509 W.

Crean Bros. are ready to serve you with small or large coal, with Mr. Gillin acting as special agent.

DORCAS SOCIETY.

The members of the Dorcas Society wish to extend their thanks to all who so kindly donated rummage for the success of our Rummage Sale. Proceeds will be announced later.

An Oyster Supper will be held on Thursday, November 20. Please mark this date on your calendar so you will not overlook it. Every member with their friends are requested to make this supper one grand success. Supper served from 6 to 8 P. M. Tickets 50 cents. Proceeds for church expenses.

An invitation has been extended to all ladies of our Parish to join us in our church work, but as yet no response has been made. Much work is to be done, and many more hands will make the work lighter for those who already belong to this society and work for the good of our church. As members of the Dorcas let our lives be as a beacon light, a warning to those who are doing nothing for Christ. A thrilling story is told by a traveler who once roamed the ocean wastes. He was voyaging in a sailing ship, in the loneliest part of the South Pacific. Night was coming on, and a fresh gale was blowing. He overheard the mate ask the captain whether he should set out, as is the usual custom, the red and green running lights. The captain thought a moment and then said, "They are worth fifty dollars. We might lose them in this storm. Don't put them out!"

The mate did as he was ordered. No lights were displayed, and the ship dashed along through the rising gale. There did not seem to be the remotest chance of meeting anything that dark night in regions so far off from the usual lines of ocean traffic. But suddenly there came a shout from the lookout, "Ship ahoy!" The weird shape of a big steamer towered above the plunging sailing craft, seemingly right over her bows. There was no time to alter the course. Captain and crew held their breath in one awful moment of suspense—and then the black monster rushed past, almost grazing the sailing ship's side, her screw throwing the splashing spray on the deck of the craft she had well-nigh sunk. It was a "close shave!" And all because a too frugal captain, simply because he did not wish to risk the loss of fifty dollars, had imperiled the lives of his crew, and the safety of his ship with its valuable cargo. He was displaying no light.

There is a sequel to that story. Some years afterward the delinquent captain found out the name of the unknown steamer. It was the steamship "Challenger," carrying a British scientific expedition to the remote parts of the world, in whose log-book occurred an entry to the effect that "in longitude—, latitude—, weather thick and stormy, passed an unknown schooner, carrying no lights." There seemed no probability whatever of meeting another vessel in those isolated seas, but in life it is the unexpected which sometimes happens, and so it proved in this case.

Displaying no lights! On the broad, billowy ocean of life there is much reckless navigation of this sort. Many voyage along with their lights so dim, they can see nothing to be done for Christ, giving forth no Christian witness as they rush on their murky way. Yet there is no telling with whom or what we may at any time come in contact in this world. And therefore our side-lights should always be kept brightly burning. There is a familiar story of a blind man who went through the town on a dark night carrying a lantern. Some one asked him, "Why do you carry a lantern when you cannot see its gleam?" "I carry it," said the man, "so no one will run over me." That blind man was a practical philosopher. He knew that in this world of bewildering interests and perplexing problems where many men and matters constantly confront and challenge us, it is necessary for us distinctly to define our own moral position, while taking account of that of others. It is as needful for them to see where we are as for us to see where they stand. In these complex circumstances our witness to the truth should be as clear and constant as that of a North Star. It should never be necessary for anybody to ask how we stand religiously—so brightly should we let our light of spiritual living shine forth over the shadowy wastes of life.

Disaster sooner or later awaits the ship or soul that makes no sign and answers no hail of "Whither bound?" Run up the signals of a Christian profession, keep ever burning the starboard light of faith, the port light of prayer, and the masterhead light of hope, and your earthly voyage, when it is run, will happily terminate in a heavenly harbor, whereinto you shall be given an abundant entrance.

What would it find?
If you and I today
Should stop and lay

Our life-work down, and let our hands fall where they will—Fall down to lie quite still;
And if some other hand should come,
and stoop to find
The threads we carried, so that it could wind,
Beginning where we stopped; if it should come to keep Our life-work going; seek
To carry on the good design
Distinctively made yours, or mine,
What would it find?

MRS. E. GILLIN, Sec'y.

WHY NOT? DO YOU?

This church from month to month and year in and year out publishes a monthly paper devoted to interesting news about the church and societies, also we have numerous advertisers who are our friends to the extent of furnishing means whereby we are enabled to place before our parishioners news and data that is interesting to all and do we at all times patronize our advertisers and help them as they help us?

The business managers of this paper are going to bring before you personally every month some of our advertisers so that you will become better acquainted with them.

We will not specialize any certain advertiser, but will take them at random from our advertising section.

Take, for instance, our tailoring advertisements, Wm. J. Hyde, 2208 S. 16th street; S. P. M. Sorenson, Broad and Moyamensing avenue, or H. Miller, 1414 Jackson street. These are men of reputation in their art of making custom clothes for boys, young men and gentlemen of all ages, sizes and heights, and you would do well, as winter is drawing upon us, to visit their shops and inspect the full line of fabrics displayed on their counters and have a suit or overcoat. Ah, yes, a full dress or tuxedo for the young men and men, also have your old suits and overcoats cleaned and pressed, for you know these days everybody who is anybody likes to look well.

When you call tell them who you are and where from, so that the editors and business managers of this paper may be able to give you the news of the Parish. Next month we shall take up some other line and introduce the readers of The Parish Chronicle so that we all can get better acquainted.

THE Y. L. S. C. LOSS.

On October 19, 1913, at the Episcopal Hospital, Miss Blanche Ellis, a member of the Young Ladies' Social Chapter, passed away after suffering some months. She was a constant communicant member of this church, also of the chapter, and the girls miss her smiling face from their midst.

She was a quiet and unassuming young lady and was well loved by all who came in contact with her.

Therefore the Young Ladies' Social Chapter and members of St. Luke's Church extend their heartfelt sympathy to her family and relatives in their bereavement, for we know God has taken her to a happy home in heaven, where there is no sorrow.

EDITOR'S LETTER.

Dear Friends:

The Trinity season is drawing to a close and with its closing we draw near to the end of the church year. Before the next issue of the Chronicle Advent will be upon us, that season during which the church reminds us that the Saviour first came to visit the world in all humility and that He will come again in glorious majesty as the Judge of all mankind. While thinking of Advent the writer has been impressed by the fact that this year both St. Andrew's Day and the First Sunday in Advent occur on the same day, Sunday, November 30, which has not happened in any year since 1902, and that the Collects for both days when taken together remind us that we, being called by God's Holy Word, should forthwith give up ourselves obediently to fulfil His Holy Commandments and that God might give us grace to cast aside the works of darkness and put upon us the armor of light now in the time of this mortal life, so that in the last day when Christ shall come to judge both the quick and the dead we may rise to the life immortal.

The Sunday preceding is commonly known as "Stir-up Sunday," the collect for that day beginning with the words "Stir up, we beseech Thee, O Lord, the wills of Thy faithful people." Surely at this time we need to fervently pray this prayer and to have an intense desire that it should be favorably answered.

Between "Stir-up Sunday" and "Advent and St. Andrew's Day" comes "Thanksgiving Day," when we are to assemble as a people in our houses of worship and publicly thank Almighty God for the many blessings bestowed upon us during the past year.

A wonderful week, then, is this week for all of us and that it may prove an incentive to renewed effort and labor for Christ's Church is the earnest wish of

EDITOR PRO TEM.

THE JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD.

It has been very encouraging to note the good attendance of the boys at the Chapter meetings the past month. At the meeting held on the evening of October 20th, the topic for discussion was The Brotherhood Boy—His Obligation to His Church. After the efficient manner in which this subject was presented by the two essayists of the evening, a discussion took place which was both inspiring and helpful. The next meeting of the Chapter will be held on Monday evening, November 17th, 8 o'clock.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

On Sunday, September 7th, St. Paul's Sunday school began its fall season with a total attendance of 91 persons. On the 14th the number present was 142, an appreciable leap, while on the 21st, a very stormy day, it was 164. The 28th was Rally Day. Every scholar had been sent a card of invitation; so that 82 persons (the highest Rally Day attendance in the history of the school) were present at the special service. This was Mr. Carson's last Sunday with the school for which he had done so much. It was with very evident regret that he said the last few words of regret, and among the children who have grown up under him, he will always be remembered with love and affection.

The new superintendent, Mr. Thomas S. Boyle, took hold of the work on October 3d. Mr. Boyle has made several important innovations, among them the reseating of the classes, so that every one will be able to face the platform; he has reduced the size of some of the larger classes, thereby taking a great burden off some of our teachers; and other things; all showing that St. Paul's has secured an excellent executive in Mr. Boyle.

On the third Mr. Peckham, the new minister in charge, gave the Sunday school a rousing ten-minute speech. St. Paul's had, too, valuable acquisition in Mr. Peter Lynch. He is now taking charge of a live Young Men's Bible Class.

The twelfth was marked by an important event when Mr. Boyle gave diplomas and promoted twenty-four children from the Intermediate Class. With these and those transferred from other classes four new classes were formed under the Misses Kampen, Sutcliffe, Grosscup and Schofield.

On the nineteenth the weather was so bad that the attendance dropped back to 166, as against 233 on the 12th and 208 on the 3d.

Mr. Peckham's personal visits had much to do in bringing the number present up to 267 on the 26th, and he is now extending visits to as many of the scholars and the parents as possible between his other numerous duties.

Many regrets have been expressed among both teachers and pupils at the loss of Miss Florence Richardson from our teaching staff. Miss Richardson organized the Infant Class and brought it to its present high standard of scholarship.

The older members of the church are cordially invited to drop in any Sunday for a visit, and Mr. Peckham has hopes of an older people's Bible class.

The weekly collection is increasing from Sunday to Sunday, but is not yet up to the mark as it only, so far, has averaged about three cents a person.

GEORGE C. THOMAS GUILD FOR BOYS.

On Wednesday night, October 22, 1913, under the directorship of E. F. Gillin, a club for boys at the age of 10 to 15 years old, was instituted for the purpose of training the younger set in church work, Sunday school and along other lines necessary for boys of that age.

After being opened with hymn and prayers, permanent officers were nominated and elected, of which the following will serve for six months:

Stanley Scheffer, president.

Daniel Holloway, vice president.

James Hazlett, secretary-treasurer.

Douglas Hatfield, sergeant-at-arms.

Chester Norton, organist.

George Wunderlich, librarian.

Randall Skillen, assistant librarian.

The boys decided by unanimous vote that they would take the name George C. Thomas' Guild for Boys and that the dues shall be 5 cents a week for the purpose of assisting the church in a small way, also as they grow older in years they may absorb some knowledge that will be of some use as future churchmen.

The boys will meet in the Parish building on Wednesday evenings, at 8 o'clock, with one-half hour business meeting, one-half hour drill and one-half hour in gymnasium, and boys will be sent home, if parents request, at 9 o'clock.

All boys between ages of 10 to 15 years are requested to join and ask father's and mother's permission before doing so.

On Friday evening, October 24th, 1913, the young people of St. Paul's and their friends, gathered in the Parish building for the first of a series of social evenings which are planned for the coming winter. Those who attended were delighted with the sketch entitled "My Aunt From California," given by the young ladies of the Domino Club.

After the sketch the chairs were removed, the floor waxed and a dance followed, which was enjoyed by both young and old. The room was artistically decorated to convey the spirit of Halloween. Owing to the inclement weather the attendance was small, but we are in hopes that when we hold our next entertainment the weather will be clear.

STOP! LOOK! LISTEN!

I would like to have as many names as possible, of young ladies, who will volunteer their services as assistants in the Junior Department of our Sunday school. This department at present is not up to the standard set by other churches. Here is a chance, girls, to do splendid work. These children are at the age when the finest characters can be moulded. They will form the congregation of our church in future years. If, therefore, you will lend a hand in this work you will be helping to make the future success of our church assured. The following letters and resolutions are self-explanatory:

Phila., Oct. 23, 1913.

2032 Bainbridge street, Phila.

My dear Doctor: In accordance with my promise to you over the phone. I here enclose my check for One Thousand Dollars to be used as a beginning of an Endowment Fund for St. Paul's Church, Fifteenth and Porter streets. I hope the Vestry may consent to appoint one Sunday in the year for an offering for this object, and while I am unwilling to make a pledge for the future, I will appreciate it if you will notify me the week before such an offering is to be taken.

With always my best wishes for the success of this parish, believe me

Sincerely yours,

ADA E. M. THOMAS.
(Mrs. George C. Thomas)

Philadelphia, Oct. 24, 1913.

WHEREAS: The Vestry of the Memorial Church of St. Paul, in special meeting assembled, has heard with sincere appreciation of the gift from Mrs. George C. Thomas of One Thousand Dollars ($1000.00), with her request as to the disposition of the same; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the Vestry accept this munificent gift with the deepest thanks and with the assurance to Mrs. Thomas of their appreciation of this evidence of her continued interest in the welfare of this Parish; and

RESOLVED, That this sum be and hereby is placed in a separate account to be known as the "Endowment Fund Account of the Memorial Church of St. Paul," said sum to be invested and the interest thereon to accumulate and to be added to the principal, until such time as the Vestry shall decide to use said interest for the maintenance of the Church and Parish Buildings and for the Current expenses of the Parish; and

RESOLVED, That in no case shall the said interest be used for any purpose whatsoever until the principal account shall have reached the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5000.00); and further

RESOLVED, That in each year, the Sunday nearest the 21st day of April, the Anniversary of the death of Mr. George C. Thomas, be and hereby is set apart as "Endowment Fund Sunday," on which day all offerings not otherwise designated shall be for the Endowment Fund of the Parish.

Secretary of the Vestry.

TABLOIDS.

Come to Sunday school.

Society members, attend your meetings regularly.

Mr. Boyle is right on the job.

Miss Edna Cohill is about again.

Are you doing your share?

Mr. R. Montgomery is quite an efficient officer of the vestry.

Mr. MacDonald, the new member of the basketball team, looks promising.

Younger boys of church have started a guild.

Mr. Peter Lynch has large class of young men and more are welcome.

Basketball has started and let the young men have your patronage as rooters on Saturday evenings.

Rev. Dr. Peckham thinks that the young people should get acquainted.

The young people of church held a dance in parish building on Friday, Oct. 24, and expect to give numerous dances in future at the same price—free.

The parishioners of this church extend their heartfelt thanks to Miss Hoffman for beautiful music rendered at several occasions lately.

Miss Nita Livezey is suffering with sprained wrist and it is hoped for speedy recovery.

Mr. Howard Buck, we extend our sincere best wishes in the art of comedy.

Are you going to the Oyster Supper?

Miss Blanche Ellis, a member of the Young Ladies' Social Chapter, passed away after a lingering illness in the Episcopal Hospital.

Some Masquerade Party held at the home of Miss Margaret Aikens on Halloween.

Have you sent in your subscription to the Parish Chronicle, for you know it takes Uncle Sam to make things progressive.

James Glasgow, our soldier boy, has been reported ill in Panama Canal Zone.

St. Paul's younger married set of West Philly would feel better if they were domiciled in South Philly.

Miss Cora Rodgers, our correspondent of the Y. L. S. C., has the makings of a good newspaper woman.

Rev. E. S. Carson extends his greetings from his new field of labor.

The Young Men's Guild will celebrate their eighth anniversary on November 10 at Hanscom's.

JUNIOR CHAPTER, BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

Another Brotherhood year is fast drawing to a close. During the year just passed the Chapter has had regular meetings: the members have attended these meetings very well; the interest has been maintained and the Chapter has been a help in the Parish. Yet, with all these things before us, can we say that we, as a Chapter, have done our full duty as Brotherhood boys? We think not. When we look about us and see the many opportunities which have been and are ours, opportunities to do the work of the Master, whom we have vowed to serve, and then realize how woefully we have been and are neglecting these God-given opportunities, then, if we are honest with ourselves, we must admit that we have accomplished but a very little of what we might have accomplished if we had had the true zeal of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

"Of all sad words of tongue or pen The saddest are these, 'It might have been.'"

But speculation over what might have been in the past is useless, unless it is indulged in so that we may glean lessons for the future.

What is the future to bring to St. Paul's Juniors? Shall it be as the past? Shall we rest contentedly on our oars—satisfied with what we have done and thinking that we have reached the goal—or shall we bend our backs to the task and even though, at times, the tide may seem against us, try with a long pull and a strong pull, to rescue those, our brethren, who are battling in the stream of temptation and who, trusting in their own strength, are being overwhelmed by the currents of worldliness, and fear, and sin?

Is it not a work worthy of our best efforts? Let us attend the meetings of the Chapter and Local Assembly so as to gain strength and inspiration for our task.

For the announcements of the Annual Corporate Communion and Annual service for the men and boys of St. Paul's on St. Andrew's Day; for the details of the annual meeting of the Local Assembly and for the other meetings of the month, let every Junior study carefully the Report of the Senior Chapter in this issue of the "Chronicle."

W. M. B.

ST. PAUL'S CHAPTER, NO. 1824, BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

The regular meetings of the Chapter will be held on Friday evenings, November 14th and 28th. The Executive Committee will be entertained by Mr. Robert J. Makim, on Friday, November 21st.

The Annual Meeting of the Chapter will be on November 28th. At this meeting officers will be elected and plans will be laid for the ensuing year. Let every man make it a point to be present. This is an important meeting.

On Sunday, November 30th, St. Andrew's Day, the Annual Parish Communion for the Men and Boys of St. Paul's will be held at the 10.30 A. M. service. All men and boys who are communicants are invited. In the evening of the same day, at 7.45, there will be a special service for Men and Boys under the auspices of the Brotherhood Chapters of St. Paul's. Special music will be provided and an address will be delivered by Franklin Spencer Edmonds, Esq.

Mr. Edmonds is well known at St. Paul's as an eloquent and forceful speaker and it is hoped that all our men and boys will not only come themselves but will bring others to share this privilege with them.

The Annual Meeting of the Philadelphia Local Assembly, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, will be held on Saturday, November 29th, 1913, at the Church of the Resurrection, Broad and Tioga streets, in the afternoon and evening. Supper will be served at 6 P. M. A general conference in the afternoon on "The Three-fold Endeavor," promises to be interesting and helpful. The Rev. Wm. T. Capers, rector of the Church of the Holy Apostles, who recently declined the Bishopric of Spokane, will speak in the evening. It is expected that all Seniors and Juniors of St. Paul's will attend.

On Wednesday, November 26th, at 8 P. M., there will be a "Round Table Conference" of representatives of all the Senior and Junior Chapters in South Philadelphia, at the home of Dr. John Wilkinson, 2032 Bainbridge street. These conferences, one each month, will be continued during the winter and spring. There will be different representations at each conference and it is hoped by this means to stimulate more interest in the varied methods of accomplishing Brotherhood work. St. Paul's, as one of the banner Chapters in South Philadelphia, should take a lively interest in this movement. Let us aim not only to help ourselves, but also to help others.

The service at the Galilee Mission during November (on a date to be announced) will be in charge of Mr. Robert W. Montgomery; the address to be delivered by the Director, Dr. John Wilkinson.

Let every member pay his dues at the meeting on November 28th, so that the quota of the Chapter may be sent to the National Office promptly. Subscriptions for St. Andrew's Cross are also due at this meeting.

Do not let any engagement interfere with your attendance at the Chapter meetings.

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

COAL! COAL!

If your coal bin is empty, place your order at once for next winter's coal with Mr. Eugene F. Gillin, 1422 Wolf street. The proceeds to go to the Parish Building Furnishing Fund.

Crean Bros. are ready to serve you with small or large coal, with Mr. Gillin acting as special agent.

ST. PAUL'S CHAPTER, NO. 1824, BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

The Chapter has reason to feel appreciative of the way in which the men and boys of St. Paul's turned out on St. Andrew's Day, which was also the first Sunday in Advent. Fifty-one men and boys partook of the Lord's Supper, pledging themselves anew to the work of the Master. A large group, including about twenty-five members of the Young Men's Guild, participated in the special service for men and boys held in the evening. An inspiring address on "The Origin and Work of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew" was delivered by Franklin Spencer Edmonds, Esq. Special music was provided. The Organist, Mr. Wm. R. Bailey, gave an organ recital from 7.30 to 8 P. M. Mr. Robert J. McKain played two violin solos in a masterful manner.

The beautiful "Hear Us, O Father," was admirably rendered by Miss Elizabeth N. McKain in a clear, sweet, ringing soprano, with every word commendably articulated. Miss McKain is the soprano of the celebrated quartette of Green St. M. E. Church.

Votes of thanks were unanimously given at the last meeting of the Chapter to these four good friends who helped to make the Sunday services, not only helpful and inspiring, but what was characterized by all present as the best Brotherhood services ever held in St. Paul's Church.

The annual meeting of the Chapter was held on Friday, November 28th. The officers elected for the ensuing year were as follows:

Director, Dr. John Wilkinson.
Vice-Director, Mr. John G. Bruder.
Secretary, Mr. Eugene F. Gillin.
Treasurer, Mr. William C. Butler.

The Treasurer presented his yearly report, which on motion was received, filed and ordered printed in the "Parish Chronicle." It was as follows:

An analysis of this report must show to what an extent we are indebted to the Business Managers of the "Parish Chronicle," Messrs. Gillin and Skillen. It is due to their constant and tireless efforts that the paper is made possible. The members of the Brotherhood and the Church do not support them as they should. Very few subscriptions are obtained in the course of the year. To meet the expense which is entailed, advertisements must be gotten. The Business Managers cannot be expected to obtain these without help, and it is therefore urged that all the men of the Church constitute themselves as a "committee of the whole" to secure subscriptions and advertisements for the paper.

In religious work, as in business, money spent in printer's ink is well expended and brings large returns. HELP THE PAPER BY PATRONIZING THE ADVERTISERS. Do not think that these advertisers are philanthropists formed into a guild to help needy church papers. They are business men investing their money for returns, and if they are helping us, why should we not help them? Our advertisers are reliable and able "to deliver the goods" they advertise. See them at the earliest possible date and mention the fact that you come from St. Paul's.

The service at the Galilee Mission will be in charge of Mr. Wallis Fisher and Mr. William C. Butler will make the address.

THE PARISH CHRONICLE

The regular meetings of the Chapters will be as usual on the second and fourth Fridays of the month.

The Executive Committee meets at the home of Mr. Robert J. Galbraith, 1936 S. Bouvier street, on Friday, December 19, at 8 P. M. sharp.

The annual meeting of the Local Assembly, held on November 29th last, at the Church of the Resurrection, was successful in every way. A large delegation of St. Paul's Seniors and Juniors was present.

The second Round Table Conference of South Philadelphia Chapters was held on Thursday, December 11th, at the home of the Rev. Alfred R. Berkeley, Twenty-seventh and Wharton streets. The next will be on Thursday, January 22d, 1914, at the home of Mr. Ewing L. Miller, 319 South Fifteenth street. Representatives of the Chapter will be named later.

DUES AND SUBSCRIPTIONS TO ST. ANDREW'S CROSS ARE NOW PAYABLE. START THE NEW YEAR RIGHT. ATTEND TO ALL YOUR MEETINGS. THE CHAPTER NEEDS YOU AND YOU NEED THE CHAPTER.

THE JUNIOR CHAPTER, BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

There are many things that a Brotherhood boy can do for his Chapter. If we would stop to think how many little things could be done and should be done, we would be surprised how easy they were and yet how they influence greatly the standing and advancement of the Chapter. To be faithful in attending meetings is the best thing to make the Chapter advance. If we are regular in this regard when we are Juniors, it will help us when we become Seniors. A Director writing on this subject says:—

"If any one of us were playing for a certain football team or any other kind of a team, and we were to play a game on a certain date and hour, we should not begin to think of being absent but we should be there and be there ahead of time. If our opponents were the stronger should we begin to think of giving up?

No! Of course not, but we would pitch in and play the game of our lives. Well, let us imagine that the Chapter meeting is a game of football and that we are playing and trying to win for the Brotherhood. In football there is team work. That means working together; let us do the same and work together and have team work in the Brotherhood.

"There is also in football, 'interference.' That means making a clear passage for the man who has the ball. The man is given his signal to run the ball through a certain place while the others try and guard him from the other team. Let us imagine that we are the 'interference' and that we are making a clear passage for the man who has the ball. Let us also imagine that we are clearing the way for the younger boys who are to take our place when we become Seniors. Therefore let us work and try to make a clear passage for them so that they will be able to carry on our work more thoroughly. The other team will try and break the interference, but if we work hard we will win out in the end and come out victorious.

"The Chapter meeting is the practice field. There is the coach who gives us ideas and trains us. In Brotherhood work he is called the Director. The quarterback is the Secretary who has charge of the team on the field and so on for the other officers. The Chapter meeting is the training field to prepare us for the game. The game is the great Brotherhood work that is before us. Let us play to win for the Master."

St. Paul's Champions have a rival team in the church this season. Keep your eye on the Tuesday night team, boys.

Some of the young ladies of the Social Chapter seem to be afraid to go home in the dark on Tuesday evenings.

Miss Alice Fox would like the names of volunteer singers for a Sunday school choir.

TO OUR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS.

Through the kindness of friends in the
business world we are able to publish and cir-
culate "The Parish Chronicle."

We would therefore ask our people to kindly
study our advertising columns and patronize
our advertisers, always remembering to mention "The Parish Chronicle."

This is a fair request, we think, and we
hope our people will help us, help themselves,

Dear Friends:—

The Advent season is passing away, and in a short while the church will bid us to consider the Nativity of our Lord.

Centuries before the birth of Jesus, the Prophet Isaiah foretold the office of Christ in the words, "The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; He hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound, to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord and the day of vengeance of our God." When Jesus read the Scriptures in the synagogue at Nazareth, He applied this prophecy to Himself, but strangely omitted the words,
"and the day of vengeance of our God."
Will He, when He comes again as the great and stern Judge and opens the Book of Life, finish the sentence, and will it then be "the day of vengeance of our God?"

The Birth of Christ! When we reflect upon it, what a wonderful life unfolds before us. The Babe of Bethlehem, the Boy and Man of Nazareth, the Teacher and Merciful Healer of Galilee, Samaria and Judea, and the Crucified One of Jerusalem. Its effects and benefits have come down through all the centuries, to us of the present time and will increase more and more until the whole world will be blessed because of His being, His teaching and His suffering. He gave freely of Himself to and for others, and neither asked nor received for Himself.

This, then, is the spirit of Christmas Tide, and may it be ours to spend the joyous season as our Lord would have us do.

Before the next issue of "The Chronicle" the New Year will be born. Amongst the new resolutions we may make, let one be included that "just as my Saviour would have me to be so will I try to be."

Wishing all the readers of "The Chronicle" a Happy Christmas and New Year, I am,

IN MEMORIAM.

The flowers on the altar on St. Andrew's Day, were in loving memory of Mrs. Mary Kilvington, who died November 30, 1912. Mrs. Kilvington was president of the Rector's Chapter and secretary of St. Mary's Altar Chapter of Calvary Church, Wilmington, Delaware, during the rectorship of Dr. Peckham. The flowers were furnished by her former associates in the Rector's Chapter.

The Intermediate Sunday school has secured an able assistant in Miss Mamie Rhoades.

CHAPTER.

The girls have certainly showed their interest in the Chapter by the excellent attendance at each meeting during the past month. Everyone is working hard to make our coming entertainment a success. The date is Tuesday, December the 16th. Come prepared for a good laugh. It will be an evening of surprises, so we cannot tell you about it now. Find out for yourself. We are selling adults' tickets for 25 cents, and children's for 10 cents, so that the whole family will be able to come and enjoy it.

We deem it an honor and pleasure to announce a new member in our Chapter, Mrs. Thomas S. Boyle. Because of the great interest she has always taken in us, we asked her to be one of our honorary members.

The girls were glad to welcome Miss Garwood into the Chapter again. She had left the city for a while, but now that she has returned we hope she will attend our meetings once more. Another new member we welcome this month is Miss O'Donnell.

We greatly appreciate the interest Dr.
Peckham has shown in our welfare by attending our meetings and giving valuable talks.

Now, once more—our entertainment is December the 16th. Don't forget the date. Wishing all our fellow-workers a very joyous Christmas and Happy New Year, is the greetings from the Social Chapter. E. M. K.

It is a pleasure to ride in the elevated cars. Don't you think so, Miss Duncan?

Any young ladies in the parish who would like to join the Social Chapter should visit our meeting, on Tuesday evening, in the Parish Building, at 8.15.

If you want some good decorating done just call on Howard Buck and Howard Watfield. Did you notice the decorations for our Hallowe'en play and dance?

YOUNG MEN'S GUILD.

The Young Men's Guild during the past month has been a very active organization. The membership has been increased wonderfully through the earnest efforts of the "New Membership Committee, composed of Messrs. H. Buck, J. Johnson and R. Matthewson. About 15 new members have been admitted, the majority of them being the younger fellows of the church. They are a "live wire" bunch, and need no urging to make themselves at home. This move was made possible through the opening of our charter until December 1st, so that any young man between the ages of 16 and 35, is eligible to admittance.

The next good move, and possibly the best and most beneficial to the welfare of the Guild, was the formation of a Young Men's Bible Class, in the Sunday School. Mr. Peter Lynch, at one time a member of the Guild, a man of high moral character and closely connected in Sunday School work, has agreed to act in the capacity of leader and teacher of this class. The first Sunday about eight of the boys put in an appearance, but on the following Sunday the attendance jumped to eighteen, which average has been maintained thus far; however, just as soon as the rest of the men come to realize that this class is not a "flash in the pan," but a real live Bible Class lead by a real live man, they will regard Sunday afternoon in a new light, rather than a good time to sleep or parade Broad street. Watch us grow!

On Monday evening, November 10th, we held our Seventh Annual Banquet at Hanscom's, and ye who were not in attendance hear our cry—IT WAS SOME BANQUET. Nine-tenths of the Guild or about forty fellows were present, and for good-fellowship and enthusiasm it eclipsed anything we have ever attempted in a social way. Our guests of the evening were Dr. Peckam and Dr. Wilkinson, and the after-dinner speeches made by these two famed orators could not be equalled, at least so you would imagine by the way they were received. We had music, the sneaky kind and other kinds, all during the dinner, and the singing of the "Rosary" and "Annie Laurie," by George McLearn was indeed a treat. Messrs. Lynch, Gillen, Hepburn, Long, Solly and Anderson were also heard from, and as usual gave us some "flossy spiels" in their respective lines and topics. At the conclusion of the dinner a night letter was sent to the Rev. Mr. Carson informing him of the success of the affair and extending our heartiest wishes for his success and welfare in the Middle West. We also missed our good friend and honorary member Mr. William C. Butler, who was not feeling in good enough health to venture out.

Now for the athletic side of the Guild, a side-line that is always of interest to us because of our championship teams. Charlie Solly is again manager of the basketball teams, and it looks as if the lanky Connie Mack, of St. Paul's, is due to repeat and here's the reason:

Al. Carson is still playing and captaining the first team, and, although they call him "Pop" and "Father Time," he can still give some pointers on how to play that guard position.

His side partner, Charlie Anderson, maiden name Roeber, is one grand boy, always in perfect condition, and they got to be a steam-driven engine to get by him and slip one in the net.

Gus Rosehill, the "Flying Dutchman," never quits, and from the first toss-up he sticks to that ball like a piece of fly-paper. Got a good eye for the basket, and is a cracker-jack floor worker.

Harry McDonald, a new face to St. Paul's followers, is from our old rivals, the Grace team, and fits in with our bunch like a wedge. A good fellow and a good player.

Stew. Tait, also a new member of the team, is a streak of greased lightning, and has already captivated the hearts of our fair rooters by his winning ways and earnest work.

Win. Swallow, erstwhile twirler of the Athletic baseball team, and World's Series hero, still has charge of the pivotal position, and anybody to get it away from him has to be nine feet tall and weigh 1000 pounds.

Micky Farrington, the smiling auburn-locked forward, has started raining the goal fields in, and from all appearances will again be high scorer of the league.

Johnny Jaeger, forward of last year's team is in business down in Panama, where we hope he will be as good at pushing himself forward as he was at playing forward.

Now for that second team—a bunch that is a treat to watch—with their pretty passing and team-play game. Here's the personnel of this outfit:

Big Phil Best, the brick-wall defence-man, who is always working his head off to win. He sure is a handy man for the first team to have hanging around, as he can fit into that classy tribe just as well as with the second team.

Big Six Matthewson, the fadeaway foul tosser of the second team, is still there with bells on, and they are always ringing. Got to hand it to him, he sure is a willing and hard worker.

His fellow-forward, Jimmy Ewell, is little, but he's got an eagle eye for that basket, and what he lacks in size he makes up in aggressiveness. Two grand little forwards that work like a clock.

Jim Johnson, Best's partner at guard, is a clever boy, and when he gets his lunch hooks on that ball it takes a truck horse to get it away from him. Let's hope he don't bump into any more injuries and break up the combination.

Charlie Mohr, our centre man, is another Swallow, and for aggressiveness he can't be beat. As captain he always has the boys on the jump, and his team is going to be a tough nut to crack.

Herb. Dickson, the tall and husky utility centre man, has been under the weather lately, but when he gets his six foot of manhood in that cage some one will have to look out.

Our old friend Stonewall Bob Johnson has retired from the game on account of business, but like Dope Gowdy, of De Neri, he is always on the job ready to jump into the fray when needed. Can't you still picture that steam roller tucking that pig-skin under his arm and going down the floor so fast that the very foundations of the building shook, his head so close to the ground that the referee didn't know whether he bounced the ball or not?

If you have not seen any of the above-mentioned stars in action, come around any Saturday night, and for the small sum of fifteen cents for gentlemen, and ten cents for ladies, you'll get a dollar's worth of excitement and pleasure.

We are looking forward to a very busy month in December, and the present officers trust that when they step out of their respective chairs, it can be said: "Thou hast done well, good and faithful servants."

DORCAS SOCIETY.

The regular meeting of the Dorcas Society was held in the Parish Building on Monday evening, December 1st, at 8 o'clock. Part of the business consisted of the reading of the bills of expenditures for the Oyster Supper, and also the return of the money and tickets. The appointing of the several committees for the paying of such bills. The amount of $52.28 was given to the Accounting Warden, Dr. John Wilkinson, Jr.

It is the wish of the Dorcas Society that all who have not made any return for their tickets would do so at as earliest date as possible.

The election of officers took place with the following ladies elected:

Mrs. William Knox, re-elected president; Mrs. Robert Montgomery, vice-president; Mrs. William M. Beardwood, treasurer; Mrs. Joseph F. Doughty, secretary.

Should any of the ladies of the church, who would care to join us, by speaking to any of the officers or members, they will be made very welcome.

(Mrs.) OLIVE DOUGHTY,
Secretary.

The Social Chapter regrets to hear of the ill health of Miss Margaret Aikens and Miss Blanche Cohill. We hope for their speedy recovery.

CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS ARE HERE.

The managers of this paper take this opportunity to wish all advertisers and readers, also our contributing friends a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, and hope the Parish Chronicle will increase its usefulness to the parish in such a manner that its continuance will be prolonged by more assistance (financially) in the future, so we can continue the news of the Parish and that can only be done by members waking up and taking out a yearly subscription for 50 cents.

We would call your attention, dear readers to the fact, that if it were not for the advertisers we could not publish this paper, so, therefore, open your hearts and take out a subscription and help a good work along, or, in other words, contribute your little mite, and we, the editors and managers, will do the rest.

We are glad to see Miss Edna Cohill has recovered her usual good health and is again in our midst.

THE SIGN OF THE FISHWhy it Was Used as a Symbol by the Early Christian Church.

The symbols upon early Christian monuments of which so many have been discovered this last century are curious and interesting. One of the most frequent is that of the fish. The figure of the fish is used and also the Greek word for fish, says Dr. A. W. Patten, who has looked into the subject. Ramsay in his excavations in Asia Minor has found some very important inscriptions in which the fish signs are frequent.

But why was it that the early Christians used this sign? The reason will appear when we remember that they found in the letters of the Greek word for fish an acrostic on the name of the Saviour. The word is "Ichthus." Each letter of the word in the original Greek begins one of the words in the following phrase: "Jesus Christ, Son of God, the Saviour." So the word "Ichthus" came to stand for a Christian and it was used as a mark for Christianity.

WELL! LOOK WHO IS HERE!

The readers of this sheet invariably choose the uptown department stores to purchase their Christmas gifts, but if they look around downtown they will discover that the merchants in this section have just as good a line of goods as anywhere. Take for instance, McGlynn's, Fifteenth and Wolf streets, where you will find something for the baby, boy, girl, man or woman at reasonable prices and up-to-date wearing apparel, which you could not duplicate uptown at the same price, and you do not have to be told why.

Peruse our advertising columns and there you will come across two jewelers who have in their stock something pretty in the line of precious stones, watches, rings, chains, clocks, etc., which cannot be duplicated at the price asked for these trinkets and where it is no trouble to show you Christmas gifts that will fascinate the most fastidious, so when you intend purchasing anything in the jewelry line, call on W. R. Phelps, 1733 Wolf street, and F. X. Manstion, 1408 Jackson street, who are ever ready to meet your wants in their stores.

The business managers again call the reader's attention that when you make a purchase of any of our advertisers, please mention where you saw their advertisement.

GEORGE C. THOMAS BOYS' CLUB.

After a little over a month the boys of the church have fell into the routine of business meetings, which augurs well for the coming men of St. Paul's Church, and they not only look after the business end, but the spiritual side as well under the able leadership of Stanley Scheffer, James Hazlett and Daniel Holloway, who grasp the work of the organization as a duck takes to water.

When the boys are through with their meeting, under the directorship of Mr. Gillin and Mr. Skillen, who teach the boys how to be little gentlemen and have respect for their elders, also church rudiments, which will fit them for good churchmen, they are turned over to Mr. Caruso, who is connected with the John Wanamaker Commercial Institute, and he in turn puts the boys through military tactics, which is a sight that all the parents of the boys should witness.

Then the boys are allowed to have games, which they play to their hearts' content for half an hour or more, after which the director sees that the boys are sent home early.

A MORAL HERO.

When General Grant was in Paris, the President of the Republic, as a special token of respect, invited him to occupy a place on the grandstand to visit the great racing which occurs in that country on Sunday. It is considered a discourteous act to decline such an invitation from the head official of the Republic. Such a thing had never been heard of; but General Grant in a polite note declined the honor and said to the French President, "It is not in accordance with the custom of my country or with the spirit of my religion to spend Sunday in that way." And when Sunday came that great hero found his way to the American chapel, where he was one of its quiet worshippers.—(Selected).

We are glad to see our Young Men's Bible Class appearing again in the Sunday school.

THE PARISH CHRONICLE

THE HOUSE BY THE SIDE OF THE ROAD.

There are hermit souls that live withdrawn
In the peace of their self-content;
There are souls, like stars, that dwell apart,
In a fellowless firmament;
There are pioneer souls that blaze their paths
Where highways never ran;
But let me live by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.

Let me live in a house by the side of the road
Where the race of men go by—
The men who are good and the men who are bad,
As good and as bad as I.
I would not sit in the scorner's seat,
Or hurl the cynic's ban,
Let me live in a house by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.

I see from my house by the side of the road,
By the side of the highway of life,
The men who press with the ardor of hope,
The men who are faint with the strife.
But I turn not away from their smiles
Nor their tears—
Both parts of an innite plan—
Let me live in a house by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.

I know there are brook-gladdened meadows ahead
And mountains of wearisome height;
That the road passes on through the long afternoon
And stretches away to the night.
But still I rejoice when the travelers rejoice,
And weep with the strangers that moan,
Nor live in my house by the side of the road
Like a man who dwells alone.

Let me live in a house by the side of the road
Where the race of men go by—
They are good, they are bad, they are weak, they are strong,
Wise, foolish—so am I,
Then why should I sit in the scorner's seat,
Or hurl the cynic's ban?—
Let me live in a house by the side of the road
And be a friend to man.

THREE KINDS OF CHURCH.

Some one has remarked that there are three kinds of church members, besides the right kind. And he describes them as "the dead," "the injured" and the "missing." Every pastor finds among his membership all three kinds. The "dead" ones are just dead—that's all. Their names are on the roll—and they have a name to live—but they are dead. The problem of every conscientious pastor is what to do with them. Some of our churches have what they call "dropped lists" for the benefit of these cases of suspended animation. Whether this be the proper course or not, for the present we must leave their names in this ecclesiastical Limbo to await identification in the case of the resurrection of the persons to whom they belong. They are "dead!"

Ordinarily the "injured" class is much larger than the "dead." In some way they have received a mortal wound. Something the pastor said "hurt" them; or they were not "made enough of" when they attended the meetings; or they have been "slighted" by some members of the Aid Society or the deacons "insulted" them by insisting that they contribute for the support of the church; or they suffered some sort of "undoing" in some one of the numerous "collisions" which seem to be unavoidable in church life.

And so they stay away from all the services, and spend all their time nursing their wounds—usually making them worse all the time by the wrong kind of treatment. They are a difficult class to "get at." Usually they hold the whole situation at arm's length, and positively refuse to have their "injuries" interfered with.

Then there is the "missing" class! How much perplexity and discouragement they cause the pastor! He goes over his church roll, and his heart leaps for joy and a smile comes upon his face, as he counts the names of the "faithful few." As for the "dead," he can do nothing more for them than pray; sympathetically he runs over the entire list of the "injured" ones, and resolves that he is going to do his utmost to heal every wound. But what can he do for the missing ones? He has every reason to believe they are alive and in the best of health. He knows they are capable and might be useful. But invariably when he counts on their presence and help they "turn up missing." May God save our churches, as much so as possible, from these three kinds of undesirable members.

Preparations for a play and dance are being made by the Young Ladies' Social Chapter. Watch for the date.

NUMBER 4

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

COAL! COAL!

If your coal bin is empty, place your order at once for next winter's coal with Mr. Eugene F. Gillin, 1422 Wolf street. The proceeds to go to the Parish Building Furnishing Fund.

Bell 'Phone, Dickinson 3509 W.

Crean Bros. are ready to serve you with small or large coal, with Mr. Gillin acting as special agent.

ST. PAUL'S CHAPTER, NO. 1824. BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

On Monday evening, January 12, 1914, the Chapter will have the Dorcas Society, the men of the church, the Young Men's Guild and the Junior Chapter, as its guests at an entertainment and informal supper. This is given with the definite intention of bringing the members of these different societies together, so that they may become better acquainted each with the other and thus further the spirit of co-operation which is becoming so evident in our parish life.

We are all banded together in one organization, all with the same object in view, and our united prayers and efforts will give confidence not only to ourselves, but to our new rector, when elected, and will show to him that we do not expect him to fight single-handed.

We claim the title of "Christian," but we know that no man can rightly be called a Christian unless he has an eager, personal desire for the spread of the Gospel message. Not until every member feels thus will the church make the progress toward the Kingdom that it should. Our work is already encouraging. The Sunday School, under the new superintendent, is growing rapidly in size and in spirit. Let us extend a helping hand to Mr. Boyle in this splendid work and let us pledge ourselves to work for a great advance in the Memorial Church of St. Paul during the coming year. Come on Monday night.

The regular meetings of the Chapter will be, as usual, on the second and fourth Fridays of the month.

The Executive Committee will meet at the home of Mr. Robert J. Skillen, 2542 South Rosewood street, on Friday, January 16, at 8.30 P. M.

The representatives to the Round Table Conference of South Philadelphia Chapters, to be held at the home of Mr. Ewing L. Miller, 319 South Fifteenth st., on Thursday, January 22, 1914, at 8 P.

M., are Mr. William C. Butler, Mr. E. F. Gillin and Mr. Wm. M. Beardwood. The regular service at the Galilee Mission will be on Thursday, January 15, at 8 P. M. At this service Mr. Robert W. Montgomery will be in charge and Mr. William C. Butler will make the address. Let more members help at the Galilee Mission.

Do not forget Monday, January 12. An interesting time is promised to all who may be present.

REPORT OF SUNDAY-SCHOOL, NOVEMBER, 1913.

The attendance and collection on Sunday, November 2, was a record-breaker—283 scholars and the collection was $10.85.

Mr. Boyle and Dr. Peckham expressed themselves as being highly pleased with these figures. But the following Sunday, the 9th, they dropped to 190 attending, and a collection of $7.14—on account of the very poor weather. Mr. Boyle has been ably seconded by Dr. Peckham in the Sunday School work. The doctor leads the school in its singing. On the 16th the two Bible Classes turned out in full despite the inclement weather. But the number present in the Infant and Intermediate classes was small. Attendance, 154; collection, $5.21. The 23d was marked by the distribution of Letters of Information regarding the new Envelope Collection System. It is expected that this system, besides giving a steady revenue, will encourage regular church giving. On the last Sunday in the month Mr. Howard Watfield, recently appointed Assistant Secretary, took up his new duties. The Misses Margaret Aikens, Emily O'Donnell and Edna Montgomery have taken classes in the Intermediate Department. And in the Infant Class, the Misses Ella Aikens, Laura Devir and Helen Long have been added to the faculty.

REPORT OF SUNDAY-SCHOOL, DECEMBER, 1913.

Sunday, December 7th, was a very wet day. The attendance was only 154, but those present were treated to a splendid talk by the Director of Public Safety, George D. Porter. His subject was the "Duty of the Modern Parent," and it was considered in an able manner.

December the 14th was a fair day, and brought out an excellent attendance—279 scholars and the collection was $10.70. Mr. Peckham began the Sunday School in annual Christmas carol practice. On the 20th the attendance was 300, the collection was $11.43. On the 27th the attendance reached high-water mark. There were 311 persons present. The amount of money collected was $11.27. The secretaries have been kept especially busy the past several weeks getting the new collection system under way.

The Sunday School made twenty-three families happy on Christmas. Groceries brought in by the members and chickens supplied by a generous friend, filled baskets to that number. It is hoped that this practice will be continued from year to year.

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

A new organization known as the Sunday School Teachers' Association of the Memorial Church of St. Paul has been recently formed within the Sunday School. Its purpose is the progress and extension of the school. Its first regular meeting was held at the home of the Superintendent, Mr. Thomas S. Boyle, on November 24th. The way in which this new body tackled the present-day Sunday School problems, encourages the belief that by November of next year, the school will have double its present number in attendance, and a large increase in weekly collections. Christmas is coming, and the Entertainment Committee, Misses Rogers and Cahill, the Messrs. Skillen, Buck, Sr., and Gillan, are providing "the finest ever," so don't miss it.

Mr. Peter Lynch and his class have volunteered to help pay for new School Bibles by giving an entertainment some time in February.

Mr. Boyle states that the new collection system will be in operation by the first Sunday in January. Every teacher has pledged him of herself to visit all their scholars in the near future. And Mr. Boyle was assured that he has the backing of every teacher and scholar on entering the new church year.

S. J. BUCK, JR.,
Secretary and Treasurer.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION. DECEMBER, 1913.

The second regular meeting of this association was held in the Parish Building, on December the 30th. Many subjects were discussed. Mr. Peckham spoke on "Personal Work and Visits." Mr. Beardwood urged the initiation of an early Lenten Offering Campaign, and Mr. Boyle seconded their remarks. "The Modern Dance and Its Influence," was discussed, and Mr. Boyle stated that none of these dances would be permitted in the Parish Building. The Entertainment Committee reported the successful conclusion of its labors; and the "personal visits" were reported to have been one of the causes of the recent leap in weekly attendance. Watch for this report next month.

S. J. BUCK, JR.,
Secretary and Treasurer.

THE CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENT.

The finest entertainment St. Paul's Sunday School has ever seen was given in the parish building in the afternoon and evening of Monday, December the 29th. The children of the Infant Class gave their concert in the afternoon. At its close each little one was given a box of candy and toy. The older scholars held theirs in the evening. The big Sunday School room was crowded to the doors. And the talent deserved it—for never was so much done in so short a time. And special credit belongs to the Entertainment Committee for the masterly way in which the whole affair was handled. As Mr. Peckham said at the meeting of the St. Paul's S. S. T. Association: "The comments passed on it justified all the trouble taken by the committee." At its conclusion, candy was distributed to every person connected with the Sunday School.

Dear Friends:

By this time we have gotten into the habit of writing 1914, instead of 1913, and the resolutions made on New Year's Day have either been adhered to or sadly broken. The joyous Christmas tide has merged into the Epiphany season.
How wonderful is the story of the Wise Men from the East, coming to worship the Infant Saviour, bringing with them gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh, and how tragic is the end of the story?

Herod, the king, filled with hatred for Him who was born "King of the Jews," issued a decree that all children that were in Bethlehem and the borders thereof, from two years old and under, should be slain and then was fulfilled that which was spoken of by Jeremiah, the prophet,
"In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation and weeping and great mourning; Rachel weeping for her children and would not be comforted, because they are not."

But the Infant Redeemer was taken into Egypt, the Lord having warned Joseph in a dream and was not brought back until after the death of Herod, when he was taken to Nazareth in order that it might be fulfilled, which was spoken by the Prophets, "He shall be called a Nazarene." At Nazareth He lived as Boy and Man, until in the fullness of time He manifested Himself to both Jew and Gentile as the "Son of Man," and as the "Son of God."

The Wise Men of the East brought to Jesus, gifts showing their devotion, although not of the chosen people, and returned to their homes, bearing with them blessed remembrances of the Child, who was to be the Saviour of mankind, the gift they received being more precious in their sight than those they bestowed. So we, who are in touch with the Christ, receive from Him something more precious than all the gifts we are able and willing to give.

CHAPTER.

Boys, get ready for the Confirmation campaign. At the New York Convention, last October, our national president, Mr. Bonsall, in speaking of the work that could be done by boys, told of St. Paul's Junior Chapter campaign of 1912, when eleven out of the twelve boys in the Confirmation Class were brought by the Juniors. Cannot we surpass the record of that year, or at least duplicate it? If not, then your director will be sorely disappointed in you.

We know from experience that the only way to do this campaign work successfully is by the direct personal approach and by personal testimony and solicitation. This is the way of getting people to Jesus that is sure to bring results. What is meant by that is well illustrated by this story of two college chums, one of whom was a professed follower of Jesus Christ and was very much concerned for the salvation of the other. The story is told by A. J. Elliott, who is known to some of us as a devoted worker in the college Christian Associations:

"Two boys entered college together—one a Christian, the other not. For four years they were chums, together in classes, on athletic teams, in social life.
They had discussed many questions, but the all-important question never. Many times the Christian student had felt that he should speak to Bob, but every time his nerve failed him. Their senior year was nearly at an end, and the fact that Bob was not a Christian became a great burden to Charley, who at last got his nerve up to the speaking point and resolved that no matter what happened he would talk with Bob after class. The two seniors walked out from college hall together, and strolled down across the campus. Bob did most of the talking;
Charley seemed very much preoccupied.
They came to the great campus gate,
and there they stood facing each other.
As eye met eye, Charley reached over,
put his hand on Bob's shoulder, and said:
'Bob, it nearly breaks my heart because you are not a Christian.' He could say no more. A great lump came up in his throat, and the tears filled his eyes.

"Bob went to his room and Charley to his. But Bob had been in his room only a few minutes when he threw himself on his knees beside his bed and prayed, and prayed, and gave himself up to Christ. In telling about it afterward he said: 'I just thought that if Charley cared as I saw he cared, then it was high time for me to settle the question.'"

Have you ever tried to win anybody to Jesus Christ by this method? It is worth putting to the test. But the test of it works in two directions. It touches you as well as the other man. It will fail absolutely if your Christian character is not well established. The person you speak to must believe in you. And the thing you put before him as an appeal must have worked itself out successfully in your own life. If Jesus Christ has transformed your life, and the signs of the change are visible in your relations to your associates, it is quite likely that you may influence them to follow the Leader you have chosen. But if there is nothing in your life to bulwark your testimony you will have a hard task to convince others to the point of acceptance. For there is nothing, on the human side, better than the appeal of the life with which to fortify your efforts to win people to Jesus Christ. It is good to "care" for the salvation of other folks; but it is of the highest value to have that interest backed up by the right kind of a life."

What is the story of this Confirmation Class going to be?

THE DORCAS SOCIETY.

The regular weekly meetings of the Dorcas Society were discontinued during the holiday season, as has been the custom in the past. We resumed our work on Monday evening, January 5th, and hope for a good attendance in order that the Society may commence the new year with a strong following and determined in our efforts.

In the past we have always been successful no matter what has been our undertaking, but we look forward to the year 1914 to be our banner one. To accomplish this we need the help of all the ladies connected with the church, so come along and join us.

The following amounts were received for flowers for the altar:

Nov. 17th—$1.00 from the Social Chapter.

Dec. 1st—$1.00 from Mrs. Kilvington.

Dec. —$2.00 from Miss K. Crompton, for flowers to be placed in the Chapel on December 22, in memory of her sister, Miss Nataline Crompton.

Dec. 16th—$2.00 from Mrs. Scott Law for flowers for the altar in the church for Christmas Day, in memory of the Rev. Richards Graham and Mrs. Susan Law.

With hearty and sincere greetings for a happy new year,

OLIVE P. DOUGHTY,
Secretary.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

A first-class entertainment, consisting of comedy and minstrel, will be given in the Parish Building, Friday evening, February 13, under the auspices of our Sunday School.

Proceeds of this entertainment will be used in the purchase of Bibles, text cards and other books required in our Sunday school work. In the past it has been the custom to use lesson leaflets when studying the lessons. At a meeting of the teachers it was decided that in the future each child should have a Bible to read the lesson from. By doing this each child will become familiar with the Holy Bible, and will learn to reverence and respect the same.

As this will involve quite an expense, we trust that each member of our church will take a special interest in helping to make this entertainment a financial success.

Tickets are twenty-five cents each, and can be secured from any member of the Teachers' Association.

The future of our church depends to a great extent on the success of our Sunday School, and the training the children receive therein. We have now an attendance of over three hundred, and we look for a good increase during 1914.

THOMAS S. BOYLE,
Superintendent.

GEO. C. THOMAS BOYS' CLUB.

At our Sunday School Christmas Entertainment the boys of the club did themselves proud by producing a feature in the show which was an all-star cast, and from the rounds of applause which greeted them, one would think that they were old veterans of the United States Army in the manner and perfection in which they drilled under the capable leadership of Mr. Caruso.

During the holiday season meetings were dispensed with, but the boys have resolved upon entering the New Year of 1914 that they will learn all the principles that the club stands for, and show their parents and members of this church what a good organization in which they are members.

So far to date a number of the older boys have made application to the Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and are going to do the work of that body.

Boys of 10 to 15 are urged to enroll as members and parents are requested to see that their sons join.

YOUNG MEN'S GUILD.

The New Year just ushered in bids fair to surpass former ones in the history of the Young Men's Guild, which is gleaming on its eighth term.

The past season has been an exceptionally successful one with honors showered upon us as title holders of baseball and basketball.

St. Paul's swept everything in sight that was worthy of competing for, and as we begin a new era this month, indications point to a most promising season for all sporting events.

Plenty of good material is at hand in our large membership, and the boys no doubt will enter into a more diversified line of sports during this period than heretofore, and help to make the club one noted for its splendid calibre of athletes. In December the annual election of officers was held. William Bell was elected president; Howard Buck, vice-president; James Johnson, recording secretary; Joseph Conners, financial secretary, and Benjamin F. Emery, treasurer.

One of the most timely marches of progress to date was planned by members at the meeting of January 5, where an ultimatum was taken resolving to make the guild room more cheerful and cosy by adding tables, book cases, games and piano, thus making the surroundings one of attractiveness.

The last meeting of the old year was the scene of merriment, as fifty members and friends gathered together to bid the old executives a farewell, and to welcome the new officers of the 1914 administration.

During the course of that evening following the transaction of routine business, a gala time was evident. Pipes and cigars and a little repast were served to make those present happy. Addresses were made by Mr. Butler, who exercised his eloquence in the direction of telling a deep-sea tragedy, which took the boys through a trip on a mud-scow, through the briny deep for several cloudy nights. Dr. Wilkinson failed to live up to his reputation as a story-teller because his plans were nipped in the bud by Joseph Conners, who exposed the doctor's jokes which were published in last month's current issues of the Curtis Company.

Mr. Boyle, Superintendent of the Sunday School, entertained the fellows with a eulogy of his early career, which was eminently interesting. While the "cats" were being served hearty appetites called for more waiters to be pressed into service to as to keep them well stocked with sandwiches and coffee, and the handsome waiter was called to give aid. When he appeared in the room with a tray taxed to its capacity, some one started the goose busy which resulted in some peculiar complications, especially along the row where the Brotherhood men sat.

The basketball team, under the careful advising capacity of Charles Solly, is making every effort count in their endeavors to "cop" the pennant of the cage game. Despite their double defeat received at the hands of Christ Church, they have resumed their position at the top of the League again, by the gallant work done by St. Timothy and St. Andrew's, who played the roles on various occasions as Good Samaritans, and handed the up-towners quite a jolt, winning easily.

The crack-a-jack team, made up of Anderson, Carson, Swallow, Tait, Rosehill and MacDonald, is a hard combination to beat, and their resolutions for the new year is not to drop a game until they have nailed the championship flag to the mast over St. Paul's Church.

Adding more fame, the team journeyed to Cape May and administered the shore quintette their second defeat of the season. They also took into camp the Madonna House five.

An innovation that has met with popular favor, was the idea of electing Charles Mohr to look after the interests of the three basketball teams for the younger element, so as to pave a way whereby the Guild can get material for our first and second teams in the near future.

It is worthy of note to mention that two of our former associates—James Glasgow and Johnny Jaeger—are engaged in employment in the Panama Canal Zone. Preparations are pending for a benefit to

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

COAL! COAL!

If your coal bin is empty, place your order at once for next winter's coal with Mr. Eugene F. Gillin, 1422 Wolf street. The proceeds to go to the Parish Building Furnishing Fund.

Bell 'Phone, Dickinson 3569 W.
Crean Bros. are ready to serve you with small or large coal, with Mr. Gillin acting as special agent.

ST. PAUL'S CHAPTER, NO. 1824, Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

The entertainment and supper tendered to the societies of the church by the chapter on Monday, January 12, was a pronounced success. There was an attendance of about 125. The thanks of the chapter are due to the friends who so kindly and freely gave of their various talents to entertain us. A splendid program was furnished by Miss Laura M. McKain and Miss Henry as pianists; Miss Edith McKain and Mr. Gleichman in recitations; Mr. Robert J. McKain and Mr. V. Clark in violin solos and Mr. Arthur Moore in vocal selections.

The bounteous supper was prepared by our three caterers, Messrs. Moore, Skillen and Bruder. Mr. Robert W. Montgomery acted as toastmaster and Mr. Robert J. Makim as head waiter. There is a splendid spirit of co-operation and determination to work for St. Paul's, manifested as a result of this gathering. The regular meetings of the chapter will be as usual on the second and fourth Fridays of each month (this month's meetings being on the 13th and 27th).

The Executive Committee meets at the home of Mr. Robert W. Montgomery, 2514 South Colorado street, on Friday, February 20th, at 8.30 P. M.

The Galilee Mission service will be on the fourth Thursday, February 26th, at 8 P. M. The service will be in charge of Mr. Montgomery and Dr. Wilkinson will make the address.

The fourth Round Table Conference of the chapters in South Philadelphia will be held on February 12th in the Rector's Room, Holy Trinity Parish House, Twentieth street below Walnut. The delegates from St. Paul's Chapter to this conference are Messrs. Robert J. Skillen and Robert J. Makim.

The Sermon and Lecture Committee reports the following speakers secured for the special Lenten services on Friday and Sunday evenings:

Friday Evenings.

Feb. 27. Mr. Edmund B. McCarthy.
 March 6. Edward H. Bonsall, Esq.
 March 13. Colonel Sheldon Potter, Esq.
 March 20. Mr. A. J. Drexel-Biddle.
 March 27. Mr. Walter M. Wood.
 April 3. Charles S. Beury, Esq.

Sunday Evenings.

March 1. Rev. Alfred R. Berkeley
 March 8. Rev. Joseph H. Earp.
 March 15. Rev. Henry Martyn McDary.

It is hoped that the congregation will give these services their earnest and hearty support.

On Monday, February 16, at 8 P. M., in St. Mary's Church, Thirty-ninth and Locust streets, West Philadelphia, the Rev. Francis M. Taitt, rector of St. Paul's Church, Chester, will preach at the special Brotherhood service on "The Influence of Jesus on the Social Life of Man."

Let St. Paul's Chapter be well represented at this service.

The Junior Brotherhood.

The Confirmation Campaign is on. Already the results have been good. The work done by the Juniors shows the great value of personal work to the growth of the church. The church needs personal service on the part of the members. The church needs the young man. It has a place for him, for his energy and for every man, his work, "to help the next man to the highest and best in life, after the great example of Andrew, Simon Peter's brother."

Thus says the Bishop of Connecticut and further:

"The young man needs the church. He needs just what it can give to help him fight his own battles. Moreover, if he is intelligently interested in the great movements of today, and generously ambitious to give himself in service to his fellow-men, he ought to learn that social service needs a stronger foundation than any kindly and philanthropic sentiment. That duty to man finds its sanction in duty to God, and that the Church of God is the embodiment of social Christianity, and its sacraments the signs and seals of human brotherhood."

Let each ask the question:
 What kind of a church would our church be,

If every member were just like me!
 Better or worse would our church be,
 If every member were just like me?

Were each member of our church to be,
 Just such a member as Christ would see,
 What change would come to you and me,
 And the gain to our church—what would that be?

JANUARY REPORT OF ST. PAUL'S SUNDAY SCHOOL.

On January 4th the attendance was 265, the collection was $10.58. Weather, stormy.

On the 11th, attendance, 296; collection, $13.34. Weather, fair and cold.

On the 18th, attendance, 315; collection, $12.65. Weather, fair.

On the 25th, attendance, 296; collection, $16.32. Weather, fair.

The school was ably addressed on Sunday the 4th by the Hon. Wm. S. Vare. The Lenten collection has been started by several of the classes. Mr. Reckham organized this year's Confirmation class with an initial membership of thirty, and it is increasing weekly.

The School Hall is being added to every Sunday, so that there are more than twenty-one classes in the building every session, with expectations of more.

S. J. BUCH, JR.,
 Secretary and Treasurer.

JANUARY REPORT OF SUNDAY-SCHOOL TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

A very interesting meeting was held on the 28th. Mrs. Beardwood, Director of the Infant Class, reported many new acquisitions and promotions. Many reports relative to the Personal Work Campaign were made. Nearly every pupil in the Sunday School has been visited by his teacher and the results have been very noticeable in the past few weeks.

Mrs. E. F. Eilan's class was awarded the banner for perfect attendance and punctuality. Many teachers reported good ticket sales for the Sunday School entertainment during the past few days. Mr. Boyle discussed several subjects, among them being, "Personal Visits," "Ticket Selling," "Necessity of Smaller Classes" and "Home Bible Study."

The evident interest in these meetings speaks well for the present "work hard" merit in the Sunday School.

S. J. BUCH, JR.,
 Secretary and Treasurer.

DORCAS SOCIETY.

The officers and members of the Dorcas Society take this opportunity to thank the members of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew for the entertainment and supper tendered them on January 12th, which was enjoyed by all. We are glad to have one of our old members with us again, Miss Florence Richardson, who had left the city to reside in her home town, but thought better and came and joined us again.

We are glad to know that Billy Knox, our President's son, is on a fair road to recovery, after a severe attack of pneumonia; also three of our members, Mrs. Watfield, Mrs. Pellatrin and Mrs. Manley, are steadily improving after being very ill, and we hope to have them with us soon.

Received $1.00 from the Sunday School for flowers; also $1.00 from the Social Chapter.

Flowers were placed on the altar in memory of Isabella Louise Scout, one of the children of the Infant School.

OLIVE P. DOUGHTY,
 Secretary.

YOUNG MEN'S GUILD.

Things ran along very smoothly the first month of the Bell administration in the Young Men's Guild, and plenty of work has been planned to promote more interest for members. Many of the boys are going to take part in the mixed minstrel show that will be given February 13th under the auspices of the Sunday School, and a splendid entertainment is sure to result.

It looks as though both teams will still tack those basketball pennants on the wall in the Guild room despite the turning of the tide that resulted in their game with Christ Church, January 30th. The second team has been very unfortunate recently as several members of the combination have reported on the sick list.

Our first quintette handed Cape May another defeat in a contest that called for two extra periods, and it is thought, that by virtue of that victory, they will be much sought for along the Jersey coast. Many hard battles are still on the Brotherhood schedule and among them are, St. Timothy, St. Andrew and Gaston, and victories over these teams practically means the coveted rag. Manager Charles Solly was not present at the Christ-St. Paul event as he is sojourning in the West on business. The old adage, "He who hesitates is lost," was brought to a practical illustration last month, when, after several delayed meetings of the Benefit Committee consequent in a failure to book a good musical comedy show that would have surely added a neat revenue to our treasury.

Following is the standing of teams, January 31st:

Dear Friends.

This issue of The Chronicle will be handed you on Septuagesima Sunday, so called because it is about seventy days before Easter. This Sunday and the two following are a preparation for the devotion of Lent, which begins this year February 25th.

"How shall I spend Lent?" is a question each of us may ask of our spiritual nature, and possibly of our spiritual advisers. The answer to each I cannot tell, and it would be folly for me to even try to surmise, but in a general sense this answer might be given by the humblest follower of our Lord to even the most exalted, "pray and serve."

Some years since, the rector of a large parish in this city sent to his people a Pre-Lenten letter, a part of which I quote: "We have already entered into the season which, by its call from the vain world to higher things, bids us prepare for the heart searchings and spiritual awakenings which should accompany the Lenten fast and vigil more particularly. This season is a season of prayer.

Dr. Liddon speaks of prayer as the activity of religion, and Montgomery, in his spiritual song, has so conceived its importance as to call it,

The Christian's vital breath,

The Christian's native air,

His watchword at the gates of death

He enters Heaven by Prayer.

Increased prayer, then, both public and private, is the best way of spending Lent, and in praying we should be conscious that we are not communing with a far-distant God, but with our Father, who, if one will, is near us and within us, responsive to our call through our Saviour Jesus Christ.

TO SERVE. There are few, if any, who have no opportunity of serving others, to visit the sick, to comfort the sorrowing, to relieve the distressed, and to help bear others' burdens, is alike open to all. Jesus, in one of his parables, said,
"Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, you have done it unto Me." As followers of Christ we must think and do for others. Phillips Brooks says, "Any man who is good for anything, if he is always thinking about himself, is good for nothing," and it may be added that anyone who is continually doing all for himself and not serving others will soon come to find himself good for nothing.

May the coming Lenten season bring us nearer to Him who gave His life for us, and may our prayers and service be always acceptable to God the Father through Jesus Christ our Lord.

YOUNG SOCIAL CHAPTER.

With the coming of the new year and new officers many changes have taken place in our Guild. On January 6th we held our annual election of officers. We wish to call your attention to the fact that we now have a Vice-President, as it has been some time since we had one.

Those elected to the various offices are as follows: President, Cora Rogers; Vice-President, Margaret Aikens; Secretary, Bertha Grosscup, and Treasurer, Sara Duncan.

During the last month we have considered reorganizing into a "Girls' Friendly." On February 10th we expect to have Miss Wilson, a Branch Secretary of the "Girls' Friendly," at our meeting to tell the girls about the "Friendly" and its work. In the near future we expect the appearance of our Guild room to be very much improved, as an Art Committee has been appointed to attend to beautifying it.

Our basketball teams are flourishing, and we expect before long to rival our brother champions.

February 17th is the date set for our Valentine Party. As it is the last social we will have until after Easter you may be sure we are all looking forward to it.
Besides this the entertainment and refreshment committees have promised us all kinds of surprises.

During Lent we intend to devote our Tuesday evenings to the making of baby clothes for an institution. At our last meeting we were glad to welcome one of our old members back to our midst. Each young lady in St. Paul's is cordially invited to follow her example and join us, for we need her help and we sincerely hope that we may be of some help to her.

BERTHA A. GROSSCUP,

Secretary.

Be thou ever one of those whose manners are Christian, whose conduct and conversation are so redolent of heaven that all who see you may know that you are the Saviour's, recognizing in you His features of love and His countenance of holiness.—Spurgeon.

The shortness of life is bound up with its fullness. It is to him who is most active, always thinking, feeling, working, caring for people and for things, that life seems short. Strip a life empty, and it will seem long enough.—Phillips Brooks.

Home is the man's anchorage, his point of security, the harbor to which he returns after toil and weariness, after wandering; home, whether the man be in it or out of it, is his remedy against the roughness and incertitude of life; it shields him, holds him to his best.

Often consider and contemplate the joys of heaven, then when they have filled thy desires, which are the sails of the soul, thou mayest steer only thither and never look back.—Jeremy Taylor.

GEORGE C. THOMAS GUILD.

Since the last issue of this paper the Guild has increased in new members and the boys from the officers down are taking to the work assigned them in an intelligent manner, so much so that the directors stand aside and let the Guild, in its executive session, manage themselves; also the drillmaster, Mr. Caruso, is well pleased at the manner in which the boys take to the army drill, also the pleasure derived from the gymnasium, and after a half hour play together there the boys are ready to wend their way home and sleep the sleep of the just and healthy.

PATRONIZE THOSE WHO HELP YOU.

When you are expecting to spend a pleasurable evening and are looking for refreshments you will render the managers of this paper a large help by letting your eyes feast on the good things which you may observe in the beautiful stores of H. Wagner, Fifteenth and Jackson streets; B. Amman, Seventeenth and Wolf streets; Fred Gehring, 1628 Wolf street, where you can get any amount of good things at a reasonable price. Enough said,—yes, ice cream, cakes of all kinds, also that toothsome delicacy, candy; pies of every kind in season.

The editors and managers of the Parish Chronicle know whereof they speak of the above advertisers, and we urge the parishioners of this church to make a call and be convinced.

A SONG OF LIFE.

To go among the multitude,
And help along whate'er is good;
To raise the sick on wings of hope,
And those who through life's troubles grope,

Is well worth while,
We can not all do what we will,
Some have the strength, and others skill.
But we can help in our own way
To brighten others' lives today,
And watch them smile.

'Tis little things that help along:
A kind word, or perhaps a song,
Will reach some waiting, aching heart
In church or school, or busy mart,
Or crowded street.

And when, at last, our work is done,
And death comes swiftly stealing on,
We go to our eternal rest—
Let it be said: He did his best;
His life's complete.

—C. C. Cushing.

Three cheers for our new President!

You are cordially invited to return the tickets and money for the Yama Yama Entertainment.

It is pleasing to note that Mrs. Watfield is on the road to recovery.

Girls, don't forget the big social on February 24th.

Oh you Eats Committee! Consult Miss Eakins.

Nita, you are needed at the Guild on Tuesday evenings.

Quite a number of the young men of the basketball team are on the injured list.

Dr. Peckham has enrolled quite a number of young and old for the Confirmation class to be confirmed on Sunday evening, February 22, 1914.

Oh, you Yama Yama Girls.

Who says St. Paul's teams are not champions?

The Young Men's Guild's prospects are very bright under the leadership of Mr. William Bell.

Joe Connor looks well behind a desk.

And some talent in St. Paul's.

Chas. Sol'y is back again in church and Sunday School.

Charles Anderson has the executive ability in running smokers.

Come and see the George C. Thomas Boys' Club in meetings and at drill.

Mr. Wm. C. Butler has organized quite a healthy Bible Class for the older men. Come and join.

Our West Philly colony are very punctual in attendance.

Hon. William S. Vare addressed the Sunday School Sunday, January 4, 1914.

Mr. Samuel Buck, Jr., has plenty to do with the assistance of Mr. Howard Watfield.

Dr. Peckham and Superintendent Boyle are very much pleased at the increased number of scholars in Sunday School.

St. Martha's Guild, under the directorship of Miss Bubb, are doing great work for the poor of the parish, also St. Martha's house.

Only 50 cents for a subscription to the Parish Chronicle. See business manager at once.

The girls in Miss Cohill's class have the makings of good artists in future entertainments.

The Teachers' Association, 28 in number, have healthy monthly meetings.

The Sunday School, under the supervision of Mr. Boyle, has started the envelope system, which so far seems to be a success.

Our friends, Mrs. Briggs and Miss Foster, are regular in their attendance at church services.

Don't forget your subscription to the Parish Chronicle, as the paper must grow.

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

COAL! COAL!

If your coal bin is empty, place your order at once for next winter's coal with Mr. Eugene F. Gillin, 1422 Wolf street. The proceeds to go to the Parish Building Furnishing Fund.

Bell 'Phone, Dickinson 3569 W.

Crean Bros. are ready to serve you with small or large coal, with Mr. Gillin acting as special agent.

ST. PAUL'S CHAPTER, NO. 1824, BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

The regular meetings of the Chapter will be held on Friday evenings, March 13 and 20, and April 10, immediately after the special services. The Executive Committee meets at the home of Mr. William C. Butler, 1414 Tasker st., on Saturday, March 21, at 8 P. M. sharp.

The service at the Galilee Mission will be on Thursday, March 26, at 8 P. M. The service will be in charge of Mr. Butler and the Rector, Rev. Mr. Earp, will make the address. Come out and help. The special addresses for this month and April will be as follows:

Sunday Evening Services:

March 8—The Rev. H. Cresson McHenry, Assistant Superintendent, City Mission.

March 15—The Rev. Henry Martyn Medary, Memorial Church of the Advocate.

March 22—The Rector; subject, "The Voice of the Morning."

March 29—The Rector; subject, "Strength for the Task."

April 5—The Rector; subject, "The Great Reward."

Friday Evening Services:

March 6—Edward H. Bonsall, Esq., National President of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

March 13—Colonel Sheldon Potter, Esq.

March 20—Mr. A. J. Drexel-Biddle, founder of the Drexel-Biddle Bible Classes.

March 27—Mr. Walter M. Wood, Executive Secretary of Y. M. C. A. in Philadelphia.

April 3—Charles E. Beury, Esq., Secretary, Philadelphia Local Assembly, Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

It is the earnest hope of the Chapter that every member of the Memorial Church of St. Paul, will not only attend these services but will also advertise them among their friends. With every one working the parish must receive a great spiritual uplift.

The next Round Table Conference of the Chapters in South Philadelphia will be held at the home of the Rev. William S. Neill, 2201 Madison Square, on Thursday, March 12, 1914. The representatives from St. Paul's will be Messrs. John G. Bruder and Robert W. Montgomery. Mr. William M. Beardwood and two boys will represent the Junior Chapter. The subject of the Conference will be "The Worker's Needs."

On Monday, March 16, at 8 P. M., a devotional service of the Local Assembly will be held in St. Matthew's Church, Eighteenth and Girard avenue.

The Rev. Thomas S. Cline, rector of Grace Church, Mt. Airy, will speak on "The Influence of Jesus on the Emotional Life of Man."

The chapter, at the meeting of February 27, passed unanimous votes of thanks to Mr. E. B. McCarthy for his address on the same date and to the Misses Laura and Elizabeth McKain for "their most efficient and faithful help in the services at the Galilee Mission."

Let every member of the Chapter rally around the new rector of St. Paul's in such a way that he may feel with our former rector, the Rev. Edwin S. Carson, that "one of the greatest helps that any clergyman can have in his work is a well organized and active Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew."

May St. Paul's Chapter, No. 1824, by the grace of God, be in the future, as in the past, an organized force of men to whom the rector may feel he can turn in any emergency. Remember always the first duty of any Chapter is to the parish and to its rector.

During the temporary absence of the Superintendent (who with Mrs. Boyle is enjoying a short vacation in Florida), Dr. John C. Wilkinson is taking charge of the Sunday School. The doctor's address on the lessons are certainly instructive and we wish that more of our "grown-ups" could or rather would come to hear him speak! The new "perfect attendance" banner was won for the month of February by Mrs. E. F. Gillan's class and for the present month by Miss Edna Cohill's class. Under this incentive there has been a notable increase in attendance in all the classes. It will be seen by the above report that even such a storm as we had on the 22nd cannot keep our Sunday School attendance and collection down. Let's keep it up.

February Report of the St. Paul's Sunday School Teachers' Association.

The Sunday School Teachers' Association has directed the Secretary by a unanimous vote to thank, through the medium of the Parish Chronicle all who took part in the recent entertainment for the very excellent show which they produced for the time which they spent in rehearsals and study and for large attendance, which so good a show brought together on so bad a night! Many money-making schemes have been devised by the members of the S. S. T. A. to aid their respective classes fill the Lenten boxes this year. Four hundred dollars is St. Paul's missionary aim in 1914 and present indications are that it will easily be reached.

THE JUNIOR CHAPTER, Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

The 1914 Confirmation campaign is over and the 1915 campaign is about to begin. The boys this year have been blessed in their work as they were enabled to bring to the sacred rite of Confirmation twelve of the fifteen young men confirmed. But yet we did not do all that we should have. There were several who should have been confirmed this year whom we trust we may bring next. Though "not to us be the glory," it was certainly a blessed privilege to be working for the Master and thus "spreading His Kingdom."

"Almighty God who hath given us this will to do these things, grant also unto us strength and power to perform the same that He may accomplish His work which He hath begun in us; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

W. M. B.

DORCAS SOCIETY.

At the regular weekly meeting of the Dorcas Society, held on Monday evening, February 9th, it was decided to hold a cake and apron sale on the second Saturday in March (14th) to help defray the cost of making new choir vestments. It is the sincere wish of our president, Mrs. Knox that the ladies will work earnestly to get the articles ready for the sale.

The hours in which the sale will take place will be published at a later date.

Donations of bread, cakes, pies or money will thankfully be received.

It may seem rather previous to speak of the rummage sale, but before we can have one we must have a house-cleaning, and it will not be long before we will be starting on that tour, so if you have any discarded clothes or furniture which you would like to get rid of kindly notify any of the ladies of the Dorcas and they will attend to it.

Donations of flowers or money for the same for the Easter church decorations will thankfully be received. For the sum of $1.00 flowers may be placed on the altar in memory of departed friends or relatives.

TO OUR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS.

Through the kindness of friends in the
business world we are able to publish and cir-
culate "The Parish Chronicle."

We would therefore ask our people to kindly
study our advertising columns and patronize
our advertisers, always remembering to men-

This is a fair request, we think, and we
hope our people will help us, help themselves,

Dear Friends:

In these letters in The Chronicle the writer has applied himself, hitherto, to "looking forward" in the church year, but in this one he desires to indulge for a little while in "looking backward."
Since the last issue of The Chronicle the Bishop of the Diocese has visited our church and confirmed quite a number of persons, mostly young people who have by this rite become entitled to full membership in the Church of Christ. The writer was greatly impressed by the gracious words of Bishop Rhinelander.
He spoke to all present although his remarks were doubtless intended principally for the confirmation class. His subject was "Prayer." As the writer recalls the occasion, the Bishop stated that it was right for us to talk with God in prayer, to bring to Him all our troubles, desires and aims in life and to ask for the comfort and blessing which He alone can give, but we must not forget that God has the right to ask something or even everything from us. "What would you think," said the Bishop, "if you were continually asking something of your parents or friends, not doubting that it would be granted and then when they ask something of you, you were unwilling to grant the request?" It put a new light in the writer's mind and probably in the minds of others as to the meaning of prayer and as he listened to the words the sayings of the Prophet Micah came to him, "What doth the Lord require of thee but to do justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with thy God." To do justly, that is to treat others as we would be treated ourselves by others.

"To love mercy," that is to be gentle, kind-hearted, forgiving and loving to all with whom we come in contact. "To walk humbly with thy God," that is to put all pride and prejudice out of our hearts and to live as our example Jesus Christ lived. And the Lord God requires this.
He who holds the immense universe in the hollow of his hand, He requires this of us. May He in His infinite goodness and loving kindness give us strength to obey His will and to live according to His requirements.

The ladies of the Dorcas Society spent a very pleasant evening last month as the guests of Dr. Peckham in his apartments, 1902 Jackson street.

Dr. John Wilkinson has full charge of Sunday School until Mr. Boyle returns.

THE NEW RECTOR OF ST. PAUL'S.

On Wednesday, February 18, 1914, the Vestry of the Memorial Church of St.
Paul unanimously nominated the Rev.
Joseph Holland Earp, B. D., to the rec-torship. This action was unanimous for the three members of the Vestry who were absent from the meeting were communicated with and heartily endorsed the action of the nine present.

Mr. Earp has accepted the call and will assume charge as rector on March 19, 1914.

Bishop Rhinelander, having been notified of the Vestry's intention, wrote the following:

"My dear Dr. Wilkinson:

"I have your letter of the 19th telling me that the Rev. Joseph Holland Earp has been unanimously nominated as rector of the Memorial Church of St. Paul.

"I am glad to give my hearty approval of this choice and hope that the Vestry will extend a call to Mr. Earp and that he will accept the same.

Faithfully yours,

PHILIP M. RHINELANDER,

Bishop of Pennsylvania.

The following sketch of Mr. Earp's life appeared in the "Evening Bulletin," of February 20, 1914:

ST. PAUL'S MAKES

MR. EARP ITS RECTOR
Member of Staff at Holy Apostles Called to Church at 15th and Porter Streets.

Is Social Service Expert.

The Rev. Joseph Holland Earp, B. D., of the staff of the Holy Apostles' Episcopal Church, Twenty-first and Christian streets, has been elected rector of St.
Paul's Memorial Church, Fifteenth and Porter streets, which was built by the late George C. Thomas in memory of his parents.

The rectorship of St. Paul's has been vacant since last October, when the Rev.
Edwin S. Carson resigned to become the Canon-Vicar of the Cathedral at Fari-bault, Minn. During the interval the parish has been under the temporary care of the Rev. Dr. Joseph R. Peckham.

The appointment is regarded as one of importance among Episcopalians in the southern section of the city, where the nearness of St. Paul's to the scene of many of the proposed improvements in South Philadelphia leads the congregation to believe that a greatly enlarged field of work is in store for the church.
The handsome parish house which adjoins the church in Fifteenth street, was given by Mrs. George C. Thomas and her children in memory of the late millionaire banker and philanthropist.

The new rector is well known in the downtown section, where for the last three years he has been an assistant in the Church of the Holy Apostles, of which Mr. Thomas was long a leading member. When the Rev. Wilson R.
Stearly resigned to go to Montclair, N.
J., in the summer of 1912, Mr. Earp had full charge of Holy Apostles parish until the coming of the Rev. Dr. Capers, Mr.
Stearly's successor.

He engaged especially in social service work, and during the last four months has conducted a social service forum which attracted a number of well-known speakers and has resulted in a movement for a united Church work in the interests of better citizenship and higher standards in social and economic life. Bishop Rhinelander has given his heartly approval of the call.

The new rector's early life was spent in Indiana, where his father, the late Dr.
John E. Earp, was for many years professor of English literature in Depauw University. His mother was a member of the music faculty of the same university.

Mr. Earp was educated at Depauw, the Boston University School of Theology, and Drew Theological Seminary. He later took post-graduate work in the General Theological Seminary in New York, where he also made a special study of the institutional church. He was ordained to the priesthood by Bishop Talbot in 1902, while assistant minister at St. James' Church, Lancaster.

His positions since then have been minister of Trinity Church, Steelton, Pa., 1903-04; rector of St. James' Church, Downingtown, 1904-11; and for the last three years a member of the staff of the Church of the Holy Apostles.

The resignation of Mr. Earp is deeply regretted by the members of Holy Apostles parish where he is most highly regarded. The following is taken from the "Parish Intelligence" of the Holy Apostles:

"At the conclusion of the Teachers' Lesson Study, on the 20th ult., the Rector made the announcement that the Rev. Mr. Earp had accepted the call of the Memorial Church of St. Paul, Fifteenth and Porter streets. This is an important parish, with great opportunities for work, and it seems only right that the call should be accepted. Mr. Earp has made many friends during his three years' stay and has rendered most acceptable service. The good wishes of the whole parish go with Mr. and Mrs. Earp in their new life.

"Upon motion the Rector was requested to appoint a committee to draw proper resolutions of regret upon Mr. Earp's departure."

The Rev. Mr. Earp, who is an excellent preacher and a man of delightful personality, is 42 years of age, is married and has two children.

The Vestry bespeaks for the new Rector the hearty welcome and the whole-souled spirit of co-operation which has always been characteristic of St. Paul's splendid corps of workers.

(Signed)

ROBERT W. MONTGOMERY,
Secretary of the Vestry.

TABLOIDS.

Lent, are you keeping it?

Brotherhood services on Friday and Sunday evenings are helpful. Try and attend?

The boys' guild are healthy youngsters.

Le Roy Skeath, one of our promising young men, has been called home to Jesus. We extend our sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Skeath.

It is good news that God, in His wisdom, has spared our little friend, Master William Knox, for further work in St. Paul's Sunday School.

The church has been closed for a few Sundays while repairs are being made on heating apparatus.

James Hazlett has become quite a willing worker in the interest of the Junior Brotherhood.

Confirmation Class was very large under the careful guidance of Dr. Peckham.

Samuel Buck, Sr., is attentive and courteous at all times. Some rector's warden we claim friendship for and with.

Well, Joe, that was a pretty good surprise party extended to Miss Laura Deni one stormy evening in the past month.

Whenever you meet Miss Edna Montgomery one cannot help but notice the bright and cheerful smile with which she greets you.

This paper must grow. Are you helping?

Seventy-five per cent. of the Confirmation Class receive their first Communion on the first Sunday in March.

Put your pennies in your Lenten boxes.

Young men of the parish, take notice that we have a guild under the leadership of Mr. William Bell, meets every Monday evening. Support him by your attendance.

YOUNG MEN'S GUILD.

As the basketball race is drawing to a close Guild members are looking forward to this summer's baseball season. It is the expectation of the club to place two ball teams on the diamond and it is also probable that many other churches identified with the Brotherhood of Protestant Church Clubs will do likewise. Our team won last year's baseball pennant by reason of their brilliant work at fielding and with the stick and with the material the Guild presently boasts of we should stand a good chance of duplicating the feat. Those anxious to become noted like Ty Cobb and Hans Wagner will find early training to their advantage. The team won't go south, that is a positive fact but if the boys get out and get the speed down early they will have the jump on their competitors. The second team won the basketball title of the second division League and it was indeed gratifying. The quintet did wonderful work in the cage and their passing and foul shooting were marvelous, going through the entire year with but few defeats. The first team was treated to two defeats during the past month by St. Andrews and St. Timothy, which may at the end of the series prove fatal as far as the championship is concerned.

Many of the talented ones took part in a mixed minstrel show given last month under the auspices of the Sunday School, which proved a huge success. Preparations for getting out candidates for track work will also be on this month's card and the young element on hand should get interested in this line of sport and hold up the Guild's reputation on the cinder path.

The following is the standing of the League, February 23.

ST. MARTHA'S GUILD.

It is seldom that the church members hear from the guild and what the smaller girls are doing. Well your correspondent interviewed several of the young ladies and gleaned the information to the effect that they have on sale pin cushions and towels the money gained to purchase new altar hangings.

The articles in question are A-1 and everybody should get busy and encourage the girls along by buying these goods at a nominal sum.

All mothers are especially invited to attend guild meetings on Friday evenings under the able leadership of Miss Bubb.

SOCIAL CHAPTER.

During the past month the Misses Bertha Kampen, Jenny Vautier and Caroline Romano have been admitted to our guild. We are very glad to welcome them and hope that they will all come to our meetings each week.

On February 17 we had our Valentine Party and the "Eats" Committee kept Their word, for they certainly did give us a surprise.

Miss Wilson, a branch secretary of the "Girls' Friendly Society," was with us at our last meeting. She gave us a very interesting talk on the origin of the "Friendly" in both England and America. She also explained the regulations and work of the organization.

Watch for the notice of our basketball game, for we hope to have one soon and expect every one to attend.

BERTHA A. GROSSCUP,
Secretary.

FOR THE SMALL BOY.

Well, boys, here we are again; Lent upon us and what are you personally going to do in behalf of the Lenten offering for the Sunday School? You did remarkably well in rounding up eligibles for the confirmation class, especially the Junior Brotherhood boys.

The boys of the George C. Thomas Guild are taking up the drill by Mr. Carusa with a vim and are able to conduct their meetings very creditably to the satisfaction of the directors. Some of the larger boys are taking an interest in the little fellows and have organized teams of basketballers, which seems to please the boys in charge.

CONFIRMED.

Edna May Kull, Ethel Lister Redman, Margaret Claire Livezey, Dorothy Comby Livezey, Laura M. McKain, Joseph Harriett Carson, Muriel James, Margaret L. Anderson, Kathryn S. Anderson, Florence Robson, May Rebecca Renshaw, Catherine Anna Renshaw, Katherine Deschger, Anna Clinton Gillin, Bertha Augusta Briggs, Anna Campbell Aikens, Adaline Daisy Waldron, Dorothy Norton, Lillian Atkinson, Mrs. Ella G. WHY NOT AT ONCE?

We have in our advertising columns a quiet and unassuming chap of whom very few of our parishioners know. He has the ability of buying and selling houses at a great advantage to his clients. Some have had experience with him to such an extent that they are today enjoying a comfortable home in good surroundings either in South Philadelphia or West Philadelphia.

In reference to the above we speak of Mr. Walter R. Phillips, real estate conveyancer, notary public and fire insurance, 2109 South Eighteenth street. A visit to Mr. Phillips at his offices when you are thinking of buying or selling a home will convince all as to his quick up-to-date methods in bringing results.

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

COAL! COAL!

If your coal bin is empty, place your order at once for next winter's coal with Mr. Eugene F. Gillin, 1422 Wolf street. The proceeds to go to the Parish Building Furnishing Fund.

Bell 'Phone, Dickinson 3569 W.

Crean Bros. are ready to serve you with small or large coal, with Mr. Gillin acting as special agent.

ST. PAUL'S CHAPTER, NO. 1824, BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW

The regular meetings of the Chapter will be on April 10th, 24th, and May 8th, 1914, at 8 P. M.

The service at the Galilee Mission, on April 23d, will be in charge of Mr. R. W. Montgomery, and Mr. W. C. Butler will make the address.

The Executive Committee meets at the home of Mr. John G. Bruder, 2514 South Fifteenth street, on Friday, April 17th, at 8.15 P. M.

The next Round Table Conference of the Chapters in South Philadelphia will be held on May 14th, at the home of Mr. W. C. Butler, 1414 Tasker street, at 8 P. M. The subject for discussion will be the "Parable of the Talents." The representatives of the Senior Chapter will be Messrs. Moore and Makin. Mr. Beardwood will be the Senior, representing the Junior Chapter.

The fourth and last monthly meeting of the local assembly will be at St. Peter's Church, Germantown, Wayne avenue and Harvey street, on Monday, April 20th, at 8 P. M. The Rev. George Lynde Richardson, D. D., will speak on "The Influence of Jesus on the Intellectual Life of Man."

It is hoped that the members will bear in mind the Corporate Communion of the Chapters on the fourth Sunday of each month at 7.30 A. M.

USHERS FOR APRIL.

The following gentlemen are appointed to serve as ushers for the two remaining Sundays of this month:

Morning: Messrs. Galbraith, Beardwood, Skillen and Makin.

Evening: Messrs. Buck, Boyle, R. Johnson and Matthewson.

THE DORCAS SOCIETY.

The ladies of the Dorcas Society take this opportunity to welcome into their midst their Rector, the Rev. Joseph H. Earp, and it is hoped that each and every one will put forth the right hand of good-fellowship to help support him in the work to which he has been called as Rector of this parish.

We all know how we felt when we, as strangers, first came to this church, and were made welcome by our former Rector, Mr. Carson. So, surely, we must understand Mr. Earp's feelings, coming as a stranger among so many not only to worship with us, but to be our leader.

We also wish to welcome Mrs. Earp, who assures us that she will join us in our work as soon as she is settled in her new home.

On Saturday, March 14th, the Dorcas Society held a Cake and Apron Sale in the Parish Building, which they intend to make an annual affair, the proceeds of which are to be used for vestments for the choir. The amount realized by the sale was $13.37, two dollars of which was donated by Mrs. Maurice Crean and Mr. William Butler. Since the sale we have received $4.60.

It is the intention of the Dorcas Society to have some event, the nature of which is not now definitely decided upon, in the latter part of May or the early part of June. By this we hope to raise two hundred dollars for the current expenses of the church. It is needed, and if the people of St. Paul's will rally to our support it can be done.

On Monday, March 30th, we had a visit from our friend, Dr. John Wilkinson, and we all enjoyed his talk very much. He reminded us that this is the year for the bazaar. We do not know what figure he has set this time, but he generally aims pretty high somewhere in the four-figure mark. Leave it to the Doctor; he is never backward in asking for what he wants.

When you start house-cleaning don't forget the Rummage Sale. If you have any discarded clothing or furniture kindly let us know; we will gladly relieve you of it.

A donation of one dollar for flowers was received from the Young Women's Social Chapter.

Also a donation for flowers from Mrs. Donavon.

OLIVE P. DOUGHTY,
Secretary.

ST. PAUL'S SUNDAY-SCHOOL REPORT.

The means taken to raise money for the Easter offering have been nearly as many as there are classes, and as varied. We know of one teacher whose class is selling chow-chow. Several are selling matches, and others pins. We don't know whether you believe in a protective tariff or not, but we do believe that home industries ought to be patronised by everybody.

The new Rector, Mr. Earp, has very heartily indorsed Mr. Thomas S. Boyle as Superintendent of the Sunday School, and urges all the members to stand back of Mr. Boyle in the good work which he is instituting.

* The Easter service is to be held on the evening of that holy day, and at which service the Lenten Missionary offering will be presented. All reports indicate large returns.

We wish that more of our older men would join the Older Men's Bible Class. We hear that its sessions are most interesting.

What did you think of our Easter Surprise?

S. J. BUCK, JR.

REPORT OF ST. PAUL'S SUNDAY-SCHOOL TEACHERS ASSOCIATION.

Mr. Boyle reported at the recent meeting of the Association that the net returns of the entertainment held under the auspices of Mr. Lynch's class, were $353.88.

Weekly visits by the members to their scholars are giving splendid results in the way of increased attendance.

The Annual Sunday School Picnic preparations have been given into the hands of the officers of the school, and we are looking forward to a big day at Brandywine Springs.

By an unanimous vote the Association directed the Treasurer to pay over to the Church, as an Easter offering from the Sunday School, the sum of $200, besides the regular Missionary offering.

The members of this Association have divided themselves into two teams, headed respectively by Captains Lynch and Gillen, for the purpose of increasing the membership of the school. The time limit is three months. Captain Lynch's team has selected as their color red, and Captain Gillen's, blue. Ribbons denoting their teams will be worn by all the members. So everybody pitch in and help their friends.

YOUNG WOMAN'S SOCIAL CHAPTER.

The attendance at the Social Chapter has been small during the past month. This is readily explained by the fact that the majority of its members are in great demand during the Lenten season. We expect to see every one return after Easter. Those who have been present, however, have not been idle. The girls have done splendid work in sewing for one of the charitable institutions of our city.

We are sorry to announce that no public basketball game can be given this season. In the early part of the next, we hope to give you this pleasure. Our team has visited Gaston Church and shared with them the benefits of a splendid coach. Our centre man, May Sutcliffe, is a shining star. (It seems to run in the family.) Jean Macklin and Bertha Kampen are "our forwards." They never miss the basket (?). The guards also do creditable work. The only thing that marred the pleasure of the games was the fact that Cora had her thumb knocked out of place several times. This caused Alice, Blanche and Nan ("our rooters"), some anxiety.

We are very anxious to have more girls to join our society. The president has planned a somewhat new system of work, to take effect after Lent. Some time in the near future we hope to have a guild room of our own, furnished in a way that will attract other young girls to our church. The dues of the organization are ten cents a month. The first Tuesday evening in the month is reserved for a business meeting. Beginning with April 2d, Tuesday, will be "Gymnastic Night." The gymnasium lesson will last about a half hour, and the remainder of the evening games and folk dances will be taught. The third Tuesday will be "Benefit Evening." This may sound mysterious, but you will enjoy it if you come. The last but not the least evening in the month is "Party Night."

If our plans interest you, and you would like to join us, speak to our Rector about it.

Have you heard any rumors of a Spring Play and Dance?

The "Parish Chronicle" is issued the second Sunday of each month.

It is required that all matters intended for publication be in the hands of the Editors on or before the 25th of each month.

TO OUR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS.

Through the kindness of friends in the business world we are able to publish and circulate "The Parish Chronicle."

We would therefore ask our people to kindly study our advertising columns and patronize our advertisers, always remembering to mention "The Parish Chronicle."

This is a fair request, we think, and we hope our people will help us, help themselves, and help our advertisers.

THE PASTORAL.

No parish could give a heartier welcome than St. Paul's has given to the Rector and his family. You have made the time fly so swiftly and pleasantly that one can hardly realize that this is the fourth Sunday we have been together. And there are surely many signs of promise for good days to follow. Coming in the midst of Lent, one naturally expected to find large congregations, and there is no reason why they should not continue good after Easter, and even grow much larger.

Some of the Rector's old friends have congratulated him on his "nice little church," or words to that effect. It is amusing to see the expressions on their faces when they come and see for themselves what the "little church" looks like. Mr. George C. Thomas, who built it in memory of his parents and to commemorate the "old St. Paul's," never was known to do anything in a half-way manner; and the parish house, built by his family in his memory, shows the same generosity and wisdom in its conception.

But what has been done for us is not the whole story by any means. Our parish plant is a bee-hive of industry and social activity. And the best "is yet to come."

So many new faces!

But each one belongs to an individual soul, with its own biography and ideals, its own joys and sorrows. And that soul, the real "you," is what the Rector wants to get acquainted with. It would be quite possible to form a quick "friendship;" there are tricks by which it could be accomplished—an effusive manner, boldly bluffing when you have forgotten a name or a face, pretending to care more for the particular person you are talking with than for any one else in the parish, etc.; but such is not the kind of friendship that we want to cultivate. Like seasoned wood that lasts forever, it requires time to mellow a pastoral relationship. We will have joys together, please God; and, if it please Him, we will have sorrows, too; but as both the sunshine and the rain are required to bring the summer fruit to maturity, so the joys and the sorrows shared together will develop the sympathy and mutual dependence which enter so largely into all true friendship.

There is a fine spirit of co-operation in St. Paul's. Very few, if any, are really waiting to be petted and coaxed. No one is afraid of being "forward," because everyone else is forward, too—enthusiasm makes them so. We are a young parish yet, and perhaps a little skittish and restless, but all we want is the word "go," and the gentle guiding rein which enables us both to set a faster gait, and to maintain a steadier pace.

* * *

Each organization will, in time, come up for "review." The one which has the first place, the right of line as the military boys say, is the choir. They very creditably passed inspection in the service of last Wednesday evening when, under the leadership of Mr. Bailey, they sang "The Crucifixion," by Sir John Stainer. If our choir comes anywhere near realizing our ambition for them their work will be not only a joy and inspiration to themselves, but also an influence of tremendous value to the Kingdom of God.

"God sent His singers upon earth"

With songs of sadness and of mirth

That they might touch the hearts of men

And bring them back to heaven again."

Joseph Holland Earp.

ST. PAUL'S GUILD.

Members of the Guild are earnestly working to make its annual theatre benefit at the New Broad Street Theatre on April 21st, with the comedy, "Cordellia Blossom," a huge success. The signs of balmy weather have inspired the "boys" to get busy along the line of the national game—baseball—and have elected James Aikens and Albert Hines to lead the first and second teams, respectively, for the coming season. Last year St. Paul's "copped" the coveted rag, and if both managers get sufficient support, you can bet your dollars to doughnuts that they will land the bacon.

It's over—the basketball season—and, although the Christ Church five came out on top, no little credit should be given to St. Paul's. The second team took possession of the second division League by a big margin, and were capable of giving several of the quintettes in the A Class a rub.

Interest in both bowling and pool tournaments, which are now running, is creating wide-fame publicity through the close and exciting games, and it has done considerable in waking up the fellows. Rivalry is no way of quoting the attention that the double-header has brought, and when one goes down to the game rooms now, instead of finding the place desolate, it proves just the contrary.

ST. MARTHA'S GUILD.

The meetings of St. Martha's Guild, held on Friday evenings, have been very successful in the past. We have quite a large attendance each week, but would like to have many more new members to join us in making our Guild a large success.

In the last few months we have accomplished a great deal of work, and during Lent have worked eagerly and faithfully. We are now embroidering bureau sets and have completed and sold many of them, but would be glad to get more orders for these sets. Orders for towels, iron pads, pin cushions, or, in fact, any sort of work in the line of sewing, will be completed and delivered by us. We all want encouragement from the sale of these goods, as we want to be a help to the church.

Those wishing to make us a visit are welcome to do so on any Friday evening.

THE ANNUAL ELECTION OF VESTRYMEN.

The following Vestrymen, whose terms expire, have been renominated and have signified their acceptance of the nomination:

Dr. John Wilkinson, Jr.
Mr. Samuel J. Buck, Sr.
Mr. William C. Butler
Mr. Joseph W. Gardiner.

The election will be held on Easter Monday, April 13th, 1914. The polls will open at 7 P. M., and will not close before 9 P. M. The Judges of Election are Messrs. P. A. Lynch, Henry A. Moore and Robert J. Skillen.

Article fourth, of the Charter, provides as follows:

"The Vestry of the Church shall consist of twelve persons, lay members of the Protestant Episcopal Church and citizens of Pennsylvania. At the first election held hereunder twelve Vestrymen shall be elected, four thereof to serve for three years, four thereof to serve for two years, and four thereof to serve for one year, and annually thereafter four Vestrymen shall be elected to serve for three years and until their successors are chosen. They shall be elected in each year on Easter Monday, by a majority of the adult male and female lay persons present and voting, who shall appear by the Vestry books to have contributed the sum of at least five dollars annually during two successive years next preceding the time for such election, and one of which payments shall have been made at least one year before the election.

(Signed)

ROBT. W. MONTGOMERY,
Secretary of the Vestry.

GEORGE C. THOMAS BOYS' GUILD.

The Guild continues to hold weekly meetings, also won some games of basketball, and beginning the week following Easter, will take up their weekly drill under the guidance of Mr. Caruso, who is making strong and healthy soldiers for Jesus Christ.

On Friday evening, April 24, 1914, the boys decided by vote to give a musical and drill entertainment to their mothers and fathers, after which refreshments will be served.

An invitation is extended through the boys to the parents by the directors to attend this affair, and by being present you will help the directors and encourage the boys.

HELP YOUR NEIGHBOR.

In the neighborhood of the Girard Estate there is a young man who is conducting a retail meat store upon reasonable prices, and who seeks your patronage. Well, if you want a good roast, or cuts of any kind, also poultry and game in season, you will do well by stopping in and placing your order with Mr. William Treftz, on the corner of Chadwick and Shunk streets, where you will receive courteous and prompt service.—Adv.

TABLOIDS.

Lent is over. Are you going to continue the Master's work?

What are your colors, red or blue?

Miss Margaret Aikens is confined to her home with illness. We miss you very much, Margaret.

The Junior Brotherhood is growing into a large organization.

The choir needs singers. Consult with Mr. William Bailey, organist and choir-master, on Thursday evenings.

Master John Earp is some athlete.

The bowling and pool tournament is now on. Enthusiasm is running riot on Thursday and Saturday evenings.

Rev. Mr. Earp is taking a keen interest in every organization attached to the church.

Mr. Maurice Crean, a vestryman, is one of the sick of this parish, and we hope to see him well and strong and back soon in our midst.

The Teachers' Association of the Sunday School are looking forward to a large Lenten offering from the scholars this Easter Day.

Bring in your Mite Boxes.

A Cradle Roll for the Sunday School will be an added attraction.

Do you patronize the advertisers? If so, do you mention this paper and help the business managers?

The Red and Blue teams are going to boost St. Paul's Sunday School.

Miss Cora Rodgers has the right spirit.

The Boys' Guild expect to organize an orchestra under the leadership of Mr. Robert McKain.

The members of this church are pleased to hear of the improved condition of Mrs. John Chambers.

Mrs. Watfield, her sons and daughters, have moved to West Philly. This parish regrets their departure.

We think that Miss Nita Livezey is a star when it comes to doing something worth while.

Miss Helen Long has a sweet voice, which should be cultivated.

Miss Alice Fod led off with a beautiful ballad and received great applause.

QUITTING THE GOOD FIGHT.

There is one calling in which a contest for personal success is the prelude to failure. That calling is the ministry. The man who enters its solemn and sacred portals would better leave behind him all hope of material reward. He should know, and be unmoved by the knowledge that the average salary of clergymen in this great country is not more than $500 a year. Sacrifice is the keynote of the calling. Time was when even life must be laid upon altars of fast-held faith. Even today only a little less is exacted from those who, throughout the world, go about preaching. Upon each is laid the old hymn's injunction, "fight the good fight with all thy might." The results, both to the preacher and to the cause for which he stands, are not within his computing. Nor is the record upon earth nor the balance, whether it shows success or failure. In faith he toils. He counts the labor nothing, nor the sacrifice nor the abnegation. He knows, though, that all the while the Eye "that marks the sparrow's fall" keeps the reckoning. Gladly he plods the thorny path, content that he "layeth up treasure in Heaven." Such was priest and prophet of old. Such is the Twentieth Century Knight of God. It is indeed a tragedy when any such quits "the good fight," whatever his trial, whatever the discouragement. Do you find in this confession a lesson for everyday men and women? Tell it. It may prove the "word in season" to some whose swords are sheathed, who shun the fight.

Up-to-date Teaching

In the Sunday School world today we are dazed with new methods and devices for teaching, yet I doubt if there is any more important tool for the Sunday School teacher than plain, old-fashioned "story-telling."

"Tell me a story," is the universal cry of the child; and he—or more often she—who can answer this cry is meeting a real need in the proper development of child-life.

Are we using the story—just the simple story—as the child loves to hear it? Most of us, perhaps, are not. We think we are telling Bible stories, but in reality we are chopping up a good story, and preaching little sermons on each piece. As we have grown in years and experience, that story has grown more and more full of meaning, and we have been tempted in the telling to explain and apply it all. If the story, however is to make a picture in the child's mind and an appeal to his heart, it must be presented simply, completely as a story; and if it is well told, it will do its own preaching. Many a story has been made ineffectual by tacking on a moral.

"To be able to tell a story is the best intellectual qualification of a teacher," says a great authority. Let us consider why. The child-mind cannot readily accept abstract truths; its reasoning, understanding and experience are not well developed; truth must be given in picture form, a perfect whole, so that the mind can grasp it and the memory retain it. Do you not recall how some story has made clear to your mind the abstract truth of a sermon and helped you to remember it? So we can embody in a story the greatest truths and make them to be perfectly understood by the child, when the most eloquent argument and explanation of those truths would fail to reach either his interest or his understanding. So we may, therefore, formulate such a definition of a story as this: "It is a narrative of real or imaginary events, relating to a whole, and appealing to the emotions rather than to the intellect."

The True Gentleman

The true gentleman is the man whose conduct proceeds from good-will and an acute sense of propriety, and whose self-control is equal to all emergencies; who does not make the poor man conscious of his poverty, the obscure man of his obscurity, or any man of his inferiority or deformity; who is himself humbled if necessity compel him to humble another; who does not flatter wealth, cringe before power, or boast of his own possessions or achievements; who speaks with frankness, but always with sincerity and sympathy, and whose deed follows his word; who thinks of the rights and feelings of others rather than of his own; who appears well in any company, and who is at home when he seems to be abroad—a man with whom honor is sacred and virtue safe.

Reception to the Rector and Mrs. Earp

The reception to the Rector and Mrs. Earp, which was postponed on account of a bereavement, will be held next Thursday evening, June 18th, from Eight to Ten o'clock.

The Committee have arranged for a pleasant evening, and it is hoped there will be a full attendance.

Those who have previously received cards will kindly bear this date in mind. No other notice will be sent out. Any adult member of the congregation, who through errors in the mailing list may not have received a card, is most cordially invited to be present.

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

COAL! COAL!

If your coal bin is empty, place your order at once for next winter's coal with Mr. Eugene F. Gillin, 1422 Wolf street. The proceeds to go to the Parish Building Furnishing Fund.

Bell 'Phone, Dickinson 3569 W.

Crean Bros. are ready to serve you with small or large coal, with Mr. Gillin acting as special agent.

WERE YOU THERE?

On Thursday evening, June 4th, the combined societies of St. Paul's held a June Party, concerning which, if the writer had the space, he could elaborate to a great extent. But some account of the good time and of the various attractions which were presented on that occasion will not be amiss. The young ladies and the flowers were beautiful. The Dorcas Society, with their various wares, would have been a decided attraction to any church affair. Something must be said of the booths—one could hardly conceive of more handsome decorations. The costumes of the young ladies, especially of Mrs. Thomas S. Boyle, and those who engaged in "The Pedlers' Parade," deserve special mention. Nor must we forget Mr. Robert Makim, whose preliminary planning was very helpful. The St. Martha's Guild, under the direction of the President, Miss Bubb, with the assistance of Miss Anne Stillwell, gave a very creditable sketch entitled "Young Dr. Devine."

The George C. Thomas Guild of boys, under the direction of Mr. Eugene F. Gillin and Mr. Robert Skillen, had charge of the Fish Pond. They also displayed a life-size figure of a Hebrew Pedler which furnished fun for everybody and helped to contribute a good sum to the proceeds.

The Young Men's Guild had charge of the Game Room, with the addition of "Sambo" who caught the fancy of the men.

E. F. G.

A RULE THAT WORKS BOTH WAYS.

The Rev. Matthias Madert, formerly a Roman Catholic priest, is now a student at the Theological Seminary of Virginia, at Alexandria. It may surprise some of our readers to learn that from time to time very large numbers of Roman Catholics are to be found in our Confirmation classes, and that quite frequently Roman priests come to our Bishops asking to be received as candidates for Holy Orders in the Episcopal Church. Occasionally they are admitted, but more frequently the Bishop has to refuse them on the ground that they are not qualified for our ministry. When we read of some priest or laymen of the Episcopal Church being received into the Roman Church let us remember the old saying that it is a poor rule that don't work both ways. Very little publicity is ever given to the reception of a Romanist into our Church—it would be showing a very poor sort of Christian spirit to gloat over that kind of additions, and it is equally a poor sort of spirit shown when some misguided soul falls into the delusion that anything is gained or that God can be served any better by submitting to a spiritual tyranny whose whole genius is either Italian or mediaeval. We should cultivate a spirit of true charity toward all Christian people, but there never was a time when intelligent Protestant, Episcopal, American churchmanship was more needed than the present.

The following lines quoted by the Rev. Wilson R. Stearly in his little book "The Master of the Feast," are so beautiful and suggestive that we all ought to catch their spirit:

"It isn't raining rain to me,
It's raining daffodils;
In every dimpled drop I see Wild flowers on the hills,
And clouds of gray engulf the day
And overwhelm the town;
It isn't raining rain to me,
It's raining roses down.

"It isn't raining rain to me,
But fields of clover-bloom,
Where any buccaneering bee
May find a bed and room.
A health unto the happy,
A fig for him who frets.
It isn't raining rain to me,
It's raining violets."

TO OUR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS.

Through the kindness of friends in the
business world we are able to publish and cir-
culate "The Parish Chronicle."

We would therefore ask our people to kindly
study our advertising columns and patronize
our advertisers, always remembering to men-

THE RECTOR'S PASTORAL.

My dear Friends:—

I have been looking over the record of attendances for the month of May during the last four years, and comparing them with the attendances during the first four of the five Sundays this May.
The following totals are the result:

May, 1911	921
" 1912	920
" 1913	970
" 1914	1054

The record of contributions to the "General Fund" for the same periods is as follows:

May, 1911	$119.22
" 1912	124.46
" 1913	202.19
" 1914	184.49

The larger amount in May, 1913, is accounted for by the fact that during that month a personal work committee canvassed the parish and secured an increase both in financial support and in attendance at the services. This year we have been reaping the advantage of the work of that committee, for while I have given the figures only for May, the increase has been apparent all through the year.

Thus in both attendance and financial support there has been a small but healthy increase. We believe that the coming year will witness a much larger increase in both respects. But the lesson to be heeded at this moment is the value of personal work well organized.

When the committee on personal work—consisting of ten men and ten women—had finished their campaign a year ago it was the intention of the Rector, the Rev. Mr. Carson, to call them together in the fall and push their work to a still greater success. Mr. Carson's acceptance of his call to Minnesota left the matter for the new Rector to take up. That will constitute one of the lines of work before us in the early fall.

I want to express the thanks of the Parish to Miss Anne Stillwell, who, though not a member of St. Paul's, gave much time to the training of the girls who gave the little sketch at the June Party. Miss Stillwell is associated with Miss Clara Bubb in the work at the College Settlement, and we are indebted to both of them for their generous efforts in behalf of our young church girls of the St. Martha's Guild.

At the late Diocesan Convention, Bishop Rhinelander, in his Convention address, paid a beautiful and well-deserved tribute to one whom we in St.
Paul's delight to see honored. Let me quote his exact words:

"I cannot quite refrain, in spite of a feeling that true chivalry would keep me silent, from noting here the retirement of Mrs. George C. Thomas from her position as Treasurer of the United Offering of the Woman's Auxiliary in this Diocese. For twenty-five years she has prayed and labored in this cause, bringing our Diocese into a position of undisputed leadership, and doing her work among her sisters in such a winning, loving and self-forgetful way that the gifts of money gladly given to the great object have been but the outward expression of a true inward spiritual devotion; the fruits of real religious zeal.
Here again, on all of us, rests the responsibility of proving ourselves worthy and able to conserve a notable achievement of pure faith and love, committed to our trust."

The Rector shares with the Bishop the feeling that Mrs. Thomas's character and work do not need to have their praises sounded either by voice or pen—they speak for themselves among all who know her, and yet we all feel that we would like her to know that our appreciation and gratitude demand at least an occasional heartfelt expression.

A closing word about the Chronicle.
Its pages are not primarily intended to be read outside our Parish—it is a home paper, to be enjoyed within the family.

Were we careful about the voice of possible criticism from the stranger we would probably "blue-pencil" some of the language which appears from time to time in the articles published. Whether it is wise to admit the familiar language of the day which we sometimes call slang may be a question. The judgment of the Editor at present is that since we want our young folks to enjoy their parish paper we will let them talk in the language of the day. One thing the Rector would like to add, for the benefit of the possible strangers who may be reading our columns, is that in his judgment our young people are as delightful to meet, as generous and good-hearted in their social life, and as noble in their ideals as any whom he has ever been associated with anywhere, and he feels that our work together will not only be mutually pleasant, but will also result in a deeper and more earnest and useful life for us all.

Faithfully yours,
JOSEPH HOLLAND EARP.

Let us endeavor to keep our religious life true and fervent all through the warm days. Suppose we were living in a country where it was hot all the year around, would we feel it right to dispense with the church and her services? We all should take a vacation from our routine weekly employment, but we should not drop down to lower levels of living, nor should we forget that the truest rest for mind and body is in contemplating the peace and power of Him Who is our God and our Father.

It is a pleasure to welcome into our midst Mrs. Joseph Boyd and members of her family. They come to us from the Chapel of the Holy Comforter. Their home is at 2016 Mifflin street.

The Rector would be pleased to hear from any persons who may desire to place flowers on the altar in memory of some one now in Paradise. The plan is a most worthy one, and it is hoped that there will be many responses. He would be glad to explain the plan to all who are interested. Please speak to him about it. There should be flowers every Sunday.

At the last Diocesan Convention the Bishop appointed the Rector a member of the Social Service Commission of the Diocese. At the first meeting of the new Commission he was elected Secretary, in succession to the Rev. George C. Foley, D. D., of the Divinity School.
Another Diocesan duty to which the Rector has been asked to give a share of his time is that of a manager of the Seaman's Institute. Both of these duties involve greater usefulness not only for the Rector himself but also for the members of the parish, who will doubtless be brought into closer relationship with these institutions through the Rector's connection with them.

Mrs. William Knox, the efficient President of the Dorcas Society, furnishes us a list of the proceeds of the June Party, and we believe it would be interesting and useful to publish it. It is as follows:

Game Room, Young Men's Guild.	$9.26
Lemonade and Peanuts, Mrs.
Doughty in charge	12.46
Candy Table, Mrs. Bruder in charge	18.05
Cake Table, Mrs. Aikens in charge	11.70

Mrs. Thos. S. Boyle, Gypsy Tent.	25.00

DORCAS SOCIETY.

The Party, which was held on June 4th under the auspices of the combined societies, promises to be quite a success. We know that you are all anxious to learn how much was made. We are happy to report that the partial proceeds of the Party up to the present time are $165.43. A more definite report will be made later.

It is the desire of the Guild that a return for tickets be made as soon as possible. Our aim has been for $200.00, so kindly help us to reach it. The Young Women's Social Chapter deserves great credit for the way in which they entered into the work under the leadership of Mrs. Thomas S. Boyle, and their booth certainly deserves special mention for its beautiful decorations and floral display.

Just a word of praise for the boys of the George C. Thomas Guild for the spirit in which they did their work; and we wish to thank them for their liberal contribution toward the Flower Fund.

The Young Men's Guild did well, and St. Martha's Guild, under the direction of Miss Bubbs, produced a two-act sketch which was very successful.

Mr. William Beardwood's boys (The Junior Brotherhood) are always willing to help.

The Dorcas Society wishes to thank you all for the aid extended to them in this Party and trust that you all spent a very pleasant and enjoyable evening. Let us always remember that to accomplish and make a success of any work we undertake we must have the co-operation of all, not only those connected with the various Guilds, but also those of the congregation and their friends. We thank you one and all.

Received $1.00 from Y. M. G. for Flower Fund.

Secretary.

FRIENDSHIP.

"Life is beautiful and splendid just in proportion as it goes forth beautifully and splendidly into other lives. This is not to adopt the canons of worldly success. According to those mean standards a life is resplendent if other lives—many other lives—humbly bring tribute to it, of money, or praise or service; not if it is friendly, but if the world is friendly to it. Success, measured by a worldling's yard stick, has no room in all its palace for a single friend.

"Thus friendship is the best preparation for heaven, where worldly standards are reversed, and success is in giving, not getting. Whoever has yielded his life on earth to an honest and thorough friendship has served a satisfactory apprenticeship to life everlasting."

SOCIAL CHAPTER.

During the past month a good part of our time has been taken up in preparing for the June Party. However, in the early part of the month we had a "Gym Party," and only the girls who were there can realize what a splendid time we had. The girls all brought lunches in boxes and when it came time for "eats" we simply spread a table cloth on the floor and used that for our table. We surely did have fun. You can understand how very "quiet" we were when you are told that there was a heavy thunderstorm that night but we did not know it until it was time to go home. Ask May how she likes going home in the rain.

The next meeting we started our plans for the June Party, and we worked with a vim. Costumes had to be obtained and material prepared for our trays.

Our Vice-President is back with us and we want to thank her for what she did for us. We don't know what we would have done without you, Margaret. When it comes to getting donations you certainly are right there with the goods. Before Thursday evening there were a number of people who did not know that we had a real "Topsy" in our Guild, but they know it now. Nita saw to that. We want to thank Mrs. Boyle for the help she gave us in fixing up our costumes and trays. Last, but by no means least, we want to congratulate the members of St. Martha's Guild who took part in the sketch Thursday evening. We had thought of something on that order but you beat us to it, girls.

On May 30th one of our members, Alice Garwood, sailed for her home in England. We all hope that she will have a safe and pleasant voyage and that she will return to us soon.

Now that June and warm weather are here our meetings will soon come to an end. Don't forget to come back in September, girls. If you do, you may miss a great many things you really want, for we have quite a number of plans just started now, but they are likely to be full-grown ones this fall.

ST. PAUL'S GUILD.

This month is going to be a busy one for Guild members and there are enough social and athletic events planned to meet the demand of everyone in the association. Starting with the June Party on the 4th, followed by a reception to the Rev. Joseph Holland Earp and his wife on the 18th, a moonlight trip up the river on the 19th, and the annual Sunday-school Excursion to Brandywine Park on the 24th, and the opening of the baseball season in the Brotherhood of Protestant Church Clubs League, this is the June menu that will be served.

The bowling tournament recently finished was won by the Messrs. Joseph Connor and Benjamin F. Emery, but owing to the fact that only one prize was to be awarded it was necessary for the two winning alleymen to roll a series of games to decide the victor of the prize. Emery won the match and annexed the prize. Several games remain unplayed in the pool tourney and the titleholder will not be known until next month.

The ball team will sport new uniforms at the opening game and great things are expected of this season's material. The moonlight excursion has been gotten up exclusively for the purpose of paying for the baseball suits, and Manager Billy Kohn is quite confident that the players and members will make returns that will surprise him. Winnie Swallow is pitching for the Wilmington Tri-State nine and is doing exceptionally well, winning five games, and dropping one. St. Paul's reputation on the diamond and in the basket-ball cage is getting established all over the State, and even in the remote parts of West Philadelphia our Secretary, Charlie Mohr, is elevating the Guild's name while playing on the Cross Keys team. A big time is in store for the fellows the last meeting night of this month, and the Entertainment Committee say they will stage some "shine."

THE PARISH CHRONICLE

TABLOIDS.

Put Up by E. F. G.

Excursion! Are you going?

Some June Party!

Mrs. E. F. Gillin is setting a terrific pace for the reds in the Sunday-School contest.

Mr. Wm. Kohn is a hustler and generally succeeds in everything he undertakes.

The prizes for athletic events to be awarded on the Sunday-School picnic are beautiful.

Boys and girls, get your entries to Messrs. Gillin and Lynch early.

Summer is on and while you are on your vacation don't forget your envelopes.

Quite a number receive prizes for good attendance in the choir during the past year.

Teachers and scholars of the reds and blues must get busy, as the contest ends the last Sunday in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Boyle will spend the summer at Chelsea in their new cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Ackley were present with us at our June Party.

Mr. Joseph Gardiner, Jr., is quite adept in the terpsichorean art.

The June Party just held was quite successful in every way.

Sunday-School picnic will be held on Wednesday, June 24th. Are you going?

Mr. Robert Galbraith will take a trip abroad some time in August. The Parish Chronicle will not be issued during July and August.

The Young Men's Guild's baseball team look like big leaguers in their new uniforms. Come out and encourage them to bring the pennant to this church.

The June meeting of the local Assembly of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, held at St. Paul's Church, Overbrook, was a great success spiritually.

If you ever want an improvised table and a good menu, apply to the Young Ladies' Social Chapter.

Cora and Marshmellow sandwiches are synonymous.

Bertha and Jean are aftermaths (always late).

Miss May Sutcliffe and Miss Edna Montgomery were visiting at the White House during the past month.

Jennie, you look very nice on those tiny chairs. Why don't you go down and try them on Sunday?

Miss Alice Garwood sailed for England a few weeks ago.

Did anyone sell B. G. that dish?

Ider, don't you like der Donner?

Edna—some wale (veil).

Alice, who's your baker?

We had a rollicking gym picnic minus the gym.

Miss Blanche Cohill has a wonderful musical future and we take this way in thanking her personally.

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

A NOTABLE WEDDING IN ST. PAUL'S.

On Wednesday evening, August 5th, an event of unusual interest occurred in St. Paul's Church when the popular Accounting Church Warden, Dr. John Wilkinson, Jr., was united in holy wedlock to Miss Laura May McKain, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. McKain.

The church was beautifully decorated with palms. The church organist, Mr. William Richard Bailey, played both before and during the wedding. The ceremony was performed by the Rector.

The groom was attended by his nephew, Mr. James C. W. Niebergall, as best man, and the bridesmaid was Miss Elizabeth N. McKain, a sister of the bride. The little flower girls, who were very sweet and pretty, and performed their parts in a very dignified manner, were Miss Mary McKain, a sister of the bride, and Miss Margaret Niebergall, a niece of the groom. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

In addition to the immediate families and relatives of the contracting parties, special invitations had been sent to the vestrymen and their wives. A large number of the members of the church gathered to witness the interesting event, and to express their joy in the good fortune both of the bride and groom.

Following the ceremony in the church a reception was given in the home of the bride, at 1432 Porter street. Dr. and Mrs. Wilkinson will reside for the present at 2032 Bambridge street, where they will be at home after October 15th.

RALLY DAY.

September 20th will be Rally Day for our Sunday School. Mr. Boyle, the superintendent, is full of plans and enthusiasm for the coming year. It is needless to say that he will have the loyal support of officers, teachers and scholars. A great work must be done in our school this season—a high ideal must be set and lived up to. We want many new scholars to be gathered in; we want high-grade work to be done by our teachers in their instruction; we want efficiency in all the officers; but above all we want the year's work to be great in the building-up of CHRISTIAN CHARACTER! Let us make every thought, every plan, every action contribute to that one end. Let us feel our greatest pride in the Christian quality of our work.

BAPTISM AND ARCHAEOLOGY.

In deciding the long-debated question as to whether affusion or submersion was employed as the mode of baptism in the early Church, new evidence is to be derived from a study of Christian archaeology. Popular art is likely to picture what actually went on before the eyes of the artists. In the catacomb frescoes there are seven examples which represent the baptism of our Lord or of a catechumen. In each case the baptized stands on dry land, or in quite shallow water, which reaches only to the ankles. There is no attempt to represent submersion. In one of the earliest frescoes affusion is actually represented as rising to the knees. Sometimes it is pictured as falling in a stream from above over the head of the baptized. In the mosaic pictures the water is represented as deeper still and often as rising to the waist. According to Clement F. Rogers, who discusses the subject in the last number of the "Church Quarterly Review," there is no example of an attempt to picture submersion till the ninth century. Of this date there is an ivory which depicts the submersion of an infant. In the ancient fonts which have survived there is only one, that in the Lateran Baptistery at Rome, in which submersion would have been easy. In Syria a fourth century font allows for only a depth of twenty inches of water. In a number of ancient fonts the depth of the water could rarely exceed three feet, even if the font were filled to the brim. A place for baptism has been discovered in the cemetery of St. Priscilla at Rome. Here the candidate apparently stood on the floor of the chapel over a little hollow made to carry away the water after it had been poured over him.—From The Churchman.

ARE YOU LOOKING FOR A CHURCH?

Notice how the Episcopal Church is linked to the past by a Divinely appointed ministry in a Divinely organized Church; and while she is faithful to "the faith once delivered to the saints," she is able to adapt herself, without the sacrifice of a single principle, to all present conditions—religious, political, social, intellectual.

THE RECTOR'S HOLIDAY.

The Rector and his family, have returned to the city after an enjoyable rest by the sea and in the country. The first ten days of August were spent as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Boyle who entertained them royally at their comfortable summer home in Chelsea. During the month Mr. Earp officiated at the Church of the Redeemer, Longport, N. J., where he was especially made happy by the presence of a number of friends, both from St. Paul's and the Church of the Holy Apostles. He also spent some days in the city, visiting the sick of the parish and on one sad occasion officiating at the burial of Mr. Weaver, the father of Mrs. Thompson, of Woodstock street.

It gave him much pleasure to be called to the Episcopal Hospital to see Mrs. Dever, former parishioner of Dr. Appleton, at the old Mediator Parish. Mrs. Dever was very near to death's door, and the nurse was certain that she would be unable to recognize anyone, but after the brief prayer which was offered at her bedside, as the Rector arose a smile momentarily passed over the sufferer's face exactly similar to that which he had observed on similar occasions before, and the nurse observed that it was the first sign of consciousness that she had shown for many hours. That was the supremest moment of joy in the whole of the Rector's holiday.

MR. WILLIAM C. BUTLER.

St. Paul's is under renewed obligation to our Lay Reader, Mr. Butler, for his faithful work in conducting the services during the month of August. He also presided over the Sunday School for several Sundays. Mr. Butler came to St. Paul's from St. Timothy's where he had rendered invaluable aid in building up that important work, and it is right to say that he has contributed much to the wonderful success attained by St. Paul's in its career thus far.

God gives us power to bear all the sorrows of His making; but He does not give us power to bear the sorrows of our own making, which the anticipation of sorrow most assuredly is.—Ian Maclaren.

HOME IS BEST.

The sympathy of his fellow-vestrymen, and of all his friends in St. Paul's, goes out to Mr. Robert J. Galbraith in his unfortunate experiences during the past month. He had long looked forward to a pleasant trip across the water, visiting old scenes and old friends. The vessel on which he had taken passage was in mid-ocean when the war broke out, and from that day until his return to Philadelphia he encountered all the dangers and anxieties which have been so distressing not only to those who were abroad but also to their families and friends at home. We trust that in the good Providence of God the future may hold for Mr. Galbraith many blessings which will atone for the loss of his expected joy in the visit so unfortunately cut short. We thank God for his safe return, and we are glad to have him back with us safe and sound.

GET BUSY, BOYS.

Quite a number of boys of the George C. Thomas Guild attended the first meeting Wednesday, September 2, and all present were eager to commence the fall work in the uplift of each other and helpfulness to the church. The boys will continue meeting every Wednesday evening, at 7.45 P. M.

All parents of this parish having boys between the ages of 10 to 15 are asked to interview the directors, as to its objects and purposes, and place your boys in the company of other boys who are doing church work.

The president, Master Stanley Scheffer, has been twice elected president and is very popular with the boys, and looks for busy times this winter.

ARE YOU LOOKING FOR A CHURCH?

Study the Catechism, and you will find nothing in the English language so simple, so comprehensive, so helpful in its discipline, so thorough in its teachings of the fundamental duties of the Christian life. It is so practical that you can make it a rule of your life, the expression of every duty.

The "Parish Chronicle" is issued the second Sunday of each month.

It is required that all matters intended for publication be in the hands of the Editors on or before the 25th of each month.

TO OUR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS.

Through the kindness of friends in the business world we are able to publish and circulate "The Parish Chronicle."

We would therefore ask our people to kindly study our advertising columns and patronize our advertisers, always remembering to mention "The Parish Chronicle."

This is a fair request, we think, and we hope our people will help us, help themselves, and help our advertisers.

THE RECTOR'S PASTORAL.

Dear Parishioners and Friends:—

Last spring gave me a little taste of the joy which was to be mine in establishing a pastoral relation with you in the months to come. But the spring days are never a good time to get settled in a parish. The time has now arrived, however, when we can all get together in our common hopes and plans for a season of blessed fellowship in worship and work.

St. Paul's is dear and home-like to those who have for years been acquainted with one another, and who have watched the congregation grow from a very small beginning, who have noted almost every brick and stone which went into the building of the spacious plant in loving memory of those whose earnest lives and splendid characters have been forever enshrined in our commodious facilities for worship and for service to God.

Now a new step must be taken. We must cultivate, with all the tact and intelligence we can muster, the spirit of a large hospitality. We must do everything in our power to welcome that ever-increasing number who move into our midst and seek among us a church-home. Let that be our aim this fall.

There are some most delightful persons who have been coming with more or less regularity to our services for some time. They have much to give us out of the experiences of their lives if we will let them feel the spirit of a warm welcome into our midst.

Another aim which I wish to hold before you at this time is the cultivating of a sound, sober standard of living. Are the young men and women who are now entering upon the activities of life as well equipped to be bulwarks against the ever-flowing tides of sin and folly as were the men and women of a generation ago? Is life so deep and solemn as it seemed to our fathers and mothers? Or do we lightly trip along from day to day trying, like a butterfly, to sip as much sweet as we can from this pleasure and that, and caring but little for tomorrow, and next year, and eternity?

To aim at a serious and noble conception of our lives is a goal which we may well set before us at this beginning of a new season of worship and work.

Faithfully yours,
JOSEPH H. EARP,
Rector.

A CAMERA CLUB.

Let us organize at once a Camera Club, to be composed of everyone in the parish who owns a camera. To start the ball rolling, we will have a little amateur competition, to be decided the 1st of October. The plan is this: Let each one turn in to the Rector as soon as possible one or more pictures which you have taken this summer, either with a camera of your own or a friend's. The picture which, in the judgment of a suitable committee, is most interesting, will be awarded the blue ribbon, the second a red ribbon, and the three next will receive honorable mention. The pictures are to be loaned long enough to be placed on exhibition in the Parish House. "The more the merrier." Do not be backward in coming forward with your snap-shots in this great contest—whether you think you have a chance to win or not. There is fun ahead.

ARE YOU LOOKING FOR A CHURCH?

Study the Apostle's Creed, which she alone requires of her members, and you have the creed of facts—not an opinion expressed in it. Men have their opinions of these facts, but all do not hold the same opinion. And the Church of Christ is able to keep within her fold men of all opinions, while she ever holds up to them the great central facts.

A PRINCE.

A story is told of Lord Kelvin that once when he entered a great gathering of scientists the audience rose. He whispered to the companion who had entered with him: "I think the prince must have come in." He had no idea that the demonstration of respect was meant for himself. He did not dream that he was worthy of it. He was the prince and did not know it. His humility, his love for the truth had given him this high honor that he had expected to be awarded only to the king's son.—The Christian Herald.

The root of all steadfastness is in consecration to God.—Maclaren.

LITTLE HYMNS.

The Fighting Line.

By the Rev. Louis Tucker.

The armies of the King
Are very full of song;
A wonder of great light
Their shining ranks and long.

But, on the fighting line
Clothes tattered and crests shorn
And armor dank with blood
By silent men are worn.

The servants of the King
That sing in bright array
Before the throne of light,
Angels and saints are they.

But the great King Himself
He is a man of war.
Where, on the fighting line,
His silent soldiers are,

There, close behind some man
Hurt, whom some evil thing
Has beaten to his knees,
We mostly find our King.

Robbed.

Two folk who loved the King
And had a journey long,
Carried a little child;
Whereby they were made strong.

But as they stumbled on,
Out of the dark there came
A hand which took the child;
Whereat they gave God blame:

For lonely grew each day,
Weary each night and cold.
Folk on the King's highway
(They felt) the King should hold

Safe from such robbery,
So cried to Him the wrong.
But at the Palace gates
He met them; in His strong

ARE YOU LOOKING FOR A CHURCH?

Take part in the services of the Episcopal Church; try to understand her method of worship; enter heartily into prayers and praises; observe the postures of the body; ask the reason for the things you do not understand, and you will find a richness, a beauty, a depth of meaning in the idea of worship you never knew before.

THE RECTOR'S OFFICE.

Within a few weeks the Rector's study and office will be installed on the second floor of the Parish House. This is in the interest of greater efficiency in administering the affairs of the parish. It will be some days before the bookshelves are in place, but eventually it is hoped that the study will present an appearance which will invite a visit from every parishioner.

PUTTING ONE'S HEART INTO ONE'S WORK.

Time is not found; it is made. What we call Time, that is, the flight of hours recorded by the clock, is simply the raw material from which Time is made. Time is duration turned to account. If you want Time for great tasks, for fine growth, for beautiful accomplishments, for rich resources, do not wait for it; it will never come to you. Make it by selection of design, concentration of effort, the vital skill that is born of devotion, intelligence, putting one's heart in one's work.—Hamilton W. Mabie, in The Outlook.

Wisdom is knowing what to do next; skill is knowing how to do it; and virtue is doing it.

We must answer in the great day of accounts for every idle word, but we must also answer for every cowardly or indifferent silence as well. Sins of omission will be punished as well as sins of commission.—Western Recorder.

Look to this day
For it is Life—the very Life of Life;
In its brief course lie all the verities
And realities of your existence.
The Bliss of Growth,
The Story of Action,
The Splendor of Beauty,
For Yesterday is already a dream
And Tomorrow is only a vision;
But Today well lived makes Every Yesterday a dream of Happiness
And every Tomorrow a Vision of Hope.
Look well therefore to this day;
Such is the salutation of the Dawn.

THREE FINANCIAL SAFEGUARDS.

Three points are essential if the people are to have confidence in the financial administration:

1. All offerings should be counted immediately after the service by two officers, and the result recorded.

2. All accounts should be audited at the end of each fiscal year and if the figures are large enough to warrant it a professional accountant should be employed.

3. All accounts should be presented in full at the parish meeting, duly audited. They should also, I think, be printed and a copy sent by mail to every member of the parish. Publicity in accounting by institutions which are responsible to the people is the surest path to public confidence.—Bishop Lawrence.

The above words of Bishop Lawrence, of Massachusetts, are very timely. But in our own parish we are happy to say to those who contribute to its maintenance, we have not only all the safeguards recommended by Bishop Lawrence, but even more. We probably have as safe and efficient management of funds as can be found in the American church.

ARE YOU LOOKING FOR A CHURCH?

The Episcopal Church is pre-eminently the Church of the Bible—the whole Bible. Attend the services of the Episcopal Church, and you will hear ten times more Bible than you will in any other Christian body at any public service; and none grants a freer or more continual study of it as the guide of a human life.

ATHLETIC FIELD.

The Young Men's Guild has appointed the following committee to act with any and all other organizations which are endeavoring to work up an Athletic Field and Recreation Center for this part of the city:

Dr. John Wilkinson, Jr.
William C. Butler,
James Aikens.
James Johnson,
Herbert Dickson.

"A VACATION EXPERIENCE."

No doubt there is much latent literary talent among the readers of the "Chronicle." We want to draw it out. We make this proposition:

Write a little account of your vacation, or of some event that occurred which gave you pleasure, and hand it to the Rector any time within the next two weeks, that is, before the end of September, and a competent committee will pass upon it. The most interesting and best written account will be published in the next issue of this paper.

The account should not be more than two hundred words in length, written on one side of the sheet, and the earlier it is sent in the better. Try your luck!

ST. PAUL'S CHAPTER, NO. 1824, BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

The regular meetings of the Chapter were resumed on Friday, September 11th, and will be held thereafter on alternate Friday evenings. The next, therefore, will be on Friday, September 25th, at 8 P. M. The Executive Committee will meet at the home of Mr. W. W. Fisher, 2223 South Seventeenth street, on Friday, September 18th, at 8 P. M.

Crean Bros. are ready to serve you with small or large coal, with Mr. Gillin acting as special agent.

LET US TRY THIS IN ST. PAUL'S.

It is surprising to observe how much more important anybody may become by simply being always in his place! One need not be wealthy, or influential, or talented, or even educated, to attain this importance. Try it—in the Sunday-school, the choir, the church services, the various meetings and other gatherings. The people who are always in their place are the people we "count on."

It is a fine thing in friendship to know when to be silent.

SOME TRUISMS

When the fight thickens the captain says, "Steady, boys;" and it is their steadiness that pulls them through. Fitful soldiers are rarely useful ones. This is our great need today—steady Christians, men and women you can count on. Many Christians are like intermittent springs. They flow today—tomorrow you can't get a thimbleful of religious activity out of the dried channels of their lives.—Wayland.

There are some Christians who always live down in the valley where the atmosphere is damp and unhealthy. There are others who constantly dwell where the sweet balmy air of God's love blows over them, and as a result, they are always healthy, spiritually—happy and contented.

The man who cannot get as much good from an hour and a half of church as from an hour and a half of Sunday newspaper must be an extraordinary person.—Youth's Companion.

VOLUME VIII

NUMBER 1

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant, removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

NEW HONORS FOR OUR RECTOR

The rector has been informed that on the 2d day of October he was appointed by the Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas of the County of Philadelphia to serve as "a visitor of the institutions to which children have been committed by the County of Philadelphia."

Mr. Earp understands that he was nominated to the judges for membership on this board by the rector of Christ Church, the Rev. Dr. L. C. Washburn, who has previously served on the board.

GRAND BAZAAR

December 3rd, 4th and 5th, 1914.

A Bazaar for the sale of useful and fancy articles will be held in the Parish Building on Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoons and evenings, December 3rd, 4th and 5th, 1914.

The object of the Bazaar is to raise at least One Thousand Dollars ($1000) for the current expenses of the church.

St. Paul's Bazaars in the past have always been successful. We have never in the five Bazaars in our history, fallen below the $500 mark (as our net receipts) and have reached the high mark of $1016. The last Bazaar in 1912 netted the sum of $740.60. Surely with the equipment and organization which we now have we can equal if not surpass our highest record.

It has been said that there are four ways of considering the results of a Bazaar. These are:

1. As a means of social life. The social instinct demands that people come together in a cordial and friendly way.
2. Church bazaars may be considered as a proper means of raising money.
3. The church bazaar may be considered as an opportunity for service. Some cannot give money, but all of us can give our time and service.
4. The bazaar may develop the spirit of friendship. The truest friendships, the most lasting loves do not spring up amid the glare and glitter of the world's social life. The best friendships grow as men and women work together for some good cause which they love and for which they are willing to sacrifice their time and money.

Let us all work together in the true "spirit of amity" characteristic of St. Paul's.

Full details will be arranged at a meeting of the Parish Council, to be held on Wednesday next, October 14th, at 8 P. M., in the Parish House.

Your place will be assigned to you.

COAL! COAL!

If your coal bin is empty, place your order at once for next winter's coal with Mr. Eugene F. Gillin, 1422 Wolf street. The proceeds to go to the Parish Building Furnishing Fund.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

SENIOR AND JUNIOR CHAPTERS

ST. PAUL'S CHAPTER, NO. 1824,

Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

The Chapter Meetings will be held on Friday evenings, October 23rd, and November 6th, 1914, at 8 P. M. sharp.

The Executive Committee will meet at the home of Mr. William C. Butler, 1414 Tasker street, on Friday, October 16th, at 8.15 P. M.

Galilee Mission service, Thursday, October 22d, 8 P. M.

The Corporate Communion of the Senior and Junior Chapters will be on Sunday, October 25th, at 7.30 P. M. It is urged that all the men and boys be present at this service.

A local Assembly Meeting will be held during the week of October 19th, at St. Matthew's Church, Eighteenth and Girard avenue. It is hoped that a large number of our men and boys will attend this meeting as well as other Assembly meetings which will be announced later.

JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD.

At a special admission service, held in the church on September 27th, three former Juniors were admitted to the Senior Chapter and five probationary members were received into full membership in the Junior Chapter. The service was very impressive. Nine Juniors were present at the last Corporate Communion. Owing to the Parish Rally which is to be held on Monday evening next, the meeting of the Junior Chapter for that date will be held on Monday, October 19th, at 8 P. M. Let all members be present.

The Junior Chapter has as its special work for this winter a Confirmation campaign: a campaign to bring boys to Christ through His church by the sacred rite of Confirmation. Let us all work for this worthy purpose.

ST. ANDREW NOTES

Seniors and Juniors.

Are you a member?

We miss you from the Chapter meetings, Mr. Lynch.

William Watkins is quite a leader among the Juniors.

The members of the Senior and Junior Chapters were much in evidence lately.

Mr. Fisher entertained the Executive Board of the Senior Chapter loyally last month.

Our friend, Mr. William C. Butler, is ever ready to lend a helping hand for whatever cause.

Four young men entered the Senior Chapter and five boys took the vow of the Juniors at a recent service.

The boys of the Junior Chapter have taken up the work of furnishing the parish with a large photograph of our former rector, Rev. E. S. Carson.

NEW BROTHERHOOD MEMBERS

On the sixteenth Sunday after Trinity, September 27, at the evening service a special sermon was preached to the Brotherhood of St. Andrew and the following new members were admitted:

To the Senior Chapter—

Elmer Lockhart,
Louis Bennett,
Albert Jilliard.

To the Junior Chapter—

John E. Earp,
Wesley Marks,
Edward Elverson,
William Elverson,
John Eltonhead,
Frank Good.

MOTHER'S BOY

By MARY STARBUCK.

It must often tax a mother's ingenuity as well as her loyalty when the ten-year-old boy is urged, coaxed or commanded to get ready for church and Sunday-school in the name of God and of religion, and the same practiced tongue has to frame plausible excuses for father's release from the same much valued privileges or pressing duties. That God and religion must be only for women and children surely will be the conclusion of any boy of average intelligence.

Is it any wonder as he grows to manhood that he generally leaves mother to go to church alone, that since "father doesn't stand for that sort of thing" he comes to think that the few men who do go to Church, who keep on in the Sunday-school, even those who enter the Sacred Ministry are good fellows in spite of this amiable weakness for religion which in its way is after all "a good thing for women and children."

Who are we to live a full life, unmortified, undisciplined when our Saviour was crucified? Who are we to rebel at poverty or suffering or disappointment when He chose them as His lot? Who are we to make the test of life what we should like when He made the test of His God's will.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL PROGRESS

I.—Rally Day.

Sunday, September 20, we observed in our Sunday-school as "Rally Day." Superintendent Boyle had sent a personal letter to every member on the roll. These letters were in the form of telegrams, which were delivered by the boys of Mr. E. F. Gillin's class. The boys received two cents for each telegram they delivered, and that money goes into the class's Easter offering.

There was a splendid attendance. After the classes had met in the Parish Building and had attended to the marking of the roll, etc., the whole school then marched into the church. Some of the parents and others had already gathered there, and the church was quite full of happy and enthusiastic "soldiers and servants of Jesus Christ." Superintendent Boyle made a very fitting address of welcome, and the rector appealed for the co-operation of all in trying to realize the highest ideal of Sunday-school work.

It was a successful "Rally Day," and the interest has seemed to grow each Sunday since.

II.—HOME DEPARTMENT

We ought to have in our parish a "Home Department" of the Sunday-school.

But what is a "Home Department?"

The Home Department aims to reach and benefit those persons who do not attend Sunday-school, whether prevented by occupation, illness, family cares, distance from the church or other good cause or simply by prejudice or indifference.

Its methods are simple and practical. The persons whom it is desired to reach are asked to spend at least a small portion of time each week in the study of the Sunday-school lesson. Having made this promise, they are enrolled as members of the school, and are entitled to all privileges enjoyed by other members. They are provided with lesson helps. These are conveyed to them by visitors who call upon them regularly, to give aid or encouragement in their study.

The benefits are many. It increases Bible study. It brings help and comfort to many a person who otherwise would seldom have opportunity for spiritual instruction and encouragement. It opens new fields of usefulness and training in Christian service to the members of the school who serve as visitors.

Further information concerning this subject will be given by the rector next Sunday morning, October 18, when he will take as the subject of his sermon "Religious Instruction."

THE RECTOR'S PASTORAL

My dear Parishioners and Friends:

Although there are four or five months before the Bishop visits the parish to administer the sacred rite of Confirmation, yet even now we can profitably begin to study the meaning and the privileges of the sacrament, and especially can we begin to so canvass the parish that no one will be able truly to say: "No man cared for my soul."

The class of 1915 promises to be a good one in every respect. I am very earnest in my wish that this class shall be well instructed. I want it to be one whose influence will be felt throughout the parish for many years to come. I want it to be well-grounded in the faith.

To accomplish such a purpose requires time. Plans must be laid long in advance. I want to begin even now to gather the class together—not into meetings for formal instruction, but into my own heart and prayers.

To that end will you not, one and all,

give me the names of those who want, or who ought to want, to be confirmed this year? Parents and sponsors, teachers and friends are asked to do this at once.

Anyone who reads between the lines can easily see that I want you all to help to make this whole season—in all the departments of the church—one of deep spiritual interest. It will doubtless be necessary to give time to the financial and social side of the parish life, but let us make the culture of the spirit rank first in our plans and purposes.

Faithfully yours,

JOSEPH H. EARP.

MEASURE OF SANITATION

To find a task for every man and an occasion for the outgo of his spiritual nature is a measure of sanitation for the soul made necessary by the laws of life.

A self contained, inactive, unexpanding religious life is doomed. The unlived life of a Christian man is nothing short of a spiritual tragedy. Our best selves, our noblest energies we keep and strengthen only by setting free. These are quantities that defy mathematics and multiply themselves only by being divided. Unless we set wide the channels from within stagnation, fruitlessness and inanition are certain. The dead nominals on our church rolls are studies in spiritual suicide. Wise ones should mark. When they chose not to live out the thing germinating and rising within their souls the disappointed and thwarted laws of the higher life turned back and were smothered.—Men at Work.

PART OF A GRAND VACATION

By RUTH HARTLEY.

Certainly, I enjoyed my vacation. I especially enjoyed the day that I went through the public buildings.

My vacation was spent at Washington. I had the pleasure of taking two trips to Chesapeake Beach. The first time a crab bit my toe and the next time I found sharks' teeth.

About August 25, 1914, I visited the public buildings. First I saw the new Printing and Engraving Building. Here I watched money and stamps being printed, counted, assorted and packed. Next I went to the top of the Washington Monument and obtained a good view of the district. I found that there were eight hundred and ninety-eight steps in the monument.

After that I went to see the Pan-American Union Building. The Union is composed of delegates from 21 American Unions. In the garden in the centre of the edifice are found palms, tapioca plants, coffee, rubber and bread-fruit plants and cocoa and quinine trees.

It was about a week later when I came home. Another girl who was traveling home by herself joined me and I had her pleasant companionship during the delightful trip home.

Some weeks ago Mr. Earp announced that he would publish in the "Chronicle" the best account of vacation experiences handed in to him by a member of the Sunday-school. The article by Miss Ruth Hartley well deserves the distinction thus conferred upon it, and we hope that she may develop the talent of which her article gives promise.

A WELCOME VISITOR

The Rev. Samuel Sutcliffe, a former Sunday-school boy of the Church of the Holy Apostles, and now a clergyman, visited our Sunday-school last Sunday and taught a class. In the evening he preached a helpful sermon on "Christian Love, the Only Foundation for Peace."

Would we not all rejoice if one or more of our boys should decide to give themselves to the Christian ministry! Let us pray for it.

THE DORCAS SOCIETY

The Dorcas Society resumed its weekly meetings on September 14, after a discontinuance of two months, and it is hoped that our members are in the best of health that they may help to do the work that is before them this coming fall and winter.

The first affair given by the Dorcas Society was the cake and apron sale held on September 26, the proceeds from which were $14.90, which amount was turned into what is known as the Choir Vestment Fund, that is the fund from which all money is taken for the repair of and the making of new vestments for the choir.

It is hoped that we will be able to hold our annual rummage sale some time in the beginning of next month. If anyone having rummage to dispose of will kindly speak to any of the ladies they will do their best to relieve you of it.

The proceeds of the June party, held on June 4, were $183.93, and there is still some money for tickets not handed in yet. The ladies of the Dorcas Society would deem it a favor if all who have not yet settled for their tickets would do so at as early a date as possible.

Every two years, as you know, we hold a bazaar in the Parish Building, so this is the year for one. The Finance Committee of the church has informed the ladies that it needs a certain sum of money for the church expenses for the winter. This committee feels that the ladies of the Dorcas, with the aid of the men of the church and friends, will be able to raise the sum wanted; if not all, a goodly portion of it. Let us hope they get their wish. The last article in this report, but not the least by any means, is the flowers for the altar. For the sum of $1.00 flowers may be placed on the altar in memory of a departed relative or friend. Received $1.00 from the Young Men's Guild for flowers for June. Flowers were placed on September 27 in memory of Joseph F. Doughty.

Hurrah for the Men's Club.

Sunday-school in a healthy condition.

We wonder if Alice and Nan liked the rain.

The Young Men's Guild is quite busy these days.

Margaret Aikens had a wonderful time at Highland Park.

Dancing class now being organized with a capable teacher.

Cora arrived at her usual haunt a little late, but as happy as ever.

Everyone is back now for "work" in our house—Social Chapter.

Master Daniel Holloway is quite an active worker of this parish.

Mrs. Ella G. Earp is visiting her son, the Rev. Joseph Holland Earp.

This parish is growing. Are you identifying yourself with St. Paul's?

We are happy to note that Mr. Samuel Buck is back among us again.

Will you be there? Monday evening, October 12. Tenth anniversary.

Our summer meetings were held every weekday at Wildwood-by-the-Sea.

Members of the Guild will partake in its annual banquet on November 9.

The George C. Thomas Guild for Boys is a very healthy organization.

The men of this parish are invited to join together in behalf of a Men's Club.

This month starts the eighth year of the "Parish Chronicle." Are you helping?

The president of the Young Men's Guild, Mr. Howard Buck, is a very busy man.

Are you helping the rector in furthering his plans for the welfare of this parish?

The rector's study will occupy the chapel on the second floor of the Parish Building.

Mrs. Peter Lynch will act as corresponding secretary of the Sunday-school in the future.

"Mattv," the star forward of the second team, has joined the West Philadelphia aggregation.

The Rev. Samuel Sutcliffe preached on Sunday evening, October 4, 1914, prior to his departure for Porto Rico.

Found—Five pretty girls in Wildwood Beach, about the middle of August. Apply to Social Chapter.

Quite a pretty sight to see the admission of Seniors and Juniors at a recent Sunday evening service.

Charlie Mohr and "Bob" Johnson are awaiting the opening of the basketball season with much anxiety.

Safety first is the present slogan, but why not consider this term, you young people, and join the movement now on foot by the rector in inaugurating a dancing class?

YOUNG MEN'S GUILD

Dear Reader: We have made our start. The biggest and most prosperous season that could be hoped for is before us and we are going to make good. Arrangements are being completed to alter the gymnasium in preparation for a big basketball season and we look for two championships in place of the one we now hold, thanks to the 1913 second team. Season tickets for all B. P. C. C. games in our hall will be sold for $1.50. Buy one.

"Madame President," at the Broad Street Theatre, on Monday evening, October 26. Reserved seats, 75c up. The above is the announcement of the annual benefit of the Guild, and we want you to come along and join with us in one of the biggest laughs of the year. Don't forget the date. We want to see all St. Paul members and their friends in attendance. We hear you are going to join! We are still open for new members. We are nearing the anniversary celebration of this Guild—November 9. Last year's was a crackerjack. This year it will be better. Every member wants to keep that date open, so as to be sure to be there. We will announce the place later.

"The mystery of spiritual life is unexplainable. The blessedness and glory of it are matters of personal experience."

Let us profit by the mistakes and defeats of the past year, by avoiding them in the year before us. Each passing year should make us wiser and better, more discreet and painstaking to "Redeem the time."

UNSPOKEN WORDS

The kindly words that rise within the heart
And thrill it with their sympathetic tone,
But die ere spoken, fail to play their part,
And claim a merit that is not their own.
The kindly word unspoken is a sin,
A sin that warps itself in purest guise,
And tells the heart that, doubting looks within,
'That not in speech, but in thought the virtue lies.

Unspoken words, like treasures in the mine,
Are valueless until we give them birth,
Like unfound gold their hidden beauty shine
Which God has made to bless and gild the earth,
How sad 'twould be to see a master's hand
Strike glorious notes upon a voiceless lute!
But O, what pain when, at God's own command,
A heartstring thrills with kindness, but is mute!

Then hide it not, the music of the soul.
Dear sympathy, expressed with kindly voice,
But let it like a shining river roll
To deserts dry—to hearts that would rejoice,
O! let the sympathy of kindly words
Sound for the poor, the friendless and the weak;
And He will bless you: He who struck these chords Will strike another when in turn you seek.

—John B. O'Reilly.

GEO. C. THOMAS GUILD FOR BOYS

Starting in the month of September with quite a good attendance and which is increasing by a number of new members, the boys are preparing themselves for any duties that the rector may require of them and other duties which may be needed to fulfill the wants of the parish.
The boys are preparing to give an entertainment on their first anniversary, October 28. Upon that date they will be one year old and are going to celebrate after their regular meeting.

OVER THE MOUNTAIN—WHAT?

On the road from Philadelphia to New York the train runs parallel to a ridge of mountains for a long distance. This ridge seems to rise up from the level country just to screen from the view of the traveler the country beyond. Perhaps he has never seen beyond, but he knows that there are fertile fields and prosperous towns and happy homes over there as well as where he is riding. So, as we look forward toward the mountain of tomorrow, we cannot see what is over there, but we know that God is there, and that the same loving care and strength which carried us through yesterday, and is helping us today, will be found over on the other side of the mountain of tomorrow.

The Parish Chronicle

VOLUME VIII

NUMBER 2

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

WOMEN'S BIBLE CLASS.

The Women's Bible Class in our Sunday School, under the direction of Mrs. Earp, ought to fill a great need. Any woman (the word "woman" is in so much better taste nowadays than "lady")—any woman, whether belonging to the Parish or not, is welcome. Just come and inquire for Mrs. Earp's class and you will be directed to it. No one is too old for it, nor too young for it—it is the "Women's Bible Class."

THE DANCING CLASS.

At last the efforts to form a class in dancing under a competent teacher have met with fine success and next Friday evening the first meeting of the class will be held. The teacher will be Mrs. Rowland Johnson, whose studio is at 1525 Spruce street.

Mrs. Johnson is an accomplished lady whose terms for private lessons are such as indicate the high-class work which she is able to give.

The terms for admission to this class are almost ridiculously low considering the quality of the instructress and are made possible only by the desire of the authorities of the parish to provide a wholesome social life for our young people. Admission to the class can be obtained upon application to the Rector. The fees for the instruction, $1.50 for the term of ten lessons, should be paid either to Mrs. Thomas S. Boyle or to Mrs. P. A. Lynch. They are payable in advance. The class will meet on the following nights before Christmas:

Friday, November 13, 1914.

Friday, November 20, 1914.

Friday, November 27, 1914.

Friday, December 11, 1914.

After Christmas:

Friday, January 8, 1915.

Friday, January 15, 1915.

Friday, January 29, 1915.

Friday, February 5, 1915.

Friday, February 12, 1915.

That makes nine lessons. The tenth will be arranged later. Lent begins on the 17th of February and we will follow the good custom of the Church in setting aside our social pleasures during that season in order that we may have the more time for the proper observance of that holy season.

It is quite necessary that those who come to the dancing class will be both prompt and regular. Please come by 8 o'clock, the first Friday, because you are asked to. After that you will come because you want to.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

SENIOR AND JUNIOR CHAPTERS

ST. PAUL'S CHAPTER, NO. 1824, BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

The Chapter meetings will be held on Friday evenings, November 6 and 20, at 8 P. M. sharp. The Executive Committee will meet at the home of Dr. Wilkinson, 2032 Bainbridge street, on Friday, November 13, at 8.15 P. M. All the members of the Senior Chapter are invited to meet with the Executive Committee on that night. At the last meeting the members present made excellent reports on personal visitation. It is hoped that all the men will report as well and as fully at all meetings of the Chapter.

This is a most important feature of Brotherhood work. Nothing can take the place of direct personal service. Do not let us speak "of what we should do," but rather let us speak "of what we shall do." In humble confidence, let each member of St. Paul's Church and Sunday School, as well as each Brotherhood man and boy, take his position and keep it. Canon Davidson once said: "Confirmation is really an ordination to the priesthood of the laity" (1 Peter 2:4, 5).

You have been appointed an agent for the Church. Gird yourself for the work. Give your clergyman your active sympathy and support. Give a regular weekly contribution by envelope. Exercise your ministry in the choir, the Sunday school, or beside the sick-bed. Do not be afraid to speak for Christ and His cause—for the right and against the wrong. Invite and call for your neighbors to attend the services of the Church, and say or do something to make strangers feel at home in the Father's House.

And while you are thus doing your work for the Kingdom at home, do not forget its extension abroad. You are also commissioned to take some part in preaching the Gospel of Christ to all nations (Matt. 28:19-20).

Missionary efforts broaden our outlook and bring us into line with God's worldwide purposes. And generous unselfish giving must always be an essential part of following Him who gave Himself for all. It means self-sacrifice after the example of Jesus Christ and requires the best that there is in a man. But a true Christian man wants to do a man's work in the world. He is not a Christian who sings "Stand up, stand up for Jesus," lustily on a Sunday, but who does not stand up for Him when it is an every day case of Caesar or Christ. Let us act as men. Let us echo the poet's sentiment when he sang:

It is great to be out where the fight is strong,

To be where the heaviest troops belong.
And to fight for man and God!

Oh, it seams the face and it dries the brain.

It strains the arm till one's friend is Pain
In the fight for man and God.

But it's great to be out where the fight is strong.

To be where the heaviest troops belong.
And to fight for man and God.

THE JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD.

The Brotherhood Idea.

A Cape Breton Junior sums up very succinctly the Brotherhood aim when he writes, "The Brotherhood idea is this: Live straight yourself, help the other fellow to live straight by praying for him and speaking a cheery word to him whenever you can, and anyway helping him through his little difficulties." If the Junior will follow up his suggestions, he will, if he has been of assistance in any way to the other fellow, try his hardest, definitely to bring him nearer to Christ through His Church, by finding out if he is baptized and confirmed, and if in not trying to persuade him to come to the Rector for preparation. If he be confirmed and not a regular Communicant, he will try hard to get him to prepare himself carefully and come regularly to the Holy Communion. One result of this will be to help the boy himself to light straight, and it will make it easier also for the other fellow to live straight.

W. M. B.

SENIOR AND JUNIOR CHAPTER NOTES.

St. Andrew's Day will be celebrated on Sunday, November 29.

The Senior Chapter meets alternate Fridays in the month.

The Senior Chapter meetings are well attended by its members.

BAZAAR.

December 3, 4 and 5, 1914.

The Bazaar promises to be a grand success. The work has been well mapped out by the Parish Council. The tables have all been assigned. Special features have been planned. Everybody is working. The Dorcas Society members are diligently visiting and report a willingness on the part of everyone visited to donate fancy and useful articles. Let every one put forth untiring efforts to advertise the Bazaar so that we may have a record crowd out on each night. If we sell the tickets of admission we shall sell the articles. Motto for the bazaar. "United Efforts Mean Success." Success means progress and effectiveness in our work.

What are you doing?

Note: Watch the Young Ladies' Social Chapter, the Guild of St. Mary of Bethany, the Guild of St. Martha (good names), the George C. Thomas Guild for Boys and the Junior Brotherhood at the Bazaar. It's a secret, but they are planning novelties! Sh! don't tell.

THE MEETING OF THE COINS.

An Allegory.

A special meeting of coins was held in the offertory plate. The pennies attended in large numbers, and the three-penny pieces were well represented. The chairman, a three-penny piece, was understood to have attended offertory-plate meeting in every part of the Metropolis. Several sixpences and shillings stated that although they had been in the habit of fattening offertory meetings with fair regularity, they had of late been so much employed at the cinematograph shows, even on Sundays, that they, too, found it increasingly difficult to attend the offertory. One sovereign wrote that he was so incessantly required at the golf-club, that he had retired from offertory-plate duties, but hoped occasionally to send his half-brother in his place. A telegram was received from A. Cheque, Esq.: "Fully prepared to come, but detained to settle motor-car transaction." A farthing, who had been sitting unnoticed between two halfpennies, said he had been brought to the meeting by a poor widow, who, though she could ill spare his services, gladly gave him up out of love.—The Outlook.

SENIOR AND JUNIOR NOTES Continued

The Junior Brotherhood boys are working on the Confirmation campaign.

Joseph Gardner was laid up with a sprained ankle for several days.

The Junior Chapter was well represented at the conference held at St. Matthew's Church recently.

Are you keeping your vow by bringing men to Christ's Kingdom? Are the boys doing likewise?

Have you a lad in your household that you would have confirmed. If so consult any Junior Chapter boy.

The Executive Board will be entertained by Dr. John Wilkinson at his home on the third Friday in November.

St. Andrew's Day is getting nearer and it behooves the members of the Senior and Junior Chapters to prepare for it.

Mr. William C. Butler was a visitor at a recent meeting of the Juniors and his address was enjoyed by all present.

The Executive Board of the Senior Chapter met at the home of Mr. William C. Butler recently and an enjoyable evening was spent going over various topics of church work.

The "Parish Chronicle" is issued the second Sunday of each month.

It is required that all matters intended for publication be in the hands of the Editors on or before the 25th of each month.

TO OUR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS.

Through the kindness of friends in the business world we are able to publish and circulate "The Parish Chronicle."

We would therefore ask our people to kindly study our advertising columns and patronize our advertisers, always remembering to mention "The Parish Chronicle."

This is a fair request, we think, and we hope our people will help us, help themselves, and help our advertisers.

THE RECTOR'S PASTORAL.

My dear Parishioners of St. Paul's:

Shakespeare says there are "sermons in stones." Tennyson goes further and gives us a good illustration for a sermon in his poem, "The Brook," whose haunting refrain,

"Men may come and men may go,

But I go on forever."

suggests the virtue of persistence. But St. Paul comes right out with the truth and commends a "patient continuance in well-doing." That is the truth which is golden for us just now—the truth that patient continuance in well-doing will win out in the end. Please note that. It will win out. The policy which will triumph in the end is the only policy which the Church of Christ can commit herself to.

Weigh every word carefully. First comes patience; that refers to the temper and spirit in which we must do our work. Then comes determination to go on, to continue, to drive ahead no matter what difficulties are in the way. Last is the chief thing of all without which patience and continuance would count for nothing—our work must be "well doing." So much that we enjoy doing is neither good nor bad, but indifferent—it has no aim and purpose. God pity us for our soul-killing habit of living just to "pass away the time!"

This little sermonette on the subject of "patient continuance in well doing," my dear parishioners, is preached with a very serious purpose just at this time. There are three classes among us as in every parish—those who have not patience, those who have not continuance, those who have not the passion for well-doing. I hardly know which does the least good, but I would earnestly commend my sermonette to my friends and parishioners, some of whom are young and some old, some experienced and some inexperienced, some men and some women, and as for myself I take my stand on the Gibraltar rock of God's Word, which assures me that "patient continuance in well doing will win out in the end."

Affectionately yours,

JOSEPH H. EARP.

Holy Baptism is administered in St. Paul's Church on the fourth Sunday of each month at 4 P. M. Except for most urgent reasons the Rector should not be asked to set other times for this sacrament. For seven consecutive Sundays now he has been asked to have a special service of this kind, but in each case the parents were glad to make their arrangements fit the regular schedule when they learned what it is.

OUR TENTH ANNIVERSARY.

Sunday, October 10, being the Sunday nearest the tenth anniversary of the founding of St. Paul's Parish, was a day of tender memories in many minds.

Ten years do not seem a long period when we think in terms of God and His Church, yet, as one has said, "We live in deeds, not years; in thoughts, not breaths; in feelings, not in figures on the dial. We should count time by heart-throbs. He most lives who thinks most, feels the noblest, acts the best."

At the morning service the Rector preached on "The Parish Church," from the text: "Thus saith the Lord, Stand ye in the ways and see and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls." He showed how the parish church stands in the midst of a community as a power perfectly adapted to guide the soul in its spiritual course from the cradle to the gates of the Land Beyond, the historical character of the Episcopal Church pointing to a way that is old, and that wonderful guide-book of devotion—the Prayer Book—pointing to a way that is good.

On Monday evening an anniversary reception was held in the Parish House, in connection with which there were addresses by the Rev. Dr. Tomkins, rector of Holy Trinity Church and Dean of the Convocation of South Philadelphia; Mr. William C. Butler, who has been an active member of the Parish from the beginning; Professor Frank W. Melvin, president of the Girard Improvement Association, and Dr. Wilkinson, director of our local Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and accounting warden of the church. Musical selections were rendered, each with encores, by Miss Blanche Cohill, Miss Elizabeth McKain and Mr. Arthur Moore.

The Rector announced that the closing part of the program would be the cream of all and called on Mr. Beardwood, who came to the platform and in a few well-chosen words presented, in behalf of the Junior Brotherhood boys and a few other friends, a fine life-size portrait of the former Rector, the Rev. Edwin C. Carson. The Rector, in behalf of the Vestry and congregation, accepted the gift and expressed the hope that as the portrait of Mr. Carson was looked upon it would be for many years an inspiration to follow in his footsteps as he followed Christ. The portrait now hangs in the vestry room, where it may be seen at any time by those who have not yet had an opportunity.

After the program up in the Sunday school room, the invitation was given to partake of refreshments in the rooms below, where the ladies of the Parish made everyone feel at home by their generous and delightful hospitality.

THE SMILE OF CHRIST.

I stood within the great church aisle,
And on a window looked,
And there, within the temple, stood the Christ,

Portrayed in gorgeous colors by
Some wondrous painter's art—
And on the face a sunbeam must have strayed,

For all the rest seemed but to lie
Within a shadow great,
While He looked out upon myself forlorn,

And seemed to read my heart so sad,
With many a sorrow torn,
And smiled, a smile of tenderness and hope

Until the rest I long had sought,
Yet still denied to me,
Upon my soul now fell like gentle dew,
While out from the great organ rolled
A melody of sound,

As if rejoicing with my soul, its rest,
The voices of the choir atune
Sang out in unison,
While silent tears from out mine eyelids flowed

In gratitude for all His love
And tenderness to me.
A sinner great from all his sin set free,
I walked toward the rector there
Behind the chancel rail
And kneeling took communion at his hand;

Then rose, and passing out with joy,
Looked on the face again
Of Him who died, yet lived again for me.

--John De Witt.

THE NEW GUILD FOR GIRLS.

Friday, October 16, was the birthday of a new guild in the Parish. It came about through the fact that some of the girls of St. Martha's Guild simply would not remain little any more, but were fast becoming young ladies (of whom we are going to be very proud). Miss Sophie Boyd, who is the leader of the St. Martha's Guild, and the Rector, talked the matter over and decided it would only be right to give the older girls a promotion in reward for the good work they have done as members of St. Martha's.

On Friday, the 16th of October, about 15 of the older girls met with the Rector and Mrs. Earp in the vestry room and proceeded to organize the new guild by electing officers. The election resulted as follows: President, Miss Emma Aikens; vice president, Miss Dorothy Livezey; secretary, Miss Dorothy Norton; treasurer, Miss Lucy Brooks.

On the following Friday the new guild received its name—"The Guild of St. Mary of Bethany." This name has been chosen partly because of the beautiful character of Mary of Bethany, and partly because we in St. Paul's are glad to profit by the good things we hear of elsewhere. In the Church of the Holy Apostles, Mrs. George C. Thomas has for some years been in charge of a society which has the name of St. Mary of Bethany. That society has done a wonderful amount of good, in a quiet and beautiful way, since the day it was started. It was with the thought that their mantle might fall on us that we adopted their name. One beautiful result has already come of it. On Monday, the 26th, Mr. Earp, accompanied by Mrs. Earp, went to the meeting of the Sisterhood of St. Mary of Bethany in the Parish House of the Holy Apostles, where Mr. Earp had been asked to give the regular monthly address, and he told the members what had been done in St. Paul's. It seemed to give genuine pleasure to the Sisterhood, and after the address they passed a motion asking Mr. Earp to bring their greeting back to the new guild and another motion inviting the new guild of St. Paul's to come and visit the Sisterhood at some convenient time. These were great honors for our new little guild, and we will endeavor to live up to the high expectations which the mother society will have concerning us.

The girls who attended the first meeting of the guild were Charlotte Marks, Mae Flora Johnson, Mildred Witmer, Marie Bruder, Dorothy Livezey, Dorothy Norton, Anna Gillen, Emma Aikens, Addie Waldron, Laura Bruder, Edna Tatem, Lucy Brooks, Helen May Scott and Marian Cooper.

THE DORCAS SOCIETY.

The Dorcas Society will hold its annual rummage sale on November 6 and 7. Although this announcement will not reach you until after the sale a postal has been sent out to every family of the congregation informing you of it and asking you to contribute anything which you can.

The church is going to hold a bazaar on December 3, 4 and 5 under the auspices of the combined societies. On the 3d and 5th, that is Thursday and Saturday, the bazaar will be opened in the afternoon from 3 o'clock. Everybody is expected to do their share and if they do we cannot help being successful.

The ladies of the Dorcas Society will visit the homes of the members of the congregation between now and the bazaar for donations and to leave such tickets as the people think they can dispose of.

As Sunday, November 1, was All Saints' Day, contribution for extra flowers for the altar was received.

One dollar was received from Mrs. Kerr for flowers to be placed in memory of beloved ones, and Mrs. Joseph Gardiner donated toward the flowers. Miss Kate Crompton placed flowers in the Chapel in memory of her sister, Miss Natalie Crompton.

OLIVE DOUGHTY,
Secretary.

Are you Working for the Grand Bazaar to be held December 3rd, 4th and 5th?

TABLOIDS.

Jean is "some bowler."

Are you working for the bazaar?

Ask Blanche to show you the new hesitation.

Cora's chair looks much better with her in it.

Miss Duncan is a jolly chaperon for ice cream parties.

Christmas sewing has started in our town (Social Chapter).

If you need a recruit for a track team enlist Margaret Aikens.

Eats! Come and behold their arrival on Tuesday of next week.

Don't forget the bazaar date to be held December 3, 4 and 5.

St. Martha's Guild spent an enjoyable evening on Hallowe'en.

Mr. Samuel Buck, Sr., is back in our midst after a short illness.

The Rector's study is quite cozy and you are welcome at any time.

We wish Edna and Ida would come early and root from our grandstand.

Mr. Coburn, sexton of this church, was besieged recently by illness of a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Long spent a very pleasant sojourn at Phillipsburg, N. J.

Margaret Harbison has joined our circle and we wish others would do likewise.

Well, well, boys, basketball is here again. Who will win the cup this season?

The contest in the Sunday School between the Reds and Blues ended November 1.

The banner for good attendance was captured by Mr. Gillen's Class. Keep it up, boys.

We are pleased to note the recovery of William Manning from an operation for appendicitis.

Parents, do your children go to Sunday school? If not why not begin now and send them.

Hurray for the basketball team. Practice every Tuesday evening. Better come and help us, girls.

Mr. Gillin and Mr. Lynch, the respective captains of the Reds and Blues have turned in their full list.

Mrs. Jellard's mother was reported sick and it is hoped that she is on a speedy road to recovery.

The Parish Chronicle makes an appeal to the members of this parish to subscribe 50 cents a year for its support.

Run, girls, run! The bazaar is almost here. Bundles of fun will soon be unpacked so you had better scamper down.

Mrs. Roland Johnson, wife of Dr. R. Johnson, is very much encouraged at the quite large class turnout in the terpsichorean art.

Stolen—A couple of young ladies in the vicinity of St. Paul's Church. Any efforts toward their return will be appreciated by us.

Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays are on us. Where do you go shopping? Quite pertinent we admit, but don't forget that our good advertisers see to it that you get this paper monthly.

At the next meeting of the Teachers' Association we will know who was the winner between the Reds and Blues. Goody, some eats for the winner!

The new guild, St. Mary of Bethany, under the able direction of Mrs. Earp, gave a Hallowe'en party and its members went home well pleased at the beautiful decorations and the good things that were provided.

HOLIDAY BUYING.

With Thanksgiving Day and Christmas rapidly approaching, let us again stop and consider how many of our purchases can be made from the advertisers in this paper. If you STUDY the advertisements you may be surprised when you find out how much you can do, and how well you can do, by trading with our firms. Mention "The Parish Chronicle." Thank you.

THE PARISH CHRONICLE

YOUNG WOMEN'S SOCIAL CHAPTER.

Unfortunate circumstances have delayed the Social Chapter in beginning its fall work. We hope, however, that our "hoodoo" is now over.

All girls who have not returned as yet are urged to do so immediately, and all over 16 years old, who are not already members are cordially invited to attend. We will need everyone's help to work for the coming bazaar, if we are to make our share of the work as successful as it should be.

Athletic sports seem to have lost their charm for the girls this season. Instead they have decided to work along the lines of "domestic science." You may expect to see some wonderful gowns exhibited in the Parish Building this season. They will not be from Paris for we have adopted as our slogan, "Made in St. Paul's."

THE HOLY COMMUNION.

"If worldly people ask you why you communicate so often, tell them that it is to learn to love God; to be purified from your imperfections; to be delivered from your miseries; to be consoled in your afflictions; to be supported in your weakness. Tell them that two classes of persons ought to communicate often: the perfect, because, being well disposed, they would do very wrong not to approach the source and fountain of perfection; and the imperfect, in order to be able to aspire justly to perfection; the strong, in order that they may not become weak; and the weak, that they may become strong; the sick, to be cured; and the healthy, not to fall into sickness; and that you, being imperfect, weak, and ill, have need to communicate often with your perfection, your strength, and your doctor. Tell them that those who have not many worldly affairs, ought to communicate often, because they have the opportunity; and those who have many worldly affairs ought to communicate often, because they stand in need of it; and that he who labors much ought also to partake of food that is solid and frequently."

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION.

One of the most successful societies of our parish is the Sunday School Association, which meets on the fourth Wednesday evening of each month. Although it is but a year old, it has been a splendid means of bringing officers and teachers together for mutual encouragement. New ideas are frequently suggested at the meetings for the improvement of the school. One which has been suggested by the Rector is a series of Wednesday evenings devoted to various phases of teacher-training. At the meeting on the 28th of October a committee was appointed to arrange for these evenings. The committee consists of the Rector and Superintendent, together with Mr. P. A. Lynch, Miss Margaret Aikens and Mrs. Beardwood. These persons represent all the departments of the school. Watch for the announcement from the chancel.

ST. PAUL'S HIGH OR LOW?

Sometimes we are asked whether a parish church is "high" or "low." Our faces should blush with shame that such a question should be asked of any church. Where do we find such terms—in the Bible?—in the Book of Common Prayer?—in the Constitution or Canon Law of the Church?

What we do find both in the Bible and Prayer Book is this: "The Lord is in His holy temple." When all become fully educated to the truth of that statement it is not a question of how much or little there be of the things which are said to mark the "high" or the "low" church, but rather it becomes an all-important question, Do we all so conduct ourselves that the stranger who comes in to worship feels at once that it is God's house?

The Irishman who was asked whether "neither" should be pronounced "neether" or "nither," replied very positively, "Faith, and its nayther."

"So mote it be," regarding the church. Is St. Paul's high or low?—it is neither, but simply the Father's house where all are welcome.

"Made for thyself, O God!
Made for thy love; thy service; thy delight;
Made to show forth thy wisdom, grace and might,
Oh, strange and glorious thought, that we may be A joy to thee!"

Oh! Ye Rooters!! The young men of the St. Paul's Men's Club ask all who are interested in Basketball and those who never saw a game to come out and encourage them in their efforts. Schedules can be procured from Mr. James Aikens the manager, Mr. Howard Buck or any of the Basketball Committee.

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

ORGAN RECITAL

Last Sunday evening, December 6, our organist and choirmaster, Mr. William Richard Bailey, gave a fifteen-minute recital before the evening service, and those who heard it have expressed the pleasure which it gave them. There are, of course, some possibilities in our organ which do not appear in the regular service playing, and a recital of this kind brings out those possibilities to great advantage. Mr. Bailey's skill as an organist is a subject of frequent comment among our people. The selections played last Sunday evening are as follows:

La Cigantaine Gabriel-Marie Tr Prego F. Curschmann
Andante Cantabile P. Tchaikowsky
Melody in E Flat Silas G. Pratt
Fiat Lux Theodore Dubois

BLUES BANQUETED BY REDS

After months of seeing who would place the largest number of scholars in the Sunday-school, the Reds and Blues have wound up their campaign, under the leadership of Captains Lynch and Gillin. The score stood in favor of the Blues' captain, Mr. Gillin, 55 to 47, and it was decided that the losers should entertain the winners by a banquet.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Thomas Boyle, our genial superintendent of the Sunday-school, and his good wife, all the teachers assembled at their home for a brief meeting, after which, by grace of the bounty of the hosts, all present were invited to partake of a sumptuous repast.

Many of the younger teachers took advantage of the kind offer of Mrs. Boyle and enjoyed the light fantastic of the new dances on the new ballroom which is attached to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boyle.

Everyone present, including the winners, as you all know by this time were the Blues, voted the losing captain, Mr. Lynch, the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Boyle, a volume of appreciation for the pleasant evening spent on Wednesday evening, November 25, 1914, a date which will long be remembered by all present.

The writer of this article takes this method of publicly thanking all teachers, scholars and others who helped to increase our Sunday-school membership.

RECEPTION OF TWO SOCIETIES

The Young Men's Guild, after their regular meeting, on Monday evening, December 7, gave a reception in honor of the Young Ladies' Social Chapter and the Dorcas Society, with dancing and refreshments.

The antics of one Joseph Devir, assisted by Joseph Connor, were very funny, when they tried to do a new dance which nobody has ever seen produced.

Miss Blanche Cohill, accompanied by Miss Nita Livezey, rendered several selections. These ladies are always ready to entertain, and they know how to do it very acceptably.

Souvenirs of the occasion were presented to all present. The Social Chapter voted the Young Men's Guild the medal for good entertaining and said they would return the compliment of the reception in the near future.

The regular meetings of the Chapter, falling as they do on the evening of Christmas Day, and if postponed on that date on New Year's Day, will have to be held on other dates, to be determined upon by the Executive Committee at its regular meeting at the home of Mr. Robert J. Skillen, 2542 South Rosewood street, on Friday, December 18, at 8 P. M. sharp. These dates will be announced by the Rector.

The first Round Table Conference of the Chapters in South Philadelphia will be at the home of Mr. William C. Butler, 1414 Tasker street, on Tuesday, December 15, at 8 P. M. The delegates from St. Paul's Chapter are Messrs. R. J. Galbraith and R. J. Skillen.

JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD.

The date for Confirmation has been fixed by the Bishop. At this writing I desire to impress upon every member of the Chapter the necessity of entering upon an aggressive campaign to bring boys to Confirmation. Remember the work of last year. Let us be encouraged by it, but do not let us rest content with it. Let us be up and doing!

MRS. LOMAN'S VISIT

On the evening of Wednesday, November 11, our teachers and others interested in the Sunday-school had the pleasure of hearing a very helpful address given in our parish house by Mrs. John Loman, who showed herself very well qualified to handle her subject in a pleasing and practical manner. Her address is but one of several which we hope to have from time to time in the interests of a more effective Sunday-school work. We thank Mrs. Loman for starting this project in such a helpful manner, and we trust she will consent to come to us again soon.

"INASMUCH"

There is a desire in the minds of many to see St. Paul's do what it can in the way of giving provisions and other necessities to the unfortunate this Christmas. One of our ladies, Mrs. Kerr, has described to the rector a plan which she observed successfully worked in another parish. It consisted of the construction of a large representation of a manger, and the gifts contributed by all who wished to give in this way were brought and placed in this manger. The symbolism is indeed beautiful—the manger reminding us of the scene where the Wise Men brought their gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh and presented them to the Holy Child in the manger in Bethlehem. The idea could surely be carried out very beautifully in our parish house. The rector has asked the following societies to each appoint a committee of three to co-operate with the Sunday-school, which will be in charge of this work; the Dorcas Society, the Young Men's Guild and the Young Women's Social Chapter. The following have been appointed from the Dorcas Society: Mrs. Frank W. Kapus, Mrs. Robert Skillen and Mrs. Robert J. Galbraith. The committee from the Young Men's Guild is Messrs. E. F. Gillin, Joseph Connor and W. F. Bell. The committee of the Young Women's Social Chapter has not been named at this writing.

Last year a very creditable work of this kind was done by the Sunday-school, and this year we hope that the whole parish, under the lead of the Sunday-school, will help to make this practical charity a very helpful one both to those who receive and to those who give. And let us remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said it is more blessed to give than to receive.

GEO. C. THOMAS' BOYS' GUILD

After many months the boys of the guild are able with their own treasury to buy 40 guns, through the kindness of Mr. Clark, their drillmaster, who sees great possibilities for the coming guard of this church, and who puts the boys through their paces in a capable manner.

The boys took quite a part in the recent bazaar, by not only having a table, but making a goodly sum for the general fund under the direction of Mr. Gillin and Mr. Skillen. Enough said.

SOCIAL SERVICE LEAGUE

On Tuesday evening, December 15, at 8 o'clock, in the rector's study, in the parish house, an address will be given by Mr. J. Augustus Cadwallader, the Executive Secretary of the Pennsylvania Arbitration and Peace Society. Any adult member of the parish or of this part of the city is cordially invited to come and hear Mr. Cadwallader present this important and timely subject.

THE BAZAAR.

It was a splendid success when all things are considered, and we have every reason to feel thankful and encouraged. Never has a more congenial band of workers been gathered together than those who have labored so hard and faithfully to bring about the result we have attained. Progressiveness was manifested at every table. Happiness pervaded the whole building and many were brought into closer relationship than ever before. We rejoice in our success in the face of great difficulties and pray that this "spirit of unity" may accomplish great things in the future.

Let all returns for tickets be made quickly so that the Treasurer of the Bazaar, Mr. R. W. Montgomery, may make a complete report as to results in the next issue of the Parish Chronicle.

"A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL."

(Signed)

THE PUBLICITY COMMITTEE.

OUR CHOIR

It would be a dull person who failed to see and appreciate the earnest efforts which our choir is making this Fall to render the service as beautifully and devoutly as possible. The church is so large—the chancel itself being nearly, if not quite, as big as some mission churches—that the sound does not reach out as it would in a smaller building. Perhaps this might be taken as another reason why it would be to the advantage of the service if the congregation would sit farther to the front. There can be no doubt of the hearty interest taken by the members of the choir in their work. We are all much encouraged by the addition to the choir of Messrs. John Alden Cushing and W. C. Morris. Several new lads have also been received, whose names we will publish later.

We wish we could have the services of Miss Blanche Cahill all of each Sunday. At present she sings in Christ Church at the morning and afternoon services, and comes to us in the evening. Her faithfulness to her own parish in helping us after her other duties have been performed will surely have its reward.

Meanwhile, let us all "arise and sing!" A choir is not to sing for us, but with us. Our singing, not only of the hymns, but also of the versicles, canticles and amens, is quite as much a part of our worship as our reading the Psalms, saying the creed, and making our offerings. Let us give all the encouragement possible to the choir, who deserve all the praise that any choir in the city deserves.

The "Parish Chronicle" is issued the second Sunday of each month.

It is required that all matters intended for publication be in the hands of the Editors on or before the 25th of each month.

TO OUR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS.

Through the kindness of friends in the business world we are able to publish and circulate "The Parish Chronicle."

We would therefore ask our people to kindly study our advertising columns and patronize our advertisers, always remembering to mention "The Parish Chronicle."

This is a fair request, we think, and we hope our people will help us, help themselves, and help our advertisers.

OUR SUNDAY-SCHOOL WORK, PAST AND PRESENT

Instead of the "Rector's Pastoral", this month the rector desires to commend to all our parishioners the following article, which was written by Mr. Thomas S. Boyle:

At a meeting of the Teachers' Association, held the latter part of 1913, it was decided to do away with all lesson leaflets in our school, with the understanding that Bibles would be provided to take the place of the leaflets. Our treasury at that time was rather low, and it seemed quite an undertaking, but through the united efforts of our members an entertainment was given which provided the necessary funds to secure a Bible for every member of our school. During the past year we have therefore, been reading and studying all our lessons directly from God's Holy Book.

Now that the year will soon have passed away, we feel that every member of our school has been taught a deeper reverence for the Bible. Needless to say, we intend following the same system during the coming year, with this addition that we will try to have every member of our school read in their homes the portion of Scripture set apart for the following Sunday's lesson. To accomplish that we must have the co-operation of parents.

I would ask, therefore, that parents join with us in helping the children to store up in their minds the beautiful thoughts contained in God's Holy Word, which offers us the best for the present life, as well as for the life to come.

In order to read the lessons at home it will be necessary for the children to know the portions of Scripture selected for each Sunday. It has, therefore, been arranged to print in the Chronicle a list showing the lessons and a list of the Golden Texts for the following month. In this way we will always know what portion of Scripture the lesson is taken from.

During 1915 our lessons will be taken from the Old Testament, beginning with the Book of Judges, and extending through the Books of Ruth, First and Second Samuel, and First and Second Kings, with lessons from the Psalms, the Chronicles and the Prophets. In our study of these Books we will consider the lives of some of the noblest men and women of all time, and men and women who have given to the world examples of piety, faith, courage and spiritual power.

Lessons for January, 1915.

January 3—Patience with Israel, Judges 2: 7-19.

January 10—Deborah and Barak Deliver Israel, Judges 4: 4-16.

January 17—The Call of Gideon, Judges 6: 11-16, 33-40.

January 24—Gideon and the Three Hundred, Judges 7: 1-8, 16-23.

January 31—The Birth of Samson, Judges 13: 8-16, 24-25.

Golden Texts.

January 3—Hosea 14: 4.

10—Psalms 34: 17.

17—Psalms 65: 4.

24—Zachariah 4: 6.

31—Judges 13: 4.

GENEROUS GIVING

PREDICTS GOOD RESULTS

Another year has nearly rolled around and a number of St. Paul's communicants have gone to the Great Beyond, but to the living members the holiday spirit still promises good cheer, and the editors and business managers take this method of calling the reader's attention to the fact that we have in our part of the city some poor families whose sufferings we should try to alleviate and to whom we should extend our good will and try to make them happy by our generous giving.

A FORWARD MOVEMENT FOR THE SUNDAY-SCHOOLS OF THE CONVOCATION OF SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

At the last meeting of the Board of Religious Education of the Diocese of Pennsylvania several committees were appointed to work up an interest in certain features of the Sunday-school of the diocese. The committee for the schools of the Convocation of South Philadelphia consists of Mr. A. F. Williamson, superintendent of the school of Holy Trinity Church; the Rev. Dr. H. L. Duhring, and the rector of St. Paul's Church. The special work committed to these men is the fostering of interest in adult Bible classes, teacher training work and neighborhood institutes for the discussion of Sunday-school methods. As soon as Mr. Williamson has called this committee together it is hoped that helpful results will come from its efforts, and we are sure St. Paul's will become a banner school in the carrying out of the recommendations of the committee.

A GIFT OF KINDNESS

The bazaar is a thing of the past, but there is one incident that cannot be passed by. One of our good ladies wrote for and received a finely embroidered handkerchief from the daughter of President Wilson, which was purchased by the mother of our rector, Mrs. Earp, whose home is Kansas City, and who is on a visit to her son.

Mrs. Earp says that she will take the beautiful handkerchief back home with her and keep it as a keepsake in memory of the giver and how she procured it.

The ladies of St. Paul's Memorial P. E. Church take this means of thanking Miss Wilson for the beautiful token of interest which she displayed in acknowledging their request and wish her the best of happiness.

E. F. G.

A SERMON IN ONE WORD.

We have been asked for a copy of the poem which was read from the pulpit a Sunday or two ago, and are glad to print it in the hope that it may reach a still larger congregation through the printed page. The poem was suggested by a story told of General Booth, who at one time desired to send a New Year's greeting, by telegram and cablegram, to all the Salvation Army Posts in the world. Cablegrams are expensive and must be short. General Booth boiled his message down to a single word, which is the title of the poem:

NEVER MIND.

Sometimes, when nothing goes just right,
And worry reigns supreme,
When heartache fills the eyes with mist,
And all things useless seem,
There's just one thing can drive away
The tears that scald and blind—
Someone to slip a strong arm round,
And whisper, "Never mind."

No one has ever told just why
Those words such comfort bring;
Nor why that whisper makes our cares
Depart on hurried wing.
Yet troubles say a quick "Good-day!"
We leave them far behind
When someone slips an arm around
And whispers, "Never mind."

But love must prompt that soft caress—
The love must aye be true;
Or at that tender, clinging touch
No heartsease comes to you.
But if the arm be moved by love,
Sweet comfort you will find
When someone slips an arm around,
And whispers, "Never mind."

—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL

It is evident that St. Paul's Sunday-school is in a very flourishing condition under the leadership of Mr. Thomas S. Boyle. When a man of Mr. Boyle's business ability gets interested in a Sunday-school something always happens. In Mr. Boyle's absence from the city last Sunday Mr. Peter A. Lynch took charge and "made good". With such leaders and teachers as we have in our school there must necessarily come success. But the leaders and teachers must have the hearty co-operation of the scholars. We must all feel that it is OUR SCHOOL. We must set our standards high and set out to reach them. In the words of Bishop Tuttle, the President Bishop of the church:

"With a heave, boys, heave,
And a help, girls, help,
Let's try, please God, to do it".
That's the spirit.

Confirmation instructions will begin on Sunday afternoon, January 3, at 3 o'clock.

We wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, and hope that you will not forget our advertisers.

DORCAS SOCIETY

The rummage sale which was held on November 6 and 7, at 2053 South street, proved a success, considering the times, as we had to sell our articles much cheaper than in former years. The sum made at it was $87.06. While the ladies were working for the rummage sale they were also working for a more important affair, the bazaar, to be held on December 3, 4 and 5. The sale of fancy articles, dolls, home-made cakes, pies, bread, groceries, aprons, candies, handkerchiefs, sheet music, ice cream, lemonade, smokers' supplies, and game room, etc., realized up to date, $330.00. No money for tickets has been turned in as yet, so it is very important that all who have tickets will make an effort to turn in their money just as soon as possible, so that we can make a final statement before the new year. As all the dolls and fancy articles were not sold, a sale will be held on December 12 to dispose of these articles.

The Dorcas Society wishes to thank Mr. Thomas S. Boyle for his donation toward the rummage sale and also Mr. Samuel J. Buck, Sr.

Mrs. Robert Montgomery's mother, who has undergone a very serious operation, is doing very nicely at this writing. Let us all hope for her speedy recovery to perfect health.

We wish to thank you all for your help in the bazaar, no matter how small or large your donations, and we wish you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

OLIVE P. DOUGHTY.

Secretary.

LET ME BUT LIVE.

Let me but live my life from year to year,
With forward face and unreluctant soul.
Not hastening to, nor turning from, the goal;

Not mourning for things that disappear
In the dim past, nor hold back in fear
From what the future veils, but with a whole,

And happy heart, that pays its toll
To youth and age, and travels on with cheer.

So let the way wind up the hill or down,
Through rough or smooth, the journey
will be joy;

Still seeking what I sought when but a boy,

New friendship, high adventure and a crown.

I shall grow old, but never lose life's zest.
Because the road's last turn will be the best. —Henry Van Dyke, D. D.

YOUNG WOMEN'S

SOCIAL CHAPTER

With much regret the Social Chapter accepted the resignation of its former secretary, Bertha Groscup. We are glad, however, that we may still keep her on our roll as one of our members. Bella Rosenfelt has been appointed to fill the position.

Tuesday evenings during the past month have been alarmingly active. (Have you ever heard of hope chests?) Between the stitches we managed to change our minds a dozen times as to what we should do for the bazaar. At our party at the beginning of the month, our old friend, Nita, realizing our musical talent, suggested "The Song Shop". Immediately there followed an hour's rehearsal of "Any Coal?" After chocolate and cakes had been served and a little more "Any Coal?" had been sung, we were all equally enthusiastic for "The Song Shop". It required three more meetings, however, before we would decide upon some other attractions. We need only name them to recall them to your mind: "The Curiosity Shop", "The Fish Pond" and last, but by no means the least, "Our Manicurist".

At the business meeting preceding the bazaar, Nita Livezey, Blanche Cohill and Mary Sutcliffe were given charge of the music department: Edna Kamper charge of "Ye Curiosity Shop"; Bertha Kampen charge of "The Fish Pond", and Bella Rosenfelt charge of the manicuring department.

This is a secret: There are rumors that our dreams of two years are soon to be realized. Two kind friends of the church have offered to be our leaders in sewing and gym. We hope that by the next issue of the Chronicle we may be able not only to announce the names of these two friends, but also to announce they really have taken in charge their respective work.

We have again heard from our friend, "Miss Wilson", who has been trying to interest us in forming a "Girls' Friendly Society". Although we have postponed

Cora loses her hat.

How's business, Bella?

We have some Song Shop.

Marguerite is some bowler.

Blanche is a busy lady these days.

Ella is our champion pool player.

When are you coming back, Laura?

We had some party at Mr. Boyle's.

How did you like that "Tax on Tea"?

Margaret has a new friend (Miss Wilson).

Who picked Bertha out of the fish pond?

Did anybody see Edna on Friday night?

Robert Skillen, Jr., would make an able salesman.

Margaret and handkerchiefs are synonymous.

Nita prefers the organ to that peddle-less piano.

Helen liked Sambo's eyes better than his mouth.

We were all sorry to lose Ida from our happy circle.

We all liked to dance in the moonlight (blue lights).

What would we do without May and her megaphone?

I wonder where Alice and Anna hide on Tuesday nights.

Everyone we met on Saturday was bound for the bazaar.

The girls are all waiting patiently for December 7. I wonder why?

Have you noticed the smile that won't wear off on our rector's face?

Donate a Christmas present to the Parish Chronicle by a subscription.

Well, the bazaar is over and we have nothing to complain of our receipts.

May Sutcliffe deserves great credit for the able manner she used the megaphone.

George Thompson, of the Boys' Guild, likes to count the receipts and watch it grow.

Sambo drew quite a crowd, and it takes Mr. William Kohn to get the shekals.

The handkerchief table, under the direction of the choir members, showed good taste.

That fancy table, it was a shame that the weather was against it, but you did well, nevertheless.

Mr. William Butler made everybody happy by his presence and the good cheer he put forth to all.

Bob Johnson was very much interested in "Sambo" and teaching the young ladies how to bowl.

You will go a long ways to find better workers than we have in the Dorcas Society. Oh, you ladies!

Mrs. William Knox proved ready to meet all emergencies by the way she met and overcame obstacles.

Were you one of the many who partook of ice cream, served by a bevy of beauties, under the able direction of Mrs. Earp, our rector's wife?

One of the beautiful sights of the bazaar was the candy table, which showed the handwork of Miss Florence Richardson and her able assistants.

THE PARISH CHRONICLE

YOUNG MEN'S GUILD

The past few months of guild work has been full of activity, and as the new year will be with us in a short time, the "boys" are planning resolutions to make the association one of history.

On November 23 the guild held its annual banquet, which proved beyond comprehension a success. On that occasion the fellows were royally entertained. Especially was this so when Mr. James Sterrett lectured on the art of swimming. What proved to be a very sociable time, regardless of the inclement weather that prevailed on December 7, was the invitation extended to Dorcas Society and the Young Ladies' Social Chapter by the guild to be present at our regular meeting. A good crowd was on hand, and from the expression on their faces they had a good time. Following the session dancing and refreshments held interest.

Nominations for the various offices was held and the following candidates will be balloted for on election night, December 28. Members are requested to be on hand at this date, for a lively evening is anticipated:

President: Howard Buck, Charles A. Long, James Aikens, Peter Lynch; vice president, Lewis Kohler, Charles Mohr, Joseph Conner, Samuel Buck, Sr.; recording secretary, Charles Hohr, Wharton Haney, Thomas Boyle, Eugene Gillen; financial secretary, Joseph Conner, Mr. Butler, R. Lex, Bill Watson; treasurer, Benjamin Emery, Louis Kohler, Joseph P. Devir.

The basketball teams are plugging along, and although the first team is not leading Section A, yet it is hoped that before long St. Paul's will be heard from. The second quintette is holding first place down solid, and no little praise can be given them.

YOUNG LADIES' SOCIAL CHAPTER

this idea for the present. it has by no means been disregarded.

We had another pleasant surprise at our business meeting in receiving an invitation from the Young Men's Guild, inviting us to a social on Monday evening, December 7.

May we just add a word to the young women of the church who are not members of our society? If you are undecided as to whether you would like to join us, come down on any Tuesday evening and visit us. We do need more members, and this year prospects are particularly bright, for not only an enjoyable but also a helpful winter. All girls 16 years and over are eligible.

"OTHERS."

Lord, help me live from day to day
In such a self-forgetful way
That even when I kneel to pray,
My prayer shall be for—others.

Help me in all the work I do
To ever be sincere and true
And know that all I'd do for you,
Must needs be done for—others.

Let "self" be crucified and slain,
And buried deep; and all in vain
May efforts be to rise again,
Unless to live for—others.

And when my work on earth is done,
And my new work in Heaven's begun,
May I forget the crown I've won,
While thinking still of—others.

Others, Lord, yes, others.

Let this my motto be.
Help me to live for others,
That I may live like Thee.

By Charles D. Meigs.

NUMBER 6

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

A HOUSE CLEANING

Our newly organized Chancel Chapter has been doing very fine work. Mrs. Beardwood is a capable director, having had experience for some years in the details of the work. The committee for February celebrated the close of their month's work by giving a house cleaning to the sacristy. It now is a neat and clean place to work in. Very pretty curtains for the windows have been made by Mrs. Kapus.

There is yet some improvement needed. The walls should be given a coat of some kind which would freshen them up, and the floor should have a rug. The ladies who devote their time to this work deserve these comforts.

The February committee consisted of Mrs. Galbraith, Mrs. Knox and Mrs. Kapus.

The committee for March consists of Mrs. Wm. Beardwood, Miss Sophia Boyd and Miss Bertha Kampen.

The committee for April will be Mrs. Wilkinson, Miss Richardson and Miss Edna Cahill.

Those who will furnish the flowers for any one Sunday in the year in memory of some one are asked to speak to Mrs. Wm. Beardwood or Miss Florence Richardson about it. Those who will give flowers for Easter may hand their names to any of the members of the Chancel Chapter.

The chapter will have its next monthly meeting on Tuesday, March 23, at three o'clock. We would be glad to hear, if possible, before that date from persons who will contribute flowers for Easter.

J. H. E.

A GOOD WORKER

Our working force in St. Paul's is much increased by the addition of Mr. John Hughes, who has been transferred from the Church of the Holy Apostles to this parish. Mr. Hughes is a part of the firm of Buck and Gallagher, and is known as a man of fine business and professional attainments.

He has already become active in the Sunday school, and is a regular attendant at the services in the church. We give him a cordial welcome.

The Primary Department has begun learning a pretty carol for the Easter service of the Sunday school.

Among the new members of our congregation last Sunday were Lieutenant and Mrs. Marston. Lieutenant Marston is the grandson of Mr. John Marston, who, together with Mr. Geo. C. Thomas, started the Sunday school Lenten offering. Visitors to St. John's Church, Cynwyd, will remember the brass tablet upon the walls of that church commemorating the founding of the Lenten offering.

THE SICK

Our sick list in South Philadelphia has been a rather long one this winter, as is no doubt the case with every parish in the city. We hope that the opening up of spring will bring cheer and comfort to all who have been shut in.

Those who have been ill have been constantly remembered at the altar, and so far as possible the flowers have been sent at the close of each Sunday to those who could be reached.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

SENIOR AND JUNIOR CHAPTERS

ST. PAUL'S CHAPTER, NO. 1824, BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

At the meeting of the Chapter held on February 20, 1915, the By-Law on Meetings was amended by unanimous vote to read as follows:

"The stated meetings of the Chapter shall be on the second and fourth Fridays of each month. The meeting on the second Friday shall be held in the home of a member of the Chapter in conjunction with the meeting of the Executive Committee, and the meeting on the fourth Friday shall be in the Vestry Room of the Parish Building. When there is a fifth Friday in any month the same shall be designated as "Social Night" when the Chapter shall entertain the men of the Parish or some organization therein at a social gathering." In accordance with the above and in view of the fact that a special Brotherhood service is to be held on Friday, March 12, the next meeting of the Chapter will be at the home of Mr. Robert J. Makim, 1610 Christian st., on Saturday, March 13, at 8 P. M. sharp. Let all attend.

Then the Chapter will meet on Friday, the 26th, in the Vestry Room immediately after the special service on that evening. It is hoped that Mr. E. B. McCarthy will be present at this meeting.

On Friday, April 9, the Chapter will meet at the home of Mr. William C. Butler, 1414 Tasker street, at 8 P. M. Keep these dates in mind. It is important that you be present. The Rector has the names of a number of men whom he wishes the Brotherhood members to visit. The speakers for the remaining special Lenten services, under the auspices of the Chapter, are as follows:

Friday, March 19. Mr. Walter M. Wood, General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Philadelphia.

Friday, March 26. Mr. Edmund B. McCarthy, president of the Philadelphia Local Assembly.

THE JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD.

The Juniors wish to express their deep regret and sorrow at the grave illness of one of our members, William Watkins, and to ask the earnest prayers of the congregation for his speedy recovery.

The Director also wishes to remind the boys of the necessity of their attendance at the regular meetings of the Chapter. This is vitally necessary to the life of the Chapter, for on our members individually must rest the usefulness of our organization in the Parish.

Let me quote again from a letter sent by a Director of a Junior Chapter to the members of his Chapter. I feel that no better words can be written to St. Paul's Juniors:

"Let us make our Chapter of the Brotherhood stand for the very best there is in the parish, as it does in some parishes, by our members being faithful in attendance, reverent while in church and helpful to one another. Let us all, while striving to do good to every one, be particularly thoughtful for the interests of the other members of our Chapter, and be careful in everything that we do or say to one another, never criticizing (for we all resent that), but if one of our number needs sympathy or encouragement let us not be slow in offering it, or if he is doing things which we know to be wrong, use our influence in setting him right.

Boys, make the effort!

W. M. B.

NOTICE!

Stop, look and read! Grand bread and cake sale to be given by the intermediate class of Sunday school in the parish building, on Saturday, March 20th, afternoon and evening. Proceeds for Lenten offering. Don't bake on that day, as there will be all kinds of good things for sale; the kind that mother makes, too.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU.

We congratulate Mr. Toop, the Rector of Holy Apostles, upon his enterprise in starting a parish employment bureau. The Rector of St. Paul's, while associated with the Church of the Holy Apostles, had this subject very much upon his mind, but the time did not seem ripe for the experiment. Just how well the present attempt will succeed is a question for experience to determine, but it is a move in the right direction.

In a bulletin of the Social Service Commission of the Diocese of New York, which the Rector has just received, there is mention of a large parish just outside of New York which has a men's club which sees to it that no one is out of employment in the entire parish. If any one needs a position it is reported to the club, and through the acquaintance and knowledge of the members a position is found for him in a short time.

There are special reasons why that can be done in some parishes and cannot be done in others; but there is no reason why a plan of some sort could not be worked in every parish.

There are things like that which await the initiative and skill of our men—our laymen—who have gifts of organization which should be consecrated to the Lord.

If Billy Sunday's power-plant is really worth anything to you, who have been connecting with it, now is the time to convert your new energy into light and warmth for the men and women of your parish who are struggling in these hard times to get even the barest necessities of life.

"Brighten the corner where you are."

But do it in a practical way.

Don't wait until a man's gone to give your flowers. There are men out of employment in our midst—they don't need flowers, but flour. Pony up

What they most want is not your money, but your help toward getting a job.

"Look up, and not down,

Look out, and not in,

Look forward and not backward,

And lend a hand."

THE PASTOR'S PASTORAL

My dear Friends:

My first word is one of welcome to the confirmation class of 1915. Here are the names of those to whom this cordial welcome is extended: Vivian Nelson Barrington, Robert Stimson Dunn, John Evanson Earp, John Eltonhead, Richardson Graham Lau, Warren Wesley Marks, William Mayer, Chester Norton, John Rowan, Stanley Scheffer, Samuel Heron Sheehan, James Randall Skillen, George R. Thompson, Robert H.
Williams, Laura May Bruder, Lorraine
Campbell, Helen Cobert, Elizabeth Seckel Cucknell, Ethel L. Denney, Mary Margaret Hazzard, Helen Loughhead, Rachel Graham Rosenfelt, Fannie Bartlett Walsh.

To each member of this class has been presented a book, called "The Prayer Book Reason Why." It is a little book which thoroughly explains every service in the church, and it would be very useful if every one who attends worship in the church would make a study of the book.

It now seems necessary to organize another class and ask the Bishop or Bishop Suffragan to come and confirm it.
Will all those who read these words please speak to the rector at your earliest convenience about any who ought to be seen with reference to confirmation?

How many personal battles are being fought by men and women in our midst —often with no outward complaining, no indication that they are hard pressed.
Some of these battles are for health, others for sufficient means to keep home together, others still are for the purpose of making some cause succeed.

God alone knows each individual heart, and He alone can give grace sufficient for every need. In His almighty-ness is strength for every one of us and for every day and moment of our lives.
In His love is cheer and comfort. In His plan and purpose for our lives there is inspiration without measure.

Sometimes your rector wishes his people would try just a little harder to do things themselves and leave him with more time and strength to go to comfort the sorrowing, to cheer the downhearted, to encourage the troubled, and to guide the erring. Some organizations run along smoothly, enjoying their work, keeping busy and happy all the time;
others seem to be chronically weak and ailing and are a constant drag. It is always so, but it ought not to be so, and it will be a happy day when our parish becomes so thoroughly organized that everyone will be happily at some church work as well as always faithful and regular at the worship of God.

Easter will have come and gone before another Chronicle is issued, and I take this opportunity of wishing each and all a Happy and Peaceful Easter—the anniversary of our dear Lord's resurrection.

Faithfully yours,

JOSEPH H. EARP.

SUCCESS OF ENVELOPE SYSTEM IN THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

The following letter was addressed to the parents of the children of our Sunday school in December, 1913:

ST. PAUL'S SUNDAY SCHOOL

15th and Porter Streets, Philadelphia.

Notice to Parents:

At a meeting of the members of St.
Paul's Sunday School Teachers' Association held in the parish house on Wednesday evening, October 22nd, it was unanimously agreed that on and after January 1st, 1914, the envelope system of contributing towards the support of our Sunday school should be adopted.

We, therefore, send this letter to parents to assure them that this change is not made for the purpose of procuring a larger offering from the children, but for the purpose of training the children to be systematic in their giving, and we believe that this will create an impression in the child that will be carried out in the man and woman. We, therefore, ask the co-operation of parents in helping us make this system a success.

Each child has received herewith a pledge card, and we would request that the same be filled out and returned to the teachers. It matters not how small or how large an amount a child can afford to give, the training received in doing systematic work will be the same.

Again requesting the support of parents, we are,

Faithfully,

St. Paul's Sunday School Teachers' Association.

(By our officers)

WILLIAM J. BEARDWOOD,

President.

S. J. BUCK, JR.,

Secretary.

We are pleased to state that the responses to the above have been very gratifying and that the system has been eminently successful. 120 pledges have been given. Our members have been very prompt and we feel that the training in systematic giving to be derived from contributing in this way is not the least attractive of the results obtained.

There are some of our scholars who have not up to this time pledged themselves and we urge that they may see the advantage of refusing the envelopes and contributing a stated amount each week to the Sunday school offering. It must not be forgotten that it is a matter of indifference as to the amount given. The vital purpose being to bring our members to a realization of the fact that the Sunday school is ours and that it is our duty and privilege to make contributions thereto.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

A meeting of the teachers' association was held on Wednesday evening, February 24th, 1915, at which the following resolution was adopted:

Be it resolved, That the bill of $148.58 for furnishing the rector's study in the parish building be paid out of the Sunday school funds and that an appropriate brass tablet properly inscribed be placed in this room, said inscription to indicate that the above is a contribution of the Sunday school's.

Your teachers' association feels that this is a step in the right direction and it proposes to discuss in the near future the question of a definite object for which the funds of the Sunday school may be used.

S. J. BUCK, JR.,
Secretary.

ST. PAUL'S BENEFICIAL

Did you ever get sick? The kind that keeps you home a few weeks and you did not belong to any organization that sent you a check as a remembrance each week. Well it doesn't matter which way you answer, it drives home the strength of beneficial societies.

St. Paul's have a yearly beneficial association which returned to its members after one calendar year $6.25 or 75 cents less than what they contributed as dues.
That meant 6¼ cents per month for protection. Cheap! It sure was. Come around the first Thursday in April and become one of us.

TABLOIDS

How's "O, well" Mary?

Sam is our new organist.

How's your party case, Bella?

Mr. and Mrs. Boyle never fail us.

Howard was our Paul Jones genius.

Blanche Cohill likes to make menus.

Every once in a while Alice and Anna pop in.

Ella has once more joined our industrial band.

Edna is some decorator, but she'd rather eat.

Who said Marguerite couldn't make sandwiches?

Does anybody know where Ida hides on Tuesday nights.

James Johnson would rather eat peanuts than stab them.

Edna Cohill and Miss Duncan are in league with each other; better look out.

The trip to Jerusalem was delightful and Ella and Charlie stuck to the end.

Never again do we leave cheese tidbits near Bob Johnson and Charlie Mingle.

You had better come down on Tuesday night, and the committee is patiently waiting.

THE CHILDREN'S SERVICES

An attendance of sixty to eighty boys and girls at our Saturday afternoon Lenten services speaks well for the future of our parish. At the first service, Mr. Wm. C. Butler gave the talk to the children, and the speakers at the two others have been Mrs. Hawkes and Miss M. A. Stitt. A vested choir of boys and girls adds very much to the interest. The lowest attendance (sixty) was on the afternoon when the rain and slush made it almost dangerous to be on the street. The average attendance is between seventy and eighty.

YOUNG MEN'S GUILD

Interest has become very intense lately in guild work circles and a decided increase in attendance is noted at the meetings.

While the curtain has practically rung down for the basketball season, it gives way for the sporting headliner—baseball—to do a turn. Already plans are being worked out to put a representative team on the diamond this year.

A rejuvenation of the bowling tournament fever is again evident and the boys are seen frequently on the alleys. The competition is open to all guild members and as it is a handicap affair, everyone has a chance of winning the prize donated by Mr. Lynch.

Party nights are becoming better each month, March 1 being a corker and no little praise should be accorded to the committee for their trouble. Mr. H. Frederick Wilson, managing director of the Drexel Biddle Bible Class of the Middle Atlantic States, spoke and he treated us with a royal lot of oratory.

It is to become a fixed thing to have prominent speakers on hand at future meetings and every fellow who has his name inscribed on the club's roster should not miss our interesting meetings, presided over by President Chas. A. Long.

ST. MARY'S GUILD

A cordial invitation is extended to all girls between the ages of 15 and 18 inclusive to join the St. Mary's Guild, which is doing very effective work. It is quite evident that the girls are enjoying the evenings that are spent in the parish building every Thursday.

At present we are sewing for the home and hospital of the Good Shepherd at Rosemont. Some very good stories are read to the girls during the sewing period, after which a half hour is spent socially.

We shall be very glad to increase this guild of which we are proud.

DOROTHY E. NORTON,
Secretary.

DORCAS SOCIETY

In all societies we find both active and passive members. What we want in the Dorcas Society is all active members. While our Lenten work is progressing we will have to have more active workers in order to finish it before Holy week. Come out and do your part. Let us have more meetings like last Monday evening. The social on March 1st was enjoyed by all present. There were so many who discovered the hidden "Kates," there being only two prizes. They had to be drawn for, the winners being Mrs. Jos. Gardiner and Mrs. E. Gillin. We are very sorry to know that one of our members, Mrs. John Bruder, is very ill. Flowers were placed on the altar by the Sunday school on February 21st in memory of Helen Scout.

$1.00 was received for flowers from the social chapter.

K. JILLARD,
Secretary.

SPECIAL MUSIC

Last Sunday evening the choir rendered "The Story of Calvary," the special parts being rendered by a quartette, consisting of Misses Mollie Hoffman and Ada Norton and Messrs. MacLaren and Morris.

Miss Hoffman also sang a soprano solo.

On Sunday, February 28, Miss Marie Engelhardt Lake sang for us and her effort was very much appreciated by the congregation.

A NEW FAMILY

We have received by transfer from St. Bartholomew's Mission, at Wissinoming, Pa., Mr. Miguel K. Guilera and his wife, Florence E. Guilera, who are living at 1412 Porter street. We trust they will feel at home in St. Paul's parish and soon find a congenial work. There is also a little one, who will some day be a candidate for the new kindergarten which we are hoping to start in our Sunday school soon.

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

SUCCESSFUL VESTRYMEN

To the Vestry of St. Paul's Memorial Church: Greetings. We the undersigned tellers, appointed to conduct the election for vestrymen to serve for three years, find the following gentlemen duly elected:

LETTER OF APPRECIATION

April 6th, 1915.

To My Friends of St. Paul's Church:

I take this opportunity of thanking you for the very kindly courtesy shown me in presenting my name to the members of St. Paul's Parish as a candidate for the Vestry. It is pleasant to feel that one who is still somewhat of a stranger in your midst should be so highly honored, and I desire to express to all my grateful appreciation of this evidence of esteem and friendship. May I also at this time offer my congratulations and best wishes to those recently re-elected to the Vestry and bid them God-speed in their efforts to upbuild St. Paul's Parish. It is my earnest hope that during the coming year the Rector and the Superintendent may receive as many evidences of that loyalty and friendship which have been so graciously bestowed on me. Again thanking you all and with the very best wishes for the success of the work in which we are all engaged, believe me

Faithfully yours,

JOHN W. HUGHES.

MEMORIAL FLOWERS

The flowers on the altar today are given by Mrs. Samuel J. Buck in memory of Mrs. Jennie Lee Wylie and Mrs. Maria Lee.

Many of the flowers on the altar at Easter were memorials. Miss Kate Crumpton supplied the flowers for the altar in the Chapel.

Will those who read these words please consider the matter of giving the whole or a part of the amount necessary to furnish flowers on certain Sundays? For instance, you would be glad to give a dollar, more or less, to have flowers on a certain Sunday—the one nearest the anniversary of a death, or birth, or other event of personal interest in your life or of your family. The Rector will be glad to take the matter up with you if you will indicate to him your desire to learn more about it.

OUR CHOIR

Special mention should be made of the two musical services which we have had during Lent. The first one was on the evening of the Third Sunday in Lent, when the choir rendered the Lenten cantata entitled "The Story of Calvary," by Schneckner. The second was on Wednesday in Holy Week when the service was Stainer's "The Crucifixion." Both of these services were enjoyed by large congregations. We have also been favored by special solos by Miss Marie Englehardt Lake, Miss Mollie Hoffman, Miss Blanche Cahill, Mr. William C. Morris, Mr. Floyd Brown and Mr. McLearn. To these, and others who assisted in various services, and to the whole choir, we give our sincere thanks and appreciation.

GEORGE C. THOMAS GUILD

After attending services all of Lent the boys are ready to begin with their weekly meetings on Wednesday nights. Boys of 10 to 15 are urged to join the Guild. We expect to form a good, strong camping club and therefore every member or those who were members and dropped out, will be looked for at the meetings of the Guild. Mr. Clark will resume the drill exercise.

The directors ask all the members to go out, round up all boys for the next meeting. A big surprise for all attending.
ROBT. SKILLEN, Vice Director.
EUGENE F. GILLIN, Director.

Additional Altar Flowers

Flowers are also upon the altar this Sunday in memory of Margaret Elizabeth Baltz, died April 9, 1914, given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Baltz.

APPRECIATION

At a meeting of the vestry held on Wednesday evening, April 7, 1915, a vote of thanks was given to the retiring Finance Committee, William Beardwood, Dr. John Wilkinson and Robert Montgomery.

Also a vote of thanks to the tellers at the recent election: Messrs. James Hazlett, Judge: Robert J. Skillen and Henry Moore, as Tellers.

MISSIONARY MASS MEETING

On Friday evening, April 16, at the Academy of Music, Broad and Locust streets, a missionary mass meeting will be held similar to the one at which a number of our boys and girls were present to sing. The Rector has a few tickets to this meeting which he will give to any persons applying to him for them.

DORCAS SOCIETY

The Dorcas Society started the beginning of Lent with a considerable amount of parish work to be accomplished. We are pleased to state that we have been successful in our undertaking, and are now ready to assist the Young Men's Guild in the work they have in view.

On account of there being no meeting on Easter Monday evening the meeting on Monday, April 12, will be our social night. We will look for a good attendance.

Mrs. Bruder is at home and improving. March 15 received $2.00 for flowers from Y. M. G.

AN OLD POEM

Some years ago the Southern Churchman published a notice to the effect that should any of its readers remember an old poem which at one time was very popular in the Church, written by the Rev. Charles West Thomson, Rector of St. John's Church, York, Pa., and entitled
"We Won't Give Up the Prayer-Book,"
they should be very glad to publish it.
One of our own communicants remembered the hymn, and sent the same to the Southern Churchman. The poem is as follows:

"We won't give up the Prayer-Book

Our Holy Church's pride,

On every page of which we read

Of Jesus crucified.

The precious form of wholesome words

To lead our minds away,

From earthly thoughts and vanities,

To teach us how to pray.

"We won't give up the Prayer-Book

With martyr's life's drops wet,

In which the wisdom of the past

Like precious hearts is set—

And as the perfumes sweetly rise

From some fair garden bed

The fragrance there of Scripture truth

O'er every leaf is shed.

"We won't give up the Prayer-Book,

It is our charter bond.

And still we'll clasp it to our hearts

With feelings warm and fond.

We'll cling to it as something dear,

Devotions cheering aid.

The Bible first, and then the prayers,

Our holy fathers made."

ST. PAUL'S SUNDAY SCHOOL

April 4th, 1915.

Rev. Joseph H. Earp,

Rector of St. Paul's Church.

Dear Rector: We herewith hand you our Lenten offering, which amounts to $500.00, this being the largest raised so far by our Sunday School. With this offering we send our prayers that God may use our mite in the advancement of His Kingdom here on earth, and that in our giving each one of us may receive the blessing of our Heavenly Father.

The following is the amount given by classes:

Miss Sutcliffe	$1.65
Miss Rosenfelt	3.43
Miss Rhoades	3.96
Miss Anderson	5.90
Miss Kampen	8.42
Mr. Skillen	10.84
Miss Cohill	12.50
Mr. Gardiner	12.71
Mr. Gillin	16.03
Mr. Hughes	22.02
Primary Department	25.44
Mrs. Gillin	24.11
Miss Grosscup	32.50
Intermediate Department	38.57
Mr. Earp	42.70
Mr. Beardwood	89.89
Mr. Lynch	110.00
Officers	20.00
Miscellaneous	19.33

$500.00

Sincerely yours for the Master,

St. Paul's Sunday School,

THOS. S. BOYLE,

Superintendent.

Our Sunday School has grown so rapidly that we find our work is suffering for lack of teachers. Wont some of our church members kindly volunteer their services to our Rector, who will be glad to explain what is needed?

There is no work more noble than the work of training young lives thus fitting them for the battles of life and finally for a home in Heaven.

Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it. Faithfully, T. S. B.

CHANCEL CHAPTER

The regular meeting for March was held in the Vestry Room on Tuesday, March 24, at 3 o'clock. A set of by-laws were adopted. Mrs. Eugene L. Gillen served as secretary pro tem. It was decided to have the meetings on the second Wednesday evening of the month at 8 o'clock—this will be the plan at present. The afternoon is the ideal time for such a meeting, perhaps, but we will try the evening for awhile.

Mrs. Olive P. Doughty presented to the church at Easter in memory of Mr. Joseph F. Doughty, a set of linen coverings for the altars and the credence table. They bore the exquisite embroidery of Miss Richardson. The Rector expressed the appreciation of the church for these gifts at the early service on Easter Day and prayed that those who minister at the altar, those who care for the sacred vestments and furnishings, as well as those who approached the Holy Sacrament, may receive the blessing of Him to whose service these beautiful gifts were presented.

A LEGEND OF THE WISE MEN

When the three Wise Men were traveling on their long journey from the Far East, talking by day of the King whom they sought, and gazing by night upon His star, it chanced that one of them—it was the one who carried the gift of costly, but bitter, myrrh, and loved greatly the creations of God, from the greatest to the least—saw near the road a little plant which bore many delicate blossoms, some as blue as the eastern sky and some as white as the foam of the western sea. The Wise Man had never seen the plant before, for none of its kind grew in his country, and he hastened to alight from his camel, and knelt before the tiny flowers and thanked God for their beauty, and set up a mark, that, on his return, he might find the rare, strange plant and carry it home with him. And he plucked two of the fair flowers, and preserving them with great care, carried them safely all the way until he came into the "house" where the Young Child was with Mary His Mother.

When he knelt before the Heavenly Babe, and laid at His feet his offering of costly myrrh, suddenly he thought of the strange blossoms so precious to him, and these also he offered to the Child, who, smiling divinely on the giver, took into His tiny hand the two flowerets, blue as the eastern sky and white as the foam of the western sea.

Then the Wise Men, "warned of God," departed to their own country by another way, and he who had plucked the flowers was for a moment sad, saying, "Since we go by this other way, I shall never again see the strange plant with its lovely blossoms; and even the two flowerets I have no longer. Yet the way we take is the will of God, and the flowers—oh, what joy it was to give them into the hand of the Holy Child! The memory of His smile is beyond all thought dearer than the flowers of the whole wide world. Truly, all is well!"

So, with joy and thanksgiving, the three went on, until, after many days, early in the first flush of the dawn, they came to their own country. And when the Wise Man who had plucked the flowers and given them to the Holy Child stood at his own house, lo! there, beside the door, fair in the morning light and glittering with crystal dewdrops, grew the strange plant, all abloom with lovely blossoms as blue as the eastern sky and as white as the foam of the western sea.

So had his loving giving been blessed; and so is it that, in all times as well as in that time of old, gifts freely and gladly given to Him who was the Child of Bethlehem are given back with great gain, even though sometimes the giving back is not known till after a long journey into a country very far away.

NUMBER 8

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

A FINE GIFT.

When you are near the rear of the church next time you should examine the very neat and tasteful stand which has been placed there to hold the Chronicles. It is the handiwork of Mr. Frank Kapus, who copied the design from the lectern. Mr. Kapus is an employee of Uncle Sam in the Post Office Department, but he is very handy with tools, and we thank him for this handsome and useful gift to the church.

DEVOUTLY KNEELING.

A true churchman kneels. He does not sit on the edge of the seat and bend his body forward, putting his head into his hand or his handkerchief. He kneels fairly and squarely upon his knees. It is what his prayer book directs, for over and over again the rubrics tell him to kneel when he prays. The church knows no other custom. The instincts of an educated churchman compel him to kneel when he draws near to God in prayer and supplication.

To sit at such a time savors of another system which is out of place in the church, for it cannot be reconciled with the traditions or the liturgy we have inherited from our fathers, and besides it does violence to the church's sense of reverence.

It is one of the anomalies of religion that the very people who in their public worship sit during their prayers, would consider it an irreverence to do the same in their private devotions at home. Imagine a devout man sitting by his bed to say his prayers! But this is what many do when they meet together in public.

No, don't bring these outside notions into the church. Don't be afraid to kneel. It is the devout and reverent rule of the Church of God.—Rev. C. H. Hibbard, D. D.

BIG SHOW ON MAY 21.

Every person in and around St. Paul's Church will miss the treat of his life if he doesn't stop! look! and listen! to our New Idea Minstrel, together with a surprising funny sketch. All your friends are in it. Keep the 21st open. Don't forget those tickets. Mother and father can come for twenty-five cents to the most original and humorous entertainment of the season, while all the babies from one to 14 years can trot along for only fifteen cents.

SENIOR AND JUNIOR CHAPTERS

ST. PAUL'S CHAPTER, NO. 1824, BROTHERHOOD OF ST. AN- DREW

The next regular meeting of the Chapter will be held on Friday, May 14, 1915, at 8.15 P. M., at the home of Mr. John G. Bruder, 2414 South Fifteenth street.

The Executive Committee meets immediately after the Chapter is adjourned. It is hoped that ALL THE MEMBERS of the Chapter will be present.

THE GEORGE C. THOMAS GUILD.

The regular meetings of the Guild are being held Wednesday evenings, at 7.45 P. M. On Wednesday evening, May 5, the boys of the Guild had the pleasure of a class of boys from St. John's Sunday School. The meeting was gone through, which the boys from St. John's thought was fine. After the meeting a drill was gone through, under our able Drillmaster Mr. Victor Clark. We played basketball, running, jumping, indoor baseball and other such sports. After the sports refreshments were served. The boys of the Guild hope that this year will be a very prosperous one and they are trying to make it so.

On April 14, the boys of the Guild had an entertainment. The donkey party was played. And prizes consisting of bat and ball and booby prize. The bat was won by J. Randall Skillen. The ball by Alfred Patchell and the booby prize by Edward Pelletrean.

DORCAS SOCIETY.

As May is the month in which things begin to grow, let us all try and help our membership to grow. The more members we have the greater our success.

The meetings so far have been fairly well attended. But up until the present time only one new member has been taken in the Dorcas Society, since the first of the year.

We notice quite a number of new faces at our church services. If our members get busy and become acquainted with the visitors, they may be induced to join us.

We extend an invitation to all the ladies of the congregation to meet with us on Monday evenings, at 8 o'clock. Our dues are only ten cents a month.

It gives me pleasure to announce that Mrs. Carey's children are at home again, having recovered from a long illness.

K. JILLARD,
Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.

Everyone is interested in the approaching picnic. It is not decided yet just where we will go. Since the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad has decided not to run special trains down on its freight track in the future, we no longer find it so convenient to go to Brandywine Springs Park, as it has been in the past. There is some prospect of our going to Menlo Park, which has had a great deal of money spent upon it in the last few years, and it now offers all the attractions which can be found anywhere. A committee is giving the subject careful consideration and before the next Chronicle comes out it will be decided and announced in the Sunday School.

A Committee on Athletics has been appointed to get up a fine program of sports at the picnic, and there will be a fine time for all.

The "Parish Chronicle" is issued the second Sunday of each month.

It is required that all matters intended for publication be in the hands of the Editors on or before the 25th of each month.

TO OUR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS.

Through the kindness of friends in the business world we are able to publish and circulate "The Parish Chronicle."

We would therefore ask our people to kindly study our advertising columns and patronize our advertisers, always remembering to mention "The Parish Chronicle."

This is a fair request, we think, and we hope our people will help us, help themselves, and help our advertisers.

For advertising rates apply to the Business Manager.

OUR MEMBERSHIP.

It is asked, every now and then, what is the number of communicants in St. Paul's Church. It is very difficult to answer, because it is a question in some cases whether a person who was once a communicant in the past should now be counted a communicant if he does not come to the Holy Communion.

The law of the church on that subject reads as follows:

"Canon XIII, Sec. 2. And the Minister of each Parish shall keep a list of Communicants within his cure. He shall enter on the list the names of all persons confirmed in his parish who have received the Holy Communion, or who have been received by letters of transfer from other parishes, or who, being regular communicants in his parish, he finds after diligent inquiry, are not registered anywhere else. And he shall, from time to time, and at least annually before the meeting of the Diocesan Convention, remove from such list the names of all persons who have died, or received Holy Orders, or taken letters of transfer to other parishes, or been excommunicated or suspended, or who have formally renounced the Communion of the Church, or who in the judgment of the minister have permanently ceased to be communicants of the same; or who, having removed from his parish without notice, after reasonable time and due effort, cannot be traced."

One can see, by reading this law, that it is difficult to know whether certain persons should be counted communicants or not. The church always endeavors to interpret the law with charity rather than strict justice.

The rector has just reported to the convention the following statistics concerning the membership of St. Paul's Church:

Baptisms.

Adults	3

Communicants

Added by confirmation.....	31
Added by transfer.....	12

Removed by death.....	0

Those who are referred to as removed by revision are not persons who are now attending the services, but mostly persons who have moved away during the last three or four years and cannot be located. We would be only happy to learn their present addresses and transfer them to parishes near where they are living.

GRUMBLE CORNER.

I knew a man whose name was Horner,
Who used to live at Grumble Corner,
Grumble Corner in Crosspatch Town,
And never was seen without a frown.
He grumbled at this; he grumbled at that;
He growled at the dog, he growled at the cat;
He growled in the morning, he growled at night,
And to grumble and growl were his chill delight.
He grumbled so much at his wife, that she Began to grumble as well as he,

And all the children, wherever they went,
Reflected their parents' discontent.
If the sky was dark and betokened rain
Mr. Horner was sure to complain,
And if there was not a cloud about
He grumbled because of a threatened drought.

His meals were not to suit his taste,
He grumbled at having to eat in haste.
The bread was poor, the meat was tough,
Or else he hadn't had half enough.
No matter how hard a wife might try
To please, her husband, with scornful eye
He looks around, and then with a scowl,
At something or other he has to growl.

One day as I loitered along the street,
My old acquaintance I chanced to meet,
Whose face was without the look of care
And the ugly frown it used to wear.

"I may be mistaken, perhaps," I said,
And after saluting I turned my head.
"Why, it is, and it isn't Mr. Horner Who used to live in Grumble Corner!"

I met him next day, I met him again
In melting weather, in pouring rain,
When stocks were up, when stocks were down,
But a smile, somehow, had replaced the frown.

It puzzled me much, and one day
I seized his hand in a friendly way
And said, "Mr. Horner, I'd like to know What can ever have changed you so?"
He laughed a laugh that was good to hear.

It told of a conscience calm and clear,
And said, with none of the old-time drawl,
"I've changed my residence, that is all."

"Changed your residence?" "Yes," said Horner,
"It wasn't healthy in Grumble Corner,
We all were needing a change complete,
And you'll find me now on Thanksgiving Street."

Now every day as I move along
The streets so filled with busy throngs
I watch each face and can always tell Where men, women and children dwell—
And many a discontented mourner
Is spending his days in Grumble Corner
Sore and sad, whom I long to entreat
To take a house in Thanksgiving Street.

A SECOND CLASS CONFIRMED.

On April 17, the Rt. Rev. Philip M. Rhinclander, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, visited St. Paul's and confirmed a class of eight adult members. The Bishop expressed himself as very much pleased with this class, and with the splendid attendance at the service.

We extend to each and every member of this class our affectionate greetings. We believe they are entering upon a new period in their lives. In the church they will find tasks which will try them and test them—but those tasks will develop character of the kind which endures. To this class the rector gives a motto: "Even as the son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give His life a ransom for many." Matthew 20: 28.

SOCIAL CHAPTER.

On Tuesday evening, April 13, the girls were very fortunate in having Miss Margaret Maule, representative of the Girls' Friendly Society in this city, come down to St. Paul's Parish House, and give a very interesting talk on the organization and work of the Girls' Friendly Society. After the summer months are past the girls expect to take up these ideas and strive for a larger and broader organization of the girls of St. Paul's Parish.

The girls are now working hard, with the other organizations of the church, to make the entertainment of the 21st, the greatest success in the history of St. Paul's.

Miss Boyle is helping us wonderfully and Mrs. Gillen works on untiringly to obtain her goal. Some day they will be rewarded.

An Appeal to the Men of This Parish

How Many of you realize that the YOUNG MEN'S GUILD meet in the Parish Building every Monday evening, at 8.30 o'clock.

You may say that you are aware of the fact. Then, why do you stay away?

*Young Men

VOLUME VIII

JUNE, 1915

NUMBER 9

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

NINTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE CHOIR.

Mr. Bailey and each member of the choir were highly congratulated last Sunday night upon the excellent work they have been doing. Those who received the special awards ($5.00 gold-piece) for a record of 90 per cent. or over in attendance during the past year were: Misses Margaret Aikens, Ida P. Bruder and Elizabeth Hicks and Masters Chester Norton, Edward Pelletreau, Randall Skillen, Robert Skillen, William Renshaw, George Cranston, George Thompson and Samuel Sheehan.

ALL ABOARD—ARE YOU GOING?

On Thursday, June 24th, our big Sunday School will have its day outing at Menlo Park. The children (oh, yes, the grown folks, too) are looking forward to that day. You are invited. Are you going?

Sports galore, for the young and old, will be indulged in. By the way, the entries are coming in the youngster will come home with many a beautiful prize.

Our Superintendent, Mr. Thomas S. Boyle, has engaged trolley cars to take members of the Sunday School to the Terminal station, Twelfth and Market streets, where all will board special cars on the train and after a beautiful ride of thirty-five miles, through a rolling country, interspersed with thick woods, all will disembark at the picnic grove, where tables will be reserved for St. Paul's Sunday School.

Everybody who can find time to take a day in the country will not regret going to beautiful Menlo Park, where every facility will be afforded for a day's enjoyment.

All baskets will be carted to the railroad station free of charge, and all who intend going on the excursion will have baskets, etc., at the Parish House early on Thursday morning, June 24th, or on Wednesday evening, properly tagged.

After a day well spent in the country all St. Paul's people will embark on reserved cars, from whence we will take a glorious ride homeward to Philadelphia, after which all will take cars on Filbert street, west of Twelfth street, for South Philadelphia, when the tired and happy children will be ready to be tucked in their comfortable beds to dream of the previous day's events and to look forward for next year's excursion.

All parents and caretakers of St. Paul's children and everybody are welcome to go along and enjoy a day in the country where everything is green and cool.

Those who are not members of the Sunday School can procure tickets from any of the teachers, and the price from the Reading Terminal will be: Adults, 50 cents; children, 30 cents.

WHAT IS A SPADE?

A spade's a spade, and malice is malice the world over, and it simply is not to be found in a Christian heart. Malice and Christianity do not mix; they long ago parted company. If you have got "that tired feeling" in your church work or that "Sunday-ache" which comes on about church time or that weak-kneed, hen-pecked, dog-in-the-manger, nigger-in-the-wood-pile, wicked-and-slothful-servant variety of religious rheumatics, then for your soul's sake get it out of you. Take a good purgative of equal parts of sunshine and cordiality. Time—the 24th of June—if not before.

Take that chip off your shoulder, get a pair of new specs (the kind called love) and Menlo Park will be like a Paradise Found to your soul.

People, let's go to heaven. At present, for some of us, the road runs via the Bethlehem branch of the Reading Railway, and you are invited to get aboard this Paradise Special on the 24th.

Ha! ha! wouldn't I like to see you all sitting down together around a big table spread with good things? Well, I guess if you don't do it here on earth you never will anywhere else. If that isn't the Gospel truth, what is?

It is required that all matters intended for publication be in the hands of the Editors on

TO OUR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS.

Through the kindness of friends in the
business world we are able to publish and cir-
culate "The Parish Chronicle."

We would therefore ask our people to kindly
study our advertising columns and patronize
our advertisers, always remembering to mention "The Parish Chronicle."

This is a fair request, we think, and we
hope our people will help us, help themselves,

THE RECTOR'S LETTER.

My dear Friends and Parishioners:

With this issue of the "Parish Chronicle" we bring to its close the eighth annual volume, each volume consisting of eight monthly numbers.

Not many parishes can show such a continuous record, and the pages of the eight volumes contain a most interesting history of life in its various activities—religious, moral, social and physical.

Many hundreds of lives have contributed to the story of these eight years, many joys and many sorrows have been chronicled.

Much credit is due to the energetic business manager, Mr. Eugene F. Gillin, without whose pluck and perseverance the journal could not have been so successfully issued.

Mr. William C. Butler has recently given a most intelligent interest to its pages, and the numbers issued under his editorial care when the parish was without a Rector were a credit to him and to all who assisted him.

Before the fall it is probable that we shall have to make better arrangements for financing the paper. The burden has fallen too much upon the shoulders of the business manager, and it is only just to him that we should make some arrangement that will give him relief.

The past year in St. Paul's has been full of anxieties to many of us, some of them being of a private and others of a public nature. But our faith tells us that there is a Providence working "behind the scenes," and that if we all persevere He will bring to light His hidden purposes in good time. The important thing is for us to be willing and anxious to learn whatever lessons our heavenly Father is trying to teach us.

I would commend to my faithful people the example of our Saviour. There is but one supreme duty before each of us, and that duty is to learn of Him and endeavor to show Him forth to others through our daily lives. Let us test each of our thoughts, our words and our deeds by that one rule—what would Jesus have us think, say and do each day and hour?

Praying His blessing upon each of you,
I am,

Very sincerely yours,

JOSEPH H. EARP.

NOTICE—SUNDAY SCHOOL.

All entries for the sports which will take place at Menlo Park, on June 24th, must be in by Saturday, June 19th, in the possession of any of the following committee: John Earp, James Hazlett, Joseph Gardiner, Mr. Peter Lynch and Mr. E. F. Gillin, who will prepare a program of events for both boys and girls;
also the ladies and gentlemen who wish to participate in the sports.

NEW SCHOLARS.

Among the recent additions to our Sunday School are: Carson Pasley, William Devero, Miss Helen Barnes and Miss Florence Holmes.

THE TENNIS CLUB.

At the suggestion of Mr. John Hughes some of the young people of the church met at Mr. Earp's home on April 30th and organized what is now called the Tennis Club of St. Paul's Church.

A Constitution was framed by a committee and election of officers was held May 7th. President, Miss Margaret Hazzard; Secretary, Miss Edna W. Kam-pen, and Treasurer, Miss Alice Fox. At that meeting it was reported that the net, balls, etc., were ready for use.

Since then, on the few clear days we have had this past month, the experts of this Club have been teaching the beginners how to play, and incidently every one has had a genuinely good time in the vicinity of Strawberry Mansion.

The present members are: The Misses Dorothy Anderson, Anna Christie, Blanche Cohill, Edna Cohill, Sara Duncan, Marjorie Earp, Alice Fox, Margaret Hazzard, Florence Holmes, Bertha Kampen, Edna Kampen, Helen Leary, Jeanne Macklin, Florence Robson, Jennie Vautier and Philip Doerle, Jr., John Earp, Joseph Gardiner, Walford Gardiner, James Hazlett, John Hughes and William Watson.

We would not be enjoying this outdoor sport if it had not been for the interest Mr. Hughes has shown in the needs of the young people of our church.

We take this opportunity to express our sincere gratitude to Mr. Hughes for his help and enthusiasm in its organization. With a man of his ability as counselor the Tennis Club is sure to be one of the successful organizations of the church.

PHOTOGRAPHIC CONTEST.

Last summer the Rector suggested a photographic contest, the pictures to represent something done or seen during the summer vacation. The pictures handed in at the end of the season were not enough to make the contest a success, but possibly there might be more interest taken this summer. Let us try it again.

A word of appreciation should be given to Miss Katherine Warden, who presented a very pretty landscape. But if all the pictures which were taken last summer had been presented for the contest perhaps the prize would have been given to Mr. Thomas S. Boyle for a photograph of the Rector taken just as he came from under the boardwalk at Chelsea after a dip in rather cold salt water.
The Rector was caught unawares, and the picture was a complete success from every standpoint except that of beauty.

This year there will be three grades of awards, a blue ribbon, a red ribbon and honorable mention.

The pictures will be of three kinds:

1. Landscape.
2. Children at play.
3. Comic.

Any person may present as many pictures as he likes, but each one must be "snapped" by the person who presents it. The developing may be done at a store.

The award will be determined by competent judges.

THE YOUNG MEN'S GUILD.

Do you want the Young Men's Guild to reorganize, in fact with entirely new ideas? If so, we will need the co-operation of all men of the church and Sunday School. You may ask, How shall we give this co-operation? This, in our mind, is a very good question to ask. Having this in mind, we will endeavor to suggest a few things that will help you, and furthermore obtain the results we will work for:

To give a word of welcome and the right hand of fellowship to all men who may visit us.

Attend at least two meetings a month if you cannot attend all meetings.

Become an active member. By doing so you will not only improve your own condition, but your influence may help some other fellow do the right thing.

Realize that we must do something ourselves—not let the other fellow do it all.

Each member take it upon himself to add one new member by October 1st.

Look this problem square in the face and realize that it is up to YOU to make this Guild what it should be—an organization of young men, helping each other, and by this co-operation let our influence spread and help the church and Sunday School; and last, but not least, the neighborhood in which St. Paul's Church lives.

Attend the big rally meeting on June 28th and we will prepare for the reorganization.

THE DORCAS SOCIETY.

During the warm weather the Dorcas Society will discontinue meetings.

The last meeting was held Monday, June 6th, when a most enjoyable time was spent by all present. Refreshments were served by the Social Committee.

Our next meeting will be Monday evening, September 8th, at 8 o'clock. Come out then and get busy. All are invited, not only to join us, but to work with us. St. Paul's needs our earnest support, so come out and do your share. Do not wait for the other one to do it. Come yourself. We look forward to greater results than in the past.

We take this opportunity to remind our friends and members of our annual rummage sale, which occurs in November. We will be grateful if you will save your rummage for our sale.

We regret the loss in May of one of our first members, Mrs. Hayward, who always had a kind word and pleasant smile for all.

The Y. M. Guild donated $2.00 for flowers.

MRS. K. JILLARD.

MIXED MINSTRELS AND DISTRICT SHOW.

The entertainment given on May 21st in the Parish House was excellent in every way. The Mixed Minstrels did not get "mixed" at all, but did their parts with credit to all. Ted Mohr and Phil Doerle gave indication of future greatness behind the footlights; the solos by Misses Fox, Norton and Cohill and Messrs. Taylor, Doerle and Mohr were all well received by the large audience. The guests of the Palm Garden, who sang the choruses, were Misses Montgomery, M. Aikens, E. Aikens, Norton, Cohill, Fox, Sutcliffe and Harbison, and Messrs. Simpson, Mara, Whetstone, H. Buck, Johnson, S. Buck, Jr., and Taylor. Under the general direction of Mr. Charles A. Long the Minstrel Show was one of the best ever held in this part of the city.

The District School, under the direction of Mrs. Thomas S. Boyle and Mrs. Eugene F. Gillin, was fine. Joseph Gardiner, Jr., as the teacher, Hezekiah Pendergrass, acted his part well; James Hazlett as the "bad boy," made a great hit; William Manning, John Rowan, John Earp (the infant of the school); John Eltonhead, who stammered; Lucy Brooks (who was sweet on the teacher); Anna Gillin, Margaret Hazzard, Marjorie Earp, Mae Johnson, Laura Bruder, Emma Aikens (the giggler), Marion Cooper, Laura Bugbee, Mildred Witwer, Dorothy Livesey, Dorothy Norton, Frank Smith, Samuel Sheehan, Walford Gardiner and James Aikens all contributed to the general fun, while Frank Livesey and Howard Buck and Charles Mingle could hardly be told from the real article.

Miss Nita Livesey at the piano and McKain's Orchestra assured excellent instrumental support.

The proceeds, over and above expenses, amounted to $61.36.

NO UNBELIEF.

There is no unbelief!
Whoever plants a seed beneath the sod,
And waits to see it push away the clod,
He trusts in God.

Whoever says when clouds are in the sky,
"Be patient, heart; light breaketh by and by,"
Trusts the Most High.

Whoever sees, 'neath winter's fields of snow,
The silent harvest of the future grow,
God's power must know.

Whoever lies down on his couch to sleep,
Content to lock each sense in slumber deep, Knows God will keep.

Whoever says, "Tomorrow," "The Unknown,"
"The Future," trusts the power alone
He dares disown.

The heart that looks on when the eyelids close,
And dares to live when life has only woes,
God's comfort knows.

There is no unbelief!
And day by day, and night unconsciously,
The heart lives by that faith the lips deny,
God knoweth why.

A GOOD TIME.

Every one of the members of the Dorcas who was present last Monday, June 7th, at the last meeting for the season, voted that it was a most enjoyable occasion. One game was played called "Chewing the Rag," which was very amusing. There is an old saying that "is but a step from the sublime to the ridiculous." How sublime it would be if that ridiculous old habit of chewing the rag were really brought to as happy an ending as was the game last Monday!

The evening was made memorable by the very dainty and yet bountiful supper, which was prepared under the direction of Mrs. Jillard, Mrs. Rosenfelt, Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Pelletreau. The Rector and the Rector's Warden, Mr. Samuel J. Buck, were the favored guests on this occasion, and many good wishes were expressed for the Accounting Warden and Mrs. Wilkinson and the wee little one who has come to bless their home.

It is expected that the Dorcas ladies and their men folks will have a quiet (!) little picnic out in the park some afternoon in July. One can easily imagine what a jolly time it will be—an event to look forward to with pleasant anticipations and to look back to with joy.

"THE CHRIST OF THE ANDES."

The year 1900 found Chile and the Argentine Republic on the verge of war. Two gigantic warships were building in the shipyards of Europe, and it is said that at least five dollars per inhabitant were spent in the extensive war preparations. All this expenditure of money, all this preparation for conflict grew out of a disputed boundary line.

High up on the crests of the Andes, valuable rivers were born which sent their waters through the hills to the sea on the Chilean side. The British ministers residing at Buenos Ayres and Santiago worked with the two governments for a peaceful settlement of the dispute, but their efforts seemed doubtful.

On Easter Day, 1900, during the festival at Buenos Ayres, the Bishop offered a fervent appeal in behalf of peace, and proposed that some day a statue of Christ should be placed on the Andean border, that it might breathe forth the spirit of peace and allay animosity and strife.

Two bishops next traveled through the countries preaching peace. Local clergymen and prominent men and women joined in active work in this peace campaign. Petitions were sent to legislators and to executives, and finally a treaty was entered into by which the two gov-

the mountain side. Hundreds of persons lay all night upon the ground the day before it was unveiled that they might be eye-witnesses of the ceremony. The Argentines ranged themselves on the side of Chili. The Chileans ranged themselves on the Argentine line, while joyous music and booming guns awakened the mountain echoes. In a moment of solemn stillness the monument was unveiled and dedicated to the whole world as a practical lesson of peace and goodwill.

High on the Andes heights stands the bronze statue, made from the melted implements of war. The Christ figure, with right hand outstretched in blessing, rests on a granite base with these words inscribed: "Sooner shall these mountains crumble into dust than Argentines and Chileans break the peace to which they have pledged themselves at the feet of Christ the Redeemer."

A BIG TIME COMING.

What we call our Sunday School Picnic should really be regarded as our PARISH PICNIC. There is no better time to get together socially than on such an occasion. The Rector wants to see each one there who can possibly arrange to go. You owe it to the children of the Parish and you owe it to yourself. Nothing can take the place of it. Polite excuses are too flimsy to deceive any one.

But there ought to be no necessity of urging any and every one to join happily and heartily together on this picnic. If any one supposes for a moment that the Rector is going to blink the weak points in our Parish life indefinitely, let him put away such a thought. He is well assured of the strength of those whose hearts are true and loyal. There were two kinds of people whom our Lord condemned—the bigot and the coward. We have few—if any—bigots in St. Paul's, and we hope and pray that there may be no cowards. Cowards are those who hide themselves when they are expected to be at the front. This Parish picnic is a fight against exclusiveness, unsociability, uncharitableness and all kinds of smallness and meanness generally. Let us get out into the open and work off our spite and envy and malice (if such there be) in the sports and good fellowship such as the beautiful hills and valleys of God's own country invite us to enjoy.

ernments submitted the controversy to the arbitration of the King of England. He entrusted the case to eminent jurists and to expert geographers, who, after examining it carefully, awarded a part of the disputed territory to one of the Republics and a part to the other.

The verdict was cheerfully accepted by both governments, and in June, 1903, they concluded a treaty pledging for a period of five years to submit all controversies between them to arbitration. This was the first general arbitration treaty ever concluded. A succeeding treaty reduced the armies and stopped the work on the battleships. The money saved by the lessening of war expenses was used to improve the coast, to construct roads and to benefit the people. We are told that Chili turned an arsenal into a school for manual training. It was not long before the old bitterness and distrust gave place to good-will and confidence.

The suggestion to erect a statue of Christ on the mountain boundary line was, through the aid of the Christian Mothers' Association of Buenos Ayres, quickly carried into execution. In February, 1904, it was completed and the journey on gun carriages was begun up

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

OUR ANNIVERSARY

On this, the eleventh anniversary of the beginning of our parish, it is fitting that we recall with gratitude the interest which the late Mr. George C. Thomas took in this parish and the great debt we owe to his memory and to the living members of his family who have also shown their interest through the erection of the parish house. We wish to extend our grateful thanks again to Mrs. George C. Thomas and the members of her family for their benefactions to the parish, and to assure them of the many earnest discussions which are held constantly as to how we can make their splendid gift of greatest use to this community and to the kingdom of God. We believe that this anniversary marks a new era in the development of the parish.

This is a fitting time to announce, also, the gift of two memorials which are to be given by Mrs. John Luther Ringwalt. The one will be a bishop's chair, for which a design has been submitted by Mr. John Barber, of Philadelphia, who made the bishop's chair and the choir stalls for the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York City, and who has done much of the finest wood carving in the churches of Philadelphia. This chair will be ready by Christmas. The other gift will probably be a handsome Alms Basin, allowing us to use the present one in the chapel. It is hoped that these gifts will inspire others to help furnish our chancel. It is most necessary to consult with the Rector before either the nature or design of a gift has been decided upon, because it is essential for the future of the church that all the furnishings be harmonious. In the case of the two present gifts, we are having the benefit also of the taste and judgment of the Commission on Church Building of the Diocese, which has appointed a special committee to pass upon these memorials. The design of the bishop's chair is now in their hands, but work upon it will be begun soon.

STORY TELLING

The Rector desires to call attention to a class in "Story Telling in the Home and Sunday-school" which will be held in the parish house of the Church of the Holy Apostles on the following Tuesdays: October 19th, November 2d, 16th and 30th. The hour is 8.15 P. M. Tickets for the course, fifty cents, single lecture fifteen cents. The instructions will be given by Miss Julia Williamson. The sub-topics are "Selecting the Story," "Studying the Story," "Telling the Story." The Rector hopes that he may be able to attend a part, if not all, of these lectures, and would be glad if some others, either ladies or gentlemen, from St. Paul's would join the class. The greatest value will come from attending the whole course from beginning to end.

A WORD OF ENCOURAGEMENT

The Rector has been looking over the list of members of the Dorcas Society kindly furnished him by the efficient secretary, Mrs. Jillard. He is impressed by the substantial character of the names, and the possibility of almost unbounded good which can be done by this splendid society. He well remembers how when he was looking over the Parish House before accepting the call to the parish, Mr. Thomas S. Boyle showed him the Dorcas room and paid a splendid tribute to the good and loyal work this society had done for the parish.

Under the direction of its former presidents—the Rector has especially observed that of Mrs. Knox and Mrs. Carey, who have served since he came—the society made itself felt throughout the parish. Under the very able management of its present vice president, Mrs. James Aikens, the same good work is being continued.

At this time of celebrating eleven years of parish history, the Rector desires to pay this kindly tribute to the Dorcas and to urge their continued interest and support of the parish. He hopes to be able to come often to their meetings, at least long enough to greet the members and speak a word of friendship, but even when the other duties in the parish make it impossible to be present he wants the society to know how much concern he feels for the prosperity of the society and the welfare of each individual member.

Miss Clara Bubbs, who has been such a genuine help in the parish during the last season, has returned from a splendid vacation spent in Virginia.

Mr. Harry Pagett is giving valuable assistance to our choir.

The Sunday-school has purchased for the Rector's use an Edison Rotary Mimeograph, by means of which we hope to be able to get our many letters, circulars, blank forms, notices, programs, etc., which we have been unable to have on account of the expense of such work. In the course of time the instrument will become of great use to all the societies of the church, but that will hardly be until some expert operator has been developed who can be the "official mimeographer" of the parish. That will be a new title for somebody.

This issue of the "Chronicle" goes to press too early in the week to speak of the new Men's Club and the Friendly Society which will be launched before the week is over, but there will be much about them in the next issue.

Mr and Mrs. C. Sladen, who have been worshipping in St. Paul's for some months, are a great addition to us. Mr. Sladen's father is the efficient Lay Reader in charge of St. George's Chapel, East Venango and Edgemont streets, under the direction of the Rector of St. George's Church, Richmond.

Among the many whom we have had the privilege of meeting after the services recently are Mrs. Morse and Miss Mildred Morse, who reside on Cleveland street; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Vail, Mrs. Anderson Polk and Mr. Louis J. Huebner.

We are all interested in having one of our young men go off to college. It is an event which rightly interests not only the young man himself, but the whole parish to which he belongs. We extend to Joseph Gardner our good wishes for a successful career at college, and a long life of usefulness afterward.

NEXT SUNDAY

Mr. Speeds will clean his auto.
Mr. Spurs will groom his horse,
Mr. Gadds will go to Coney
With the little Gadds, of course.
Mr. Flite will put carbolic
On his homing pigeons' perch,
Mr. Weeds will mow his bluegrass,
Mr. Jones will go to church.

Mr. Cleek will drive a golf ball.
Mr. Tiller steer his boat.
Mr. Popper on his cycle Round and round the State will mote.
Mr. Swatt will watch a ball game,
Mr. Stake and son will search
Through the bosky wood for mushrooms,
Mr. Wilks will go to church

Do you ask me what's the matter?
Do you wonder what is wrong
When the nation turns from worship.
Sermon, prayer, and sacred song?
Why do people rush for pleasure,
Leave religion in the lurch?
Why prefer a padded auto
To a cushioned pew in church?

Reader, well I know the answer,
But if I should speak aloud
What I think's the real reason,
It would queer me with the crowd.
You'll be popular, dear reader,
When you wield the critic's birch,
You'll be safely in the fashion
If you blame things on the church.

The "Parish Chronicle" is issued the second
Sunday of each month.

It is required that all matters intended for publication be in the hands of the Editors on or before the 25th of each month.

TO OUR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS.

Through the kindness of friends in the
business world we are able to publish and cir-
culate "The Parish Chronicle."

We would therefore ask our people to kindly
study our advertising columns and patronize
our advertisers, always remembering to mention "The Parish Chronicle."

This is a fair request, we think, and we
hope our people will help us, help themselves,
and help our advertisers.

THE RECTOR'S GREETING

Dear Friends:

I am persuaded in my own mind that,
after several years of despondency and discouragement, the time has now come when we can all begin to look up in St.
Paul's parish and confidently expect an era of prosperity and progress.

This Sunday marks the eleventh anniversary of the founding of St. Paul's Church.

The year just closed has been one of transition. Your Rector has waited in expectation that certain new ideals would come to the birth, and now he beholds a stir and interest about the house which betokens that his expectations are fulfilled.

The fine earnestness with which young and old are throwing themselves into the launching of the new St. Paul's Men's Club, the promise which one cannot help but see in the desire of all our young women and girls to form themselves into a more spiritual and helpful organization;
the hopeful spirit which pervades the Dorcas Society, the deep desire for a more consecrated life in the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, the steady progress in efficiency in our Sunday-school—these and other indications abundantly justify the belief that the pages of "The Chronicle" in the months immediately to follow will tell the story of a parish reborn.

Meanwhile, the longer one stops to write the less time he has to push, and most of us are so busy just now that we must ask that our readers will all become workers and help us to carry the good work on to a triumphant success.

Faithfully yours,

JOSEPH H. EARP.

THE CHOIR

We have had good work begun by our choir this fall, and we confidently look for great improvement. Mr. Bailly should have the support of every member.
Promptness and regularity at rehearsals will help a great deal. About new members—please note that any and all additions to the choir are to be nominated by the choirmaster to the Rector and appointed by the latter. All present members will retain their positions only by meeting certain requirements, as to regularity and punctuality in attendance at rehearsals and services. These rules are made in the interests of more efficient service.

Please observe that no one is permitted to don the vestments and enter the chancel of the church at any service without the above rules being observed. The work of the choir is so important to the success of the church that we must all feel we are under strict obligations to do our best.

"THE CHRONICLE"

"The Chronicle" is a useful magazine and is greatly enjoyed by the people of the parish. It costs about 42½ cents for each communicant of the church per year, counting men, women and children. This cost is largely made up by the advertisements, but not altogether so, and there is always a deficit which must be met in some way. Besides, if more of its readers would contribute to the cost by paying the annual subscription of fifty cents we would be able to give more of the solid reading matter which the Rector so much desires to see in "The Chronicle" to make it instructive as well as entertaining.

Mr. Gillin, who has for years given unstintedly his time and talent to the business management of "The Chronicle" finds it necessary to change from the business management to the editorial staff, where he will aid the Rector, Mr.
Butler and Mr. Beardwood in getting out the reading matter.

Mr. Robert J. Skillen, who has already given efficient service as assistant business manager, now becomes the manager of the business end, and is already showing the energy which will surely make his work a success.

It is desired that more persons who care for the paper will become subscribers. The curse of wanting to get all we can for nothing is doing great harm in the church today, and the city churches especially seem open to that temptation. Let us all turn in and support our church in all its departments.

The following is the list of paid subscribers for the year beginning October 1st:

Mr. William C. Butler
Dr. John Wilkinson, Jr.
Mr. Robert J. Makim
Mrs. Joseph H. Earp
Mrs. Frank Jillard
Mr. Robert J. Skillen
Mr. Eugene F. Gillin

We hope to have a much larger list by next month.

DORCAS SOCIETY

After their pleasant vacations the members of the Dorcas Society have again taken up their work.

We are all looking forward to a great time on Saturday afternoon and evening, October 16th, when we will hold our annual cake and apron sale, at which homemade bread will also be sold. All donations will be gladly accepted. The Dorcas Society would like all the people of St. Paul's Memorial Church to come out and give us their support in this and help us make it the most successful sale we have ever had.

The proceeds of this sale are to be used for our choir and all ought to take an interest therein. Remember the Rector's sermon on "Putting your hand to the plow." This is the opportunity for so doing, as our choir is in need of new vestments. Remember our rummage sale about the first week in November. If anyone has rummage kindly give their addresses to any of the Dorcas members.
They will send for it on the day of the sale.

K. JILLARD.

SOCIAL CHAPTER

Girls and girls—oh, what a bevy! They certainly did heed our call and were well rewarded. Fun—we had heaps! All the dancing, singing and laughing to our hearts' content. Our business, however, was not neglected, and oh! what plans.
We expect to do something worth while, something that will help up not only socially but spiritually. Something that will make us feel like real girls.

The Rector has a splendid plan for a Girls' Friendly, and we certainly hope every girl in St. Paul's will co-operate and go to the work with a vim. From our meeting on Friday it looks as though we were going to accomplish a great deal. All the girls, young and old, are ready with their help and suggestions.

Come along, girls, we need your help.

M. N. S.

TABLOIDS

Ask Charlie Mohr: "Who do dot?"

Who cut the grass—Ella or Margaret?

Joe Gardiner is a "College Chap" now.

Bill Kohn is back again from Audubon.

Florence Robson is back from her vacation.

Maybe Edna can't play "pinochle!" She is an expert.

Did anyone say Margaret liked watermelon? No!

Ada will soon be able to tell us all about China.

Ella and Sam like the farm best of all for the holidays.

Marguerite likes Pitman, but she thinks Brooklyn is better.

Did anybody see Howard at the shore? Well, he was there.

Emma, Dorothy and Anna were all shining at the picnic.

Ask Charlie to let you join that Club he joined at the shore.

Ida isn't our only engaged girl; we hear rumors of several others.

Joe Connors and Laura Devir helped swell the crowds at Cape May.

Billy Watson is back again after his splendid vacation in Virginia.

Helen, too, although a few weeks later, skipped gaily over our lonely paths.

Behold, who should we see smiling from out the wilds of Wildwood but Nita.

Bertha Grosscup has joined the nursing staff of one of our prominent hospitals.

Some of the young men of St. Paul's certainly like burnt cork on their charming faces.

Every once in a while we got a peep of Mae Johnson at camp meeting down at Pitman.

We all hope that Blanche and Edna Cohill haven't got lost in the jungle of Blackwood.

Did you ever see Win Swallow play baseball? Well, you weren't to Wildwood, then.

Outside of being a little sunburnt and sleepy after his swim, Jim Aikens felt fine at Wildwood.

Cora has joined the Girard Estate Throng. Now she is near us, maybe we will see more of her.

Not only would Edna feel lost without her little umbrella, but some other excursionists would get wet.

Every once in a while we catch a glimpse of our Motor Queen, but we wish she would come home again.

Jim Johnson's favorite pastime is to snap something funny on the golf links of the Haddon Country Club.

Mrs. Montgomery is the best hostess I know of. You should just see Mr. Montgomery and Mr. Aikens swim.

Tabloids Continued on Page 7

THE JUNIOR CONGREGATION

As we go to press we learn that the following members of the Junior Congregation have taken out weekly envelopes for the regular support of the church:

Ray Rosenfelt
Laura Bugbee
Elizabeth Cucknell
Elizabeth Gardiner
Jean Gardiner
Ruth Hartley
D. Cortlandt Montgomery
Chester Norton
Richardson Lau
Mary Gray
Samuel Rosenfelt.

Two other members, Randall and Robert Skillen, have been for several years contributors through the envelopes, and, of course, many of those whose names are given above have been contributing to the church in various ways, but the weekly envelopes constitute a method by which they can help the church more than by the scattered offerings given from time to time.

Our next issue will contain the names of more members of the Junior Congregation who have become regular helpers.

The vestry of the church has provided specially printed envelopes for the use of the Junior Congregation.

TABLOIDS—Continued from Pg. 6

The Dorcas is back again. They are working hard and accomplishing lots. Some of the other guilds had better take pattern from them.

That picnic! If you weren't there and want to know about it, ask Mr. Lynch, who, by the way, is our new president for the S. S. T. A.

Watch out for that little Invitation, and don't make a "date for Wednesday the Thirteenth. We need every one in St. Paul's, and who is interested in St. Paul's, to come down and see us.

Did you hear about that Tennis Club? They were a busy lot all summer. Jean, our sportsman, was there in full force. Bertha, the studious, gained herself a record at Strawberry. Florence was quite delighted but tired at the end of her day's work. Margaret and Marjorie are not to be excluded from the list. Did you hear anything about their winter plans? Better listen, then.

EXTRACT

A most touching thing occurred to me a week ago. The Japanese who works in my yard (garden) is a treasure. He worships God—but knows little yet of Christianity—he says he is too old (40 years). For some months past he has been at odd times making models of Hawaiian canoes with outrigger and paddle, all beautifully carved. I saw him making an exceptionally large and beautiful one. I asked him what it was for. He said: "Bime by I tell you." When it was finished he brought it to me and said: "I give this to church." I said, "What church?" He said, "The big church." He had put his best labor, his best thought, all his skill on this canoe, and he wanted to give it to God and place it in the church as the best he could do.

On Friday afternoons in Lent we have a children's service. The cathedral is filled with our schools and children of the Parish. I always make the address. I took into the pulpit the canoe, covered with a cloth. I told them about offerings, read to them about the "willing offerings" to the Tabernacle. Then told them of the giving of the best of David, who would not give that which cost him nothing, etc., etc. Then I told them of my Japanese man and how he worked to make this offering of the very best he could do. I told them how he toiled and how he would not tell me what he was doing it for. Every child was on the qui vive to see what I had under the cloth. Then I uncovered it—held it aloft and told them that I had, after it was given to me, come and presented it on the altar of God.

Then I went on to apply the lesson. That they should give their best. Not the remnant, but the best of their skill and power and possessions, and then pointed out that they would do this if they gave their hearts. If they loved they would give their best. I will send you a picture of the man and the canoe some day.

VOLUME IX

NUMBER 2

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

EMPLOYMENT COMMITTEE

So many cases of need for work or workers are brought to the attention of the Rector that he thinks it might be a good plan to have a committee appointed who would help him to take care of these needs. Such a committee must be selected with great care, for their work would be of a confidential character, and only persons whose nature "invites our confidence" could be asked to serve. Let us hear what you think about it.

ABOUT THIRTY DOLLARS NEEDED

The Rector has two special needs which he takes this opportunity of bringing before the parish.

The first is the need of placing a valve in the main steam pipe in the basement so that the vapor from the furnace will rise up into the study on the second floor of the parish house. At present the vapor, during the day-time, when no steam is up in the furnace, spreads throughout the building. About $30 would remedy this and make the study comfortable.

Closely akin to this is the second need. Last June there was graduated from the Widener Memorial School a young man who, on account of an accident in his infancy has grown up crippled in both feet and right hand. He has the use only of his left hand, and can talk only with great difficulty. He was graduated at the head of his class in shorthand and stenography, but that is as far as the school could carry him. It could not provide him work. He was confirmed three years ago, when he was fifteen, and is a devout communicant of the church. The Rector of St. Paul's has done everything in his power to help this most worthy man to secure a permanent position, but owing to the infirmities mentioned above he has not yet been successful. In the meanwhile the Rector is giving him employment, at his own expense, in helping with the correspondence, records and other routine matters which take up so much time in the study of a modern church clergyman. The Rector believes that there are persons who, if they knew this young man and came under the influence of his really fine character, would be glad to help out in providing the expense of keeping him, for a while, in the Rector's study, as secretary and stenographer.

Both these needs go together—the study is not comfortable without the change in the heating pipe, and the effectiveness of a modern church is much increased when the routine work of a clerical nature is taken from the minister's hands.

St. Paul's Men's Club

"To Do Things for St. Paul's"

St. Paul's Men's Club is now a realized fact, and stands upon its feet, forty strong.

Conceived by the Rector, as a body that would bring into a common fellowship all the men of the parish, men of all shades of opinion upon all sorts of subjects, the club has for its motto "To Do Things for St. Paul's."

Two meetings of the Committee on Preliminary Organization and four of the club itself have been held. At the first club meeting Hon. Harry Phillips, of London, England, delivered a stimulating address upon "Higher Ideals." Bishop Darlington, of Harrisburg; Mrs. Edwin C. Grice and Mrs. E. H. P. Burns gave entertaining but convincing talks upon Woman Suffrage at the second meeting. On October 27th Rev. Edwin M. Frank, Rector of the Church of the Advent, spoke upon "Some Aspects of the Present War in Europe." The speaker showed himself such a close student of Germanic ideals and methods, and demonstrated such a keenly intimate, but impartial, appreciation of "Kultur" that the talk, with subsequent discussion, continued with unabated interest until 10.45 o'clock.

The annual meeting of the club, on November 10th, was enlivened by the address of Dr. Riley M. Little, secretary of the Society for Organizing Charity, upon "Social Preparedness for National Defense." The vigorous English and telling periods of the speaker kept his auditors "on the trigger." At this meeting the club was fully organized and officers elected for one year were installed as follows: President, Peter A. Lynch; first vice president, James M. Hazlett; second vice president, Dr. John Wilkinson, Jr.; secretary, Frank W. Melvin; financial secretary, Robert W. Montgomery; treasurer, John W. Hughes; spiritual adviser, Rev. Joseph H. Earp;

Board of Governors—Thomas S. Boyle, chairman; Samuel J. Buck, Jr., Maurice Crean, Eugene F. Gillin, Frank W. Livezey and the special officers.

Under the auspices of the club a big First Annual Men's Parish Dinner will be held on Wednesday evening, December 8th. Tickets are one dollar. Dress will be informal; a first class entertainment is being provided, and speakers of prominence will be present. Tickets soon may be obtained of any member of the following Men's Parish Dinner Committee: S. J. Buck, Sr., John S. Bruder, Maurice Crean, Joseph W. Gardiner, John W. Hughes, J. M. Hazlett, F. W. Melvin, Robert J. Skillen and Thomas S. Boyle, chairman.

Thus far the meetings of the club have been full of life, vigor and interest. Everybody who has joined is glad of it. Everyone who wants to promote harmony, cordiality, good will and a better understanding among male members and the friends of this big parish will find, in the Men's Club, congenial surroundings and a hearty welcome. Let us all encourage this promising plan—"To Do Things for St. Paul's."

A NEW ORGAN

By the kindness of Mrs. Harry Watson an organ has been placed in the room occupied by the Dorcas Society, the Girls' Friendly and the Beginners' Department of the Sunday-school. The Beginners, especially, find this organ indispensable to their work, and we thank Mrs. Watson for her generous gift.

It was a pleasure to have Miss Ada Whitehouse, a trained nurse in the Episcopal Hospital at Wuchang, China, with us for a few Sundays. She is a sister of Mrs. Clara Norton, whom she was visiting.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

We are started for good now. All our girls' organizations have been welded into one great society, which meets on Friday evenings. The plan is to have, once a month, a brief devotional opening all together, after which we separate to the various guild rooms. On other evenings the various parts of the Friendly meet entirely by themselves. Miss Kampen, with her flock of youngsters, assisted by Miss Hazzard and Mrs. Slayden, toil away in one room. Miss Cohill in another room, leads the "St. Mary of Bethany" girls. Last, but not least, the older girls retire to their room. There—oh, my!—what plans, suggestions, scraps, laughs and what-not ensue!

For three months we are on probation, and during that time we are going to begin real things. The first Friday evening of the month will be an "Important Business" meeting, followed by a social good time. The other three nights of the month there will, we hope, be gymnasium classes, dramatic, dancing and embroidery classes. We had a big crowd at our "Candy Pull" and all our guests were certainly rewarded. Friday, the 19th, everybody is welcome with their 15c, to our Big Party.

M. W. S.

MUCH CREDIT DUE

Congratulations are extended to Mr. James M. Hazlett upon his election as Recorder of Deeds. During the campaign which has recently closed it was a constant source of satisfaction to note that although Mr. Hazlett has long been in public life, there was not a breath of criticism uttered against him personally. Mr. Hazlett's force of personality will be felt in the Councils of St. Paul's and we welcome him into that more active relationship which was necessarily kept in abeyance during the campaign. Certainly nothing could have been more in keeping with good taste and true regard for the House of God than the manner in which our men who were actively in the political fight refused to bring their contest into the church.

We are sorry that our good friend Frank Jillard is on the sick list again, and hope he will soon be about. He is needed in the Men's Club, where he is one of the "live wires."

It is required that all matters intended for publication be in the hands of the Editors on or before the 25th of each month.

TO OUR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS.

Through the kindness of friends in the business world we are able to publish and circulate "The Parish Chronicle."

We would therefore ask our people to kindly study our advertising columns and patronize our advertisers, always remembering to mention "The Parish Chronicle."

This is a fair request, we think, and we hope our people will help us, help themselves, and help our advertisers.

THE RECTOR'S LETTER

My dear Friends:

There are two subjects which claim a place in my letter at this time.

First, the Advent Preaching Mission. All over our country the pulpits of the Episcopal Church will unite in calling men to repentance, to fellowship with Christ, and to lives of righteousness. This will be during the first two weeks in Advent. In St. Paul's it will be the first week, from November 28th to December 6th. This is distinctly a spiritual event. There will be no outward show about it—no noise or fussiness. In St. Paul's, at least, we will try to ignore machinery and committees and "arrangements" as far as possible, so that we may depend more upon the Spirit of God. My faithful friends, I count on you to rally as never before in your lives to this challenge to your faith and zeal. If ever the world needed a fresh baptism of the spirit it needs it now.

The other event is the Men's Dinner to be given under the auspices of the Men's Club, on Wednesday, December 8th, at 7 o'clock. We have looked forward for a year to this annual dinner and now we should all work to make it a social success. There will be distinguished speakers—prominent in church and State. Every man in St. Paul's should attend—that goes without saying—and each should invite one or more of his friends. The tickets have been kept at a low price—$1.00 being agreed upon as the lowest price at which a dinner of this kind could be served. We are all at liberty to extend the invitation to our friends. Let us rally about this social event and try to make it a step in bringing about that spirit of good fellowship among men which counts for so much in our struggle in life.

May God bless us in our efforts and give us success for His Name's sake.

Faithfully yours,

JOSEPH H. EARP.

CONGRATULATIONS

The Teachers' Association passed a resolution of congratulation to Mr. Boyle, the superintendent of our Sunday-school, upon his appointment to the Board of Education of the city. The school, by private subscription, presented Mr. Boyle with flowers when he was sworn in. He was appointed to the committees on Elementary Schools, Property and Supplies. It is evident to any one who has eyes to see and is willing to use them that St. Paul's has in its superintendent a man of very unusual ability. To have his co-operation, backed up as it is by a deep love for the church, is a blessing which would probably be recognized in a larger parish more generously than it is in St. Paul's. But that is true of men of force in any community, and we believe that Mr. Boyle does have a very large and increasing circle of friends who recognize him and his work for St. Paul's at their true worth.

OUR CHURCH FINANCES

Some information concerning the present financial condition of our parish will be helpful in forming plans for increasing the income. From the Accounting Warden's monthly reports to the vestry we take the following items.

Regular account:

Receipts for month (Sept. 16 to Oct. 20)	$289.21
Expenditures	282.53

$6.68

This reduces our deficit to.....	$818.29
Rectory Fund	$898.92
Endowment Fund	3720.65
Parish Building Furnishing Fund.	82.36

In this "Chronicle" will be found an article, written by Mr. W. C. Butler, a member of the Finance Committee, giving some useful directions for placing your money in the weekly envelopes.

THE CHANCEL CHAPTER

The Chancel Chapter was organized last spring with the Rector as director. Miss Kampen as secretary and Miss E. Cohill as treasurer.

The duties of this guild, as the name implies, are to take care of the altar linens, flowers, etc., of the church.

The Sunday-school and some of the guilds give donations toward payment of the expenses incurred. It is urged that more individuals become interested and give $1.00 or 50c toward flowers (as a memorial, if you wish) and for a certain definite Sunday. Donations for memorial flowers were given by Mrs. Donovan and Mr. John W. Hughes in October. Miss Ethel Denney, who has just been bereaved by the death of her mother, wishes to place some flowers upon the altar in her mother's memory upon Thanksgiving Day. No other dates in November have as yet been taken.

It has been decided that more than one person may have flowers on the altar on the same day, so you may select a day that is nearest an anniversary which you wish to keep. As a rule the flowers for each Sunday cost one dollar; but it is quite proper to give either more or less than that amount.

If you wish to have the flowers placed as a memorial on any Sunday, please speak to the Rector about it.

E. W. K.

At the time of our Parish Anniversary the Rector appointed a Committee on Parish History, consisting of the Rector, Mr. William W. Knox, Mr. Albert E. Holloway, Dr. William Z. Suplee and Miss Thornton. This committee will be glad to receive bits of lore concerning the earlier history of the parish. Mr. Holloway, especially, has been taking an interest in this matter and the results of the committee's work will be valuable in days to come.

YOUR ATTENTION

Suggestions to members of St. Paul's Church who are contributors or who intend to contribute towards payment of its expenses through the envelope system.

First, remember that the church has no pew rents and therefore every seat is free, not only to members, but also to strangers who may attend the services, and with this in mind decide as to the largest amount you can give every Sunday towards the expenses of the church, and give generously even if you have to practice self-denial in order to do so.

Second, name the amount you are giving, or will give, either to the Rector, Accounting Warden or Finance Committee, so that correct accounts can be kept between you and the church.

Third, try to be present at one service, at least, each Sunday, and place your envelope in the offertory plate so that it may be offered up to God; but if unable to be present at a service on any Sunday or Sundays be careful to remember when present at a service that the envelope for the Sundays you have been absent are to be placed together with that of the Sunday, when present, in the offertory plate, so as to be then offered up to the Heavenly Father.

Fourth, if you place in your envelope an amount of money (small or large) intended for any special purpose, be careful to place in your envelope a written memorandum of what the amount is for, otherwise it will have to be entered on the envelope book as a credit to your envelope subscription.

Fifth, when the envelope year ends (September 30th of each year) and you have to pay a deficit for the year, do not place the amount due in an envelope for the new envelope year unless you attach a memorandum that the amount is for full or part payment of your deficit, as without such memorandum the amount will be credited on the envelope book as a payment in the new envelope year's account. An amount placed in the old year's envelope would be entered on the envelope book as being full or part payment of the deficit.

Sixth, try to have no deficit in your envelope contribution. The church needs your offering and needs it to be paid regularly. Your consistent weekly attendance at the Sunday services and consequent remembrance of your weekly envelope contribution will prevent the accumulation of a number of small weekly arrearages until the sum total is so large that it is found to be difficult to pay without a great sacrifice and in some cases not paid at all.—A Member of the Finance Committee.

THE BEST INVESTMENT

A good Congregational brother prints this on his parish calling-card. I like it; don't you?

"Do You Make the Best Investment of One-seventh of Your Time?

ON SUNDAY JESUS WAS NOT

"Absence on Sunday Equals a Vote against the Church."

"Come to church." John 20: 19-26 is an account of the first Christian prayer-meeting. Thomas was absent. Perhaps it rained, or he was tired, or didn't feel well. What happened?

"(1). He missed seeing Jesus. (2) He missed the gift of the Holy Spirit. (3). He lost faith in Christianity."—Presbyterian Ignatius in Living Church.

Our Junior Congregation is under obligation to Mrs. S. S. Myers, the mother of Mrs. Ernest M. Vail, for a contribution of five dollars toward the work of the Junior Congregation.

The Rector and Mrs. Earp had the pleasure of meeting Mr. and Mrs. Myers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vail some weeks ago.

TABLOIDS

How's Jim, Bella?

Sam is some chauffeur.

Bill Watkens still visits us.

Ask Edna how she likes work.

At last our Friendly has started.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyle are home at last.

Who's going to Mr. Lynch's "stag"?

Leona Seaman is our new secretary.

Marjorie Earp is a Wellesley student now.

Walford, Jim and John are the Jolly Trio.

Florence Holmes is some "Sis Hopkins."

I wonder where Blanche and Bill are these days.

Anyone need an instructor? Call on Charles, Jr.

Joe likes to dance, but, best of all, he likes to sing.

We are on probation, but only for three months.

Ida and Ronald are still living in preliminary bliss.

Teachers' meetings changed to the first Monday night.

Ada got along fine until her candy went back to sugar.

Alice likes to be quiet at our meetings. You ask her.

Laura is back to our Guild again. Maybe we aren't glad.

Margaret and Ella are our old standbys—always on the job.

The Dorcas is still working. They had a splendid cake sale.

Whenever you take Howard out to luncheon give him squab.

Anna, Nita and Helen are spreading their minstrel fame abroad.

Basketball is starting. Hurry up, boys, and help us. We need you.

Jim Johnson was one of Mr. Smith's guests at the Adelpia on the 2d.

Bertha Grosscup is our nurse and Bertha Kampen our Kindergarten teacher.

The Tennis Club is still booming. There is a party on for the 16th. Going?

How about those young ladies and their Hallowe'en party at Dorothy Livezey's?

Boys, you better come out to Sunday-school. We can find an "interesting" class for any age.

Hosts of new girls come out on Friday nights. Why don't some others take pattern from them?

Do you belong to that sewing circle. Bessie Sheehan only gives us a glimpse of her once in a while.

Edna Kampen has her hands full with her tiny youngsters, but Margaret Hazard helps her wonderfully.

THE CANDIDATES' BRANCH OF THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

First a little history of our organization.

On October 8th Miss Wilson, the diocesan president of the Girls' Friendly Society, came to speak to the girls, and with her help the Rector organized a branch of the Girls' Friendly Society, with a candidates' branch for the younger girls in the church.

On October 15th Mrs. Speise spoke to all the girls about her interesting work in the Friendly at St. Jude and the Nativity Churches. This was our first regular meeting. There were eight candidates present (that only includes the girls between five and twelve years of age).

On October 29th twenty happy girls came masked and all had a thoroughly good time playing games and later eating the usual Hallowe'en goodies.

Those who will direct the girls are looking forward to a very promising future for the candidates' branch of the Friendly Society in St. Paul's. The children have already become interested and enthusiastic workers for their society. As candidates they shall practice the ideals of the Friendly in order to become true, loyal Friendly Girls in the future. A hearty invitation is extended to all girls between 5 and 12 years of age. Come next Friday evening at 7.30.

RECEPTION TO PARENTS

On the evening of October 27, 1915, the Geo. C. Thomas Guild for Boys had as their guests their parents and friends. An evening was well spent in an exhibition of conducting a meeting, and a drill with new uniforms and guns under the able direction of Mr. Victor Clark. The boys are proud of their accomplishments and yearly celebrate by an anniversary showing what is being done by Messrs. Eugene F. Gillin and Robt. J. Skillen, directors.

Prominent speakers addressed the boys, followed by a mixed musical entertainment and refreshments. The Guild gave a larger part of the entertainment, assisted by able talent.

Parents and caretakers are invited to all meetings and view what is being proposed for your boy. Help our good Rector in the making of Christian men as Jesus Christ would have them be.

Rev. Mr. Earp has plans which will make the boys more of a useful factor in St. Paul's parish, and with the encouragement of the parents of not only attending the meetings, but in being present at church service, also Sunday-school, will assist our rector in advancing the boys' welfare

BASKETBALL

The Rector has stirred up considerable enthusiasm over basketball, and is getting a number of teams organized. In fact, there will be a chance for every one in the parish who cares to play, provided he will give his name to the Rector.

The first game of the season was a match between the Choir and the George C. Thomas Guild. It was played off on Tuesday, November 2d, and resulted in a score of 10 to 7 in favor of the Guild. The line-up was as follows:

CHOIR

Forwards: Sheehan, C. Pelletreau.

Centre: George Thompson.

Guards: Norton, Swan.

GUILD

Forwards: Lau, Brooks.

Centre: W. Evensen.

Guards: Henzler, Elverson.

A second game between these teams on the 9th resulted in a victory for the Guild of 20 to 6.

TABLOIDS—Continued.

Did you ever go to a candy pull? Better have one down at St. Paul's kitchen. They are great sport.

We have three new pairs of sisters in our midst—Misses Evensen, Seaman and Anderson, to say nothing of the single young ladies.

Jean and Florence still help to fill Mr. Hughes' interesting class. Why don't they come out some other times, I wonder?

NUMBER 3

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

TEACHERS ATTENTION!

The regular meetings of the "Teacher's Association, hereafter will be held on the Second Monday evening of each month at 8.15. It was decided at the last meeting of this Association (held on Monday evening Nov. 8th, 1915) to invite representatives from the classes in the Sunday School to participate in these meetings. The representatives, four in number, are to be chosen by the members of the various classes and are as follows: One from the girl's classes one from the young women's classes, one from the boy's classes and one from the young men's classes.

We hope to have the pleasure of welcoming these representatives at the next meeting of our Association which will be held on Monday evening, Dec., 13th, 1915.

Your Association, by resolution, has decided to take out twenty-five (25) shares of building society stock in order to create a fund which may be used to build "a Rectory for St. Paul's Church" It may be known as the "Sunday School's Rectory Fund. Messrs. Thomas S. Boyle and Samuel J. Buck have been appointed trustees of the "Fund."

We expect that the several classes will, very shortly, select the name of a "Missionary Bishop" by which; each class in the future will be known.

We beg to announce that the proceedings of the "Teacher's Association" will from time to time be reported to the "Parish Chronicle."

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

SENIOR AND JUNIOR CHAPTERS

The next stated meeting of St. Paul's Senior Chapter Brotherhood of St. Andrew falls on December 24th, which being Christmas Eve., will doubtless cause the Chapter to change the date of meeting. Notice of such change will be sent to members before the meeting. At the annual meeting of the Local Assembly, held on St. Andrew's Day, November 30th, at the Church of St. Jude Nativity, Dr. John Wilkinson, Director of St. Paul's Senior Chapter, was elected President of the Local Assembly. The writer is somewhat in doubt as to whether Dr. John Wilkinson should receive the congratulations of the members of St. Paul's Chapter and Church, there being some question in his mind as to whether the increased labor and responsibilities pertaining to the office should be the cause of mere congratulation, but there is no doubt in his mind that the Local Assembly should be congratulated for having chosen such a man as Dr. John Wilkinson as their President. He brings to the office powers of body and mind that few men possess and which when added to a wide experience in speaking to and touching the hearts and minds of men must make his administration of the office a successful and enduring one.

Would it not be a graceful act on the part of the members of St. Paul's Chapter to try make the Chapter greater in number and more active in Prayer and Service so that the new President of the Local Assembly may feel that he has back of him the power that a strong working Chapter alone can give.

W. C. B.

At a Stated Meeting of the Vestry held Wednesday Evening November 17, 1915 a Resolution was passed directing the Rector and Finance Committee to request the different societies of the Church and the Sunday School to try to make the Christmas offering a large one, with the view of having sufficient funds to meet the current expenses of the Church.

It is hoped that the Members of the Congregation will also generously respond to the request contained in this resolution.

IF CHRIST WERE HERE TONIGHT

If Christ were here tonight and saw me tired,
And half afraid another step to take,
I think He'd know the thing my heart desired,
And ease my heart of all its throbbing ache.

If Christ were here in this dull room of mine,
That gathers up so many shadows dim,
I am quite sure its narrow space would shine,
And kindle into glory around Him.

If Christ were here I might not pray so long;
My prayer would have such little way to go;
T'would break into a burst of happy song,
So would my joy and gladness overflow.

If Christ were here tonight I'd touch the hem
Of his fair seamless robe and stand complete
In wholeness and in whiteness; I who stem
Such waves of pain to kneel at his dear feet.

If Christ were here tonight I'd tell him all
The loads I carry for the ones I love.
The blinded ones who grope and faint and fall,
Following false guides nor seeking Christ above.

If Christ were here! Ah! faithless soul and weak,
Is not the Master ever close to thee?
Deaf is thine ear, that can't not hear him speak;
Dim is thine eye, His face that cannot see.

Thy Christ is here, and never far away,
He entered with thee, when thou camest in;
His strength was thine through all the busy day,
He knew Thy need, He kept Thee pure from sin.

Thy Blessed Christ, is in Thy little room,
Nay more, the Christ Himself is in thy heart;
Fear not, the dawn will scatter darkest gloom
And Heaven will be of Thy rich life a part.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The joining of the various guilds into one great society has thus far been a great success and we hope it will still continue and increase not only in the great friendships it has already made for many but also the pleasures and various other things that have been enjoyed.

Miss. Kampen assisted by Mrs. Slayden and Miss. Hazzard labor for the interests of the younger set of children while Miss. Cohill takes charge of the girls of "St. Mary of Bethany" guild. Miss Sutcliffe has under her charge the older girls and oh!—what times we do have.

The first Friday evening of the month is "Business Meeting" and at its close we pass the rest of the evening away with a social good time. We have planned a night for gymnasium classes also embroidery classes. Our first lesson or class was held on Friday Evening Nov. 26. We expect to learn a number of new things thanks to the kindness and good nature of Miss. Richardson. Mrs. Boyle is also going to make our Friendly Society a real success by aiding us with a dramatic and dancing class.

On Friday Evening Nov. 19 we held our "Thanksgiving Party" which proved to be a great success owing partly to the committees appointed for entertainment and eats. Oh! my what good eats. We also enjoyed the Solo which was given by Miss. Ada Norton.

Anyone desiring to belong to our Friendly is welcome to come and join us any Friday evening and receive full particulars regarding same and we trust that the good work that has been started will still continue and grow before our three months probation is expired.

DEAR FRIENDS:

Man's life may be divided into two mental states—that of looking forward and that of looking backward, and we of St. Paul's are at present in just that condition. The Preaching Mission, with Rev. Mr. Richardson as the preacher, is still fresh in our minds and will leave its impress upon the religious life and attitude towards the Church of all those who attended the Mission services. The keynote of the sermons and subsequent instructions was taken from the tenth verse of the 143d Psalm, the Prayer Book version being "Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth Thee, for Thou art my God," and King James' Bible version being, "Teach me to do thy will, for Thou art my God," the emphasis being placed upon the words "Teach" and "my God."

We were reminded of the fact, if we had forgotten it, that Christ's Church is a "Fellowship," the foundation of which is Love; love for one another and for all men and women, whether in or out of the Church, and also that the religion of Christ consists in the putting aside of all selfishness and self will and in taking in their place the duty of consideration of any service for others.

Time and space will not permit me to go more fully into what was spoken and taught, but I feel sure that it will not be taken amiss if I say here and now that it was self-evident through all the services that those present were impressed by the kindly personality and gracious words and manner of the preacher, Rev. George Lynde Richardson, who gave his time and abilities so unstintingly to the Mission Services in St. Paul's and that each of the congregations feels that the sincere thanks of our Church are due to him and that they should be conveyed to him as soon as a suitable opportunity occurs. That illness was the cause of the enforced absence from the Mission Services of our Rector, Rev. Joseph H. Earp, was regretted by all and their sympathy went out to him confined as he was to his home.

In thus looking backwards, however, the thought arises in one's mind as to what the results of the Mission are to be to the people of St. Paul's. Will the words which have been spoken prove to be merely "words," or will we, because of their pressure upon us, re-consecrate ourselves to the service of our Lord and his Church? Will we put away from us as a hideous thing all selfishness, self-will, pride of body.

THE PARISH CHRONICLE

heart and mind and every feeling of resentment and do only that which is pleasing to God? Will we take as our prayer, "Teach me to do Thy Will, for Thou art my God"?

It does not do, however, to content ourselves with simply looking backwards. We sing in one of our hymns, "Go forward, Christian soldier," and forward we must look and go. The Israelites of old, after the exodus from Egypt and their subsequent long wanderings in the Wilderness stood on the borders of the promised land; forgotten were the privations they had undergone. A new era was opening before them and they looked forward to the fulfilment of the promises of Jehovah made to their forefathers. So we of St. Paul's are looking forward to a brighter and better future; a future filled with possibilities of increased opportunities for individual self-denial and service; for increased attendance upon Church services, and for greater financial contributions to meet the current expenses of the Church.

Mingled with these thoughts and consequent hopes there comes the recollection that in a few weeks the Church will bid us to celebrate the "Feast of the Nativity of our Lord." Each of us will then hear the words "Merry Christmas" springing from the lips of loved ones, friends and even mere acquaintances. They will be flashed by cable and wireless across the oceans; telegraphs, telephones, ships and trains will convey the Christmas message from points near and far. Perhaps the unhappy warring nations of the world may recognize the sweet spirit of Christmas and end for a little while the slaughter and maiming of human kind. What a wonderful entrancing thing was the birth of the Infant Jesus!
What a more wonderful thing was the development of that little child, from babe to boy; from boy to man (divinity and humanity in one body), until in the fullness of time he became the willing sacrifice for the sins of the whole world!

May I say to you, dear friends, do not consider the day as merely "Merry Christmas," but let us try to make it a "Happy Christmas" for ourselves and others, in doing which we will remember the words of Jesus: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren ye have done it unto me."

Then we shall be able to sing with exceeding great joy the song the angels sang when Jesus was born, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good-will toward men."

Yours in fellowship, which is Love,

WILLIAM C. BUTLER

A REVIEW BY REQUEST

The request has been made that I give The Chronicle an outline of the sermons and instructions delivered during the week of the Advent Mission, November 28th to December 5th, in St. Paul's, and I do so willingly. My gratitude for the cordial reception and hospitality shown to me puts me in debt to the congregation, and if the following synopsis should prove helpful, I shall be the more glad.

On Sunday evening, November 28th, the thought for the week was indicated in the text, Psalm 143:10 (Prayer Book version) "Teach me to do the thing that pleaseth Thee, for Thou art my God." We must first of all go back to the fundamental thing, our conception of God Himself. The Old Testament calls Him "the living God"; the New Testament says "God is love." Can I say that this living and loving God is "My God"? If I can say that, I am bound to say "Teach me," for to please God is the greatest task of life. Nothing pleases God but goodness. The Mission is to be a teaching Mission. The instruction was on prayer in Christ's name, which was shown to be prayer in accordance with the mind of Christ, illustrated by the permission of a business firm to an agent to sign the firm's name.

On Monday evening the subject was Sin, which was defined as "the placing of selfishness and self-will above the claims of love and duty." The text was Rom. 5:12, "Sin entered into the world." This is a fact, however we account for it. The question is, "Shall it remain in the world"? The answer was given in the sermon Tuesday night on "Behold the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world." God's purpose is that sin be taken away; Christ's coming was "for us men and for our salvation." His mighty task was to reverse the process by which selfishness and self-will are placed above the claims of love and duty. The cost was a supreme self-sacrifice, and as we share that sacrifice we are brought into harmony with the will of God. The instruction on the Church showed that Our Lord intended to leave in the world the most potent agent possible to fight against selfishness and self-will, and the agent He chose was a living fellowship to men and women, His Church. This is the divine society, universal, for all men and all ages. Division and sect spirit defeat the purpose of the Church which is to draw all men into the family of God, as children of one Father.

The following evening Salvation was still further defined. The text (St. Luke 1:74, 75, "That we being delivered—might serve") was shown to mean that salvation lies in deliverance from the bondage of selfishness and sin in order to serve God. The modern word for salvation is efficiency. It means ridding men of their weaknesses and handicaps, and giving them strength for the task of life.

Thursday night the sermon was on the motto of the Mission, "Christ the Light of the World." (St. John 8:12.) There are four great questions man needs to have answered: What God is, what man is, what man's duty is to God, and what man's duty is to his fellowman. In Jesus Christ every one of those questions was finally and authoritatively answered. What Jesus was God is, and what Jesus was man may be. He is "the Light that lighteneth every man." In the instruction it was brought out that Church people do not think nor speak of "joining the Church." More correctly we say that we are born into the Church in Baptism.

Friday night the parable of Judgment in St. Matthew 25:31-end, was expounded, the chief points being that there is no middle ground between following Christ and working against Him; that the final standard by which we are judged is not orthodoxy, Church-going, sacramental membership (which are all means to an end, not ends in themselves), but helpfulness and love. In the instruction, the Holy Communion was shown to be an act expressing the deepest meaning of the Church, fellowship with God and man; and also the highest act of worship.

On Saturday the Christian life of love was enforced, based on I Cor. 13:13. The test of love is obedience, the expression of love, good-will. Sunday was a day of real inspiration because of the large congregations and hearty services. In the morning the missionary preached on "The Ideal Parish" which was shown to be characterized by blending in harmonious proportion, true worship, true fellowship and helpful service. At night the sermon was on the final and perfect expression of the love of God, Heaven. The text was St. John 14:2, and the emphasis was on trust. The key to the knowledge of Heaven is the character of Jesus Christ, and the place which He prepares must be radiant with the love that shone on Calvary.

GEORGE L. RICHARDSON

DORCAS SOCIETY

The Dorcas Society wishes to thank all who donated their rummage, and all who aided them in their work. The proceeds amounting to $103.25, was given to the Accounting Warden of the Church for current expenses.

As Advent is the beginning of the Church Year, it should follow that each succeeding year should show an improvement.

In the past year we have added three new members. Can we not do better? If any of those who attended the Preaching Mission, this past week, feel that they should do something for Christ and his Church, and are not members of our Society, now is the time for them to come and help us. There is work for us all to do, Teach me to do the things that pleaseth thee, for thou art my God.

K. JILLARD

GEO. C. THOMAS BOYS ATTEND SERVICE

On the evening of Sunday, November 14th, the George C. Thomas Guild for Boys attended the service in their new uniforms. They were under the guidance of Captain Clark. The director of the Guild, Mr. Eugene F. Gillin, and the Vice-Director, Mr. Robert J. Skillen, ought to be congratulated, along with Captain Clark, upon the success of this organization.

Why should not every boy in the Parish join it? The good influence which it has on the boys can easily be seen every week. May it continue to be successful, is the wish and the prayer of the whole Parish.

We often hear expressed the need of hassocks, or "kneelers" as they are sometimes called. More people would kneel during the prayers if these conveniences were provided. One lady has handed the Rector $2.00 to start a fund to buy them. Perhaps others will be interested in helping to make it grow.

Mr. William Thomas, Jr., who was married some time ago in the Episcopal Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany, Thirteenth Street below Spruce, to a young lady of that Parish, has been transferred to that Church. Mr. Henry Pagett, whose assistance in our choir is much appreciated, was recently transferred from St. Luke and the Epiphany to St. Paul's. "A fair exchange is no robbery."

St. Paul's Men's Club

"To Do Things for St. Paul's"

THE MEN'S DINNER

More than 300 men attended the "First Annual Dinner of St. Paul's Men's Club," held in the Parish House on Wednesday evening, December 8, 1915. Prominent officials of the city, including members of Mayor-elect Smith's Cabinet and equally prominent representatives of the city's business, professional and church life were present. A high tribute to Mr. George C. Thomas was paid in the course of a speech by Edward J. Cattell, City Statistician, and plans for the future of South Philadelphia, to an extent following the impulses given the local community through the first building up of St. Paul's, were outlined by State Senator Vare and others.

The speakers and guests of the evening included Mr. Edward J. Cattell, Rev. George C. Foley, D.D., Rev. Frank M. Ulrich, Hon. Raymond MacNeille, George D. McCurdy, Esq., Hon. John M. Patterson, Dr. Paul J. Pontius, Rev. George L. Richardson, D.D., Hon. Edwin H. Vare, William H. Wilson, Esq., Mr. J. Wellington Wood, Dr. Wilmer Krusen, Captain Harry Davis, Senator Daix and Rev. William Bamford.

The auditorium of the Parish Building was taxed to hold all of the diners. The platform and Bible class rooms to the rear were almost as crowded as the main body of the hall, which was set lengthwise with white-covered tables, glittering with polished glass and tastefully adorned with vases of cut flowers. A score of American flags, some of immense size and the greater number of them larger than the Army and Navy standards were draped and disposed about the hall, some of them hanging free from the roof beams overhead, and the largest of all spread across the side walls of the building. At the rear of the platform was an enormous blue and yellow civic flag, while St. Paul's colors and pennants were displayed wherever room could be found for them.

The arrangements for the dinner were carried out with careful attention to every detail. The men marched into the hall while a march was played on the organ, and when each diner reached his seat he found beside his plate a menu card giving the names of the speakers, and besides this again a printed leaflet with the words of the evening's songs. The tables for the committee, the speakers and other guests, were set upon the platform, round three sides of a square which faced the body of the hall. So closely packed were the diners as the dinner wore on that access to the platform for late guests became a matter both of manoeuvring and patience. The blessing was asked by the Rector.

The diners once settled, a terrible commotion began among forks and spoons; this was soon to be checked, however, by the voice of the photographer, who caused everyone to subside and sit up in his place to be taken for the dinner picture. This operation being affected after a blinding flash of light and a terrific "boom," which made the younger element, seated all by its own tables, back in the Bible class rooms, suggest that the Mexicans had invaded Philadelphia.

The menu was then attacked. It was as follows:

M E N U

Before the grapefruit was half finished clamoring was heard for songs and music. These were supplied at intervals by Mr. Kelly, pianist, and Mr. James MacCool, tenor. "America" was sung by all the diners, followed by Solos by Mr. Mac Cool and Mr. Kelly, which were some popular favorites. The real musical success of the evening, however, was the first try-out of the new "Club Song," which was sung to the tune of "Tipperary" and ran as follows:

CLUB SONG

Down to St. Paul's came a club of men from all around,
Men of note, and men of fame, and men all good and sound,
Here they gather, work to do, and this we tell to you,
So be a member, come and join them, and you'll like it too.

CHORUS

It's a short way to St. Paul's Club,
It's a short way to go.
It's a good thing to be a member,
With the fellows you all know.
Good times, good fellows, and also good
cheer,
It's a good, good thing to be a member and you're welcome here,

Having attended to the wants of the inner man Mr. Thomas S. Boyle, in a few well-chosen remarks, presented our President, Mr. Peter A. Lynch, as toastmaster.

Mr. Lynch, after extending a very cordial welcome to all, dwelt at some length on the nature, aspirations and motto of the club and paid a fine tribute to the memory of Mr. George C. Thomas and the work done by Rev. Edwin S. Carson, whose portraits were hung in the auditorium.

With the announcement of the first speaker by the toastmaster a more serious note came into the evening's fun. The speaker proved to be Mr. Edward J. Cattell, City Statistician, brilliant traveler, story-teller and man of innumerable experiences. Mr. Cattell took for his theme the life and ideals of "Mr. George C. Thomas." Mr. Cattell told of his long business association with Mr. Thomas, which although interrupted through the failure of Jay Cooke, had continued throughout forty years of life. "He was a man who loved life," said Mr. Cattell, "and through his sheer love and his sympathy for it exhibited a characteristic notable even among the great Americans of his time. If he only could be here for a moment in this wonderful gathering it would please him, I think, as well as any triumph of his lifetime, to see to what an extent the great dream of his career—the dream of human betterment and the dream of higher happiness through the Gospel of Jesus Christ has been realized in this place.

"I loved Mr. Thomas for more human attributes than one. He had, like myself, a keen sense of humor which only made his great humanism the stronger."

Mr. Cattell told a number of amusing stories, and in predicting a great future for South Philadelphia, in which he declared the Club would be a potent factor, gave some interesting statistics regarding the size and growth of South Philadelphia.

"May God bless you," he concluded, and looking about the walls of the building, "bless this great instrument for the fulfillment of His will."

The Rev. George C. Foley, D.D., was the next speaker. "When I see so many men together," said he, in part, "I covet them because there are so many things to be done in the world. There are so many 'standpatters' in the world of human achievement. Conservatism is a wonderful thing, but wonderful only when we are willing to cut ourselves loose from unhealthy traditions of the past. I believe it is a necessity in most human affairs, but like the brake on a wagon wheel, it is only of use in going down hill and not when ascending. I am personally far from being a Socialist. The Socialists have quite failed to convince men, because they don't seem to realize that the future, like the past, will evolve. But in many ways they are the finest idealists, except the early Christians, because they uphold and encourage our occasional visions of a better order of things. I am peculiarly interested to see so many men here. A body of this size, with the ideals so necessary to the development of human happiness and human well-being might well represent the very centre and source of the regeneration of an entire community."

In conclusion Dr. Foley said, "Be a great hopper—an optimist—and let each count one, and we shall have performed a great task which will turn the old world in the direction of Christianity."

The next speaker, Judge Raymond MacNeille, of the Juvenile Court, outlined the work of his special department of the Municipal Court, upholding the lesson of unselfishness, and at the same time offering sharp criticism of the social conditions which have thrust so many children beneath the power of the law. "I am frequently passing upon children," said he. "the sentences which I feel I should be passing upon society." In closing he made a strong plea on behalf of the child robbed of the opportunity to grow and develop and that the delinquent child be given a fair chance.

Mr. George D. McCurdy, President of Common Council, declared that the "Club" was a type of organization which not only made for the development of character but for material things as well. "South Philadelphia," said Mr. McCurdy, "is growing to be a wonderful place. When I look at it today I am proud to think that in twenty years in Councils there was not an appropriation passed for South Philadelphia that I did not vote for. I look forward to the time when, with subways, rapid transit, and with waterfront development South Philadelphia will claim its natural due among great communities. We are on the verge of a new era in Philadelphia, an era brilliant in promise, in which we are bound to make great strides. We must remember that we have some great traditions to support, and I beg of you not to forget that a great nation was born here."

He further stated that we ought to be especially happy because of peace and rejoice in its blessing. "God speed the Club," he said in conclusion, "and teach that which makes for manhood and character and make the motto of Philadelphia 'Home, Sweet Home.'"

H. Wellington Wood made an impassioned address in which he pleaded for human contentment with the gifts of God. He besought men to speak face to face of the good that men do each other and stand together. Mr. Wood paid a splendid tribute to the memory of Mrs. Abigail Vare and referred briefly to the ability and integrity of our fellow-member, James M. Hazlett. He hoped that the Club would prosper, that we might become a strong, healthy, vigorous organization, and asked God to bless our efforts.

Dr. Richardson paid a tribute to the memory of Mr. Thomas in declaring that he foresaw how the southern part of the city of Philadelphia would develop. He saw among other things, I suppose," said Dr. Richardson, "that the Church here would enhance property values; but above and beyond such foresight he saw that it would enhance the eternal verities of character and righteousness for which the Church stands. Dr. Richardson asked that a word of sympathy might be transmitted by the Club to Bishop Suffragan Garland in his illness and virtual exile. He dwelt upon the motto of the Club and the necessity for doing things right and under the guidance of lofty ideals. He referred to splendid service rendered the Church by Mr. George C. Thomas, Rev. Edwin S. Carson and the Rev. Joseph H. Earp in the interest of the spiritual and religious life of the community, thus enhancing the eternal values of mankind, and wished that St. Paul's might become a community centre of spiritual and religious life. Dr. Richardson spoke in glowing terms of the reception accorded him by the members of St. Paul's and counseled us to use our efforts to support high purpose and lofty ideals as Americans.

State Senator Edwin H. Vare congratulated the Club upon its splendid work and the perfectness of its organization. "South Philadelphia," said he, "doesn't start anything which it does not propose to finish. I don't care what experience others may have had, the South Philadelphians always make good."

He reviewed the effects of the recent Child Labor Law in Pennsylvania, the work of a South Philadelphian, and, like those willing to cut ourselves loose from un-who preceded him, declared that a vaster future than even its most sanguine people dreamed would fall to the lot of South Philadelphia if they only stood together. The Senator made a strong and stirring appeal to "co-operate, work in harmony," saying, "you will get what you want when you stand together."

Director-elect of Public Safety made the first public reply to his critics when he declared that as Director he was "going to show the people of Philadelphia that their confidence was justified. 'I am not going in to TRY to make good,' declared Mr. Wilson; 'I am going to MAKE good, and ask you with whom I was born and raised to help me.' He then launched into a powerful and impressive address on "Opportunity and Courage." "Opportunity," Mr. Wilson said, did not come knocking with a lantern at every man's door, but had to be sought out if necessary. "It is everywhere," said he, "and we could see it if the scales would only fall from our eyes." He then cited a few illustrations bearing on his theme and in conclusion asked men to seek the opportunity and have the courage to grasp it.

The next speaker, Judge John M. Patterson, declared "that it was a splendid thing to see men active in church who were good fathers, good husbands, good neighbors and good citizens; that the proper place for big, strong, virile men was in the Church. 'As a people come closer to God,' said he, 'so people prosper. He upheld the standards of high Christian living and unselfishness."

Dr. Wilmer Krusen, Director-elect of the Board of Health and Charities, declared "That he was not permitted to come of his own volition, but by conscription," but that he felt secure when he saw Mr. Wilson. He congratulated the Rector for being the leader of men who do things for the Church. He pledged himself, with the assistance of the citizens of Philadelphia, to do the best he could to be successful in his new office.

The next speaker, Dr. Pontius, spoke of the imperative need of co-operation in any movement to be successful. "The work of the Church," said he, "is your work, and men need your help at this time of the year to make them what they ought to be. Too many lives give forth nothing. Help the other fellow and work with him to make him physically, mentally and morally what he ought to be. Remember," declared Dr. Pontius, "that God's influence makes strong men, and carry it to the lives of other men; this is the work for your organization."

The Rector was then introduced by the toastmaster. He expressed great appreciation for the flowers sent him by the Club during his recent illness.

The Rector spoke in an impressive way of the "Duty the Church owes to the community" and the necessity for concerted action in order to develop a ring of good fellowship with all in the community. He paid an especially fine tribute to our good friend, the venerable Dr. Francis, pastor emeritus of Trinity Lutheran Church.

He extended a cordial invitation to all strangers to come and visit us and work with us. After the hymn, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" had been sung the Rector pronounced the benediction and the dinner, which with the speeches lasted over four hours, came to an end.

The members of the Club desire to express their deep appreciation and gratitude to the following who made such splendid contributions and donations to the dinner: Mrs. Boyle and Mrs. Lynch, who wrote the Club Song; N. S. Snellenburg & Co., Mr. David H. Simon, Mr. B. Simon, Mr. M. Crean, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Hazlett, Mr. Joseph Gardiner, Mr. F. Storch, Mr. James

Smith, Mr. Frank Storch and Mr. Samuel J. Buck.

The dinner has now passed into history, the memories remain, and out of these memories there comes the thought that we are "to do things for St. Paul's and multiply the influence of the Club by using God's given brain and brawn. It is for us to translate into reality achievement and experience the ideals of the Club and to bring about a realization of Christian fellowship in this community.

NUMBER 4

SUNDAY-SCHOOL ADVENT OFFERING

Our Sunday-school has forwarded to Mr. George W. Jacobs, treasurer, a check for $10.00 as an Advent offering.

A word of explanation as to the object of this offering will be of interest. Each Advent, for many years, the Sunday-schools of our Diocese have contributed all or a part of the collections during that season to some specific work, generally within the Diocese. This year the Diocesan Board of Religious Education, of which the Rector is a member, decided that the Advent offering should be divided between two objects, as follows:

First, it will be remembered that several years ago our Bishop asked that the Diocese undertake to build in six years six churches in six places where they are very much needed in the Diocese. The Diocese has nobly responded to this appeal from the Bishop, and at present we are "ahead of the game"; that is, we are building even faster than was anticipated. The Church that is to be built next is for the people of Richmond, a very densely peopled section of our city, where the mill workers are good Church workers but are unable to pay as much for the work of the Church as is needed. When they take care of the "current expenses" of their work they are doing about all that can be asked of them. The Rev. Mr. Arkin, rector of St. George's, Richmond, has been doing a splendid work, backed up by an able body of helpers. The Diocese now wants to help them build a much-needed Church. Half of our offering, therefore, is to go toward that work.

The other half is to go toward the support of the Rev. Mr. Mitman, field secretary of the Provincial Board of Religious Education. The third province of our Church comprises the Dioceses within the States of Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, and the District of Columbia.

This offering from our Parish should be distinguished from the general missionary offering which we send to the Board of Missions of the Church. That offering, amounting last year to $550.61, of which the Sunday-school contributed $500, is always divided between foreign and home missions, of which the larger part is devoted to missions under the American flag.

We hope to have the Rev. Steward U. Mitman, Ph.D., the field secretary of the Commission on Religious Education of the Third Province, speak to us some day in St. Paul's Church, and then we will no doubt feel a more personal interest in the work to which a part of our Advent offering has been devoted. Of course the ten dollars which we sent was only a part of the Sunday-school offerings during Advent, but, as the Rector has explained to Mr. Jacobs, the treasurer, our Sunday-school has taken out twenty-five shares of stock in a building and loan association with the intention of building a rectory for St. Paul's Church as soon as the funds will permit, and when that has been accomplished we will be able to do more for the work of the Church outside our own Parish. The Rector sincerely thanks his Sunday-school officers, teachers and scholars for the good work they are doing both in the Parish and for the work of the whole Church.

AN INVITATION

The following invitation is extended to the Rector and congregation of St. Paul's Church:

"The Trustees, Overseers and Faculty of the Divinity School of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Philadelphia request the honor of your presence at the inauguration of the Reverend George Griffiths Bartlett, A.B., as Dean and Professor of Homiletics and Pastoral Care, and of the Reverend George Cadwalader Foley, S.T.D., as Professor of Systematic Divinity on Tuesday morning, January the eighteenth, at 11 o'clock, in St. James's Church, Twenty-second and Walnut streets."

St. Paul's Men's Club

"To Do Things for St. Paul's"

The regular meeting of St. Paul's Men's Club, held on Wednesday evening, December 22, 1915, was addressed by Francis A. Lewis, Esq., the subject being "Some Aspects of the Divorce Evil."

The speaker avowed that the question has become an urgent and vitally important one by reason of the alarming increase in the number of divorces granted, this increase in his judgment being due largely to the ease with which divorce is obtained. He stated that statistics on the subject are more or less muddled and do not explain. "In any event," declared Mr. Lewis, "the children must be cared for, and since marriage is the foundation of the State, the children of the divorcees must not be made paupers by reason of the resulting disturbance of the family relation." "Children without parental restraint," said he, "fill the reformatories, etc., and since the State is thereby involved, divorce cannot be regarded as a private affair. Since the divorce is granted by the State, only the man and woman being represented, he felt that the Commonwealth should also be represented in order that justice might be done.

"Divorce, where the evidence is taken before a Master and in private," averred the speaker, "and where the testimony is impounded, is sought in this way largely to avoid scandal. If such hearings were given in public and the guilty party thereto exposed, fewer divorces would be asked for." "If the parties to the divorce were required by law to wait one year before marriage," said he, "I believe it would have a potent effect in restraining the desire for divorce."

"If the divorce is granted for crimes the testimony should be submitted by the Commonwealth as evidence in subsequent criminal proceedings, and the culprit punished for violation of the law. The prospect of a term in jail might not prove very attractive. This in many cases would remove the desire for divorce and act as a powerful deterrent and in time might bring about desirable and necessary reforms."

"With regard to the attitude of the Church," the speaker stated, "much mischief results from the Church mixing itself with remarriage. The Church marries once," avowed Mr. Lewis, "and gives them the blessing of the Church. The divorce, however, is granted by the civil authorities and therefore remarriage should not be made by the clergy."

"The time may not be favorable," said he, "for the enactment of legislation designed to correct the evils of divorce, but a general discussion starts people thinking, which, followed by work and action, provides the opportunity for developing a well-thought out program, which would demand that it cease and the integrity of the home preserved.

The Club extended its thanks and appreciation to Mr. Lewis for his very profitable and instructive talk.

The Club by resolution authorized the secretary to forward to Bishop Garland a night letter conveying to him the sympathy of the Club in his present illness and their best wishes for a speedy recovery.

On Wednesday evening, January 26, 1916, we expect to have representatives from the National Security League address the Club on "National Preparedness."

All members of the Parish are cordially invited to attend this meeting. THE LADIES ARE INCLUDED IN THE ABOVE INVITATION.

ATTENTION, MEN!

The Rector wishes to enroll fifty men who will each agree to serve at least one evening each month from 7 to 10.30 o'clock as the Rector's representative in having general oversight of the Parish House. Volunteers for this service are asked to give their names at once to the Rector's Church Warden, Mr. Samuel J. Buck, 2237 South Twelfth street. As soon as a sufficient number of names are handed in a meeting of the volunteers will be called and the plan fully explained. The evenings will be so arranged as to suit the convenience of each man.

"IN PASSING"

Surrounded by a large number of friends, many of whom are members of St. Paul's Church, our associate and fellow-member, James M. Hazlett was inducted into the office of Recorder of Deeds on Monday morning, January 3, 1916. The oath was administered by Judge John M. Patterson. The Bible used in this ceremony was presented to the Recorder by the Judge. Immediately after this, and in the midst of a profusion of flowers, the Hon. William S. Vare, in a few well-chosen words, presented Mr. Hazlett with a very fine hall clock, the gift of admiring friends. Mr. Hazlett, visibly affected and impressed by this evidence of friendship and esteem, thanked the donors and expressed the hope that he might be successful in his endeavor to serve the people of Philadelphia, averring that he would give his best efforts and ability to that particular end.

These formalities ended, Mrs. Hazlett's personal pride in her husband's new dignity expressed itself in a sonorous kiss! Following this a reception was held, his many friends offering their congratulations and best wishes for his success.

The many gifts sent the new Recorder were much admired, notably a small clock with two ornaments to match, from his colleagues on the Board of Viewers. Among those present from St. Paul's to wish him well were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Boyle, Messrs. Sam J. Buck, Joseph Gardiner, Peter A. Lynch, E. F. Gillen and Robert Aitkens.

May we, in passing, also offer to our fellow-member our congratulations and best wishes for a successful administration and express the hope that his life may be enriched and his experiences pleasant in his new office, and that he may continue to bring into his work in the Parish that keen interest and quiet enthusiasm which has always characterized his various activities.

KEYS TO LOCKERS

Will all those who have keys to lockers in the Parish House please return them to the Rector as soon as possible? There are nine keys in the possession of young men of the Young Men's Guild which ought to be returned or we will be put to the expense of new keys. Lockers will be rented as soon as all keys are accounted for.

IN MEMORIAM

On Christmas Day our Chancel was very much enriched by the gift of a beautiful new Bishop's Chair, made and carved by Mr. John Barbar, of Philadelphia, who has done some very fine work in Philadelphia and New York. In this Diocese his handiwork may be seen in the Altar and Reredos of the Church of the Holy Apostles, the Rood Screen of St. Luke's, Germantown, and the beautiful Choir Stalls of the Church of St. John the Evangelist at Lansdown, as well as in other important Parishes. In New York his work may be seen in the Bishop's Chair and Choir Stalls of the Cathedral of St. John the Divine.

The Chair is of dark oak, and suggests to us how much richer our whole chancel will look some day when all the furniture is of a dark color. It bears the simple inscription "To the Glory of God and in Memory of John Luther Ringwalt."

A few days after Christmas we received also a very beautiful Alms Bason, designed and made for us by J. E. Caldwell and Co., of this city. It is of dull brass, bearing on the sides of the Bason the emblems of the four Evangelists, and in the center the letters "I. H. S." The motto engraved on the rim is "It is more blessed to give than to receive." On the under-side is the inscription "To the Glory of God and in loving memory of Louisa Catharine Ringwalt."

These memorials, one in memory of her husband—a man of sterling character and generous nature—and the other in memory of a little daughter, are the gifts of Mrs.
John Luther Ringwalt, and they are especially sacred to the Rector because of two facts: first, the fact that Mr. John Luther Ringwalt, when the Rector was in charge of St. James's Church at Downingtown, Pa., presented to that Church a beautiful brass eagle lectern in memory of his sainted mother; and the other, the fact that the little one whose name the Alms Bason bears was named after Miss Louisa Catharine Ringwalt, a resident of Downingtown, whose name for many years stood for goodness and uprightness in the community in which she is so well known.

In the name of the Parish the Rector extends thanks to Mrs. Ringwalt for these precious gifts.

PARISH REGISTER

The "Parish Register" will be given in the next issue for both the past and present months; but we wish to extend our heartfelt sympathy to the families of Mrs. Mamie C. Bernard, Mrs. Annie Ewell, Mrs.
Anna P. Holson and Mrs. Hannah H.
Shields. A loving tribute should be paid to each of these good women; but their reward lies not with us, but with Him in whose care and keeping they now repose.
May God bless their families and give them strength to fight life's battles as well and bravely as did those. Love now guards them from above.

We welcome as a communicant recently received from St. Peter's Church, Mr. W.
Harlan Readling. We need you, Mr. Read-ling, and a lot more just like you, and believe that you can do a fine work for the Master, in St. Paul's, when you and those like you have found each other and band your efforts together.

My Dear Mr. Earp:

At a meeting of the Church Building Commission held today the subject of the proposed installation of a Bishop's Chair at St. Paul's Church, submitted by you on October 2d, 1915, was formally presented, and I have been directed to convey to you the

THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The Girls' Friendly is still continuing its good work and with each month we hope it will grow still more popular and that those in our Parish who have not already become interested will make inquiries and join in with our good work every Friday evening.
Our Friday evenings of each month are passed away as follows:

The first Friday we hold our business meeting and social good time; the second we have arranged for gymnasium classes, and the fourth we hold our embroidery class, while the third we have not as yet anything definite but expect in the near future to have all our plans settled.

The past month our Friendly took great pleasure and interest in making Christmas stockings for the children of the Philadelphia Hospital.

M. L. S.

THE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

The regular monthly meeting of this association was held on Monday evening,
January 10, 1916

The trustees of the "Rectory Fund" reported that they had taken out twenty-five (25) shares of stock in the Southern Boulevard Building and Loan Association for St.
Paul's Sunday-school.

It was decided to elect at a future date
the representatives from the Sunday-school to the Teachers' Association. The représentatives ought to be selected with the view of having them act as substitute teachers and eventually of becoming regular ones.
The superintendent, having worked out a plan for conducting the election, will very shortly explain the same to the Sunday-school.

The teachers are urged to decide upon the Class name and submit the same to the Rector.

The Teachers' Association desires to express its appreciation and extend a vote of thanks to all those who took part in the Christmas entertainment or assisted in trimming the trees. The committee which trimmed the trees has been reappointed to take them down.

Mr. Boyle reported that the number of subscribers through the envelope system was "very encouraging" and hoped that in the near future all members of the Sunday-school will have their names on the list.

The Girls' Bible Class has undertaken to visit the members of the Sunday-school who have absented themselves from the sessions of the school for three or more consecutive Sundays. This, of course, is only to supplement the regular visits paid by the teacher. The class will welcome any suggestions the teachers or scholars may have to offer concerning this question of visiting.

Classes Attention—Hereafter there will be published in the "Parish Chronicle," once a month, a list of the classes having an average attendance of 75 per cent. and over.
This will be called the "Roll of Honor." Of course you want to see your class's name in that list. There is only one way of helping, and that is by attending regularly.

THE CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENT

Pronounced by all who saw and heard it, the best Christmas entertainment ever given in St. Paul's Sunday-school, we take this opportunity of thanking the committee having this matter in charge and congratulate them on the very successful outcome of the same.

The committees (Mrs. Joseph H. Earp and Miss Cora Rogers, assisted by Misses Aikens, Devir and Mrs. Cardwell for the primary and intermediate departments, and Mrs. Thomas S. Boyle, Peter A. Lynch and Miss Edna Cohill, assisted by Misses Blanche Cohill, Alice Fox and Mrs. E. F. Gillin for the senior department) desire to express their appreciation and gratefulness for the splendid support and co-operation they received from those who participated in the concert. Wouldn't Christmas lose much of its joy and charm if the Christmas exercises in the Church and the entertainment given in the Sunday-school were omitted? It may be well at times to pause and take an inventory of the things which contribute so largely to the social life of the Church and to make acknowledgment to those who give of their time and ability in the service of the Church and the Sunday-school.

On Wednesday afternoon, December 29th, the primary and intermediate departments had their entertainment. The Christmas trees attracted the attention of the little tots, who were entertained by recitations, songs and plays. Many of the parents of the children were present and thoroughly enjoyed it. Each child upon leaving received a box of candy and in addition each girl received a doll and each boy a bugle.

The entertainment for the senior department was held in the evening and was very well attended. It began with a hymn, followed by prayers, hymns being sung at other intervals. The first part of the concert was devoted to recitations and songs, and a sketch, entitled "The Christmas Stocking."

The following took part in the recitations and songs:

Song by Master Chester Norton.
Recitation by Miss Ruth Hartley.
Song by Miss Ray Rosenfeldt.
Recitation by Miss Beatrice Vare.
Song by Miss Elizabeth Cucknell.

The Christmas stocking was very well done by four girls and four boys, as follows: Misses Ruth Hartley, Elizabeth Gardiner, Helen McGregor, Jenny Darrow; Masters Randall Skillen, William Renshaw, Richard Ogden, Charles Pelletreau. Query, who got the stocking?

The second part of the program was devoted exclusively to "The Christmas House Party," a musical comedy, and was accompanied by Mrs. Peter A. Lynch at the piano. It contained many amusing situations, humorous dialogues and some very pretty musical numbers. The following members of the Sunday-school took part: The Misses Bertha Kampen, Anna Christie Dorothy Livezey, Emma Aikens, Nita Livezey, Dorothy Norton, Margaret Hazzard, Anna Gillin, Helen Barnes, Lucy Brooks and Mae Johnson, Messrs. Edgar Snow, Walford Gardiner, Arthur Snow, William Manning and John Earp.

The solo numbers and the choruses were all well done, many of them having to be repeated.

The "Snow Song" seemed to be a very popular trio, and was ably rendered by Messrs. Edgar Snow, Walford Gardiner and Arthur Snow (and why wouldn't it be, with so much Snow?).

The other numbers, which seemed to make a decided hit were, the chorus, "The Social Cup of Tea," "The Modern Cook Song," rendered by Miss Kampen, and the "Constable's Song," by Edgar Snow.

Between the numbers the Rector gave an interesting talk on Christmas and said that he was very happy to see so many parents present.

The teachers and officers of the Sunday-school presented the superintendent with a beautiful Hymnal and Prayer Book, inscribed as follows:

"In remembrance to Thomas S. Boyle, from the teachers and officers of St. Paul's Sunday-school, to our beloved superintendent. Christmas, 1915."

Mr. Peter A. Lynch made the presentation speech, to which Mr. Boyle replied in a few appropriate words. At the conclusion of the concert each one received a box of candy and this ended the most successful Christmas entertainment ever given in St. Paul's Sunday-school.

TABLOIDS

Edna likes Gray.

Committees get busy.

Ask Jim about that "Smile" and the Little Basket.

Blanche and Bill have joined our engaged list.

Ask Ida about that chest. Or maybe Ronald will do.

Ella and Laura can't be beat for "Eats Committee."

The 21st is going to be some big night for the Friendly.

We have a splendid gymnasium teacher now. Come out girls.

Margaret has forgotten "Oh, Well" for a while. Did you sell it?

Did you ever see so many muffs floating around as were at Christmas.

Marjorie Earp and Joseph Gardiner were home for the Christmas holidays.

There is going to be a surprise for the third Friday. Better look out for it.

Miss Hicks and Mr. Bailey will tell you a secret about that diamond if you ask them.

Ella was out early Christmas morning and you should have seen her rosy cheeks.

Was everybody to the Friendly Party? If you were not you missed a treat. Ask Mr. Earp.

Ada Norton is now singing at Fifteenth and Mt. Vernon streets. We miss her but wish her success.

Miss Richardson holds her little sewing circle every fourth Friday. All the new stitches are taught. Maybe they aren't pretty.

Leona Seaman, our new secretary, was on the sick list for a week, as was her sister. We notice these two young ladies belong to our choir now.

Our Guild, including candidates and probationists, all joined in and helped to make Christmas stockings the week before Christmas. When finished, oh, my what a conglomeration. We had twenty-seven in all, just bulging out with toys and goodies.

How about that show. Bridget can't be beat. Oh, those fashions. Guess you know we have some chic young ladies in our midst. Those shadowgraphs were a work of art. The pianist—patience personified, and she certainly deserves credit. Last, but not least, our Coach Mrs. Boyle, is a perfect marvel for getting you out of difficulties, and some of these days a gold crown of gratitude and thanks will be her reward. Betty, Auntie, and in fact the whole cast worked very hard and from all reports they succeeded wonderfully well.

JUNIOR CONGREGATION

The Rector of one of our large city parishes was asking the other day about our Junior Congregation. What is it, and what it does.

Perhaps there are others, even in our midst, who would like to know more about it. So here is a little account of it:

The Junior Congregation is made up of those boys and girls who attend at least the morning service in the Church and contribute regularly to the support of the Church through the blue Junior Congregation envelopes. At the morning service there is a special hymn sung by the Junior Congregation and a special sermon for them. Each member has an album, and every Sunday a special stamp is given to place in the album. The picture on the stamp illustrates the Gospel for the day.

The Junior Congregation is organized on the model of the regular parish life, and is therefore a training school for the regular activities of the religious life.

The officers at present are Rector's Warden, Laura Bugbee; Accounting Warden, Chester Norton; Secretary, Richardson Lau; Vestrymen, George Thompson, Randall Skillen, Chester Norton, Cortlandt Montgomery, Robert Dunn, Samuel Sheehan, Elizabeth Gardiner, Laura Bugbee, Ray Rosenfelt, Elizabeth Cucknell, Margaret Paul, Ethel Redman.

There are three committees at work at present, one for a play to be given soon, consisting of Mary Gray, Ruth Hartley and Ray Rosenfelt; another for visiting or writing to the sick, consisting of Randall Skillen, Cortlandt Montgomery, Laura Bugbee and Mary Gray, and a third committee on sociability, consisting of Charles Pelletreau, Elizabeth Cucknell and Ruth Hartley.

The committee for visiting or writing to the sick desires to be notified of all cases of illness within the Junior Congregation.

The Junior Congregation is planning to have its own stationery and all the appliances for carrying on the regular work of the Parish. For the past year its weekday meetings have been limited to a monthly business and social meeting, but it is the hope of those in charge that there may soon be a more frequent meeting for instruction.

THE PARISH CHRONICLE

DORCAS SOCIETY

At the regular meeting of the Dorcas Society, held on Monday evening, January 3, 1916, the following officers were elected:

President, Mrs. Joseph Gardiner; vice-president, Mrs. James Aikens; secretary, Mrs. Frank Jillard; treasurer, Mrs. Frank Kapus.

A committee to draw up a set of by-laws was appointed, consisting of the following: Mrs. Joseph Gardiner, chairman; Mrs. Joseph Doughty, Mrs. Robert Montgomery, Mrs. Fred Light, Mrs. Thomas Carey.

One of the members mentioned that the Men's Club had an aim, "To do things for St. Paul's." She thought the Dorcas Society should have one too. The Dorcas Society has always done things for St. Paul's and it seemed to be the earnest wish and endeavor on the part of all present that the aim of the Dorcas Society would be "to do better things for St. Paul's" and to put more real charity into their work, remembering that charity does not always mean "giving."

Last Monday evening, January 10th, there was a very large attendance.

The new officers were installed by the Rector. An interesting evening was spent with music and refreshments. At the next meeting the Committee on By-laws will probably be ready to report, and committees will perhaps be appointed.

THE CHOIR

We are getting a splendid choir formed in St. Paul's. We are glad to have Mr. John Alden Cushing back again. We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Slayden, and Misses Helen and Leona Seaman. Mr. Boswell's voice is a great addition. Mr. Gerhart has been much missed for several weeks. Miss Hicks is back with us again after the sad loss of her mother—one of God's own saints indeed. We were afraid we would lose Miss Ada Norton (one wonders if such faithful helpers realize how much they really are appreciated—we are apt to be so unexpressive!) but we were comforted again by the sound of her sympathetic voice in the solo work last Sunday evening. We are always proud of our boys. In fact, we ought to be ten times more expressive of our real joy in having such good and faithful helpers in the service of worship. God bless His singers, and teach them to sing even more sweetly for Him.

PAID SUBSCRIBERS TO "THE CHRONICLE"

The list of those who are supporting "The Chronicle" by paying subscriptions of 50 cents per year is beginning to grow. It now includes the following persons, who have paid for one year, beginning October 1, 1915:

Mr. William C. Butler.
Dr. John Wilkinson, Jr.
Mr. Robert J. Makin.
Mrs. Joseph H. Earp.
Mrs. Frank Jillard.
Mr. Robert J. Skillen.
Mr. Eugene F. Gillin.
Mrs. Elizabeth Donovan.
Mr. William Johnson.
Mr. John Bruder.
Mr. Samuel J. Buck.
Mrs. Sarah Thompson.
Mrs. Frederick Light.
Miss Laura Henzler.
Mrs. Scott Lau.
Mr. and Mrs. James Hazlett.
Mr. John Hughes.
Mr. Vail.
Mr. John Chambers.
Mrs. J. Briggs.

Whose names can we add next month? Give your subscription to Mr. Robert J. Skillen, Business Manager.

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

THE ANNUAL SOUTHERN NEIGHBORHOOD CONFERENCE OF THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY HELD IN ST. PAUL'S PARISH HOUSE

Friday Evening, January 21, 1916

Supper was served to 120, from 6 to 7.30 P. M.

The Conference was opened at 8 o'clock with a prayer and word of greeting by the rector.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary, Miss Anna Williams.

Miss Margaret C. Maule, the chairman, called the roll by Branches. Twelve Branches were represented and a total of 155 members. Each Branch gave a written report of the work done in its Parish during the past year. Some interesting items noted from these reports: Classes in gymnastics, literature, art, sewing, cooking, millinery, raffia and reed, and in nursery (first aid). Many classes have sent rolled bandages, clothing and food to Belgium and other countries.

Miss Lillian Spiess gave a report of the Central Council meeting held at Worcester, Mass.

Miss M. Maule reported that donations for Christmas boxes valued at $244 were received from twenty-seven Branches in this Diocese. Nine Branches in the Southern District gave 185 filled stockings.

Miss Maule read a letter from Bishop Brent, describing the recent typhoon in Bontok, Philippine Islands. Also reported that six Branches of this Diocese were giving toward a Bontock scholarship—that is, paying for an Igorotte girl, Dorothea Colio.

The Branches of this Diocese reported that they had been active in using their influence (as much as women are able) toward the passage of the Keating Owen Child Labor Bill.

Miss A. Williams gave a report of the summer meetings.

It was moved and seconded that the summer meetings be resumed this year.

Miss Wilson, the Diocesan president, gave a short talk.

Mrs. C. Davis Clark, secretary of the Society of Little Gardens, spoke of the history and interesting work done by this Society and urged all who were interested to become members.

E. W. KAMPEN,

Sec. pro tem of St. Paul's Branch.

THE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

The monthly meeting of the Teachers' Association was held on Monday evening, February 14, 1916.

Hereafter monthly reports of the attendance, also the receipts of the Sunday-school, will be published in the "Chronicle."

The beginners' primary and intermediate departments are growing steadily, with the outlook very encouraging, was the report made by Mrs. Earp and Miss Rogers. A similar condition is to be found in the senior and Bible classes, where the membership and the attendance are increasing in a very satisfactory manner.

Miss Forrest, the rector's assistant, will visit the sick scholars of the Sunday-school. With respect to visiting, the rector hoped that a force might be organized in the Sunday-school which would and could visit all the members of our school.

We would again ask the teachers to select as a class name that of some missionary Bishop in order that all the classes may be known under that name by Easter Sunday.

The representatives to the Teachers' Association from the Sunday-school will, it is hoped, be elected very shortly and we are expecting to welcome them at our next meeting.

"What are we to do for the man or woman, the boy or girl in our Sunday-school who is not in sympathy with the teacher; who feels that they do not profit by attending Sunday-school," was discussed at some length.

There is still a serious need of teachers in the Sunday-school and we hope that some members of the Parish may offer their services in this splendid and inspiring work.

The total attendance in the senior and Bible classes was 696, which is an average of 74 per cent. of those enrolled. The following classes had 70 per cent. or over:

Miss Dorothy Livezey, 84 per cent.; Miss Anna Christie, 82 per cent.; Mr. Allan Sutcliffe, 82 per cent.; Mr. E. F. Gillin, 81 per cent.; Miss Edna Cohill, 80 per cent.; Miss Bella Rosenfelt, 80 per cent.; Miss Catharine Anderson, 78 per cent.; Mr. Frank Livezey, 77 per cent.; Mr. John W. Hughes, 72 per cent.; Miss Margaret Aikens, 71 per cent.; Miss Margaret Anderson, 70 per cent.; Miss May Sutcliffe, 70 per cent.; Mr. Robert Skillen, 70 per cent.

The complete report on the attendance and percentages will be found on the bulletin board in the vestibule of the Sunday-school.

St. Paul's Men's Club

"To Do Things for St. Paul's"

"South Philadelphia," declared Harry A. Mackey, Esq., "made famous the 1915 session of the State Legislature and breathed humanity into the statute books as never before, for this measure was championed by her sons." With this statement Mr. Mackey (chairman of the Commission), the speaker at the Men's Club on Wednesday evening, January 12, 1916, opened his address on "Workmen's Compensation Law."

This meeting was fairly well attended, very instructive, and was listened to with considerable interest. It is to be regretted that more men are not attending these meetings, for we are sure that they would find them very profitable and instructive.

"Legislatures," declared the speaker, "are taking a new viewpoint and we are entering on a wonderful period; a period which demands that as much consideration be given humanity as is given the vested interests, and it needs a progressive community to produce humane legislation. South Philadelphia, co-operating with West Philadelphia, was to a large degree responsible for the enactment of the 'Workmen's Compensation Law'."

The speaker averred that he had not heard one single voice of protest against this measure, and since we are living under it he would endeavor to explain the law, not defend it, as no defence was necessary.

Germany was the first country to pass laws of this character. Turkey alone of all European countries is without such a law.

Pennsylvania is the thirty-first state to adopt some form of compensation.

The idea behind the law is this, said he, "that all items of cost should be included in the manufacture of any product, and that compensation places a man at least on the same level as the beast or machine in the determination of costs. No longer can that old fellow, vested interests, rely upon the so-called three old soldiers in their endeavor to evade their responsibilities, (1) contributory negligence, (2) risk of employment, (3) negligence by fellow employee."

These can no longer be offered as arguments against recovery for injuries received in the course of daily employment. "This law," said he, "will operate automatically and thus no longer will the gaunt figure of poverty, starvation and suffering pursue the employee who has been injured. Since this law has been adopted by popular vote it is compulsory and no employer can escape its application or enforcement. It is an employers' liability act and cannot be rejected by either employer or employee. The employer, however, has the right to refuse to insure under this act, but in the event of refusing he must prove to the satisfaction of the Commission his (financial) ability to do so. Some few large corporations have asked for exemption, and will consequently carry their own insurance.

The speaker then discussed the character and advantages of the various companies carrying liability insurance. They are of three kinds: (1) mutual companies, these being co-operative organizations; (2) liability companies, these being old line companies which place all kinds of insurance and have prepared policies to meet the demand of the workmen's compensation law; they are usually safe and good and possess some advantages, but are expensive; (3) the "State Fund," under the direction of the State and provides for insurance at the cheapest rate, practically at cost. The "State Fund, however, cannot arrange to carry insurance of a character other than that provided for by this law.

The State Legislature has provided for the administration of this law through the State Treasurer, Secretary of Labor and an insurance commission.

There are, however, three classes of employees to whom this law does not apply, namely, (1) domestic servants, (2) farm hands and those engaged in agricultural pursuits, (3) home workers—those who do work in their homes for outside clients, (4) the casual workers.

The law will be administered largely by a system of referees, eight in number, two of which have been assigned to the County of Philadelphia. In the administration of the law the referees will not be concerned with its technical aspects but will rather endeavor to interpret this measure in a manner consonant with the spirit which inspired its passage.

The speaker believed that the Pennsylvania act embodies the best and latest thought upon this subject, and furthermore he considered it an example of well-balanced legislation. "It does not contemplate arranging class against class. It possesses advantages for the employer, since it fixes definitely the responsibility for accidents and simultaneously stipulates the payments which are to be made to the injured. It also removes (almost entirely) the necessity for litigation, hence it relieves the employer of the feeling of uncertainty and therefore gives him a sense of security. 'I believe,' said he,

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW

The monthly social meeting of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew was held on Friday, the 11th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Galbraith. The following persons, in addition to the rector, were present: Dr. Wilkinson and Messrs. Bruder, Montgomery, Makin, Galbraith, Gillin, Moore, Butler and Beardwood.

The "Chronicle" and the Junior Brotherhood were discussed at some length but no action was taken. A bountiful repast was served by the hostess, Mrs. Galbraith.

THANKS!

Thanks from "all of us" are due to Mrs. Daniel Cohill, Mrs. Frank Kapus, Mrs. Frank Jillard, and to Miss Edna Cohill and her Girls' Friendly young ladies who served the refreshments after the Parish meeting. It was well done and we all enjoyed the treat.

MEETING OF CONVOCATION

The mid-winter meeting of the Convocation of South Philadelphia was held in St. Peter's Parish. St. Paul's was represented by the rector and Mr. Samuel J. Burk. At this meeting a woman's auxiliary to the Convocation was formed. We were represented at the auxiliary meeting by Mrs. Thomas S. Boyle and Mrs. Eugene F. Gillin. What is the Convocation of South Philadelphia? And what is the Woman's Auxiliary to the Convocation?

These questions are important and should be understood by our men and women.

First, as to the Convocation. Our Diocese is divided up into sections, called convocations. Each convocation has four meetings each year, at which each Parish is represented by its clergy and by three lay delegates, who are always the men who have been elected to represent the Parish in the annual Diocesan convention. The present delegates from our Parish are the two wardens, the third place being vacant at this time.

The Convocation deals only with the establishment and maintenance of missions; that is, of new places of worship within its bounds. It has no authority other than this. For instance, before St. Paul's became a Parish it was a Mission, under the direction of the Convocation of South Philadelphia.

The mission work in South Philadelphia is mostly among the Italians and Negroes. We also partially support a church for French people, who come from all parts of the city to attend its services, which are conducted in the French language.

The new Woman's Auxiliary to the Convocation is for the purpose of assisting the Convocation in various ways. It must be distinguished from the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions, which is quite another thing.

The importance of the new auxiliary is due to two things: First, the urgency of our call to deal with the foreign population, which is crowding our East Side, and secondly, the vast outlook before the Church in view of the thousands of homes which are to be built south of us.

St. Paul's has many women who would be capable of representing us in the new auxiliary, but all will agree that in the initial meeting we were well represented by Mrs. Boyle and Mrs. Gillin.

Forget not all the sunshine of the way
By which the Lord hath led thee; answered
prayers;
And joys unmasked, strange blessings, lifted cares, Grand promise—echoes. Thus thy life shall be One record of His love and faithfulness to thee.

JUNIOR CONGREGATION

February 2, 1916

A stated meeting of the Junior Congregation was held this evening in the Parish House. Although the weather was bad there were twenty-one members present. Chester Norton acted as secretary pro tem. until the arrival of the secretary. Reports were made by the committees on the sick and on entertainment. New committees were appointed as follows: On the sick, Samuel Sheehan, George Thompson, Elizabeth
Gardiner and Edith Beck; on sociability, Laura Bugbee, Edwin Kapus and Jean Gardiner.

Refreshments were served by the sociability committee, consisting of ice cream and chocolate cakes. The cakes, fifty in number, had been made and presented by Mrs.
Gillard, who received a hearty vote of thanks. Mr. John Morris was a welcome visitor.

THE PARISH MEETING

In response to the letter by the rector published in our little "bulletin," over 100 adult members of our Parish attended the congregational meeting on Thursday evening, February 10th. Meetings of this character are, as a rule, attended only by those who are interested in the welfare and work of the Parish, and in view of that fact and the further fact that some engagements which could not be broken kept others of our most interested and helpful men and women away, the attendance was remarkably good.

After a devotional service, in which we had the co-operation of the choir, a talk was given by the rector. He stated that the Parish needed the support of those present to help it make up a deficit which has been weighing heavily upon his mind. In response there were 192 persons and societies who volunteered subscriptions ranging from 25 cents to $100 in amount, such subscriptions, payable before Easter, to be in addition to the regular weekly offerings for the support of the Church. The sum of the subscriptions was an agreeable surprise to every one present, the total being $702.

There were many who could not be present on that evening. They will doubtless be willing to do their share, and it may be confidently hoped that if everyone interested in, or under obligation to, St. Paul's Church will do what they can toward this good cause we will not only pay off the total deficit but have a little left in the treasury with which to go forward.

By authorization of the vestry this list will be published in the "Chronicle," but as there were a number of persons absent from the meeting who will give their share it will be better to withhold the publication until the next issue, when all will have had an opportunity to make their subscription.
We surely ought to increase the $700 to $1000!

THEN—

When we have cleared off the deficit then we must make a thorough canvas to see that every individual in the Parish is giving a weekly sum through the envelopes for the support of the Church—a sum sufficient to meet the regular needs of the work. Not until we have reached that point can we plan the larger work which our Parish should be ambitious to do.

The Tennis Club wishes to remind you of the entertainment Monday evening, February 28th, in the Parish House.

The members of the Girls' Friendly Society greatly appreciated the assistance of Mrs. Joseph Bruder and Mrs. James Aikens on the night of the Conference and supper.

THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

During the past month the girls of St.
Paul's entertained the Conference of the Girls' Friendly Society of the southern section of the city. It was very helpful to see how the different parts of our Parish House were appreciated by the great throng of visitors. Mrs. William Cardwell has been appointed by the rector the Branch secretary. This means that she is the director of the Girls' Friendly work in St. Paul's.
She has already taken hold of the work with good results and both the Parish and the Diocesan workers are encouraged by the intelligent interest she is showing.

M. L. S.

THE CANDIDATES' BRANCH OF THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The activities of the Branch vary according to the season of the year.

During the month of December the girls dressed dolls for children less fortunate than themselves and filled stockings for Blockley. On December 31st the girls had a most enjoyable Christmas party.

Each meeting is divided into devotion, work and play. The girls have been learning the history, objects and rules of the Girls' Friendly and feel proud that they can be candidates of a society which has more than 300,000 members, the branches of which are found all over the world.

On Saturday afternoon, February 12th, there were seventy-four children at a Valentine Party, the proceeds of which will go to the Church.

Beginning with February 18th, instead of the usual circle of stories and games a literary class will be formed. The literature department of the G. F. S. of the Diocese of Pennsylvania has offered prizes in April for the best answers to questions on the stories or books considered. Mrs.
William Cardwell, the new Branch secretary, has offered a prize also.

I know many of our girls will try for them, and let us hope someone from our class will get a Diocesan prize. In the near future we expect to have tableaux illustrating the stories we shall read.

During Lent the girls are going to make Christmas presents for the children in St.
Mark's Mission, Menana, Alaska. Mr.
Earp is going to have someone tell us about the work our missionaries are doing there.

Miss Anna Denniston will talk to the girls on February 18th.

We wish to welcome Mrs. Cardwell, who is to be the Branch secretary, and also to welcome Miss Kathryn Bugbee as assistant in the candidates class.

Our new members this month are Anna
Wallace, Elizabeth Parsons, Minerva Burk.

"that the chief advantage will come from a desire to prevent accidents and thus as far as possible reduce to a minimum the suffering and misery resulting from injuries sustained by the worker in his or her daily occupation.

No agreement between the employer and employee designed to evade the terms of this law will be considered a valid defence against its enforcement. Mr. Mackey then described the manner by which the law will be administered through the system of referees in the event of litigation, concluding with the statement that the desire of the Board will be to administer it with justice. He declared that any decision made by that body will be based solely on its findings.

The meeting on Wednesday evening, January 26, 1916, was addressed by members of the National Security League on the subject of "Preparedness."

Captain Robert Morris, of the Third Regiment, the first speaker, declared that the advocates of preparedness were not for war, but against war. "They believe, said he, that in view of the experiences of Belgium and Serbia, which have been overrun and devastated—nations almost totally unprepared—that we should be in a position to protect ourselves.

The speaker dwelt at considerable length on the inadequacy of our coast and navy defences, averring that it is impossible for a navy such as we have to adequately police the eastern and western coasts of the United States, much less to protect our insular possessions. Our navy at the present ranks fourth, said he, and if we divide it in half in order to enable us to protect the eastern as well as the western coast we are reducing our naval strength on each coast by one-half, and consequently by this reasoning our rank is lowered and we become the eighth power in naval strength. Our coast defence ports are also insufficient both in number and strength to properly protect our seacoast cities. We have 21,000 miles of sea coast line which cannot be either entirely or satisfactorily protected by coast defence artillery, but must be supported by a large mobile army.

We have at the present time, asserted Mr. Morris, 87,000 men in the United States army, of which 23,000 are in the United States; the rest are in the Philippines, Porto Rico, Panama and Alaska. Think of it, an army only one-third larger than the police force of New York City! In many instances we have not enough men to man the guns; this is particularly true of Forts Mott, Delaware and DuPont on the Delaware River, where there are only 400 men—practically caretakers—to man the guns; to protect cities having a population of 1,800,000.

"We are also short of guns," said he. In September, 1915, when France started an offensive movement against the Germans she captured ninety field pieces which had no appreciable effect on the German resistance. The United States has at the present time just seventy-two 3-inch field pieces, which does not seem to the Security League sufficient.

In the National Guards of the various states we have 129,000 men who are not absolutely efficient in view of the fact that they only receive a total training of 168 hours per year. The officers work fifteen hours per week and therefore find it extremely difficult to acquire anything approximating efficiency in that time. The result is that we have in the National Guards 60 per cent. of the men efficient.

Our defences must rest on small bodies of well-trained men, properly armed and with adequate supplies. The National Security League proposes that Congress be required to enact laws for proper defences as outlined and advocated by our experts, and also to make the necessary appropriations for carrying into effect the recommendations of the Army staff and the Naval Board. Any changes made in said recommendations submitted to Congress by these experts must be made in such a way as to give proper balance to the distribution of our defences. The United States, said the speaker, will probably be the richest nation in the world at the conclusion of the present war and it behooves us to place ourselves in a position to maintain the "Monroe Doctrine—the law of self-preservation.

Mr. E. B. Coxe, the next speaker, asserted that the advocates of "Peace at any price" were not sure of getting it even when willing to pay for it, and that being prepared to resist attacks was the only safe and rational way of insuring a desirable peace. It will require from seven to ten years to develop our navy—to make it an adequate first line defence, and that we must practically disregard our navy if war occurs before that time. Therefore it is necessary to train and equip a mobile army of 500,000 to protect our shores against a first-class power.

Mr. Coxe advocated compulsory military training along the lines followed by Australia and Switzerland. The Swiss system trains boys from the age of 12 to the age of 18 in school and after they are 18 years old they receive two months' intensive training for two years, after which they receive two weeks' training per year until they are 23 years of age. Compulsory military training, said the speaker, is the only democratic way of training men for such service. When a similar system was first introduced in Australia fifteen years ago women were opposed to it, but since the result has been to discipline and make men better the women have withdrawn their opposition and at the present time favor it.

The Rev. Henry K. B. Ogle, rector of the Church of the Covenant, addressed the club on the topic, "The Club's Contribution to Work of the Church" on Wednesday evening, February 9, 1916. The speaker before launching into his subject spoke of his feeling and regard for St. Paul's Parish and the friendly relation he had with our Church while in charge of "The Prince of Peace." Strong men, he declared, are looking towards preparedness. It is the supreme demand of the age. An age in which the race is to the strong and the swift; an age in which competition is keener than it ever was.

It is a time which demands strength and courage—physical, mental and spiritual. Samson, Hercules, etc., belong to a past, a mythological age. We admire physical strength and endurance—the ability to suffer. But more than that, we require that it be associated with intellectual strength. This is an age in which we must attempt to meet this requirement: an age of achievement and invention; the age of the leader.

To the above, however, there is needed the spiritual strength which will give us men of positive character, men who will serve mankind and who will do their duty to the Church. We need men whose motto will be that of the Germans—"I serve."

The Church from a spiritual standpoint has always existed and from the Church the employer and employee must obtain their ideas of honesty. "Mr. Carrol D. Wright," averred Mr. Ogle, "has said that the only remedy for strife and conflict between the employer and employee was the decalogue which should be included in their programs."

"Life, steam and energy are as necessary to promote spiritual efficiency as they are in the commercial world. We look for sincerity in the minister, faithfulness in the physician, fairness in the lawyer, sobriety in the cashier and engineer; men who can be depended upon and who look to the higher and better things that come from things spiritual."

Men are not attending Church as they should and are not awake to its possibilities. Sixty-eight per cent. of those attending Church are women. The Church must have a place in your life, for moral character is the only thing of eternal value. God gives you an opportunity to give something in order that you may express your appreciation of his gifts and it therefore becomes your duty to support your Church. Men who do not support the Church were characterized by the speaker as being deadheads trying to beat their way to heaven. In giving we should recognize the grace and goodness of God. Mr. Ogle advocated weekly and systematic giving, asserting that he stood for a useful type of Christianity and that our religion should be a model of application.

He referred to his work at the "Prince of Peace," where he was vicar for nine years, and to the Church of the Covenant, where he has been rector for two years. The speaker expressed himself as being heartily in favor of a budget being presented to the parishioners in order that they might better understand the financial need of the Church.

Men of the Parish and their friends are cordially invited to attend the next meeting of the Club, which will be held on Wednesday evening, February 23, 1916, at 8.30.

Mr. E. J. Cattell, city statistician, will be the speaker.

GEO. C. THOMAS GUILD WILL SUPPORT RECTOR

The boys of the Guild are now forty strong and are well equipped to furnish assistance to the Church and the rector.

With the spiritual as well as the physical training the boys are realizing that they have something more in this life to do than always play.

Under their new president, Richardson Lau, the boys expect to be heard from and much credit is due Mr. Victor Clark for the careful manner in which everything is performed.

Our rector, Mr. Earp, is more than pleased and from all reports mothers and fathers are enthusiastic over the training the boys are receiving.

The directors urge parents to take a deeper interest in the Guild by paying a visit on any Tuesday evening. Come out and see what your boy can do.

VALENTINE PARTIES

There were two wonderful "parties" in the Parish House on Saturday afternoon, the 12th of February.

First, there was the party given by the members of the Candidates' Branch of the Girls' Friendly Society, under the direction of Miss Edna Kampen. It was enjoyed by over a hundred young folks. The bad weather outside seemed only to make it more cozy inside.

Then there was the party of the Beginner's Department of the Sunday-school under the care of Miss Mary D. Tyler, Mrs. William Cardwell and Mrs. Joseph H. Earp. There were all sorts of games and a splendid time, with ice cream and cakes in abundance. The ice cream was given by the teachers and the lady fingers were brought by Mrs. Rowan, whose little grandson is a promising young member of this department.

At both of these parties our own local talent was assisted by Miss Frances Sreiner, who came from West Philadelphia. Miss Frances has wonderful promise and even now shows the results of a fine and careful training.

THE DORCAS SOCIETY

The Dorcas Society is outgrowing its quarters. The room has been crowded every night for some weeks. Among the new members are Mrs. Frank Melvin, Mrs. Daniel Cahill, Mrs. Elizabeth Burns, Mrs. William Johnson, Mrs. James Kershaw, Mrs. George C. Speidel and Mrs. Arthur Brenizer. Flowers were placed on the altar February 6th in memory of Mr. Oliver White.

KATE JULLARD,
Secretary

AS GOOD AS LINCOLN

Mrs. H. E. B. Flagg, of Braintree, Vt., is responsible for this story: The little granddaughter of Lieut. Geo. W. Bridgeman was very much impressed at the celebration exercises on Lincoln's birthday at Hardwick, Vt. At night, when retiring, she prayed: "Lord, make grandma and me as good as Lincoln. Grandpa is. Amen."

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

SOME LENTEN WORK

The Dorcas Society is sewing for the Episcopal Hospital in Philadelphia; the Girls' Friendly Society for St. Luke's Hospital in Porto Rico, and the Candidates' Branch for one of the Church's Missions in Alaska. The Junior Congregation has pledged to make some scrap books for the children's ward at the Hospital.

CLASS COMMUNIONS

Love has its own power of compulsion, but it itself cannot be forced. "Must kills love."

The real power of the Christian Church at any moment consists not in its numbers, nor its wealth, nor its prominent men and notable women, but solely in the love toward God and man which exists in the hearts of its members. Love is the only means by which our Lord can work through His Church. The love of your heart is the only avenue by which the Spirit can work through you and make you useful in the upbuilding of the Kingdom.

We are bowed in humiliation when we realize how quickly the flame of love burns low in our lives, and we welcome every opportunity of having that flame enkindled.

The most unselfish and certain way of enkindling the fire of love toward God and man is by using the "means of grace" provided and adapted for that purpose.

Hence our "Class Communion" this Lent.

Let us not be discouraged.

Among the sorrowing thoughts which will crowd in upon our minds Sunday after Sunday will be the following:

1. The sadness of memory as we recall some whose familiar voices have been hushed to mortal ears. For such, however, we can give thanks, praying God that we, with them, "may have our perfect consummation and bliss, both in body and soul," in His "eternal and everlasting glory."

2. The absence of some who have moved away from the city, too far to keep in touch with the parish, or who have been transferred to other parishes, where they are numbered among the faithful. We can give thanks for them and pray for them.

3. The falling away of those whose hearts seemed not to be that "good soil" in which the Word of God could find lodgment. Above all, let us remember them tenderly in our heart of hearts, praying God to send repentance, and longing for the divine life in which alone true manhood and womanhood can be attained.

The classes yet to make their communions are as follows:

March 26—Classes of 1909 and 1910

April 2—Classes of 1911 and 1912

April 9—Classes of 1913 and 1916

April 16—Classes of 1914 and 1915

We give herewith the names of the classes of 1909, 1910, 1911 and 1912, the names being printed just as they are written in the Church Record, without change:

Class of 1909—Addison F. Bender, John

The "Parish Chronicle" is issued the second
Sunday of each month.

It is required that all matters intended for publication be in the hands of the Editors on or before the 25th of each month.

TO OUR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS.

Through the kindness of friends in the
business world we are able to publish and cir-
culate "The Parish Chronicle."

We would therefore ask our people to kindly
study our advertising columns and patronize
our advertisers, always remembering to mention "The Parish Chronicle."

This is a fair request, we think, and we
hope our people will help us, help themselves,
and help our advertisers.

THE PARISH MEETING

We will long remember the Parish Meeting of February 10th. Practically the whole working force of St. Paul's was present, the exceptions being accounted for.

It was distinctly a religious meeting.

The Choir was present and led the singing, which was hearty and inspiring.

The Rector explained the purpose of the meeting, which was to consider the deficit which has been a burden to us for a long while.

Anticipating the needs of the hour pledge cards have been prepared and have were distributed. In a few moments the result was announced, the total, including some subscriptions which have been received since, amounting to $812.00

For this result we all feel deeply grateful; and since it represents an interest on the part of very nearly the whole of the adult working force of the Parish we cannot feel that it is an indication of a deeply flowing current of love for the Church and for St. Paul's.

The list of pledges up to date of March 14th is as follows. Any error should be brought to the attention of the Rector immediately for correction:

This sum so nearly reaches the $1000 mark that it may inspire others to make pledges enough to bring it up to that amount. Pledge cards may be found on the table in the vestibule of the Church or will be supplied by the Rector. They can be placed on the offering plate at any service or dropped in the Rector's box near the door of the Church, or handed to him personally. Small envelopes for use in paying the pledges may also be found on the same table.

THE PARISH CHRONICLE

ST. PAUL'S MEN'S CLUB

"Everyone is a statesman in the eyes of the Master and the splendor of life is only to be realized when working under God's inspiration," declared Edward J. Cattell, Esq., City Statistician in his address before the Men's Club at the regular meeting held on Wednesday evening, February 23, 1916.

Mr. Cattell, in his own delightful and inimitable way, told many humorous stories and gave many interesting and instructive facts, constantly urging the members to utilize its opportunities, and in conclusion reminded us that "while the world owes every man a living, every man owes the world a life."

Judge Raymond MacNeille, who was present at this meeting, spoke of his work in the Children's Court and of the many reforms introduced in our penal institutions and reformatories, as the result of a demand on the part of Christian living people for humane treatment of those characterized as delinquent and defective.

It was decided by the "club" to attend in a body the services of the church on Ash Wednesday evening, in lieu of the regular meeting. A large number of members were present at this service, a fact which was recognized by the rector, when, in closing the service, he offered a special prayer for God's blessing upon the members of the "club."

The "club" expects to hold a "ladies' night" on or about April 26, 1916. Don't forget to obtain a copy of the Parish Chronicle for April, in which will appear a more complete announcement of this event.

TO THE WOMEN OF ST. PAUL'S

The Bishop has authorized a "Week of Prayer for the Churchwomen of the Diocese of Pennsylvania" in the special interests of the "United Offering." The detailed program is posted upon the bulletin board in the Parish House. The Rector urges all women of the Parish to give earnest thought to this great cause, which has been so wonderfully blessed by our Lord as a means of binding together the women of our Church in the greatest of all works—the spreading abroad of the Kingdom of God.

Of the 299 women workers sent out by our Board of Missions, 182 are supported by the "United Offering" of the churchwomen, 112 of the workers laboring in the domestic and 70 in the foreign field.

You will hear more about this great work of our Churchwomen before long, and we hope it may find a congenial soil among the women of St. Paul's.

OUR WEEKLY OFFERINGS

Partly to remind ourselves of our weekly envelopes (which, in some cases, may be in arrears, and thus hurting the work and welfare of our church), but more to remind us that our offering in money is only a symbol of the greater offering of ourselves, we here print some lines entitled,

THE GREATER PLEDGE

The sums we pledge we weekly lay Before His shrine
With joy that so our love we show
For things divine.

Yet must we pray the more for grace,
Lest, over-wise,
Thus system-taught, we lose the art
Of sacrifice.

Lord, guide us—that beyond this pledge
We ever see
The one true, perfect pledge—ourselves
In gift to thee."

LENTEN READING

A table has been placed in the hall of the Parish House, on which may be found a supply of Lenten literature recommended by the rector.

This literature may be obtained at cost price by simply dropping in the receptacle the amount marked on each piece of reading matter.

OUR CHOIR

We are constantly deriving new pleasure from the faithful work of our choir. To sing in a volunteer choir, like ours; to attend faithfully, regularly and punctually all the rehearsals; to be in one's accustomed place twice each Sunday—this means a real spirit of devotion to our Lord. For what we do faithfully for our church, we do for our Lord; and, besides that, what we do for our Lord, we are doing for the welfare of one another.

"The efficiency of a choir is more spiritual than professional; the ministration of worship should be from joy of praising, nothing less." May God bless each member of St. Paul's choir!

The fortunate people are those who believe they are.

HOLY BAPTISM

Will every one bear in mind that the regular date for baptism is the first Sunday in the month at 4 P. M.?

It is becoming also, in view of the solemn nature of the service, that the church's law regarding sponsors be carefully followed: "There shall be for every male child, when they can be had, two godfathers and one godmother; and for every female, one godfather and two godmothers; and parents shall be admitted as sponsors, if it be desired."

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

NUMBER 7

KALENDAR FOR HOLY WEEK AND EASTER

Monday, 8 p. m.—Service especially for women and girls.

Tuesday, 8 p. m.—"The Crucifixion," by Sir John Stainer, sung by St. Paul's choir, assisted by special soloists.

Wednesday, 8 p. m.—Service especially for men and boys.

Thursday, 8 p. m.—Holy communion.
Good Friday

10.30 a. m.—Service with sermon.

4.00 p. m.—Young people's service.

8.00 p. m.—"The Story of the Cross."

Saturday, Easter Even, 4 p. m.—Holy Baptism.

Easter Day

7.30 a. m.—Holy Communion.

10.30 a. m.—Easter sermon.

2.30 p. m.—Sunday-School.

3.15 p. m.—Great Easter Festival of the Sunday-School. Parents and friends cordially invited

7.45 p. m.—Evening service.

We urge upon all communicants of St. Paul's Church, and all the children of the Parish, a faithful and devout attendance upon all the services of the Holy Week and Easter Day. Let us give ourselves up to a week of pure devotion to our Lord. Life at the best is but brief on this earth, and as the years go on we need the accumulated strength and character which come through the faithful discharge of our religious duties at such solemn seasons as Holy Week and Easter.

EASTER MONDAY RECEPTION

At a well-attended congregational meeting held on Friday April 7th, it was decided to have an old-fashioned Easter Monday reception in the Parish House. We invite everybody who is in any way connected with St. Paul's—the communicants, the contributors, the members and friends of our Sunday-School, and any of our neighbors who may wish to come. There will be reports of our year's work, some musical and literary selections, refreshments and a social good time. We ask that an offering may be presented, of at least five cents from every child and at least ten cents from every adult who attends, to defray the expenses of the evening. The Dorcas Society, through a committee appointed by its chairman, Mrs. Gardiner, will serve the refreshments.

FOR THE DEFICIT

Additional pledges to the deficit fund have been received as follows:

Mrs. Wm. Holt.....	$1.00
Robert J. Galbraith.....	5.00
Frank S. Jillard, Jr.....	1.00
Wm. Francis Smith.....	1.00
Mrs. Walter Wooding.....	1.00

Total $9.00

This brings the total amount subscribed up to $851.00.

Due to a misprint in the list of last month the name of one of our most estimable members would not be recognized. It should have been Mrs. Sarah Thompson, who gave $5.00.

To each and all of those who subscribed to this fund we all extend our thanks.

What effect this subscription will have upon our Easter offering we cannot tell. We must all do our best, and God knows how to reward the loving sacrifice of His children in endeavoring to support His Church.

GUESTS AT THE RECTORY

Miss Marjorie Earp entertained two of her Wellesley College classmates at the Rectory during the ten-day spring vacation in March. One of the young ladies, Miss Earp's room-mate at college, is the daughter of Bishop Morrison, Bishop of Iowa. Both Miss Morrison and Miss Young, of Joliet, Ill., were charming guests. The Rector and Mrs. Earp appreciate the courtesies extended by several of our parishioners to these young people. Not least was the luncheon at the town house of Mrs. George C. Thomas, where the girls were shown the wonderful treasures of art and historical mementoes owned by Mrs. Thomas, including the pen with which Abraham Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation. After the luncheon the party was taken in Mrs. Thomas's automobile to Valley Forge, where, through the courtesy of Mrs. Herbert Burk, the many objects of interest in that historic place, as well as the Washington Memorial Chapel and Museum, were explained to the guests.

FOUND

A gold watch fob with the name "St. Paul's" and certain initials, has been found and left with the Rector. The owner may have the same by calling for it at any time.

THE BEGINNERS' DEPARTMENT

A children's world! That is the secret of the success of our Beginners' Department—the boys and girls from three to six years of age who flock into their big room on Sunday afternoons feel that they are in a big world all their own.

Miss Tyler, Mrs. Cardwell and Mrs. Earp, all of whom are kept very busy looking after this children's world, are all women who have a born instinct for appreciating just what children like. So, naturally, the big room is the happiest place on earth every Sunday afternoon to fifty or sixty little folks.

And the attendance keeps wonderfully regular considering the age of the children. A glance at the attendance roll shows that two girls, Esther Gibson and Hester Pelletreau, have four golden stars, showing perfect attendance during the last four months, while each of the following have a golden star showing perfect attendance during March—Mabel Boggs, Katharine Boggs, Esther Gibson, James Gibson, Alvira Hine, Hester Pelletreau, James Boggs, Charles Horton and Martha Maxwell.

There are many others who have missed only once, and nearly always their absence was due to illness.

We are always thankful when we see that the parents are helping us in the religious education of their children.

The Rector has started a new adult Bible Class for men and women, to which he invites the parents of the children. Perhaps it would help you to do your duty by the little ones all the better if you would set them a perfect example by your own attendance at Church and Sunday-School.

MEMORIAL FLOWERS—ALTAR GUILD

January 2d—Mr. John Chambers.

February 6th—Mr. J. Chambers.

February 13th—Miss Marie Bruder.

March 5th—Mr. John Chambers.

April 23d—Mr. John Chambers.

The expenses of the Altar Guild are paid by personal contributions and by donations from the Church organizations. If anyone desires to give a donation or have flowers placed on the altar in memoriam consult Mrs. Earp or any other member of the Guild.

Could anyone do a finer thing than Mr. John Chambers is doing in keeping the altar supplied with flowers on the first Sunday of each month in memory of his beloved wife towards whom his devotion was perfect during all their wedded life? Surely we may regard those fresh and lovely flowers as a constant prayer that God will let His light perpetual shine upon her in whose memory they are lovingly given.

FLOWERS FOR EASTER

Christian faith has for hundreds of years delighted to express itself by surrounding the altar of the Church with a profusion of flowers at the time of the annual celebration of our Lord's resurrection from the grave.

In order that our altar in St. Paul's may be made beautiful on the Great Day, we remind our members and friends that we would like to have potted plants given or loaned to us and money given for the purchasing of cut flowers and the rental of palms.

The potted plants should be sent to the Church by 3 o'clock on Saturday, with the name of the owner, and some direct statement as to whether they are to be returned to the owner on Easter Monday or whether they may be sent to the sick. It would be well to keep some of the flowers over for use at the Easter Monday reception.

It would help the committee in charge if they could be informed as to what flowers will be brought. The committee consists of Mrs. Frank Kapus and Misses Edna Cohill and S. Reba Jaquillard.

THE CANDIDATES BRANCH OF THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The children have been diligently serving during the Lenten season. Two complete infant outfits and several picture books made of postcards will be sent to St. Mark's Mission, at Nenova, Alaska.

The Literature Class has had talks on Shakespeare and have read "As You Like It" in story form. At present they are reading "The Lost Prince" and expect to answer the questions sent by the Literature Department, for which prizes have been offered.

On May 5th we shall have our first May Day party.

The annual service for candidates will be held on May 6th at the Church of St. Jude and the Nativity. At that time we shall meet the candidates of all the branches in this Diocese.

On May 12th Mrs. Kathryn McCarthy, who has just returned from the Philippine Islands, will speak to the children.

On May 20th there will be an open-air meeting in Rosemont to which the Literature classes are invited. Our branch will contribute toward the entertainment.

And then the picnic! The date has not yet been decided upon, but we are looking forward to it with great anticipation.

E. W. KAMPEN.

TO OUR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS.

Through the kindness of friends in the
business world we are able to publish and cir-

We would therefore ask our people to kindly
study our advertising columns and patronize
our advertisers, always remembering to men-

COMMENCEMENT AT SOUTHERN HIGH SCHOOL FOR BOYS

We wish that all our boys and girls could have been present at the commencement exercises of the Southern High School for Boys, held on the evening of April 6th in the great auditorium of the new girls' building at Broad and Jackson streets. Fifteen hundred people completely filled the hall and thoroughly enjoyed the program.

Our interest in the event lies in the fact that the superintendent of St. Paul's Sunday-School, Mr. Thomas S. Boyle, as a member of the Board of Education, conferred the diplomas on the graduating class.
Mr. Boyle delivered an able address on "Success," together with some extemporaneous remarks which clearly showed his ability as a speaker. We in St. Paul's feel that we have had a share in bringing out that ability, although we will admit that the ability was born in him and has only been developed by the opportunity he has had from Sunday to Sunday in speaking to us from the platform. We believe that Mr.

Boyle is only in his prime, and has a great future before him in still other ways than those in which he has been so signally successful in the past.

Another interest we had in the meeting was the award of a medal to William Burgess, who was formerly a member of the Rector's Boy Scouts in the Church of the Holy Apostles.

May God bless all the boys of the graduating class and make them successful not only in their work for their own advancement, but still more successful in developing the spirit of unselfish service so characteristic of the great Master, our Lord Jesus Christ.

A GIFT FROM GOD

A thousand congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. Lynch upon the gift they have received from the great giver of every good and perfect gift. A dear little baby boy!

A wee little tot with a wee little smile,
That trembles this side of a cry;
A face like a rose—
Crumpled petal for nose,
And a half folded one for each eye.

Little pink bud from love's garden of hope,
A mother dream, life-warmed and true;
The years keep a place
For your sweet baby face
In a mother's heart sacred to you."

THE PARISH CHRONICLE

Continued.

The Easter Festival of the Sunday School will be held in the Church on Easter Day, in the afternoon at 3.15 o'clock. All are cordially urged to attend this service.

The Association wishes to congratulate the Rector on the very successful start of his new class. We hope this class may grow in numbers and in influence and usefulness.

The question of shortening the period devoted to the study of the lesson was, after some discussion, placed in the hands of the Superintendent. The arrangements necessary therefor are to be made by him.

The classes having an attendance of 70 per cent. and over for March are as follows:

Teacher	This month	Last month
Miss Livezey	90	90
Miss K. Anderson.....	89	73
Miss Cohill	84	80
Mr. Livezey	84	80
Mr. Sutcliffe	84
Miss M. Aikens.....	78	70
Miss Christie	78	84
Mr. Gillin	77	74
Miss Rosenfelt	75
Miss M. Anderson.....	74

Where the attendance for the previous month is not given it means that it fell below 70 per cent.

HARD LUCK!

Editing a magazine is a nice thing.

If we publish jokes, people say we are rattle-brained. If we don't we are fossils.

If we publish original matter they say we don't give them enough selections. If we give them selections they say we are too lazy to write.

If we don't go to church we are heathens. If we go we are hypocrites.

If we remain in the office, we ought to go out and hustle. If we go out, then we are not attending to business.

If we wear old clothes they laugh at us. If we wear good clothes they say we have a pull.

Just as likely as not some one will say we stole this from an exchange.

So we did.

THE ALTAR GUILD

Membership in the Altar Guild is becoming, as it should be, a valued privilege. It has been feeling its way along, realizing that work of this kind should be done with very high ideals before it. A summary of its receipts and expenditures during the past three months is furnished by the treasurer, Miss Edna Cohill, and is herewith published:

Balance January 1, 1916.....	$1.86
From Mr. John Chambers.....	3.00

THE DORCAS SOCIETY

The meetings of the Dorcas Society have been well attended and happily enjoyed during the past month. All helped faithfully in the Lenten sewing and the game which was played afterwards offered a pleasing recreation.

With many thanks we wish to acknowledge Mrs. Ringwalt's very generous aid in our Lenten work also her donation for toweling for the Episcopal Hospital.

One of our members, Mrs. Samuel J. Buck, met with quite an accident but is now improving.

We offer our prayers for the speedy recovery of Mrs. Caroline Thomas, who has been very ill.

Our membership is still increasing and we will be glad to welcome others. Mrs. James M. Hazlett and Miss May Reinholt are our newest members.

KATE JILLARD,
Secretary.

THE PARISH CHRONICLE

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

TENNIS CLUB

After a very successful winter's work the season is fast approaching when the charms of outdoor life will assert themselves, and the park, with its splendid opportunities for tennis, will claim the spare time of the members. While the club is really a social club, yet it has contributed much to the life and happiness of the Parish in ways which are more substantial than merely hours of pastime.

DR. PONTIUS ADDRESSES ST. PAUL'S MEN'S CLUB

On Wednesday evening, April 12th, 1916, Dr. Pontius, a prominent physician, spoke before the St. Paul's Men's Club on an interesting topic entitled "Spreading Sunshine All Around You." The doctor had a wonderful source to draw upon in telling many true stories, which held the member's attention very closely. It is with deep regret that our president Mr. Peter A. Lynch is unwell and it is hoped for a speedy recovery.—E. F. G.

THE LENTEN AND EASTER OFFERING

We all join in congratulations to the officers, teachers and scholars of our Sunday-school for the splendid offering given by them for the missions of the Church. We also thank Mrs. George C. Thomas for her interest in our school, shown by making us a channel through which a part of her gifts are given to the Church. There is a deep appreciation of the blessing we have received through her and through Mr. Thomas in the erection of our great buildings. We often feel that the pressure of the work constantly upon us does not leave us opportunity for the frequent remembrance of that blessing which their love and devotion should receive from us. There is, however, a growing feeling among us that St. Paul's Church should do something that will adequately express our appreciation, and it has been suggested that we place a beautiful window above our altar in their names. There are so many pressing needs upon us for further equipment with which to do our work that we can, for the immediate present, only do the things which are immediate necessities, but the day will surely come when we will all turn our main energies to the expression of this thankfulness to God for what His devoted servants have done for us and for His Kingdom.

Our offering, somewhat larger than last year, is very creditable to the school, and it will be interesting to see just where it all came from.

The following are the amounts given by departments and classes, under the teacher's name:

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The Memorial Church of St. Paul's Branch of the Girls' Friendly Society, held its first admission service on Sunday evening, April 30th. The services were conducted by the Chaplain of the Branch, the Rev. Joseph H. Earp.

There were four working associates admitted, Mrs. Joseph H. Earp, Miss Edna Cohill, Miss Edna Kampen and Mrs. William W. Cardwell. Miss Isabel Rosenfeld was made a Senior Member. Margaret Anderson, Catharine Anderson, Emma Aikens, Lillian Atkinson, Katharine Bugbee, Lucy Brooks, Helen Barnes, Anna Christie, Alice Cobert, Blanche Cohill, Helen Cobert, Abigail Cole, Emily Evensen, Sarah Evensen, Alice Fox, Eva Graham, Anna Gillen, Margaret Hazzard, May Johnson, Bertha Kampen, Helen Keck, Dorothy Livezey, Ada Norton, Dorothy Norton, Edna Pulch and Ethel Stenger were admitted as members.

The annual service of the Girls' Friendly Society of the Diocese of Pennsylvania was held in Holy Trinity Church on Thursday evening, May 11th. The sermon was preached by Bishop Rhinelander. At the conclusion of the service there was an exhibition of Lenten sewing in Holy Trinity Parish House.

On Friday evening, May 19th, the members of St. Paul's Branch were the guests of the Branch Secretary at her residence, 2127 Ritner Street.

SOPHIE D. CARDWELL, Branch Secretary.

PARISH MEETING AND VESTRY ELECTION

On Easter Monday night a good crowd gathered for our annual Parish meeting. There was a fine program, consisting of vocal music by Misses Cohill and McKain, and a friend of Miss McKain, to whom we listened with delight. A half hour's entertainment with experiments in magic enlivened the evening. Reports were submitted from all the organizations of the Parish. Mr. Thomas S. Boyle made an earnest plea for teachers for the Sunday-school and presented figures which showed the great extent to which the financial interests of the Church have been helped during the past year by the School.

A pleasant feature of the evening was the presentation to Mr. Victor Clark of an umbrella as a token of the esteem in which he is held and as an appreciation of the work he has done as drill master in the George C. Thomas Guild.

During the early part of the evening the election for vestrymen was conducted by the tellers appointed at the previous vestry meeting. Our thanks are given to Messrs. Skillen, Cohill and Livezey for their kindness in serving in this capacity. There being only four nominations and four to be elected, there was no contest. The following gentlemen were elected to serve for three years: Messrs. Thomas S. Boyle, James M. Hazlett, John W. Hughes and Peter A. Lynch. At a subsequent meeting Mr. Charles F. Sladen was elected vestryman. Mr. Robert J. Skillen has been placed in nomination and will, without doubt, be elected at the next meeting.

The terms of Mr. Robert W. Montgomery, Mr. William M. Beardwood and Mr. Robert J. Makim expired this year and they had announced their desire not to be placed in nomination for re-election. At the last meeting of the vestry the resignation of Mr. Robert J. Galbraith was received. To all these gentlemen the thanks of the Parish are extended for the time and thought they have given since the organization of the Parish.

Dr. John Wilkinson, after a service as treasurer and accounting warden dating from the beginning of the work as a Mission, requested to be relieved from that position, stating his interest in the continued success of the Parish, and pledging his help in every way to his successor. This request could not but be honored in view of the reasons which he gave, and various members of the vestry voiced the appreciation which is universally felt for the long and invaluable service of Dr. Wilkinson in the interest of St. Paul's Church. Especially should be mentioned the hearty and solid words of appreciation expressed to Dr. Wilkinson in the meeting by Mr. Thomas S. Boyle and Mr. Samuel J. Buck, with whom he has been so closely associated in the development of this Church.

The doctor has already shown, in many ways, that he meant what he said when he pledged his continued co-operation with the vestry. His election as a member of the National Council of the Brotherhood of Saint Andrew and as president of the local assembly of the Brotherhood, and the large amount of time which such responsibilities require from him, are the reasons for which he wished to be relieved of the office of accounting warden. We wish him success in these and all other duties which his unusual talents have fitted him for.

Another office which had to be filled was that of secretary owing to the desire of Mr. Robert Montgomery to be relieved from the position. Mr. Montgomery has been an ideal secretary and there was universal regret that he did not see his way clear at this time to continue in that work. There is no question of his deep interest in the welfare of St. Paul's Church and his faithfulness and ability will undoubtedly continue to be felt in many other ways.

At the meeting for organization on Wednesday in Easter week the following elections and appointments were made. Mr. Samuel J. Buck was appointed Rector's Warden. Mr. John W. Hughes was elected Accounting Warden. These two gentlemen have both so emphatically shown their interest and ability that the fitness of their selection for these offices is conceded by all. Mr. Charles F. Sladen has been elected Secretary. As the resourceful secretary of the Southern High School and as secretary pro tem of the Men's Club, Mr. Sladen seemed to stand out as the logical man to succeed to that important position.

The following committees were appointed for the current year:

Finance—Samuel J. Buck, James M. Hazlett, Peter A. Lynch.

Music—Thomas S. Boyle, Maurice J. Crean, John G. Bruder.

Trusts—John W. Hughes, Samuel J. Buck, Joseph W. Gardiner.

Property—Samuel J. Buck, Thomas S. Boyle, Maurice J. Crean.

Game Room—Dr. John Wilkinson, Eugene F. Gillin, Peter A. Lynch.

The Rector and the Parish believe that we have, in the above officers and committees, a working force upon which we can depend for a faithful, intelligent and energetic oversight of the financial and property interests of the Parish, and they should have, and no doubt will have, the loyal support of all.

THE CANDIDATES BRANCH OF THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The children wait in great expectation until the awarding of the prizes on May 20th for the literary contest. Miss Julia MacAllister, who has charge of the Literature Department of this Diocese, sent a special letter praising the excellent papers written by our girls.

The prizes offered by two of our Associates will be awarded May 19th. The best paper was written by Ruth Hartley, with special mention due Elizabeth Gardiner. Others who will receive prizes are Laura Rhoades, Edith Beck, Elizabeth Cucknell and Florence Gillin.

It is not only interesting, but a joy to work with such an unusually fine set of children in our Candidates Branch. Some of our girls have already shown unusual talent and a keen interest in books that are worth while.

We are in great need of more help on Friday afternoons. Anyone who will volunteer her services will be doubly repaid by the sure response of the children.

ST. PAUL'S MEN REPRESENTED IN PROGRESSIVENESS

It has always been said that St. Paul's Church had men who were progressive in everything that improved the conditions of mankind. Consequently there has been organized a new building association know as The Philadelphia Investors' Building Association and has among its officers and directors the following: Messrs. Howard G. Buck, treasurer; J. Frederick Martin, solicitor, and Messrs. Samuel J. Buck, Eugene F. Gillin, Frank W. Melvin on the board of directors.

Therefore on Thursday evening, May 25, 1916, a new series of stock will be opened to all of this parish through the above-named gentlemen, and it is further urged that everybody grasp the opportunity when presented, for tomorrow never comes.

Why pay rent? Join now! Shares $1 each; $200 loaned on each share.

Sunday of each month.

It is required that all matters intended for publication be in the hands of the Editors on or before the 25th of each month.

TO OUR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS.

Through the kindness of friends in the
business world we are able to publish and cir-
culate "The Parish Chronicle."

We would therefore ask our people to kindly
study our advertising columns and patronize
our advertisers, always remembering to mention "The Parish Chronicle."

This is a fair request, we think, and we
hope our people will help us, help themselves,
and help our advertisers.

THE JUNE FESTIVAL

The Dorcas Society Is to the Fore Again!

When St. Paul's Church wants something particularly nice; something unusually successful; something which rallies everybody from center to circumfer-ence, it does just one thing—it calls upon
the Dorcas Society.

This is no idle boast from the Dorcas ladies—their stock in trade does not consist of talk, but of action.

In fact, we want this coming June festival to be such a good thing that we are not willing to trust it to anybody but the Dorcas.

Well, they have already cleared the decks for action. The Dorcas is never so happy as when it sees a big job right ahead. It would be hard to find a society anywhere which seems to be always so ready for quick and effective service.

And one of the best things about it is the fact that everybody wants to help along when the Dorcas takes hold of a thing. Their enthusiasm is contagious.

Everybody likes to be in a thing that is moving, and that's why we all are willing to get aboard when the Dorcas gives the word.

Friday, June 16—Saturday, June 17

They will be memorable dates in St.
Paul's. The full program of this June festival would fill a Chronicle. We can only mention certain rumors. Some say that the Steeplechase Pier is to be freighted up from Atlantic City—or is it to be floated around by Cape May and up the Delaware? Other reports have it that the whole Reading Terminal Market has decided that it may as well go out of business on those two days—or possibly they mean—well, I give it up. Where there is smoke there must be fire, and where there are such exciting rumors there must be a lot of good, substantial planning going on. The men are so full of ideas and plans that you would think the ladies, in comparison, must be slow.
But the ladies only laugh and say, "Wait and see!"

In the meantime two things must be done by every man and woman in St.
Paul's great circle of friends—you must help build up the show yourself by taking hold wherever you see there is a chance, and you must see that the tickets are sold far and near. The accommodations will be ample for a record-breaking crowd.
The whole building will be a blaze of light and pleasure.

And the success of it all is assured:
First, because the Dorcas has charge;

Second, because everybody is glad to help the Dorcas;

Third, because we are all in for anything and everything that is for St.
Paul's.

THE ALTAR GUILD

Memorial flowers:

April 23d, Mrs. Donovan, Mrs. Doughty,
Miss Crompton, Mrs. E. Clinton, Mrs.
Charles Moore, Mr. John Chambers.

April 30th, Miss Jennie Vautier.

May 7th, Mr. John Chambers.

May 14th, a friend.

It is impossible to state the names of all those who helped in making the altar so beautiful on Easter day by giving potted plants. Some who sent flowers did not have the name attached and in other cases the cards may have been lost. In addition to the above list, however, there were flowers sent by the following persons: Mrs. Clarence Baltz, Mr. and Mrs.
Thomas S. Boyle, Mrs. Seaman, Mrs.
Scott W. Lau, Richardson Lau, Mrs.
Landy, Mrs. Rosenfelt, Mrs. Weston.

The Altar Guild wishes to thank all those who gave so generously.

There is no better way of remembering either some happy event in your life or some friend or relative who has passed into the life hereafter than by having flowers placed on the altar.

We do not yet have a complete list of those who desire the privilege of placing the flowers regularly on one or more days of the year on the altar as memorials. In order that there may be no errors it is requested that such agreements be handed in writing to the secretary of the Altar Guild, Miss Edna Kampen, 2432 South Fifteenth Street. The request should state what Sunday is desired and how much is to be spent. Amounts of any kind, from 25 cents up, may be pledged. It should also state the name of the donor and the name of the person or persons in whose memory the flowers are given.

At this time of the year it is possible that flowers may be gathered in the woods or from flower gardens—such are always welcome. If possible, notice should be given to the Rector or to Miss Kampen in advance so as to avoid the expense of purchasing flowers.

PAID SUBSCRIBERS TO "THE CHRONICLE"

The list of those who are supporting "The Chronicle" by paying subscriptions of 50 cents per year is beginning to grow. It now includes the following persons, who have paid for one year, beginning October 1, 1915:

Mr. William C. Butler.
Dr. John Wilkinson, Jr.
Mr. Robert J. Makin.
Mrs. Joseph H. Earp.
Mrs. Frank Jillard.
Mr. Robert J. Skillen.
Mr. Eugene F. Gillin.
Mrs. Elizabeth Donovan.
Mr. William Johnson.
Mr. John Bruder.
Mr. Samuel J. Buck.
Mrs. Frederick Light.
Mrs. Scott Lau.
Mr. and Mrs. James Hazlett.
Mr. John Hughes.
Mr. Vail.
Mr. John Chambers.
Mrs. Sarah Thompson,
Miss Laura Henzler.
Mrs. J. Briggs.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gardiner.
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Sladen.
Mr. James Glasgow.

Whose names can we add next month?
Give your subscription to Mr. Robert J.
Skillen, Business Manager.

Miss Mildred Morse, who, with her mother, a most appreciative worshipper with us, has attracted enviable attention among the "people who count," has gained quite an artistic triumph through her connection with a play given by the Play and Players' Club, under the auspices of the well-known Browning Society of our city last Tuesday evening.
Miss Morse, as a member of the Poster Committee, painted a poster showing originality in conception and skill in execution. As a member of the Committee on Costumes the daily papers have commented upon her excellent work, while as a performer the Rector and Mrs. Earp can testify to the impression of grace and spirit which was delightfully evident in her work.

A club has now been formed, known as the St. Paul's Fellowship Club, for young men between the ages of 15 and 18 years. The purposes are for both social and athletic interest. A baseball team is in view, and if successful will wear the colors of old St. Paul's, which used to win the games six or seven years ago.

So if the people want them to win they will support them by coming to the games. All young men desiring to join hand names to J. V. Hazlett. Hurry and do it now, for there will soon be a waiting list.

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

VOLUME IX

JUNE, 1916

NUMBER 9

A TRIBUTE OF ESTEEM

We are called upon to chronicle the death of two persons who have been associated with the Lord's work in Philadelphia and have left lonely places in their home circles.

Mr. Charles Henry was especially well known to those former members of St. Timothy's Chapel, who remember him as the genial, affectionate and untiring superintendent of St. Timothy's Sunday School. Any man who fills such a position through a period of years must have "laid up treasures in heaven". It is one of the most important posts in the church, and there are many who will unite with us in thanking God for the services rendered by our brother during those years.

Mrs. Caroline Louise Thomas has left a place in St. Paul's which no one can fill. We feel sure that all who worked and worshipped with her, who enjoyed her genial companionship, and felt the strength of her constant devotion to the church will appreciate the Rector's statement when he asserts that her lamented death, in middle life, caused in him a feeling of loneliness. He was only beginning to know her true worth, and the fact that such a strong support was removed from the parish gave him a shock of more than ordinary depressing force.

To both these bereaved families we extend our deepest sympathy, and trust that they, with us, will feel that while earth is poorer, yet the life eternal is richer by the passing of those who have wrought many good deeds in the years of their mortal life.

"O Earth, our lives are but a day;

About thy mother-feet we creep,
Till, tired at last of all our play,

We nestle in thy breast and sleep."

THE FLOWER SERVICE

Our annual Flower Service, held last Sunday evening, was well attended and enthusiastic. The regular office of Evening Prayer was read, with the addition of some choral additions which it is proposed to have on the first Sunday of each month. On this occasion the hymn before the sermon was No. 478:

"Holy offerings, rich and rare,
Offerings of praise and prayer,
Purer life and purpose high,
Clasped hands, uplifted eye,
Lowly acts of adoration
To the end of our salvation;
On His altar laid, we leave them;
Christ, present them! God, receive them!"

During the singing of this hymn the flowers were brought forward by each person to the altar and handed to the Rector, who placed them upon the altar. They made, as usual, a wonderfully beautiful sight. On Monday morning a committee consisting of Mrs. Jillard and Mrs. Rosenfelt took them over to the Methodist Hospital, where they were gratefully received.

IN THE NAME OF ST. PAUL'S

During the week of June 19th to 23d the Rector, together with Dr. Grammer, Rector of St. Stephen's, and Dr. Caley, Rector of St. Jude and the Nativity, will journey to Bedford, Va., where they will each deliver several lectures as members of the faculty of the Summer Sunday School Normal of Southwest Virginia.

The Rector wants St. Paul's to regard this duty as a contribution which St. Paul's is making to the great work of our Lord's church. He hopes that everyone will feel the honor and pleasure of giving to the church, through the service of their Rector, and think of it not as a personal service performed by him alone, but as a service rendered by our parish.

Bedford is a delightful mountain town, near the Peaks of Otter, on the main line of the Norfolk and Western Railway, midway between Lynchburg and Roanoke.

We feel that everyone will be glad to spare the Rector during these few days, and will join him in the hope that the journey among the beautiful hills and valleys will invigorate him for the further work which is opening up so promisingly in the parish.

THE JUNE FESTIVAL

The time has come! What a busy week this will be! Everybody is full of high hopes and expectations.

Friday and Saturday—afternoons and evenings—June 16th and 17th.

The Dorcas Society, with Mrs. Joseph W. Gardiner as the president, and Mrs. James Aikens, vice president, and Mrs. Jillard as secretary, and Mrs. Kapus as treasurer, and with such experienced advisers as Mrs. Boyle, Mrs. Hazlett, Mrs. Light, Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. Doughty, Mrs. Briggs and others whose names appear on the various committees, and assisted by such organizations as the Men's Club, the Girls' Friendly Society, and the George C. Thomas Guild—have everything well in hand.

Perhaps the best way we can guarantee its success is by printing at least a partial list of those who are helping—the complete list at this moment would be impossible. If any names are omitted please "excuse it" (as the telephone girls say)—it is always more than likely that some mistakes will unintentionally occur.

There will be all sorts of special attractions—such as the Peddlers' Parade, in which we will see Misses Nita Livezey, Alice Cohert, Jean Macklin, Florence Robson, Anna Christie, Helen Leary, Alice Fox, Margaret Hazzard and Margaret Aikens.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Boyle there will be some very pretty exhibitions on the second floor—in which, among others, there will be Misses Emma Aikens, Anna Aikens, Lilian Atkinson, Lucy Brooks, Helen Barnes, Mae Johnson, Helen Cobert, Anna Gillin, Dorothy Livezey, Dorothy Norton, Helen Keck and Edna Pulch, assisted by some of our young men.

The Men's Club and the George C. Thomas Guild will have charge of the game rooms, midway and various sports downstairs.

Candy Table.—Mrs. Montgomery and Mrs. Doughty, Misses M. Aikens, E. Aikens, I. Bruder, E. Montgomery, L. Dever, M. Sutcliffe, M. Harbison, Messrs. S. Buck, Jr., J. Johnson, J. Connor.

Market.—Mrs. Hazlett, Mrs. Buck, Mrs. Carey, Miss M. James, Misses Reinhart, Miss Sheehan.

Variety.—Mrs. Brenison, Mrs. Wilkinson, Mrs. Schumacher, Mrs. Kershaw, Mrs. Kohn, Miss Schofield, Mrs. Thompson.

Attractions.—Mrs. Boyle, Mrs. Gillen, Mr. Sladen, Mr. Scarlett.

Treasurer—Mr. Hughes.

Secretary—Mr. Sladen.

Flowers.—Miss Christy and Miss Fox, assisted by Misses F. Campbell, B. Cohill, E. Cohill, S. Duncan, J. Scarlett, L. Seaman, — Seaman, E. Stenger, J. Vautier, Bertha Kampen.

Groceries.—Mrs. Aiken, Misses Rogers, Waldron, Henry, Jacquillard, Sheehan, B. Briggs, W. Briggs.

Peanuts and Lemonade.—Mrs. Kapus, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Knox.

Tea Room.—Mrs. Cardwell and Mrs. Earp, assisted by Misses M. Anderson, K. Anderson, S. Evanson, E. Evensen, B. Rosenfelt, E. Graham, M. Cobert, A. Norton, Mr. Bruder, Mr. Skillen, Mrs. Melvin.

The special committees are as follows:

Tables.

Mr. Buck, Mr. Brenison, Mr. Kapus, Mr. Livezey, Mr. Johnson, Mr. Kershaw.

Publicity.

Mr. Sladen, Dr. Wilkinson, Mr. Gardiner, Mr. Gillin, Mr. Crean.

Cake Table.

Mrs. Light, Mrs. Briggs, Mrs. Bruder, Mrs. Rosenfelt, Miss Edith Light, Miss Mabel Light, Miss May Ball.

Variety Table.

(The V and X kind.)

Mrs. Brenison, Mrs. Schumacher, Mrs. Wilkinson, Mrs. Kershaw, Mrs. Kohn, Miss Schofield, Mrs. Thompson.

Decorating.

Mr. Hazlett, Mr. Boyle, Mr. Hughes.

Door.

Mr. Buck, Mr. Kapus, Mr. Livezey.

Aprons.

Mrs. Jillard, Mrs. Skillen, Mrs. Pelletreau, Mrs. Burns, Mrs. Dunn.

Orange and Lemon Trees.

Miss Edna Kampen, Miss K. Bugbee, and the Candidates' Branch of the Girls' Friendly.

A final word about the tickets.—Mr. Robert W. Montgomery has the lists of the tickets which have been taken out, and settlement should be made with him. Settlement should be made by Saturday night. This is important.

Over 1200 tickets have been already taken out and it is quite a task to see that they are all accounted for. Promptness in settling for them will assist very much.

every shade of belief will feel a welcome. Our hope, then, is not simply that we will grow stronger financially, socially and numerically, but that we will be more and more comprehensive and inclusive, a parish where every man will feel the warmth of an abounding welcome into the family of God.

My friends, these are the ideals I have set before me, and which I will stand for absolutely. May God give us patience if one and another stumbles along where he should be walking—and let us help one another with a willing and sympathetic hand, filled with charity, moved by faith, and ever led on to the more perfect realization of our ideals by the example of our Lord—who loves us with a love which shames our own faltering love, and who cheers us on with the promise that He will give us the victory. May God bless St. Paul's, her homes, her men and women and children, her friends and the stranger who tarries with us, though but a night.

Faithfully yours,

JOSEPH H. EARP.

BUSINESS MEN MAKE MERRY

The American Bank, one of Philadelphia's most prosperous institutions, has done itself the honor of re-electing to its presidency our friend Mr. Thomas S. Boyle—vestryman and superintendent of our "Church School".

The event was celebrated last Thursday evening at the beautiful country place of Mr. and Mrs. Boyle, near Ambler. One of the rooms above their newly completed garage was gaily decorated for the occasion, and an elaborate banquet was served, followed by speeches and music. The directors of the bank, with a few other invited guests, were entertained by Mr. Boyle in a royal fashion, and all were happy in having this opportunity of expressing their confidence in the esteemed head of the institution, and their determination to work unitedly for the further progress of South Philadelphia and her good, thrifty people.

DORCAS SOCIETY OF ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

The coming June Festival, under the auspices of the Dorcas Society, gives us the opportunity to show that we can do better things for St. Paul's.

Let us all give our united efforts to its success.

We offer our prayers for the speedy recovery of one of our co-workers, Mrs. Samuel Buck, who has been ill for a long time.

On May 15th one of our members, Caroline Thomas, passed into life eternal. She was ever a faithful worker and will be sadly missed by her co-workers and friends.

KATE JILLARD,
Secretary.

The "Parish Chronicle" is issued the second
Sunday of each month.

It is required that all matters intended for publication be in the hands of the Editors on or before the 25th of each month.

TO OUR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS.

Through the kindness of friends in the
business world we are able to publish and cir-
culate "The Parish Chronicle."

We would therefore ask our people to kindly
study our advertising columns and patronize
our advertisers, always remembering to mention "The Parish Chronicle."

This is a fair request, we think, and we
hope our people will help us, help themselves,
and help our advertisers.

THE RECTOR'S LETTER

My dear Friends:

I wonder if, in a brief work, I can express our needs, our aims, and our hopes at the present time. The one big beam of light which floods our parish just now is the splendid spirit of generous co-operation which is so evident. Thank God for it!

1. Our needs.—Ah, there's the rub.
We need so much. The accounting warden's letter in this "Chronicle" deals with the financial side of our needs. Naturally, that is the side which comes first. But who can doubt that our parish will be abundantly able to meet this need when everyone begins to do his part?

And that word "everyone" leads to the second need—more visiting among our good people. But even here there is a ray of light, because the strong working force which is developing so rapidly will soon relieve the pastor of very many duties which have so hampered his visiting.

It is delightful to meet St. Paul's people in their homes. The warm welcome, the evidences of thrift, the deep interest in all that pertains to St. Paul's, the ready response to every request—these make visiting a delight.

But there are literally hundreds of homes, especially those from which our Sunday School scholars come, where there are men and women only awaiting a cordial and friendly word to bring them into our working ranks. Much visiting of this kind is already being done, but it must be multiplied by ten before the results will be what we need. I am getting into these homes as fast as I can,
but I want some one whose whole time will be given to this, and therefore I must move heaven and earth to get a Deaconess next fall. I believe her salary would, in the course of a year, be paid by those who would be brought into the church through her visits and friendly sympathy in our homes.

2. Our aims.—First, to become better Christians, better churchmen and church-women. We do not dream of the treasures of joy and power which are awaiting us when we have entered into more perfect knowledge of the church. We are less than beginners in our spiritual education.

Then, when we have grasped the real significance of our spiritual inheritance, we will begin to push out into the affairs of our city and make St. Paul's a power for good in the social life—the thousand and one institutions in and through which the church is called today to make herself felt as a spiritualizing, moralizing and ennobling force.

3. Our hopes.—There is one supreme hope I have at present. It is the hope that St. Paul's Church, in all its branches of work and worship, will be a spiritual home for every sort of man and woman.
We want to become a parish which is above all kinds of party strife—whether religious, political, commercial or social.
We must be a home in which men of

LETTER FROM THE ACCOUNTING WARDEN

To the Members of St. Paul's Memorial Church:

In order that the members of our church may have a clear and comprehensive understanding of our financial requirements, your accounting warden has prepared the following budget, which he respectfully herewith submits, and asks that you give the same your careful consideration.

The total items of expense are as follows:

Salaries	$3,000.00
Coal and light	525 00
Diocesan assessments	325.00
Insurance, one year	123.00
Choir	120.00
Water rent	60.00
Rector's Discretionary Fund....	75.00
Repairs	100.00
Care of Organ	40 00
Postage and printing	60 00
Miscellaneous	50.00

Total$4,418 20

To which must be added the following.

Insurance for four years $492.80

(Fire insurance is renewed for a period of five years. The premium is payable for the term of five years when the policies are issued.)

Deficit existing May 1, 1916..... 259.52

$5,230.52

The sum of $5230.52 will thus be the total (anticipated) expenditures for the year—May 1, 1916, to May 1, 1917. It will be observed that the expenditures will be, in round numbers, $100.00 per week

The existing deficit has been included in this total for the reason that your vestry does not believe that the best interests of the parish are conserved by impairing other funds created for special purposes—to meet its present financial obligations.

Of course, some of the amounts given in the above statement are only approximations and are based upon figures covering the experiences of several years.

The total receipts by envelopes and collections last year—May, 1915, to May, 1916—were $2840.18. Assuming that the amounts so contributed during the year 1916-1917 were to equal those of last year it will be seen that the sum of $2390.14 must be raised in other ways to meet the budget submitted.

Your Rector and Finance Committee have under consideration some plans for increasing the number of contributors through the envelope system. It is expected that these plans will be in shape for presentation to the congregation the latter part of September.

If, in the meantime, however, others who are not contributing through the envelopes would care to do so, the Finance Committee will welcome the opportunity to forward the same.

We do not see any cause or reason to feel discouraged in the endeavor to raise by contributions, entertainments, dinners, etc., the amount necessary to liquidate all the expenses incurred in the work of the church.

In fact, we feel highly encouraged by the very enthusiastic and earnest manner in which the members of the "Dorcas Society" are planning and arranging for the "June Festival", which is to be held under their auspices June 16th and 17th. Such a spirit compels success and apparently has had its influence upon the other organizations of our parish.

This influence is definitely asserting itself among the men of the church, as is evidenced by their desire to co-operate with them in the endeavor to make this event the most successful of its kind given in the history of our church.

Thus the "Dorcas Society" is not only expressing in fact and reality its ideals, namely "To do better things for St.
Paul's", but is at the same time bringing us all to a keener and more sympathetic realization of the duties, privileges and responsibilities in connection with the Master's work in St. Paul's Church.

Your accounting warden takes this opportunity to ask every member of our parish to co-operate with him in the attempt to make successful the administration of the duties of his office. If you have any suggestions to offer or advice to give upon matters relating to his particular work, please submit them to him.

In conclusion, may I express the hope that during the coming year I may so conduct the affairs of the office as to retain your continued confidence and esteem, and that we may prosper and "have bread and enough to spare", and that our church shall develop such influence and power as are consonant with its responsibilities and opportunities.

Cordially yours,

JOHN W. HUGHES,
Accounting Warden.

"OUR BABY"

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Sladen congratulate them heartily upon the birth of little Nancy Elizabeth Sladen. We can best express the father's sentiments, perhaps, by quoting the following lines written by an old and dear friend of the Rector, Dr. Benjamin F. Leggett, of Concord, Pa. It is entitled "Our Baby":

"Have you seen our baby?
Wait a moment—stay,
Here she is—our treasure—
Two months old today!

Have you seen her equal Ever?—anywhere?
Note her blue eyes tender,
And her silken hair!

See her soft cheeks dimpled
By the smiles that play—
Cheeks like tinted blossoms
Of the peach in May.

Lips like berries, ripened
In the summer days,
This is sober earnest—
Can I over-praise?

See her fingers clasping,
See her hands outreach,
Hear the cooing music
Of her baby speech.

With the next sweet summer,
When she comes to words,
Won't she rival fairly
All the singing birds?

* * * * *

Fairest petalled blossom
On life's spreading tree,—
Little Princess Royal,
Queen of hearts is she!

* * * * *

Have you got a baby?
Nay?—It's very sad!
Honestly and truly,
Don't you wish you had?

Another home which has been wonderfully blessed by the advent of a little one is that of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E.

Hine. On the very day on which the mortal body of Mrs. Hine's sainted mother was laid at rest a little boy came to comfort the hearts of the bereaved family.

What is a baby, anyway? We can only answer that mysterious question in the words of one who has given the following definition: "A feather from the wing of Love, wafted into the lap of Motherhood." After all, that seems to fill the requirements pretty well, doesn't it?

A NEW DORCAS GAME

Who says we do not have inventive genius in St. Paul's? Let them come around on Monday evenings to the Dorcas Society and see what is going on. The first impression that one gets is that it is just a fine family group enjoying themselves. The next impression is that back of all their enjoyment is a real love for the church and a desire to do all they can for its prosperity. At first one feels that it is all so cordial and sociable that there surely can be no laws and rules restricting them—but a moment's observation reveals the fact that it is running along so smoothly just because the business is being conducted strictly according to the accepted rules of order, and that everyone is contributing her part toward a smooth, dignified and efficient meeting.

The "inventive genius" at the last meeting was Mrs. Carey, who had thought out a splendid new game. It hasn't been christened yet, so we don't know what its name will be, but possibly we should call it the "Game of Streets". A number of pictures had been tacked along the wall, each one representing a Philadelphia street—about 25 in all. Each member wrote out a list of streets as suggested by the pictures. Anyone can see how interesting it would be—Christian, Carpenter, Washington, Jefferson, Mountain, Cherry, Locust, Pine, Cedar—just run the streets over in your mind and you can realize how well the game can be worked. Two ladies each guessed 24 out of the 25—Mrs. Briggs and Mrs. Skillen. There being a tie, they had to draw for the prize, which was a pretty vase.

The first Monday night each month is social night, when refreshments are served.

It would not be surprising if the Dorcas Society doubles its membership during the coming year. All the ladies of the parish are cordially welcome.

SERMON AT THE FLOWER FESTIVAL

Last Sunday evening the Rector drew his lessons from the flowers. He first spoke of the flowers which bloom in out-of-the-way places, unseen by the eye of man. God, he said, sees them, and they fulfill a high purpose in the plans of God. They are like the people whose work is not generally seen and praised by the world, but who have the approval of God.

He likened the violets to modesty, the pansies to thoughts, the lilies to purity and the roses to love.

Referring to the Stonemen's parade on the previous Sunday he commended those Stonemen who try to carry out love to their fellow-men as the controlling principle of their lives. He who is the best Christian is also the true patriot. It is right to protect our American institutions, and to demand equal opportunities for all men, to seek fair play; but we should remember that love triumphs at the last, that love is stronger than hate, and therefore all our methods of promoting patriotism should be carried out in the spirit of noble-mindedness and brotherly love.

ALTAR GUILD

Our committee for the month of June consists of Miss Margaret Delaney and Miss Emma Sheehan, who are having the assistance of Miss Schofield to direct them in the ways of our parish. Miss Delaney has been associated with such work in her Florida home, while Miss Sheehan has worked in association with the Bishop of Pittsburgh.

THE PARISH CHRONICLE

STANDING NOTICES.

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

A GLAD SURPRISE

We were all pleased, on a recent Saturday afternoon, when a number of our Girls' Friendly candidates received rewards for good work done in their branch—rewards generously given by Mrs. William Cardwell and Miss Edna Kampen. But our delight knew no bounds when this was followed by the announcement that one of our candidates had won the Diocesan prize, bestowed at an entertainment given to the candidates of the Diocese in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Rosemont. Miss Ruth Hartley was the happy winner of this reward. To Miss Ruth, and no less to Miss Edna Kampen, who instructed our girls, we give grateful congratulations.

St. Paul's is a large and stirring parish, with many and varied interests; but nothing has given a sweeter satisfaction than the fact that the conscientious work of our candidates' branch merited and won this recognition. Other members of our branch—especially Miss Elizabeth Gardiner, whose grade was 99—also won special mention for the excellence of their papers. Surely our girls, and all of us, inspired by this happy event, will strive even harder to do our best for our Lord and His church.

"We feel very strongly that every child ten years old and over should attend the morning service every Sunday during the year."—Rev. Alfred R. Berkeley, Vicar of the Chapel of the Holy Communion.

Our sympathy is given to the family of the late Mr. George J. Donovan, whose death occurred some weeks ago in Boston. Mr. Donovan was a seaman whom it had not been our pleasure to meet, but he has been represented in our parish by his wife, whose quiet devotion to the church is appreciated by all who know her.

RUMMAGE SALE, NOVEMBER 12-13

RECTOR'S LETTER

No one wants the "Chronicle" to become a medium for scolding or begging; we want it to be encouraging, inspiring and educational. There will be times, however, when special notes must be sounded and space given to them.

I want to say just a few words about our financial situation. A statement, appearing elsewhere, might create a certain amount of concern in the minds of some, whereas there is no occasion for it. Hence these few words.

Comparison with last year's envelope receipts indicates that this year will show an increase of almost $1000.00. This is indeed most encouraging. Counterbalancing this there are the increased salaries; higher cost of coal; special repairs to furnace and buildings; increased pledge for Missions to the Executive Council of the Diocese. The Nation-wide Campaign Quota for our Parish was about $4800.00 a year. We promised to raise $1500.00 this year. Add to that $200.00 for Episcopal and Convention Fund and we have a sum to be met which is $500.00 more than was given last year for the same purposes.

In view of these facts, the balance to be raised, as shown in the statement, is readily understood.

How are we to raise this balance? That is the important question. Last year we had the Bazaar; this year we shall not have it. In discussing the matter last evening your Vestry came to the following conclusions: First, that any deficit existing toward the end of the year should be met by subscriptions and pledges made by the members of the church; second, that a way should be devised whereby many of our communicants, who are not regular contributors through the envelopes, should be brought face to face with the facts and their share of the responsibility, and opportunity should be given them to contribute. This seems to be the most desirable and the most equitable way of disposing of the small deficit that will likely exist toward the end of the year.

At bazaars, dinners and such like, our people always spend at least twice as much money as they are striving to raise. In addition to that, we must add all the labor and anxiety. Until we are on a better basis throughout the Parish we must, of course, use such methods to raise money. It is to be hoped that soon it will not be necessary to use such methods to support our church.

YOUNG MEN'S GUILD BANQUET NOVEMBER 10

Personally, I have no fears of not meeting our obligations. I know what the people of St. Paul's can do, if they will, and I am quite sure they will.

My sole object in thus setting forth the facts about our finances—as they are set forth in this issue—is to keep our people fully informed with the condition of their church.

Faithfully yours,

GRANVILLE TAYLOR.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Some folks think they have nothing for which to be thankful. As a rule, every one, if they would be quite fair, could bring to mind many things, both large and small, for which they should be most thankful.

Thanksgiving Day is set aside by the civil authorities as a time when Christian people—or rather all religious people—should repair to their several places of worship and return thanks to God for their many blessings. We are to give thanks to God, and the best place to do that is in "His Holy Temple."

All men despise ingratitude, and yet the world is full of it, especially of ingratitude to God. It is true today, as it was of old, that of ten persons healed only one returns to give thanks. "Where are the nine?" It is to be hoped that most of the communicants of this Church will be numbered among those giving thanks to God on Thanksgiving Day, November 25. The service will be at 10 o'clock in the morning.

Usually the offering on this day is for the Episcopal Hospital, and will, no doubt, be so given again this year. Last year St. Paul's sent a check for fifty dollars to the hospital. Whatever is given will count on our Nation-wide Campaign Quota. Surely we should not give less, but rather more than last year.

Offerings of fruit, vegetables, etc., are solicited, so that we may have a good display of the many evidences of God's loving kindness.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NOTES

Full staff of teachers, full steam ahead. Thirty-five more present on October 17 than on October 10.

School makes a splendid appearance; lots of enthusiasm.

Teacher Training Classes have been resumed for the year.

Mrs. Boyle's class has held the banner for attendance for some time.

DORCAS SOCIETY

In the last issue of the "Chronicle" we spoke of our "Hopes and Aims." They are beginning to be realized.

At our meeting, on October 18, we enrolled five new members. Mrs. A. G. Buzby, Mrs. W. Scott, Mrs. W. Rodgers, Mrs. W. Hilsman and Mrs. B. Headley. We were glad to welcome them as members. There are many others who should belong to this Society. Come and visit us at our next meeting, Monday evening, at 8 o'clock.

We have now a membership of forty-four, and while our meetings are well attended, it would be more gratifying to have all members present at every meeting.

On October 4 the Dorcas Society entertained two members of the Mothers' Meeting of the Chapel of the Transfiguration. Mrs. Kapus, our former Treasurer, and Mrs. Torrens were also most welcome guests that evening.

Don't forget our Rummage Sale!

K. JILLARD, Secretary.

ALTAR GUILD

Don't forget the Altar Guild Luncheon on Election Day. We are hoping that it will be even a greater success than last year. Many of our people have a holiday and we hope they are planning to come and bring their friends with them.

There will be lots of pretty and useful articles at the fancy goods table—possibly just the very thing that you want to give some one for a Christmas gift.

Since last month we have received several new subscriptions for the altar flowers. You will see, however, that there are still some vacant Sundays. The flowers may be placed either as a memorial or a thank offering. Look the list over!

KATHRYN R. JOHNSTON,
Secretary.

WELCOME

On October 7 Miss Rachel Lee Preston was transferred to us from the Church of the Covenant. Miss Preston has been a regular worshipper at St. Paul's for some years past and is well known to many. We are glad to receive her and heartily welcome her in our midst as a communicant.

There are others whose "letters" are elsewhere, and who should be one of us. Who will be the next?

ALTAR GUILD LUNCHEON, NOV. 2

YOUNG MEN'S GUILD

The activities of the Guild are gradually assuming their normal proportions, and by the time this is issued everything will be in full swing. The basket ball season is well under way and the Guild will have a team to represent it which will hold its own among first-class teams. On October 20 they played Camden, the champions of the Eastern League, and while the score was 63 to 55 in favor of Camden, no one feels badly about it. The team made a splendid showing. It means a lot to have a following for the team, and it is hoped more of our young people will take an interest in the games. Many good games are booked, so watch the announcements and come out.

On Sunday evening, November 7, the Guild will have its annual service in the church. Every member of the Guild is expected to attend that service; it will be at the usual hour, 8 o'clock.

Wednesday night, November 10, is the date of our annual banquet. Full information of same has been given out with respect to it, and no doubt all the members are planning to attend—at least we hope so. We want to make it the biggest and best in our history.

THE CHOIR

The choir is to be highly commended for its work on Anniversary Day, the music at both services was splendid. "The Recessional" in the evening, of course, was the most outstanding feature of the day, and brought forth many very favorable comments. The solo work of Mrs. Sladen and Miss Maxwell deserves special mention. We consider ourselves fortunate in having two such who can carry those parts.

The work of the whole choir is showing marked improvement and speaks well for the choirmaster, Mr. Souder. It is very much handicapped in its work by the lack of male voices. It is to be hoped the time is not far distant when men of the church will volunteer their services and fill the vacancies in that end of the choir.

WHO WOULD?

"But," said the fortune teller to an Irish client who was much impressed by her powers, "why are you so anxious to know where you will die?"

"Faith," was the reply, "if ye could only tell me that, I'd never go near the place at all."

Note on Memorial Altar Flowers

This list has been made up from material in hand. If there are any errors or omissions kindly advise the Rector or a member of the Altar Guild.

It is very desirable that all vacant dates be filled as soon as possible. In speaking for a date it is always best to give the exact date to be observed and then the Sunday nearest that date will be allotted.

N. W. C. CONFERENCE

On Friday, October 15, there was an all-day conference on the Nation-wide Campaign, at St. Stephen's Church. It was very gratifying to know that great stress is being laid on what is called the "Group Plan." Great things are claimed for it as a means of carrying on the work of a parish. This is exactly the same plan which we have inaugurated and which we call the "District Plan."

An Annual Campaign was strongly advocated by the leader of the Conference, and for the following reasons:

(a) More people might be interested in the Parish and would, therefore, want to contribute to its support.

(b) Other people might be more interested in the Parish and would want to contribute more to its support.

(c) New people might have moved into the Parish.

(d) Others might be in a better position than last year and, therefore, able to increase their pledge.

(e) Others might not feel able to continue their present pledge and should have an opportunity to change it.

If our District Committees accomplish what is expected of them, instead of there being an ANNUAL campaign we shall have an "ALL YEAR" campaign, which is far better.

CORPORATE COMMUNIONS

An important phase of the religious life of the Parish and its various organizations, and one which has been somewhat neglected in the past year or so, is that of Corporate Communion. If the organization life of the Parish is to have its proper background, each separate Guild or Society should come together once a month at the Lord's Table to partake of His Spiritual Life. Then, being filled with His Spirit, go back to each field of service and so conduct the special business thereof that it will always reflect to the honor and glory of Almighty God. That is the ideal; let us strive to attain unto it!

With this in view, the organizations are asked to make their Corporate Communion according to the following plan at the 8 o'clock services on Sundays:

First Sunday in month—All those confirmed in last two classes.

Second Sunday in month—Woman's Auxiliary and Dorcas Society.

Third Sunday in month—Girls' Friendly Society and Candidates.

Fourth Sunday in month—Young Men's Guild and Boy Scouts.

THE PARISH COUNCIL

The Rector has formed a body which is known as the "Parish Council." It consists of three members from each of the organizations of the parish, and will probably meet monthly, or at a special call.

The objects of this Council are, briefly: (a) to co-ordinate the activities of all the other organizations; (b) to bring the combined strength of strong organizations to bear in building up a weaker one; (c) to be the direct agent of the Rector in supervising and controlling the various organizations of the parish for the common good of the whole; (d) to suggest and devise ways and means whereby the organizations may be better instruments of the church in serving the community.

This is no new experiment. On the contrary, it has been tried in different places and has been eminently successful.

At the first meeting Mr. Fulwider was appointed president and Miss Rosenfeldt secretary. The Rector is president ex-officio.

AS USUAL

After much deliberate thought the Rector made up his mind to speak in no uncertain terms to the congregation which should assemble at the morning service on Anniversary Day.

He did. Some 150 whom he had in mind were doing the usual thing when they remained away from the service. The Faithful were there, in numbers, about 175. Will the "150" try to imagine what he had to say to them?

The evening service was well attended, over 200 persons being present to hear the excellent music rendered by the choir and the sermon by the Rev. George C. Foley. We appreciate Dr. Foley's visit to us.

As usual, the Parish reception consisted of some 200 familiar faces, although there were quite a few new ones. We did have a good time (at least, that is what everybody says), but we might have had a better one if more had accepted the invitation.

As usual, the parents of 250 Sunday school scholars showed their interest in those scholars' spiritual and moral welfare by not attending the Rally Day Service in the church. Of course, the Superintendent, the teachers and Rector took care of them—as usual—but it would have helped a lot if a few more than the 5 or 10 who were there had come out.

"THE CHURCH AT WORK"

The monthly paper called "The Church at Work" has been received and given to the various district committees. No doubt by this time it has been placed in the homes of all our communicants. If any have not received a copy there are a few still on hand and will gladly be given those desiring them.

The publishing of this paper is a tremendous and costly task, but if the aim of those in back of it is fulfilled it will have been worth all the cost and all the effort. That aim is simply to get the church people acquainted with their church, what it is doing, and who are doing it. It is believed that when our people know their church in its greatness, and realize the immensity of its work for Christ, they will be more interested and more desirous to help it. If the paper is thrown away without so much as a glance through its pages, the time and money expended will have been wasted. So READ IT! Get to KNOW YOUR CHURCH!

Concerning the support and activities of St. Paul's—Have you ever asked yourself the question: "What is my SHARE?"

G. F. S. CORPORATE COMMUNION

The Girls' Friendly Society was the first group to have a corporate communion. Thirty members of the society were present at the 8 o'clock service on Sunday, Oct. 17. It was a most helpful service and a splendid beginning. It is to be hoped it will continue and that the other organizations will respond in a similar manner to the invitation and announcement made elsewhere in this issue.

A STATEMENT BY THE ACCOUNTING WARDEN

The following is a statement of our financial requirements for the balance of the year 1920, and should be paid on or before December 31:

Salaries	$1,012.50
Missions, Episcopal and Convention Fund	950.00
Coal	345.00
Clergy Pension Fund	50.68
Care of Organ	10.00
Light (approximately)	90.00
Sundries	50.00

Total $2,508.18

In round figures, our regular receipts for balance of year will be $1,000. We should receive from the Rummage Sale, Progressive Dinner and Christmas Offering approximately $750. (This based on past experience.) There is therefore a balance of $750 or thereabouts which we shall need to raise in other ways.

RUMMAGE SALE

In order to secure a place for this sale we have had to change the date as previously announced. Instead of being on November 5 and 6, it will now be held on November 12 and 13.

Elsewhere in this issue you will see a statement of our financial needs, if we are to complete the year with all bills paid. The more we make on this Rummage Sale the less we shall have to raise by contributions.

APPRECIATION

Thanks to Mr. Davis, the secretary of the Young Men's Guild, and those who assisted him, Randall Skillen and Martin Born, the lights on the church doors were installed at quite a saving to the parish.

We are also indebted to William Evensen and his friends in the orchestra for the good music at the parish reception. The solo by Mr. Morris, accompanied by our friend Mr. Haney, was quite a help in the program.

We mustn't forget the members of the Dorcas Society who handled the work in the kitchen, nor Mr. Fulwider and his group, who took care that every one got acquainted, nor must we forget Miss Livezey, who officiated at the piano.

It would have been appreciated by some of the young ladies, if the young men had danced instead of standing in the halls.

DUTIES OF DISTRICT COMMITTEES

A. General Duties

1. Get acquainted with each other.
2. Get well acquainted with all church members, friends of the church, and members of the Sunday School in their district. Men with men, women with women, and children with the children.
3. Always to be on the alert for opportunities where St. Paul's can be of service to the people in the district, whether church members or not.
4. To speak a good word for St. Paul's whenever possible.

B. Particular Duties

1. To report promptly to the Rector all cases of sickness—of a more serious nature.
2. To verify all addresses, report removals, try to get in touch with new neighbors, invite them to church, and report possibilities to the Rector.
3. The children on the committees will be called upon to visit absent Sunday School scholars. If this call is ineffective one of the adult members of the committee will be asked to call. This failing the Rector will call and make final disposition of the case.
4. At the request of the National Executive Council in New York the women of the committees will be asked to distribute to their districts a monthly paper, published in New York and containing information about the church. These papers are free. The women are asked to do this so as to insure the reading of the papers. With children or by mail they would undoubtedly be wasted.

WE TRY TO DO OUR PART

The Beginners' Department, taught by Misses Edith Beck and Elizabeth Gardiner, has shown very rapid growth during the last three weeks. When ordering our material for that department, so as not to waste any, we conservatively purchased only 25 sets of pupil's leaflets. On Sunday, October 17, there were 68 present. Accordingly, that very evening the following "Night Letter" was wired to the publishing company in Milwaukee: "Please ship at once 45 sets pupil's leaflets, course 1, Christian Nurture, to Memorial Church of St. Paul, Fifteenth and Porter streets, Philadelphia. Must have by Sunday."

If we take such pains to provide, we feel we have a right to ask both pupil and parent to see that proper use is made of this material.

THE REREDOS

The idea of beautifying the church by placing a reredos, as a tribute to our boys who were in service, is a splendid one, and we wish that it might be soon. If there was the slightest possibility that such an improvement could be completed within the next five years, there would still be the question of the great, glaring window in the sanctuary which undoubtedly would detract greatly from the reredos. It would seem to be a case of putting the cart before the horse.

In the meantime we are getting further and further away from the World War, and nothing has been done to perpetuate the names of those who served. The Rector has suggested, with the Vestry's approval, that with the money now in hand by two of the organizations, a metal honor roll be purchased and placed in the church. If, at a later date, the reredos becomes possible, this honor roll can be made a part of it.

If this meets with the approval of those who were instrumental in raising this money, kindly tell the Rector so.

CONFIRMATION

Bishop Rhinelander has signified his intention to visit St. Paul's for the purpose of administering the Sacred Rite of Confirmation, on Palm Sunday evening, March 20th. While this seems a long time in the future, yet it is very desirable that we begin at once to think this matter over and to come to a definite decision with respect to it. The Rector asks those who are thinking of taking this step to give him their names that he might confer with them.

"GONE WEST"

During the war when a comrade had been killed it was very often said that he had "gone West." Quite a few of our families have gone West Philadelphia. We are very happy to say that of some of them the implication cannot be made that they are dead. Off hand we can mention the Gardiners, Sladens, Knoxs, Devirs, Mr. Hughes, and just lately the business manager of the "Chronicle" and his wife. Long may they live—for St. Paul's.

One of these days is none of these days. Do it now!

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish
to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens,
a certificate stating that he or she is a com-
municant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness
or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted
before arrangements are made for baptisms,
marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt
notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St.
Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the
expenses of the Church.

A MEMORIAL GIFT

Four new pieces of altar linen were recently given to the church by Mrs.
James Hazlett, in memory of her mother,
Mary Vollmer. There were two pieces for the main altar and credence, and two for the chapel altar and credence. We are very appreciative of these gifts as of others given in the past.

CONVOCATION ENTERTAINMENT, COOPER HALL, DECEMBER 16, 8.15 P. M.

RECTOR'S LETTER

This space is given the Rector that he may unburden his heart and mind. Since he has already done so elsewhere in this issue, he will use this as an opportunity to say to all the members and friends of the parish, "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year." May the real and abiding blessings of Christmas come in every heart and remain there throughout the year! May we all come nearer to God this Christmas-time than ever before! May your hearts' desires and longings be satisfied! May the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, be with you all, both now and evermore!

Your friend and Rector,

GRANVILLE TAYLOR.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NOTES

Mrs. Boyle's class again takes the banner for attendance. Miss K. Johnston's class was a close second, being only a fraction of 1 per cent. behind.

The school enrollment is now 359. The attendance is averaging about 75 per cent., which is a good average compared with many schools.

Mr. Hughes has started his class for young ladies again, and it is doing very nicely. Young ladies, please take note and help swell the attendance.

The Christian Nurture Series, inaugurated in the first three departments of the school, apparently is being enjoyed by both teachers and scholars.

A few of the classes have already begun to look forward to Lent, and are planning various schemes for their offering.

Apart from any financial consideration it is a splendid thing for a class to have something ahead for which it is working. It keeps the scholars interested.

The children's Christmas service will take place at 3.15 on Sunday, the 26th. Parents are invited to attend.

Look out for the various Christmas entertainments, and then be on hand

BOYS' CLUB

The Boys' Club has made its bow to the parish and has made a very good start. Under Mr. Fulwider's direction and with the boys' help it should develop into a splendid organization and one which will be of great help to both the Sunday School and the church. All boys from 14 to 16 years of age are eligible for membership. A list of the officers can be seen on page 8.

A CHRISTMAS DREAM ?

He was just the every-day parson, in that he loved his church and his people, and always wanted to see them reach out and to manifest to the world the fruits of lives that were in touch with God.

The year had been very encouraging in many ways, and yet in spite of increased offerings and the splendid efforts of the faithful, it seemed as though the year would not end favorably, that is, from a financial standpoint. Of course, he knew the reasons could be found in increased costs, in repairs, in additional gifts to missions. But that did not alter the fact that a goodly sum was needed to meet his church's obligations.

What could he do? First of all, he could begin right by asking God to direct his thoughts and efforts. Surely that would be a step in the right direction. Further, he would rely absolutely on the zeal and devotion of his people. He would dispense with bazaars and other like means of raising money—for after all they were not the best.

He had often preached on Faith and Prayer, now he was going to put it in practice. So he prayed that God would stir up the wills of his people, and awake in their hearts a deep appreciation of the supreme gift of Christmas, a Saviour. He prayed that they might show forth their thankfulness, not only with their lips, but in their lives and by their gifts. If they could only be brought to a sense of their debt to God for this great act of redemption, he knew they would seek every means to show forth their gratitude.

Day and night the matter was on his mind. One night after falling into a restless sleep, he dreamed he was in his church, some one had called a parish meeting, and most of the people were present. They had gathered to talk over the needs of the parish, and to devise ways and means of meeting them. After some expressions of opinion by several of the members, one of them arose from his seat and moved that every member and friend of the Church be asked to give not less than one dollar at the Christmas offering. The motion was seconded from all sides of the assembly and passed with a unanimous vote. Immediately following another man arose in the back of the room. All turned to see who spoke; few seemed to know him. He began by saying that he was a communicant of this Church, although in the past he had been a poor one. He wanted to do his part now and in a measure rectify the past. He knew there were many communicants who were not credited with any contributions toward the church because they did not use the envelopes. He thought every member should not be satisfied with less than five dollars a year to his credit. He moved that all such as he be asked to give five dollars on Christmas, signing their names to the envelopes so they would be credited with that amount. This motion was greeted with loud applause by all and unanimously passed.

The meeting seemed as though it would adjourn, when still another arose to say one or two words. He wished to remind all that the church would need more than an average of one dollar per person, and that he was sure some could give two dollars, others five and still others ten. He hoped those who could do so would give the larger sums.

The meeting then broke up with a great deal of enthusiasm. Everybody talked of their Christmas thank-offering. What would it be? Each one was taking the matter to heart and was going to do his part, no matter what he had to give up to do it. No one would venture an estimate of what it might be, simply because none knew the giving resources of the Church. It had never really been tested.

At last the great day arrived. The church was crowded and all were on edge. As much as they enjoyed the service it seemed as though the time for the offering would never come. It came, however, and such an offering! The like of it had never been seen in that church before.

After the service many of the people still remained. "Count the offering," they said; "never mind the dinner, we will wait." In a few minutes a voice called from the vestry room, "they have counted $300 already." Shortly after the same voice spoke out: "$425 and still more envelopes." In ten minutes the final statement came, "we have received $503." Then the great organ in the church pealed forth the strains of "Old 100th," and with one great voice the congregation sang as never before, "Praise God, From Whom All Blessings Flow."

Feeling a sharp pain in his side, the parson awoke from his sleep. He heard a voice say, "What's the matter with you, you have been making an awful noise, cheering and singing the Doxology." Then he realized it had only been a dream and he felt much depressed, still he kept his faith in his people and in his God.

The next night he had another prayer to make, "God grant that the dream may come true on Christmas Day." G. T.

COULDN'T BE DONE—SO HE DID IT

Somebody said that it couldn't be done,

But he, with a chuckle, replied,
That "Maybe it couldn't," but he would be one

Who wouldn't say so 'til he tried.
So he buckled right in with a trace of a grin

On his face. If he worried, he hid it.
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done—and he did it.

Somebody scoffed: "Oh, you'll never do that;

At least no one ever has done it."
But he took off his coat and he took off his hat,

And the first thing we knew he'd begun it;
With the lift of his chin, and a bit of a grin,

Without any doubting or quiddit,
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done—and he did it.

There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done,

There are thousands to prophesy failure;

There are thousands to point out to you, one by one,

The dangers that wait to assail you.
But just buckle in with a bit of a grin,

Then take off your coat and go to it.
Just start in to sing as you tackle the thing,

"That cannot be done"—and you'll do it.

HERBERT GUEST.

Note on Memorial Altar Flowers

This list has been made up from material in hand. If there are any errors or omissions kindly advise the Rector or a member of the Altar Guild.

It is very desirable that all vacant dates be filled as soon as possible. In speaking for a date it is always best to give the exact date to be observed and then the Sunday nearest that date will be allotted.

PROPORTIONATE GIVING

A wise man very carefully makes a budget for his expenditures.

A certain proportion he believes is due the Church. As one of its members, he feels under sacred obligation to make up his mind with all the facts in view just what relation his gifts to the Church should bear to the other items of his budget. Having fixed upon the amount, he gives it faithfully.

St. Paul has set forth the principle of proportionate giving. More than that, he shows how this should be done:

"Let every one of you,"—Individually

"Upon the first day of the week,"—

Systematically

"Lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him,"—Proportionately.

This places the responsibility on each one of us of fixing the proportion of our possessions we will give.

Jacob promised a tenth. Zacchaeus gave half his goods to the poor. The widow, in her zeal, gave her all. Here we have three stages of giving.

What proportion of the things God has given us shall WE give for the work of His Church? For the work of spreading His Kingdom.

ON MAKING CHURCH GOING AN ELECTIVE

There are certain manners and customs which most families take for granted. They do not debate them, discuss their expediency, or hold suspended judgment concerning their propriety. The great majority of families do certain things from fixed habit. They get up regularly every day and they go to bed at a certain time every night. They eat three meals a day. They take some exercise and do some work. They send their children to school, and regulate their diet and their physical habits. Going to school is not made an elective in family life. Neither are a child's intelligence and moral sense appealed to on the question of getting up in the morning and going to bed at night. They must do these things. Their performance is not left in the hazy zone of persuasion.

We believe that church-going as a family custom should be placed by parents as among the customs that are not debatable. Children ought to go to church with their fathers and mothers as a matter of course. It is likely that they will either go as a matter of course or that they will not go at all. If church-going is an elective—"Johnnie, would you like to go to church with us? Mother wants you so much"—Johnnie will not turn out to be a church-goer.

If parents are persuaded that church-going is a good family habit, it would be well to stop asking their children whether they want to go to church. Just take them! Don't discuss the matter! Don't leave any room for the suggestion that the custom is debatable! "I don't want them to grow up to hate church-going." Yes, we have heard that too. We have heard it from wishy-washy people who were limp in all their definitions of family discipline. What they really mean when they say they don't want their children to grow up to hate church-going is that it is not an important enough matter to have a scene about or to say firm words about or to lay down any rules about.

Besides, it is not necessary to lay down rules. Parents do not lay down rules about children going to school. Children are sent to school. They go. No child is led to suppose that children are ever permitted not to go to school. Going to school is like eating breakfast. It simply takes place. No one commands it or discusses it, or evokes parental authority to carry it into execution. It just happens. So church-going for children, along with their parents, ought just to happen—and happen normally, just as breakfast happens.

A child who has gone to church with his parents may turn out to hate churches and to despise religion. But if he does so, his parents may at least have the consoling memory of a family pew where on Sundays they with their children knelt in God's house to ask for forgiveness, understanding, and a grace to live a godly and a Christian life.—The Churchman.

CHRISTMAS DAY SERVICES, 6.30 AND 10.00 A. M.

DON'T FORGET OUR CHRISTMAS THANK-OFFERING

HERE AND THERE

We are always glad when the Boyles move back to the city

It is far from pleasant to mop with gasoline, yet Messrs. Fulwider, Rogers and St. John didn't mind that when they cleaned the bowling alleys; they were working for the Church and the Guild. That's different.

The Candidates' and G. F. S. monthly suppers have been quite successful. From fifty to seventy persons have been served with meals, and they only cost 35 cents

What a splendid Thanksgiving Day service! And how about the offering, $120 for the Episcopal Hospital. Now for the Christmas season and its blessings. "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

When Bundle Day was held by the Near East Relief we were all afraid of its effect on our Rummage Sale. The old saying was again demonstrated, "The more you give, the more you get." $326 from rummage.

The Rector wishes to thank all the organizations who so kindly helped him to meet the expenses connected with the sign on the church.

Our friends may leave us when they move away from our parish, but they are always to be counted on when we need help. Mr. Crean again showed his generosity and his feelings toward St. Paul's by lending us a double team and driver to collect our rummage. Many thanks, Mr. Crean!

We are always glad when anything good comes to our people, even though it does take them away from us. While the Bruders are living in New York, they are not so far away that we cannot say they are still one of us. I will venture the statement that even now we shall see them in church more often than many who live near at hand. We herewith send our greetings and best wishes for the coming season.

In a letter to the Rector, John Eells says: "It was mighty good to hear so much about St. Paul's. . . . I am looking forward to Christmas time and my trip home, when I will be glad to count 'one' to help the attendance up to where it belongs. Many thanks for the 'Chronicle,' it is just fine, and I enjoyed seeing it very much. I sure do want to subscribe to it and I am enclosing a check to put me on the list."

The "Chronicle" has quite an extended distribution, reaching as far as El Paso, Texas; Chicago, Ill.; Riverton, N. J.; Laurel Springs, N. J. The combined circulation of the "Chronicle" and the Saturday Evening Post is, in round figures, 2,100,500. All the parishioners haven't yet awakened to the fact that the "Chronicle" is something to which they should subscribe.

Some folks are liabilities to the church, others are assets. What are you?

It is with regret that we record the resignation of Mr. Charles Long from the Vestry. Having settled in Laurel Springs, N. J., it was, of course, impossible for him to take any active part in the work of the church. We wish him and his family much happiness in their new home.

DORCAS SOCIETY

Here we are again with our Hopes and Aims, and we are glad to say they are gradually being realized. Our attendance is improving and new members are continually being added. On November 15th Mrs. Hines and Mrs. Whitesel became members.

While Dorcas was a woman who devoted much time to sewing for the poor, and an example we try to follow, yet the activities of our society are much more varied. For instance, our Rummage Sale held on November 12th and 13th. In this effort we raised the goodly sum of $326.30, which was given directly to the church. What an improvement this is over the one held in 1913, when we realized $108.52. Speaking for the society, I wish to take this opportunity to thank all those who sent in their rummage, and also all members, and any others, who assisted in the sale.

On Monday evening, November 8th, the society gave a spread in honor of one of our most esteemed members who is going to make her home in New York. Mrs. Bruder will be missed not only by the Dorcas but by every organization in the parish, for she was a friend and helper to all. We wish her God-speed.

The Dorcas Society has never as yet put its hand to the plow and turned back, and as a society we hardly know the word failure. We are always looking for the success of St. Paul's Church, and find that keeping everlastingly at it always brings its measures of success.

K. JILLARD, Secretary.

BASKETBALL LEAGUE

In order to create greater interest and to secure a larger following for the basketball teams of the Guild, a league has been formed of teams in South Philadelphia. Thus far four teams are entered: St. Paul's, Mt. Herman, St. Andrew's, and Crescent.

A most satisfactory arrangement has been made which will enable all four teams to play in one place, and on the same evening. For the present, Thursday evening has been selected as the time for the games, and a schedule is submitted below. It is intended to have a cup of some sort as a trophy to the winning team. No doubt the champion of this league will challenge the champion teams of other leagues. This will make things interesting, so follow the games from the beginning.

Another league is being formed for the second teams which will create more enthusiasm and spirit. To date, however, nothing of a definite character can be given out.

Schedule

St. Andrew vs. Mt. Herman, December 16.

St. Paul vs. Crescent, December 16.

St. Andrew vs. St. Paul, December 23.

Crescent vs. Mt. Herman, December 23.

St. Andrew vs. Crescent, December 30.

St. Paul vs. Mt. Herman, December 30.

St. Andrew vs. Mt. Herman, January 6.

St. Paul vs. Crescent, January 6.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Several have said of the Hallowe'en Party that it was one of the best we ever had. That seems to be the style with us, we are always going one better, breaking records of one kind or another.

Sometimes we wonder about the future of this church. When we pause to consider the number of young folks who attended the party we should not be pessimistic. There are enough young people connected with this church to keep it just pulsing with life. All that is needed to make it so is a feeling of pride and love for the church on the part of all. A spirit which determines that St. Paul's shall fall behind in nothing.

After a few more of these parties everybody should know everybody else and things then would move right along.

Those who conducted this party may expect to be called upon again.

ALTAR GUILD

The luncheon held on election day proved to be a great success from every standpoint. All seemed to enjoy themselves, and the proceeds were more than gratifying. The amount reported at the last meeting was about $160, of which some $53 were taken in at the fancy table. This is over two times the amount received last year.

Our success was due not only to the efforts of the members of the Guild, but also to the help of our good friends.

We most heartily extend our sincere thanks to all those—not members—who so graciously helped to serve: Mesdames James Aikens, Bruder, Boyle, Doughty, Hazlett, Melvin, Tuttle, Stevenson, Wallace, Gardiner, and Randall Skillen.

We are also indebted to the following ladies—not members—who gave donations to the fancy table. Mesdames Tuttle, Wallace, Hiller, Boyle, Enright, Edsall, Mohr, James Aikens, Light, Cohill, Watson, Hazlett, Edkins, Gardiner, Matthewson, Skillen, Misses Zimmerman, Delaney, Marie Bruder.

Any one wishing to contribute toward the Christmas decorations will kindly give the same to any member of the Guild, or, if it is desired to send flowers, please have them at the church not later than 7 o'clock Christmas Eve.

KATHRYN JOHNSTON,
Secretary.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

RIPPLES!

As you go on through life let your good fellowship follow you as the ripples follow the wake of a ship. If you have any kindness to do, do it now. If you have any one you should encourage, do it now. Pass on the sunshine, and don't wait until it is too late.

RECTOR'S LETTER

I want to bring you face to face, in this letter, with what I think ought to be in our minds at this time of the year.

Nineteen Twenty is gone; its failures and successes are written in the pages of history so that all who care to may read them. The new year lies before us; we can mold it and do with it whatsoever we chose. The question is, What shall we do? And in this I am thinking quite naturally of our Church.

I believe the future of this Church, its growth and development, lies within the word W-O-R-K. We have seen what can be done when we work. We know what is ahead of us, and I am thoroughly convinced that nothing within reason is impossible for St. Paul's if we work. Rector, vestry, communicants, one and all at work, harmonious work. Willing to give a thing a fair trial before turning it down. Ready always to try a thing once and then to learn from that experience.

If we have accomplished anything at all during these past two years of my ministry among you, we can attribute it to the fact that a lot of us have been willing to take off our coats and work.

But there is a limit to what one can do, a limit to the time one can give for the Church's work. I think for many that has been reached, and it would be manifestly unfair to ask of them further efforts and sacrifices.

What we need is MORE WORKERS. We have enough to maintain and keep the line, we need that extra punch—shall I say—of those who thus far have been on leave behind the lines. Now to my mind that is where we should concentrate our efforts this year.

As I said in last Sunday morning's sermon, I would like to see a slogan adopted something like this: "WIN ANOTHER SOUL FOR CHRIST AND THE CHURCH DURING 1921." If we could bend our efforts in that direction I am sure the results would be forthcoming.

GETTING A GOOD START

After the strenuous efforts of the Xmas season there is always a tendency to let up a little—to ease off. Consequently our obligations accumulate so that by the end of the year we are face to face with another supreme effort to clear things up. I wish this year we could avoid this. We can do so by starting in right now to provide for our needs, and to meet them as they come due; yes, and if possible to anticipate them a few months.

The executive office of the diocese has asked us to try to make payments to them monthly instead of waiting until the end of the year. To do so we must increase our receipts at once. We must find some way to spread the thousand dollars or so we raise at the end of the year over the whole period.

During the Fall many of the churches were having campaigns for this very purpose. We didn't have, nor do we expect to have any. What we do want, however, is a conscientious examination of our circumstances and then a fair division of the same in the proper channels. There has been a tendency to contrast churches which have had campaigns with those that have not had them, and, of course, to show the latter in a poorer light. I believe our people do not need drives and campaigns to bring their duty before them. I believe they are sincere and truthful enough to do that duty without undue pressure or persuasion. I hope the year 1921 will enable me to prove the truth of my theories; of my belief in our people.

Look over the various annual reports in this issue. When the annual report of the accounting warden is published, closely examine that also. In the knowledge you thus gain you will readily see the sources of our revenue, and the need for definite, concrete action.

So to work! And may the Lord bless our efforts throughout the year.

GRANVILLE TAYLOR, Rector.

CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS

Many expressions of appreciation have been made relative to the beauty and fitness of the Christmas decorations. All who attended the early service on Christmas day were very much impressed by the whole atmosphere of the church, and especially of the Chancel and Altar. There is not a question of doubt but that our Church could stand many more permanent decorations and ornaments. In our homes we love to have around us things of beauty of one kind or another. It is to be hoped that we shall be able some time to install a few furnishings that will add greatly to the whole appearance of the church.

The Christmas decorations were made possible by liberal donations from the following persons: Misses Lillegar, Mr. Fulwider, Mrs. Rosenfeldt, Mrs. Kapus, Mrs. Doughty, Mrs. Koehler, Mr. and Mrs. Hazlett, Mr. and Mrs. Boyle, Mrs. H. Gledhill, Mrs. W. Swallow, Mrs. Edkins, Mrs. Scott, Mr. Frank Livezey.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NOTES

Since the last issue of The Chronicle a great many things have transpired in connection with the Sunday School.

In the first place, will the teachers ever forget the most bountiful dinner given to them by the superintendent, Mr. Boyle? Teaching is a sacrifice, we all know that; but then it is not all work and no play, and the teachers of our school know how to combine the two in order to get the most good out of them. It was a most worthy dinner, given by a most worthy superintendent, to a staff of most worthy teachers and officers.

From the preceding paragraph one is apt to say, "That must be an exceptional school." So it is. Just look over the annual report of the Sunday School treasurer in this issue. The school gave $1750 to the church in one way or another. That is remarkable, and it was a big help to the church.

During December Miss Emma Aikens' class had a perfect record of attendance. Not one absent the whole month! Mr. MacKensie's class had only one absentee during the month; Mrs. Boyle's class had two absentees; that is exceptional.

And the Xmas entertainments, why the children are still talking about them. It has been said by outside people that we ought to have charged fifty cents for the main school entertainment. But we didn't. It was a work of love, simply to give the children a Happy Xmas.

All the classes are on edge for the coming Easter Offering; they are all planning and working. Each class has been assessed a certain amount as last year (and this was voted upon by the teachers themselves as being the best means of securing the desired sum). Some folks are apt to get a little impatient with so many things going on; tickets for this and that. But please remember it may be just as distasteful, if not more so, to ask you to buy one than to buy it. Remember also the children are working to raise money to pay the obligations of the church, your obligations. Remember also that in every case you get something of real value for your money. The money turned in at Easter represents the efforts and labor of some 300 scholars and their teachers. Until such times as ALL our people use the envelope system, and until such times as ALL give as liberally as some are now doing we shall be compelled to use these ways and means of raising the necessary money to meet our bills. So when approached by a child for this or that, just smile and do your best.

Apropos of raising money, word has come to headquarters that there is too much begging, etc., at St. Paul's, and that when a child gives five cents a Sunday that is all that is required. Just stop a moment. Five cents a Sunday, fifty-two Sundays to the year, that makes $2.60. Against that some children have received a gold pin, $1.35; box of candy, thirty cents; trip to Willow Grove, say, forty cents; amusements at the park, about thirty cents; that makes so far $2.35. Of course, it doesn't cost anything to buy books, records, heat the buildings, etc. Still we are not complaining; it is the other party.

What the Classes Are Doing for Easter Offering

On January 19th Mrs. Boyle's class is to have a "Soiree" at 2223 South Broad street. The writer cannot recall ever having attended an affair that deserved such a name as that; it makes him rather curious to see it, or do it, or hear it, or whatever you do with it. But whatever it is those who attend it will never regret it.

On January 25th, in the Parish House, at 8 P. M., the classes taught by Misses Ella, Emma and Margaret Aikens are to give an entertainment, the details of which have not as yet reached our hands. That it is being sponsored by the above faithful friends of St. Paul's Church is sufficient guarantee that it will be worth seeing.

On January 28th, after the G. F. S. Pure Food Supper, the same three classes mentioned in the preceding paragraph, taught by the same three teachers, also mentioned in the preceding paragraph, will give a Progressive Party. It would seem on the surface to be a diabolical attempt to waylay those who attend the Pure Food Supper, but it really is not. It is simply a well-thought-out plan to give the fortunate folk who attend the supper something in the way of a very novel dessert, for a nominal sum. The supper tickets have intentionally been priced at 40 cents so that all would be able to afford the dessert.

On the next evening, i. e., January 29th, again in the Parish House, Mr. Gillin's, Miss Anna Gillin's and Mr. Livezey's classes are running a moving picture show. Also on February 1st, in the Parish House, the classes taught by Mrs. Baltz and Miss Johnston are to have another moving picture show.

BOY SCOUTS

At last we believe the turn has come for the scouts. Mr. Thomas S. Nelson has taken hold of our troop and from all appearances he is going to make it go. If the plans which he has outlined to the rector materialize we shall have one of the most helpful and interesting troops in the city. While Mr. Nelson is, as yet, not one of us, having been sent to us from the scout headquarters, we hope that in due time all will get to know him and give him a lift with the troop. Boys who contemplate joining the troop should act immediately and get in at the beginning of the new era. Having had a broad education both in University and through travel and experience he will bring to the boys valuable training and help.

There certainly ought to be no reason why everybody cannot attend these. In these days there are very few people who do not see a moving picture at least once a week. That being the case, these two ought to be well patronized.

On January 31 and February 7th are to be two theatre benefits, undertaken by Miss Emma Aikens' class and Mrs. Boyle's class respectively. (These two classes have been given by far the largest assessments for the offering.) Two nice shows have been selected, and we hope the theatregoers will find out what they are, so that if they intend seeing these particular shows they can wait until the benefits and thus help the school.

On February 4th, at 8 P. M., in the Parish House, a play called "The Country Minister" will be given by the classes of Messrs. MacKenzie and Scott. Quite a complete account of same was sent in for this issue of the Chronicle, but owing to lack of space must be left out. It contains, however, such words as "All-Star Cast," "Designed for all ages," "Good soloists of city-wide reputation." It is also suggested that all movies, theatres, dances, parties, etc., be boycotted on that night, and everybody turn out to see "The Country Minister." It sounds good; let us turn out and see.

The Primary Department, taught by Mrs. Sladen, has launched into the venturesome business of selling the Rector's picture, taken in his vestments. One of the secrets of success in the selling game is to have the right "goods," something that people want. Here's hoping they have—for the sake of their Easter offering

GIFTS TO CHURCH

On Christmas morning, at the early service, a beautiful pall, made and given by Miss Schofield, was set apart and used for the first time at the Holy Communion. At that service also, for the first time, the new addition to the Altar rail, spanning the opening, was used. This is the gift of the members of the Social Chapter composed of those formerly in the Rector's Bible Class. While a most simple device, yet it answers a long-felt need, and will be appreciated by all who receive Communion. We thank the donors of these gifts.

CONFIRMATION

All those who contemplate being confirmed on March 20, when Bishop Rhinelander comes to St. Paul's will give their names to the rector at the earliest possible moment. Last year the rector held as many as five and six confirmation lectures a week in order to accommodate late comers into the class. This is unnecessary, and can be avoided if our young folks will make up their minds immediately to join this class.

Already quite a number have signified their intention to be confirmed and it looks at this date as though the class will again be very creditable from the standpoint of numbers.

While we are anxious to have a good-sized class, yet we shall insist on regular attendance at the lectures and a complete compliance with all required duties. In other words, we want only those in the class who are in earnest and feel that it is the right thing for them to do, i. e., to take their place among earnest Christian men and women, and to give of their strength and time to the advancement of the Kingdom.

In confirmation we receive the "Laying on of Hands" by the bishop, which bespeaks for us, if we are worthy to receive it, the active operation of the Grace of God in our hearts, enabling us to lead upright lives. In confirmation we also ratify and confirm the vows and promises made for us by our sponsors in baptism. It is a step to which every true church boy and girl should look forward and fulfill with all the earnestness and sincerity with which he or she is able.

Think seriously about this matter and hand in your name at once.

JANUARY 30, 8 P. M., G. F. S. ADMISSION SERVICE

HERE AND THERE

Thanks to contributions placed in the stocking and to two generous gifts from other members of the church the rector was able to send a Xmas check to the Armenians, the China famine Fund, the War Children's Relief. Thank you in the name of these distressed children and people.

Besides bringing us gifts, Xmas also brings us back our friends from a distance. It was nice to see them all again: Laura Bugbee from college; Mr. and Mrs. Bruder and Catherine from New York; John E. Eells from the West. The best part of it is that they were out at the services, showing they hadn't forgotten us.

Again the complaint has been made that the people of this church are cold, do not speak, etc. Such complaints cannot be sustained or granted as true for one minute. If there is any coldness it is on the part of the other side. Of course, if people will rush away after service, without even a nod or a word, it is too much to expect others to run after them to speak.

Apropos of this, while we want friendliness and fellowship one with another, and while the rector does not object to speaking one with another after the services, yet of late there has been a little too much commotion in the church. Let us not carry this beyond the proper bounds of decorum and reverence; wait until near the doors of the church, and then keep the voice moderated.

The "Mother Goose Village" arranged and trained by Dr. and Mrs. Sladen was quite a credit to the church. In fact, those present at the convocation entertainment felt that St. Paul's presentation ranked near, if not at the top. It would not do for us to come out in print and say it was the best, we may have been looking through prejudiced eyes. From Mrs. Boyle's interpretation of Mother Goose, tripping about on the "light fantastic toe," to Matthew Egar as "Little Tommy Tucker," all of the cast took their parts well and all deserve the commendation of the parish.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

YOUNG MEN'S GUILD DANCE, TUESDAY, FEB. 8

RECTOR'S LETTER

Once again we face the same question, Lent is here; what am I going to do with it? Elsewhere in this issue you will find some suggestions for Lent. Will you read them over carefully and try to put some of them into practice? I am sure if you do you will look back upon it as being a most helpful and refreshing season.

We give too little of our time and thought to purely spiritual matters, and after all that is the Church's chief function in the world.

I sincerely hope that more of our people will take advantage of the special services provided during this season and that they will be found more regularly in their places at Divine Worship.

May I further suggest that we use this season for a careful examination of our manner of maintaining and supporting our Church and Parish? Are we bending our efforts toward that which will result in a more permanent increase, or in that which will need repeating each year? Are we devoting sufficient of our time and energy in arousing the careless and indifferent in bringing others into the fold, in inviting others to come and work in our vineyard and then seeing that they have something interesting to do? That kind of work means solid gain and advancement. Let us meditate on these matters during Lent, and pray that much good fruit may spring up from those meditations.

Special Preachers

We have been particularly fortunate in securing some of the best known men in our Church to occupy our pulpit on Sunday evenings in Lent. I urge every one of you to keep these evenings open for St. Paul's, that we might have good congregations to greet these men and hear their messages.

Wednesday Evening Services

We shall again have our Wednesday evening services during Lent. They will be of the same nature as those of last year. A short opening service of hymns and prayers, followed by lectures illustrated with slides. These lectures will be most helpful to those who are to be confirmed and all candidates will be urged to attend. Among the lectures given will be "History of the English Bible" and "History of the Episcopal Church in America." Again let me urge all to come to these services and help make them worth while.

May I suggest, in closing, that all our communicants carefully study the several reports of the Accounting Warden in this issue? See just how we raise our money, how far the envelopes fall short of meeting our obligations. Study the proposed Budget and let us see if we cannot devise better ways and means of raising the required sum than we have used in the past.

WEDNESDAY EVENINGS IN LENT—ILLUSTRATED LECTURES

That the Lord may exceedingly bless us all is the prayer of

Your Friend and Rector,
GRANVILLE TAYLOR.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NOTES

Beyond a question of doubt there is a better spirit in the School this year than in the two previous years. While there is keen rivalry in the Easter Offering, yet it is healthy and wholesome.

That everybody is working seems unnecessary to state, but the beauty of it is that they are all working with a smile on their faces. That is the spirit that wins.

According to two of the teachers, the Banner is already won. In spite of this confidence there are some fifteen other teachers who do not agree with them, and who are going ahead; they are still in the race. The editor would remind these teachers that many a "dark horse" has won a race, and that "there is many a slip between the cup and the lip." He would also advise them not to rest on their oars until they are across the line, either in front or at the back.

On behalf of the School we wish to express to Mr. Hughes our regrets that illness has and is preventing him from being among us on Sunday afternoons. His class of young ladies was just getting nicely under way. We hope it will only be a short time until he can again join our ranks.

We wish to extend to the family of James McKee our heartfelt sympathy at this time of their bereavement. His sudden death, through the explosion of the bomb in the Quaker City taxicab, was a great shock to all who knew him. We pray that God's presence may be very near them to comfort and help them at this time of their afflictions.

SPECIAL PREACHERS—SUNDAY EVENINGS IN LENT

Thoughts for Lent

Self-Examination

Most searching upon your knees and with open Bible in hand;—That you may find out your secret and besetting sins, your failings, temptations, dangers; that you may judge yourself by the rule of God's law to ascertain your real spiritual condition, and learn how poorly or how well you preserve your relations to God and obey His voice; to understand where Satan dwells in your nature, that you may drive him forth from his hiding place and expel him from your heart.

Good Works

That your acts of mercy and your alms may be memorials before God of the sincerity of your love for your Redeemer: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me." That you, going about doing good, seeking the lost, encouraging the despondent, rousing the careless, inducing the idlers to work, may cultivate the spirit of Christ and make you a partaker of His life.

Services

A punctual, regular and systematic attendance upon the special services appointed. Attend as many as possible; form your plan, then keep it without wavering throughout the whole season. Give special importance to every opportunity offered to partake of the Holy Communion. "Draw nigh unto God, and He will draw nigh unto you."

Self-Denial

The germ principle of the Christian life; its practice the universal evidence of love, which is willing to spend and to be spent—to become a living sacrifice—for others. The test of our love for the Redeemer whether we are willing to count all things else but loss to win Christ and to be found in Him; self-denial in food, in dress, in luxuries, in amusements, to produce also a "saving fund" for an acceptable Easter offering. "If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself."

Repentance

Whereby you forsake sin, that dishonors and offends God, violates His laws and pollutes your soul—a genuine hatred of that which makes your Saviour mourn and drives Him from your breast—a resolution to return from your wilful wanderings, an exile from home, to your Father's house and love and to your filial duties.

Retirement

That in the quiet seclusion of your own room, or amid the sacred surroundings of God's house, you may find time—yea, make time—to meditate upon the Cross and its momentous lessons of sin and holiness, of guilt and forgiveness, of love and its willing sacrifice: That you may think of life and its duties, of your life and its actual condition in the sight of God; that you may dwell on heaven and its hopes and promises; retirement, as far as possible, from excessive cares, from business projects, from all amusements; and even 'mid necessary duties, retirement in mind and the oft descending ejaculatory, wayside prayer.

Prayer

More frequent, more earnest, more intense in the closet and in the church; giving utterance to the deep yearnings of your soul for God and for a better life; expressing your sincere desire that God may visit you with pardon for past offenses, with compassion for your infirmities, and with Divine help in your dangers and necessities; drawing your life in its every thought and occupation closer to your Saviour's side, and nearer to "Our Father, Who are in Heaven."

PARISH LEAFLET.

There is nothing so strong or safe in an emergency of life as the SIMPLE TRUTH.—Charles Dickens.

Until you fill the job you now have, it will be hard to convince the boss that you can fill a bigger one.

LENTEN ADMONITIONS

1. Be present, so far as possible, at all the services in the Church.

2. Every day read some portion of the Holy Gospel, and add to your usual devotions some special prayers.

3. Let no day pass without some act of self-denial, and, if possible, let this act be the comfort of a poor or sick person.

4. Let self-examination be a daily duty before rest at night.

5. Deny yourself some luxury often, and let the cost of it be added to your Easter offering. The cost of self-denial should be given, not saved.

6. Let your reading be such as to aid you in keeping the holy season.

7. Give more time and care to daily private prayer.

8. Receive the Holy Communion as it is celebrated.

9. If any are at variance with you, forgive, and seek reconciliation.

WHOSE FAULT IS IT?

If a season laden with spiritual blessing comes and goes and leaves no blessing upon your life?

WHOSE FAULT IS IT?

ONE REASON FOR LENT

In the long distance telephone service the user enters a closet-like place from which all distracting noises of the busy world are shut out. Now the Lenten season is of this helpful nature to the Christians; its aim is to help us hear more intently God's voice to us His earthly children; we keep from social diversions not because there is anything harmful in such recreations but for the one great purpose of hearing the message Christ has for our daily living. And to put us in a more receptive frame of mind in this sacred season the Church holds more frequent services commemorating Jesus' sufferings for us.

HERE AND THERE

The Chronicle is indebted to Courtland Montgomery for the new picture of the Church buildings, and to Joe Devir for the new cut of the same on the front page of the paper.

The Sunday evening services are very gratifying to the Rector. They show marked improvement in the matter of attendance. Especially gratifying is the way the young men are coming to the services. Mr. Livezey's Sunday School class is setting a splendid example.

The Pure Food Supper was a success from the standpoint of eats. It was well-cooked, well-served and plenty for the money. The trouble was that only some half a dozen persons really attempted to sell tickets. Better luck next time.

Over a thousand dollars in the Reredos Fund, or nearly two-thirds of it. Who will help raise the other third? Send contributions to the Rector. This Reredos is to be a thank offering and memorial for the boys who served in the war.

We need men in the choir. Men who have some claim to a voice and an ear for music. There must be plenty of such in our ranks. Come out and volunteer your services.

For two years at least—we know not for how much longer—the piano has been carried up and down the stairs at considerable risk to the instrument itself and at greater risk to those carrying it. We should all feel very badly if any one was hurt in this unnecessary work. Is it impossible to get another piano that we can have one upstairs and downstairs? The Editor will start a fund for this purpose by pledging $5. Who will be the next? It may happen that one of us has a GOOD piano which is not being used and which they will donate to the Church.

A modern moving-picture machine has been purchased for the Parish House, and shortly a fireproof booth will be erected for the same. The Sunday School is financing the purchase until such times as the machine will pay for itself. We hope to have many evenings of entertainment and of profitable education by means of this instrument.

PRIZE CONTEST ANNOUNCEMENT

Some one man or woman has taught you something that is worth a great deal to you every day of your life. It may be worth money to you, or it may be worth more in common sense, happiness or wisdom. Anyhow, tell us who it is that taught you and what it was you learned.

You may have learned your best lesson from your father or mother; from some famous man or from some humble person, who perhaps you saw only once. Whoever it was, be frank and tell us all you know about him or her and what you learned.

Your letter should be based on your personal experience—no names will be published.

For the best letter of not more than 200 words a prize of $5 will be given. Contest closes February 20.

Address letters to Rev. Granville Taylor, Memorial Church of St. Paul, Fifteenth and Porter streets, Philadelphia.

Concerning St. Paul's—are you a NAME on its lists, or a MEMBER, a LIVING MEMBER, of its body?

DRIFTING IS EASY

Just yielding gradually to the promptings of the devil. Giving up this good habit and that good habit, a little at a time.

Is it not a blessing that the Church comes to you with its Lenten season, and urges you to make a new start—to get a fresh hold on yourself—to look into the causes for your drifting—to urge you to be a 100 per cent Christian once more? Why not heed her call?

The lessons of Lent are lessons of devotion. Its truth are truths of manhood. Its plea is for reality triumphing over the shams of life. Its spirit makes men better, nobler, holier in their daily lives and that is what we want.

If we examine the etymology of the word "fast," we find its fullest and deepest definition in the word "restraint." Thus Lent is a period of restraint.

The benefits to be derived from the season of Lent are only limited by the disposition of the individual. You can make of it all you desire it to be, or you can destroy all its influence over your life.

Lukewarmness—that's the word. There is too much lukewarmness among professing Christians. Be a real, earnest, enthusiastic, honest Christian for a few weeks. The result would surprise you.

If you are really anxious to live a better life, to do the most possible good, to make the best use of the time and talents God has given you, Lent is the time to make the effort.

—Exchanges.

A SEQUEL

'Twas a week after Christmas and the Parson's heart was blithe and gay. He was just a little tired, but he didn't mind that, for his dream had come true. His people had given the magnificent sum of $525.00 for their Christmas offering, and he had the joy of knowing that a little balance was carried forward for the New Year. But more than all else, as he scanned the envelopes which had contained the offering; as he read over name after name together with the amount given, he saw written large through them all two words—LOYALTY, LOVE. Loyalty and Love to God and His Church—and he even dared hope to himself.

The dream had come true, but more than that, he felt inspired and encouraged with the prospects for the new year. He determined that he would strive harder than ever (if it were possible) to be worthy of his faithful people and lead them to that state of peace and happiness which is found only within the Kingdom; he would make every effort to bind all together into one happy family in God.

While in the midst of his reverie the last stanza of Mr. Guest's poem came into his mind:

There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done,

There are thousands to prophesy failure;

There are thousands to point out to you, one by one,

The dangers that wait to assail you. But just buckle in with a bit of a grin, Then take off your coat and go to it. Just start in to sing as you tackle the thing

"That cannot be done"—and you'll do it.

In that spirit he aroused himself and started right in with the year's work before him.

RESOLUTION My Church and I

My Church is the place where the Word of God is preached, the Power of God is felt, the Spirit of God is manifested, the Love of God is revealed, and the Unity of God is perceived.

It is the home of my soul, the altar of my devotion, the hearth of my faith, the centre of my affections and the foretaste of heaven.

I have united with it in solemn covenant, pledging myself to attend its services, to pray for its members, to give to its support and to obey its laws.

It claims the first place in my heart, the highest place in my mind, the principal place in my activities, and its unity, peace and progress concern my life in this world and that which is to come.

I owe it my zeal, my benevolence and my prayers. When I neglect its services, I injure its good name, I lessen its power, I discourage its members and I chill my own soul.

I have solemnly promised, in the sight of God and men, to advance its interests by my faithful attendance, by reading the Holy Bible, by never neglecting its ordinances, by contributing to its support, by meeting with my fellow members, by watching over their welfare, and by joining with them in prayer and praise and service; and that promise I this day renew, before God my Father, Christ my Redeemer, and the Holy Spirit my Sanctifier.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

Co-operation is generally the difference between success and failure.

Friction is like the bite of a reptile. It not only curtails the efficiency of the individual, but lessens the general efficiency of an entire institution.

Lack of harmony is responsible for as much waste as unfair competition, of which we hear so much at the present time.

EASTER DAY—MARCH 27TH

RECTOR'S LETTER

How quickly time passes. It seems but a few moments ago that I was writing my letter looking forward to Lent. Now, as I write, the mind turns toward the end of Lent. Thus far the attendance at all services has been most gratifying, but there is room for further improvement. There should be a gradual increase from now until Easter Day. Each week should see more and more of our people in their places, and on Easter Day the whole Communicant Body should be prepared to present themselves at the Lord's Table, and to take part in the great services of praise and thanksgiving for the hope of immortality which comes to us on Easter Day. How dark and dreary life would be without such a hope. I question whether there ever has been or ever will be any revelation to man equal to that which is set forth in the Creeds, in the words, "I believe in resurrection of the body and the life everlasting." Nothing has brought so much comfort and consolation to our solely tried hearts as the thoughts that some time we shall meet our loved ones again in a happier and more glorious "land of pure delight." That is the hope and expectation of all, and that is the message of Easter. We are still in the midst of Lent. There is still time to inquire whether we shall measure up to the standard set forth for the citizens of that "Heavenly Kingdom." There is still time to forgive, to make amends, to begin to live in accordance with the Will of God. Let us not forget that it is a "narrow gate" that leads to "everlasting life"; and also the admonition that "few there are who find it." While we have yet time let us seek earnestly and zealously the true pathway of life, that on Easter Day we may give ourselves joyfully to the thoughts of the Resurrected Life.

Each year the early services on Christmas and Easter are being attended by larger numbers of people. It is a splendid custom and helps to make a wonderful service. The remarks made after the early service on Christmas Day lead me to believe that the 6 o'clock service on Easter Day will be well attended.

Easter Flowers

The message of Easter being that of "Life," it is quite natural to symbolize that "Life" by having the altar and sanctuary abundantly decorated with flowers and plants. Thus far we have been blessed with friends who gave either money, flowers or plants at Easter. We hope they will come forward again and make it possible to have a splendid display this year.

Easter Offering

In case there is any confusion may I state that the envelopes sent to all our communicants for their Daily Lenten Offerings are not for the same purpose as the Mite Boxes given to the Sunday-school Children? They are quite distinct. The envelopes are for the regular Church Easter Offering, while the Mite Boxes are for the School Lenten Offering, or Easter Offering, as it may be called. Last year the Church Offering amounted to $386.62. If the persons to whom these special envelopes were sent are using them faithfully I think we shall be very much pleased with the offering this year.

Special Preachers

It was a great pleasure to have Dr. Toop and Dr. Steele with us on the past two Sunday evenings. Several have expressed their appreciation of their visit, together with the hope that we might have them again. On February 27 we shall have Dr. Richardson, of the Pro-Cathedral of St. Mary, and March 6 Dr. Washburn, of Christ Church. We ask a continuance of the splendid attendance for these services.

Discretionary Fund

I wish to take this opportunity of thanking those who gave more liberally on the first Sunday of the month to make it possible for me to give aid to the needy. Also I wish to thank the anonymous donor of the special offering for the poor at the morning service yesterday (February 20). Few people can realize the multiplicity of demands made on this fund, and few can appreciate the helplessness of the Rector of any Parish when he sees face to face worthy, needy persons, and is unable to help them in a material way. I ask that you kindly remember this fund on the first Sunday of each month.

The Sick

This brings to mind the many sick persons in our parish. Will you all keep it in mind to notify me at once when you hear of any that are sick? That is the only way I can learn of it, for it seems to be the customary thing for the families of the sick to wait until some one else advises me.

The Children's Services

These services, held at 4 o'clock on Thursday afternoons, are open to all who may care to come, even though intended primarily for the children. The instructions given on the use of the Prayer Book will be as helpful to adults as to the children. Again I ask the parents to urge their children to attend. We cannot demand their attendance, nor do we wish to do so. We do want them to come, and they will if the parents will keep it before their minds.

Good Friday

For a time there was some question in my mind as to whether we should have the "Three-Hour" service on Good Friday. Last year the attendance was less than the year before. It means a great deal of work preparing for this service, and often times the apparent appreciation of the service is out of proportion to the work of preparation. However, we shall have that service again this coming Good Friday, God willing, and I trust more of those who are free to come will make it their business to do so. If the life of Christ means anything at all to us Christians surely the three hours' agony on the cross should be the most solemn and thought-producing of any in his life. As Dr. Steele said in his sermon last evening: "We need to think on Good Friday, whether by any chance our Sins played a part in His Death and Crucifixion."

Holy Week Services

Finally, and I trust I have not wearied you, I ask the organizations of the parish to attend the services on the evening of their regular meetings. All regular parish activities will be suspended during Holy Week in order that you may attend services. I ask the presidents of each group to keep this fact in mind and to advise the members that the meeting will take place in church.

With a deep appreciation of your co-operation and support in these matters, I remain,

Cordially yours,
GRANVILLE TAYLOR.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL NOTES

As I write these notes our superintendent and his good wife are just sailing out of New York Harbor for a four weeks' cruise around the West Indies. They expect to return in time to attend the Confirmation Service on March 20. Our best wishes go with them, and we hope and pray for them a safe journey and a safe return.

It would be impossible to give a detailed account of all the events and affairs that have been held for the benefit of the Lenten Offering. They were all good and deserve the highest commendation. Everybody worked hard and earned all the success they attained. I am sure none will begrudge a word of special commendation to Miss Emma Aikens' class for the worthy entertainment it staged. The two classes taught by Messrs. Mackenzie and Scott, who produced the "Country Minister." It is well known to the writer the vast amount of work done by all concerned, the making of scenery, the securing of the talent, the extensive advertising, etc., etc. The size of "the house" speaks loudly of their ability to handle such affairs.

In passing it may be said that the Sunday School has taken up the suggestion of the Rector with respect to a new piano. A committee has been appointed consisting of those who produced the "Country Minister." This committee intends to produce another entertainment either on April 22 or April 29. The date has not definitely been decided. You will be advised as soon as details are known.

In the near future an effort is to be made to have a mass-meeting of the Parents of our Sunday-school Children. The Rector has long felt the need of closer co-operation between the home and the school. The majority of parents do not know what the school is trying to do for their children, or what it has done. Above all, they do not realize what it can do with their help. When the time comes for this meeting we earnestly request all parents and adults of the parish to manifest their interest in the children by attending.

This list has been made up from material in hand. If there are any errors or omissions kindly advise the Rector or a member of the Altar Guild.

It is very desirable that all vacant dates be filled as soon as possible. In speaking for a date it is always best to give the exact date to be observed and then the Sunday nearest that date will be allotted.

THE GENERAL SITS UP FRONT—WILL YOU

A good story is told by a French friend concerning General Petain, whose slow advancement in the great war was attributed by some to anti-clerical prejudice in the French war office. When colonel, he was asked to send in a return of the names of his officers who attended mass regularly. Suspecting that this meant possible discrimination against them, he answered. "The Colonel of this regiment sits in front of his officers at mass, and therefore does not know the names of those who attend. Petain." Bravo!

NATION-WIDE CAMPAIGN

Reverend and Dear Sir:

It is suggested that you will convey to your people the following information either by reading this letter from the chancel at an early date or publishing the same in your parochial paper, as you prefer.

The total missionary offerings in 1919 (not including "specials") was $1,411,971.69. The total missionary offerings for 1920 (not including "specials") was $3,013,916.68—an increase of 113 per cent.

The third province, including Pennsylvania, increased their missionary offerings from $372,174.49 to $864,384.17—an increase of $492,209.68, or 132 per cent. This increase of $492,209.68 was the largest of any province.

Of the three Dioceses which have always contributed most liberally to missions the Diocese of Massachusetts increased its offerings from $107,695.91 to $181,294.35, or about $74,000; the Diocese of New York increased from $216,714.21 to $291,134.49, or about $75,000, and the Diocese of Pennsylvania increased from $161,458.39 to $252,678.93, or $91,000.

The foregoing only include contributions made to the Presiding Bishop and Council for Missions under their charge. For all kinds of Missions, including Missions and Institutions in the Diocese, also including "specials" sent to the Presiding Bishop and Council, the people in our Diocese contributed during 1920 about $625,000, which is estimated to be approximately $200,000 more than the previous year.

The foregoing figures show a gratifying increase in this Diocese, but the total of approximately $625,000 is, of course, far below the $1,320,000 asked of our Diocese; it is hoped that by a better organization, both in and out of the parishes, a further substantial step in the direction of the desired goal may be accomplished in 1921.

Faithfully yours,

REYNOLDS D. BROWN,
 Executive Secretary.

WEDNESDAY EVENINGS IN LENT—ILLUSTRATED LECTURES

REREDOS

The committee appointed by the Vestry to secure designs for the proposed Reredos has heard from three different concerns. One of these designs is of exceptional merit and is most reasonable in cost. We are still short about two hundred dollars for the Reredos, but we hope it will soon be forthcoming. At the last Vestry meeting it was unanimously voted that if satisfactory arrangements could be made with the contractor for payment the contract be given to install the panels of each side of the Reredos and on the sides of the Sanctuary. This would make a complete refurnishing of the Sanctuary, with the exception of the rail, and would make a splendid appearance. As soon as the plans are definitely decided upon they will be posted so that all may inspect them.

ELECTIONS TO THE VESTRY

As most of you know, Easter Monday, between the hours of 7 and 9 P. M., is the time set for the election of four members of the vestry. The four members whose terms expire this year are: Messrs. Aikens, Bruder, Gillin, and Skillen. Unless otherwise stated these names are automatically nominated for re-election.

The rules for nominating new names are stated in the by-laws of the church as follows (Article I, Section 2):

"No person, except a member of the vestry whose term will then expire, shall be elected a vestryman at any regular election unless he shall have been nominated in writing by at least three electors, and the said nomination delivered to one of the wardens or the secretary of the vestry at least 16 days before the election. The officer who shall receive any nomination shall post it in a conspicuous place in the vestibule of the church before 10 o'clock in the morning of the third Sunday before the election."

All names, therefore, must be posted before 10 o'clock on Sunday morning, March 13.

A LETTER

Christ Church Rectory Ridgewood, N. J.

The Rev. Granville Taylor, S. T. B., 2514 South Twenty-second Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Mr. Taylor:

I am in receipt of several copies of the "Parish Chronicle" of recent months, showing the splendid progress being made at Fifteenth and Porter streets.

I need hardly tell you that it gives me great joy and satisfaction to know that things are going well in the parish which I had the honor of starting some sixteen years. I beg to congratulate you and your loyal parishioners most heartily.

Next Tuesday, St. Paul's Day, I shall celebrate my sixteenth anniversary as a Priest of the Church, and in the service of Holy Communion on that day I shall remember the dear old St. Paul's Church where I received ordination.

With kindest remembrance to Mrs. Taylor and all the good people of St. Paul's, I am

Faithfully yours,
EDWIN S. CARSON.

THE SACRISTY

You are cordially invited to inspect our sacristy since it has been renovated. In a quiet way the members of the Altar Guild got together enough funds to buy two new rugs and to pay for the painting of the walls and ceiling. Miss Schofield, Mrs. Knox and Margaret Aikens scrubbed the floors, washed the windows, varnished the floors and closets, gilded the radiators and otherwise cleaned up in general. Some pictures have been hung, and altogether it makes a splendid room in which to take our visiting clergymen and the Bishop when he comes for Confirmation.

While this was going on in the sacristy, Kathryn Johnston, William Knox and several others were going over the hassocks, cushions and carpets in the church with a vacuum cleaner.

We thank those whose contributions made this improvement possible.

HERE AND THERE

Thus far only one response to the call for volunteers for the choir. We need six to eight men at once, and must get them from somewhere.

Apropos of SMOKING. It is extremely difficult to keep the Parish House clean if the men will persist in dropping their cigar and cigarette ashes all over the building. It seems best to restrict the smoking to the following places: Game Rooms, Young Men's Guild Room, Vestry Room and Hallways near the two entrances to the building. Gentlemen will kindly observe these requests.

At the rear of the church, on the right-hand wall going out, a box has been placed. This box is for inquiries, requests, sick calls and any other matter which it is desired to bring to the Rector's attention. So often things are forgotten, because they were mentioned to him while in the midst of a group of people or while busy greeting others. If matters of importance are written and dropped in this box there will be no occasion to tax his memory and your patience.

Perhaps some of you might know of a way to improve the "Chronicle" both as to appearance and contents. If you think you do know such a way, the Editor wishes you would advise him at your earliest convenience. Send news to him at any time, and it will be kept until the next issue of the paper. It is for your interest the "Chronicle" is published. Tell us what interests you.

Very little space has been given heretofore to basketball and other athletic activities of the parish. The reason is that no one has seen fit to make a report of them, and the Editor has not time to go hunting for it. We shall be glad to publish this news when it comes. We might say, however, that the basketball season is about finished. In fact, the league games are finished. Crescent wins the championship, with St. Paul second. We know St. Paul had good teams, but Crescent must have had better ones—at least, at the time of playing. We cannot expect to be in first place all the time, and in view of the varying fortunes of some of our players we did well to keep so near the front.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

RECTOR'S LETTER

My Dear Parishioners:

You made me very happy this Easter time, and I would be most ungrateful not to acknowledge the same. This was my third Easter among you, and I believe it to have been the best from every standpoint. The attendance during the Lenten season was most commendable and gratifying. The services on Easter Day were splendid, about 200 out at the 6 o'clock service and almost 350 at the 10.30 service. Such congregations are inspiring, not only to the clergy but also to all who attend the service.

What shall I say of the church offering? Thus far it amounts to $631, about $245 more than was given last year. It is a great joy to me to see so many more people taking an interest in the welfare of St. Paul's and giving so liberally to its support. May I say a word of appreciation to that group who gave so generously and yet who are not members of the church? Your offerings helped considerably in bringing up the total to what it is. I thank you in the name of the Parish.

The combined offerings of church and Sunday school are nearly $3,000. Can I help but feel happy?

I question if ever the altar looked so wonderful as it did at this Easter time. The plants and flowers that were brought in from almost all sources were largely instrumental in creating that note of joy and happiness which we all felt during the day. The response to the request for flowers was even larger than last year. May I again say "Thank you"? (After a while I'm afraid the Rector's Letter will simply resolve itself into a "thank you" column. However, just keep on, I like to say it.)

THE CANVASS

I would like to say a word here with reference to a canvass which will likely be made in the near future. It is to be made to rectify certain conditions that exist with respect to the weekly envelopes. Occasionally we hear of some one who has not yet received their envelopes. We wish to know of all such cases and see that they are supplied. Again, there are at least 40 per cent. of our communicants who are not using this means of supporting the work of the church. The canvass is being made chiefly for these people, to bring home to them, if possible, the necessity of their using the envelopes along with the other 60 per cent. Sometimes I am asked to transfer people to another church. It is impossible for me to transfer them as communicants in good standing, if I do not know that they have done their share in the support of their church. A communicant in good standing is one who attends Holy Communion—certainly twice a year—and who gives to the support of the church. Those who are at present using the envelopes will not be approached during this canvass.

PURE FOOD BAZAAR

On the 8th and 9th of April there is to be a Pure Food Bazaar in the Parish House. It is something entirely new and our church has the privilege of having it first in this neighborhood. The work will mostly be done by an outside company, such as the erecting of the booths, etc. The products sold will be supplied by some twelve manufacturing concerns, and will be sold to us at cost or less, and we will, of course, make the difference between the cost and the retail price. Tickets have been supplied at 10 cents each. These tickets, however, are REDEEMABLE AT THE BAZAAR FOR FULL VALUE IN MERCHANDISE. This should be an easy way for us to obtain additional funds for the church, and with comparatively little effort on our part. The goods sold are those used in every household every day in the week. Kindly give this new venture your support—at least by coming to look it over.

Faithfully yours,

GRANVILLE TAYLOR.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

$2,328.04

Hats off to the Sunday School! They have done that which some time ago would have seemed well nigh impossible. To date I have heard of no school offering that has reached this magnificent total. The teachers voluntarily assessed themselves about $870 at the beginning of Lent, and then proceeded to fix another sum in their minds as the goal, absolutely ignoring any figures established in previous years. It is a wonderful tribute to the faithfulness of all the teachers and to most of the scholars. The church may well be proud of a staff of teachers who, week after week, make sacrifices to teach our children. The time, energy, thought and enthusiasm which has been put in this Easter offering is incalculable, and yet in spite of it all, and of the anxiety that accompanies such efforts. I doubt if there was one teacher or scholar who did not really enjoy the work and feel highly elated with the results as announced on Easter Day.

Of course we must not forget the many people who with patience and generosity helped to make this huge success; those who have begged, baked, bought anything and everything to turn a penny for the Easter offering. In behalf of the school we wish here to thank this large group most heartily for their co-operation and interest.

The Editors of the "Chronicle" have adopted the policy of not always mentioning the names of those who help in the many undertakings of the Parish for fear of leaving out any who rightly deserved commendation. In this case it would be impossible to recall or tabulate all such names. A word, however, is justly due the banner class and its teacher. This class was assessed $80.00 and subscribed $351.25, oversubscribing by the sum of $271.25. A wonderful offering, and we most gladly and heartily congratulate Miss Emma Aikens and her class of girls for their splendid work.

If you will look over the subjoined table you will see that every teacher went over the top and with a good margin. (The figures given are those handed in on Sunday afternoon, which may need a few corrections after a final count is made.)

The special offerings include $20 from Mrs. George C. Thomas, and $5.00 from the St. Paul's Boys' Club. The Young Men's Guild gave $25.00, which was recorded in the Rector's class. We appreciate this manifestation of interest on the part of these persons and groups.

LOYALTY

At a meeting of the 306th Infantry American Legion Post in New York, a speaker proposed that a business directory of the members be printed, showing where each man could be found and the nature of his occupation, so that the members could patronize him.

"For instance," he said, "I was in a barber shop this morning and found one of our old soldiers working there. Now, I'll go to him every time."

"That certainly is a good idea," agreed a former private. "Now, I was going into the Subway the other day and I saw one of our former guards working as a ticket chopper. Ever since then I always use that station."

Note on Memorial Altar Flowers

This list has been made up from material in hand. If there are any errors or omissions kindly advise the Rector or a member of the Altar Guild.

It is very desirable that all vacant dates be filled as soon as possible. In speaking for a date it is always best to give the exact date to be observed and then the Sunday nearest that date will be allotted.

VESTRY ELECTION

No other names than those of the men whose terms expired this year were nominated for election to the Vestry, this means the same four were re-elected to serve for another three years. The men are Messrs. James Aikens, John Bruder, Eugene Gillin and Robert Skillen. (A unanimous election, I take it, means a unanimous support on the part of the whole church. The Vestry is and should be a representative body and should reflect in its deliberations the will of the whole body. That it is so doing is well attested to by the splendid progress being made in every department of the Parish.
 —Rector.)

ILLUSTRATED LECTURES ON THE WORLD WAR

A course of four lectures on the World War will be given in the Parish House of the church on the evenings of April 6th, 11th, 20th and 25th. These lectures will start promptly at 8 o'clock. The series will cover the war in the air, the war on the land, the war on the water and the war under the water. In other words, they will treat of the various activities as aviation, the army in all its branches, the navy and the submarines. The slides are loaned by the War and Navy Departments.

These lectures are to be given for the benefit of the Camping Fund of Troop
 No. 232, Boy Scouts of America, of this church. The boys all want to spend a season in camp at Treasure Island this summer and I am taking this means to raise money for them. The talks will be not only authentic but instructive.

Music will be furnished by the Troop Orchestra.

Season tickets giving admission to all four of the lectures are priced at 50 cents.
 Tickets for single admissions to any one lecture of the series are priced at fifteen cents each. I earnestly ask that you help us make this series a SUCCESS.
 There is nothing which appeals to the boys as a week or two in camp, especially at Treasure Island. TICKETS WILL BE ON SALE FROM NOW ON BY THE SCOUTS. I have offered three prizes to the ones selling the largest number of tickets. Perhaps if you cannot use some tickets you will be glad to buy them for friends.

I take this opportunity of thanking you all in advance for any help you will give us in this project.

Respectfully,

THOMAS S. NELSON,
 Scoutmaster, Troop No. 232, B. S. A.

MEN, COME OUT TO THE "GUILD" LECTURES!

YOUNG MEN'S GUILD

The Young Men's Guild have prepared the following program for the month of April:

April 4th, Monday—Illustrated lecture on the "Electrical Crane." (To all the men of the Parish and their men friends.)

April 11th, Monday—Illustrated lecture on the "New Automatic Telephone," in conjunction with the illustrated lecture on "The World War on Land," by the Scoutmaster. (To Parish members and their friends.)

April 18th, Monday—"Rally Night" for all the men of the Parish.

April 25th, Monday—"Dance" for members of Parish and their friends.

Much care has been taken by the Guild Entertainment Committee to make each of the foregoing events a delightful affair, and an occasion on which all the Guild members, the members of the Church and their friends will turn out in goodly numbers to enjoy. The "Rally Night" for the men, on April 18th, we particularly wish to impress upon your memory. All the men of the Church are invited, along with their friends, and plans are being made to take care of a good crowd. We hope to have all the men present on this occasion, even if they have to forego some of the other events. An attractive program has been arranged for the months of May and June, which will be made known later. The attendance of folks, not members of the Guild, to these affairs will go a great ways toward inspiring the Club to be up and doing, and we hope that every one of the St. Paul's people will be among those attending.

Cordially yours,

S. W. HANEY, Chairman.

BASEBALL

Under the management of Mr. E. K. MacKensie, the Young Men's Guild are expecting to have a first class baseball team. We are promised a team that will be a credit to the Guild, and that will provide opportunities for getting together an enthusiastic following of the younger folks. A report recently issued states that "During the season we will play Wildwood, Ocean City, Sea Isle City, Pitman, Reed's Sons, Trevoise, South Philadelphia Professionals, St. Monica, Stenton, Stetson, Forty-eighth Ward, Christ Church, Lit's, Gimbel's, etc."

DORCAS SOCIETY

The Dorcas Society is still going forward. Five new members have been enrolled in the past two months. The socials held at the homes of the following members were great successes: Mrs. K. Jillard (Birthday Social), Mrs. Buzby (Waist Measure Social), Mrs. J. Aikens (Height Social), and Mrs. H. Whitesel (Poverty Social). The proceeds amounted to $123.05. We wish to take this opportunity of thanking all those who aided either by donations or personal work. Owing to a death in the family of Mrs. Davidson the social that was to have been held at her home has been indefinitely postponed.

The "Silver" that was used at the Pure Food Supper has been paid for out of the proceeds of these socials.

We are still making aprons and would be pleased to receive orders for the same to help us supply some much-needed vestments for the choir.

K. JILLARD, Secretary.

A. B. C. COMMITTEE

The A. B. C. Committee makes announcement of the following entertainment:

The Big Show: "Spendthrifts," by Harry L. Newton.

The Date: Friday night, April 29, 1921. Two hours of continuous comedy, a scream from start to finish, and one of the latest and most successful comedies offered the American stage.

The Place: The Parish House, Fifteenth and Porter streets.

The Cast: Includes the Beverly family living beyond their means in a handsomely furnished Girard Estate property; Dad is money mad; Mother ambitious to break into South Broad Street Society Circles; Daughters, who think of nothing but dress and the movies; the Son, who does not care how he spends Dad's money; the Englishman who couldn't get around with his monocle; Marie, the Irish "French" maid; James, the butler; the two kids from the wharves; the collector; the hairdresser; the manicurist.

The Production: Handled exclusively by the members of the Sunday School. Get your tickets early from any member. Remember the "Country Minister." We heard lots of favorable comment. This one goes over in lots bigger and better style, with lots of time for dancing after.

Result: A good piano for the Sunday School.

KEEP GOING

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,

And the road you're trudging seems all up hill,

When the funds are low and the debts are high,

And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,

When care is pressing you down a bit, Rest if you must—but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists and turns, As every one of us sometimes learns,

And many a failure turns about

When he might have won had he stuck it out;

Don't give up, though the pace seems slow—

You may succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than

It seems to a faint and faltering man,

Often the struggler has given up

When he might have captured the victor's cup,

And he learned too late, when the night slipped down,

How close he was to the golden crown.

Success is failure turned inside out—

The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,

And you never can tell how close you are,

It may be near when it seems afar;

So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit—

It's when things seem worst, that you mustn't quit.

—(Copyright, 1921, by Edgar A. Guest.)

RIDICULOUS

"Mamma, is Papa going to die and go to Heaven?"

"Of course not, Bobby. Whatever put such an absurd idea into your head?"

HERE AND THERE

Messrs. Fulwider, St. John and Rogers have again rendered the Parish a valuable service in erecting the moving picture booth. It was no small job to fit in the huge asbestos boards, and to drill the many holes necessary to fasten the same to the iron frame. When completed we shall have a first class, fireproof booth, which satisfies all requirements of the fire marshal and the underwriters. Parents need have no fear of sending their children to any moving pictures held here. We are counting on having a series of pictures to help pay for the new apparatus.

On May 7th, Saturday afternoon, all the branches of the Girls' Friendly Candidates in Philadelphia will meet at St. Paul's for their annual service. The Rector will preach the sermon. When the details are supplied we shall probably call on some of the members of the Parish for assistance.

The Rector and Mrs. Taylor had a most enjoyable visit at Mr. and Mrs. John Bruder's. Weehawken, N. J., two weeks ago. They found them still as loyal and enthusiastic about St. Paul's as always. If any one else is in that neighborhood I'm sure they will receive a warm welcome at 480 Park Avenue, Weehawken, N. J.

We wish to extend our sympathies to Miss Laura Bruder, who is confined to the house with sickness, and also to Mrs. Matthewson, who is in quarantine with her sister. We send our best wishes for an early and complete recovery.

What would the church services be without a choir? What is the value of a choir that is faithful in its attendance? No one knows better than the Rector. Our choir was most loyal and faithful during the many services in Lent and Holy Week. We want them to know they are appreciated.

We expect to place the order for the new reredos in the near future. The design will be posted in the vestibule of the church as soon as possible.

Mr. Robert Aikens has brought his letter of transfer to us. We welcome him as a registered communicant. He has been regular in attendance and taken part in our activities for some time past.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

NEW VESTRYMAN

At the last regular meeting of the vestry, Mr. Herbert Edkins was elected to serve in the place of Dr. Sladen, resigned. Mr. Edkins has been most active in the work of the parish for some time past, taking interest in several phases of its work. Recently he has taken a class of boys in the Sunday School. Having a deep interest in the Church's welfare, and being so willing to work in its interest, it is quite fitting that he be elected to the vestry. We heartily welcome him to that body.

HELP THE SUNDAY SCHOOL IN ITS LENTEN OFFERING

RECTOR'S LETTER

It is with considerable reluctance that I begin this, my last letter to you as your Rector. I have had a particular joy in writing to you in the past, for the "Chronicle" has been to me more or less of a secret joy. In this letter I want to say to you those things which will be most profitable to you, both as individuals and as a Parish. I find it hard to know just what to select as being the most important. Shall I try to point out ways in which you can best carry on the work of St. Paul's—based on my three years' experience among you? No, I think not. That is not for me to do, but for the new Rector, who can best build on his own experiences. Shall I endeavor to point out some of our weaknesses; some phases of the work which might not have come up to our expectations? Again, I say "No." I am quite sure all of us know best where we have fallen short, and how we can remedy those conditions in the future. Furthermore, this is hardly the time or the place to register complaints; to stress faults and shortcomings.

For inspiration, therefore, I turn to the Scriptures, to see what others may perhaps have done under similar circumstances. In so doing I find that St. Paul (our patron Saint) in his many missionary journeys, had occasion to give final admonitions to the members of the several churches in which he had ministered. On gathering these together I find they contain all that I could wish to say to you. In addition, they are said in the words of, and with all the power of the greatest apostle to the Gentiles. Let us read them carefully and prayerfully:

Philippians 3:1—"Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord." For he who finds his joy in the Lord has a joy "which none can take away."

Ephesians 6:13—"Finally, be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of His might. Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand the wiles of the devil." For he who trusts in himself is certain to fall; but he whose strength is in the Lord, must ultimately win the victory over all the evils of his life.

1 Peter 3:8—"Finally, be like minded, compassionate, loving as brethren, tender hearted, humble minded; rendering not evil for evil or reviling for reviling, but contrariwise blessing, for thereunto were ye called that you should inherit a blessing."

Philippians 4:8—"Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honorable, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things . . . and the God of peace shall be with you."

2 Thessalonians 3:1—"Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may run and be glorified." If that great apostle needed the prayers of the people to help him carry on his own work, how much the more shall we need your prayers that we may do the work which confronts us.

2 Corinthians 13:11—"Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfected; be comforted; be of the same mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you. . . . The Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all."

Faithfully your Friend and Rector,
GRANVILLE TAYLOR.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Official Opening of Our Hebrew Christian Synagogue—517 North Fifth Street

Saturday, February 25th, at 2.30 P. M.
The Right Rev. Thomas J. Garland, D.

D., D. C. L., National President of The Church Mission to Jews, presiding.

Address—The Rev. L. N. Caley, D. D., chairman of Diocesan Jewish Committee.

Greetings—Max I. Reich, Esq., national president, the Hebrew Christian Alliance of America and the Rev. Joel Levy, dean of Hebrew Christian Theology, Chicago, Ill.

Speaker—The Rev. D. J. Newgerwitz, superintendent, Diocesan Jewish Evangelization, Montreal, Canada.

The opening of this new building marks the initial effort of a new era in our Church's Jewish Evangelization. "Come and see." Car No. 50 on Fifth street passes the door.

You are heartily invited to attend and to bring with you some of your friends. Music and refreshments.

Faithfully yours,
JOHN L. ZACKER,
Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NOTES

At a recent meeting of the teachers of the school it was unanimously decided to adopt the same principle for raising the Easter offering as was used in the past three years, namely, of setting a certain sum, known as the "quota," for each class. The class exceeding the quota, the greatest amount being the banner class.

A glance at the dates under the caption of "PARISH EVENTS" on the first page of this issue will advise you of what is being done by the classes for their Lenten offering. We feel certain that all will want to give their support to the classes in these laudable efforts.

We are very happy to welcome Mr. Edkins on our staff of teachers. He has taken the class of boys taught by Mrs. Roberts, who felt compelled to give the class up because she did not have sufficient time to give it the proper care. Mrs. Roberts only consented to take the class for a time, until we had opportunity to look about for another teacher. We appreciate that willingness to help in the time of need, and wish to thank her for it.

Miss Georgiana Worrall has been spending a few Sundays with Mrs. Taylor, the secretary of the school, preparatory to taking over the secretaryship after February 12th. It is by no means an easy work to do, but we are quite confident Georgiana will take care of it in a most efficient manner—judging from past experiences.

Since the last issue of the Chronicle the Sunday School treasurer has made the final payment on the new piano purchased last year. The charging apparatus of the organ has been repaired and put in good condition at an expenditure to over thirty dollars.

One hundred combined prayer books and hymnals have also been purchased for use in the school. Each Sunday the school memorizes the Collect for the day, making it necessary for the scholars to have prayer books.

We wonder if all realized that the Sunday School raised over thirty-four hundred dollars last year, and gave the Church thirteen hundred and fifty dollars toward its missionary quota, and for its own obligations. In addition to that it bought the moving picture equipment; completely outfitted the main school room with new shades. Rather a live organization one would say. Are you doing anything to help it?

GOOD NEWS

St. Paul's is to be congratulated in the fact that one of its boys has indicated his intention to study for the ministry. Spence Dunbar is known to all, and is one of our best young men. Courteous and gentlemanly at all times, steady and reliable in character, he is well suited to that calling. Surely he could have selected no vocation in life which will give him more opportunity for service to man and God. There is no calling which demands as much of a man in every way as the ministry—at least if he is desirous of realizing its highest mission. His future training and development should be a matter of keen interest and concern to all who desire to see St. Paul's make its contribution to the ministry of the Church.

This news has made me particularly happy, and I have great pride in being able to make this known to all before I go to my new work. I shall always be deeply interested in his progress and give him what advice and encouragement I can in his years of training.

It is frequently said that a church has not fulfilled its mission until it has given at least one man for the ministry. We earnestly pray that he may be kept steadfast in his purpose until he comes to the bishop to be ordained.

Owing to an illness of Bishop Rhineland it has not as yet been possible to have him enrolled as a postulant, the first step. This will be done as soon as convenient.
G. T.

THE CHURCH

You should become part of it. Half-hearted allegiance or unwillingness to let all the riches of the church possess you will avail nothing. By loyal. Learn of the church's past, and the glory of it. Learn of its present, its needs, and struggles. Do not stand afar off and pretend to judge the church, and perhaps condemn it, or ignore it, but share in its work and hopes and ideals. Better be a toiler in the church than one indifferent or critical. Then live this life, wholeheartedly. Learn what discipleship in Christ means. For the church is nothing apart from Him. Share its faith and be true to Him. Make it a matter of practical effort to absorb all that the church has, not an occasional or partial element of it. Be whole-hearted in it, and then you will be a worthy servant of your Master—Attwater.

FEBRUARY 22d—THE ANSWER—DON'T MISS IT!

First Sunday in each month—Richard Parish.

Note on Memorial Altar Flowers

This list has been made up from material in hand. If there are any errors or omissions kindly advise the Rector or a member of the Altar Guild.

It is very desirable that all vacant dates be filled as soon as possible. In speaking for a date it is always best to give the exact date to be observed and then the Sunday nearest that date will be allotted.

THE ANSWER

Sleepless nights! Have you ever experienced one? And have you ever thought of your future destiny? No doubt you have. What has been your solution of these premeditated queries? We dare say you have sought superficial and shallow aid. Thousands of orientals and gypsies earn their daily bread assisting others quiet their thoughts as to their future.

"THE ANSWER" is what you seek. It has arrived at the psychological moment to help you and to boost the Sunday School Lenten offering. Yes, there are three acts of rare comedy, with lots of time for dancing. A scream that will make Chaplin fade; produced exclusively by our own crowd, the A. B. C.'s. Remember the "Spendthrifts"? Check the night! Washington's Birthday, February 22d. Join the jolly bunch headed for St. Paul's to stop, look and listen to "THE ANSWER."

A. B. C. COMMITTEE.

GOOD PROVERBS

Better be alone than in bad company.
Correct accounts keep good friends.
Cold weather and knaves come out of the North.
Choose your wife as you wish your children to be.
Catch the bear before you sell his skin.
Caution is the parent of safety.
Choose your love, and then love your choice.
Better to trust in God than in His saints.
Better lose the saddle than the horse.
Better say nothing than nothing to the purpose.
An open enemy is better than a false friend.
Bad company is the Devil's net.
Flattery sits in the parlor when plain dealing is kicked out of doors.

THE CHRONICLE

It is the purpose of the "Chronicle" staff to continue publishing the paper each month as in the past. This is necessary in order to fulfill the obligations to the advertisers. These "ads" have been placed for a period of twelve months, and some of them paid well in advance. This is the best course to pursue, however, for several other reasons. First of all, it will keep the staff together and in regular working order, awaiting the coming of the new Rector. Secondly, it will keep the whole communicant body in touch with the parish activities in the interim.

There seems to be some misunderstanding on the part of some of past subscribers to the Chronicle, because of the fact that the paper has been mailed out to other than those who have subscribed. The reason for doing this is because all feel that unless the Chronicle reaches every home in the parish it will not be fulfilling its purpose. Simply to print a hundred copies or so and send them to the few who have subscribed would not be worth the effort. We believe the method already pursued has proven to be the best one, in view of the results of all the parish activities through the past year. Just how much the Chronicle helped in making the new reredos and panels possible is hard to say. That it did help considerably we know for a fact. Just how much the Chronicle helped us to raise over two thousand dollars at the bazaar we cannot exactly say, but it did play a big part.

It should not, therefore, be a case of saying to ourselves: "What is the use of subscribing when you can get it for nothing," but rather, Do I want to support it? Do I want to have it sent into every home, where it might arouse greater interest in the Church? It should be a matter of pride with every one that they do not want another to pay for the paper they receive. There should be at least another hundred subscriptions to make the printing of the paper certain. It costs only a trifle over eight cents a month, and there are very few who cannot pay that amount.

Let us adopt a slogan: A PARISH CHRONICLE SUBSCRIBER IN EVERY HOME.

BAZAAR REPORT

The following report has been made from the receipts as marked on the individual cards from the various tables, and from moneys turned in to the Rector, and directly to the bank, since the bazaar. It is most gratifying to know that we more than reached our goal of two thousand dollars.

RECEPTION

The vestry wishes to announce that on Thursday, February 16th, at 8 o'clock, there will be a reception in the Parish House to Mr. and Mrs. Taylor. All members and friends of the Parish are cordially invited to be present. The pastors of the several churches in this community are being invited.

HELP THE SUNDAY SCHOOL IN ITS LENTEN OFFERING

WHOSE CHURCH IS IT?

The Church takes its character and its vitality from the people who compose it. It is either the Church Militant or the Church Somnolent.

Militant means fighting. No army can fight if the rank and file undertakes to leave all the fighting to the captains. No Church is militant when its people hang back and leave all the work to the clergy.

Whose Church is it in your parish? If it is the Reverend Mr. So-and-So's Church, it may be a strong social and ethical organization, but it has not much spiritual strength. If it is "our" Church, it has some hope of advancing the Kingdom of Christ on earth.

Why do you go to church in your parish? Is it to hear a fine sermon and listen to the excellent music of a paid choir? Or is it to worship God and receive the refreshment of the spirit that comes from honest and devout participation in public devotions?

When a large congregation fills a Church's pews to hear an eloquent clergyman preach, it is a tribute to that clergyman's gift of exhortation. When a Church is filled to hear a special musical program, it shows appreciation of the musical skill of the choir leader and the organist.

But when a Church is filled at an early service, at a service conducted by a lay reader, at a service for which no elaborate preparations have been made—that means that there are real Churchmen in the congregation.

"If," said a layman to his rector, "I had known you were to preach, I should have attended that service."

"If," replied the rector, "you had been there knowing I was not to preach, I should be more certain of the genuineness of your devotion."

How is the Church judged by those outside it?

The efficacy of the Church's teachings is judged not by the conduct of those who teach, but of those who are taught. If they show that the Church means something to them, "others, not of this fold," will conclude that the Church is a necessary thing in their lives. They will want it, even demand it. But if we of the Church fail to bear witness in our lives to the power of the Holy Spirit, how can we expect others to believe?

Whose Church is it?

If not our own—nobody's.

HERE AND THERE

Please take note that the Women's Auxiliary is selling flavoring extracts (vanilla, orange, lemon, almond and maple). The profit from these sales is to help them carry on their work for missions.

The Rector wishes to take this opportunity of thanking the members of the choir for their most loyal support in the past three years. Under the leadership of Mr. Souder the choir has made marked improvement in its singing. Keep the good work up!

Mr. Wesley E. Scott has been elected an associate editor of the "Chronicle" to take the place of Mr. Charles F. Sladen.

Miss Edith Beck has also been elected to the staff of the "Chronicle" to take charge of the mailing end of the work.

SOME DUTIES OF LENT

To Pray

"This kind cometh not forth but by prayer and fasting."

Therefore pray earnestly that sin may be driven from your heart.

* * *

To Fast

"But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then they shall fast in those days."

Let your Lent be a real one; deny yourself some article of food and add the cost to your Easter offering.

* * *

To Deny Yourself

"If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow Me."

For the Lenten season put aside luxuries, amusements, secular meetings, while you follow Christ.

HELP THE SUNDAY SCHOOL IN ITS LENTEN OFFERING

To Give

"Freely ye have received, freely give."

According to the manner in which God has prospered you and as the result of your self-denial, be glad to lay by in store and forget not to distribute in almsgiving and in charity through the Church.

* * *

To Partake of the Holy Communion

"Unless you eat My flesh and drink My blood ye have no life in you."

Therefore avail yourself of every opportunity to partake of the Holy Communion, which is the channel of life. Never miss a service except for good and sufficient reasons.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your
Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following
Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish
to another shall procure from the Rector, if
any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens,
a certificate stating that he or she is a com-
municant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which
reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."
On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness
or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted
before arrangements are made for baptisms,
marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt
notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St.
Paul's Parish are asked to send their names
and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the
expenses of the Church.

IMPORTANT

This publication is only possible so long
as our friends in the business world give us their advertisements. Many will do that if they get results. The advertisements cover
many needs of your household and business.
Please look them over carefully, and whenever possible give them your patronage.

"I saw your advertisement in St. Paul's

REV. MR. CARSON COMING

The Rev. Edwin S. Carson, who was the first Rector of St. Paul's Memorial, and who is now the Rector of Christ Church, Ridgewood, New Jersey, will be the special preacher on Sunday evening, March 26th.

His many friends in this parish will be delighted to see and hear him again in the pulpit where he began his splendid and successful ministry.

OUR MINISTER IN CHARGE

The Rev. George S. Gassner, D. D., a retired priest of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, has been secured by the Vestry to act as locum tenens during the vacancy in the Rectorship of this parish.

Dr. Gassner was for more than twenty years chaplain of the Seamen's Mission at Front and Queen streets.
During part of that time he resided at Sixth and Tasker streets, so that he is no stranger to down town. Since his retirement in 1919 he has had charge of Trinity Cathedral, Easton, Maryland, where he remained for a year and a half, and at the Church of St. Jude and the Nativity, Eleventh and Mt. Vernon streets, Philadelphia, for ten months.
Wherever he goes his genial presence makes for him a multitude of friends, and we are sure that St. Paul's will be no exception.

JOHN W. HUGHES,

Accounting Warden.

LENTEN SERVICES

Elsewhere in the Chronicle will be found the schedule of the Lenten Services as they have been arranged for this year. It is practically the same as before, and we hope that the attendance will be fully equal to the former standard.

Cards have also been printed. Keep one where it is in constant view, and see how many of the services you can attend during this Lent. A well spent Lent is the very best preparation for a happy Easter.

LETTER FROM THE MINISTER IN CHARGE

Dear Friends:

Though I have known you but a very short time I am sure that I can call you my friends. Your genial smiles and hearty hand clasps assure me that I am to minister to a warm and kindly hearted people.

And after all, the greatest pleasures in life are those we get from our friendships. To live alone and unloved, even in the midst of the greatest luxury, would be misery beyond expression. Life without love is barren and not worth living. Above everything else let us cherish and cultivate the kindly friendship of those we meet, and especially of those with whom we are most closely associated.

I am to be with you as your minister for a time, and I want to get acquainted with you all, and to have each one of you as a personal friend. I want to be as helpful as possible, and to carry the spirit of cheerfulness and brightness into all our work both for God and His Church, and also for our fellow man.

I know that you are sorrowing over the departure of your splendid Rector who had gained such a hold upon your affections. I dare not hope to gain such a place in the few weeks or months that I may be with you, but we must all stand together for the work and welfare of our dear St. Paul's. I say "our" advisedly, for this is now My Church as well as yours. I just know that I am going to love it and all its people, and that I will have a very happy time while I am with you.

The overseer of the workmen may go, but the work must not therefore stop. Rather must those who remain be still more zealous and steadfast. I know it would grieve Mr. Taylor's heart if he should hear that the work at St. Paul's is going to pieces; that the attendance is falling off; that dissensions are creeping in; that the organizations are declining, and that his successor is coming to a lukewarm parish.

Not for a moment will we think of such a thing. I know that you are not going to allow such a state of affairs to come about. It must not, IT SHALL NOT BE. We are all going to stand and work together with renewed consecration and zeal, so that when the new Rector comes he will find a parish alive, hopeful, confident, zealous; with all its activities fully functioning; with the people harmonious, enthusiastic, ready and anxious to follow their leader. This is the object for which we must all work while I am with you. We must not lose ground, but if possible take a step in advance.

Let us earnestly and constantly pray that God will send a Rector to St. Paul's who will lead it to a power and influence even greater than the present.

May I give you a Slogan that will help us if we all adopt it: FORWARD! EVERY ONE AT WORK!

Affectionately your friend,
GEORGE S. GASSNER.

FAREWELL RECEPTION

On Thursday evening, February 16th, a farewell reception was given to the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, who have gone to the Chapel of the Mediator, Fifty-first and Spruce streets, West Philadelphia. The large room of the Parish House was well filled with friends both in and outside of the parish.

Mr. Thomas S. Boyle presided and introduced the speakers, ministers of the neighboring churches. They were the Rev. Messrs. Petrie, of St. Luke's M. E.; Thomas, of Mt. Hermon M. E.; Reynolds, of the Reformed Church, and Hill, Rector of All Saints. These gentlemen all spoke of the pleasant and brotherly relations they had had with Mr. Taylor. Mr. Hazlett spoke on behalf of the Vestry, and Mr. Wesley E. Scott on behalf of the younger men of the parish.

After the addresses Mr. Boyle in a few well-chosen words, presented Mr. Taylor with a purse of gold, to which Mr. Taylor made fitting response. Not to be outdone, the ladies of the congregation, through Mrs. Boyle, presented Mrs. Taylor with a handsome beaded bag containing a sum of pin money.

While the occasion was delightful, especially in the brotherly spirit manifested by the neighboring ministers, yet it was tinged with sadness in the knowledge that the tie of pastor and people which has been so delightful during the past three years, was now broken. Both Mr. and Mrs. Taylor must well know that they are carrying away with them the sincere and affectionate regard of the people of St. Paul's Memorial.

? ? THE ANSWER ? ?

Did you see this A B C production? If you did, you will readily understand that it is impossible to adequately describe it in our limited space. It was one of the cleverest and most humorous plays ever given in our Parish House. Under the skillful direction of Mrs. Boyle the whole performance was filled with comical situations and thrilling scenes. It was emphatically an artistic success.

The A B C organization has always shown fine talent in our parish plays, and the following spotlight stars appeared in "THE ANSWER."

ELLA BRIGGS, as Lena the German maid, made a great hit, and her impersonation brought forth much applause.

WILLIAM LOCKS, as Conrad Melzer, proved not only a skillful plumber, but also an ardent lover of Lena. His cleverness well deserved the applause he received.

SPENCER DUNBAR, as Arthur Sewall, the young husband, popular at the social clubs, always scheming to defeat the efforts of his wife to keep him at home. As a schemer he was unrivaled.

EDITH BECK, as Grace Sewall, a neglected wife, held the sympathy of the audience throughout. Her attractive appearance and stunning costumes made her a most charming character.

WESLEY E. SCOTT, as Ira Wilton, a wise, much-married old guy, was simply immense. Snappy, and still fond of the gay old life, he had a hard time freeing himself from his wife's apron strings. He won the sympathy of the married men in the audience.

GEORGIANNA WORRALL, as Eliza Wilton, was equally effective. She was little—but oh, my! When she laid down the law to Ira, many a wife envied her haughtiness and determination. She is a born little actress.

EMMA E. AIKENS, at Laura Wilton, made her part very effective. Her mother was ambitious that she should marry the English duke, but love for her soldier boy Harry was more than a match for the title.

HOWARD G. BUCK, as Harry Brentworth, the military sweetheart of Laura, had all the grace and ease of an old-timer. Though hounded by Laura's mother and the Englishman, he was more than a match for both.

GEORGE BORTIE, as Lord Dudley, the Englishman, had one of the most difficult parts in the play. However, George was the man of the minute, and put it over in great style.

ROBERT AIKENS, as Jim Buckner, the uncle from Texas, caused howls of laughter with his wild and woolly slang. His impersonation was most excellent.

After the play, the young people had two hours of dancing to the music of a most excellent orchestra. Ice cream was served, and every one went away pleased and happy.

The proceeds go to the Lenten Offering of the Sunday School classes of Mr. Buck and Mr. Scott, who were responsible for this function.

Mr. Buck and Mr. Scott wish to thank all of those who helped to make this affair a success, and especially to express their appreciation for such a large audience, and the orderly way in which it helped to conduct the program.

At the close of the first act, Mrs. Thomas S. Boyle was presented with a large and handsome bouquet from the members of the cast, as a slight appreciation of her indefatigable assistance in coaching and directing the performance. We owe a vast debt to Mrs. Boyle.

SHALL WE HAVE A CONFIRMATION CLASS?

The date of Confirmation at St. Paul's Memorial was originally announced as Friday, February 24th. But as this was after Mr. Taylor's departure, it was not possible for him to gather and instruct a Confirmation class, so the announcement was recalled.

Some inquiries have already been made and a couple have expressed their desire to be confirmed. There is no reason why we should not have a class of good size and secure another appointment from the Bishop, for the latter part of April or early in May.

The minister in charge will be very glad to begin the instruction of a Confirmation class as soon as a dozen or more names are secured. Please speak to him, or to your Sunday School teacher as soon as possible.

Note on Memorial Altar Flowers

This list has been made up from material in hand. If there are any errors or omissions kindly advise the Rector or a member of the Altar Guild.

It is very desirable that all vacant dates be filled as soon as possible. In speaking for a date it is always best to give the exact date to be observed and then the Sunday nearest that date will be allotted.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

During the Lenten Season of 1920 our Sunday School children, with the co-operation of their parents and friends, contributed over sixteen hundred dollars. During the year 1921 they contributed over twenty-two hundred dollars. This money was divided between Missions and the support of our Church. Without the splendid work of our children our Church would have had difficulty in meeting its obligations.

We now start on our campaign for 1922. It is earnestly hoped we will have the same aid and encouragement. Remember, the teachers and officers give during the whole year the best they have to the moral and spiritual training of your children, thus helping them to be able to meet the trials and temptations of life, which all must meet.

The children are asked each year during Lent to give their complete support and assistance to this splendid work. May I ask the parents and friends to again encourage their efforts?

Sincerely yours,

THOMAS S. BOYLE,
Superintendent.

SPECIAL PREACHERS IN LENT

Especial attention is called to the list of special preachers for the Sunday evenings in Lent. Few, even of the larger Churches, can boast of such a list of distinguished men of our diocese. Let us make an extra effort to be present at all these services and show by our presence that we appreciate the kindness of these busy men in coming to St. Paul's Memorial.

A PRAYER FOR LENT

O God, my Father, hear my prayer and grant me this, my petition; that I may be strengthened with Thy might; that I may be conformed to Thy will; that being strengthened and conformed, I may serve Thee more faithfully in time to come, through Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen.

BOYS' VOLUNTEER SERVICE

The Wednesday evening services in Lent will be held in the main Sunday School Room, in the Parish Building. This requires the removal each week of all books used in the Sunday School.

The superintendent appreciates very much the voluntary offer of a number of boys, under the leadership of Spencer Dunbar, to take care of the removal and replacing each week of all books used in the Sunday School work.

Cake Sale—Saturday afternoon and evening, March 11, under the auspices of Mrs. Baltz's Class. Benefit of Lenten Offering. Lend a helping hand.

HERE AND THERE

One beautiful Sunday morning in February we saw a bright sparkle in the general direction of the choir. Not having received any previous explanation, we began to wonder if little old Dan Cupid and his arrow had been getting into mischief again. After the services there was much consternation, small groups gathered and after much whispering and nodding of heads, we have the following report to make:

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Aikens, Sr., announce the engagement of their daughter, Emma, to Mr. Wesley E. Scott, vestryman and Sunday school teacher.

Everyone wishes them health and prosperity in their matrimonial bliss, and I say Luckyfella.

Mr. and Mrs. William Beardwood were among those who came to see "The Answer." We feel sure they enjoyed the show among so many of their old friends, and will be able to return to West Philly and tell their neighbors how we solve the Eternal Question.

Congratulations are in order for Mr. and Mrs. William Watkins, who were married recently in this city. Mr. Watkins for a number of years was active in the work of the Guild, Sunday School and Choir. Again we say congratulations.

Mrs. Walter Scott was very ill last months, but we are very glad to report that she is now convalescent. We will be glad to welcome her back again, as she is one of our most zealous workers.

Mrs. Fred T. Stevenson has taken charge of the Candidates' Class of the G. F. S. since the removal of Mrs. Taylor. Although it is a new work for her we are certain that she will be most successful. She has already gathered about her a corps of zealous and efficient helpers—Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. Estes and Mrs. Rehfuß. This work among the candidates is most interesting and important, and there is no reason why our class should not be one of the largest and best in the diocese. We must try to have at least ONE HUNDRED before the season closes.

In spite of the fact that we are without a Rector, St. Paul's Sunday School is going "over the top" with its Lenten Offering this year. Some of the classes have already secured nearly their quota, and are still busy. The interest is wonderful, and their zeal is untiring. We are all glad to help them by patronizing their efforts.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubic before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

LETTER FROM THE MINISTER IN CHARGE

Dear Friends:

Truly, I can say with the Psalmist that "the lines have fallen unto me in pleasant places," for I cannot tell you how happy I am in being permitted to minister among you. You are so kind and appreciative, and so genial in your cordiality that already I feel as if I had known you for years instead of weeks. The way in which you are holding everything together, and the enthusiastic spirit with which you are working are perfectly fine and splendid. While we have no startling progress to remark, yet we are certainly not losing ground, as is so frequently the case in a vacancy in the rectorship of a parish. The Sunday morning congregations have held up to their usual number, and the special preachers on the Sunday evenings have been greeted by splendid congregations.

I am especially glad that our Chapter of the Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew is soon to be revived with Mr. E. F. Gillin as the director. We may be certain that under his enthusiastic leadership the splendid lot of boys we have here will become a most valuable adjunct and assistance in the work of St. Paul's parish.

The reviving of the Senior Chapter is under consideration, and must be accomplished before long. The older members of St. Paul's will remember the splendid Chapter here under the leadership of Dr. John Wilkinson, when it was noted as being one of the most active and flourishing Chapters in the whole diocese of Pennsylvania. And there is no reason why it may not become the same again. We have a fine body of men, and especially young men, who, under a proper and zealous director, would be a tremendous spiritual power in this Church.

The women's work is splendidly organized and most efficient at St. Paul's. The work of the Woman's Auxiliary, the Dorcas Society, the Altar Guild, the Girls' Friendly, and the Candidates' Class, is simply beyond praise. There is a beautiful harmony in all this work which is sure to bring efficiency and success. We men must take off our hats to the ladies and acknowledge that they are setting us a wonderful example.

And we men must not be content with simply praising the women, and admiring their good work. We should take this matter to heart and be so inspired by their activity and example that we will get into action ourselves. The work of the men and boys of this parish is not properly organized, although the field is of enormous extent, and ripe for the harvest. We are not doing what we ought, nor what we easily might do, in this direction. Let us give this matter serious thought, so that presently we may get together and organize in such a manner that all the men and boys of this parish may be brought together in some enthusiastic organization—or organizations—that will provide and carry out a program of work and recreation that will appeal to all. Our splendid Parish House with its unsurpassed facilities, must not be allowed to remain idle and unused. I am very confident that the problem will be solved in the near future.

I am glad to know that the Sunday school is working with might and main, and is determined that the Lenten Offering shall go ahead of last year. It will be a glad day for all of us when their report at Easter shows that they have "gone over the top."

I hope to see a large attendance at the seven o'clock celebration of the Holy Communion on the morning of Easter Day. The full choir will be in attendance, and we will have a full Easter service, except the sermon. The rule of the Church from very ancient times has been that every Christian should receive the Holy Communion on Easter Day, or within the Octave (eight days) of Easter. As there will be two celebrations on Easter Day, and on Monday and Tuesday in Easter Week at 9 A. M., and on the next Sunday at 8 A. M., there will be no excuse for failing to make your Easter communion. In these five celebrations every one can find an hour convenient.

I trust that you are all laying something by each week towards your Easter offering for parish expenses, and that it will be a generous one. The offering this year, as in former years, will be used to pay the coal bill, which in these days, is a very large item in the parish budget. We all want the Church and Parish House to be well warmed in winter, and I know each one will want to do his share.

The Wednesday evening services have been only fairly well attended. I have tried to make them short and interesting. They last only three-quarters of an hour, but week-day Church going does not yet seem to be quite established as a habit. I look for a good attendance during Holy Week. Look on your Lenten cards for the list of services.

Sincerely and affectionately
GEORGE S. GASSNER.

MR. CARSON'S VISIT

A congregation of nearly two hundred and fifty greeted the Rev. Edwin S. Carson on Sunday evening, March 26. From far and near, his old friends gathered in order to again see and hear their former beloved rector.

Directly after his graduation from the Philadelphia Divinity School, Mr. Carson, by appointment of Bishop Whitaker, came to this part of the city and began work in an old dwelling house which stood where the Parish House now stands. The Mission soon became a parish, and Mr. Carson was the first rector.

During his rectorship the Church and Parish House were built, so that we were not surprised to hear him say that every stone and brick in them is dear to his heart. He preached a splendid, uplifting, comforting sermon.

After the service he greeted his old friends, some of whom had come many miles to see him again. It was plain to see how he had endeared himself to both young and old. He was accompanied by Mrs. Carson and their two charming young daughters. Mr. Carson's mother was also in the congregation, and we know that she was justly proud of her boy.

Mr. Carson is now rector of Christ Church, Ridgewood, New Jersey, which is one of the leading parishes in the diocese of Newark. He ministers to a large, influential and wealthy congregation, composed chiefly of New York City business men and their families. Ridgewood is really a suburb of New York.

All together for a Happy Easter.

CAKE SALES

Very successful cake sales for the Lenten offering have been held on Saturday afternoons in the Parish House, as follows: March 4, the Misses Aikens' classes; March 11, Miss Johnson's class; March 18, Miss Jacquillard's class; March 25, Mrs. Baltz class; April 1, Miss Clair Livezey's class. On April 8, the sale will be by Mrs. Boyle's class; on April 15, by Mr. Scott's class. All of these sales have been liberally supported and well patronized. Late comers were disappointed at finding the tables bare. Of course, they were all sold, for when one has had a taste of St. Paul's quality cake, he is sure to come back for more of the same kind. If you don't believe it, come and see, or ask the editor, HE KNOWS.

BAPTISMAL SERVICE ON EASTER EVEN

We wish to call especial attention to the baptismal service on Easter Even—Saturday, April 15—at 4 P. M.

In the early days of the Christian Church while working especially among the heathen, the candidates for baptism were kept under instruction for a long time, and were known as catechumens. The special time for baptism was Easter Even. It was immediately followed by confirmation, so that they could make their first communion on Easter Day.

All through the history of the Church Easter even has been regarded as the day especially appropriate for the baptism of both young and old. No doubt there are many children in this vicinity whose parents have simply neglected to have them baptised. If each reader of this paper will inquire of their neighbors and urge them to bring their children to the Church on that day, we can have a very large number.

IMPORTANT

This publication is only possible so long
as our friends in the business world give us
their advertisements. Many will do that if they get results. The advertisements cover
many needs of your household and business.
Please look them over carefully, and whenever possible give them your patronage.

"I saw your advertisement in St. Paul's

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your
Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following
Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish
to another shall procure from the Rector, if
any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens,
a certificate stating that he or she is a com-
municant in good standing."

SEND THE CHILDREN TO THE SATURDAY AFTERNOON SERVICES

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which
reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness
or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted
before arrangements are made for baptisms,
marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt
notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St.
Paul's Parish are asked to send their names
and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the
expenses of the Church.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The Girls' Friendly Society, under the leadership of their efficient Branch Secretary, Mrs. Florence McGowan, has been doing splendid Lenten work in sewing for the missionary boxes. The girls are very enthusiastic and are doing fine work. They will hold a cake sale on Saturday, May 6th, in the Parish House.
Everybody will want to help the girls.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Sunday school is an inspiration to all who are interested and the officers and teachers claim that the scholars are the best behaved, while in session, each Sunday afternoon, that is known by all reports from other churches.

With an average attendance of 285 scholars and the teachers always found present each Sunday, both make results that are marked to a high degree of perfection. Mr. Boyle, as superintendent, who insists on attention from teachers and scholars alike, arranges an interesting program every Sunday, which does not tire, and as brief as possible.

The finances are in excellent shape, due to the Pledge Envelopes of each scholar, and by that means are successful in everything undertaken.

Each class is working hard toward the Lenten offering and expects to "go over the top," or in other words, do better than last year. The parents of the children are urged to take an interest in their Mite Boxes, and so encourage them to get the desired results.

Several young men have expressed a desire to enter the ministry of the Church and arrangements are being made to a successful issue to meet this happy conclusion of the work performed in St.
Paul's. This is the first time in the history of St. Paul's that anyone has expressed a desire for the priesthood of the Anglican Church.

The whole congregation must feel elated by the splendid work done in the Sunday school, and it is the wish of the minister-in-charge, Mr. Gassner, Mr.
Boyle, teachers and scholars, that in the event of a new rector the Sunday school will be in such a condition of progress that it will attract his attention the first thing.

With this ideal governing all, it is desired that the parents and congregation as a whole, give their undivided support to this progressive Sunday school, and make it the largest in Philadelphia and one that can be pointed to as an example for preparing the young for the Church.

JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD TO RE- ORGANIZE

With an urgent appeal from the boys of the Sunday school, and a general consensus of opinion by their elders, arrangements are in the making of forming a Junior Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, in the Memorial Church of St. Paul.

The idea was brought before our previous rector, Rev. Granville Taylor, and our minister-in-charge, Rev. George Gassner, D.D., both of whom are enthusiastic over getting the boys together in a Christian organization that has a particular object to brings boys to "Christ's Kingdom."

Some years ago St. Paul's had a live-wire Junior Chapter, under the leadership of Mr. William Beardwood, but was allowed to disband by the removal of its director.

A future date of reorganization will be posted in the Parish House and boys between the ages of 12 and 18 years are requested to consult Rev. Dr. Gassner or E. F. Gillin.

There is some talk of bringing the men together and forming a Senior Chapter. All men of the parish are urged to think this matter over.

ELECTION OF VESTRYMEN

Notice is hereby given that an election of four Vestrymen to fill the vacancies caused by the expiration of the terms of Messrs. Thomas S. Boyle, James M. Hazlett, John W. Hughes, John Aikens, on Monday evening of Easter Week, to be held in the Parish House of the Memorial Church of St. Paul, Fifteenth and Porter Streets, in the City of Philadelphia, between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock.

The Vestrymen so elected will serve for three years.

FRANK F. FULWIDER,
 Secretary.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Woman's Auxiliary has shown its usual activity during the Thursdays in Lent. All day, under the zealous leadership of the president, Mrs. Gardiner, their room is a scene of busy activity, and the whirring sewing machines have turned out a surprising number of garments for the missionary boxes. A letter was recently received from the head of the Supply Bureau complimenting them upon the beautiful manner in which the sewing was done. Certainly it was well done. That's the way the ladies always do things at St. Paul's.

SPECIAL PREACHERS

We have greatly enjoyed having with us the Rev. Dr. Toop, rector of Holy Apostles; Rev. Mr. Hill of All Saints, and the Rev. Dr. Washburn of Old Christ Church. All of these men have given us splendid sermons, and their presence and ministrations among us have been highly appreciated. On April 2 we expect to have with us the Rev. E. L. Tiffany, rector of St. Mark's, Paterson, New Jersey, and on April 9, the Rev. John R. Hart, Jr., chaplain at the University of Pennsylvania. Both of these gentlemen are able preachers, and we ask that you will make special efforts to attend.

ST. PAUL'S CHOIR

Our choir certainly outdid itself on the night of Mr. Carson's visit. The members were out in full force, and Mr. Haney, with his fine tenor, was a very welcome addition. The solos by Miss Rosenfeldt and Miss Maxwell were simply splendid, and the two anthems were given in a beautiful manner. Our thanks are due to Mr. Souder and the faithful women and men who lead our singing in such a beautifully reverent manner. The choir is now at work on the Easter music, and we may confidently expect something especially fine on that day.

PARISH NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Connor have built a bungalow at Haddon Heights and are now occupying it. Mr. Connor is the Business Manager of THE CHRONICLE and the editors are waiting impatiently for the watermelons and sweet potatoes that they will get from "Joe's" farm.

Miss Emma Aikens' Class held a social evening at her home on Saturday, March 25th. About forty guests were present and quite a substantial sum was realized for their Lenten offering.

Have you paid your subscription for THE CHRONICLE, or do you pick it up from the table in the Church? We are mailing it only to those who have paid for it, and we need more subscribers if we are to keep it at its present size.

Mr. William J. Gibson has recently been operated on in Jefferson Hospital. We are glad to know that he has been able to return home and will be able to return to his work in a few weeks.

Mrs. Haney, mother of our Wharton Haney, has recently undergone a very serious operation, but is on the road to recovery.

We are glad to know that little Doris Virginia Gillin, the daughter of our publisher, Mr. Eugene F. Gillin, has recovered from a very severe illness.

CHILDREN'S SERVICES

The children's services held at 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoons have not been attended by as large a number of the children as we might wish, but the services have been quite interesting. They have been taking little pilgrimages about the Church building where the names and uses of the different parts and objects have been fully explained to them.

ALTAR GUILD

As this will be the last issue of THE CHRONICLE before Easter, we are taking advantage of the opportunity to remind you of the Easter decorations in the Church.

Last year we were all pleased with the large and beautiful collection of plants in the chancel. Let us do just as well—or a little better—this year. Send your plants to the Parish House as early as possible on Saturday.

KATHRYN R. JOHNSON,
 Secretary.

REREDOS AND NEW PANELS FUNDS REPORTS

There seems to have been some misunderstanding in regard to the financial report of the new reredos and panels as published in the February issue of THE CHRONICLE. It was the report of the funds as received by the Rev. Mr. Taylor, just as they were collected by the treasurer of the funds, and others, and then paid over to him. These reports are not to be taken as a list of contributors. That was published correctly some time ago.

SOME HISTORICAL PLACES

About twenty-five of the Candidates' Class of the Girls' Friendly Society made a trip to Independence Hall, Carpenters' Hall, the Betsy Rose House, and Benjamin Franklin's grave, on Saturday, March 25, 1922.

Much to our surprise and regret, when we arrived at Independence Hall we were not allowed to see anything but the Liberty Bell and a portrait of General Lafayette. But the guard gave us a wonderful account of the buildings and the events which made them famous.

In Carpenters' Hall we saw a vest which had been worn by Robert Morris, the chairs used by the members of the First Continental Congress, and an old-fashioned writing desk.

On Arch street, between Second and Third, stands the "Birthplace of Old Glory." The same fireplace and chairs, with the cupboard in the corner of the room were there when Betsy Ross lived in the house.

With his wife and little son by his side, Benjamin Franklin lies at rest in the old Christ Church burying ground, at Fifth and Arch streets. The great American statesman died in 1790.

ANNE M. COLE.

CANDIDATES GO ON A HIKE

The Candidates' Class of the Girls' Friendly Society, under the leadership of Mrs. Stevenson and Mrs. Rehfsuss, took a hike to Independence Hall and other places on Saturday, March 25. It was a merry party of twenty-five that left the Parish House about 10 A. M. We asked the girls to write an account of their trip, and two have been handed in. On another page of THE CHRONICLE will be found the sketch written by Anne M. Cole. We are sorry not to have room to also publish the nice one written by Mabel Boggs.

HELP THE SUNDAY SCHOOL TO GO OVER THE TOP

DORCAS SOCIETY

Like all the other ladies the Dorcas is busy at Lenten sewing, for it is assisting the Girls' Friendly in finishing the work it had undertaken. The Dorcas meets every Monday night. The President, Miss Clarissa Schofield, sees that every one has plenty of work. Miss Schofield is a very busy woman, but it is the busy people that you can depend on to do things. Whatever she undertakes she does, and does well.

The Dorcas Society much regrets to hear of the accident by which Mrs. Busby, of 1029 Johnson Street, broke her ankle. We trust that no permanent injury will follow.

On Monday evening, May 1st, a display of moving pictures showing the very interesting processes of soap making will be given in the Parish House by the Kirkman Soap Company. All are invited and a cake of soap will be given free to every one present. Silver offering.

DORCAS SOCIETY

At the close of the holiday season the regular meetings of the Dorcas Society were resumed. We began our work for the year on January 8th, and we hope for a good attendance so that the new officers may be enabled to carry out all of their plans. As we have always been successful in everything we have set out to do, and with such a live wire as Mrs. J. Aikens as president, let us make this our banner year.

It is with regret that I find it necessary to announce the resignation of Miss C. Schofield as president after so many years of very faithful service. Miss Schofield felt that some one else should have the opportunity to fill the president's chair. In Mrs. Aikens I think we have found a worthy successor.

The Dorcas Society is holding a series of parties at the homes of various members so as to raise money for the Chancel Window. All who have the success of the work of the Dorcas Society at heart will help us in making the parties a success. The first was held at the home of Mrs. Aikens, 1827 Castle Avenue. It was well attended and everybody had an enjoyable evening. The next will be held at the home of Mrs. James Kershaw, 2323 South Mole Street, on Thursday, January 25th, and the third will be held on Thursday evening, February 1st, at the home of Mrs. Robert J. Skillen, 2542 South Rosewood Street. The fourth will be held on February 8th at Mrs. Garrison's, 2530 South Fifteenth Street. These parties will be discontinued during Lent, but will be resumed after Easter.

The following officers were elected:

President, Mrs. J. Aikens; Vice President, Mrs. F. Light; Secretary, Mrs. R. J. Skillen; Treasurer, Mrs. D. C. Batty.

Wishing for the co-operation of all the ladies of the Church, the Dorcas Society again extends an invitation to them to join us in our work.

HARRIET J. SKILLEN,

Secretary.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The Girls' Friendly Society held their annual service on Sunday evening, January 28th. Many new candidates were presented by Mrs. Stevenson and admitted to membership, and Mrs. McGowan presented a large class of probationers, who were admitted to full membership. Mrs. Scott was admitted as a Married Branch Helper. Several girls were raised to Senior membership and Mrs. Stevenson, Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Rehfus were admitted as Associates. The Rector, as Chaplain of the Branch, admitted the members, presented the badges and preached the annual sermon to the Society.

THE MINSTREL SHOW

Don't fail to see the Minstrel Show to be given by Mr. Gillin's Class on Friday evening, February 9th.

The boys have been working hard for a long time to make this show a great success. Let us do our part and encourage them by our attendance. Proceeds are for the Lenten Offering. Tickets may be had from any member of the Sunday School.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

Don't throw away your magazines and books when you are through with them. Some isolated person would like to get them. We now have a branch of the Church Periodical Club in the parish in charge of Mrs. Walter Scott, 2345 South Carlisle Street. If you get a monthly or weekly paper that you would like to re-mail regularly to some missionary in the far West, Mrs. Scott will gladly furnish you with a name and address. If you have books and magazines that you have no further use for, send them to the Parish House in care of Mrs. Scott and they will go to some hospital or institution. If you cannot send them, mail a card to Mrs. Scott and some one will call for them.

Donations to cover postage and express charges will be gladly received.

The "Parish Chronicle" is issued the first Sunday of each month.

All material intended for publication MUST be in the hands of the Editors by the 20th of each month, and should be written only on one side of sheet.

IMPORTANT

This publication is only possible so long as our friends in the business world give us their advertisements. Many will do that if they get results. The advertisements cover many needs of your household and business. Please look them over carefully, and whenever possible give them your patronage.

"I saw your advertisement in St. Paul's Parish Chronicle"—that counts with the tradesmen more than you think.

For advertising rates consult the Business Manager.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

CONFIRMATION, TUESDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 20th

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

The Choir under the direction of Mr. Souder is working hard at present on special music for Lent. The musical programme for the Sunday evening services during Lent this year will be unusually good.

RECTOR'S LETTER

February 1st, 1923.

Dear Parishioners:

This number of the Parish Chronicle comes to you on the very eve of the blessed Church season of Lent.

From the very early Christian centuries the Church has emphasized certain seasons of the year as seasons of particular interest and benefit to her members. Some of these seasons we still observe, some of them we have neglected. Lent is one of the few seasons still universally kept. In fact, Lent is one of the few seasons that is being increasingly observed.

There must be some reason for this, and I think that the explanation is that men and women everywhere are coming to the realization of the need in their lives of a definite period in every year to be used for the express purpose of deepening the spiritual life.

Our Parish Church and its Altar should be our center for things spiritual. To this end the special Lenten services are arranged.

To all the members of the congregation, therefore, I plead for as frequent attendance at the Lenten services as is possible. I realize and appreciate the fact that we are living in a busy age. One of the greatest sacrifices we can make to God is of our time.

You will find the list of our Lenten services printed elsewhere in the Chronicle, and you will later receive a Lenten card as an additional reminder.

Keep this Lent! Come to Church, and by all means come to the Holy Communion. I plead not so much for the services as for the Christian life the services are intended to develop. Get a new grasp on spiritual values. Learn the real meaning of Good Friday and the real joy of Easter Day.

Sincerely, your Rector,
STANLEY V. WILCOX.

CONFIRMATION CLASSES

Bishop Davenport, of Easton, Md., will be present at St. Paul's on Tuesday evening, February 20th, at 8 o'clock, to administer the Apostolic rite of Confirmation or the Laying On of Hands.

Confirmation Classes are meeting on Wednesday afternoons at 4 and Sunday afternoons at 4.

The Rector would be glad to consult with any one considering Confirmation and who has not as yet joined one of the classes.

LENTEN SERVICES

The Lenten Services this year will be as follows:

Ash Wednesday, Penitential Office and Holy Communion at 10 A. M., Litany and Sermon at 8 P. M.

Every Wednesday evening, Intercessions and Address in the Parish House at 7.30 o'clock.

Every Saturday afternoon, Children's Service in the Parish House at 4 o'clock.

Young People's Services every Sunday evening in the Parish House from 7.15 to 7.40 under the direction of the Junior Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. Speakers and topics to be announced later.

Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, Evening Prayer and Address by special speakers.

February 18th—Rev. Wood Stewart, Rector of St. Martin's - in - the - fields, Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia.

February 25th—Rev. George C. Foley, S. T. D., Philadelphia Divinity School.

March 4th—Rev. Charles Henry Arndt, Rector of Christ Church, Germantown.

March 11th—Rev. Addison A. Ewing, Rector of Gloria Dei (Old Swedes').

March 18th—Rev. Louis C. Washburn, D. D., Rector of Christ Church, Second and Market Streets.

Palm Sunday and Holy Week Services to be announced later.

REUNION OF THE CONFIRMATION CLASSES

There will be a reunion of the Confirmation Classes and a service of Holy Communion on Maundy Thursday evening, March 29th. Pews will be reserved and properly marked so that the classes may sit together.

THE NEW HYMNALS

The New Hymnals have been received and were dedicated and used for the first time on Sunday, January 21st. At the same time 200 new Prayer Books, the generous gift of a member of the congregation, were put into general use. We now have an adequate supply of good Hymnals and Prayer Books to meet our present need.

THE JUNIOR CHOIR

We are hoping to have a Junior Choir recruited from the Sunday School and the Candidates' Class of the Girls' Friendly Society to help with the singing at the Children's Services to be held on Saturday afternoons during Lent.

MINSTREL SHOW AND DANCE, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9th

SUNDAY SCHOOL NOTES

Practically one month of the new year has already gone. During the month our Sunday School has accomplished some of the things we had planned to do. We had planned to have a big Lenten offering this year, and I think we will. Judging by the various activities that have taken place, the size of the offering must be growing rapidly. On Friday evening, January 26th, the play "Step Lively" was given. Financially and otherwise it was a great success. Mr. Gillin's class is going to give a minstrel show on February 9th, and we hope this will be very successful.

Since last month our attendance has been increasing. Fifteen new pupils have been enrolled during the month of January. This is a splendid start and we are going to keep it up. Watch our attendance grow! Don't forget the minstrel show—with a five-piece orchestra!

GEORGIANNA WORRALL,
Secretary.

JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD NOTES

On Monday evening, February 12th, we will have as our guests the young men of Christ Church Parish, Franklinville. We all enjoyed having the fellows from St. Barnabas with us last month and are looking forward to another enjoyable evening. Mr. Ackerly, a former member of St. Paul's, is now interested in the Brotherhood work at Christ Church.

LENTEN CAKE SALES

As usual during Lent, classes of the Sunday School will hold Bread and Cake Sales in the Parish House on Saturday afternoons. The proceeds are for the Lenten Offering. Buy your bread and cakes at the Parish House this Lent.

RECTOR'S LETTER

March 1, 1923.

Dear Parishioners:

The increasing attendance at Holy Communion and at the special Lenten services is an outward and visible sign of the fact that we are, as a parish, keeping Lent. To me, your rector, this is indeed most gratifying. It shows that in addition to a healthy and vigorous growth in our parish as to numbers there is also a deepening sense of spiritual values, without which no parish can ultimately succeed.

The large Confirmation class presented to Bishop Davenport on February 20th, was the result of a united parish effort. It was a great privilege indeed to present such a splendid class, and I take this opportunity to thank all those who so willingly assisted with this work. To the class I wish to express my appreciation for the prompt and regular attendance at lectures and for the hearty spirit of co-operation manifested in our work together.

The epidemic of children's diseases and of general ill health has brought sickness and suffering and in some instances deep sorrow to nearly every home in the parish. It has not been possible to minister to everyone personally, but at all times we have had you in our minds and hearts and prayers.

Elsewhere in the Chronicle you will find a list of the special services during Holy Week. I hope that they will be well attended.

The Easter services will be at 6 A. M. and 10.30 A. M. I am sure that every member of St. Paul's will make his or her Easter Communion at one of these services.

Lord, through the grave at gate of death,

May we with Thee arise

To an eternal Easter-day

Of glory in the skies!

STANLEY V. WILCOX.

LENTEN SERVICES

The special Lenten services are being well attended, especially the Sunday evening service. The special preachers for the remaining Sunday evenings are as follows:

Sunday evening, March 4, Rev. Charles Henry Arndt, D. D., rector of Christ Church, Germantown.

Sunday evening, March 11, Rev. Addison A. Ewing, Gloria Dei (Old Swedes')

Sunday evening, March 18, Rev. Louis C. Washburn, D. D., Old Christ Church, Philadelphia.

The Wednesday evening services in the Parish House will begin at 8 o'clock hereafter instead of 7.30 P. M., the later hour being a more convenient one for the congregation.

The children's service on Saturday afternoons is very enjoyable. Music for this service is supplied by a volunteer choir of boys and girls under the direction of Dr. Sladen.

The Young People's services on Sunday evenings just previous to the regular service are being well attended. These services are under the auspices of the Junior Chapter of the Brotherhood. The young men are conducting them splendidly and the addresses by Albert Eastwood and William Jillard were interesting and timely.

THE EASTER MUSIC

The choir is working hard under the direction of Mr. Souder to see that our Easter music is well up to the high standard of former years. There will be special music at both the 6 o'clock service on Easter morning and at the 10.30 service. On the evening of Palm Sunday there will be a special musical service, to which not only members of the parish but all residents of this community are cordially invited.

IMPORTANT

This publication is only possible so long
as our friends in the business world give us
their advertisements. Many will do that if they get results. The advertisements cover
many needs of your household and business.
Please look them over carefully, and whenever possible give them your patronage.

"I saw your advertisement in St. Paul's

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your
Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following
Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish
to another shall procure from the Rector, if
any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens,
a certificate stating that he or she is a com-
municant in good standing."

PLACE YOUR ORDER FOR EASTER ALTAR FLOWERS NOW

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which
reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness
or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted
before arrangements are made for baptisms,
marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt
notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St.
Paul's Parish are asked to send their names
and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the
expenses of the Church.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NOTES

The Sunday School has been working steadily and willingly for the growth of the Easter offering. Several of the classes have given cake sales and suppers on Saturday afternoons. The coming Saturdays are booked for cake sales and suppers also. The parents and friends of the pupils should strive to come to these Saturday afternoon affairs. You may be surprised that such a good substantial supper is given for the small sum of thirty-five cents. The quota set for our Sunday School offering is very great, so we must work doubly hard if we are to succeed.

Talking about money, I hear that many of the pupils are delinquent with their pledges. The treasurer's heart (and mind especially) will be relieved if the scholars try to be more prompt with their envelopes.

It would be very pleasing also if the pupils try to be in Sunday School at 2.30 if possible.

Don't forget that everyone is going to put forth his greatest effort for our missionary offering. We want to send that promised cablegram to Mr. Boyle.

GEORGIANNA WORRALL,
Secretary.

You are earnestly invited to attend the Young People's Services every Sunday evening, from 7.15 to 7.40 p. m.

OUR CHOIR

Every visiting clergyman this Lent has spoken in the highest terms of our choir. I think sometimes we are apt to overlook the splendid service rendered to the church by the members of the choir until some one from outside brings it home to us. We are, indeed, grateful to our choir for their faithfulness and loyalty and the high quality of the music rendered.

CONFIRMATION

SUPPORT THE CAKE SALES ON SATURDAY AFTERNOONS

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Woman's Auxiliary sews for the missions of the church, and is related in the same manner as the Red Cross was to the army during the war. Supplies must be sent and garments made to carry on the work.

Our work is progressing and our attendance is good, but we would be glad if more of the women of the parish would come.

We have changed our meeting day from Thursday to Wednesday, with hopes that it may be more convenient. If you cannot give time for sewing we will gladly enroll you as a contributing member. Our dues are 25 cents a month or $3 per year.

We purchase all material from the Supply Bureau, make, press and return them there for distribution. We have spent $86.80 for material, $21.96 for ready-made garments (sheets, pillow cases, middy blouses, blankets and spreads). $15 is our apportionment for overhead charges of Supply Bureau (postage, express, freight charges for sending boxes to missionaries).

Since starting in the fall we have made and returned the following: Six pairs pajamas, six night drawers, six shirtwaists, one dozen underbodies, three large dresses, six small dresses, six boys' shirts, six pairs bloomers and six dresses.

The work is very interesting, and I am sure if you will just come for a visit you will be interested, too.

(Mrs.) L. MAY EDKINS, Secretary.

Everybody, all together, push our Lenten Offering over the top.

DORCAS SOCIETY

We note with much satisfaction the good attendance at the meetings of the Dorcas Society so far this term. It is gratifying to have the help of all in the work.

Let us all come out and be true to our name, for "Dorcas," you know, "was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did."

It may seem rather previous to speak of the rummage sale, but before we can have one we must have a house cleaning, and it will not be long until that time comes around, so if you have any discarded clothing or furniture which you can donate for this sale kindly save the same and notify any of the ladies of the society and they will attend to it.

Every two years, as you know, we hold a bazaar in the Parish Building, so this is bazaar year. We expect to hold it during the first week in December.

Let us all try and work during the summer vacation with this end in view, to make this bazaar surpass those of former years.

The socials for the benefit of the Chancel Window Fund will be resumed the first Thursday in April. Those which have already been held were very successful. Every one is invited to attend these socials.

We hope our president, Mrs. Aikens, who has been ill, will be able to be with use again in the near future.

HARRIET J. SKILLEN,
Secretary.

THE EASTER OFFERING

The vestry hopes that the Easter Offering this year will be given with the same generous, wholehearted spirit that has marked our special offerings in the past. Let it be a self-denial offering, the outpouring of grateful hearts.

SEAMEN'S SERVICES

With the coming of the Autumn season and the renewal of our church activities the members of the Brotherhood were filled with a desire to do some work that would be in keeping with their purpose as Brotherhood men. There was much to be done about the church, but we wanted to do something extra and different for the increase of His Kingdom and the spread of His Gospel among men.

It was while considering the various missions that we might offer ourselves to for service that we thought of work among the seamen, under the direction of the Seamen's Institute. Here was a place that surely needed our help.

Our port is, perhaps, second to none and the number of men and ships that come here is surprisingly great. Their spiritual needs are many and they do not get the same attention that other men get. They do not attend church for many reasons. Sometimes they cannot leave the ship, and if they can, they do not attend. Perhaps they don't know where the churches are or how they will be received.

To overcome all of these difficulties we go to them.

On Sunday mornings, under the leadership of an institute chaplain, we visit all of the ships at Girard Point, and when we have automobiles we extend our trip to several wharves.

After asking the permission of the captain, although on some ships we are now familiar and welcome visitors and we do not have to ask, we begin our service. On clear days we hold the service on the deck, but in rainy and cold weather we use the cabin.

We open the service by singing some familiar hymn, followed by a prayer and a short address by different members of the company. The meeting is closed by the singing of one or two more hymns, usually of the crew's selection, followed by the Benediction.

Testaments and tracts are distributed to those that want them, and a plentiful supply of magazines are left for all.

The men are always glad to have us come, as is evidenced by their pleasure when we meet them for the second, third and fourth times on their return to our port.

RECTOR'S LETTER

Easter, 1923.

Dear Parishioners: The special note of Easter, the "Queen of Festivals," is a note of exultation and triumph. Jesus, crucified and placed in the tomb, gains the victory over death. The doubt and uncertainty of centuries, as to the endlessness of life, is swept away. The soul of man is immortal, undying, imperishable!

Such, my friends, is the birthright of Christians, a birthright which calls us to a life of hopefulness and broad vision.

Many in this community have sold their birthright because of the apparent reality of material things which lie closer to hand. Never were human beings so shortsighted and deluded.

As a Parish, a corporate body of professing Christians, it is our duty to sound the note of Easter in this community. This we must do, not only on Easter Day, but throughout the year.

As a Parish we are sounding the note of Easter in this community through our Church, our Sunday School and our Parish organizations. We are holding aloft a vision of things enduring and eternal.

Our Easter, therefore, should be one of great joy. I am proud and happy to be your rector, and I hope that you will continue to hold up my hands by your personal interest, by your prayers and by your offerings, so that this work, already established on such lasting foundations, may grow and prosper, to the Glory of God and of His son, Jesus Christ, who lived and died and rose again that we might have Life, and that we might have it more abundantly.

"Fair blossoms on the Easter morn Fling forth their fragrance sweet,
And tell of resurrection joy
And Jesus' work complete!
But fairer still the offering
Each loving heart should bring,
Of faith and love and penitence,
To Christ, its risen King."

Stanley V. Wilcox.

BEAR IN MIND THE EASTER OFFERING—MAKE IT LARGE

THE ALTAR GUILD

You have not heard very much from the Altar Guild lately, but we are still working. Just at present we are busy with the Easter flowers for the church. If you wish to contribute toward the decorations there is still time, and we will be glad to receive your contributions.

All the linens used on Easter Day, the lace frontals, credence covers and all linens used in the Communion service are a gift from Mrs. James M. Hazlett in memory of her mother, Mrs. Mary C. Vollmer. We are sure this lovely gift will add greatly to the beauty of this Festival service.

On Saturday, April 28, the members of the Altar Guild are going to have a cake sale and progressive dinner. I am sure you will want to come and help make this occasion a huge success.

"Remember those good home-made pies and cakes." Get your tickets for the dinner and don't forget the date, Saturday, April 28.

Heartiest Easter greetings to all.

KATHRYN R. JOHNSTON,
Secretary.

✻ ✻

REMEMBER THESE APRIL EVENTS

Thursday evening, April 12, Brotherhood rally. Speaker, Hon. William ("Big Bill") Roper. For all boys and young men 12 to 21.

Friday evening, April 20, a play in the parish house, arranged by Mr. Livezey's class.

Saturday afternoon and evening, April 28, Altar Guild cake sale and progressive dinner.

BROTHERHOOD RALLY

The young men of the Junior Brotherhood, with their usual alertness, have secured for St. Paul's the spring rally meeting of the Junior Department.

The meeting will be held in the Parish House on Thursday evening, April 12, at 8 P. M.

The speaker will be Hon. William M. ("Big Bill") Roper, coach of the Princeton football team.

All the young men of the parish between the ages of 12 and 21 are cordially invited to be present at this meeting.

DORCAS SOCIETY

We were glad to have with us at our last meeting our President, Mrs. James Aikens, who has been ill for some time. Our attendance is still increasing. We were pleased to welcome another new member, Mrs. John Keck. We would like more women to come and join us, as we do have very pleasant times, but back of all the enjoyment is a real love for the Church and a desire to do all we can for its advancement. The socials for the chancel window fund will be resumed after Easter. They will be held at the various homes as follows:

April 5, Mrs. Rosenfeldt, 1524 Ritner street; April 12, Mrs. Scott, 2343 South Carlisle street; April 19, Mrs. Buzby, 1029 Johnson street; April 26, Mrs. Jillard, 2243 South Twenty-third street. All persons interested in the chancel window fund are urged to attend these socials.

A committee has been appointed to take charge of our social on Monday evening, April 9. We are expecting a good attendance.

MRS. HARRIET J. SKILLEN,
Secretary.

ELECTION OF VESTRYMEN

There will be an election of Vestrymen on Easter Monday at 8 P. M. in the Parish House. Messrs. Samuel J. Buck, Herbert Edkins, Frank Fulwider and Frank Livezey are the Vestrymen whose terms expire this year.

THE EASTER OFFERING

The Vestry hope that the Easter offering this year will be given with the same generous spirit that has always marked our Easter offering in the past. Most of our members know that the contributions through the envelopes do not meet our current expenses. It is necessary, therefore, to make up this deficit by our special offerings at Christmas and Easter and by contributions from the Sunday School and other parish organizations.

We desire to continue all of our parish activities, because we feel that we are doing a helpful Christian work in this community.

Our people are generous and liberal, and our finances are administered with care and economy.

Willing hearts and hands are the best expressions of Christian discipleship.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY SOCIAL

The Woman's Auxiliary will hold a social on Friday, April 6, at the residence of the president, Mrs. Joseph Gardiner, 4624 Walnut street. The proceeds will be spent in the purchase of supplies.

ALTAR GUILD CAKE SALE AND PROGRESSIVE DINNER

The Altar Guild will hold its annual cake sale on Saturday afternoon, April 28. This year there will also be a progressive dinner, the proceeds of which will go toward the stained glass memorial window. Details of the dinner and tickets may be had from any member of the Altar Guild.

A PLAY

Now that Lent is over Parish House activities will be resumed, and Mr. Frank Livezey's class of the Sunday School has arranged to present a play on Friday evening, April 20. This play has been produced with great success in other parts of Philadelphia and is sure to please. Tickets may be secured from any member of the Sunday School. Parents should welcome this opportunity to take their children to a clean, wholesome and humorous play right at home.

JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD NOTES

At the Corporate Communion, Sunday, March 18, at 8 A. M., William Wiley was admitted to full membership in the Brotherhood. There were twenty-three persons present at the early communion, twenty-one of whom were young men. It is very inspiring indeed to see such devotion on the part of our young men.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NOTES

The Lenten season is nearly over and we feel happy because we know that our pupils have been working faithfully for the Lenten offering. We would be pleased to see the parents at our carol service on Easter Day at 3.30 o'clock in the church. At this time the Sunday School will present its offering. Everybody out to every service on Easter day, the happiest day of the year.

The treasurer is pleased to note that the little reminder about the delinquent envelope collections has proved beneficial. Let the good work continue.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

SERVICES EASTER DAY, 6.00 A. M., 10.30 A. M. and 3.30 P. M.

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

TROOP 232,
BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

The troop began its new year under the direction of Mr. Kenneth Craig, acting scoutmaster, and a troop committee consisting of Rev. Stanley V. Wilcox, chairman; Mr. Herbert Edkins and Mr. Samuel Buck.

During the past month we have had as visitors Mr. John V. Stewart, Assistant Field Director and the scoutmaster of Troop No. 75. In the same period three tenderfoot scouts were initiated and four candidates made application for membership.

All eyes are now turned toward Treasure Island, the summer camp, where the troop expects to spend fully as pleasant a time as last year. D. C. M.

LENTEN STUDY CLASS

During Lent the Junior Brotherhood met on Thursday evenings at the rectory for an informal discussion of the life of St. Paul. The meetings were very helpful and will most likely be continued until the summer.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The Girls' Friendly is going to resume its regular Friday night meetings on April 6. During the Lenten season our meetings have been held at various times, but we are glad to say the spirit has been kept up.

It is hard for most of our Friendly girls to fight their own alma mater, so we have arranged two games with an Overbrook Friendly. The first game is at Overbrook April 20 at 8 P. M.

The annual meeting of the G. F. S. will be held Thursday, April 26, 7.30, in Holy Trinity Church. We want a good showing and hope many girls will turn out.

CANDIDATES' CLASS

We continue to have a very good attendance at the candidates' meetings, averaging about forty-five. Owing to sickness on the part of the teacher the rhythmic dancing has been temporarily given up. However, thanks to Miss Fairweather, we have a splendid gymnasium class each week. The girls, too, are becoming quite busy little needle women doing Lenten sewing and also making articles for a bazaar we are hoping to have later in May.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

Mrs. Frederick T. Stevenson deeply appreciates the sympathy extended to her by the Girls' Friendly Society and the members of the parish.

THE SPECIAL LENTEN PREACHERS

We wish to extend to the clergymen who so kindly came to us during Lent our grateful thanks. Their helpful and inspiring sermons added greatly to our Lenten devotions.

TELL THE ADVERTISER YOU SAW IT IN THE CHRONICLE

RECTOR'S LETTER

May 23.

Dear Parishioners: "The time has come," the walrus said, to speak of many things," and surely this is literally true this month. So many things to speak about and so little space in which to say it all.

Putting first things first, therefore, let us begin by speaking of the present. We have in this month three of the great festivals of the church year: Ascension Day, Whitsunday and Trinity Sunday. I hope that you will keep these festivals in your hearts and minds and signify your recognition of their importance by your attendance at Holy Communion on these days.

Then just a word about the past. I cannot tell you what an inspiration the Easter services were. The flowers and the music and the congregations and the offerings! No human heart could be more grateful.

I have spoken elsewhere in the Chronicle of the resignation of our Bishop. It is indeed a great blow to us all.

STANLEY V. WILCOX.

THE BAZAAR

The biennial Bazaar will be held this year at the beginning of December, and we are already planning to make it the biggest and best in the history of the parish.

A meeting will be called shortly so that we may formulate our plans before the summer vacations begin. This will give us all an opportunity to work with a definite purpose during the summer months.

One of the first committees to be appointed this year will be the Publicity Committee. We expect to turn this neighborhood out en masse next December on the three days of the Bazaar.

THE VALUE OF MOVING PICTURES

Moving pictures are valuable in a great many ways. Through the different kinds of news thrown on the screen one may learn a great deal. For instance, a child who has not had the advantages and opportunities of other children, can go to a moving picture show and learn some important points of the branches and studies taught in the public school, such as the geography of foreign countries, the various modes of travel in different lands, history and numerous other small points that aid in the education of a child.

Let us now drop the subject of a child's education and turn our thoughts to the working man and woman. When a man has spent the best part of the day in hard labor he will most naturally want to rest. By going to a moving picture show he will acquire rest, recreation, and also education, which perhaps he has not had the chance to acquire in his younger days as a boy, for this is the case with a great number of men and women.

There are millions of people who attend moving picture shows, but one will find that most of these people do not go for the education that they obtain from it, but for the pleasure and recreation they secure. An educated person, perhaps, would not be expected to go for education as much as for his pleasure. In fact, most people who are not well educated do not realize what moving pictures do to educate them and increase their knowledge of school studies.

Taking all these points into consideration, one will admit that moving pictures are not alone a place of pleasure and recreation, but are also a handy means of education, the thing which means so much to all of us.

THE EASTER MUSIC

The Easter music was well up to the standard that we have all come to expect from St. Paul's Choir, and added greatly to the beauty of the Easter services. We congratulate the organist and the choir on their splendid work, and assure them of our sincere appreciation.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Sunday School Lenten offering amounted to $1,750, surely a splendid offering and the teachers and scholars deserve the highest praise for earnest work. The offering was fine and presented at the Easter Carol Service on Easter afternoon. The Sunday School, nearly three hundred strong, marched into church singing their beautiful Easter carols. It was a service long to be remembered.

We are very happy indeed to have Mr. and Mrs. Boyle with us again after their long tour of the Mediterranean and the Holy Land. The Sunday School gave them a reception on the Thursday evening after their return that was as wholehearted as it was noisy. Bright colored hats, whistles, crickets and all sorts of noisemakers were much in evidence. The slogan was, "All the ice cream and cake you can eat." The boys enjoyed that!

DORCAS SOCIETY

In all societies we find both active and passive members. We are trying hard in the Dorcas Society to be all active members.

All are invited to come and join us in our work. St. Paul's needs your earnest support, so come out and do your share. We are always looking forward to greater accomplishments than in the past.

Our social on April 9th was enjoyed by all present. The Rector was present and spoke of Sunday School work in rural districts. Refreshments were served by our social committee.

The socials for the benefit of the Chancel Window Fund have been greatly enjoyed.

CONVENTION ECHOES

The Chronicle is one week late this issue, so that some echoes of the Convention might be included. We little thought when we made this arrangement that the main event to chronicle would be the resignation of Bishop Rhinelander.
Needless to say, his resignation came as a blow to the entire Convention. His action is purely the result of ill health.
The Bishop has been away for a year in an endeavor to regain his strength, and he is still far from being strong and well. Bishop Rhinelander gave himself unsparingly to the diocese of Pennsylvania in the twelve years since his election, and we can ill afford to lose him.

One of the most important matters before the Convention was the report of the committee to formulate a plan to bring the Cathedral Foundation and the Convention into closer union. This report was accepted in the main and some special canons bearing on the Cathedral were passed by the Convention.

Bishop Perry, of Rhode Island, addressed the Convention on the "Commission of Faith and Order," and urged that local conferences be held.

The report of the quota committee was presented in typewritten form. It is based, as most of our quota have been in the past, on a purely mathematical basis.
This eliminates, of course, the human and exceptional factor. The committee recommend, however, a scheme to eliminate in part some of the objections of the past. They have made eight groups of the parishes and missions using the mathematical basis. All of the parishes and missions in a certain group are responsible for the total group apportionment, some to give more than the mathematical apportionment, some less, according to individual conditions. This should be a help. Surely every individual in every parish should be doing something for the spread of the Gospel outside of his or her parish limits. Let us hope that this new scheme will prove effective.

St. Paul's was represented at the Convention by Messrs. Buck, Aikens and Hazlett, in addition to the Rector.

Our deputies were in constant attendance and took an active interest in all important legislation.

COMING EVENTS

ALTAR GUILD

The cake sale and Progressive Dinner given by the Altar Guild Saturday afternoon and evening, April 28th, proved a success in spite of the continuous April showers. It is the desire of the members of the Guild to thank all the friends who worked so hard to make this a success.

The donations were all gratefully received and the services of those who worked were greatly appreciated.

On Mother's Day the altar flowers will be in conjunction with the Mother's Day service. It is hoped that as many as possible will attend this service.

KATHRYN P. JOHNSTON,
Secretary.

KEEP UP YOUR PLEDGE ENVELOPES

CANDIDATES' CLASS

The annual service of the Girls' Friendly Candidates was held in Old Christ Church on Saturday, May 5th, and the wonderful historical associations of the place added greatly to the always impressive service.

Twenty-two girls and two associates attended from St. Paul's Memorial, and the girls behaved in a most creditable manner throughout the afternoon.

After the service in the Parish House the senior members gave out five prizes and sixty honorable mentions, and our girls won two of the prizes for compositions, one by Anne Cole and one by Mildred Pfaff, and seven honorable mentions were won by Mabel Boggs, Thelma Theis, Margaret MacEwen, Jean Wood, Catherine Boggs and Ruth Loeslein. When the awards had been made ice cream was served. The two prize-winning compositions are printed in this issue of the Chronicle.

ELECTION OF VESTRYMEN

The annual election of vestrymen was held in the Parish House on the evening of Easter Monday, April 2d, and the following vestrymen were re-elected to serve for three years: Messrs. Samuel J. Buck, Frank F. Fulwider, Frank W. Livezey and Herbert Edkins. The parish is to be congratulated on securing their unflinching and devoted services.

The Vestry met on Wednesday evening, May 11th, for reorganization. Elections and appointments resulted as follows: Rector's Warden, Mr. Samuel J. Buck; Accounting Warden, Mr. John W. Hughes; Finance Committee, Messrs.

Boyle, Hazlett and Livezey; Music, Messrs. Gillin and Skillen; Property, Messrs. Buck, Aikens and Edkins; Trust, Messrs. Boyle, Hughes and Buck; Delegates to Convention, Messrs. Buck, Aikens and Hazlett; Alternate, Mr. Gillin; Clerk of the Vestry, Mr. Frank F. Fulwider.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NOTES

St. Paul's Sunday School had just reason to be proud of its attendance at the presentation of the Lenten offering at Holy Trinity Church on Sunday, April 29th. Fifty-seven of our children were there, and our own Boy Scouts led the glorious procession around Rittenhouse Square before we entered the church. The service that was held there was so beautiful and inspiring that we are going to try and double our offering next year. Maybe some will be sorry that they were not present when they hear that our pictures were taken for the movies.

SLOGAN FOR 1923—INCREASED CHURCH ATTENDANCE

EXCHANGE SUNDAY

Sunday, May 13th, is known in the diocese of Pennsylvania as Exchange Sunday. On that Sunday Rectors of the city parishes exchange with the missionaries in charge of diocesan missions. The Rector will exchange with Mr. Leicester Lewis, who assists Rev. William J. Wilkie with the mission work at Lansdale and Quakertown.

SPECIAL SERVICES

Sunday, May 13th, is Mother's Day. There will be special music and an address on "Mothers" at the evening service. Honor your mother by wearing your flower to church on Sunday.

On Sunday, May 27th, in the evening we will have a memorial service, this being the Sunday just before Memorial Day. There will be special music and an appropriate address. The Boy Scouts and other military organizations will attend.

BOY SCOUT, TROOP 232

The above troop was highly honored by leading St. Paul's Sunday School from Church to Holy Trinity Church, Nineteenth and Walnut streets, where the annual service of the presentation of Lenten Missionary Offerings of the Diocese of Pennsylvania was held.

Before entering the church our troop led the choir of Holy Trinity wearing their white robes, followed by the Sunday Schools of the diocese in a march around Rittenhouse Square, then into the church.

One of the Scouts assisted in taking up the offering and did it in such a manly way that it will be long remembered.

TELL THE ADVERTISER YOU SAW IT IN THE CHRONICLE

Our troop committee, of which the Rev. Stanley V. Wilcox is chairman, accompanied the troop.

We much regret to announce the resignation of our Assistant Scoutmaster, Mr. D. Courtlandt Montgomery, who will be Scoutmaster of Troop 105, in which new undertaking we wish him every prosperity and great success.

THE BOOK I LIKE BEST

I have read "Little Women" more than once, and certain parts over and over, which is surely a proof that I am fond of it. Because Miss Alcott has made all the girls very different in character, it made the book all the more interesting.

Meg, the oldest, was very prim, and liked to boss her sisters. Jo, the second one, was very sorry she was not a boy, so she made her name boyish and acted like a boy. She liked things full of life and she did no end of boyish pranks. Beth, the next to the youngest, was sweet and calm, and always seemed to bring peace into the family; and Amy, the youngest, always managed to do what the others did and to get her own way too.

The sisters were very fond of each other, and when Jo, who had been downstairs once when Meg and John Brooke were in the room alone, came back thinking that her sister was not to marry him, she was surprised and half angry to find she was mistaken. She might not have lost her sister if her Aunt March had not interfered. Now Aunt March always made you want to do the opposite thing than she proposed, so when she told Meg what she thought of John, Meg immediately changed her mind. Another thing that showed their love for each other was that when Beth went to heaven they were very sad, and Jo wrote several poems in her memory.

Another reason for my fondness of the book was that it has been said that Louisa May Alcott wrote the book about her own family, substituting names and making herself Jo.

These, altogether, are plenty of reasons for my liking "Little Women."

BROTHERHOOD RALLY

The Spring Rally of the Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew, held in St. Paul's Parish House on Thursday evening, April 12th, was attended by over 100 boys, making it one of the most successful meetings of its kind in the history of the Junior Brotherhood. It was a most enthusiastic meeting in spite of the fact that the special speaker did not arrive. Our chapter acted as hosts and tried hard to see that every one had a good time. Mr. James M. Hazlett, of St. Paul's, spoke to the boys on the necessity of keeping physically fit and of the aid in character building of clean, wholesome sports.

NUMBER 8

RECTOR'S LETTER

August 1, 1923.

Dear Parishioners:

The attendance at service during the month of July was very good indeed. The weather was extremely warm all month and I tried to make the service shorter and a little less formal.

I wish to repeat my remarks of last month about vacations. I hope that every one will try to get away for a rest and a change, for a short time at least. Living, as most of us do, in the built-up section of a large city, such a change is really a necessity.

The services this month will be in charge of Rev. Clarence Ball, of Aldan, Pa. I am sure that he will receive the usual hearty welcome that is accorded to every one at St. Paul's.

I expect to remain in Philadelphia until August 17th, and can be reached by phone at any time at Chestnut Hill 0201. From that date until early in September I expect to go for a wonderful trip in the woods, north of Moosehead Lake, in Maine. I wish that I could take you all with me, particularly the men of the congregation who like good fishing. Should any emergencies arise during my absence Mr. Ball will gladly respond, I am sure.

It is pleasant indeed to have the summer period, and the relaxation it affords, but I will be glad in many ways when we resume our activities. I miss you all very much.

Sincerely,

STANLEY V. WILCOX.

EVERYBODY WORK HARD FOR THE BAZAAR

PARISH NOTES

The loving sympathy of the Parish is extended to Mr. Eugene F. Gillin, whose mother passed to "Life Eternal" on Sunday, July 15th.

The present address of Misses Ida and Katherine Lillegar is Christ Church Hospital, Forty-ninth street and Belmont avenue, Philadelphia. The Misses Lillegar have been faithful members of St. Paul's for many years and we miss them from their accustomed place at services.

We all sympathize deeply with Rev. Granville Taylor, Vicar of the Chapel of the Mediator, and former Rector of St. Paul's. Mr. Taylor met with an accident recently that necessitated the amputation of a part of a finger.

Some of the services we are looking forward to with keen interest: Sunday, September 9th, the Rector's first anniversary; Sunday, October 7th, Anniversary Sunday (nineteenth); Sunday, November 11th, Armistice Day; Sunday, November 18th, Sunday School Missionary Pageant; Sundays, December 2d to December 23d, Special Advent Preachers.

Mr. Warner Edsall, 2110 Shunk street, a communicant of St. Paul's, has received an appointment to the Naval Academy at Annapolis.

Mr. Spence Dunbar expects to leave in September to begin a four year course at Hobart College, Geneva, N. Y.

Mr. Frank Hawthorne, a member of the Junior Brotherhood, is in the Methodist Hospital at present recovering from a severe illness.

The present address of Mrs. J. B. Burns, formerly of 1436 Porter street, is 1313 South Fifty-first street.

THE BAZAAR

A very enthusiastic meeting was held in the Parish House on Monday evening, June 4th, to discuss plans for the Bazaar which will be held on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, December 6th, 7th and 8th.

We have set our objective at $2500.00. This is considerably more than we have ever realized, but every one present seemed to think that with careful planning, enthusiasm and the hearty co-operation of the entire Parish, it was quite within our reach.

Organization was effected as follows:
Fancy Table—Mrs. James M. Hazlett, Mrs. Boyle, Mrs. Gardiner, Mrs. James V. Hazlett.

Kitchen—Mrs. James A. Aikens, Mrs. Daughy, Mrs. Garrison, Sr., Mrs. St. John, Mrs. Fulwider, Mrs. Watt, Mrs. Brennon, Mrs. Kershaw, Mrs. Fink, Mrs. Hunt.

Dolls—Miss Schofield, Mrs. Scott, Miss Johnston, Miss Oldham.

Aprons — Mrs. Reader, Mrs. Jillard, Mrs. Skillen, Mrs. Donovan, Mrs. Even-son, Mrs. Rosenfeldt, Mrs. Keck.

Five and Ten — Mrs. Wesley Scott, Misses Aikens, Mrs. Mohr, Miss Cohill. Chinese Laundry or Fish Pond—Mrs. Frederick Stevenson, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Rchfuss, Mrs. Cardwell and Candidates' G. F. S.

Groceries — Mrs. Edkins, Mrs. Buck, Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Cohill, Mrs. Hillsman, Mrs. Speidel.

Peanuts and Lemonade—Mrs. Livezey, Mrs. Johnson.

Handkerchiefs — Miss Henzler, Mrs. Gerhardt, Mrs. Ringwalt.

KEEP UP YOUR PLEDGE ENVELOPES

Candy—Mrs. McGowan, Miss Christie, Miss Hartley, Miss Cole and G. F. S.
Cake—Mrs. Walter Scott, Mrs. Baltz, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. Dunbar, Mrs. Garrison, Jr.
Drugs—Mr. W. Scott, Mr. Skillen, Mr. Mohr.

Ready Made—Mrs. John Aikens, Mrs. Tuttle, Mrs. Edsall, Mrs. Gillin, Mrs. Roberts, Miss Jaquillard.

Stationery — Mr. Gillin, Albert Eastwood, William Wiley.

Games, Basement—Mr. Hillesman, Mr. Hunter, Mr. Graham, Mr. J. Aiken, Jr.

Entertainment and Movies—Mr. Chambers, Mr. R. Skillen, Mr. Montgomery, Dr. Sladen.

Publicity — Mr. Howard Buck, Mr. Buzby, Mr. Sedenger.

Cloak Room—Mr. Craig, Scouts.
Messengers—Mr. Ben Lex, Jack Rabbits.

Secretary—Mr. Fulwider, Miss Worrall, Miss Livezey.

Treasurer—Mr. Hughes, Mr. Buck, Mr. Boyle, Mr. Hazlett.

Tickets—Mr. A. Wallace, Mrs. Wallace, Miss Wallace.

Arrangements—Mr. James Aikens, Mr. Skillen, Mr. Voss, Mr. Fulwider.

Many volunteers will be needed in nearly every department, and the fact that your name is not on this present table is most likely due to the imperfect records we kept of previous bazaars. Volunteer for work in one of these departments, or volunteer to help and we can surely find a place for you.

We need two things above everything else: Goods and materials to sell and the people to buy them. We have all summer and the early fall before us to make plans and collect our materials and we will have plenty of publicity to bring out the people. Take a personal interest, do your share and a little more and we cannot fail.

ANNA M. REIGEL

Members of the Church and Sunday School will be grieved to learn of the death of Miss Anna M. Reigel on Sunday, July 8th. Miss Reigel was a regular attendant at Sunday School until her family removed to North Philadelphia several years ago. She retained her membership at St. Paul's, where she was confirmed, and was frequently with us on Communion Sundays. The heartfelt sympathy of the Parish is extended to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin M. Reigel, in their bereavement.

The "Parish Chronicle" is issued the first Sunday of each month.

All material intended for publication MUST be in the hands of the Editors by the 20th of each month, and should be written only on one side of sheet.

IMPORTANT

This publication is only possible so long as our friends in the business world give us their advertisements. Many will do that if they get results. The advertisements cover many needs of your household and business. Please look them over carefully, and whenever possible give them your patronage.

"I saw your advertisement in St. Paul's Parish Chronicle"—that counts with the tradesmen more than you think.

For advertising rates consult the Business Manager.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

TUNING IN

Those of us who tuned in on Station WFI, Strawbridge & Clothier, on Saturday evening, June 16th, were well rewarded for the effort. Mr. Gillin's Class of young men broadcasted their Minstrel Show. The singing was well above the average, both the choruses and the solos. The boys were clear and distinct and they kept splendid time. A great deal of credit is due to the troupe and to Mr. Chambers and Mrs. Braggs who drilled the boys. The solos by Frank Livezey, Philadelphia's youngest minstrel, were particularly enjoyable.

MEMORIALS

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin M. Reigel have presented the Church with a beautiful Service Book in memory of their daughter, Anna M. Reigel. This book is for use at the Rector's desk in the Chancel, and will be set apart and used for the first time on Sunday, August 5th.

SUMMER SERVICES

Rev. Clarence E. Ball, Aldan, Pa., will be in charge of the services during the Rector's vacation. The Rector will be away for three Sundays in August and the first Sunday in September. There will be just one service on these Sundays at 10.30 A. M., and a celebration of Holy Communion on Sunday, September 2d.

THE MEMORIAL HYMNALS

We expect to publish in an early number of the Chronicle the names of donors of the new memorial hymnals. The list will give the number of the book, the name of the giver and the name of the one in whose memory the book is given. At present writing 195 of the 200 books have been taken. Please advise the editor of any errors in the list, so that our permanent record will be correct.

THE MEMORIAL WINDOW

A permanent record of individual contributions to the Memorial Chancel Window will be carefully kept in the Parish records. Such contributions may be given to the Rector or to the Accounting Warden at any time. We hope soon to have our plans perfected for the window so that we can display the design accented and state the amount it will be necessary to raise.

The wooden fence on the Fifteenth street side of our property has received some necessary repairs during the summer. We hope the time is not far distant when this will be replaced by a permanent ornamental iron fence. Such a fence and an attractive gate offers a splendid opportunity to any one who has a memorial gift to the Parish in mind.

TELL THE MERCHANT YOU SAW HIS ADVERTISEMENT

RECTOR'S LETTER

October, 1923.

Dear Friends:

The services on Anniversary Sunday were most inspiring, and we go forward to another year's work together with renewed enthusiasm. The Sunday School service was particularly enjoyable. Starting in 1904 with 28 scholars, our School at present has almost 400 on the roll. All active and all enthusiastic, and in every way a School we may well be proud of.

The ready response on the part of the members of St. Paul's to the appeal for funds for stricken Japan was very gratifying indeed. The true gift and the true giver are indeed blessed.

"For we must share if we would keep

That good thing from above;

Ceasing to give, we cease to have,

Such is the law of love."

The month of November brings Armistice Sunday and Thanksgiving Day. On both of these days let us say with the Psalmist of old, "I was glad when they said unto me, We will go into the house of the Lord."

Sincerely,

STANLEY V. WILCOX.

ARMISTICE SUNDAY

Armistice Day this year falls on Sunday. Come and give thanks with us on Sunday, November 11th. There will be a special service at 8 P. M., at which time the members of the Herbert Wariner Post of the American Legion will attend in a body.

LUNCHEON

Yes, indeed, the Altar Guild are going to have their fifth Annual Luncheon on Election Day, November 6th.

Each year has been better than the previous one. And this year—well, you will be sorry if you miss it.

Tickets are on sale at 75 cents each. Come and bring your friends.

K. R. JOHNSTON,
Secretary.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF OUR FAITH WERE ONLY REAL?

DORCAS SOCIETY

Now that cool weather has driven away that languid feeling, the members of the Dorcas Society have resumed their Fall work, and we will endeavor to make all our plans successful.

The meetings so far have been well attended. Remember our Rummage Sale on November 2d and 3d. If any one has rummage, kindly give their addresses to any of the Dorcas members. They will send for it on the day of the sale.

Last, but not least, let us remember the Bazaar. We ask all our friends and members to come and help us, and if we all do our part it will be a success.

It is the sincere wish of our president, Mrs. Aikens, that the ladies will work earnestly to get the articles ready for the sale. We extend an invitation to all the ladies of the congregation to meet with us on Monday evening at 8.15 o'clock.

HARRIET J. SKILLEN,
Secretary.

PARISH PARTY

Our annual Halloween Party will be held in the Parish House on Tuesday evening, October 30th. It will be a masquerade party as usual, and there will be prizes for the best costumes. Come and bring the children and have a good time.

MEN'S CORPORATE COMMUNION

The men of the Parish will hold a Corporate Communion on the first Sunday in Advent, December 2d, at the 8 A. M. service. We are making a special effort this year to have every male communicant of this Parish present at this service.

ALL SAINTS' DAY

There will be a Celebration of Holy Communion on Thursday, November 1st (All Saints' Day), at 10 A. M. The names of members of the Parish who have passed to Life Eternal during the year will be read at this service.

BROTHERHOOD CAMP

Beginning Saturday, July 28th, six members of the Junior Chapter, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, in company with the rector, undertook a camping trip along the Neshaminy Creek, about four miles from Wrightstown, Pa. We proceeded by truck from the Church to the farm of the Rev. S. B. Boot, and there started the erection of the tents. As many will remember, there was quite a little rain that day, and after the large tent had been put up we were forced to move ourselves and all our baggage inside. Bathing suits were very much the style for this occasion, especially for digging drainage ditches. Ask Bill Devir.

Large quantities of bread and jam formed the midday meal, as we were unable to cook in the rain. We would have enjoyed this much better had it not been for the flies. Jokes and humorous stories, for the latter of which Mr. Wilcox should have received the prize, and fishing occupied the rest of the afternoon. By nightfall the other tent had been erected and we were fairly comfortable. After a hike to Wrightstown and back in the rain Mr. Wilcox took up some Bible study, but in the middle of it our very deficient lamp went out and all operations ceased.

About 3 A. M. Bill Jillard proclaimed he was awake and was promptly detailed to drive some stakes. We all watched him.

The day was much clearer than Saturday and we went in bathing and enjoyed ourselves. Some of the housewives of the Parish would be inclined to be jealous could they have seen the noon meal prepared by Bill Devir. Mashed potatoes, fresh string beans and boiled ham. Several members of the party still claim that ham was not cooked enough. We were very sorry to lose our cook in the afternoon, and the Rector learned he would have to leave Monday evening. Before he left, however, he proved his ability as a cook himself by manufacturing a pot of soup.

Our alarm clock (Mr. Wilcox) having gone to the city, Tuesday's program was set back about three hours. Fishing was the main order to the day. Fishing in the dark is not so good, though, especially when some one hooks an eel.

Wednesday we all took a 20-mile hike to Washington's Crossing, Mr. Wilcox and Spence Dunbar being with us. The hike was very eventful, but also rather tiresome. Any member of the party will explain about the sign reading "Washington's Crossing, 2½ miles" which was to be seen in the vestry room.

Bathing and fishing filled in the time till Friday evening, when there was another round of stories lasting well into the night. On Sunday Bill Devir returned with the truck and, after breaking camp, we departed for home, having had a very enjoyable time.

THOMAS WHARTON WILCOX

The Rector and Mrs. Wilcox are rejoicing in the birth of a son, Thomas Wharton Wilcox, born October 5th.

THE BAZAAR

The next issue of the Chronicle will be a special Bazaar issue. Keep the Bazaar in mind and do something to help.

The "Parish Chronicle" is issued the first Sunday of each month.

All material intended for publication MUST be in the hands of the Editors by the 20th of each month, and should be written only on one side of sheet.

IMPORTANT

This publication is only possible so long as our friends in the business world give us their advertisements. Many will do that if they get results. The advertisements cover many needs of your household and business. Please look them over carefully, and whenever possible give them your patronage.

"I saw your advertisement in St. Paul's Parish Chronicle"—that counts with the tradesmen more than you think.

For advertising rates consult the Business Manager.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

EVERYBODY WORK HARD FOR THE BAZAAR

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

BOY SCOUTS

Troop 232, B. S. of A., of the Memorial Church of St. Paul, Fifteenth and Porter streets, have returned from their summer trip to dear old Treasure Island, commonly called Paradise Island on account of the pleasant and good times we have there.

On arriving at the island we were met by a stranger, and on hearing it was Scoutmaster Craig's Troop 232, his hand of true friendship and a hearty welcome to the troop was extended. The stranger proved to be the new camp director, Mr. Pritchard.

A great surprise and pleasure was given to the boys by a visit from our chairman of the troop committee, the Rev. Stanley V. Wilcox, who after a short stay on the island returned home well satisfied with our snug and pleasant camp.

The troops on the island had an Indian hunt, which lasted from 6 P. M. to 5 A. M. The boys (271) were divided, half into Indians and the other half Boy Scouts. They were scattered on the mainland in the hills and valleys surrounding the island. Some of the sleepy scouts had 40 winks at the railroad station, but were quickly roused by the yelling of the Indians and the fear of losing their scalps.

Merit badges were won by Scouts Fleming, Kemmer and Garrison, of Troop 232.

Scout Fleming, of Troop 232, was elected to the office of Mayor of the island. This is a great honor.

Scouts' night in our own camp was a most enjoyable evening, our scoutmaster providing plenty of good eats, boxing, etc., which lasted all evening before a big camp fire until old "Taps" put an end to the frolic.

Sunday, August 11th, there were seated at mess 271 boys, so you see we were not the only troop at camp, and assure you the commissary department with its three cooks had their hands full.

Scout Roy Theis made a good orderly to his scoutmaster, performing his duties in a manly way.

On leaving for home the camp director presented Troop 232 with the highest prize offered on the island, which is now on exhibition in the meeting room of the Parish House.

Saturday, the 22d, the troop will hike to Chester, returning by boat. The scoutmaster will be with the boys.

RECTOR'S LETTER

November 12, 1923.

Dear Parishioners:

The memory of the last evening service will remain with me for a very long time. It was an uplifting and inspiring sight to look down from the chancel into the faces of so many ex-service men and women and to find so large a group willing and anxious to assemble together for divine worship five years after the signing of the armistice.

We talk a lot sometimes and find fault and criticize. We are very often easily discouraged over the outcome of the war and the aftermath of the war. There come moments, however, when something speaks to us that seems to have more power than mere words, something that grips and holds us, something that speaks in terms of assurance of the brightness and glory of the future. That something spoke to me on Sunday evening, when those glorious flags were presented at the altar. I couldn't sing a word of our national anthem because I was unable to make any audible sound, but I was singing within and I could hear those hundreds of voices singing behind me. There was something in the spirit with which we sang that anthem that swept away all my pessimism and all my doubt and all my uncertainty. Such moments are very beautiful and very rare. I am glad that it should have come before the altar which we love and where is centered all our hopes and all our affections.

Faithfully, your Rector,
STANLEY V. WILCOX.

MEN'S CORPORATE COMMUNION

On Sunday morning, December 2nd, the men and boys of the parish will hold a Corporate Communion at 8 A. M. This is the first Sunday in Advent, the first Sunday in the Christian year, and a most fitting day for such a service. The service is held annually in nearly every parish in the United States. Every male communicant member of St. Paul's should make a special effort to be present at that service.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF OUR FAITH WERE ONLY REAL?

CHURCH ATTENDANCE IN OCTOBER

A tabulation of the little church attendance coupons issued on Anniversary Sunday has proved very interesting. Many members of the congregation used the coupons and made a special effort to attend service for the four consecutive Sundays. Following is a list made up from the coupons in hand:

Those attending on all four Sundays—Ella M. Aikens, James A. Aikens, Sr., Mrs. Sarah Conner, William Coyle, Mrs. W. W. Cardwell, Margaret M. Aikens, George Anderson, T. A. Dunbar, Elton Dunbar, Harry Dever, Mrs. E. R. Donovan, Joseph H. Darley, H. S. Edkins, Mrs. H. S. Edkins, Alonzo H. Eastwood, Mrs. A. H. Eastwood, Albert Eastwood, Kathryn Fink, Stanley Briggs, Mrs. D. A. Graham, Eugene F. Gillin, Mrs. Garrison, Sr., Mrs. William Gibson, William Gibson, Miss L. Henzler, Kathryn R. Johnston, Mrs. Frank Jillard, Mrs. S. Christy, Ruth Hartley, F. W. Livezey, Miss L. H. Oldham, George E. Garrison, Mrs. George Garrison, William J. Glenn, Jeanette Hoffman, Helen Seaman, Mrs. E. Thompson, Wesley E. Scott, Alex. J. Wallace, Abbie Schumacher, Elizabeth Schumacher, Mrs. A. J. Wallace, Wright Walker, Mrs. M. Watt, Josephine Watt, Mrs. Walter Scott, Mrs. Wesley E. Scott, Miss C. J. Schofield, William Tuttle, Jr., Mrs. F. Reader.

The following attended three of the four Sundays: Mrs. James A. Aikens, Georgianna Worrall, Anna T. Wallace, Roland Long, Mrs. Lottie King, Mrs. J. T. Kershaw, Miss Jacquillard, Mrs. Mary A. Johnson, Bruce Edkins, Olin Garrison, Beatrice Garrison, Robert W. Skillen, Robert J. Skillen, J. Randall Skillen, Marshall Smith, D. Clarence Baltz, Jr., Mrs. D. Clarence Baltz, Miss Christie, Thomas Johnston, William Johnston, Mrs. F. McGowan.

Coupons were received for at least two Sundays from the following: D. A. Graham, Mrs. G. Blatz, Mrs. Robert Edsall, Misses Bisset, Grace Montgomery, D. C. Montgomery, Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. Elizabeth Murphy, James T. Kershaw, Genevieve Duffy, Eleanor Francois, Mrs. G. D. Gamble, Mrs. William Tuttle, Magdalen Tuttle, Russel Witwer, Bertha H. Scott, Mrs. Harriet J. Skillen, Mrs. Annie Hilsec, Miss Edna Hilsec, Miss Ethel Hilsec.

Thirty or more persons returned one coupon.

The Rector appreciates very much the earnest effort of so many members of the congregation to attend services regularly.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

The first greeting the Rector received when he entered Sunday School on Sunday, November 11th, was "Look at the board." The Rector did so and was surprised and delighted to find that the attendance figures totaled 310, an increase of nearly 50 over the preceding Sunday. A glance back over attendance records shows that the highest attendance on any one Sunday during 1922 was 290, and that our highest recorded attendance on any one Sunday in the past was 325.

In accordance with the wishes of the Church at large, we have chosen Sunday, November 25th, as "Every Member Sunday" at St. Paul's, and as Rally Day in the Sunday School. Let us try to break all records on that particular Sunday and make it a real rally and a day long to be remembered.

ALTAR GUILD

Of course you will be interested to know that the election day luncheon was a success. As yet we are unable to give any definite report on the proceeds, but it is believed they will be equal to or even larger than last year.

We want to thank all our friends who worked so hard for the luncheon. It is only through their untiring efforts that we are able to claim success.

The Altar Guild is receiving donations for the church decorations for Christmas, and will be glad if you will contribute for this purpose. Will you?

K. R. JOHNSTON, Secretary.

SOME SUNDAY SCHOOL ATTENDANCE FIGURES

December, 1919, average, 305; December, 1920, average, 304; highest attendance, 1920, 312; 1921, 304; 1922, 290; so far, 1923, 310.

Let us strive to establish a new record for attendance during December, 1923.

EVERY MEMBER CANVASS AND EVERY MEMBER SUNDAY

Plans are being made for our annual every member canvass. In connection with this canvass, Sunday, November 25th will be Every Member Sunday. A special effort will be made to have every member attend service on that day.

HELP THE ALTAR GUILD—SAY IT WITH FLOWERS

THANKSGIVING DAY

Thursday, November 29th, is Thanksgiving Day. There will be the usual service on the morning of that day. Donations of foodstuffs will be gratefully received and will be distributed to the needy after the service. The offering, as usual, will be for the Episcopal Hospital.

A LETTER OF APPRECIATION

Eureka, Utah, Nov. 5, 1923.

Church Periodical Club,
15th and Porter Sts., Philadelphia, Pa.
Dear Friends:

I wish to thank you very sincerely for sending me those two packages of good reading the other day. I am sure I shall find much of real value in both the publications. I am more or less familiar with the writings of several of the contributors and shall find much inspiration in reading their and other articles, so that I was glad indeed to get them.

Again thanking you for your kindness, I beg to remain,

Yours very truly,
JOHN LEACHER.

COINCIDENCE

At Evensong on October 21st, because of St. Luke's Day (October 18), we sang Hymn 267, the general hymn for Saints' Days, with the verse appropriate to St. Luke. The following letter is very interesting:

Upon coming to end of hymn and seeing name of the composer, "Horatio Nelson," it struck me as a most singular coincidence that we should have sung it on that particular day, as October 21st was the 118th anniversary of the victory obtained by the British fleet over the combined fleets of France and Spain at Cape Trafalgar. The British fleet on that day was commanded by another Horatio Nelson, known in history as Lord Nelson, and from whom descended both Christian name and title to the composer of the hymn sung by us. The father of Lord Nelson was one of the old-time parsons of the Church of England, much different to those of present generation.

The "Parish Chronicle" is issued the first Sunday of each month.

All material intended for publication MUST be in the hands of the Editors by the 20th of each month, and should be written only on one side of sheet.

IMPORTANT

This publication is only possible so long as our friends in the business world give us their advertisements. Many will do that if they get results. The advertisements cover many needs of your household and business. Please look them over carefully, and whenever possible give them your patronage.

"I saw your advertisement in St. Paul's Parish Chronicle"—that counts with the tradesmen more than you think.

For advertising rates consult the Business Manager.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

THE HALLOWEEN PARTY

We said we were going to have a good time at the Halloween party and we did. About 300 masqueraders, young and old, gathered in the Parish House on the evening of October 30th and proceeded to make merry. We ducked for apples, caught them on strings, went to "Jerusalem" and danced.

The game prizes went to Josephine Smith and Mary Blatz. Costume prizes were won by William Devir, best comic; Alan Fink, comic; Dorothy Williams, Miriam Myers, Irene Tebea, Genevieve Duffy and M. Lonyard, fancy, and R. Hillsman, most original.

The ladies of the Dorcas Society fed us and provided the music. Every one voted it our best party.

THE HOT DOG CLUB

This new secret organization held its last outdoor meeting of the year at Bullock's Dam, near Gulf Mills, on Saturday afternoon, November 10th. Election of officers for the coming winter resulted as follows:

Imperial cat most dogs, William Jillard; vice-regent cook 'em dogs, S. V. Wilcox; chief buy 'em dogs, Frank Hawthorne.

Spence Dunbar, retiring imperial cat most dogs, wired his congratulations to the new imperial from Hobart College. Ben Lex threatens to contest the election, claiming that the by-laws call for all elections to be held in this county. The winter meetings at the rectory will begin in December.

THE RUMMAGE SALE

The Rummage Sale held on November 2nd and 3rd at 511 South Broad street netted $253. The thanks of the parish are extended to all those who so kindly contributed to the success of this sale. The ladies of the Dorcas Society, as usual, bore the burden and heat of the day. It is not an easy task to plan and carry out such an undertaking. We are already planning for a similar sale on more extensive plans next year.

BASKET BALL

We have our usual strong team again this winter. Come out and support the team. Games every Thursday. Admission 25 cents. Ladies free.

GENERAL PARISH NOTES

It was good to see Charlie Long at the Armistice Day service.

A large congregation attended service last Thanksgiving Day. All of us have much to be thankful for again this year. God knows us not so much by words as by loving acts of service. "Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving."

Mrs. Sophie Kerr sends greetings from her daughter's residence at Haddon Heights. She has been quite ill, but is slowly recovering.

The sympathy of the parish is extended to Mr. Thomas Boyd and family. Mrs. Boyd passed to life eternal on Friday, November 9th. She was a very devoted member of St. Paul's and she will be greatly missed by those of us who were privileged to know her intimately.

Spence Dunbar is doing splendidly at Hobart and is already looking forward to Christmas and home.

George Anderson has left us for a business career in New York. He, too, has promised to be with us on Christmas.

GENERAL BAZAAR NOTES

Mr. Buck will be at the door taking tickets as usual.

William Wiley, Jr., and Frank Hawthorne are helping on the Publicity Committee.

The radio booth should prove a great attraction to all radio enthusiasts. All up-to-date equipment will be demonstrated and displayed.

Committee on Arrangements, under Mr. James Aikens, Sr., will be at work soon on booths, lighting, etc. Messrs. Skillen, Voss, Fulwider, Kershaw, Garrison, Dunn, Johnson and Dunbar will assist.

Be sure to bring your friends with you. Come for dinner and stay for the movies. Remember the dates, December 6th, 7th and 8th.

BAZAAR NUMBER

COMING

ST. PAUL'S BAZAAR

Thursday, Friday, Saturday,
December 6th, 7th, 8th
St. Paul's Parish House
Fifteenth and Porter Streets

Object: To raise $2,500 to cover church expenses.

Dinner served every evening at 6 o'clock. Special features every afternoon and evening for your amusement, together with dancing and movies.

Thursday—Afternoon, Baby Show; evening, Young People's Night (basket ball and dancing).

Friday—Afternoon, Family Day; evening, Men's Night (bowling contest, special radio concert).

Saturday—Afternoon, 3 o'clock, "The Children's Hour" (details later, it may be Punch and Judy); evening, "Old Members' Night."

The co-operation of every member of the parish and their friends is desired to make these features a success.

BABY SHOW

Thursday afternoon, December 6th, I will usher in the new bazaar with one of its best features never before tried at St. Paul's, the Baby Show. All members of the parish and their friends are urged to co-operate in making this feature a huge success. All babies up to the age of five years are eligible with an admission fee of 50 cents.

Splendid prizes will be given to the best babies. The prettiest girl and the cutest boy are sure to be blue ribbon winners. We hope to have one or two of our prominent physicians of the neighborhood to act as impartial judges. Every entry will receive some prize.

St. Paul's mothers and their friends can derive a great deal of enjoyment by entering their newcomers in the competition. All are eligible. Don't miss it! Enter your children with Miss Edna Laager, who has charge of the arrangements for this feature.

DOLLS

It is nearing Christmas and the kiddies like their dollies, so stop around at the doll table while at the bazaar. There will be a fine array of small dolls, large dolls, baby dolls, and mamma dolls, and all kinds of dollies—just the ones you are looking for. The babies are very distinctive because their clothes are all hand-made—you can't miss them.

MINSTREL SHOW AND DANCE, NOVEMBER 27th

YOUNG PEOPLE'S NIGHT

St. Paul's debs and St. Paul's boys are urged to attend the big rally for the young folks on Thursday evening, December 6, at the bazaar. In addition to the regular movies and features on the main floor, in the basement you will find our all-star basket ball team in action against a keen rival, to be followed by a splendid dance with good music. Be on hand Thursday.

FAMILY DAY

Friday afternoon we hope to have many family buyers do a large part of their weekly shopping at our grocery and cake table, where you will find that the prices will compare favorably with those at the chain stores. The apron table and the fancy articles will hold a large display of household needs and pretty things for your every wish.

MEN'S NIGHT

We are hoping to rally our male members to the colors with some very interesting features on Friday evening, December 7th. In addition to the regular movie in the auditorium, a very interesting radio program will be broadcasted by a specially installed speaker in our radio booth. Here a large and varied assortment of all radio parts will be carried for your inspection. The game rooms in the basement will have open house to our men visitors, with pool, bowling and dancing.

CHILDREN'S DAY

Saturday afternoon, December 8th, at 3 o'clock, will start the "Children's Hour," when a children's entertainment will be given to all our children and their friends. (We may have Punch and Judy with us.) Many novelties for sale at the candy and doll tables, and lemonade and peanuts will delight the children. Boys and girls, don't forget the big show on Saturday afternoon.

GROCERIES

You will be greatly surprised at the great assortment of goods offered this year at the grocery table. Here you will find household necessities of every kind. Come and see the specialties we have to offer in dozen lots. You can help yourself and help us by making your weekend purchases at this table. Famous brands for sale in all the staple food-stuffs.

ENTERTAINMENT

Every evening there will be two performances of mixed vaudeville in the Sunday School room, under the management of John A. Chambers, at a very small price, with moving pictures included. This feature of the bazaar should not be missed, as great preparations are being made for the enjoyment of all.

RADIO

As you come into the Parish House the latest song hits, dance pieces and other interesting news items will greet you by the latest modern loud speakers. The bazaar will be enlivened by a radio booth, where all the latest machines, fully equipped, can be purchased at a nominal cost. The cost to you will not be felt, as the outfit can be had upon easy terms. The Junior Brotherhood, under whose auspices this booth has been arranged, will be managed by Mr. Eugene F. Gillin and Mr. Harvey Ritzenhouse, radio director. All the parts that go to make a complete outfit will be on sale.

Everybody should have a radio this winter, and there is no reason why, dear reader, that you don't purchase one and enjoy what thousands of others are enjoying daily.

OLD TIMERS' NIGHT

We have been exceptionally fortunate at our past bazaars and social functions in having a great number of our old friends who have moved away from the neighborhood assist us in making our affairs a splendid success. We should again like to welcome those faces which we see but seldom to our grand rally on Saturday night, the closing night of our bazaar. Then we hope to be able to announce the complete success of this, our latest and largest undertaking.

CAKE TABLE

Your visit to the bazaar will not be complete unless you take home a cake or pie. All kinds for sale.

THE CANDY TABLE

Sweet cookie! Come and see! The bazaar candy table is in the hands of the Girls' Friendly Society. Delicious things to eat. Pretty things to keep. A great variety of assorted candies to fill that sweet tooth. Just the place to buy your Christmas candy or a box for your sweetheart or wife—you know, the old-time home-made candy mother used to make. A number of novelty surprises that will please every one will be offered by our pretty debutantes. Don't miss us! Look for the prettiest booth.

DRUGS, PERFUMERY, STATIONERY, ETC.

Don't fail to patronize the drug counter. All kinds of perfumes, talcum, face and baby powders, powder puffs, hair nets, shaving creams, tooth pastes and full line of household drugs. Spread the news.

THE BEEFSTEAK DUNGEON

This is an entirely new departure. Here, under the capable management of Bob Hillsman, Jim Aikens, Fred Hunter and Dave Graham, the men will find a restful haven. Pool and bowling, basket ball, darts, hot dogs and soft drinks. Several surprises in store.

THE RESTAURANT

Good eats will be one of the many features of the coming bazaar. Sandwiches, pie, cake, ice cream and a full course dinner will be served under the able management of our culinary force. Reasonable prices.

Come and take dinner and bring the whole family. We will serve you with delicious food cheaper than you can feed the family at home, and you need not set the table or wash the dishes.

Invite your friends to take dinner with you and attend the vaudeville and movies in the evening.

Good food, attractive surroundings and pretty waitresses.

EVERYBODY WORK HARD FOR THE BAZAAR

HANDKERCHIEFS

You will surely want to give some handkerchiefs as Christmas gifts. Come and see our splendid assortment; all at reasonable prices. Some beautiful hand-made handkerchiefs that your friends will appreciate and enjoy receiving.

MOVING PICTURES AND VOD-VIL

An interesting feature of the bazaar will be the moving pictures and vod-vil show. Something new each night. Be sure to see Master Frank Livezey in the "Wooden Soldier." Good singing and dancing and funny pictures. All directed by John A. Chambers.

THE FISH POND

No bazaar could possibly be complete without a real old-fashioned fish pond. We expect to have a very interesting and most unusual one in charge of the candidates' class of the Girls' Friendly Society. The candidates are working hard on all kinds of interesting fish. All you need is a hook and line and the right kind of bait and a good catch is assured. Bring the children and let them fish, and then let down a line yourself. Some one is going to get a real surprise.

DRESSES

There will be a splendid assortment of ready-made dresses at the ready-made booth. If you need a new dress, wait for the bazaar and save money.

THE RECTOR'S LETTER

Christmas, 1923

My Dear Friends:

A Rector's letter to his parishioners at Christmas time cannot be other than a letter of joy and gladness. In all the world there is no more blessed relationship than that which exists between a pastor and his people.

As I share with you your sorrows, so I share with you your joys. And Christmas Day should be all joy and all gladness. To glad and joyful hearts the anniversary of the birth of Christ speaks of only greater happinesses and greater joy. To sad and sorrowful hearts His birthday speaks of love and peace and comfort. To every heart the message of Christmas is a message of hope; and so with Tiny Tim I say, "May God bless us every one," this Christmas, and throughout the year. And He will, so long as we continue to love Him and through Him to love each other.

STANLEY V. WILCOX.

THE EARLY COMMUNION ON CHRISTMAS DAY

This is one of the most beautiful and impressive services of the year. It will be held at 6 o'clock this year and will be preceded as usual by a singing of Christmas Carols by the Choir. For the Choir and for any members of the congregation who desire to remain a breakfast will be served in the Parish House immediately after the service.

The Rector sincerely hopes that every Communicant member of the Parish, in so far as it is possible for them to do so, will make their Christmas Communion at this service.

Services on Christmas Day

Holy Communion, 6 A. M.
Morning Prayer and Holy Communion, 10.30 o'clock.

CHRISTMAS GREENS

Contributions toward the Christmas greens and the flowers for the altar on Christmas Day will be received by any member of the Altar Guild.

EARLY COMMUNION, CHRISTMAS DAY, 6.00 A. M.

THE CHRISTMAS OFFERING

It has been the custom for many years at St. Paul's to make the Christmas offering a genuine expression of our thankfulness to God for the Blessed Gift of His Son.

It has very often been said that every one receives gifts at Christmas but Christ Himself.

Most of us are willing and ready to spend our all at Christmas to make happy those who are near and dear to us, forgetting, in the meantime, the One to whom we owe the most.

The one gift we make direct to Christ, of course, is the gift of a loving and obedient heart. We make this as we kneel together and receive the Blessed Sacrament.

If we are truly grateful we can and should bring other offerings—offerings that are generous, offerings that are large, offerings from an open hand and a thankful heart, a small portion of His bounty and goodness to us, that the Church may be enabled by your gifts to touch and influence and bring peace to many.

THE BAZAAR

Our motto in everything that we undertake at St. Paul's seem to be "Bigger and better than ever before." Surely we are deeply grateful for the returns from the Bazaar. It was in many ways "Bigger and Better."

It would be difficult indeed to mention the names of those who made it a success. It would mean publishing almost our entire parish list. Every one worked. Every one worked cheerfully. Every one worked intelligently. You have lifted a burden from the shoulders of the Rector and the Vestry and they thank you most heartily.

THE THANKSGIVING DAY OFFERING

If the amount of the Thanksgiving Day offering given to the Episcopal Hospital is any criterion of our Parish, then we have much to be thankful for indeed. The offering on Thanksgiving Day was $155.00—a really splendid offering.

With our gifts we offered up our prayers, the prayers of happy and grateful people. Happy not only because of material blessings, but happy because of the deep and eternal blessings that pass man's understanding.

DECEMBER ACTIVITIES

Read carefully the announcements following:

Sunday evening, December 16th, the members of the Sunday School, under the direction of Miss Florence Gillin and Miss Mariette Dimon, presented an Advent Pageant. The program is published elsewhere in the Chronicle.

Sunday evening, December 23d, will be our Annual Messiah Service, at which time selections from Handel's "Messiah" will be sung by the Choir. The members of the Choir, under the direction of Mr. Souder, are working hard to make this service a success. All those who love good music should attend and your neighbors and friends will be glad of an invitation.

Services on Christmas Day will be as usual: Holy Communion, 6 A. M.; Morning Prayer and Holy Communion at 10 o'clock.

The Christmas entertainment for the members of the Beginners', Primary and Intermediate Departments of the Sunday School will be held in the Parish House at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of Holy Innocents, Friday, December 28th.

The Christmas entertainment for the members of the Senior School will be held in the Parish House on the evening of Holy Innocents, Friday, December 28th, at 7.30 o'clock. The entertainment this year will be given by the Delphian Players.

The Sunday School Christmas Carol Service will be held in the Church on the evening of Sunday, December 30th. All parents are cordially invited to this service. The service will commence at 7.30.

Centre your activities at the Church this Christmas and learn the true meaning of the day.

DORCAS SOCIETY

Much of our time at the November meetings was used to discuss ways and means of meeting our various quotas for the Bazaar. Now that the Bazaar is over we are going to celebrate on Monday evening, December 17th, and turn the regular meeting into a social. Several members suggested this as a means of showing our many new members that membership in the Dorcas Society does not mean all work and no play.

The Dorcas has grown so large recently that our room is hardly large enough for the meetings. We cannot all get around the tables any more, and the treasurer has had no opportunity to collect fines for a long time.

CHRISTMAS CAROL SERVICE, DECEMBER 30th, 7.30 P. M.

THE CHRISTMAS DIME BANKS

Every member of the Sunday School and many members of the congregation are helping to supplement the Christmas offering this year through the use of the little Christmas Dime Banks. These banks are not to take the place of the usual Christmas Offering envelopes. These envelopes contain our own Thank Offering to God for the Gift of His Beloved Son. This offering is given that His influence, which has meant so much in our own lives, may be extended through the work of His Church. The object of the little banks is to ask others to contribute a small amount to the spreading of this influence.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Sunday School continues to maintain its high record of attendance for the month of December, and will without question exceed any previous records. We are already looking forward to the New Year and hope to make it the best year we have ever had, both in attendance and in general interest. Some scholars are continually bringing others. Surely every one knows some boy or girl who is not at present attending any Church School. Bring them here. We are willing and anxious to share our blessings with them.

Mrs. Baltz and Mr. Buck had perfect classes on November 25th. Mrs. Baltz and Mrs. Poyle had perfect classes on December 2d.

We realized our ambition to have 325 scholars present on Rally Day, November 25th. We held our Rally Day exercises in the Church and were addressed by the Hon. Edwin O. Lewis, who is a vestryman at the Memorial Church of St. Paul in Overbrook. Judge Lewis stressed the need of loyalty to our School and to the Church. He cautioned parents against the present-day tendency to be lax with children in the matter of religious education. That we benefited greatly by his visit is shown in the new spirit of loyalty to the School evidenced by our increased attendance.

THE LENTEN OFFERING

Classes have started already to plan and work for the Lenten offering. With the splendid increase in our Sunday School attendance our offering this year should be very large.

be in the hands of the Editors by the 20th
of each month, and should be written only
on one side of sheet.

IMPORTANT

This publication is only possible so long
as our friends in the business world give us
their advertisements. Many will do that if they get results. The advertisements cover
many needs of your household and business.
Please look them over carefully, and whenever possible give them your patronage.

"I saw your advertisement in St. Paul's

tradesmen more than you think.

For advertising rates consult the Business Manager.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your
Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following
Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens,
a certificate stating that he or she is a com-
municant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which
reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness
or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

SUNDAY SCHOOL XMAS ENTERTAINMENT. DEC. 28, at 7.30 p. m.

The Rector should always be consulted
before arrangements are made for baptisms,
marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send, prompt
notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St.
Paul's Parish are asked to send their names
and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the
expenses of the Church.

PARISH NOTES

The Rector has received a lovely letter from Rev. Frank W. Creighton, Rector of St. Ann's Church, Brooklyn Heights, N. Y., in reference to the letter of introduction presented by George Anderson, who is at present employed in New York City. It is a pleasure to know that our young men do not leave their Church training at home when they leave us for a time. George has joined the Young Men's Bible Class and the Young Men's Club at St. Ann's, and they promise him a hearty welcome.

The sympathy of the Parish is extended to Mrs. J. B. Burns, whose husband passed to Life Eternal on December 3d.
Mrs. Burns has been a faithful member of St. Paul's for many years and an active worker in the Dorcas Society. Mr. and Mrs. Burns recently celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary.

Confirmation will be administered on the evening of the First Sunday in Lent, March 9th. The Rector will gladly consult with any one who is desirous of joining the new Confirmation Class. A schedule of Confirmation lectures will be published in the next issue of the Chronicle.

Our grateful thanks are extended to Mr. Robert Skillen, the business manager of the Chronicle, for his devoted work during the year that is past. It is largely through the individual efforts of Mr.
Skillen that we are able to present our Parish paper in such good form month by month. Mr. Skillen solicits the advertisements and collects for them, mails the paper to subscribers, solicits subscriptions and attends to all the business details of getting out the monthly issues.

ENVELOPES

Please advise Mr. Livezey if you have envelopes numbered as follows: 160, 199, 231, 275, 291, 307, 308, 310, 334.

PAGEANT NOTES

Our sincere thanks are extended to the rector of St. Michael's for the loan of the candlesticks and candles which helped so much to make the pageant beautiful and impressive, also to W. L. Toffard, Jr., Florist, for the wreath and sheaf of wheat.

THE CHRISTMAS OFFERING SHOULD BE THE LARGEST EVER

A LESSON FROM THE PAST

A good tonic for the minor discouragements that creep into our Parish life now and then is to look back over the file of Parish Chronicles to be found in the bookcases in the Parish House. Take up, for instance, the Chronicle for December, 1913, published just ten years ago. The Thanksgiving Day offering for the Episcopal Hospital in 1913 was $30.86, and the total contributed to General Missions for the month of November, 1913, was $11.05 — splendid offerings, given by generous hearts.

I suppose there were members of the congregation at that time who felt that the Parish had reached its limit of growth and influence, but we have grown mightily in ten years in numbers and in influence. We have not laid our talent away carefully in a napkin, but we have used it to produce other talents.

Many of those whose names are recorded in that issue of the Chronicle have moved to other neighborhoods, and we find their names among the active workers in other Parishes. Others have risen up to take their places here.

So the work of the Church goes on.
There is never a time for discouragement as long as there is work to do. The achievements of the past should act as but a spur to a more glorious future.

THE CHURCH'S GREAT NEED

It has been well said that the Church's great need is Personal Service. We quote from a recent issue of the Parish Leaflet:
"Take the late treasurer of our Board of Missions, George C. Thomas. He might have lived a life of ease and comparative uselessness; but he would not have been the happy man that he was.
He found his greatest happiness, not in accumulating a vast fortune, but in the service that he was able to render to God and man."

THE CHRISTMAS ADVERTISERS

It is only through the generosity of our advertisers that we are able to produce the Chronicle without a greatly increased monthly expense. Our advertisers are all reliable South Philadelphia concerns, and they should by all means receive our patronage.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE CHRONICLE

Send in your subscription to the Chronicle at once. We agree to keep you well informed not only of our Parish activities, but also of the most interesting news of the Church at large. One dollar is the uniform subscription rate. We must have at least 100 new subscriptions by the first of the year. Your subscription not only pays for your own copy and the postage, but help us to distribute the paper to those who only worship with us occasionally.

JANUARY EVENTS

January 8th—The second of the dances to be given under the auspices of the Girls' Friendly Society.

THE MINSTREL SHOW

The annual Minstrel Show given by Mr. E. F. Gillin's Class was a splendid success. The young men, under the direction of Mr. Chambers and Mrs.
Braggs, gave us the best show of its kind that we have had, and the audience was large and appreciative.

That the main object of the show is not simply to get pleasure and profit for ourselves is evidenced by the fact that the troupe will play for the patients at the Philadelphia General Hospital on Tuesday evening, December 18th, under the direction of the All Souls' Guild.

They's a kind of feel in the air, to me,
When the Chris'mas-times set in,
That's about as much of a mystery
As ever I've run ag'in!
They's allus a kind o' sort of a' ache
That I can't locate nowhere;—
But it comes at Christmas and no mistake!—
A kind o' feel in the air.

—Riley.

Come in and see our selection of

The "Parish Chronicle" is issued the first
Sunday of each month.

All material intended for publication MUST
be in the hands of the Editors by the 20th
of each month, and should be written only
on one side of sheet.

IMPORTANT

This publication is only possible so long
as our friends in the business world give us
their advertisements. Many will do that if they get results. The advertisements cover
many needs of your household and business.
Please look them over carefully, and whenever possible give them your patronage.

"I saw your advertisement in St. Paul's Parish Chronicle"—that counts with the
tradesmen more than you think.

For advertising rates consult the Business Manager.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your
Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following
Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish
to another shall procure from the Rector, if
any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens,
a certificate stating that he or she is a com-
municant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which
reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness
or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

CONFIRMATION, SUNDAY EVENING, MARCH 9th

The Rector should always be consulted
before arrangements are made for baptisms,
marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt
notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St.
Paul's Parish are asked to send their names
and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the
expenses of the Church.

CONFIRMATION

The Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Garland, D. D., Bishop-elect of the Diocese of Penna. will visit St. Paul's to administer the Apostolic rite of Confirmation on Sunday evening, March 9th. Confirmation lectures are held every Wednesday and Sunday afternoons at 4 o'clock. The remaining lectures are as follows:

Sunday, February 17th, and Wednesday, February 20th, "The Creed."

Sunday, February 24th, and Wednesday, February 27th, "The Lord's Prayer and the Ten Commandments."

Sunday, March 2d, and Wednesday,
March 5th, "The Sacraments."

Saturday, March 8th, 8 P. M., final meeting of class for instruction.

Sunday, March 9th, 8 P. M., Confirmation.

Saturday, March 15th, 4 P. M., preparation for First Communion.

Sunday, March 16th, 10.30 A. M., Corporate Communion of Class.

REUNION OF CONFIRMATION CLASSES

There will be a Reunion of the Confirmation Classes on the evening of Maundy Thursday, April 17. This service was held for the first time last Lent and was one of the most impressive of the Lenten Services. Pews will be reserved and marked so that the classes may sit together.

DAILY BIBLE READING

The Rector has ordered 100 copies of 1924 Daily Bible Readings, Course B.
These copies will be available for any members of the congregation who wish to make systematic Bible reading a part of their Lenten devotion.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Many of the classes have already made plans to raise their quota for the Easter offering. As usual, there will be cake and candy sales and suppers on Saturday afternoons during Lent and the following entertainments have been scheduled:

Friday evening, February 22d, Mrs.
Baltz's Class, play and dance; Wednesday evening, February 27th, Minstrel Maids' Revue, Mrs. Sladen's Class; Monday evening, March 3d, Moving Pictures.

PREPARE TO KEEP LENT—ASH WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5th

PARISH PARTY

There will be a Parish Party on the evening of Shrove Tuesday, March 4th.
All members of the parish and their friends are cordially invited. The ladies of the Dorcas Society will serve doughnuts and coffee. This will be the last social until after Easter and should be largely attended. A silver offering will be taken for the Coal Fund.

PARISH NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hughes are at home now at 116 East Union Street, Prescott, Arizona. This was formerly the Rectory of St. Luke's Church in Prescott. Mr. Hughes writes that he is gradually getting accustomed to changed conditions. Any one who has tried to keep a soft-coal fire burning all night will sympathize with him.

On Thursday, January 3rd, the Rector officiated at the funeral of Mr. Jasper Buck, a former member of St. Paul's.

The sympathy of the Parish is extended to Mrs. Florence Reader and family. Mrs. Reader's sister, Mrs. Edith Stinsman, passed to "Life Eternal" on January 10th.

ALTAR GUILD

The Admission Service and Corporate Communion of the Altar Guild held Sunday morning, January 27, at 8 o'clock, was a most inspiring service. The majority of members were present, which made the service all the more impressive.
Next time let us strive to have an attendance of 100 per cent.

Sunday, March 9, the Altar Flowers will be in memory of the late Mrs. Emily Corrie. In the early days of St. Paul's Mrs. Corrie was a devoted member and worked very hard for the welfare of the parish. At her death Mrs. Corrie left a bond to the church, the interest of which is to be used for Altar Flowers.

K. R. JOHNSTON, Secretary.

THE BAZAAR

Returns from the Bazaar continue to reach the treasurer. Since the last issue of The Chronicle the following amounts have been received: Oak Table, $1.00; Restaurant, $6.85; Fancy Table, $50.00.
This brings the Bazaar total up to $2250.63.

RECTOR'S LETTER

Lenten Season, 1924.

Dear Parishioners:

They say in England that as the wind blows on Ash Wednesday so it will blow the whole of Lent. In other words, if you come to the beginning of Lent with a definite plan in mind for the keeping of Lent, it is quite likely that you will keep Lent not only on Ash Wednesday but also on the days which follow.

Lent is a time when we sweep aside, for a certain period, our ordinary thoughts and occupations, so that we may look in upon our own lives and souls, and see them as they really are.

From the very early days of the Christian Church men have recognized the need, in every life, of such a period of introspection.

The Church is calling us again to the observance of this solemn season. The opportunity that it presents should not be looked upon as a season of restraint but as a season for spiritual upbuilding. It is a season that we should enter upon with ardor, and with reverence, and above all with a consistent purpose.

The call comes to all of us alike, but our needs are different. It is difficult therefore to lay down inflexible rules. You must be the judge of your own particular needs and plan your Lent accordingly.

The thought that I wish to emphasize is that you come to this Lent with a definite plan for its proper observance, keeping ever in mind the fact that the true motive should be: To bring our souls into a more intimate knowledge of God, to learn the real value of life, and to base our hopes on things abiding and eternal.

With every blessing for the coming Lent,

Your Friend and Rector,
STANLEY V. WILCOX.

MUSIC FESTIVAL

Philadelphia is to hold a three-day Music Festival next May.

Some of the world's most noted soloists and the Philadelphia Orchestra of one hundred are to take part, and it is also the intention of the association to organize a chorus of one thousand voices.

In order to secure these singers the co-operation of the clergymen, musical leaders, choir directors, etc., is asked.

Singers are invited to join this chorus and to take part in what promises to be the greatest event of its kind in the history of Pennsylvania. It means much for the education and cultural uplift of the people.

Mr. C. Mortimer Wiske (pronounced Wyskee), director for 22 years of the Newark and Paterson Festivals, will direct the Philadelphia concerts, and will be at the association's office, 318 South Broad street, each day from 10 A. M. until 5 P. M., and on Thursday and Friday evenings from 8 until 10 o'clock, to receive applications.

ST. PAUL'S DAY

According to an old legend:
If skies on St. Paul's Day are clear
It does betide a happy year.
But if it chance to snow or rain,
Then will be dear all kinds of grain.
If clouds or mists do dark the sky,
Great store of birds and beasts will die;
And if the winds do fly aloft,
Then war shall vex the kingdom oft.

I WILL

"I will" has a spirit that nothing daunts;
Once he gets his eye on the thing he wants
He rolls up his sleeves and he pitches in,
With a splendid zeal that is bound to win.

"I will" never hesitates lest he fail;
In his heart he's sure that he will prevail;
No mountain can halt him, however high;
There's no task too hard but he'll have a try.

KEEP THE EASTER OFFERING IN MIND

TEN YEARS AGO

The officers of the Dorcas Society were as follows: Mrs. William Knox, President; Mrs. Robert Montgomery, Vice President; Mrs. William M. Beardswood, Treasurer; Mrs. Joseph H. Doughty, Secretary.

Forty members of the Young Men's Guild attended the annual banquet at Hanscom's.

The Treasurer of the Junior Brotherhood Chapter was William Watkins. Mr. Watkins and his brother returned to pay us a visit on Sunday morning, December 9th.

The Bowling Alleys have been screened off from the Game Room in the basement and we hope to keep them in first-class condition. Mr. David Graham is organizing a bowling team among the men of the Parish and will be glad to talk to any men who would like to join the team. The men from St. Barnabas', Kensington, came down on Thursday evening, December 7th, and defeated our team the best two out of three. These visits are very enjoyable indeed and give us an opportunity to meet in a social way the men from other Parishes in this Diocese. Come out and bowl.

DAILY PRAYER FOR OUR PARISH

Almighty and Everlasting God, Who dost govern all things in Heaven and earth, mercifully hear our prayers, and grant to this Parish all things that are needful for its spiritual welfare; increase and strengthen the faithful; visit and relieve the sick; turn and soften the wicked; arouse the careless; recover the fallen; restore the penitent; remove all hindrances to the advancement of Thy truth, and bring all to be of one heart and mind within the fold of Thy Holy Church; to the honor and glory of Thy ever-blessed Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ORDER OF SIR GALAHAD

St. Paul's Court of the Order of Sir Galahad organized in January with the following Council: The Rector, Messrs. James W. Aikens, G. Walter Coyle, Adam A. Lex and Benjamin G. Lex. This is a ritualistic Order for young men and boys of the Episcopal Church. Boys enter the Order as Lads and are advanced to the degrees of Page, Esquire and Knight. The following boys have been admitted:

St. Paul's Court expects to present a Pageant entitled "The Consecration of Sir Galahad" on Sunday evening, May 4.

It is the hope of the Council that the fathers of the boys will take an interest in the Court and an active part in its affairs if possible. We can use more men in the Court Council.

Shortly after the presentation of the Pageant the Court expects to hold a Father and Son Banquet.

BENJAMIN G. LEX, Director.

JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW

The Junior Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew has a team now in the Brotherhood Bowling League. There are five chapters in the league. These chapters are Church of the Covenant, Twenty-seventh street and Girard avenue; St. Jude and Nativity, Eleventh and Mount Vernon streets; Memorial Church of St. Paul, Fifteenth and Porter streets; St. Matthew, Eighteenth street and Girard avenue, and St. James', Fifty-second and Spring Garden streets.

We have played nine games, won two games and lost seven games. Six of the seven games lost were lost to the Church of the Covenant, leaders of the league. The other game was lost to St. Jude and Nativity. The members of St. Paul's team are: Coach, Fred Hunter; captain, Thomas Johnston; players, William Wiley, Jr., Adolph Lippke, Robert Moore, Frank Hawthorn, William Jillard and Nelson Mowary.

EPIPHANY PAGEANT

The members of the Sunday School, directed by Miss Florence E. Gillin and Miss Mariette Dimon, presented a beautiful Epiphany Mystery Play in the church on the evening of February 3d. A congregation which taxed the seating capacity of St. Paul's greatly enjoyed the presentation.

The pageant taught the Epiphany message in a reverent and impressive manner. To the directors and to all who helped we are very deeply indebted.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

The Church Periodical Club was organized in this church during 1923, under the leadership of Mrs. Walter Scott. Mrs. Scott and her committee have been working quietly among the members of our church and parish during the past year. Among some of their accomplishments are the following:

Four hundred and thirty-four magazines mailed to missions all over the United States and to many foreign countries.

Four hundred and fifty-five books of all descriptions (Bibles, Hymnals, Prayer Books, Testaments, Educational and Fiction).

One large Christmas box packed with pictures, games, toys, etc., to the Foreign Mission Field.

Seven hundred and fifty picture postcards mailed out to mission children.

This work is made possible only through the earnest solicitations of the committee and the people of our Church. Here is an opportunity for you to do real missionary work right to the field itself. Will you be willing to mail a magazine when you are finished with it at the end of each month to some missionary? Wouldn't you enjoy receiving a letter direct from some foreign field to you personally saying how much good an old magazine has done? See the chair-lady or any member of the committee and they will furnish you with an address for mailing. If you do not care to mail them yourself, bring all your old magazines, books of any kind, games, old picture postal cards, etc., to the church.

VISIT TO ST. BARNABAS'

On Monday evening, January 28th, about forty of our young people visited St. Barnabas', Kensington. The Men's Club of St. Barnabas' and their Auxiliary entertained us royally and we had a thoroughly good time. Their bowlers bested us in a spirited match, but now that we are in a bowling league and are bowling regularly, we hope to make a better showing in a later match.

RECTOR'S LETTER

Dear Parishioners:

It is very easy to begin to keep Lent each year and then as the weeks go by we find it harder and harder to keep to the schedule or to the ideal that we have set for ourselves. It is just at this time then that we need to reaffirm our intention and to pray harder for the strength to carry through our good resolutions.

You are trying, I know, from the increased attendance at Holy Communion and at the other services of the Church. Your loyalty and devotion, beginning with the services on Ash Wednesday, touches me very deeply, and I am sure that you will sustain your effort to culminate in a glorious Easter.

Remember, in your prayers, please, some of those who are sick or in adversity at this time, that God, through Christ, may bless them in the time of their great need.

STANLEY V. WILCOX.

EGYPT AND THE HOLY LAND

An illustrated lecture on Egypt and the Holy Land will be given by Mr. Thomas S. Boyle, superintendent of the Sunday School, on Thursday evening, April 3rd, beginning promptly at 7:45. Cards of admission may be had from any member of the Sunday School. The admission charge is 50 cents. The entire proceeds will be given to the Sunday School Lenten offering.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyle made an extensive tour of the Bible lands last spring and Mr. Boyle has since collected 150 slides of the most interesting places in Egypt and Palestine. The pictures, beautifully colored, came direct from Jerusalem.

It will be a great help to us all in observing Passion Week and Holy Week to make this tour, as many of the places are connected so intimately with the last earthly days of our Lord.

EARLY COMMUNION ON EASTER DAY AT 6.00 A. M.

As the seating capacity of the auditorium is limited, please secure tickets in advance and come promptly. This will greatly help those in charge of the arrangements.

JOHN M. HUGHES

Just as we go to press the news comes with startling suddenness of the death at Prescott, Arizona, of Mr. John M. Hughes. Mr. Hughes was for many years a vestryman of St. Paul's and until January 1, 1924, the Accounting Warden.

The news of his death comes as a great sorrow to us all.

The funeral will be held from the Church on Monday, March 17th, at 2 P. M. The Rev. George H. Toop, D. D., of Holy Apostles; the Rev. Joseph Earp, Georgetown, Delaware, and the Rev. Dr. Sutcliffe, of New Britain, Conn., will assist the Rector.

Our heartfelt sympathy is extended to Mrs. Hughes and to all the members of the family. Mrs. Hughes was Miss Edna Kampen, for many years a faithful communicant of St. Paul's.

The resolution of the vestry and further details will appear in the April Chronicle.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The candidates are holding a Lenten service every Monday afternoon at 4:30 at which time the Rector is giving a series of talks on Friendly principles. The girls are busy with their Lenten sewing and are making an enviable record in every branch of their activities. The "gym" class came into prominence lately by taking a closely contested game of basketball from the girls of St. Michael's branch in Germantown. A return game will be played very shortly in our own "gym."

CONFIRMATION

Before a congregation that filled the church to overflowing the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation was administered by Bishop Garland to a class of 41 on Sunday evening, March 9th. It was Bishop Garland's first visit to St. Paul's since his election and the large congregation was an expression of the love and affection held for our Bishop by the members of St. Paul's and the people of this section in general. The following were confirmed:

Mabel Boggs, Josephine Atkinson, Margaret MacEwan, Thelma Theis, Helen Smith, Anna Hilsee, Sadie Allen, M. Octavia Livezey, Ruth Keck, Dorothy Gerhardt, Kathryn Fink, Mabel Wiley, Roland Long, Fred Archdeacon, Anthony Caine, Edwin Abele, Anna Lautenbach, Norma Van Court, Irene Morgan, Richard Davis, Harry Dever, Eugene Randolph, George Zepke, Florence Ailtmar, Miss A. G. Engell, R. Hillsman, Mrs. Neale, Elizabeth Cole, Margaret Elizabeth Phillips, Ruth King, Mrs. Hoffman, Mrs. James Phillips, Iris Barrington, May Lewis, Benjamin G. Lex, Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. A. D. Woodhull, Anna Schaeffer, Christine Samuels, Anne Elizabeth Tuttle and Margaret Renshaw.

THE ORDER OF SIR GALAHAD

The Lad's Degree is going along fine under the counselorship of Sir Thomas A. Johnston; Lad Irvine William Twiford, president; Lad Ira Crider, secretary. We now can boast of thirty members.

The pageant entitled "The Consecration of Sir Galahad," which will be presented May 4, will be the most elaborate pageant presented at St. Paul's.

We would like to have all the fathers to attend a meeting April 10. We expect to have a good speaker on boys' work in the Church.

BENJAMIN G. LEX, Director.

THE CRUCIFIXION

A Sacred Cantata

The choir, directed by Mr. Souder, will sing Stainer's Crucifixion on the evening of Palm Sunday, April 13th. Admission cards will be mailed to every member of the congregation and additional cards may be had by applying to Mr. Souder or to any member of the Choir.

SACRIFICE SOMETHING FOR THE EASTER OFFERING

THE ALTAR GUILD

At this season of the year we are all looking forward to beautifying the Altar for the Easter services.

You will agree with me that, aided by numerous contributions, the Church was very beautiful last Easter. We are hoping very much to have that same effect again this year. Any donation or contribution, either in the form of money or plants, will be greatly appreciated.

Contributions may be given to the Rector or to any member of the Altar Guild. They should be made not later than 4 o'clock on Easter Even, in order that the workers may have sufficient time to properly arrange the flowers and plants.

Should you wish to have the plants sent to a sick person or to one of the hospitals, after the services, kindly attach your card and the name and address to which it is to be sent, and we will see that the plant reaches its proper destination.

Please help us to make our Church most beautiful on Easter Day.

KATHRYN R. JOHNSTON,
Secretary.

CONFIRMATION CLASSES' REUNION

A service of Holy Communion and a reunion of the confirmation classes will be held on the evening of Maundy Thursday, April 17th, at 8 o'clock. Pews will be reserved for the classes so that they may sit together. Remember the day and the date. Maundy Thursday, at 8 P. M.

MISSION STUDY CLASS

A Mission Study Class meets every Monday evening in the Parish House, under the leadership of the Rev. B. N. Bird, of St. Asaph's, Bala, Pa. All members of the congregation are cordially invited to attend the sessions of this class. Copies of the handbook and of the assignments may be had from Mrs. Robert Skillen, the class secretary.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SERVICE

Services are held every Sunday evening during Lent at 7:15. Short, interesting services, hearty singing, special speakers.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

During Lent the members of the Auxiliary will sew all day on Wednesday. Come and bring a lunch and join with us in our work for Missions. At the regular meeting on February 20th, Mrs. William Tuttle was elected Vice President to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Robert Linn Edsall. Mrs. Edsall removed in January to Haddonfield, N. J. We miss her very much at the Auxiliary meetings and in other branches of the Parish work.

On Wednesday, February 27th, Bishop Remington, of the Missionary District of Eastern Oregon, spoke before the Auxiliary on the work in that vast district and of some of his plans for the extension of our Church work there in the near future. Bishop Remington's visit was greatly enjoyed.

THE PARISH PARTY

All of the pre-Lenten social activities culminated in the general Parish Party, held on the evening of Shrove Tuesday. We are greatly indebted to the Committee on Arrangements for a very pleasant evening. Refreshments were served and a silver offering taken for the benefit of the Coal Fund.

CAKES SALES AND SUPPERS

Cake Sales and Supper will be held in the Parish House every Saturday afternoon during Lent, with the exception of Easter Even. Here you may purchase home-made cakes and pies in abundance and if you stay for dinner you will be surprised at the quality and quantity of the food that is served for 50 cents. Come and bring your neighbors.

EASTER EVEN

Easter Even has been, from of old, a stated time for Baptism. We will have the usual service of Baptism in the Church at 4 P. M. on Easter Eve. The Rector will gladly consult with those who desire to arrange for Baptisms at that time.

MRS. BALTZ'S CLASS PLAY

The Entertainment and Dance, given on Friday evening, February 22nd, by the members of Mrs. Baltz's Sunday School Class, was a splendid success. The entertainment was directed by Mr. John A. Chambers, with Mrs. Edna C. Braggs as musical director. The following program was presented, and disclosed a great deal of talent heretofore undiscovered:

"All on Account of An Actor," a farce in one act. Characters appeared in the order named:

"The Maid," Abbie Schumacker; "Lucile," Lydia Hudson; "Enice," Iris Barrington; "Aunt Ellen," Peggy Zimmer; "Mrs. Hepzibah Green" (from the country), Lillian Evensen; "Adelaide," the wife, Beatrice Garrison.

Part Two—Tenor Selection, Albert Eastwood; Violin Solo, Mildred Creighton; Humorous Ditties, George Anderson; "A Little Nonsense," William P. Dever.

Kitchen Symphony Orchestra—Professor Sabbi Schumuski, leader.

Members of the Orchestra—Beatrice Garrison, Iris Barrington, Lillian Evensen, Lydia Hudson, Peggy Zimmer, Dolly Bragg, Catherine Nickels, Hazel Hudson, May Lewis, Ruth Sigmund, Lillian Baltz.

PALM SUNDAY

There will be the usual procession with palms on the morning of Palm Sunday, April 13, at 10:30 o'clock. Special music. Your friends are invited to be present.

WEDNESDAY EVENINGS

Make a special effort to be present on Wednesday evenings during Lent. Services are held in the Parish House at 8 o'clock. Talks on church history.

MINSTREL MAID'S REVUE

The Parish House was crowded on Wednesday evening, February 27th, to see the Minstrel Maid's Revue, presented under the auspices of Mrs. Sladen's Class of the Sunday School. The Entertainment presented was very novel, very amusing, and exceedingly clever. We are greatly indebted to all those who took part.

RECTOR'S LETTER

Dearly Beloved Brethren:

"On Easter Day I intend, by God's grace, to celebrate the Lord's Supper: unto which, in God's behalf, I bid you all, and beseech you, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, that ye will not refuse to come thereto, being so lovingly called and bidden by God Himself."

These words are a part of the exhortation to Holy Communion in the Prayer Book and express very completely the message I have for you on the eve of Easter Day.

I am sure that every one of you, insofar as you are able, will sincerely try to make your Easter Communion.

The schedule of services for Easter Day will be found elsewhere in the Chronicle. If it is not possible for you to come to the Holy Communion on Easter Day there will be celebrations on Monday and Tuesday in Easter Week.

I like very much the words of this beautiful Easter carol:

The bells are ringing joyfully,
Their music fills the air,
While from the world our steps we turn,
And seek the house of prayer.

The bells are ringing joyfully,
They ring from year to year;
But, as the Easter time comes round,
They seem to us most dear.

The bells are ringing joyfully,
The earth is filled with flowers;
The risen Lord in mercy crowns
These sinful hearts of ours.

STANLEY V. WILCOX.

About 75 diplomas will be awarded at this service to scholars who have a perfect record of attendance from Christmas to Easter. The Lenten offering of the Sunday School will be presented.

REUNION OF CONFIRMATION CLASSES

This impressive service, held for the first time last year, will be repeated on the evening of Maundy Thursday, April 17th, at 8 P. M. There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion. Pews will be reserved and marked so that the classes may sit together.

HAPPY AND JOYFUL EASTER TO ALL

PATRONIZE THE ADVERTISERS

THE EASTER OFFERING

Our parochial activities have increased in every way during the past year, which is indicative of Parish health and vigor, and should be the cause of much Easter joy and gladness. Since the beginning of Lent a year ago ninety persons have been presented for confirmation, many unattached communicants in this vicinity have renewed their loyalty to the Church, the Sunday School has grown steadily and our Parish organizations are active and successful in their efforts.

Forward movement in every branch of human endeavor means added responsibility. It is not possible to minister to greater numbers without greater expenditures. A great part of our communicant list is made up of boys and girls not yet of age. We are attracting them, and holding them, and for this we cannot be too thankful. These young people, however, cannot be expected to contribute in large amounts. We must look to the older communicants for increased offerings.

The remark has often been made by Church members that they would gladly and willingly support a growing Church; that they would gladly and willingly make tremendous sacrifices for a Church that would attract and hold young people in this present day and generation.

The Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Paul's are calling upon you to make such a sacrifice this Easter. We need your financial support if we are to maintain our present work and extend and increase it.

We are just beginning to realize what an unlimited opportunity we have to reach out and touch the homes of unchurched people in this vicinity. People who are eager and anxious for us to minister to them.

This offering that we ask for, this sacrifice we are calling upon you to make, is not to pay back debts, but it is a call to the militant missionary spirit of your heart that we may go forward in His name.

When the time comes to fill your Easter offering envelope, therefore, please do it thoughtfully, and prayerfully, and ask for God's blessing on our work.

EASTER FLOWERS

Memorial flowers and plants for the altar and Church on Easter Day should be sent to the Parish House not later than 4 P. M. on Easter Even. Contributions may be made to the Rector or to any member of the Altar Guild.

SEND EASTER PLANTS AND FLOWERS

CHURCH MUSIC

Many new faces have appeared in our choir since the beginning of Lent. We are very grateful indeed to all those who have volunteered for this important service. We have had special music at all of the Sunday evening Lenten services, and every visiting clergyman has remarked on what a blessing it is to a parish to have such a faithful and efficient choir.

On the evening of Palm Sunday the choir, directed by Mr. Souder, will sing the sacred cantata "The Crucifixion." Admission cards for this service have been sent out and the public in general is cordially invited.

There will be special music at both the 6 o'clock service on Easter Day and at the later service.

EGYPT AND THE HOLY LAND

Mr. Boyle's lecture on Egypt and the Holy Land was given on Thursday evening, April 3rd, before an audience that completely filled the Sunday School auditorium. The lecture and the pictures will long be remembered by those fortunate enough to be present. Mr. Boyle's talk followed in outline the story of the children of Israel as presented in the Old Testament and was illustrated by many beautiful pictures of places, familiar as names only to many of us. After singing Bishop Brooke's beautiful hymn, "Oh, Little Town of Bethlehem," Mr. Boyle took up the narrative of the New Testament and showed pictures of Bethlehem, Nazareth, the Lake of Galilee, Jerusalem, the Mount of Olives, Gethsemane, and many other places closely connected with the Life of Christ. We hope that the lecture will be repeated at an early date for many of those who were unable to be present on April 3rd.

INSTALLATION OF BISHOP GARLAND

The installation of Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Garland, D.D., as Bishop of Pennsylvania, will take place on the Feast of St. Philip and St. James, Thursday, May 1st, at 10.30 A. M., in Holy Trinity Church, Nineteenth and Walnut streets. The usual service of Holy Communion held at 10 A. M. on Saints' Days will be omitted at St. Paul's on that day.

CORRECTION

In the yearly report of the Dorcas Society an error appeared under the expenditures from Apron Fund. The correct reading should have been, for choir vestments, $32.49; for apron materials, $36.21.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Vestryman, April 19, 1916, to December 23, 1923

Accounting Warden, April 26, 1916, to December 23, 1923

At the meeting of the vestry of the Memorial Church of St. Paul, Fifteenth and Porter streets, Philadelphia, on Wednesday, March 19, 1924, the following resolution was adopted and ordered to be spread upon the minutes, to be sent to the family of the late John W. Hughes, and to be published:

"In the death of John W. Hughes this Parish has lost one of its most loyal communicants. For many years he served the Parish faithfully as teacher in the Sunday School, Vestryman and Accounting Warden until ill health and removal to the West made necessary his resignation. A devout member of the Church, he was faithful in the performance of all Church duties, firm in the faith and a sincere follower of Jesus Christ. Ever willing to give of his time and his talent to individuals or to the Church as a whole, the thought of his unselfish devotion to the Church of Christ will cause his memory to live long in the minds of his friends.

"Let the sweet hope that Thou art mine,
My path of life attend:
Thy presence through my journey shine
And crown my journey's end."

In behalf of the Vestry,

Frank H. Futwider, Stanley V. Wilcox,
Clerk Rector

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW

We are at present applying for a renewal of our Senior Brotherhood charter. A senior chapter of the Brotherhood has been organized with Mr. Calendar Ritter as Director and Mr. Joseph H. Darley as Secretary. Meetings for the present are being held on Tuesday evenings. All men of the Parish interested in the Brotherhood are invited to meet with us and learn of the Brotherhood ideal. The Chapter has already done considerable Parish visiting among the men of the Parish with splendid results.

Later contributions will be recorded next month.

PLEDGES AND ENVELOPES

About 25 per cent. of our communicants have as yet made no regular pledge for Parish support and for Missions for this year. In the majority of cases this is simply due to the fact that we have not presented the matter to you. You can help greatly by asking the ushers for a pledge card and by placing the same on the plate or mailing it to Mr. Hazlett. We still have sufficient boxes of envelopes for every one. If you have not already made a pledge and received envelopes make it an Easter resolution to attend to the matter at once.

SOUTH PHILADELPHIA CONVOCATION

The Spring meeting of the Convocation of South Philadelphia will be held on Tuesday, May 27th, at 4 P. M. Place to be announced later. Delegates will please reserve this date. We should take a greater interest in Convocation and do all that we can to urge and support a constructive program.

RECTOR'S LETTER

May, 1924.

Dear Friends:

The period from Easter to Ascension is known in the Church as "The Great Forty Days." The foundation stones of the Christian Church were laid during this time. A splendid summary of what transpired may be found in the first chapter of the Acts: "Concerning all that Jesus began both to do and to teach, until the day in which he was received up, after that he had given commandment through the Holy Spirit unto the apostles whom he had chosen: to whom he also showed himself alive after His passion by many proofs, appearing unto them by the space of forty days, and speaking the things concerning the kingdom of God."

Our hearts should be filled with great joy at this time, therefore, because we are looking back to Easter as the commemoration of our Saviour's resurrection and at the same time we are exulting in the promise of the Comforter to come.

Ascension Day or Holy Thursday falls this year on May 29th. It is the third great festival of the Christian year, and we should observe it as such. Too often we are indifferent to Ascension Day because it falls on a week day, yet the Church provides (as for the other great feasts) a proper preface in the Communion service, to be continued during the octave, or eight days, and proper psalms for the morning and evening.

Following close upon Ascension Day are the festivals of Whitsunday and Trinity Sunday, on June 8th and June 15th, respectively. This completes the five great festivals of the Church year.

I hope that the splendid interest of the Parish manifested at Easter will continue.

We need very much in this day and generation the teaching and inspiration of these great festivals of the Church.

Sincerely,

STANLEY V. WILCOX.

VESTRY

At the annual Easter meeting of the Vestry held on Wednesday evening, April 30th, Mr. Samuel J. Buck was appointed to be Rector's Warden for the year and Mr. James M. Hazlett was elected Account-Warden.

Mr. Frank Fulwider was elected Clerk of the Vestry.

The following committees were appointed:

Trust—Messrs. Boyle and Hazlett.

Music—Messrs. Aikens, Skillen and Ed-kind.

Finance—Messrs. Boyle, Hazlett and Livezey.

Property—Messrs. Fulwider, Buck and Gillin.

PARISH MEETING

A call has been sent out by the Rector for a general Parish meeting to be held in the Parish House on Monday evening, May 19th, at 8 o'clock. At this time reports will be received from all of the Parish organizations and plans for next year will be discussed.

One of the most important things that will come before the meeting is the planning of a proper celebration of the 20th anniversary of the Parish. The first service held in the little mission that subsequently grew into the Parish of St. Paul's was on the 19th Sunday after Trinity, October 9, 1904. Seventeen persons were present. The 20th anniversary, therefore, will fall on Sunday, October 12th.

It is hoped that every member of the Parish will make an effort to be present at this important meeting.

SOUTH PHILADELPHIA MEMORIAL SERVICE

The combined Posts of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, located in South Philadelphia, are planning a massive memorial service to be held in the Plaza Theatre, Broad and Shunk streets, on Sunday afternoon, May 25th, at 2 o'clock.

This service is to do honor to all of the men in South Philadelphia who gave their lives as a sacrifice to their country.

EXCHANGE SUNDAY

Sunday, May 25th, is the Sunday now known in the Diocese as Exchange Sunday. On that day the Rectors of city and suburban Parishes exchange pulpits with ministers-in-charge of Diocesan Missions. The Rector will exchange for the morning service with the Rev. Henry Davies, D.D., minister-in-charge of Trinity Mission, Collingdale, Pa. Trinity, Collingdale, is one of our most important suburban missions. To adequately carry on the work there new buildings should be erected. The Diocese recognizes the importance of this work and has designated that certain funds be given to assist and encourage them.

Please remember this service and come out and welcome Dr. Davies and learn something of the problems of suburban work.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

On Sunday evening, May 25th, at 8 o'clock, we will have the honor to receive as our guests the members of the Gen. John F. Reynolds Post, No. 71, of the Grand Army of the Republic. The Reynolds Post will hold their annual memorial service at St. Paul's on that evening. They will be accompanied by the Gen. John F. Reynolds Camp, No. 4, of the Sons of Veterans, also by the Gen. E. H. Liscum Post, No. 47, of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Troop 232 of the Boy Scouts will be present in uniform and will have two other troops as their guests.

Several American Legion Posts have been invited and the Red Cross Auxiliary of St. Paul's.

This should be a very beautiful and inspiring service. Sunday evening, May 25th, at 8 o'clock.

EASTER

It is difficult to find words to adequately express the joy of Easter Day. It just seemed as though every individual connected with the Parish had just one thought in mind, that Easter Day was to be devoted to thoughts of Christ and His resurrection.

Every service was splendidly attended, and very few indeed failed to make their Easter Communion.

The early morning service was more beautiful than ever before. Members of the Altar Guild worked unceasingly and with much artistic ability to beautify the altar and the chancel with an abundance of Easter blooms; the full choir was present and sang two anthems in addition to the glorious Easter hymns.

Another large congregation was present at the later service and greatly enjoyed the special music.

The Easter offering amounted to over $615. A very gratifying feature of this offering is that contributions were made to it by nearly every one. It is not an amount made up of a few large sums. Over 260 of the special Easter offering envelopes were used and the amounts varied from a few cents to ten dollars.

In the afternoon the Sunday School held the annual carol festival. The Church was filled again, nearly every child braving the rain to be present at the presentation of the Lenten offering. It was an occasion long to be remembered and the offering amounted to the almost unbelievable sum of $2,150. Needless to say the doxology was sung with much fervor as the Rector raised the alms basin at the altar.

Certificates were presented to those who had been regular in attendance from Christmas to Easter. One hundred of the certificates were presented.

The Rector also presented thirty certificates to children who had attended every Saturday afternoon service during Lent.

Mrs. Boyle's class was awarded the banner for the year for the largest amount contributed over their quota. Full reports of the class offerings will be published in the next issue of the Chronicle.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL

The Dorcas Society is already looking forward to June and the time of Strawberries. Details of the annual strawberry festival will be given out soon. Keep it in mind and help in every way possible to make it a success.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

PARISH MEETING, MONDAY, MAY 19th. 8 P. M.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

THE PAGEANT

A beautiful and colorful pageant, entitled "The Consecration of Sir Galahad," was presented by St. Paul's Court of the Order of Sir Galahad in the Church on Sunday evening, May 11th. A large congregation attended and was very much impressed, not only with the beauty of the pageant and the high ideals taught by the same, but also by the reverence and the training of those who took part.

The pageant was directed by Mr. C. E. Cole, and the business details were looked after by Benjamin G. Lex, director of the Order.

MISSION STUDY CLASS

The Mission Study Class conducted on Monday evenings during Lent by the Rev. Benjamin Bird, S.T.D., of St. Asaph's Church, Bala, Pa., came to a successful conclusion on Monday evening, April 14th.

The class was greatly enjoyed by all the members and we hope that we may have a similar class in the very near future.

As a slight token of the appreciation of the class a pocket edition of the New Hymnal was presented to Mr. Bird. It meant a great sacrifice on his part to come to us regularly one evening every week during a busy Lenten season.

HONOR ROLL

The following children received certificates for regular attendance at the Saturday afternoon Lenten services:

Ethel Smith, D. Clarence Baltz, Jr.

SUBSCRIBE NOW FOR THE MEMORIAL WINDOW

THE MEMORIAL WINDOW

It was the unanimous opinion of all those present at the Parish meeting on May 19th that we should proceed at once with the erection of the stained glass chancel window. A beautiful design by the D'Ascenzo Studios of Philadelphia was submitted by the Window Committee, and was very acceptable to all.

The meeting decided that the funds for the window be raised by subscription; that members of the Parish, their friends and all those interested in the Church, be asked to subscribe one or more units in the window. Each unit to cost $10.00, with the privilege of naming the units in loving memory of some relative or friend. Mr. Wesley Scott, who was appointed to take the place of the late John W. Hughes, Esq., on the committee, was named treasurer of the Window Fund. Mr. Scott organized several teams of canvassers to see that the subject was properly presented to every member of the Parish, and that an opportunity be given every one to subscribe. The money to be paid, one-half when the subscription is made, and one-half by October 1, or in any other way agreeable to the subscriber.

For the benefit of those who receive the Chronicle, but who have not been given the opportunity to make a subscription, a copy of the subscription card is reproduced here. Fill in and cut out the form and mail it direct to Mr. Scott.

The subscription cards that have been turned in to Mr. Scott up until the Chronicle goes to press are as follows. Many others have subscribed, but team captains have not made complete returns as yet. The next issue of the Chronicle will record these subscriptions.

The window will be ready for dedication on Sunday, October 12th, the twentieth anniversary of the founding of the Mission on the lot where the Church now stands.

RECTOR'S LETTER

Dear Friends:

Your splendid response to my request for a very general observance of Ascension, Whitsunday and Trinity Sunday is most encouraging. These great festivals of the Church, coming as they do so close together and so soon after Easter, are so apt to be neglected.

We are now entering the great Trinity season of the Church year. The whole trend of the Church teaching so far has centered around Christian faith. The Epistles and Gospels have set before us great truths. We have been brought to see the various manifestations of God in His Son, Jesus Christ, at Christmas, Epiphany, Easter, Whitsunday and Trinity.

The Sundays after Trinity deals not so much with faith as with the practical application of the truths we have learned to everyday life.

Do not neglect, therefore, the Trinity season. It comes at a time when we are so apt to forget the Church.

We need this practical application of the great truths of the Christian religion. We need to read over and over again the Epistles and Gospels chosen for this season. Here are to be found the wonderful passages of direct practical teaching from the lips of Jesus Christ.

Enjoy the summer to the utmost. Get away from the bustle and turmoil of the city for a time, if it is at all possible. But don't get away from your Church and its teachings. Go to church when you can, wherever you are. If it is not possible to attend service you can always read your Bible and your Prayer Book, and it would help us a great deal to sit down quietly, read the Collect, Epistle and Gospel for the day, and think out the meaning of the day for ourselves.

STANLEY V. WILCOX.

SPECIAL MUSICAL SERVICE

On the evening of Trinity Sunday, June 15th, at 8 P. M., the last of the special musical services will be held. The Choir, under the direction of Mr. Souder, will sing three numbers from the St. Cecilia Mass. Be sure to come and bring a neighbor or friend to enjoy this beautiful music.

TO ENVELOPE SUBSCRIBERS

The following subscribers have as yet made no payments through the envelopes, according to the record of the Accounting Warden:

29, 32, 34, 35, 36, 40, 47, 56, 84, 103, 105, 112, 113, 117, 119, 124, 128, 138, 142, 144, 156, 157, 163, 164, 169, 178, 183, 206, 213, 216, 217, 266, 271, 284, 288, 324, 327.

If you have envelopes numbered accordingly and there is any error, please notify Mr. Hazlett at once.

If you have envelopes numbered 306, please notify Mr. Hazlett. The name and address corresponding to this number has been misplaced.

Be sure and keep up your envelopes during the summer. Mail them to Mr. Hazlett if you are going to be away, or begin now to put two or more in each Sunday to cover the weeks you will be absent. This will greatly aid the Accounting Warden with summer finances.

If you are behind in your envelopes and desire a statement, an accurate account of your payments to date will gladly be given.

Sometimes checks are placed on the plate to cover envelope subscriptions. The number of your envelopes should always accompany such a check, so that proper credit can be given.

If you do not have envelopes, fill out a pledge card and place it on the collection plate or give it to one of the ushers. The envelope system is by far the most satisfactory system of church financing. Pledge cards may be had in the vestibule.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

The Sunday School picnic will be held at Willow Grove Park on Saturday, June 21st. Cars will leave the corner of Fifteenth and Porter streets promptly at 8.30. Begin now to make arrangements to go with us. The members of the Sunday School will be taken without charge, and there will be a nominal charge for parents and friends.

This event should not only be a Sunday School picnic, but a general Parish outing. We will have games of all kinds and athletic contests directed by Mr. Eugene Gillin. We hope Mr. Buck will be with us as usual to look after the lunch baskets, and Mr. Skillen to make the coffee.

DEATHS

D. Clarence Baltz

David Clarence Baltz, for many years a faithful communicant of this Parish, entered into eternal life on May 16th after a long illness. His funeral took place from the Church on Tuesday, May 20th. The loving sympathy of the congregation and of the teachers and scholars of the Sunday School is extended to Mrs. Baltz and her family.

Mrs. George C. Thomas

Mrs. George C. Thomas, who with her children built our Parish House, passed to life eternal on June 2nd. The funeral of Mrs. Thomas took place in the Church of the Holy Apostles, Twenty-first and Christian streets, on Thursday, June 5th. Bishop Garland, Bishop Stearly and the Rev. George H. Toop officiated. The Rector was present, vested, to represent this Parish.

The death of Mrs. Thomas marks the close of a life on earth devoted to the spread of Christ's kingdom. She was ever ready to give of her means to help the poor and unfortunate and to subscribe liberally to every worthy cause. Over and beyond this Mrs. Thomas gave herself. She was always generous with her personal interest and sympathy.

To honor her memory in a very definite way in this Parish, the Memorial Chancel Window Committee has decided that the window, described elsewhere in the Chronicle, shall be dedicated in the name and to the memory of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas.

The "Parish Chronicle" is issued the first
Sunday of each month.

All material intended for publication MUST
be in the hands of the Editors by the 20th
of each month, and should be written only
on one side of sheet.

IMPORTANT

This publication is only possible so long
as our friends in the business world give us
their advertisements. Many will do that if they get results. The advertisements cover
many needs of your household and business.
Please look them over carefully, and whenever possible give them your patronage.

"I saw your advertisement in St. Paul's Parish Chronicle"—that counts with the
tradesmen more than you think.

For advertising rates consult the Business Manager.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your
Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following
Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish
to another shall procure from the Rector, if
any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens,
a certificate stating that he or she is a com-
municant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which
reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness
or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC SATURDAY, JUNE 21—ALL ABOARD

The Rector should always be consulted
before arrangements are made for baptisms,
marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt
notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St.
Paul's Parish are asked to send their names
and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the
expenses of the Church.

MEMORIAL IVY

On Sunday afternoon, June 1st, a very impressive service was conducted on the lawn of the Church property, at which time Miss Fulwider's class of the Sunday School planted an ivy on the Fifteenth street front of the Parish building in loving memory of John W. Hughes, for many years a teacher in the Sunday School, a vestryman and accounting warden.

SENIOR BROTHERHOOD

The Senior Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will have charge of the open air service on the Parkway on Sunday afternoon, July 20th.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

A beautiful and impressive service took place in the Church on Sunday evening, May 27th. It was the occasion of the annual memorial service of the Gen. John F. Reynolds Post, No. 71, of the Grand Army of the Republic.

The Gen. John F. Reynolds Camp, No. 4, Sons of Veterans, and their Auxiliary, as well as the members of the Women's Relief Corps of the Reynolds Post, the General Liscum Post, No. 47, V. of F. W., the Red Cross Auxiliary of St. Paul's, the Herbert Warriner Post, No. 70, American Legion, the John P. Garland Post, No. 196, American Legion, and Troops 75, 181, 231 and 232 of the Boy Scouts, assisted with the service.

The service was in loving memory of John Atkinson, died June 3, 1923, age 81 years; William S. Porter, died June 12, 1923, age 89 years; R. A. Skeen, died November 11, 1923, age 76 years, and Edward Briggs, died March 19, 1924, age 83 years.
In addition to these names the Post paid its loving tribute of memory to a comrade who answered the last roll call on Saturday, May 24th, while engaged in making preparations for the services of Memorial Day.

We were greatly honored by the presence, of these veterans and greatly inspired by the beautiful and hopeful words of their memorial service.

HERE'S AN OPPORTUNITY FOR HELPFUL SERVICE

Mrs. Henry B. Cox, chairman of the Knitting Committee of the Diocesan Supply Bureau, begs the different parishes to do as much knitting as possible during the summer, so we may have warm garments to give out to our own Church organizations in the Diocese as soon as cold weather comes. Wool may be purchased at practically wholesale price from the Diocesan Supply Bureau. During the summer season nearly all our Church women, it is hoped, may find opportunity to give a little helpful service in this work.

SUNDAY EVENING SERVICES

The service on Sunday evening, June 22nd, will be the last Sunday evening service until the fall.

PARISH NOTES

A very beautiful wedding was solemnized in the Church on Wednesday, June 4th, when Miss Frances A. Swope became the bride of Mr. John J. Ackley. Mr. Ackley was formerly a choir boy at St. Paul's, and his parents and brothers have always been deeply interested in the Parish. Mr. and Mrs. William Pedrick, of 1716 South Fifteenth street, are uncle and aunt of the groom.

Spence Dunbar has completed his first year at Hobart College, Geneva, N. Y., and arrived home in time to take part in the evening service on Whitsunday.

Midshipman Warner Edsall, a commu-nicant of St. Paul's, and at present a student at the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., finished his first year at the academy on June 6th, and is at present away on his first cruise.

Ensign Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Thomas Cole, finished his course at the academy the same day, graduating forty-fourth in a class of 512. Ensign Cole has been assigned to the U. S. Colorado.

Mrs. Madeline Watt has been appointed to the Board of Managers of the House of Rest for the Aged, Wayne avenue and Harvey street, Germantown.

The Rector greatly enjoyed his visit to Trinity Mission, Collingdale, on Exchange Sunday, May 25th. This Mission is very much in need of new buildings to carry on an important work in a splendid field. Let us try to do something definite to help them this year.

Randall Skillen, assistant treasurer of the Sunday School, graduated Friday evening, June 13th, from the Philadelphia
Dental College with a degree of D.D.S.
Hearty congratulations to Dr. Skillen. All through his college work Dr. Skillen has remained faithful to his Church and Sunday School work, a splendid record in this day and generation.

CHURCH PERIODICAL

Will you kindly save all your old books, magazines and used picture post cards during the summer and bring them to the Church in the fall? We would be glad to receive the name of any one who will mail

SENIOR BROTHERHOOD

The following report on St. Paul's Senior Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew is submitted:

When about to commence this report, the famous scene recorded in the 37th chapter of the Book of the Prophet Ezekiel came across my mind. In the Prophet's account of this scene we are told that he was carried in the spirit of the Lord and set down in a valley which was full of dry bones, and the question arose in his mind as to whether or not those bones would ever live again. The Prophet was assured by God that He would cause breath to enter those bones and they would live. In reading the chapter through we are told that those bones did come to life and formed a large army. What an extraordinary feeling must have come over the Prophet when he beheld those bones taking on life. I can fully understand what that valley of bones consisted of, as during my travels around this world I have come across quite a few of these valleys and have seen the whitened bones, remains of people who had been interred in a nearby cemetery, but it is not my intention to go into details concerning these modern valleys of bones at the present time, however. I may give details at some future date, but what I wish to bring to your attention this evening is that our Chapter has had a somewhat similar experience. After its first organization it became dormant, or, in other words, it died. Acting upon an invitation from our Rector a few men met about two months ago in this Parish House, and after the usual pro and con talk it was decided to reorganize, or, in other words, breathe new life into the dormant Chapter. At the present date we are three in number, and during the two months of its re-existence no fewer than forty visitations have been made by two of the members, the third one contenting himself with taking care of the clerical duties. I have no doubt but what a great many of us here have heard croakers speak of the worn out and exhausted old church, but, my dear friends, if you had traveled as I have and seen the wondrous work being done by our branch of the Universal Church in all parts of the world you would turn up your noses at those sneers, for I can assure you those sneers are not honorable and worthy, but they are entirely dishonorable and unworthy. I have stood upon the very spots of the earth where the fathers of the Church met in the first building up of our Church. Those spots I found to be in a state of ruin, but it rejoiced my heart to know that the Church for which those fathers made the supreme sacrifice is a living reality today. So men of this Parish, we ask you to carefully and prayerfully take into consideration our needs, come to our meetings and learn what we are doing. Our director is always ready and willing to give any explanation that may be desired. Then if you consider yourselves fit to undertake the work, enlist with us in this mighty work, thereby making a new life in our Parish, so that it can become every day, in every way, better and better, remembering that it is the duty of every communicant to do all that is within our power to assist the Rector in his none too easy work for one man, for by so doing we do our little mite in advancing the cause of the whole Church.

JOSEPH H. DARLEY, Secretary,

GRADUATIONS

Many of the members of the Sunday School are graduating this June from schools and colleges. A complete list of our graduates and some mention of honors received will be published in the next issue of the Chronicle.

REPORT OF CHURCH PERIODICAL SOCIETY

Work accomplished from June 1 to date:

Four hundred and seventy-eight old magazines sent out, 44 books sent out, 200 post cards sent, 41 persons actually mailing out magazines.

Respectfully submitted,
MRS. WALTER SCOTT.

REPORT OF G. F. S. CANDIDATES

The class opened early in October and closed on May 12th, with about 60 girls on the roll. A few meetings dropped below 20, and some were over 45, but most meetings averaged 35 in attendance. The fall was largely taken up with work for the bazaar. At Christmas we sent some things to the Philadelphia Hospital and to some children in the neighborhood. During Lent the Mission sewing was accomplished at the home of the associate-in-charge on four Thursday afternoons. It meant extra meetings for the girls, but they responded well, varying in attendance from 15 to 20.

On the side of recreation we have had basketball instruction under a very able leader. Twice our girls have played St. Michael's, Germantown; once at St. Michael's and once at St. Paul's. At both times our girls were victorious. Some rhythmic dancing lessons resulted in a very pretty little demonstration at the closing meeting given by two of our girls. The Health Fairies gave us a very attractive and instructive little play during the winter, which resulted in a great deal of interest displayed in a health crusade among the girls. We had two parties, one at Halloween and one to close the season.

We feel we have had a more religious aspect to our work this winter, as our little service held at each meeting has been of wider scope and more seriously attended.

During Lent we had a series of very helpful talks given by our Rector, and 33 girls went to the candidates' annual service at St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill. After that service in the Parish House the Senior Members' Club gave out prizes for the annual contest, and one of our girls received a prize and seven received honorable mention.

Just a word before closing. There is so much we might have done and in which we have failed, but I feel that our work for the year shows some progress, and our girls are beginning to see and feel just a little of what the Girls' Friendly Society should stand for. We feel that the Parish as a whole is taking more interest in our work, but we want to put in an earnest plea for still closer co-operation. "No chain is stronger than its weakest link," and all Parish organizations are vitally important to the life of the Parish, but as in the Nation, so in the Parish, its future life depends on its children, and anything we can do to give them higher ideals will react to the future glory of the Memorial Church of St. Paul.

Respectfully submitted,
MARION H. STEVENSON.

PARISH NOTES

The heartfelt sympathy of the Parish is extended to Mrs. Charles Buzby and family. Mr. Buzby died suddenly on July 7th.

The Co-operative Shop, 1630 Sansom Street is paying the salary of a "Visiting Housekeeper" this year. If the mother of a family is ill, if she will have someone notify the Rector he will try and secure the services of a Visiting Housekeeper. The Housekeeper will come from 8 till 4 for a few days or a few weeks as the case may require.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Woman's Auxiliary work is done for Missions and work outside our own Parish.

We had a pleasant and successful season. During October and November we did sewing for the bazaar.

After the first of the year we started on our allotment, our attendance was good, so we finished and returned our work in the required time, May 1st.

There are three star auxiliaries in the Philadelphia Diocese and we are very proud to say that we are one of them.

We made 140 garments at a cost of $84.15, paid $2.60 for ready-made articles (sheets, spreads, middie blouses, etc.).

During Lent we sewed all day Wednesday for the Episcopal Hospital. Six operating gowns, 6 patients' gowns, 12 hot water bottle covers, 1 dozen bed stockings, 6 children's nightgowns. The cost of these was $25.35. We also gave $8.00 for Missions, $15.00 as our apportionment for expressage, parcel post, to send boxes to missionaries; $2.00 for Ninth Crusade, $25.00 to Rev. Thomas Meryweather, Missionary District of Eastern Oregon, toward the purchase of automobile. We have received a letter of thanks and picture of car from Mr. Meryweather.

Through the kindness of our Altar Guild we sent a silver chalice, cruet and two palls to Japan. We have received a letter of thanks from Bishop McKim for same.

We would be pleased to have all the women of the Parish to come in the fall to help us with this work. We could then do more diocesan work for all Philadelphia institutions, Episcopal Hospital, House of Holy Child, Home of the Merciful Saviour and Sheltering Arms.

Our president, Mrs. James Hazlett, donated wool for 6 baby blankets. They were very pretty when finished (white and pink), for the Sheltering Arms.

Our dues are 25 cents a month, and as all the work has to be paid for, we had two cake sales and supper.

MRS. L. MAY EDKINS, Secretary.

BOY SCOUTS

The following report on St. Paul's Troop, No. 232, Boy Scouts of America, is submitted:

The Troop was organized in the year 1919, but up till 1922, when I became its Scoutmaster, I am not in a position to give any account of its activities prior to that date.

When I took command of the Troop it numbered seven registered Scouts, and today we have thirty-eight.

We meet in the Parish House every Tuesday evening for our drills and exercises, to which parents of present members are always welcome, also others who are interested in the movement or have boys that they would like to have in the Troop, and for the latter the Scoutmaster is always ready to answer questions and explain the reason for its existence.

In addition to the weekly meetings, two weeks in each year are given up to a camp life at Treasure Island, where the boys rise at 7 A. M. each day, and after a day of good exercises, good food and rational recreation they are ready for their night's sleep, which actually begins at 10 o'clock, at which time taps is sounded and all lights are put out, with the exception of that in the Scoutmaster's tent and which burns all night.

During the camp life of two weeks there is always in attendance a doctor ever ready for any sickness or other emergency free of charge, his expenses being met by a lady interested in the movement.

Letters and booklets explaining the camp life, also name of doctor, can be had from the Scoutmaster.

Every Sunday, while in camp, the boys attend divine service.

K. CRAIG,

Scoutmaster, Troop No. 232.

THE GIRLS' FRIENDLY AT CAPE MAY

For the last month about twelve girls of the Candidates' Class have been looking forward to the good times they were going to have for a week at the Holiday House, at Cape May.

Finally, on June 20, at 12.30, Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Stevenson, with the anxious girls, started to get the 1.30 train for cool Cape May. We reached there about 3.30.

When we left the station we walked about a square to the house. It was a large, four-story building with porches extending from every floor, with many trees and flowers in the back and front.

After each girl registered she was shown to her room. The rooms were large and well equipped for two girls in each room. Each room was given by some church. After eating supper and a stroll along the boardwalk we went to bed very tired.

Next morning, Friday, the rising bell was rung at 7.30, and breakfast served at 8 o'clock. Every morning and every night, after breakfast and dinner, we had a service in the chapel adjoining the house. We were allowed in bathing from 11 to 12 o'clock every morning but Sunday.

On Wednesday we were very much surprised when Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox visited us. What fun we had that day! At 11 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox went in bathing with us, and, of course, Mr. Wilcox could not resist ducking us.

After dinner we all left on a picnic to Cape May Point. There was a crooked house there, in which Mr. Wilcox took us all the way up to the third floor. The foundation of it had been washed away on one side. Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox left at 5.30 for home, and we followed shortly after, leaving for the house.

Thursday at 1.15 we started for Philadelphia, although we were sorry to leave Cape May. We had a very good time the entire week, but I think we had the most fun Wednesday.

We are all looking forward to going again next year.

Mabel Boggs

SUMMER SERVICES

During August there will be only one service each Sunday, at 10.30 A. M.

The service on August 10 will be in charge of Dr. Charles F. Sladen.

Services from August 17 to September 7, inclusive, will be in charge of Rev. S. H. Dixon, of Charleroi, Penna.

The Rector will return for the service on Sunday, September 14, the second anniversary of his rectorship.

Regular services and the Church School will resume on Sunday, September 21, the feast of St. Matthew, Evangelist.

PARTIES

June 26 was the day chosen this year for parties. In the afternoon Mrs. Hazlett entertained the Auxiliary at her lovely summer residence in Chestnut Hill. Lunch was served under the trees and near enough to the upper Wissahickon to hear the murmur of that lovely stream, which flows just at the foot of the hill. In the afternoon we walked along the bridle path for quite a distance, and then crossed the creek and came back along the drive. Industrious members sewed and knit, while less industrious members enjoyed the cool waters of the swimming pool.

In the evening we all sat down to a lovely dinner, after which we sat and talked until the lingering twilight changed to night indeed. Very reluctantly we left the towering trees, the murmuring stream and our charming hostess and turned our faces toward the city.

Wesley and Emma Scott entertained the members of the choir at their Logan residence on the same day. It was the first social gathering of the choir since the informal social just before Lent. Every one had the best kind of a time. We played all sorts of games, at which some of the members displayed great skill. Mr. Wallace took first prize for his ability to juggle beans with a spoon. Albert Eastwood sang for us, and then we ate. Our choir does many things well. The Scotts do all things well.

REGULAR SERVICES BEGIN SEPTEMBER 21st

SIR GALAHAD CAMP

The Lads of the Order of Sir Galahad had a very successful camp at Worthington's Mills, Pa., during the week of July 20. The degree of Lad is the youngest degree in the order and embraces boys under 12 years. It is very unusual for boys holding this degree to have their own camp, but the Lads of St. Paul's Court are up and doing, and they went about their camp duties like well-tried soldiers. The camp was under the personal direction of the Rector and the Sir Galahad director, Benjamin G. Lex. The following boys attended: Harold Anderson, Matthew Eger, Stanley Dever, Ernest Hiehle, William Holland, George Morlock, Emerson Larkin and Leonard Smith.

We left the Parish House on Monday, July 20, in a comfortable truck provided through the kindness of Mr. Hazlett. After several hours ride through beautiful rolling country we arrived at the camp of the Delta Beta Phi, which was to be ours for the week.

The camp is beautifully situated on the banks of the Neshaminy Creek, about thirty miles above Philadelphia. The swimming and fishing could not have been better, and occupied most of our time between meals.

On Thursday we went for an all-day hike. On the way to Newtown we had a splendid view of the ZR-1, which was en route that day to Wilkes-Barre, and was evidently following the Delaware river. As our camp was within about five miles of Washington's Crossing, the huge airship went almost overhead, flying very low.

We took a swim at The Oaks, the favorite swimming hole of the Newtown boys, and we cooked and ate our lunch up by the big spring.

Coming back to Newtown, we took a bus ride to Wrightstown, and arrived in camp just in time for another swim before supper.

On Friday the Rector cooked a big pot of his special soup. We spent all week collecting things for this palatable dish, and it was fully up to our expectations. That evening we had a bonfire and a party. Initiations were in order, and many amusing degrees were conferred. We came home on Saturday determined to go again next year and to stay for a longer period.

K. P.

20TH ANNIVERSARY OCTOBER 12th

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

June this year produced more than its share of rainy days, but Saturday, June 21, the day chosen for the Sunday School picnic, was the kind of a day that we all expect a June day to be. The cars which left the Parish House at 8.30 A. M. were crowded to their capacity with happy picnickers, and the Rector and Mr. and Mrs. Boyle were awaiting us in our favorite grove when the cars arrived at their destination. Mr. Buck was on hand as usual to help with the loading and to make the good coffee for which our picnics are famous. More parents went this year, and we had many more happy family tables than ever before. In the afternoon many members of the congregation took advantage of the lovely day and came out to join us so that it began to look like the general parish outing that the Rector had hoped for.

We had some very interesting and exciting races and games, directed by Mr. Gillin, and the winners received handsome prizes supplied by our generous superintendent.

Mr. Boyle's car came over from Ambler, as usual, looking like a modern reproduction of "Little Red Riding Hood's" basket. It was filled with good things—milk, ice, oranges, bananas, sugar and spice and everything nice. Of all but the last it went home empty.

Contrary to custom, we had Sunday School the day following, and, contrary to expectations, we were all there.

THE STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL

The Parish House was taxed to its capacity on June 11, the night of our annual strawberry festival. The fun began in the auditorium upstairs with a one-act comedy presented by the young men of the Delta Beta Phi, directed by Mr. Robert Hillsman. Other numbers followed in rapid succession until we were all called to the floor below to eat the good things prepared by the members of the Dorcas Society. Consternation reigned for a few minutes when the ice cream gave out, but this deficiency was quickly remedied and every one was abundantly supplied. Dancing and games were next in order, with lots of good singing and general amusement. The arrangements, as usual, were perfection itself. Every one had a good time, and the Dorcas Society was richer by over $80, which they immediately turned over to the Window Fund. It is too bad that strawberries only bear once each year.

AWARDING OF DIPLOMAS

The last Sunday evening service until fall was the occasion of the awarding of diplomas to all those who had been present every Sunday from Easter Day until the close of school. It was a very happy and enthusiastic service, made so by the presence of so many of the children and their parents. Our school has a wonderful record for faithful attendance.

BLOCK PARTY

The Dorcas Society ventured into a new field on Friday evening, July 11, when they held a block party on Eleventh street, between Oregon avenue and Johnston street. Of course, it goes without saying that it was a success. Over one hundred dollars was cleared and turned over to the Window Fund. Almost more important than this, however, was the friendly spirit displayed by the neighbors in this block. Every one helped in some way or other and everyone helped willingly. Needless to say, our own people begged and borrowed and worked with a will also. The spirit of good-fellowship and co-operation manifested on every hand made this effort well worth while.

THE MEMORIAL IVY

One of the most impressive services held by our Sunday School took place on the afternoon of June 1, just before the closing of the school for the year. It was the occasion of the planting of the ivy on the Parish House in memory of the late John W. Hughes, Esq. Two girls from Miss Fulwider's class placed the plant in the ground while the Rector read the prayer and pronounced the Benediction. The entire school formed in the Parish House and marched through the church singing one of Mr. Hughes' favorite hymns, forming on the lawn while the ivy was planted.

The plant is growing nicely and will be tenderly cared for and properly marked in the near future with a suitable copper marker.

CHOIR PICNIC

The choir picnic is an annual event of great importance. The choir is purely a volunteer organization. Such choirs in this day and generation are unique. Our choir is not only a volunteer choir but it is a mighty good volunteer choir. We are all proud of our choir, and we all appreciate their efforts. Above all, we appreciate their faithfulness and their loyalty. One way to express our appreciation is to try to arrange for a day's outing at least once a year. The Vestry has charge of the arrangements, and this year Mr. Hazlett offered to arrange a trip that he thought would be a little different and afford every one a pleasant day. To this end he secured a splendid boat for us and arranged for an interesting trip on the upper and lower Delaware. In the morning we inspected the new bridge, then, landing at Holmesburg, we were escorted through the Home for Indigents, and then taken by automobile to inspect Camp Happy and Brown's Farms. Stopping at Chestnut street pier for those who could only go in the afternoon, we had a bountiful lunch and proceeded on a trip south to Wilmington. We ended the day with a supper under the trees at Strawberry Mansion. May we have many more such picnics!

THE CAMP

The young men of the parish have been dreaming all winter of the kind of a summer camp they would like to have. Roomy tents, good swimming, good fishing, good neighbors, a near-by store and all the other items that make camping a real joy. On Saturday, June 28, they loaded all their equipment on a truck and proceeded to set up such a camp at Worthington's Mills. Here they are spending their vacations and their week ends. It is a splendid camp, and the club deserves a great deal of credit for their enterprise and perseverance. Run up and see them some Sunday.

WELLESLEY CHURCH CONFERENCE OF 1924

During the period of time from June 23rd to July 3rd, 1924, the Annual Wellesley Church Conference conducted by the Episcopal Church celebrated its twentieth birthday.

The object of this particular gathering each year is to impart to each member spiritual gain, mental stimulus, the standardization of the highest ideals, together with a good social time.

To attain this objective many things are used. First of all, the conference is held at what is supposed to be one of the most beautiful colleges in the world. The beauty lies not only in the modern well-equipped buildings, but more especially in the beautiful grounds and the inspiring adjacent rolling country, for the site of the college is beside Lake Waban among the Wellesley Hills.

Secondly, the conference itself consists of the highest type of instruction imparted by very well known men, one of whom was the beloved Bishop Rhinelander, who instructed a class in "The Holy Spirit, The Creed and The Bible," and another of whom was Dr. Richardson, formerly of St. Mary's Pro-Cathedral, whose subject was "The Christian Character."

The conference day was opened by Chapel at 7 A. M. for all those who cared to attend.

After breakfast, which was served at 8 o'clock, the first class started at quarter to 9 o'clock. At quarter to 12 a recess was called, at which time crackers and milk were served on the campus. From 12 o'clock to 12:10 intercessions were held at Houghton Chapel for those caring to attend. Intercessions were followed by the fourth period, which was followed by luncheon at quarter past 1 o'clock.

It might be here stated that a member was requested not to take more than three classes unless they felt they could carry more and desired the added work and knowledge.

The morning courses consisted of "General Subjects," such as "The Building of Christian Character," "Straight Talks to Young People" (for those who were under twenty-five years of age). This class was so popular with the younger members that many over twenty-five years of age gained special permission to attend them after the first class. Under this group of classes were also those for "The Young People's Fellowship," "A Fellowship of Uncongenial Minds" (for clergy), etc. Another group of studies were those on the Bible, such as "Christ and the Modern Youth," studies on the "Books of Genesis and Revelation." Also for those interested in Sunday-school work were conducted courses on the "Methods and Principles of Teaching," "How to Conduct a Church School," and "Arts and Crafts in the Church School Service League."

There were also special courses for those interested in "Social Service Work," "Church Pageantry and Religious Drama," "Church Music," under which subject "The School of Church Music" conducted classes in "Improvisation," "Boy Choir Training," "Plain-song" (its rendition and accompaniment), "Organ Repertory," "Sidelights on the Hymnal," and "General Chorus Work."

Beside the various classes there was much thought and energy given by those in charge to the social life of the conference. For example, there was a baseball game between the young men and women. The men wore the girls' skirts and dresses and the girls wore "knickerbockers." Of course, due to the boys' serious handicap the girls won the game, affording the spectators many laughs. There was also dancing in "Tower Court" in the evenings, while during the day many of the members enjoyed tennis, swimming, canoeing and hikes. For the older members there were forums, musicals and "Stunt Night" (the stunts being performed by the younger members of the conference).

When July 3rd slipped around the

RECTOR'S LETTER

Dear Friends:

Sunday, October 12th, is the twentieth anniversary of the first service held on the site of this church. The Rev. Edwin S. Carson, minister-in-charge, conducted the service and the records show that seventeen persons attended.

We are making plans now to fittingly celebrate this important milestone in our parish life.

As yet some of our plans are tentative and the details may be changed later. As they stand at present our plans for our twentieth anniversary are as follows:

Sunday, October 12th, 8 A. M., corporate Communion. The Sunday School and all parish organizations will be asked to make their corporate Communion at this service.

10.30 A. M., dedication of the Memorial Chancel Window. The Rt. Rev. Nathaniel S. Thomas, D.D., Bishop of Wyoming, will dedicate the window and preach.

8 P. M., evening prayer and sermon by the Rev. Edwin S. Carson, first pastor of the parish. Rev. Joseph H. Earp and Rev. Granville Taylor, former rectors, will be present and take part in the service.

Monday, October 13th, 8 P. M., parish reception.

Tuesday, October 14th, 8 P. M., pageant, "The Consecration of Sir Galahad."

Wednesday, October 15th, 8 P. M., musical service. Combined choirs of the Convocation of South Philadelphia.

Please make these plans known to your neighbors and friends and invite them to worship with us at one or more of these special services.

STANLEY V. WILCOX.

RESUMPTION OF SERVICES

Regular services will be resumed on Sunday, September 21st.

8.00 A. M.—Holy Communion.

10.30 A. M.—Morning Prayer and Sermon.

2.30 P. M.—Sunday School.

8.00 P. M.—Evening Prayer and Sermon.

Be sure to enroll your children in the Sunday School. We have a splendid school, well organized and equipped, and all children are welcome. I wish you could all read the report of the Department of Religious Education presented at the last convention. "There are 8,000,000 American children, nominally Protestant, under ten years of age, who are growing up in non-church homes." You can help this situation by bringing every unchurched child you know of to our school. Make yourself responsible for the children in your block. It is a definite Christian service. We want the children. Let us bend every effort toward getting them this year. Sessions of the school begin on September 21st.

LETTER FROM MR. CARSON

Dear Mr. Wilcox:

I am in receipt of your kind letter of September 9th, inviting me to be present at the twentieth anniversary of the Memorial Church of St. Paul on Sunday evening, October 12th, at 8 o'clock.

It will be a great pleasure to me to join with you and the good people of St. Paul's Church on this important occasion, and I should be pleased to bring a message to them on that day.

As I look back over my ministry of twenty years it hardly seems possible that so many years have passed since I began my ministry at Fifteenth and Porter streets, but the twentieth anniversary of the Memorial Church of St. Paul on October 12th proves that the years have gone, and I still hold in my heart a deep affection for the people with whom I began my ministry.

Please convey to the Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Paul's Church, and also to the people, my heartiest congratulations, and tell them what a joy it will be to me to be with them at this twentieth anniversary service.

EDWIN S. CARSON.

THE MEMORIAL WINDOW

We are printing below the list of those who have subscribed to the window since the June number of the Chronicle went to press. We hope that many more subscriptions will be received before the first of October. Some have not yet paid the first installment on their pledge. This should be sent at once to the Treasurer, Mr. Wesley Scott, 4679 North Sixteenth street. The second payment on all pledges is due

October 1st and should be remitted promptly. Mr. Scott may be seen in the vestry room at the conclusion of the morning service.

Work on the window is progressing nicely and the dedication will take place on Sunday morning, October 12th, at 10.30 A. M. The Rt. Rev. Nathaniel S. Thomas, D.D., Bishop of Wyoming, will dedicate the window and preach.

general atmosphere was one filled with discontent, because it was necessary for nearly five hundred persons to pack and prepare to separate; some going to a short distance, while others packed for such places as Mexico, Porto Rico, Liberia, Alaska, China, Japan, India, etc.

There is no doubt that the objective was fully attained this year, when people from "afar off as well as nigh" profited not only spiritually but also mentally and socially by acquiring such new and worth-while acquaintances that they resolved to return next year to Wellesley if it is at all possible for them to do so.

Anne Clinton Gillin.

THE PRINCETON CONFERENCE

I am sure most young folks have always imagined that church conferences were "those dry affairs that no live spiritual young person would attend." I know now that this is all truly imagination, because of the lovely young people who attended the conference. There was such a spirit of friendliness, because everybody, young and old, boys and girls, was there for the same purpose. Each person wore a name-plate in a conspicuous place that if any one wishing to address him could do so with ease.

The greatest privilege was given to the conference every morning at Holy Communion (7.15 A. M.). I know that a great many people availed themselves of this great opportunity every morning, even though regular attendance was not compulsory. Quite certain it is that not many failed to attend breakfast, which was served at 8 o'clock. I may add that some very jolly times were had at meal times. The classes began at 9.15 o'clock and lasted until 1 o'clock, with a fifteen minute interval between each of the three periods. The courses offered were most interesting, because the method used was the "discussion method." Every one took part, not because he or she felt it a duty, but because the course and the faculty inspired them to do so. The hour after lunch was reserved as rest hour. Following that there was a three-hour recreation period—which was always used to advantage. One day the boys played baseball against the girls. The boys played left-handed and donned borrowed skirts. The girls wore knickers. The boys won, but they gave the girls a good chance to beat them. Then there was Field Day. There were races of every sort. The Pennsylvania delegation made a fair showing, but Long Island won the silver cup by a good margin. Another day we toured the University grounds, which are truly beautiful. On still another day we visited Washington's Headquarters at Rocky Hill. We had two dances and one play given in the Parish House. Many other social events took place also.

But we were there for more than a social time. There was the religious element. No one, leaving Princeton, could fail to be inspired by the whole atmosphere and spirit of the conference. One of the most beautiful things about it was the Sunset Services. These were held every evening at 7.30 o'clock on the lawn. Bishop Ferris presided. His radiating personality, combined with the deep religious feeling given by the surrounding beauties of nature, made it a thing of perfection. We had many fine speakers to tell us of the work that is being done by the Episcopal Church. We were inspired and felt proud to belong to this great Church.

We left the conference with real regret, but not without the determination to carry on within our own parishes the wonderful work that is being done in the missionary and other fields. This conference was attended by three hundred people, but I wonder if St. Paul's couldn't increase the number next year? I think we can!

Georgianna D. Worrall.

HOUSE OF REST

Mrs. Madeline Watt, of 1806 South Fifteenth street, is our representative on the Board of Managers of the House of Rest for the Aged. Please help this work in any way you can. Mrs. Watt will gladly receive contributions of food, clothing or money. Ask her to tell you about the work and their needs.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your
 Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon.

"A communicant removing from one parish
 to another shall procure from the Rector, if
 any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens,
 a certificate stating that he or she is a com-
 municant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which
 reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness
 or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted
 before arrangements are made for baptisms,
 marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt
 notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St.
 Paul's Parish are asked to send their names
 and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the
 expenses of the Church.

RECTOR'S LETTER

November 1st.

Dear Friends:

I wish that I could tell you in this small space all that it was in my heart to say on Anniversary Sunday and at the subsequent services of Anniversary Week.

It was just a joyous and thankful occasion for us all, I am sure, and a loving tribute to all those who worked so faithfully during the first twenty years of our Parish life.

The memorial window is a dream come true. It almost seems as though the craftsmen had caught a vision of our hopes and prayers and sacrifices and had woven them all into the fabric of their creation.

Everything was just as it should have been to mark this important milestone in our Parish life. To have had the memorial window for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and the lectern for Mr. Hughes. To have Bishop Thomas as preacher and officiant; Mr. Carson and Mr. Taylor in the evening; Dr. Tomkins, Dean Toop and our neighboring clergy for the week-day celebrations, all fit in so well to make a fitting climax to twenty years of faithful work.

We are all deeply grateful to these men and to the choirs that were with us on Wednesday evening.

I am sure that our lives are richer and better for this event and that we have all gained new inspiration and courage to enable us to keep pressing forward toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

STANLEY V. WILCOX.

SPECIAL SERVICES IN NOVEMBER

Sunday, November 16th—Rally Day in Sunday School. Service in Church at 3 P. M. Parents should attend this service.

Thursday, November 27th—Thanksgiving Day. Service in Church at 10 A. M. Donations of fruit, vegetables and canned goods will be received for the House of Rest. The offering will be taken for the Episcopal Hospital.

Sunday, November 30th—St. Andrew's Day; Advent Sunday. Eight A. M.—Corporate Communion of the men and boys of the Parish.

MEN'S CORPORATE COMMUNION—NOVEMBER 30th.

SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY DAY

Rally Day in the Sunday School will be on Sunday, November 16th. Co-operate with the teachers and officers of the school by sending your children on this Sunday and regularly thereafter.

The excuse given by so many parents for the non-attendance of their children at Sunday School is that sometimes the children do not attend willingly and that they do not believe in being firm with them.

The same children often do not go willingly to school on week days, yet we place such a high valuation on secular education that we see to it that they attend and attend regularly. We co-operate in every way possible with state authorities, and it is right that we should. Every parent and guardian should co-operate at least in equal measure with the Church. Children as a rule do very few things of real importance willingly. You never help any child by not being firm about such things. Surely the religious education of a child is of supreme importance. If you are thoroughly modern you may not think so, but being thoroughly modern does not always imply being wise and understanding in the real issues of life.

COMING EVENTS

Week of November 10th—Rummage Sale.

Tuesday, November 11th—Meeting of Convocation of South Philadelphia, Holy Trinity Parish House, 217 South Twentieth Street. Conference on "Religious Education."

Friday, November 14th—Play, "Pollyanna," Parish House. Adults, 35 cents; children, 25 cents. Benefit of Candidates' Class, G. F. S.

DORCAS SOCIETY

During the month of October the Dorcas Society has enrolled two new members.

We now have 65 members on the roll, the majority of whom are active workers. We took charge of the Parish reception, during the week of our twentieth anniversary, and furnished the refreshments. For the Hallowe'en Party held in the Parish House on Wednesday evening of the 29th, we filled 300 bags; these contained apples, peanuts, cakes and candy, and were given to the children of the Sunday School and their friends during the party. A number of our members worked faithfully for the Red Cross during its recent drive. We are now looking forward to our Rummage Sale and hope the members and friends will save their rummage for us.

From these varied activities it will be seen that the Dorcas Society participates in almost every Parish function. We would like some more women of the Parish to come and help us in our work.

HARRIET J. SKILLEN, Secretary.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Over 300 children enjoyed the annual Hallowe'en Party on Wednesday evening, October 29th. The Dorcas Society very kindly provided ample refreshments for everyone and the music and games were greatly enjoyed.

A list of the prize-winners will be published in the next issue of the CHRONICLE. Two of the winners of important prizes refuse to date to disclose their identity, but we hope soon to unravel the mystery.

THE MISSION OF THE CHURCH—OUR COMMON TASK

JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD

Since the last report with meetings held every Wednesday, the Junior Chapter, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, has increased the membership by three new candidates, making thirteen boys on probation. The boys are deeply interested in the work of the Chapter, and can be found ever ready to do anything required of them. Each Sunday morning and evening service the boys are ready with a smile, also a prayerbook and hymnal to each person who attends church services.

They are being trained in work about the Church, such as ushering, looking up boys for the Sunday School, and children of eligible age for confirmation; also being in strict attendance in Sunday School.

The Rector, with the Director and the boys, will make visits this winter to various Chapters throughout the city to glean information as to other Junior Chapters. We expect by the time the boys take the obligation on the third Sunday of January that they will be in shape to take up the work of the older boys who have advanced.

The meetings are spiritual and of an interesting nature, with the boys acting in a gentlemanly manner. After each meeting the boys enjoyed basket ball, bowling and billiards, making each Wednesday evening much sought after by the boys.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The G. F. S. Candidates' Class held its first meeting for the season on Friday, October 17th. There were 37 girls present. A general atmosphere of helpfulness seems to prevail that promises well for the success of the work for the year. Those who were fortunate enough to go to the Holiday House at Cape May last June had much to say about their good times there. We hope to take a big group of girls to the annual Missionary Meeting at the Holy Apostles on November 8th, and we are going to start our Christmas work at the next meeting. We want to be able to send stockings and other things to many children who would not be able to have a Christmas otherwise. You can all help us if you will by coming to the play to be given in the Parish House on November 14th. The proceeds will be used in the carrying on of the work planned by the Candidates.

THE "CHRONICLE"

"There's no Parish paper just like the CHRONICLE." We hear this remark on every side and it encourages us to make the paper still more attractive. You can help us greatly by sending one dollar for a year's subscription to Mr. Robert J. Skillen, 2542 South Rosewood Street.

Next to his Church and family the CHRONICLE is the thing nearest to Mr. Skillen's heart. He works for it day and night. Such whole-hearted effort deserves whole-hearted support.

THREE NEEDS—PRAYER, STUDY, SERVICE

THE ORDER OF SIR GALAHAD

Although the Order of Sir Galahad in this Parish is the youngest organization we have, both in the age of the members and in the length of service, it is growing to one of the largest societies at St. Paul's. The ages of the members run from nine to twelve years and there are 25 youngsters enrolled in the Order. We have inaugurated a plan, whereby the member with the largest amount of credits receives a prize at the end of the year. Credits are given for attendance at Church, Sunday School and meetings; also for good conduct at Church, Sunday School, etc. Credits are deducted for bad conduct and for non-attendance at the aforesaid places. The meeting starts promptly at 7.30 P. M. and at 8.10 the lads adjourn to the "gym" where they engage in all kinds of sports. For those who are not familiar with the Order of Sir Galahad—it is a national order and aims to develop in boys, love of church, good character and the development of his good traits. If you have a boy or know of a boy who would enjoy an organization of this kind, please send him to the Parish House on Monday evenings.

GEORGE C. ANDERSON, Director.

ADVENT SUNDAY—MEN'S CORPORATE COMMUNION

Advent Sunday and St. Andrew's Day fall on the same date this year, November 30th. We will have our annual corporate Communion of the men and boys of the Parish at the 8.00 A. M. service on that Sunday. Both the Senior and Junior Chapters of the Brotherhood are working to make this service a success.

"POLLYANNA"

A play, "Pollyanna," will be given in the Parish House on Friday evening, November 14th, under the auspices of the Candidates' Class of the Girls' Friendly Society. Admission, 35 cents for adults, 25 cents for children.

It will do us all good to see "Pollyanna," the glad girl. Secure tickets from any member of the "Friendly."

FIVE FIELDS—PARISH, COMMUNITY, DIOCESE, NATION, WORLD

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

The Church Periodical Club is organized for the purpose of distributing magazines, books and pamphlets of any description to charitable institutions, hospitals and missionary fields all over the world.

Our branch at St. Paul's has been doing a wonderful work in this field. Since the Club's organization here we have gathered together and distributed, both home and abroad, hundreds of books, magazines, picture post-cards and literature of many descriptions. We also have many persons mailing their used magazines direct to the mission field itself. If you are willing to mail a magazine every month and help this cause, we shall be glad to supply you with an address.

Send all old magazines, used picture post-cards, books, etc., to the Church, as we have a constant and endless demand for them.

The Committee wishes to take this opportunity to thank all those who are working so hard to make this Club a success at St. Paul's.

MRS. WALTER SCOTT, Librarian.

WHAT DO YOU KNOW?

What do you know about your Church? Do you know whether there are in the American Church one hundred dioceses or fifty? Do you know how many provinces there are? Do you know what is meant—in the Church—by the term province? Where are the various mission fields of the American Church at home and abroad? Have we any mission stations in India? Have we any in China? What is the difference in status between, for instance, the Church's mission in China and its missions in, we will say, the Philippines? Do you know what the Church is doing in the Philippines? In Alaska? In China? In Japan? In Porto Rico? In Hawaii? In Liberia? In Cuba? In Haiti? In South America? In the Canal Zone? In our own Great West?

Well, let us narrow down: What do you know about your own diocese? Approximately, how many parishes and missions are there within its borders? How many communicants? What was done by your last diocesan convention to advance the cause of Christ in the diocese? Where is the next diocesan convention to be held and when? How are its delegates appointed? Who are these representing your parish? What organizations of the Church are represented in your diocese? For instance, is there a diocesan assembly of the Brotherhood? What is the difference between a bishop coadjutor and a bishop suffragan? Which, if any, have you in your diocese?

Suppose we narrow the questions down still further: How many communicants are there in your parish? Who are the members of the vestry? What is meant by the wardens? How are they appointed? What are the wardens and vestry doing to advance the cause of Christ in your parish? What might they do? How many pupils in your Church School? How many teachers and officers? What other organizations are there in your parish? Do you know anything at all about their work?

Is there a Brotherhood Chapter in your parish, and if so do you think it is fulfilling its purpose? How many were confirmed in the parish at the time of the bishop's latest visitation? How many of those now preparing for confirmation do you personally know? Do you know what agencies are at work in the Church to save the growing boys—yes, and girls, too—for the Church? How many boys from your parish have gone into the Sacred Ministry as a life work?

ST. ANDREW'S CROSS.

Rally Day, Sunday School November 16th

Bring offerings of Fruit, Vegetables and Canned Goods to service, Thanksgiving Day,
10.00 A. M.

The world is too much with us; late and soon, Getting and spending, we lay waste our powers;

Little we see in Nature that is ours;
We have given our hearts away, a sordid boon!
The sea that bares her bosom to the moon,

The winds that will be howling at all hours,
And are up—gathered now like sleeping flowers;

For this, for everything, we are out of tune;
It moves us not—Great God! I'd rather be A pagan suckled in a creed outworn;

So might I, standing on this pleasant lea,
Have glimpses that would make me less forlorn;

Have sight of Proteus rising from the sea;
Or hear old Triton blow his wreathed horn.

BOY SCOUTS

St. Paul's Troop 232, Boy Scouts of America, congratulates itself on having an able Assistant Scoutmaster in Mr. William Gehbauer, late of Troop 22, Holy Trinity Church, Nineteenth and Walnut Streets. Having been but a short time connected with our Troop, he has shown great interest in the boys and is very active in all its workings.

Saturday and Sunday, October 18th and 19th, the Troop with 22 boys went to Camp Biddle. Sunday morning the Field Executive and our Scoutmaster held Divine service in the woods under a large tree. Singing of hymns, reading of the Bible and a short address by Mr. Summerfield and Mr. Craig concluded the service, which was attended by other Scouts camping also at the camp.

Saturday, the 15th, the Troop will camp at Brier Hill over night. Having a full troop, many applications for membership are held over.

We take this opportunity of thanking the Old Insurance Company of North America for the beautiful calendars it dedicated to the Boy Scouts of Philadelphia.

BASKET BALL

Basket ball games in the gymnasium every Thursday night. Admission, 25 cents. We have our usual fast team and a splendid schedule of interesting games. Come out and encourage the team.

The "Parish Chronicle" is issued the first
Sunday of each month.

All material intended for publication MUST
be in the hands of the Editors by the 20th
of each month, and should be written only
on one side of sheet.

IMPORTANT

This publication is only possible so long
as our friends in the business world give us
their advertisements. Many will do that if they get results. The advertisements cover
many needs of your household and business.
Please look them over carefully, and whenever possible give them your patronage.

"I saw your advertisement in St. Paul's Parish Chronicle"—that counts with the
tradesmen more than you think.

For advertising rates consult the Business Manager.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your
Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following
Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish
to another shall procure from the Rector, if
any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens,
a certificate stating that he or she is a com-
municant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which
reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness
or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted
before arrangements are made for baptisms,
marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt
notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St.
Paul's Parish are asked to send their names
and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the
expenses of the Church.

RECTOR'S LETTER

Christmas, 1924.

My dear Friends:

We are planning for this number of the CHRONICLE to be ready on Sunday, December 21st. The interest therefore will center around our Christmas activities.

We will make our final corporate preparation for the Nativity on Sunday evening, December 21st, at which time the choir will sing selections from Handel's beautiful "Messiah."

Elsewhere in the CHRONICLE you will find a program of the special music to be rendered at the 6 o'clock service on Christmas morning. This year we will begin with instrumental music at 5.40 A.M.—organ, harp and violin, then the singing of the old, old carols, followed by the Communion service.

With the beautiful music, the new chancel window and the Christmas greens, this should be our most beautiful service.

We would do well to share the beauty and inspiration of this service with our friends and neighbors. Many of them have never known the joy of such a service. It helps us and I am sure it will help them. Please tell them about it and invite them to worship with us.

The later service will be at 10.30 A.M.

Our Sunday School carol festival will be held on Sunday afternoon, December 28th, at 3 o'clock. There is no service quite like this to bring back memories of similar services in our youth. Come and sing with us. It will greatly add to the joy of your Christmas, I am sure.

The Sunday School entertainment will be on Tuesday, December 30th. The afternoon will be given over to the Beginners', Primary and Junior departments and the evening to the Main School. Once again I say, come with the children and share their pleasure.

The Christmas offering as usual will be for extraordinary parish expenses. With the children's Christmas banks added, I hope that the offering will total one thousand dollars. The only discouragement I have at present is the realization that we are not adequately ministering to the people within our parish limits. We have the plant and a most loyal and willing group of workers. I need funds to do the extension work I would like to do. I need a full-time Sunday School worker to visit homes, under my direction, and to keep on visiting them. I need a car so that I can visit more homes myself. And I need funds to maintain such a car. I would like some of these things from you for Christmas. Not for myself but to help accomplish our common task. Souls are souls and we are surrounded by thousands of them waiting for us to reach out and touch them.

Very few churches have our opportunity and very few churches are as well equipped to take advantage of it.

We have not entered into the spirit of this extension work as wholeheartedly as we should have. And no one, I am sure, is interested in a half-hearted movement. Let us all enter upon a new year's work with vigor and enthusiasm.

Personally I feel better equipped to do an aggressive year's work than ever before and I am asking earnestly for your interest and support.

This is the longest letter I have ever written to you, and like most long letters I find I have wandered away from my main purpose.

I want to tell you, now, at Christmas, what a privilege it is to be your Rector.

I want to thank you for a very happy year.

May all joy and gladness be yours this Christmas and throughout the new year.

"God bless you all, my friends and neighbors dear;

Arise, and pray.

*Forth from your homes, to the altar draw ye near,
On Christmas-day."*

STANLEY V. WILCOX.

ALTAR GUILD

There is nothing so inspiring as the feeling that pervades the church and the home at Christmas time. Good cheer, best wishes, bright colors, gifts—they all help to express our joy at this happy season.

This year we have an added element of beauty in our church—the lovely chancel window—which will lend its proportionate share to the beauty and solemnity of our church services this Christmas.

The Altar Guild members will appreciate warm response to its plea for floral contributions.

Let us make the beauty of the altar a bright spot in our memory, throughout the coming year, by contributing liberally.

KATHRYN R. JOHNSTON, Secretary.

THE CHRISTMAS OFFERING

It has been our custom for many years to ask for a very generous offering at Christmas to meet the extraordinary expenses of the parish. Our expenses this year for coal, repairs, printing, postage and other items usually covered by special offerings, have been much larger than usual. This is to be expected with increasing activities and a higher scale of prices.

It is a joy to give and to give generously. We give most gladly to that which is nearest to our hearts. Surely the work of our Parish Church is very dear to us. It is the expression of all that is highest, noblest and best in us.

We give Thee but Thine own, Whate'er the gift may be:
All that we have is Thine alone,
A trust, O Lord, from Thee.

WATCH NIGHT SERVICE

This year we will have a Watch Night service on New Year's Eve, Wednesday, December 31st. The music will begin at 11.30 P.M. and the service at 11.45.

Come and extend a cordial invitation to your friends. We will see the old year out and the new year in with psalms and hymns and prayers.

EVERYBODY PAY UP SUNDAY, DECEMBER 28th

PAY UP SUNDAY

"What would you think of this plan? Suppose on Sunday, December 28th, we arranged to have what I have heard called a Pay Up Sunday. That is, everyone who is behind in their envelope pledges, will try to pay right up to Sunday, December 28th. I thought this might interest us all to have a Sunday like this, for it helps like furiation to do things together. Then, too, on that Sunday at the 10.30 A.M. service, we would have the announcement of the number of pledges secured by the canvassers for the 1925 budget. My, it would be a gala Sunday—we would sing the Doxology both forwards and backwards. Let's try it. If it isn't convenient for anyone to pay up back pledges that Sunday, why just let it go. All who can will do so, I know. This is just a matter of pride in our parish, for we always pay up, but this time we are going to do it together. And remember, there are not such an awful lot of back pledges to come in."

We copy this little article from a Massachusetts parish and think so well of it that we are adopting it in our own work.

We will make Sunday, December 28th, a Pay Up Sunday. The Rector will announce at the morning service the total number of pledges for 1925, also the number of new pledges received.

THE PARISH COUNCIL

Our efficient Parish Council met at the call of the chairman, Mr. Wesley E. Scott, on Tuesday evening, December 9th.

The Council volunteered its services for the Every Member Canvass and expects to complete the work and submit its report on Sunday, December 21st.

Every member of the parish will be visited and we hope that 100 per cent. of our membership will use the duplex envelopes in 1925.

The vestry has agreed to add the sum of $2,200 asked of us by the Quota Committee to our budget for the new year. This will be our share of the general forward work of the Church.

We hope to raise this amount through contributions on the red side of the envelope, the Sunday School Lenten offering and special offerings to the Episcopal Hospital, City Mission, etc.

NEW TEACHERS

The following new teachers have taken classes in the Sunday School:

Elizabeth Tuttle, Diverta Ritter, Jeanette Hoffman, Spence Dunbar, George Anderson, Martin Born, Jr., Roberte Laciari, Ruth Samuels, Charlotte Marks. We greatly appreciate their interest and co-operation.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT TUESDAY, DECEMBER 30th

JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD

On Wednesday evening, December 3rd, 1924, the regular meeting of the Junior Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew was held, with seven fathers of the boys present. Prayers and lusty singing by the boys and their "dads" helped the meeting greatly. Addresses were made by Mr. J. H. Reed, president of the Junior Assembly; Mr. Frizzell, field secretary of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, on "The Boy and His Dad," and the Rector. Music by Roland Long and Edwin Abele on their educated banjos, assisted by Mr. Reed at the piano was greatly enjoyed.

This meeting helped to bring the boys and their fathers closer together. It gave the fathers an opportunity to meet the friends of their boys and to learn of the work of the Junior Chapter of the Brotherhood.

Rolls and reed birds with hot coffee were consumed in a manner that was no surprise, due to growing young manhood.

The boys with their dads mingled together in the game room, bowling, playing pool and basketball, making this a night of history making for the Memorial Church of St. Paul.

Many thanks are due to Messrs. Skillen and Voss for their culinary abilities.

The Chapter attended the evening service with the Senior Chapter on Sunday, November 30th. St. Andrew's Day.

In the absence of the Rector, Dr. Charles Sladen conducted the service and made a stirring address on St. Andrew which was very helpful to all present.

EVERY MEMBER CANVASS

Church offerings: Resolved, That, it be recommended to all clergymen in charge of parishes to bring their flocks as near as practicable to compliance with the spirit of the Apostolic direction to the Church of Corinth: "Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God has prospered him:" and that to this end the clergy bring the subject especially to the attention of the people some time during the Advent season of each year.—(Standing resolution of the General Convention, Journal of 1879, p. 205).

THE CHURCH YEAR

Christmas, which is an immovable feast, controls the year from Advent Sunday until the stopping of the Sundays after Epiphany by Septuagesima. The rule by which Advent is determined defines the first Sunday as that which comes nearest, whether before or after, to St. Andrew's Day; consequently it must fall between November 26th and December 3rd.

SEE TO IT THAT YOUR PLEDGE CARD IS RETURNED

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

St. Paul's Parish is unusually blessed with a goodly number of young folk. Because we are so blessed and because we want to keep these young people, there has been formed a Young People's Fellowship of St. Paul's. All young people between the ages of sixteen and twenty-four are most cordially welcome. Our aims and purposes are outlined by: Prayer, Worship, Service, and Fellowship.

Every Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in the Parish House we hold a devotional service which is conducted by the members. Hymns, prayers, and a discussion of a religious topic characterize these meetings, that are both inspiring and educational.

"Tis more blessed to give than to receive." Although we are still very young we have made tangible one form of service by packing a Christmas box to be sent to a more unfortunate group.

Fellowship and good-will has been evident at all our meetings. Once every month we hold a business meeting which is followed by a jolly social time.

On November 17th a group of us (fourteen in number) attended the First Annual Convention of the Young People's Fellowship of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, held at St. Mark's Church in Frankford. There we met delegates from many other churches. After a most cordial welcome, a delectable dinner, and an inspiring devotional service (conducted entirely by young people), there followed an interesting business meeting. Our application for admittance to the Diocesan Fellowship was received and favorably voted upon. Seven other churches were admitted at the same time. There followed the election of officers for the coming year and a discussion of the methods used in various Fellowships in the city.

The speaker of the evening, Rev. J. C. Crosson, bubbling over with enthusiasm, as he is, could not fail to be interesting. After such a delightful meeting surely "Fellowship" is an appropriate name for this infant organization.

What will the Fellowship accomplish? Certainly it is not a substitute for church—quite the contrary, it acts as a magnet to attract our young people to service. It does more than this: it teaches them, it discusses with them, and it tries to answer their questions about that unfathomable subject, religion. The training of young people for Christian service that they may be best fitted to take their place as leaders in the church is, by the grace of God, an important, a noble, and a worthy assignment.

DIVERTA RITTER, Secretary.

DORCAS SOCIETY

On November 13th, 14th and 15th the Dorcas Society held their annual rummage sale. The members worked faithfully, some of them being at the store the entire three days.

Postals were sent out to every family in the parish, with return postals addressed to the secretary, thereby getting in touch with every member of the congregation and securing their co-operation. We had a very good response to those cards.

On Monday evening, December 1st, we held our social. After a business meeting, refreshments were served by our committee, and everyone had a good time. We have been requested by the Rector to help fill Christmas stockings during our next two meetings.

Mrs. Reader, the chairman of our apron committee, is working very hard to insure a good supply of aprons, to be sold at our progressive dinner which we are planning to hold in January.

HARRIET J. SKILLEN, Secretary.

ORDER OF SIR GALAHAD

One of the most important events scheduled for the Order of Sir Galahad is the party which will be given to the members of the Order, the first week in January. We will have games, singing, and, best of all, refreshments. The lads, who, by the way, are only youngsters from nine to twelve years of age, look forward to Monday evenings with great anticipation, so that they may be with their chums and have a thoroughly enjoyable time. On December 22nd prizes will be awarded to the boys who have the highest number of points. This event will be the termination of three months' hard work on the part of the boys, who have regularly attended church, Sunday School, and meetings. Good conduct was also a predominating factor in awarding points. William Moore is leading and Thomas Hoffman is second in the contest. Not many parish organizations aim to have so varied a schedule as the Order of Sir Galahad, as the boys have a brief devotional exercise, a business meeting, an educational talk, and gym work all in one evening. As we are desirous of increasing our membership, we would ask that if you know of any boy who would care to join an organization of this kind, please have him come to the Parish House on Monday evenings at 7.30.

GEORGE C. ANDERSON, Director.

SPECIAL MUSIC AT BOTH SERVICES CHRISTMAS DAY

BOY SCOUTS

At the regular meeting on Tuesday, December 16th, St. Paul's Troop 232, Boy Scouts of America, with its Troop Committeemen and officials, was given a large and beautiful veteran flag. The presentation was made by Field Executive Mr. F. Summerfield on behalf of Mr. M. N. Lenham, the donor. The flag was received by our Scoutmaster on behalf of the troop. Our Assistant Scoutmaster, Mr. William Gehbauer, presented Scout Roy Theis a point system badge which he won by fidelity to the Church and troop.

After the order of business was through refreshments were served. The troop is in flourishing condition with several boys on the waiting list.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

The Church Periodical Club wishes to thank all those who contributed to the "rainy day" envelope fund. Part of the money was used to fill Christmas stockings for sick children at the Philadelphia General Hospital and part to send books, games, dolls and post-cards to the missionary fields. We are now trying to furnish a library for tubercular children at the Lucas Cottage, Chestnut Hill. Anyone having children's books not in use, or anyone wishing to donate one or more new books for this cause, may do so through any member of the Club or send them to the Parish House marked "Church Periodical Club." The books are for children up to fifteen years.

MRS. WALTER SCOTT, Librarian.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY

The Senior Friendly held a meeting on Monday evening, December 8th, to meet Mrs. A. B. Hanscom, who has kindly accepted the Rector's invitation to be our branch secretary. In spite of the rain many girls were present and many plans for the new year were discussed.

The work for 1925 will begin with a play and social on Monday evening, January 5th. All girls and their friends over twelve years of age are cordially invited.

We extend a hearty welcome to Mrs. Hanscom and the sincere co-operation of all parish organizations.

HEALTH CLINIC

A mothers' health clinic is held every Wednesday afternoon in the Parish House from 2 to 4.

Instruction is given in the care of infants and children.

This clinic is a part of the work of the Department of Public Health, division of child hygiene.

The nurses are from the First District Station at Twelfth and Carpenter Streets.

A Christmas Vision

Perfect vision—the most price-less of all possessions! KRYPTOK Glasses—the most useful of all gifts for anyone who needs double vision glasses!

KRYPTOKS afford perfect vision to men and women who must remove their reading glasses every time they look at distant objects—or who fuss with two pairs.

KRYPTOK
GLASSES
THE ONLY INVISIBLE BIFOCAL

combine near and far vision in one solid lens.

The wearer sees distant objects as clearly and distinctly as the type on the printed page. KRYPTOKS (pronounced Crip-tok) are entirely free from the disfiguring line, seam or shoulder of old-fashioned bifocals.

Our KRYPTOK Christmas Gift Certificate plan makes it easy for you to present some relative or friend with a pair of KRYPTOK Glasses.

Come in and let us explain it to you.

SPECIAL MUSIC, SUNDAY, JANUARY 25th, 10.30 A. M.

CONFIRMATION

Bishop Beecher, of Western Nebraska, will visit St. Paul's to administer the Apostolic rite of Confirmation on Sunday Morning, March 1st. The service will begin at 10.30.

Confirmation classes are now forming. The Junior Class will meet on Wednesday afternoons in the Parish House at 4 o'clock. The Senior Class will meet on Sunday evenings at 7 o'clock in conjunction with the meeting of the Young People's Service League.

The rector will gladly consult at any time with those who are desirous of attending classes.

THE CONVERSION OF ST. PAUL

The feast of the Conversion of St. Paul falls on a Sunday this year and will be appropriately celebrated in this Parish, named as it is for the great missionary to the Gentiles.

There will be a celebration of Holy Communion in the chapel at 8.00 A. M. Morning prayer and sermon at 10.30, with special music, and evening prayer and sermon at 8 o'clock.

THE CHRISTMAS OFFERING

The members of the Finance Committee of the Vestry appreciate very much the generous response to their appeal for a liberal Christmas offering.

This offering was characterized, as our special offerings usually are, by the number of individuals who were represented. It was the generous outpouring of many hearts rather than the gift of a few.

THE CHRISTMAS DECORATIONS

The Christmas decorations were very beautiful this year and the parish is very grateful to all those who so kindly gave time and thought to this important work.

THE CHRISTMAS MUSIC

It is difficult to adequately express our appreciation to our Choirmaster and Choir for the lovely Christmas music. We all enjoyed it and it makes us very loath indeed to part with the Christmas season.

CONVERSION OF ST. PAUL JANUARY 25th

THE PROGRESSIVE DINNER

Tuesday, February 3rd is the date set for the Progressive Dinner. This is always such a delightful affair that the community is already asking about the details.

It will be served as usual in the Parish House between 6 and 8 P. M.

If you have never attended a Progressive Dinner at St. Paul's you do not know just how interesting and enjoyable a church dinner can be. The entire Parish and their friends should dine with us that evening. The tickets are 75c each and may be had from members of the Dorcas Society.

This amount hardly pays for the delicious food served. It is only because of generous contributions that such a meal is made possible at such a nominal sum.

Contributions of food and money will be welcomed.

HEALTH EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY

On Sunday morning, December 14th, we enjoyed a visit from Dr. James Empringham, superintendent of the Health Educational Society.

Dr. Empringham preached a very interesting and instructive sermon to a large congregation.

So many were interested in this gospel of disease prevention that we are trying to arrange to have Dr. Empringham come to us for two evenings, Tuesday and Wednesday, January 27th and 28th, to more fully tell us of the ideals of the N. H. S. All are welcome to be present at these meetings, which will be held in the Parish House at 8 o'clock.

ALTAR GUILD

The members of the Altar Guild wish to thank all who contributed so generously for the Christmas decorations. The church was indeed beautiful this year and I am sure you were all very happy with the thought that you shared in making it so.

Your attention is invited to the February Flower List, published elsewhere in the "Chronicle." There are two vacant Sundays, February 1st and 8th. If you desire to place the flowers on the altar one of these dates, kindly communicate with the Rector or a member of the Altar Guild.

K. R. JOHNSTON, Secretary.

COMING EVENTS

Tuesday, Jan. 27—Lecture by Dr. James Empringham on "Disease Prevention."
Wednesday, Jan. 28—Lecture by Dr. James Empringham on "Disease Prevention."

PERIODICAL CLUB

The year ending December 31, 1924, shows a marked increase and improvement over previous years for the Church Periodical Club. Interest on the part of many friends and members of the parish enabled this society to render a report 50 per cent. better than last year.

The Librarian of the Club appreciates the response from the "Rainy Day Envelopes." This netted approximately $48 for the society. The Club distributed 593 magazines, books, papers and cards. Candy, dolls and games were sent to the different mission fields and hospitals.

Please send your magazines and books to the Parish House. We need all you can collect for us,—ask your friends for them.

MRS. WALTER SCOTT.

DORCAS SOCIETY

The regular meetings of the Dorcas Society, which were discontinued during the holiday season, have been resumed, and we now settle down to another year of earnest work.

We held our first meeting of the new year on Monday evening, January 5th. We had a very good attendance (considering the inclemency of the weather), and we hope to have as much success this year as we have had in the past. We have enrolled a number of new members during the past year.

During the month of December we sent a box of Christmas gifts to the Misses Kate and Ida Lillegar, former members of St. Paul's, who are at present in Christ Church Hospital.

We also filled a number of Christmas stockings for the children of the Philadelphia Hospital. These stockings contained candy, toys, etc. We also gave a donation to Mrs. Madeline Watt, for the House of Rest.

We have decided to hold our progressive dinner on Tuesday, February 3rd, from 6 to 8 P.M. Come out and enjoy a wonderful dinner at a reasonable price. Tickets: 75 cents.

The election of officers for this year was held January 5th. The following officers were unanimously elected:

President, Mrs. James A. Aikens, Sr.; Vice-President, Miss Clarissa Schofield; Secretary, Mrs. Robert J. Skillen; Treasurer, Mrs. William T. Chase, Jr.

HARRIET J. SKILLEN, Secretary.

CONFIRMATION CLASSES NOW FORMING

THE ORDER OF SIR GALAHAD

Those members of the Order who failed to attend the party on January 5th, certainly did miss a good time. We played games, sang, and after they were over, ate. Mr. Wilcox was there with his many funny stories, which caused a great deal of laughter. This was the first affair of this kind and it is not going to be the last, for we intend to have them from time to time. As a result of extra hard work during the recent contest, William Moore was presented with a book, which was the first prize. Thomas Hoffman was a close second, as he was only five points behind William. He, too, received a book. Alfred Wager was presented with an Eversharp pencil from the rector, being third on the list for the three months' contest. It was encouraging to see how hard the boys tried to gain points. As a result we have a splendid group of boys in the Parish, always willing to do whatever is requested of them. Several members of the Order attended the 5.30 A. M. service Christmas Day. This is proof of the fact that the boys are interested in church and their Sunday school. When you consider that the lads are only nine or ten years of age, it is readily understood how much they sacrificed.

A movement has been organized to equip each member of the Order with a neat little cap. It is of blue color, with the abbreviation St. Paul's in red. Above the abbreviation appears the Sir Galahad cross. We have received orders for over a dozen, and expect to receive another dozen very soon.

GEORGE C. ANDERSON,
Director.

CONVERSION OF ST. PAUL

Special music for conversion of St. Paul Sunday, January 25th, at 10.30 a. m.

Selections from Mendelssohn's St. Paul. Soprano solo, "Jerusalem Thou That Killeth the Prophets." Tenor and bass solos and chorus, "The Conversion." Chorus, "How Lovely are the Messengers."

Jubilate—Schubert. Gloria in Excelsis—Mozart, 12 mass.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SERVICE LEAGUE

After its first launching, the Y. P. S. L. has sailed along on smooth seas. Each Sunday evening finds an enthusiastic band of young people assembled for the regular interesting devotional meeting. You, too, are cordially invited, so please come.

The "Parish Chronicle" is issued the first
Sunday of each month.

All material intended for publication MUST
be in the hands of the Editors by the 20th
of each month, and should be written only
on one side of sheet.

IMPORTANT

This publication is only possible so long
as our friends in the business world give us
their advertisements. Many will do that if they get results. The advertisements cover
many needs of your household and business.
Please look them over carefully, and whenever possible give them your patronage.

"I saw your advertisement in St. Paul's Parish Chronicle"—that counts with the
tradesmen more than you think.

For advertising rates consult the Business Manager.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your
Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following
Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish
to another shall procure from the Rector, if
any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens,
a certificate stating that he or she is a com-
municant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which
reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness
or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted
before arrangements are made for baptisms,
marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt
notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St.
Paul's Parish are asked to send their names
and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the
expenses of the Church.

JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD

The expectations of a number of our boys have come to a culmination and on Sunday morning, January 18th, at 10.30 A. M., thirteen boys were received into full membership by the Junior Chapter, Brotherhood of St. Andrew. After serving three months on probation under the watchful eyes of the rector and director, performing various duties assigned to them in a first-class manner and living up to the requirements of a Junior, it was with pleasure that the rector obligated the boys and gave each a button with the blue St. Andrew cross upon it to wear and show the world that they were pledged to bring boys to "Christ's Kingdom."

The meetings each Wednesday evening have been spiritual and full of enthusiasm, followed with recreation in the game room until 9 P. M.

Each boy who has acquired the button has faithfully performed the work laid out for him to do, and eager to go forward and keep the Junior Chapter of St. Paul's in the foremost ranks of the Brotherhood.

There are several boys on probation who will eventually become members in February and March, making the chapter strong for the year 1925.

Bruce Edkins is acting secretary and filling the position like a veteran and it is hoped that he will take the position permanently.

Candidates are eagerly being sought for by the boys to swell the confirmation class and by all reports they are succeeding.

CAKE SALE AND SUPPER

Mr. Spence Dunbar's class will give a cake sale and supper in the Parish House on Saturday evening, January 24th. Supper served from 5.30 to 7.30. Come and bring the family. Proceeds for the Lenten offering.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

Since we began our meetings in October we have been making new cossocks for the choir.

We are now working on regular auxiliary work: rompers, dresses, shirts, etc., from the Supply Bureau.

Our work is pleasant and interesting. We have added two new members and we would be pleased if more women would join us on Wednesday afternoons in the Parish House.

The first Wednesday of the month and every Wednesday during Lent we sew from 10 until 4, bring our lunch and have coffee, which we pay for. We started a fund with this which we called Lunch Fund, out of this we paid for 5 units in the Memorial Window.

Come and pay us a visit and I feel sure that you will come again.

MRS. HERBERT S. EDKINS,

Secretary.

THE CHRISTMAS PLAY

Santa Claus made his annual appearance on Tuesday, December 30th. In the afternoon he visited the Junior School. After an hour of games, directed by the Junior School teachers, candy was distributed to all.

In the evening Santa brought a large troupe of well-trained helpers. Mrs. Boyle, Dr. and Mrs. Sladen and Miss Schofield had evidently been in communication with Santa for some time and charmed us all with a delightful play called "The Go-Do-It Club Christmas."

SUNDAY SCHOOL NOTES

Like all the other parish organizations, the Sunday school has been moving along steadily and surely.

The new Sunday school teachers have thus far shown splendid co-operation and enthusiasm, which will keep the high standard of St. Paul's before us. The percentage of attendance has been very high.

There has been on the average of three perfect classes every Sunday.

"POLLYANNA"

The Girls' Friendly candidates had the pleasure of having "Pollyanna" and her friends visit them and their friends on Friday evening, November 14th.

Pollyanna was impersonated by Miss Mildred Chapman, a pupil of the Philadelphia School of Expression and Dramatic Art, and her friends, as follows:

Miss Simpson, Tillie B. Sahlet; Miss Fripp, Aleta Smith; Mrs. Huckins, Elizabeth Coyne; Mildred Huckins, Lillian Axe; Uncle Abner, Eldon Smith; Mrs. Carmody, Miss Carroll, Mrs. Gregg, of the Ladies' Aid, G. Dudley Smith, Gladys Faltemayer, Margaret Skinner; Nancy, servant to Miss Polly Harrington, Inez Cunlo; Miss Polly Harrington, Madeleine Ferguson; Sodom, Gomorrah, by themselves; Jummy Bean, an orphan (age fifteen years), Charles Kleeman; John Pendleton, Esq., a bachelor, "The Hermit," William Fater; Bleeker, Pendleton's man, Albert Halliday; Dr. Chilton, Pendleton's friend, Julius Hollander; a chauffeur, John Spelvin.

Pollyanna played her glad game so well that Dr. Chilton was in danger of losing all his patients. Wherever she went she left sunshine behind her, even in places where it had seemed that darkness would always prevail.

I am sure that all who went in feeling a little downhearted came out with light hearts, due to the happy, little glad-girl who unconsciously made hopeless people better.

ANNE COLE.

EMBER DAYS

(December 17th, 19th and 20th). Solemn seasons of prayer for those who are about to receive holy orders, the bishops holding ordinations on the Sunday following these days.

The name ember is derived from the ancient name quatuor tempora, through the German quatember, i.e., they are days in each quarter of the year.

The Anglo-Saxon derivation was Ymbren, a circuit or revolution, but they certainly derived the names from the original Latin designation. They are observed in spring, summer, autumn and winter, namely: The Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday after Quadragesima, called the Lenten Ember Week.

The Feast of Pentecost, called the Whitsun Ember Week.

September 14th. Holy Cross, called the Autumnal Ember Week.

December 13th, S. Lucy, called the Advent Ember Week.

The dates now fixed for those days are said to have been appointed by the Council of Placentia, A.D. 1095.

The use of the Ember Prayer for the Clergy, at the solemn time of their ordination, is most commendable; it is really a carrying out of the thrice-repeated injunction of the Epistles: "Brethren, pray for us" (1 Thess., v. 25; 2 Thess. iii, 1; Heb. xiii, 18).

Nothing expresses more the spirit of the Church than this opportunity given to the laity of praying for their clergy; nothing carries our Church back more pointedly to primitive custom. Indeed, the fasting and praying which accompanied the ordination of "Barnabas and Saul" (Acts xiii, 3) may be taken as the first observance of an Ember season; in fact, prayer always accompanied ordination (cf. Acts vi, 6). We must not centre intercession in the clergy. The clergy will be of little use to the people unless the people pray for them.

One loves what one prays for, and one prays for what one loves.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LENTEN OFFERING

The boys of Class 4 and with the assistance of other classes will give a show entitled "Plantation Melodies" in conjunction with a dance, on the evening of February 6th, 1925, for the benefit of the Easter Lenten Offering.

THE HINDERED CHRIST

"The Lord Christ wanted a tongue one day
To speak a word of cheer
To the heart that was weary and worn and sad.

And weighed with mighty fear.
He asked me for mine, but 'twas busy quite
With my own affairs from morn till night.

The Lord Christ wanted a hand one day
To do a loving deed;
He wanted two feet, on an errand for Him
To run with gladsome speed.
But I had need of my own that day;
To His gentle beseeching I answered, 'Nay!'

So all that day I used my tongue,
My hands and my feet as I chose;
I said some hasty bitter words
That hurt one heart, God knows;
I busied my hands with worthless play,
And my willful feet went a crooked way.

And the dear Lord Christ—was His work
undone

For lack of a willing heart?
Only through men does He speak to men?
Dumb must He be apart?
I do not know, but I wish today
I had let the Lord Christ have His way."

RECTOR'S LETTER

My Dear Friends:

Easter Day was so far beyond my fondest hopes and expectations that I have no words to express my gratitude.

The greatest joy of the day to me was not in the large congregations, the generous offerings, the beautiful flowers, and the wonderful and inspiring music, helpful as they all were, but in the wonderful spirit that was so dominant in all of the services.

It seemed as though the whole parish from the youngest Sunday School scholar to the oldest communicant had caught the real meaning of Easter and was intent on expressing it.

One came away feeling that "surely God was in this place."

STANLEY V. WILCOX.

MR. HILL'S ANNIVERSARY

The Rector, accompanied by a delegation of Vestrymen, attended a reception given by the Warden and Vestrymen of All Saints, Eleventh and Snyder Ave., on Wednesday, April 15th, to their Rector, the Rev. John E. Hill. The reception marked the twentieth anniversary of Mr. Hill's rectorship.

Mr. Hill was the recipient of many beautiful gifts and glowing tributes were paid him by many speakers.

The Vestry of St. Paul's presented Mr. Hill with a hymnal as a token of the love and respect we have for him in this parish.

Mrs. Alex. Wallace
Mrs. A. Brennon
May 10—Mr. Geo. Hughes
May 17—Mrs. Daniel Cohill
Mrs. Ellen Thompson
May 24—Mrs. Wesley Scott
June 7—Mrs. Edgar S. Glenn

The Altar Guild would like to have the vacant Sundays in June filled up. Please see the Rector or any member of the Altar Guild.

EASTER PAGEANT

The beautiful Easter pageant, "The Resurrection," presented by the scholars of the Sunday School on Easter Day and repeated on Low Sunday, was very impressive and taught in a reverent way the story of the first Easter.

Miss Engell and Mr. Cole are to be congratulated as well as every one who took part.

The cast of "The Resurrection" was as follows:

Reader William Tuttle
Pontius Pilate William Prentice
The Centurion Foster Wilkinson
Two Soldiers William Moore, Irvin Twiford
Joseph of Arimathea James Baird
Two High Priests Carroll Baker
Howard Baker
Two Disciples Newell Lenham
Alfred Wager
Three Pharisees Arthur Tuttle
G. William Coyle, Stanley Dever
Mary, the Mother of James Ruth Moody
Two Angels Nancy Wilkinson
Muriel Wilkinson
Salome Eleanor Moore
Mary Magdalene Annette Engell

THE EASTER OFFERING

The offering on Easter Day was over seven hundred dollars, a really magnificent sum when we consider that no special effort was made to raise a large amount, simply the single request of the Rector enclosed with the Easter notices.

This offering was not given by a few but was the gift of the many. Three hundred and twenty-six persons used the little Easter Offering envelope. Two hundred and fifty-eight envelopes had names—sixty-eight were blank. The amounts ranged from five cents to fifty dollars. Everyone seemed to want to do his or her share.

EASTER COMMUNION

The Rector appreciates very much the use of the Easter Communion cards. It is so helpful to look over them after the Easter services are over, to think back over the events of the day, and to have this tangible evidence of your participation in this, the most blessed act of our corporate worship.

Sunday of each month.

All material intended for publication MUST
be in the hands of the Editors by the 20th
of each month, and should be written only
on one side of sheet.

IMPORTANT

This publication is only possible so long
as our friends in the business world give us
their advertisements. Many will do that if they get results. The advertisements cover
many needs of your household and business.
Please look them over carefully, and when-
ever possible give them your patronage.
"I saw your advertisement in St. Paul's

tradesmen more than you think.

For advertising rates consult the Business Manager.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your
Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following
Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish
to another shall procure from the Rector, if
any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens,
a certificate stating that he or she is a com-
municant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which
reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness
or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

WHITSUNDAY, MAY 31st

The Rector should always be consulted
before arrangements are made for baptisms,
marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt
notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St.
Paul's Parish are asked to send their names
and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the
expenses of the Church.

BOY SCOUTS

St. Paul's Troop 232, Boy Scouts of America, gave their Annual Camp Entertainment Tuesday evening, April 28th. As in previous years the show was a great success, and our thanks are due to Mr. Isaiah Little for his activity in presenting a 3 act comedy entitled "The Day Express," the following Scouts taking part:

2—Act—The Lunch Counter at Eatonville.

3—Act—The Terminal.

During the intermission between Acts 1 and 2 Scout Edward Etchells was called to the footlights and was presented by our Scoutmaster, Mr. Craig, with a first aid badge which he won by hard study of first aid work and its requirements.

Scout Roy Theis was honored by a Bouquet of beautiful flowers being presented to him by an unknown friend. Matthew Egger entertained with favorite selections, and the scout quartet rendered scout songs. The movies of Treasure Island were interesting on account of several scouts of Troop 232 being shown in the pictures.

The boys are looking forward with great pleasure to their two weeks' camp on dear old Treasure Island August 1st to 15.

Boy-time's the one time

Of life—you'll find it so—

When every seed of every kind

Is almost sure to grow.

Boy-time's the wise time

To winnow out the rest,

And only sow the seed that bear

The harvest God likes best!

KENNETH CRAIG,
Scoutmaster.

DORCAS SOCIETY

The regular weekly meetings of the Dorcas Society were resumed on April 13th, after being omitted in Holy Week.

The important business of the meetings was the discussion of the Progressive Dinner, which will be given Wednesday, May 20th.

The proceeds of this dinner are for the General Church Fund.

Tickets for this dinner may be obtained from any member of the Dorcas Society.
Thus far, our meetings have been very well attended, and quite a few new members have been enrolled during the winter. We are pleased to report, that some of our members who have been ill, are now fully recovered and able to be about again.

HARRIET J. SKILLEN,
Secretary.

PROGRESSIVE DINNER

We are going to have another enjoyable
Progressive Dinner on Wednesday evening, May 20th.

These dinners are always such happy events and every one seems to enter into the spirit of the occasion.

It has been suggested that parties of eighteen be made up to fill one complete table.

Many of us could get up such a party among our friends, and if they have never attended a progressive dinner they are sure to enjoy the experience.

Tickets are 75c each and may be had from any member of the Dorcas Society.

† †

THE EASTER MUSIC

Mr. Beck and the members of the Choir must have been very happy indeed at Easter time. Our Easter music was never better, and a choir never sang with such spirit and feeling, as did the choir of St. Paul's, at both the early and late services.

The harp and violin accompaniments were greatly enjoyed by those who attended the late service.

TRINITY SUNDAY JUNE 7th, HOLY COMMUNION 10.30. A. M.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Sunday School Lenten Offering was about 1,600 dollars. In the next CHRONICLE we will publish the classes, with the quota assigned and the amount raised. Every class reached its quota and most classes were well over the amount.

Mrs. Wesley Scott's Class won the banner for the largest amount raised over the quota.

The superintendent, officers and teachers of the school are to be congratulated for this splendid offering.

Everyone worked hard and with a splendid co-operative spirit.

† †

THE BAZAAR

This is Bazaar year and plans are now under way for the greatest Bazaar in the history of the parish. Full details in the June CHRONICLE.

On Friday evening, May 1st, St. Paul's Chapter, Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew, was the host to the Junior Assembly on Camp preparation in the Parish House. The meeting opened with prayers and hymns displayed up on the screen and led by John Lord in his usual peppery manner, and followed by the roll call by President Robt. Reed, of the Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

The speaker of the evening, Councilman William Roper and better known as Bill Roper, football coach at Princeton University, gave the boys a splendid talk on athletics and how to prepare the body to meet all contingencies in all walks of life. Mr. Williams explained the wonders of Camp life in the Brotherhood Camps by pictures upon the screen. This was followed by a camp fire with songs and stories, under the leadership of Mr. Williams and topped off with roast wieners and coffee.

The affair was successful, by the way the boys of St. Paul's Chapter did justice to the sandwiches.

THE EASTER FLOWERS

Our sincere thanks are due the Altar Guild for their faithful work at Easter time. The Memorial Easter plants and flowers were very beautiful indeed and helped so much to make our day a blessed one.

DAILY VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

We are very anxious to have a Daily Vacation Bible School this summer and Red Cross Auxiliary No. 58 has pledged its support.

A meeting was held in the Parish House on Friday evening, March 27th, which was addressed by Miss Harriett A. Dunn, secretary for work among foreign born girls, G. F. S. in America. Miss Dunn's lecture, illustrated with many lantern slides, was very instructive.

An entertainment and dance to help finance the venture was given on Friday evening, April 24th, and was very well attended and greatly enjoyed.

The Philadelphia School of Expression and Dramatic Art presented its pupils in the following one act play:

PARISH NOTES

Few can realize what the Easter services meant to some of our parishioners. One of the happiest persons in Church on Easter Day was Mrs. Hannah Glasgow. Two of her sons, former parishioners and choir boys, James W. Glasgow and Thomas A. Glasgow, were home for Easter and came to Communion with their mother.

The sympathy of the parish is extended to Mrs. Robert W. Montgomery and family. Mr. Montgomery, one of our oldest parishioners, passed to "life eternal" during Holy Week.

PARISH NOTES

Mrs. Buzby and family are at present in Miami, Fla. In a letter to the Rector, Mrs. Buzby wishes to be remembered to her many friends in the Parish.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Regular sessions of the Sunday school will start on Sunday, September 20th. This year we are making a radical departure in the time of meeting. Beginning September 20th and continuing thru the year, Sunday school will be held at 9.30 on Sunday mornings instead of the afternoon hour as heretofore.

We are looking forward to an interesting and profitable school year. Every officer, teacher and scholar is urged to be present and on time for the first session of the school on September 20th.

Some of the scholars have made new acquaintances during the summer who do not attend any Sunday school at present. At least two boys have already pledged themselves to bring their new playmates on the 23rd. That is a splendid spirit with which to start the new school year.

SUMMER SERVICES

We are all very deeply indebted to the Rev. Mr. Begean, for his kindness and helpfulness during the Rector's absence.

CONVOCATION BAZAAR

A Bazaar will be given in the Church of the Holy Apostles in November, for the benefit of the Mission of the Transfiguration, (Stonehouse Lane). Parishes in the Convocation of South Philadelphia will take part. Mrs. James Aikens will gladly receive contributions of any kind for St. Paul's booth.

DAILY VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

In spite of the fact that it was a new project at St. Paul's, the D. V. B. S. proved quite successful. Each morning during July the doors were opened to the waiting children who were anxious to participate in the songs, games, stories and prayers that were taught during the sessions. The children were interested and enthusiastic, increasing their numbers from seven (the first day) to an enrollment of 80 with a daily average attendance of 40. The picnic at Smith's Playground created much excitement and joy and the party with (real) ice cream and cake gave many a thrill. At Commencement on July 31st, the handwork was exhibited and the children by songs and dramatics showed their parents what they had gained from attending Daily Vacation Bible School. It was indeed encouraging when one parent after another told us how interested she is in the school and how glad she was to send her child. From small beginnings come great things and next summer we hope to see a D. V. B. S. in every room in the Parish House.

D. M. R.

SIR GALAHAD CAMP

The following boys attended the Sir Galahad Camp at Wrightstown during the period July 27th and August 27th:

Leonard Smith, Emerson Larkin, Claude Garrison, Woodrow Pelter, William Barnett, Samuel Foster, Stanley Dever, George Morelock, Albert Morelock, George Stenz and William Holland. The Camp Directors included Messrs Anderson, Lipke, Locke and the Rector.

Thru the kindness of Mr. Hazlett, trucks were provided to take the boys to and from camp. Leonard Smith, Emerson Larkin, Stanley Dever, George Morelock and William Holland were campers last year. The other boys were attending the Sir Galahad Camp for the first time.

We had ideal camping weather with the exception of one all day and night rain. We had our swimming and hiking that day, just as usual, and in addition we initiated Mr. Lipke into the mysteries of "Up Jenkins."

Albert Morelock and Claude Garrison were the youngest members in camp, but they proved to be excellent campers.

We had no serious accidents and no illness for which we were very thankful. Claude Garrison received a bad bruise when a stone dropped from a bridge, while we were on our all-day hike, but he kept up with the boys all day without complaining.

The all-day hike took us into Newtown and from there to the big spring where we roasted doggies and rested for an hour. After a swim in the Neshaminy we hiked back into Newtown and came into camp by the way of the Doylestown bus. George Morelock left our provisions on the bus and they were carried into Doylestown and returned to us next day. The stew tasted all the better for having had such a long ride.

We had some new and original camp songs and cheers which you will no doubt hear echoing thru the Parish House on our meeting nights.

We are going to plan far ahead for next year's camp and expect to make it bigger and better than ever.

BACK ENVELOPES

Summer being a vacation period, always sees a falling off of receipts from the envelopes altho our monthly expenditures remain about the same. You will help the Accounting Warden over a very trying period if you will pay up all back envelopes as soon as possible.

A RESOLUTION

Resolve now to be regular in your church attendance. The Holy Communion is celebrated every Sunday morning and on Holy Days.

OUR ADVERTISERS

Without the loyal support of the business men who advertise month by month in the "Chronicle," it would be impossible for us to publish the paper every month at the nominal subscription rate that we charge.

Our business manager, Mr. Robert J. Skillen, has devoted fifteen years of earnest effort to the "Chronicle." Thru these years he has kept in constant touch with the business men of the district and it is largely because of the friendship that these years has cemented that so many of these men advertise with us year in and year out. Some men have kept their ads in since the very first number.

Every month five hundred copies of the paper go into homes in the immediate neighborhood. It is, therefore, a good advertising medium for local business houses.

We are convinced of the reliability of these business houses and hope that our subscribers will patronize them whenever possible. We can in this way show our appreciation of their desire to co-operate with us.

Whenever you have an opportunity to do so, speak to these business men about their advertising so that they will know that their ads are read.

THE BAZAAR

We have a great deal of work to accomplish before the Parish Bazaar in December. In the October "Chronicle" the detailed plans for the Bazaar will be published. We need the whole hearted co-operation of every member of the Parish. At the first meeting of the Dorcas Society on September 21st, plans for the various booths and the important subject of quotas will be discussed.

Most of the subscriptions to the "Chronicle" run out in October. Renew your subscription at an early date by sending $1.00 to Mr. Skillen, the ever faithful business manager of the "Chronicle."

† †

CONFIRMATION

Bishop Garland will visit St. Paul's to administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation on Friday evening, February 19, 1926.

Confirmation classes will be formed in December and the Rector will gladly consult with anyone who is interested and seeking information and advice.

Sunday of each month.

All material intended for publication MUST
be in the hands of the Editors by the 20th
of each month, and should be written only
on one side of sheet.

IMPORTANT

This publication is only possible so long
as our friends in the business world give us
their advertisements. Many will do that if they get results. The advertisements cover
many needs of your household and business.
Please look them over carefully, and whenever possible give them your patronage.

"I saw your advertisement in St. Paul's

tradesmen more than you think

For advertising rates consult the Business Manager.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your
Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following
Canon

"A communicant removing from one parish
to another shall procure from the Rector, if
any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens,
a certificate stating that he or she is a com-
municant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which
reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness
or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted
before arrangements are made for baptisms,
marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt
notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St.
Paul's Parish are asked to send their names
and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the
expenses of the Church.

ANNIVERSARY SUNDAY, OCTOBER 11th

RECTOR'S LETTER

Dear Friends:

Sunday, November 1st, is All Saints' Day, the day about which Lowell wrote:

"One feast, of holy days the crest,
I, though no Churchman, love to keep."

Surely if a man who was not a churchman loved this feast we who are churchmen should love it all the more.

There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at the 10.45 service on All Saints' Day at which time the names of the loved ones, who, during the past year have gone to join the great army of those who are about the throne will be read, and our prayers will be offered for them.

This is a day of tender memories for all who have had to bear the sorrow of earthly partings. I am sure that we can be very near to those near and dear to us at His altar on this blessed feast day of the Church.

"How can I cease to pray for thee? Somewhere

In God's great universe thou art today;
Can He not reach thee with His tender care?

Can He not hear me when for thee I pray?

Somewhere thou livest and hast need of Him:

Somewhere thy soul sees higher heights to climb;

And somewhere still there may be valleys dim,

That thou must pass to reach the hills sublime.

Then all the more, because thou canst not hear

Poor human words of blessing, will I pray,
O true, brave heart! God bless thee, where-soe'er

In His great universe thou art today."

Stanley V. Wilcox.

ANNIVERSARY SUNDAY

Sunday, October 11th, is Anniversary Sunday. It will be just twenty-one years on that day since the first service was held on the site of the present church. One year has passed since the dedication of the Memorial Chancel Window and the Lectern. We are celebrating two anniversaries this year, therefore, which should make the day one of great blessedness. The Rev. Royden Keith Yerkes, Ph.D., D.D., Professor in the History of Religions in the Philadelphia Divinity School, will preach at the 10.45 A. M. service. There will be a Corporate Communion of the Parish at the 8.00 A. M. service, and special music at the evening service.

GIRL'S FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The Girls' Friendly Society will hold its first meeting of the autumn on Monday evening, Oct. 5th, at 7.45 P. M. All the girls of the parish are invited to attend, and each girl is urged to bring another girl with her. There will be an interesting program for the work of the winter, and plans will be made for the classes, etc., at this meeting.

On Monday evening, Oct. 12th, each girl is asked to invite her mother or an older woman to attend with her.

We hope to have a good speaker, familiar with the problems of the girl of today, and we most earnestly request a good attendance of both mothers and daughters to hear her message.

Lillian G. Hanscom,

Branch President.

CONFIRMATION

The Christian Church, with her sacraments and ordinances, stands upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief corner-stone. Upon this ground we place the Rite of Confirmation.

That Confirmation was practised by the Apostles, and familiarly spoken of in their writings, can scarcely be doubted by the diligent reader of the New Testament. Let attention be turned, for example, to the planting of the Church in Samaria. Philip the Deacon goes down to that city, and declares to the inhabitants Christ and the Resurrection. The people are struck with the power of His doctrine, and amazed at His miracles. They profess their belief in Jesus, and both men and women are baptized in His Name, and there is great joy throughout the city. But the Apostles, who were at Jerusalem, learn that Samaria has received the Word of God. Upon this information, Peter and John are sent down to them, that by the imposition of their hands, the baptized might receive the Holy Ghost, "for as yet He was fallen upon none of them, only they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Jesus. Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost."—Acts viii. 17. It appears, then, that though the Samaritans were converted and baptized by Philip the Deacon, yet there remained "something for their furtherance in the faith, which Philip, though a minister of Christ, and clothed with miraculous power, could not confer upon them."—Bp. Ravenscroft. From this fact, then, we learn two things: 1st. That it was necessary for these converts to receive "the laying on of hands." 2d. That this could only be performed by the Apostles; and therefore among us, in like manner, it is only administered by the Bishops, who are the direct successors of the Apostles.—Church Calendar.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S S. L.

Monday evening, November 16th, promises to be a very busy time for the Young People of the Parish. The Group Council of the Diocese has accepted our invitation to hold their second annual convention at St. Paul's on that evening. Last year this convention was held at St. Mark's, Frankford, and nearly three hundred delegates were in attendance. We hope to have an equal number this year.

We will begin our fall activities with a social on Friday evening, October 9th, at which time an organization for the coming year will be effected. All young people of the Parish are cordially invited to attend this meeting. Our devotional services will be held as usual on Sunday evenings at 7.15.

JOSEPH H. DARLEY

St. Paul's suffered a great loss in the death of Joseph H. Darley, C. Y., U. S. N. (ret'd.) on Wednesday, October 14th. For three years past Mr. Darley has acted as Parish secretary. It has been truly a labor of love on his part. He was painstaking in his efforts to keep our Parish records in the best possible shape and to see that the proper notices for meetings and services were promptly dispatched. Not a little of any progress that we have made, during the years of his work for us, has been due to his unselfishness and untiring efforts.

The only return that he asked for this great sacrifice of his time and labor was the opportunity to do still more for the Church he loved.

Mr. Darley was a ritualist. As an ardent follower of the Anglo-Catholic movement he loved the full forms and ceremonials advocated by the leaders of that movement. As a young man, in England, he passed through that period when these things were so bitterly contended, for, and against. But Mr. Darley had travelled too much to be a partisan. In his fifty years of naval experience, he visited every nook and corner of the globe. Everywhere he found the Church. He knew the Church intimately, east and west, high and low. His love was the Church, east or west, high or low. In his remarks at our last Parish meeting, Mr. Darley paid a high tribute to the temper of the congregation of this Parish when he said that after so many years of wandering he found here a Church home, a Parish that he could call his Parish, a work to do for the extension of Christ's kingdom, and loving and lasting friendships. May we always prove worthy of his confidence.

The funeral services were held in the Church on Saturday, October 17th. The full choir was present and we sang the hymns so appropriate to such a life. Members of the American Legion, the Spanish War Veterans and other military organizations were present.

The interment was in the sailor's plot at Mount Moriah, and with the full military honors that were his due.

Our loving sympathy is extended to Mrs. Fortune Darley, his widow, and to the members of his family, residing at present in this country and in Canada and England.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Thursday, November 26th is Thanksgiving Day. We will hold our annual service of thanks and praise at 10 A.M. Last year the children of the Sunday School joined with us at this service and made a presentation of foodstuffs, which we sent to the House of Rest for the Aged, a Diocesan Institution for aged women of the Church.

This year we will again invite the children to worship with us at this service and to bring an offering of fruits, vegetables or canned or preserved foods for the House of Rest.

The school will meet at the Parish House at 9:45 A. M. and march into Church with the Choir bearing their offerings. The Rector will make a brief address to the children, and dismiss them before the sermon.

The offering on Thanksgiving Day will be as usual for the work of the Episcopal Hospital. This offering gives us all an opportunity to express our thanks for God's mercies in a tangible form. Surely we all have many things to be truly thankful for. There is a great deal of food for thought in this editorial which appeared in the last issue of the Diocesan News:

"We once heard a minister offer an extempore prayer which contained a thanksgiving so unique in its wording that although all the rest of the prayer has been lost in oblivion this one sentence remains indelibly fixed in memory. He said, 'If we, anticipating evil, have been surprised by good, O Lord, we thank Thee.' How much sweeter a gift that surprises us than one that has lost some of its novelty by being long expected. As a Church, as a Diocese, as individual Churchmen we have many things to be thankful for this Thanksgiving Day. For great progress, for new buildings built and planned, for increased offerings, for peace and unity, our hearts are grateful to our Father in Heaven. But not the least among God's blessings are that some of our Cassandras have proved false prophets, that some apprehensions have been foolish, that many fears have been groundless, and that God has surprised us with unexpected blessings."

DIOCESAN CONVENTION OF THE Y. P. F.

On Monday evening, November 16th, we will entertain the second Diocesan Convention of the Young People's Fellowship. Supper will be served promptly at 6:30.

Representatives from more than twenty-five fellowship groups are expected.

After supper a period has been provided for friendly greetings between fellowships, that we may get to know each other better. This will be followed by the Devotional meeting in the Church to be conducted by the young men of our own fellowship. The business session and the address of the evening, which will be made by the Rev. N. B. Groton, Chairman of the Commission on Young People, will be followed by a general discussion of our work. Our own young people between the ages of fifteen and twenty-five are cordially invited to attend this Convention. Come and see for yourself the wonderful growth of the Young People's movement in the Church, and hear the inspiring reports from all parts of this great Diocese.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Woman's Auxiliary is the Missionary Society of the Parish.

Heretofore, a box was made up and sent to some missionary, sometimes he could use the articles that were sent, other times they were of no value at all.

Under the present system the Missionary writes to Diocesan Headquarters stating his needs, sweaters for the boys, dresses and underclothes for girls, bedding for sick, and he gets exactly what he wants and the sizes needed.

Our part of the work is buying and making these garments, returning them to Headquarters, finished as quickly as we can, so when the call comes, the department can send it to him.

Each auxiliary pays a quota to be used in paying expressage on these boxes.

We need workers and invite every woman in the Parish to join us in this interesting work on Wednesday, at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. H. S. Edkins, Secretary.

WOLF CUBS

This year we are organizing a Wolf Cub Pack in this Parish for boys 10 and 11 years old. Meetings every Friday evening at 7 o'clock. The Pack is divided into three "Sixes," each under the leadership of a "Sixer." These "Sixers" are William Burnett, Thomas Hoffman, and Francis Delosa.

EVERY MEMBER CANVASS

The annual Every Member Canvass will be held this year during the week of November 22nd. This is somewhat earlier than usual but it has been so planned to give time to see that all envelopes are in the hands of subscribers before the sufficient first Sunday in the New Year.

The purposes of the Every Member Canvass are too well known to need much elaboration. Every Communicant of the Parish should be a regular contributor not only to the expenses of the Parish but also to the Missionary work of the Church. At St. Paul's we use the duplex envelope system. The black side of the envelope is for your contribution to Parish expenses. The red side is for your missionary offering.

Our pledges have never yet been sufficient to meet our full Parish budget, or our Missionary apportionment, although we have made great strides toward this end in the last few years. If every member who has a pledge at present would make an earnest effort to increase the amount of the pledge for this coming year, and if those who at present have no pledge could make a pledge, we would come very near to the realization of our hopes.

While on the general subject of pledges and envelopes it may well be said that in general the system has worked splendidly at St. Paul's. The average subscriber is most particular to see that the pledges are paid up in full and this without any attempt on the part of the finance committee to dun anyone for payment. A careful record of all receipts is kept and it is possible to send statements at any time to subscribers who are in arrears and who desire to know the amount of their indebtedness, but general statements are not sent out.

Please think over carefully and prayerfully the matter of your Church offering for the new year and be ready to pledge generously for the Parish and for Missions when you are visited during the week of November 22nd.

DORCAS SOCIETY

On Monday evening, September 21st, the Dorcas Society held the first meeting of the season. We are having a very good attendance and have enrolled some new members.

The principal topic at the meetings is the coming bazaar which will be held on December 3rd, 4th and 5th.

The members are working very industriously for their various tables.

Judging by the numerous activities being planned by our Rector and our President, Mr. Aikens, we may expect a very busy and successful season.

Harriet J. Skillen, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Rally Day in the Sunday School was held on Sunday, November 8th. Two hundred and fifty-five scholars were present. The day began with a Corporate Communion for the officers and teachers. Twenty-one present for this service and remained for breakfast following.

It is our hope that we may have such a Corporate Communion once every month and remain for breakfast together in the Parish House.

The school is making a determined drive for new scholars. Two teams have been formed for a campaign that will close on Sunday, December 13th. We have set for our goal, 300 scholars in attendance. We are not interested in the number on our roll, but in the number present.

Mr. George Anderson is captain of one team and Miss Jean Hoffman of the other.

We are glad to welcome Miss Dorothy Fulwider and a new class of girls.

We hope that the present campaign will be so successful that there will soon be other new teachers and classes, both of girls and boys to welcome.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FELLOWSHIP

The Young People's Fellowship meets every Sunday evening in the Parish House at 7:15. Our meetings, this fall, have been very interesting, indeed. The topics selected have produced some interesting debates and it has been difficult to close the meetings on time. The Young People of the Parish between the ages of fifteen and twenty-five are welcome at these meetings. Come and join in the discussions. If you have a subject that you are particularly interested in, the program committee will gladly confer with you, and if they decide it is suitable to be talked out at one of the meetings a date for its presentation will be set. The time is limited and meetings must begin promptly at 7:15.

† †

BOY SCOUTS

Troop 232 is very fortunate indeed, that Mr. George Starr is now actively interested in the troop and assisting Mr. Craig in every way possible.

Boys desiring to join the troop may see Mr. Craig on Tuesday evenings at 7 o'clock in the Parish House. All applicants must be over 12.

Young boys may join the Wolf Cubs now in charge of Mr. Montgomery.

The Cubs meet every Friday evening at 7 in the Parish House.

ANNIVERSARY SUNDAY

One of the largest congregations of the year was present on Anniversary Sunday, October 11th. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Royden Keith Yerkes, Ph. D., D.D., an inspiring message, hopeful as a Christian message should be, but challenging the reality of much that is called Christianity.

The Anniversary Offering was a very generous one indeed. The Finance Committee of the Vestry is very much gratified by the ready response to the letter of the Accounting Warden. One hundred and fifty of the special offering envelopes were used and the amounts contributed averaged well over one dollar. The accounting Warden wishes that it were possible for him to write a personal acknowledgment to every one who contributed to this special offering. It would be too much of a task, however, inasmuch as the interest was so widespread. He is appreciative, however, for the splendid response to his appeal. His duty is one of great responsibility and it is helpful to know that so many individuals are willing to share this responsibility with him.

SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

Dr. Sladen's class will give a dance in the Parish House on Wednesday evening, November 18th. We hope that we will have the same lovely group of young people as were present at the last dance held in the Parish House. The proceeds are for the class offering.

MEN AND BOYS

Sunday, November 29th, the first Sunday in Advent, is the day for our Annual Corporate Communion of the confirmed men and boys of the Parish. Thousands of Churchmen and boys will receive the Holy Communion at a designated service on that Sunday. Be sure to share in the great blessing that must inevitably come from this great corporate act!

This year the service will be held at the main Altar, with a choir of men and boys. The service will be at 7:30 A. M., and a breakfast will be served in the Parish House following the service. A nominal charge of twenty-five cents will be made for breakfast.

ALTAR GUILD LUNCHEON

The Altar Guild held a very enjoyable luncheon in the Parish House on Tuesday, November 3rd. This is an annual event that is looked forward to each year by many of our neighbors and friends in this community.

STANDING NOTICES

Every one is welcome at all services in the Memorial Church of St. Paul. If you are not a regular attendant elsewhere, make your Church Home with us.

Communicants, coming into the Parish or leaving it, should comply with the following Canon:

"A communicant removing from one parish to another shall procure from the Rector, if any, of the parish of his last residence, or, if there be no Rector, from one of the Wardens, a certificate stating that he or she is a communicant in good standing."

Attention is called to the Rubric before the office for the Visitation of the Sick, which reads:

"When any person is sick, notice shall be given thereof to the minister of the parish."

On due notice being given, the Rector is always ready and desirous to visit those who are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity, and to administer the Holy Communion to such as, by reason of sickness or other infirmity, are prevented from coming to Church.

The Rector should always be consulted before arrangements are made for baptisms, marriages or funerals, at which he is expected to officiate.

Parishioners are asked to send prompt notice of change of residence.

Those who wish to become members of St. Paul's Parish are asked to send their names and addresses to the Rector. The regular weekly envelope system is used to meet the expenses of the Church.

BISHOP-ELECT TO MEXICO IS A PHILADELPHIAN

The Rev. Frank W. Creighton, elected by General Convention as Missionary Bishop to Mexico, entered the ministry from the Sunday School of St. Mark's Church, Frankford Avenue near Unity Street, Philadelphia, where for many years the Creighton family have been communicants.

The Bishop-elect was born in Frankford, December 3, 1879, and was baptized and confirmed in St. Mark's. He is a graduate of the Philadelphia Divinity School and was ordained to the priesthood by Bishop Rhinelander in 1915. Prior to his ordination he served as a Lay Reader in St. Bartholomew's, Wissinoming, when that parish was a Mission of St. Mark's. Subsequent to his ordination he was priest-in-charge of the Redeemer, Andalusia. In 1916 he became rector of St. Andrew's, Albany, N. Y., and in 1923 went to St. Ann's, Brooklyn, as rector, where he was serving when the General Convention elected him to Mexico as Missionary Bishop.

The Rev. "Jack" Hart, in charge of student work at the University of Pennsylvania, was another St. Mark's boy to enter the ministry, and the Rev. William McClelland, formerly rector of St. Luke's, Bustleton.

The new Bishop-elect is related to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fulwider of this Parish.

CHURCH CLUB TO SHOW "MOVIE" OF DIOCESAN ACTIVITIES DECEMBER 17TH

First showing in our own Diocese of the Church Club's motion picture of our Diocesan activities, which met with popular approval at General Convention, will be given in the Ball Room of the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel at the annual dinner of the Church Club on the night of December 17th.

Since its exhibition at New Orleans, a number of additions are being made to the film. More than 5000 feet of actual everyday scenes of Christian Social Service work in virtually all our Diocesan institutions will be projected on the screen, in addition to other outstanding features of Church activities.

The Church Club's aim and purpose is to provide, through the realism of the modern motion picture, opportunity for all our Church people to visualize more clearly the character and scope of work being done by their Church and under Church influences in the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

In deciding to have the first public showing of the film in the Diocese at the annual dinner the Church Club is aiming to utilize the occasion for bringing together for an evening of real fellowship as many of our clergy and Church people in the Diocese as possible.

It has been decided to make it a subscription dinner. Every member of the Church in the Diocese is invited to participate and this includes women as well as men. Subscription for dinner seats has been placed at $3.50 per person. The Churchwoman's Club of the Diocese will co-operate with the Church Club.

Reservations for dinner seats may be made through Mr. Everett Mattix, 1727 Land Title Building, Broad and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia. Make checks payable to Church Club of Philadelphia.

To provide accommodations for women members of the Church who may wish to be present and who may not desire dinner seats the Ball Room galleries will be open. Admission to the galleries will be by ticket only.

CHILDREN'S DAY

Saturday afternoon, December 8th, at 3 o'clock, will start the "Children's Hour," when a children's entertainment will be given to all our children and their friends. (We may have Punch and Judy with us.) Many novelties for sale at the candy and doll tables, and lemonade and peanuts will delight the children. Boys and girls, don't forget the big show on Saturday afternoon.

GROCERIES

You will be greatly surprised at the great assortment of goods offered this year at the grocery table. Here you will find household necessities of every kind. Come and see the specialties we have to offer in dozen lots. You can help yourself and help us by making your week-end purchases at this table. Famous brands for sale in all the staple food-stuffs.

OLD MEMBERS' NIGHT

"We have been exceptionally fortunate at our past bazaars and social functions in having a great number of our old friends who have moved away from the neighborhood assist us in making our affairs a splendid success. We should again like to welcome those faces which we see but seldom to our grand rally on Saturday night, the closing night of our bazaar. Then we hope to be able to announce the complete success of this, our latest and largest undertaking.

CAKE TABLE

Your visit to the bazaar will not be complete unless you take home a cake or pie. All kinds for sale.

THE CANDY TABLE

The bazaar candy table is in the hands of the Girls' Friendly Society. Delicious things to eat. Pretty things to keep. A great variety of assorted candies to fill that sweet tooth. Just the place to buy your Christmas candy or a box for your sweetheart or wife—you know, the old-time home-made candy mother used to make. A number of novelty surprises that will please every one will be offered by our pretty debutantes. Don't miss us! Look for the prettiest booth.

CONTEST ON FOR NEW SCHOLARS IN THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

DRUGS, PERFUMERY, STATIONERY, ETC.

Don't fail to patronize the drug counter. All kinds of perfumes, talcum, face and baby powders, powder puffs, hair nets, shaving creams, tooth pastes and full line of household drugs. Spread the news.

THE BEEFSTEAK DUNGEON

This is an entirely new departure. Here, under the capable management of Bob Hillman. The men will find here a restful haven. Pool and bowling, basket ball, hot dogs and soft drinks. Several surprises in store.

THE RESTAURANT

Good eats will be one of the many features of the coming bazaar. Sandwiches, pie, cake, ice cream and a full course dinner will be served under the able management of our culinary force. Reasonable prices.

Come and take dinner and bring the whole family. We will serve you with delicious food cheaper than you can feed the family at home, and you need not set the table or wash the dishes.

Invite your friends to take dinner with you and attend the vaudeville and movies in the evening.

Good food, attractive surroundings and pretty waitresses.

HANDKERCHIEFS

You will surely want to give some handkerchiefs as Christmas gifts. Come and see our splendid assortment; all at reasonable prices. Some beautiful hand-made handkerchiefs that your friends will appreciate and enjoy receiving.

THE FISH POND

No bazaar could possibly be complete without a real old-fashioned fish pond. We expect to have a very interesting and most unusual one in charge of the candidates' class of the Girls' Friendly Society. The candidates are working hard on all kinds of interesting fish. All you need is a hook and line and the right kind of bait and a good catch is assured. Bring the children and let them fish, and then let down a line yourself. Some one is going to get a real surprise.

DOLLS

It is nearing Christmas and the kiddies like their dollies, so stop around at the doll table while at the bazaar. There will be a fine array of small dolls, large dolls, baby dolls, and mamma dolls, and all kinds of dollies—just the ones you are looking for. The babies are very distinctive because their clothes are all hand-made—you can't miss them.

THE FANCY TABLE

In the very center of things you will find the fancy table. Christmas gifts of the choicest kind may be purchased here. A wonderful display of all kinds of beautiful knitted goods and embroidery.

LEMONADE AND PEANUTS

Finest Jumbo peanuts and home-made lemonade will be offered for sale in large or small quantities. Our lemonade has a city wide reputation. Close to one thousand glasses were sold at our last bazaar.

THE WOOLWORTH'S OF ST. PAUL'S

Shop early and often at the five and ten cent counter. First class household utensils, novelties. Christmas tree trimmings and gifts. Satisfaction assured with every purchase.

THE APRONS

Stop! Look! Buy! For your Christmas gifts, purchase aprons at the apron table. All styles of aprons to be had at this table.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S NIGHT

St. Paul's debs and St. Paul's boys are urged to attend the big rally for the young folks on Friday evening, December 4th at the bazaar. Dancing from 8 to 11.30.

FAMILY DAY

Friday afternoon we hope to have many family buyers do a large part of their weekly shopping at our grocery and cake table, where you will find that the prices will compare favorably with those at the chain stores. The apron table and the fancy articles will hold a large display of household needs and pretty things for your every wish.

MEN'S NIGHT

We are hoping to rally our male members to the colors with some very interesting features on Thursday evening, December 4th. In addition to the regular movie in the auditorium, the game rooms in the basement will have open house to our men visitors, with bowling and basket ball.

OFFERING ON THANKSGIVING DAY FOR EPISCOPAL HOSPITAL.

THE GENERAL CONVENTION

1. The Accumulated Deficit:

At the joint session of the two Houses the treasurer of the National Council reported an accumulated deficit up to the end of 1924 of something over a million dollars and the almost certainty of a large deficit for 1925, making an estimated deficit at the end of 1925 of approximately $1,500,000. That seemed a staggering figure, but under the impulse of a stirring speech by Bishop Manning there is a fair promise that this deficit will be entirely wiped out. Bishop Manning pledged the Diocese of New York to give $250,000 towards this deficit provided the rest of the Church would pledge the balance.

Promises and pledges from the floor were promptly made by the various deputations, in most cases the Bishops being the spokesmen. Bishop Garland promised for the Diocese of Pennsylvania that it would do its full share in this matter, which means a sum of money considerably in excess of $100,000 from this Diocese. By the time the pledges and promises were all in more than $1,400,000 had been so promised, so that we are in a fair way to get rid of this gradually accumulating deficit which has been hanging around the neck of the National Council since its beginning.

2. Program and Budget:

The National Council proposed to the Convention a Budget of $4,500,000 for the year of 1926. Part of that sum was to be met by income from invested funds and from the United Thank Offering which together would amount to approximately $600,000, so that the total amount to be apportioned to the Church in Quotas would be $3,900,000. In that sum was included $440,000 to apply on the deficit. Since the deficit has been presumably taken care of otherwise, that sum comes out and as the United Thank Offering was larger than had been estimated, the total to be apportioned in Quotas came to $3,400,000. It was proposed to the Joint Commission of the two Houses that this be further reduced to $3,100,000 in the belief that we would really meet the full program prepared by the National Council.

But pleas were made for the restoration of the Program and Budget of some items which had been omitted, notably $50,000 for Church colleges. These increases brought the amount of the Budget to be apportioned in Quotas to the sum of $3,500,000, which was the amount approved by the Convention.

On the original basis of $3,900,000 for apportionment among the Dioceses, our own quota for the work of the General Church was $352,000. On the new basis of approximately $3,500,000 our Quota will be about $315,000. While that is a reduction of $37,000, it is still a great deal more than we have ever raised and will require on our part concerted and consecrated effort if we are to meet the sum the Church asks and expects of us.

Revision of the Prayer Book occupied a considerable time of the Convention. Of the new men elected to serve on the National Council, Mr. Samuel F. Houston, of our own Diocese, was one of the number chosen for the six-year term.

In the election of the Rt. Rev. John Gardner Murray, Bishop of Maryland, as the new Presiding Bishop of the Church, a brief sketch of whom appears in this issue, the Convention was evidently influenced by his excellent record as an administrator and executive and the outstanding spiritual leadership which has been a distinguishing feature throughout his ministry as Priest and Bishop.

NITA LIVEZEY ASPEN

Nita Livezey Aspen, one of the most faithful and devoted communicants of St. Paul's, died suddenly on Wednesday, July 14. As Nita Livezey, Mrs. Aspen was known to nearly everyone connected with the parish since its very beginning. For many years she was the capable and faithful organist of the Sunday School and a leader in all of the school activities. The funeral was held on Saturday, July 17.

The sympathy of the entire parish is extended to her husband and to Mr. and Mrs. Livezey and their children.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

All departments of the Sunday School will reopen on Sunday, September 19. Sessions are at 9.30 A. M.

The need for religious training was never greater, and we hope that all members of St. Paul's will co-operate in this important branch of our parish life.

† †

AUGUST SERVICES

We are very grateful, indeed, to the Rev. C. B. Williams for his splendid administration of the parish during August.

DORCAS SOCIETY

Regular meetings of the Dorcas Society will be resumed on Monday evening, September 20, at 8 P. M. All women of the parish are cordially invited to meet with the Dorcas and take a part in their activities.

JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD

The "B" chapter of the Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew, in charge of Mr. Martin Born, director, left the Parish House on Monday, August 2, for a week's encampment at Ewer's Mills, Pa.

Through the kindly co-operation of the Rev. William Sharp, of Prince of Peace Chapel, arrangements were made for the Juniors to camp with the boys of Holy Trinity Parish.

Fortunately, we chose a week of good, clear weather, and the week at camp passed all too quickly.

The annual hike was taken on Thursday, August 5. The boys were divided into two groups. The first group, in charge of the Rector, started twenty minutes before the second group, in charge of Mr. Born. The destination was unknown to the second group, and their only clue some meagre sign at cross-roads.

The destination finally decided on was our old camping ground at Worthington's Mills, near the beginning of the Walking Purchase. The chase went merrily on until, after many miles of clue chasing and fast walking, Mr. Born's group caught group No. 1 within a short mile of the old covered bridge at the Mills. After lunch and a swim at the Cliffs, we began the long journey back. This was much harder going, and it was a very tired group that limped into the general store at Furlong for an ice cream and soda before the last long mile into camp.

Everyone had a good time. Mr. Born lost his appetite for a time, but it soon returned when the first mail arrived. Bill Holland and Emerson Larkin were disappointed because we had no "K. P." work to do. Teddie and Bill Huet found that even a nickel's worth of candy will go a long way if no more is to be had. Junior Wilcox, the Rector's nephew, learned to swim with waterwings, but he could not find them when the crew of the pirate craft was thrown overboard.

George Stenz and John Simmons had a wonderful time at the big dam. They liked the diving board.

Whitey Burnett has gotten through two camps now without eating butter. He much prefers jam.

Woodrow Pelter and Babe Hiehle always enjoy camp because they are so completely equipped. Babe had a searchlight and Woodrow a camera.

After a ride to Rushland in Pesky's hay wagon, the Juniors decided that next year we will go to camp in the Rector's new car.

+ +

TROOP 232, B. S. A.

During the summer we have had several week-end camping trips to the different Scout camps maintained by the Philadelphia headquarters.

Good times and real camping were in order on each trip, and each fellow in the troop asks, "When do we go again?"

We have been fortunate in securing the services of Mr. John L. Warren as our Assistant Scoutmaster, and look forward to some real advancement in Scoutcraft, as Mr. Warren is an expert in first-aid work and will be available to all members of the troop for instruction and practice.

The troop will meet on Saturday evenings, 7.30 to 9.30, beginning September 11, and any boy 12 years or over desiring to become a Scout should see one of the troop officers at that time.

We have room in the troop for twenty boys, and "first come, first served," so "a word to the wise is sufficient."

GEO. Y. STARR, Scoutmaster.

PARISH NOTES

The Rector received a very interesting card from Bill Tuttle, written from Newfoundland. Bill spent part of his vacation on a boat carrying newsprint from a Canadian mill to Baltimore and Norfolk.

George Cranston has matriculated at William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va., and will soon be in attendance there for the winter and spring terms.

Leonard Smith spent an interesting and helpful two weeks at the Junior Camp at Kelton, Pa.

We are glad to welcome Mr. John L. Warren, our new Assistant Scoutmaster.

Two accidental deaths caused much sorrow in the Parish this summer. Our deepest sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. George Blatz and to Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Brooks.

CAPE MAY

A group of sixteen from St. Paul's spent a very enjoyable week at the Girls' Friendly Holiday House at Cape May.

The group was in charge of Mrs. Frederic Stevenson, assisted by Mrs. Wilcox, Mrs. Hughes and Miss Virginia Glenn.

THE DAILY VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Nearly everyone knows that the Daily Vacation Bible School has been recognized as an organization worthy of support by every advanced and progressive parish. St. Paul's has proved itself anxious and willing to promote this splendid organization by carrying on the school work begun last summer.

When the school first opened on the sixth of July there was only a mere handful of children present. But by the end of the session on July 20, the average attendance was 43, with 60 children on roll. The boys, strange to say, outnumbered the girls. Many of the children came every day, and everyone can recall that the July rains made up for the showers we escaped in April.

The kindergarten class was conducted by Miss Clara McCarter. The Juniors had for their leader Miss Georgianna Worrall. When Bible lessons were learned and verses memorized, Miss Octavia Livezey took the boys to the gymnasium. There they learned a drill which they performed on Commencement night. While the boys enjoyed themselves in the gymnasium, the girls scampered up to Miss Schofield for sewing lessons. As a result, each girl made a lovely dress. They were proudly exhibited at the closing exercises.

One morning at 9 o'clock a big truck stopped at the school. In a few minutes nearly every child in the school (teachers included) was comfortably seated, and the driver took us to Smith's Playground. Needless to say, the children were thrilled. Every one had a perfect day—the sun was present, too.

At the close of school the collection was sent to Bishop Garland for the campaign for the institutions of our diocese. It was the first contribution from children. Bishop Garland sent his thanks and blessing to our children, especially for their prayers.

May all the little children return next year—but not alone. Bring another child with you.

GEORGIANNA D. WORRALL.

SUMMER PROGRAM

Our summer program this year, including the Daily Vacation Bible School, the Girls' Friendly Outing at Cape May, the Wolf Cubs' Camp at Pitman, the Junior Brotherhood Camp at Ewer's Mills, and the sending of boys to the Brotherhood Camps, was greatly helped by contributions to the Rector from Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Froziers, Jr., the Altar Guild, Rev. Walter C. Pugh, Mrs. Bayley, Rev. Charles Eder, Rev. Wood Stewart, Mr. Charles J. Wister, Mrs. T. Foster, Rev. C. J. Harriman, Camp Bonsall, Mrs. W. W. Cardwell, St. Martin's-in-the-Field and Mrs. Frederic Stevenson.

BRING AT LEAST ONE NEW SCHOLAR

We are very grateful, indeed, to all those who so kindly helped to make this summer work among the boys and girls in this community possible.

WOLF CUBS' CAMP

The Wolf Cubs, under the leadership of Mr. Montgomery, left the Parish House for a week's encampment at Alycon Lake, Pitman, N. J., on Monday morning, July 19. Fortunately, we chose a week of sunshine, and although most of the boys were attending their first camp and had to be initiated into the O-Wha's and other mystic camp rites, they seemed to have a thoroughly good time.

The party included Roy Pelletreau, George Conn, Claude Garrison, Albert Anderson, Buster Markley, Mr. Montgomery and Mr. Wilcox.

As usual, everyone wanted to be "K. P.," but George Conn finally drew the permanent assignment. George usually began to wash the dishes verbally before the meal started, and by the time it was over he had some one talked into doing them for him.

Roy Pelletreau was disappointed in the initiations. Mr. Montgomery was too kind-hearted and did not hit hard enough at first. However, he was going strong about the fifth degree.

Claude Garrison won the diving championship, although Albert Anderson stayed down so long we thought he had found a hole in the lake and gone through to China.

Buster Markley stayed up all night the first night to see the O-Wha-Ta-Soc. He never did see it, as the night it flew into camp he was blindfolded.

"Wait till next year," we all said as the tent was furled for the last time. "I'm coming; ain't you, Claude?"

SUNDAY SCHOOL 9.30 A. M.

RECTOR'S LETTER

DEAR FRIENDS:

Our regular schedule of services will be resumed on

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 19TH

as follows:

7.30 A. M.-HOLY COMMUNION

9.30 A. M.-SUNDAY SCHOOL

10.45 A. M.-MORNING PRAYER AND SERMON

8.00 P. M.-EVENING PRAYER AND SERMON

The increase in the number of those who came regularly to Church last year was a great inspiration. In a day and generation, that has made it so easy to observe the Christian Holy Day as a pagan holiday, it is gratifying indeed to find so large a group of people, in this community, who of their own free will regularly attend the services of the Church, and partake of her Sacraments.

The number of Communicants in this Parish who are not regular in their attendance is comparatively small. Some of this group I know, cannot possibly attend regularly, others, I am sure, could easily do so if they would.

The resumption of services for another year, the fifth year of my ministry at St. Paul's, affords me an opportunity to bring this important matter to your attention.

If you are one of those who do not attend services regularly, and our numbers are not so great but that I know you, and miss you, and want you, won't you begin again to come to Church. I promise you that here, in our meeting together for divine worship, and in the Blessed Sacrament of His Body and Blood, you shall find renewed strength; comfort in times of affliction; joy that knows no ending; and the peace that the world cannot give.

Faithfully your Rector,

STANLEY V. WILCOX.

THE BISHOP'S CRUSADE

To Every Member of the Church

The National Commission on Evangelism was created in 1925 by General Convention in response to a widespread appeal from all parts of the Church for a new emphasis upon the value and necessity of incorporating personal evangelism in the life of the membership of the Church.

The testimony received by the Commission evidences afresh the world's need of a real and vital religion—a need which the Church can best meet by pressing the high claims of evangelism, that is, recognizing in a more emphatic way the saving of the world through a living Christ.

The Commission strongly feels that this must not be merely an ephemeral movement, and again that it shall not be characterized by an elaboration of details or the setting up of complicated machinery.

After prayerful consideration the Commission sets forth the following as indicating the purpose and objective of the approaching effort throughout the whole Church, the initial step of which is the Bishop's Crusade. A Call to Rededication to Jesus Christ in Life and Service, by

1. Confession of Christ openly before men as Lord and Saviour. "Not only with our lips, but in our lives."
2. Regular daily individual and family prayer. "Lord, teach us to pray."
3. Understanding better the mind of Christ through daily Bible reading. "That I may know Him and the power of His resurrection."
4. Seeking strength and service through worship and sacrament. "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."
5. Active service by every member of the Church. "Laborers together with God."
6. Developing a deeper sense of individual responsibility for bringing others to Christ. "He first findeth his own brother . . . He brought him to Jesus."
7. Earnest effort to combat worldliness by more consistent practice of the Christian life. "What do ye more than others?"

CONFIRMATION CLASSES NOW FORMING

CANDIDATES

The candidates of the Girls' Friendly Society hold their meetings on Friday at 4 o'clock. All girls under 14 years of age are welcome to come and join our Society.

Every Friday in November we rehearsed for the Circus, which was held December 3, 1926. Miss Clara McCarter had charge of the smaller children for the Circus and Octavia Livzey, the older girls.

Miss Leuthy and Miss Dornheim made the suits for the older girls.

Although we have been rehearsing for the Circus it has not interfered with our other work.

Mrs. Johnson, our leader, received a letter asking us take care of three little girls in the mountains, which we did. The children brought toys and money, and stockings were filled and sent.

We were then called upon to take care of three more children, which we gladly did.

Since the Circus we have continued our regular work. Every Friday, at 4 o'clock, the meeting begins. The hymns and the prayers are then said by the President, Miss Dorothy Moore and the children; the minutes read by the Secretary, and the dues collected.

Come and join us.

VIRGINIA HAINES,

Secretary.

JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD CHAPTER A

At the first meeting of the new year, held on Wednesday evening, January 5th, the following officers were elected:

Director—Fred Samuels.

Vice Director—Charles Fulwider.

Secretary and Treasurer—Wm. Pelletreau.

New members were received on probation, as follows:

Carl Wurzbach B. Samuels and R. McNeil.

A motion was carried to attend the meeting to be held in the interest of the Bishop's Crusade at St. Stephen's Church, on January 14th.

The basketball team continues to win and is having a difficult time to secure games with teams of equal age and weight.

A great deal of interest is centered at present in the Pre-Lenten Play to be given by the Brotherhood Class for our Lenten Offering. Also the Class Supper on February 12th.

THE CHRISTMAS OFFERING

The Christmas Offering to date amounts in round figures to $2,350.00, and we have many reasons to believe that the final amount will reach $2,500.00. When we realize that over $12,000.00 was subscribed by members of the Parish, during December, to the Bishop's Campaign, it is very evident that the spirit of self sacrifice and stewardship is present in a very real way in the hearts of many communicants of this Parish.

CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENTS

The Sunday School Christmas Entertainments held on Holy Innocents, December 28th, were greatly enjoyed by the members of the school and their parents and friends.

Punch and Judy came with Santa Claus to entertain the Junior School in the afternoon. In the evening a crowded auditorium listened with keen enjoyment to a very tuneful and extremely beautiful Christmas operetta.

The staging was most effective and the plot most interesting and enjoyable.

Mr. Boyle and the members of the cast were complimented by all at the conclusion of the performance.

It was the closing event of a very, very happy and blessed Christmas.

THE CHRISTMAS SERVICES

The Christmas Services were more beautiful than ever before and were attended by large congregations. We are all very grateful to those who gave so willingly of their time to make these beautiful services possible. Everyone enjoyed the wonderful Christmas music. We are fortunate, indeed, to have such a splendid choir.

The Altar Guild, as usual, took charge of the Church decorations. The Junior Brotherhood and other members of the congregation helped with this work.

The Sunday School Carol Service, held on Sunday morning, December 26th, was featured by the announcement made by Mr. Boyle that the $5,000 fund for a Rectory, started some years ago as a Sunday School activity, was entirely completed.

CHURCH SIGN

A very beautiful sign, designed and executed by Mr. C. E. Cole, has been presented to the Church through the generosity of Mrs. James M. Hazlett, Miss Laura Henzler, and the members of the Altar Guild. The sign was erected just before Christmas at the entrance on Fifteenth Street.

Mrs. M. Crean also donated.

DORCAS SOCIETY

The regular meetings of the Dorcas Society were discontinued during the holidays, as has been our custom in past years. We resumed our work on Monday evening, January 3rd, and hope for a good attendance in order that the Society may begin the new year with a strong following and a determination to do better things for St. Paul's than ever before.

I need not enumerate the many activities in which we have engaged during the past year, as our Treasurer has already made a full report, printed elsewhere in the CHRONICLE.

On Monday evening, January 10th, we held an election of officers. Those who served last year were unanimously re-elected, namely:

President, Mrs. James A. Aikens; Vice President, Miss Clarissa Schofield; Secretary, Mrs. Robert J. Skillen; Treasurer, Mrs. W. T. Chase, Jr.

After the business of the evening was transacted we repaired to the dining room and partook of a very dainty repast prepared by our efficient Entertainment Committee, Mrs. George Blatz, Mrs. Pelter and Mrs. F. Fulwider.

We had as our guests on this occasion, our Rector, Rev. Stanley V. Wilcox, and Mrs. Wilcox.

COLLECT OF THE BISHOP'S CRUSADE

O Lord, we beseech Thee, send Thy blessings on the Bishop's Crusade undertaken in Thy Name. Fill all leaders and workers with Thy Holy Spirit that they may speak their message with burning zeal, touching the hearts of all hearers and bringing them to true repentance and the consecration of their lives to Thy service, that Thy Gospel may be spread and Thy Kingdom enlarged, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The Girls' Friendly Society have been holding their meetings every Monday evening at 8 o'clock. At the opening of each meeting the Girls' Friendly prayer is said, the minutes read and approved and the roll called.

For six weeks we rehearsed for the entertainment which was held December 3, 1926, and which was quite a success. All the girls who were in it did very well.

We are now going to fill stockings for the Episcopal Hospital and the poor children.

Girls 14 years old and over are very welcome to come at 8 o'clock every Monday evening. We would like to get enough girls who know how to play basketball to form a basketball team so that we can have a few games before Lent.

KATHRYN BOGGS,
Secretary.

MISSION AT ST. PAUL'S

A Two-Day Mission, a part of the Bishop's Crusade, will be held in St. Paul's Church, Thursday and Friday, January 27th and 28th. The services will be as follows:

7.00 A. M.—Holy Communion.

3.00 P. M.—Service and Conference.

8.00 P. M.—Mission Service and Sermon.

The Mission will be conducted by the Rev. George Davidson, D.D., of Los Angeles, Calif., assisted by the Rev. L. N. Caley, D.D., of St. Martin's, Oak Lane.

The following Parishes and Missions will participate:

All Saints', Moyamensing.

Gloria Dei.

Holy Apostles'.

Holy Comforter Memorial.

Holy Communion.

L'Emmanuello.

Prince of Peace.

St. Elizabeth's.

St. John, the Evangelist.

St. Mary's Pro-Cathedral.

LOOK UP YOUR SUBSCRIPTION TO THE PARISH CHRONICLE

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

Last October, the Woman's United Thank Offering of the Parish was only $22.00; seventeen boxes were returned. Sixty boxes had been distributed through the Parish and this amount is quite small when compared with our first Thank Offering of $51.00.

We have many women and girls who have manifold and great mercies for which to offer gifts of thanksgiving. Why not do this through the Woman's United Thank Offering, our most wonderful channel for prayer and gifts and joyful service?

This coming year let us try and have our ingathering doubled, so keep the little blue box in a prominent place so that it is at hand when you wish to express your thanks in tangible form. It contains your gift to God.

With the cordial thought of each and every woman and girl of the Parish, I leave you the message of the Angel:

"And must I be giving again and again?"
"Oh no," said the Angel, piercing me through;

"Just give till the Master stops giving you."

MRS. JOHN AIKENS, Treasurer.

ORDER OF SIR GALAHAD

With a steady increase of membership and a constant attendance of those enrolled, St. Paul's Court, Order of Sir Galahad, is fast becoming one of the largest, if not the largest organization in our Parish. There is an intense rivalry among the boys in the computation of points, which are credited to each individual according to conduct and activities. The boy who has acquired the largest number of points will be awarded, on January 26th, a solid gold membership pin.

Wednesday evenings, between 7.30 and 9.00 o'clock, have become bee-hives in point of action. Mr. Walter Wooding has organized a basketball team and the ability of the youngsters is surprising. Each meeting different games are played, including dodge ball, tug-of-war, and volley ball.

As a result of the regular election, the following boys were chosen officers, whose duties are to conduct the business meetings.

President, Samuel Foster; Vice President, Robert Wooding; Secretary, Nathan Markle.

January 26th, the meeting will be supervised by a party given in the Parish House. New party games and singing will be the program, after which refreshments will be served.

It is our intention and aim to make the Sir Galahad meetings both recreational and educational, and we welcome any boy who desires to become acquainted with the organization: remembering, that the age limit is 9 to 12 years.

GEORGE C. ANDERSON,
Director.

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB

The Church Periodical Club, through the aid of the Rainy Day envelopes and donations received, was able to send books, magazines and cards, also to take care of 44 children and seven adults from three institutions for Christmas. The following letters show the appreciation of our work. Do not forget to send us all books, magazines and picture post cards you do not need.

MRS. W. SCOTT.

Dear Mrs. Scott:

I am most grateful for the Christmas stockings which St. Paul's branch of the Church Periodical Club furnished to the Kindergarten Class of St. John's Church School (Rumanian).

The stockings were so bright and attractive and were so well filled that it was a joy to hand them out. I wish all of your members who helped to prepare the stockings could have seen the happiness of the children—you would be rejoiced and repaid for all your efforts.

The tags on the stockings indicating "girl" or "boy" were so pretty and helpful in giving out the stockings, and the two Christmas cards with kindly messages were a sweet thought.

With most sincere thanks, I am.

Cordially yours,
MAY HELEN LOMAN,
Director.

CONFIRMATION

On Sunday, March 6, First Sunday in Lent, the Rt. Rev. Julius W. Atwood, D.D., Bishop of Arizona (retired), will visit St. Paul's to administer the apostolic rite of Confirmation. The service will be at 10.45 A. M. Bishop Atwood will preach.

The rector began his active ministry under Bishop Atwood at Globe and Miami, Arizona.

THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

extends a special invitation to the women of the parish to meet with them on Wednesdays during the Lenten season and assist with the sewing. We are sure you would enjoy the work. Wednesdays during Lent from 10 to 4.

MARY V. HAZLETT, President.

ORDER OF SIR GALAHAD

Although summer months are far away, nevertheless the Order of Sir Galahad is again preparing for their camp period. It is the intention of the court officers to have two camp periods this year, and although definite plans concerning location and time have not been formulated, we have inaugurated a camp saving fund, whereby each member deposits 15 cents a week, so that when summer arrives each boy will have the sufficient funds to enable him to go to camp. During the month of January a party was given to the members in the Parish House and proved a successful event. Claud Garrison received the signal honor of winning the gold membership pin, for recognition of his individual accomplishments for the first half of the year.

We feel that the purpose of the organization has been accomplished and a permanent club formed for the youngsters of the parish, which we are confident is the best medium for getting them associated with church interests and activities.

SPECIAL WEDNESDAY NIGHT ADDRESSES

The subject for the Wednesday night addresses to be given by the Rector during Lent will be an "Outline of the History of the Church," from the time of the Apostles to the Reformation.

We hope the young people will volunteer again for the Lenten choir.

TROOP 232, BOY SCOUTS

The Troop is progressing, but not as fast as it could. The only reason is that the readers of The Parish Chronicle are not responding as they should. Since last month there have been recruited only five boys, four of them are from the Sunday school.

The boys are trying their hardest to get recruits, but they find it a very hard task. It was a hard task because the parents think that Scouting has no real value. When you deposit money in the bank you expect to get interest in the form of money. But your son in Scouting three hours a week and the interest you receive will not be in the form of money but in a finer, better son, a son to be proud of.

So much for the parents. A boy might well ask himself this question: "What benefit do I get if I become a Scout?" If there is no one to counsel him he would certainly not see the good, but let him ask that question to a former Scout and the answer would be totally different. A Scout learns to love his country, his flag, his home as he never has before. A Scout learns to be a better citizen, a man looked up to in his community. A Scout learns how to preserve life and order. A Scout learns the ways of the woods, he learns how to be kind to dumb animals. Furthermore he learns how to conduct himself in any emergency.

Boys have no excuse for not joining immediately. The meeting night has been changed to Friday night, giving you a very much better chance. So don't forget, boys, join as soon as you can.

And don't forget that the meeting starts at 7.30 o'clock at Fifteenth and Porter streets.

Scribe ANTHONY FUFFA.

ASH WEDNESDAY, MARCH 2nd—HOLY COMMUNION 7.30 & 10 A. M.

RECTOR'S LETTER

Dear Friends:

Ash Wednesday (March 2d) calls us to the beginning of another Lent. Most of us have been making serious preparations for its observance I am sure. That it may be a helpful Lent for all of us we should begin with a very clear and definite objective.

Now the simple purpose of Lent is this: forty days of concentrated effort to lift the whole of our life to a higher plane.

We are all conscious of the fact that we need this very thing—a higher level of life—the higher level that we are seeking to reach is the level of the life lived by Jesus Christ.

The life which Jesus lived was made possible by a surrender of self; entire submission to the will of God.

His life was lived not independent of God but in co-operation with God.

God's will was revealed to Him in prayer, which is communication with God.

He found in prayer the solution of every problem. He prayed constantly, sometimes alone, sometimes with other men.

A definite Lenten objective therefore would be the serious attempt to lift our lives to a higher level, to live more nearly as God would have us live.

To aid us the church offers a definite program of worship, study and work. The church calls us to an intensive period of prayer. The church offers to pray with us and for us. It is an opportunity that should not be regarded lightly.

STANLEY V. WILCOX.

A LENTEN PRAYER

O Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, Grant unto thy people in this their time of reconsecration to the cause of Christ thy tender blessing; Pardon the sins which have corrupted us in our day of prosperity, our self-indulgence and our love of pleasure; our covetousness and love of money; our waste of thy gifts, and deafness to thy calls, and our unwillingness to seek first thy kingdom and righteousness. Help us more and more to seek the good of thy Church before private gain, and by sacrifice and mutual service to contribute our best for the evangelization of the world. Have mercy upon us and turn our hearts to Thee. Grant us a great spiritual awakening that we may seek thy grace and blessing in prayer, in worship, in sacrament, and in righteousness of life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Make some specific, definite object your duty during this Lent. Let it not be a "negative Lent," but a positive Lent; something definitely undertaken and done; something unselfish, something constructive to the bringing in of the Kingdom of God and His Christ!

WEEK-DAY COMMUNIONS

The week-day Communion services during Lent have been arranged for the convenience of all.

Every Friday at 7.30 A. M. for those employed and those in school.

Every Wednesday at 10 for members of the Woman's Auxiliary and for all others who can attend at that hour.

ASH WEDNESDAY

Begin Lent aright! On Ash Wednesday there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 7.30 A. M. Before going to your duties of the day—your business, your school, your household duties—"come apart for awhile with God"; begin this Lenten season aright by dedication of yourself, your soul and body, to God and by receiving the Blessed Sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ! Begin aright!

There will be a later celebration at 10 A. M.

BOY SCOUTS

Media, Pa., February 12, 1927.

Dear Mr. Wilcox:

It is with a great degree of reluctance that I accept your decision in regards to my connection with Troop 232.

It is very much harder than I had anticipated to leave the troop, and I assure you that I only do so because it is the command of my superior officer, for "A Scout is Obedient."

I thank you for the kind words of appreciation as voiced in your recent letter, and I shall always look back to my days in "232" as the happiest I have spent in Scouting.

Much credit is due to you, Mr. Wilcox, for your splendid co-operation at all times, and I again repeat that it is indeed extremely hard for me to say good-bye to you and the boys.

I trust that my successor will continue on the solid rock of Scouting and not have his attention diverted from the main issue, i.e., proper advancement for each boy in the troop.

Yours very truly,

GEORGE Y. STARR.

HISTORY RECORDS

History now records that Oliver Cromwell was proud to have been jeered at school for a dunce.

George Washington never learned how to spell some of the simplest words. James A. Garfield was once called a "good for nothing" canal boatman, and Grant constantly stood at the foot of his class at West Point. Andrew Johnson, it is said, was unable to write his own name at eighteen, yet they all climbed to heights of fame.

LENT AND THE BISHOP'S CRUSADE

STRIVE FOR THESE OBJECTIVES THIS LENT

1. Confession of Christ openly before men as Lord and Saviour. "Not only with our lips, but in our lives."
2. Regular daily individual and family prayer. "Lord, teach us to pray."
3. Understanding better the mind of Christ through daily Bible reading. "That I may know him and the power of His resurrection,"
4. Seeking strength and service through worship and sacrament. "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."
5. Active service by every member of the Church. "Laborers together with God."
6. Developing a deeper sense of individual responsibility for bringing others to Christ.
*"He first findeth his own brother
He brought him to Jesus."*
7. Earnest to combat worldliness by more consistent practice of the Christian life. "What do ye more than others."

G. F. S. DINNER

APRIL 30th

Early in the year, the G. F. S. made the announcement that one of their objects this year would be to try to raise a sufficient sum of money to insure the candidates their annual trip to Cape May. For the last three years we have been able to send at least fourteen little girls down for a week each summer. And we hope you will all help us this year to make such a trip possible for them again.

On Saturday, the thirtieth of April, we are going to give a dinner, combined with a little Bazaar and Cake Sale, and we hope that you will all come and dine with us, as the summer plans for the candidate are entirely dependent on your cooperation with us in our effort to raise the necessary funds for their trip.

SEND YOUR BOY TO CAMP BONSALL THIS SUMMER

EASTER CAROL SERVICE

PROCESSIONAL—"Come, Ye Faithful, Raise the Strain"

Come, ye faithful, raise the strain
Of triumphant gladness;
God hath brought His Israel
Into joy from sadness;
Loosed from Pharaoh's bitter yoke
Jacob's sons and daughters;
Led them with unmoistened foot
Through the Red Sea waters.

2 'Tis the spring of souls today;
Christ hath burst His prison,
And from three days' sleep in death
As a sun hath risen:
All the winter of our sins,
Long and dark, is flying
From His light, to Whom we give Laud and praise undying.

3 Now the Queen of seasons, bright
With the day of splendor,
With the royal feast of feasts,
Comes its joy to render;
Comes to glad Jerusalem,
Who with true affection
Welcomes in unwearied strains
Jesus' resurrection.

4 Neither might the gates of death,
Nor the tomb's dark portal,
Nor the watchers, nor the seal,
Hold Thee as a mortal:
But today amidst Thine own
Thou didst stand, bestowing
That Thy peace which evermore Passeth human knowing.

OPENING SENTENCES

Psalm 111. Confitebor tibi.

1 I will give thanks unto the Lord with my whole heart: secretly among the faithful, and in the congregation.

2 The works of the Lord are great: sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

3 His work is worthy to be praised and had in honour: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

4 The merciful and gracious Lord hath so done his marvelous works: that they ought to be had in remembrance.

CAROL—"A Fair White Tulip"

Sung by the Children in the Beginners' Department

LESSON—St. Mark 16:1-8.

CAROL—"The Bells Are Ringing Joyfully"

The bells are ringing joyfully,
Their music fills the air,
While from the world our steps we turn
And seek the House of Prayer.
O Easter bells! glad Easter bells!
Our purest gifts we bring,
And while our hearts with rapture swell,
A risen Lord we sing.

The bells are ringing joyfully,
And, as we walk today,
Behold the loving Saviour comes,
To meet us on the way.
O Easter bells, etc.

CREED AND PRAYERS

5 He hath given meat unto them that fear him: he shall ever be mindful of his covenant.

6 He hath showed his people the power of his works: that he may give them the heritage of the heathen.

7 The works of his hands are verity and judgment: all his commandments are true.

8 They stand fast for ever and ever: and are done in truth and equity.

9 He sent redemption unto his people: he hath commanded his covenant for ever: holy and reverend is his Name.

The bells are ringing joyfully.

They ring from year to year.

But, as the Easter time comes round,
They seem to us most dear.

O Easter bells, etc.

The bells are ringing joyfully,

The earth is filled with flowers,

The risen Lord in mercy crowns
These sinful hearts of ours.

O Easter bells, etc.

EASTER CAROL SERVICE

CAROL—"Easter Flowers Are Blooming Bright" (Junior School)

Easter flowers are blooming bright,
Easter skies pour radiant light;
Christ our Lord is risen.
Glory in the highest.

Angels caroled this sweet lay,
When in manger rude He lay;
Now once more cast grief away.
Glory in the highest.

He, then born to grief and pain,
Now to glory born again,
Calleth forth our gladdest strain,
Glory in the highest.

As He riseth, rise we, too,
Tune we heart and voice anew,
Offering homage glad and true,
Glory in the highest. Amen.

CAROL—" 'Tis Easter Day"

Sink to thy rest, oh, silent starlight night: Rejoice and go thy peaceful way.
Angels are waiting for the morning light, the holy light of Easter Day.
Angels around the sepulchre abide, waiting for dawn to roll the stone aside.
Then to proclaim to God's domain so wide, 'tis Easter Day, 'tis Easter Day, 'tis Easter Day, 'tis Easter Day.

Slowly the light of day dispels the gloom; the eastern sky foretells the morn.
And golden rays shine on the empty tomb, the victory is won, 'tis dawn,
Then joyously while morning yet is young, angelic hosts to hymns of praise give tongue.
At last the Resurrection song is sung, 'Tis Easter Day, 'tis Easter Day, 'tis Easter Day, 'tis Easter Day.

ADDRESS

CAROL—"Ye Happy Bells of Easter Day"

Ye happy bells of Easter Day!
Ring, ring your joy
Through earth and sky:
Ye ring a glorious word.
The notes that swell in gladness tell
The rising of the Lord!

Ye carol-bells of Easter Day!
The teeming earth
That saw His birth
When lying 'neath the sword,
Upspringeth now in joy, to show
The rising of the Lord!

Ye glory-bells of Easter Day!
The hills that rise
Against the skies,
Re-echo with the word—
The victor-breath that conquers death,
The rising of the Lord!

Ye victor-bells of Easter Day!
The thorny crown
He layeth down:
Ring! ring! with strong accord—
The mighty strain of love and pain,
The rising of the Lord!

DOXOLOGY

CLOSING PRAYERS AND BENEDICTION

RECESSIONAL—"Jesus Christ Is Risen Today"

Jesus Christ is risen today,
Our triumphant holy day,
Who did once upon the cross
Suffer to redeem our loss.
Alleluia!

2 Hymns of praise then let us sing
Unto Christ, our heavenly King,
Who endured the cross and grave,
Sinners to redeem and save.
Alleluia!

3 But the pains which He endured,
Our salvation have procured;
Now above the sky He's King,
Where the angels ever sing.
Alleluia!

4 Sing we to our God above
Praise eternal as His love;
Praise Him, all ye heavenly host,
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost;
Alleluia!

PRESENTATION OF THE LENTEN OFFERING

The National Celebration of the Jubilee of the Lenten Offering is to be held in Philadelphia on Whitsunday, June 5, 1927, at 3.30 P. M., in the Academy of Music.

BROTHERHOOD CLASS

The Brotherhood Class wishes to extend their thanks to all those who so kindly helped them with their Rummage Sale. Many members of the Parish made contributions of articles and others helped us in our marketing of the goods collected.

BE SURE AND MAKE YOUR LENTEN OFFERING GENEROUS

The Easter Hiding-place

'But Him they saw not.'—St. Luke xxiv, 24

'But Him they saw not!'—Though an angel said,

'He is alive! Why seek Him with the dead?'
Yet love bereaved could only feel its loss,
And shaken faith see naught beyond the Cross!

I sought the First and Last and Living One,
This morning at the rising of the son,
And where the Easter lights and lilies shine,
I found the Altar and the Bread and Wine!

But Him I saw not!—Yet with joyful lay,
I sing my Alleluias all the day!
How should I see with mortal sight His Face,
When He is in His Easter hiding-place?

That hiding-place where He will ever stay,
Till heaven's glad Easter ends earth's Lenten way,

Nor even then through endless days depart,
For He will still be hidden in my heart!

SUMMER CAMPS FOR BOYS

Camp Bonsall, for Episcopal Church boys in this part of the country, will operate this year on the following schedule:

Leadership Training Conference for Older Boys—June 28th to July 9th.

Younger Boys' Period—July 11th to July 23rd.

Woodcraft League of the Church of the Saviour—July 25th to August 6th.

Kensington Lighthouse Boys' Club Period—August 8th to September 5th.

The location is near Kelton, Chester County, Pennsylvania.

Interested parties please apply to the Rector for further information or write direct to 202 South 19th Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

PALM SUNDAY SERVICES

The Palm Sunday services were splendidly attended this year and all who came were helped and inspired by the beautiful music.

In addition to the special music at the morning service, the choir sang Stainer's "Crucifixion" in the evening. We are very fortunate indeed to have such a talented choir, and a choir so faithful and devoted.

PARISH FINANCES

The end of June marks the close of the first six months of the parish year. It will be of interest to all to know that we reach this date with every bill paid except one—our bill for coal. The amount we had reserved for this indebtedness had to be taken to pay our insurance premiums. These premiums are necessarily large because of the size and value of our property, and are due every five years. You will be glad to know that they are paid.

It is necessary for the Finance Committee of your Vestry to make a special appeal at this time so that our bill for coal may be liquidated. We need, in round figures, $1,550.00.

Every communicant will receive a note asking for a generous contribution toward this indebtedness. It would please your committee greatly if the entire amount could be paid before the Rector goes away for his vacation. We know that it would be a great relief to him to clear off this single outstanding account.

It would also help with our summer finances if all envelope subscribers would pay up their pledges to date. Our income for July and August is usually greatly reduced, while our obligations are more or less fixed.

Your committee is grateful to you for your kind co-operation and your generous response to every appeal they have made.

COMING EVENTS

July 16—Choir Picnic.

July 18—Sir Galahad Camp.

August 1—Junior Brotherhood Camp.

CATHEDRAL SITE SERVICES

To Rectors and Ministers in Charge of Congregations:

May I direct your attention to, and count upon your interest in, the arrangements which have been made to hold two open air services on the new Cathedral grounds, Manatawna and Ridge Avenues, Upper Roxborough?

The first of these services will be Sunday afternoon, June 26, at 3.30 (daylight saving time), at which I will officiate and make an address.

On Sunday afternoon, July 3, at 3.30 (daylight saving time), the second service will be held, at which Archdeacon Bullitt will officiate and make the address.

Faithfully yours,

THOMAS J. GARLAND,

Bishop of Pennsylvania.

How to Reach Cathedral Site for June 26 and July 3

By Auto—Make for Ridge Avenue and keep on that avenue until at Manatawna Avenue you see signs pointing direction to take on Manatawna Avenue. Manatawna Avenue begins the 8900 block on the Ridge.

By Trolley—Philadelphia Rapid Transit car route 61 on Ridge Avenue; change from P. R. T. car at foot of Wissahickon Hill, just after crossing Wissahickon Creek. Take Barren Hill car at top of Wissahickon Hill and get off at Manatawna Avenue.

CAMP BONSAI

The men of the Senior Chapter of the Brotherhood will attend a two-day conference for men and boys at Camp Bonsai, located at Kelton, Pa., on Saturday and Sunday, July 9 and 10. They will travel by motor cars over fifty miles of the beautiful Chester Valley. Those who will go and who are anxiously looking forward to this trip are: Messrs. C. R. Ritter, M. Hodgson, Frank W. Livezey, Walter Wooding, Frederick Blatz, Martin L. Born and E. F. Gillin, Director.

Y. P. F.

The third year of our Y. P. F. closed with the Sunday evening service on Whitsunday, June 5. This has been a very successful movement in the parish and has already made a place for itself in the general parish life. The officers of the society, who were most faithful and efficient in the conduct of its affairs during the year, are to be most highly congratulated.

The last social event of the society for the year, which was given jointly with the Y. P. F. of All Saints, was a very successful dance held on Friday, May 27.

Early in the fall plans for next year's work will be announced.

EWER'S MILLS

The Junior Chapter of the Brotherhood will go to camp at Ewer's Mills, Pa., on Saturday, July 30. The camp at Ewer's Mills is operated by the Parish of Holy Trinity, Philadelphia, and we appreciate the co-operation of Dr. Tomkins and of the clergy of the Chapel of the Prince of Peace, Rev. Joseph Morris and Rev. William Sharp, for making this trip possible.

The group will be under the leadership and direction of Mr. Martin Born.

WORTHINGTON'S MILLS

The boys of the Order of Sir Galahad will go to camp on Monday, July 18, for a two weeks' period. The camp will be located at Worthington's Mills, near Wrightstown, Pa., and will be under the direction and leadership of Messrs. Walter Wooding and Fred Blatz. The following boys are registered to date:

Albert Anderson, George Conn, Norman Evans, Claude Garrison, Willard Haines, James Hogan, Samuel Foster, Richard Morse, Hugh McNeill, Roy Pelletreau, Earl Prickett, James Schaeffer, Joseph Schaeffer, Robert Wooding, David Tupper, Edward Fleming, Paul Weissburg.

The following boys are also eligible: Frank Livezey, Nathan Markle, George Hunter, Earl Lane, James Lane.

THE PITMAN CAMP

The A. O. O. P. group are in camp again for the summer at Pitman, N. J.

We appreciate very much indeed the kindness of our good friend, Mr. Hartley, who is always so willing to help us with our summer camps.

We hope to have an interesting story of camp activities in the next CHRONICLE.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

Another year of Sunday School activity closed on Sunday, June 19, with closing exercises, promotions and announcing of awards at the 10.45 A. M. service in church.

This marks the close of the second year of the morning school. It has taken us some time to settle down into the routine of a morning school, and it has not always been encouraging for those in charge. Tardiness and irregular attendance on the part of both teachers and scholars is always discouraging and never helpful to the school morale. These features, which we rightfully looked for in making such a drastic change, we are gradually overcoming, and we hope to begin our school work in the fall with a splendid group of enthusiastic teachers and scholars, pledged to promptness and regularity.

The whole question of religious education is prominently before the general public today. Much has been said and much has been written on the subject. Those who are most interested in our school have made by far the greatest contribution. While others have been talking and writing, they have been actively engaged in doing something. That their efforts have not been in vain is attested to by the following reports:

ANNIVERSARY SUNDAY

Sunday, October 9th, marks the twenty-third anniversary of the beginning of services on the site of the present church.

An old mansion then stood on this property which was reconstructed for the holding of religious services. The first service was held on the nineteenth Sunday after Trinity, October 9, 1904. Seventeen persons were present. In less than three years' time, that is on May 31, 1907, when the present church was consecrated, the number of communicants increased to 197. Our growth has been gradual but steady until today we have 516 communicants.

The anniversary services will be featured this year by special music at both morning and evening services and a great rally day for old and new members of the Sunday School.

Meetings will be held regularly every Monday evening and you are most welcome to come and help with our activities

SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Sunday School will begin its 24th year on Sunday morning, Sept. 18 at 9.30, with Mr. Thomas T. Boyle as superintendent, and Dr. Charles T. Sladen as assistant superintendent.

This service also marks the beginning of the third year of our morning school.

Attendance records for June, 1927, were very encouraging indeed and lead us to believe that the morning school is now thoroughly established.

The Sunday School is without question one of the most important of all of our Parish activities and it should have the united support of the whole Parish.

There are many communicants of St. Paul's who could and should help in the religious training of the boys and girls in this community. They are equipped to do this work by their training, by their talents, and by the example of their lives.

The opportunities to help are many and varied, as most of our Parish organizations are really extensions of our Sunday School system.

Those in charge of the Sunday School are deeply interested, enthusiastic and successful, and our school is well above the average.

We realize, therefore, our opportunities to do still greater work, and we want to share these privileges with you.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NOTES

We would gladly welcome some additions to our Sunday School orchestra this year. If you play a cornet, violin, trombone or saxophone, please come on Sunday mornings and help.

Miss Johnson, one of our faithful teachers, is in Paris at present attending the Legion convention. She will return about Dec. 1.

Miss Grace Montgomery, assistant secretary of the Sunday School, was married in St. Paul's on Aug. 9 to Mr. Wm. Wiley, Jr.

SIR GALAHAD CAMP

The pleasure of camping at the Sir Galahad Camp was accepted by 15 lads. The camp, situated in the most beautiful section of Bucks County, near Wrightstown, Pa., will be a place long remembered. There were two camp periods, the first from July 18 to 23. The following boys were present during the first period: Albert Anderson, George Conn, Claud Garrison, Willard Haines, Samuel Foster, Richard Morse, Hugh McNeil, Roy Pelletreau, Earl Prickett, Robert Wooding and Earl Lane. The following week, July 25 to July 30, the camp was occupied by Albert Anderson, James Schaffer, Jos. Schaffer, Robert Wooding, David Tupper and James Lane. Through the courtesy of Congressman Hazlett, the boys of the first period, with their equipment, were transported to camp in a truck. For the second period Captain Wooding supplied us with a truck.

Swimming, games, fishing, hiking and then some, easily consumed the time so quickly that the period expired before the boys realized it. All of the boys were honored by having the ten degrees of the O-Wah Secret Camp Society. The degree team, consisting of Sirs Wilcox, Pussey, Dietz and Woody, exemplified the ritual to perfection, leaving a very lasting impression upon those who received the degree. Sirs Pussey and Wooding became very proficient in administering the degrees to the candidates, who were well prepared by Sirs Wilcox and Dietz. The O-Wata-Sock degree was impressably received. Excellent weather was enjoyed by both periods.

Albert Anderson and Robert Wooding received the fish hook for catching the most fish. Tupper and Lane won the gravy bowl for eating the most.

Much credit and praise is due Walter Wooding, who directed the camp without a mishap. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dietz, Mrs. Delaney and Mr. and Mrs. Pussey, residents of Worthington's Mills, were most unselfish in their contribution to the enjoyment of all present. Mr. Wilcox was the general representative of the secret societies and ably assisted the director in executing the schedule as mentioned above. Truly a wonderful camp success.

THE CHOIR PICNIC

The summer outing of the choir on Saturday, July 16th, was held as usual at Lenape Park in Delaware County.

We went down by bus, through most beautiful country and were greeted by an ideal July day.

One accident marred somewhat an otherwise perfectly happy day. Dr. Randall Skillen stepped on a broken bottle which had been thrown into the water by some thoughtless bather and received a very dangerous cut on the sole of his foot. Members of the choir were equal to the emergency and Messrs. Hodgson, Koch and Anderson landed him safely in a West Chester Hospital, where he spent the night. Because of the prompt and painstaking attention, Dr. Skillen made a very speedy recovery and was able to accompany his regiment to camp in August.

SENIOR CHAPTER BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW

Members of the Senior Chapter composed of Messrs. Walter Wooding, Martin Born, Frank W. Livezey, Sr., Harry E. Hodgson and Eugene F. Gillin, director, attended a three-day conference at Camp Bonsall, Kelten, Pa., on Saturday and Sunday, July 9 and 10.

While the weather was wet it did not dampen the ardor of about 150 men and young men, who entered into the services as provided, with keen attention and as a result came home with a better understanding of Brotherhood ideas and what is expected from every chapter.

Semi-Monthly Meetings

The Senior Chapter will hold its first fall meeting in the Parish House on Tuesday evening, September 27, when business of importance pertaining to chapter work will be taken up. Men and young men of the Parish are cordially welcome to attend this and any meeting of the chapter.

JUNIOR BROTHERHOOD

Four members of the Advanced Chapter of the Junior Brotherhood, accompanied by the Rector, spent a very enjoyable two weeks at Camp Carelton, the Junior Brotherhood Camp in the Allegheny State Park near Red House, Catasauqua Co., New York.

Those who went were Fred Samuels, Director, William Pelletreau, Secretary, Gilbert Moore and Edwin Abele.

We left the church on Sunday, June 26, in the Rector's car. It was a beautiful trip and we greatly enjoyed the ride through Montgomery County, making our first stop at the historic Lutheran Church at Trappe, Pa. They were holding services in the old church and it was so crowded that we could not even get in the door.

We spent the night in a little village called New Buffalo on the famous Susquehanna Trail.

Leaving early on Monday morning, we paused long enough just after passing Sunbury to say good morning by phone to Cort Montgomery, at Allenwood, Pa., on the west side of the river.

Arriving in Williamsport somewhat ahead of our schedule, two members of the group decided to go into camp with a new hair cut. This move proved disastrous to Bill Pelletreau. It seems they have two varieties of hair cuts in Williamsport—urban and rural. Bill failed to specify and came out of the shop a perfect stranger.

We continued on the trail until we came to the Roosevelt Trail running east and west across northern Pennsylvania. We covered mile after mile of this wonderful road through most beautiful country, arriving at Bradford, Pa., with but one mishap. Like all carefully planned expeditions, we had pilots, navigators, etc., to care for various details. Coming into Bradford over the mountains the pilots and navigators disagreed and, like Byrd in the America, we made a complete circle to the left and what should have been the house-tops of Bradford turned out to be some oil derricks. Net loss—one hour and some conversation.

It was dark when we reached Salamanca but we were very fortunate in finding our way into camp.

We felt the change in the temperature immediately and four or five blankets made little or no impression.

On Tuesday the camp began to get under way under the inspiring leadership of Rev. John Irwin, ably assisted by Charles Sykes.

The days went all too quickly and the last day of camp soon arrived with the farewell banquet as the last camp assembly.

At the banquet the awards to the chapters and to the campers were announced. This is one of the most impressive features of the Brotherhood Camps. We were all pleased when Chapter One, led by Joe Clark, won the cup. Joe's chapter and Fred's formed the odd assembly and the rivalry, while keen, was friendly.

Of the two gold chevrons given out in the camp, Eddie Abele won one. Gil Moore and Bill Pelletreau each won blue chevrons, and all won numerous medals for supremacy in sports. Fred, being a leader, was not permitted to compete.

Immediately after the banquet we left for a hurried trip to Niagara Falls. Then a dash across New York State to Binghamton, where we took the Lackawanna Trail through Scranton, Pa., to Delaware Water Gap. It was just a short run then to Philadelphia—and a good night's rest.

We all got a great deal from our camp experience and we hope to begin a new year of Brotherhood activities with renewed inspiration.

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY

The following members of the Girls' Friendly Society spent a very enjoyable week this summer at the Girls' Friendly Holiday House at Cape May, N. J.

Leola Sacker
Margaret Cole
Dorothy Moore
Evelyn Moore
Lillian Baltz
Catharine Cornelius
Anna Chisolm
Alberta Weisburg
Agnes Weisburg
Marie Weisburg
Mary Simmons
Alice Boggs
Helen Smith
Mary Trevania Wilcox
Miss Schofield
Mrs. Wilcox

Everyone came back greatly benefited for the lovely week at the shore and all are eager to go again, perhaps for a longer stay next year.

This trip was made possible by the little Bazaar and Cake Sale given by the girls last April, by generous contributions from individuals, and by a gift from the Altar Guild.

23rd ANNIVERSARY, OCTOBER 9th

PARISH NOTES

Walter Wooding, assistant scoutmaster and assistant director of the Order of Sir Galahad, is attending an army and navy preparatory school this winter in Annapolis, Md.

He will be greatly missed in these and other Parish organizations.

Miss Kathryn Johnson and Miss Isabelle Rosenfelt, faithful members of the choir, are in Paris at present attending the American Legion convention. They are members of the Yeoman F. Post, No. 50.

The Rev. John E. Hill and Mrs. Hill sailed from England on the Aurania on Sept. 6, after an extended tour of European countries.

One of the magicians who will take part in the "Evening of Mystery" to be given in the Parish House on Friday evening, Oct. 14, is a member of the Parish, Mr. James Shannon, 2706 S. Cleveland Ave.

MINSTRELS AND VAUDEVILLE JUVENILE

An added feature to the Bazaar to be held on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 17, 18 and 19, will be the Juvenile production of minstrels and vaudeville, both boys and girls (ages about 12 years), something never attempted before in St. Paul's. Our good friends John Chambers and Mrs. Edna Braggs will tutor the children, and from all previous affairs of this kind they have proven a large success.

The members who have charge of this special feature of the Bazaar are: Messrs. John Chambers, Eugene F. Gillin, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and Louis Beck, choir-master.

Tickets will cost 15 cents and are sold in addition to the attendance ticket at the door.

Preparations are now being made for this affair that no member or friend of St. Paul's should miss attending or seeing, and everybody is urged to procure tickets, so that this Bazaar will be the largest in our history.

ORDER OF SIR GALAHAD

The regular meetings of Order of Sir Galahad will begin Wednesday, September 28th, at 7.30 P. M. in the Parish House. Meetings will be held every Wednesday evening thereafter. Interesting plans have been completed for the coming year and it is our desire that every boy who was a member last year be present at the opening meeting night. The Sir Galahad Order is for boys between the ages of 9 and 12, therefore, if you have a boy who has become 9 since last year we extend to him the privilege of membership in the Order.

GEORGE C. ANDERSON, Director.
